World's Fair Makes Debut; Size Of First Day Crowd Closely Guarded Mystery

NEW YORK (AP)—New York's $20,000,000 World's Fair, which took three years to build, is here at last.

The greatest international exposition in history—two square miles of Long Island embracing 200 gleaming buildings, 50 miles of roads and 35,000 employees—opened its gates yesterday to several hundred thousand visitors.

President Roosevelt headed a 300-member program of inaugural ceremonies, coming down from a high plane to proclaim the Fair to be a token of America's spirit of friendship and peace toward all the world.

The site of the first-day crowd was closely guarded mystery. A spokesman for the "Temple of Religion" by leaders of several faiths.

They followed a parade down the Mall with 25,000 announced participants—army, navy, machine police, fair workers and foreign guests in an eye-filling array of "colored" costumes.

After the President's address and speeches by Governor Wilson, the Fair's 100,000-year-old chief, Mayor LaGuardia, and Governor Herbert Lehman, the throng of visitors scattered throughout the grounds.

The throng gave everything from the biggest locomotive in the world to the smallest hat in the world. They saw bread, cigars and auto tires manufactured and auto tires assembled.

One of the most popular attractions was the "Throne Center," the "Fly and Perimeter"—a 700-foot needle-like pyramid headed at 90-degree angles, the largest globe ever built by man. Within the sphere spectators get on an endless loop and see in four minutes the imprinted life of the future.

The excitement, which included the bulk of the Fair's activities, was absent, because they were crowded throughout the amusement area, (all) was unaccompanied principal seating feature being a two-block, and now in hour money the imprinted life of the future.

COMBING THE TOWN

Zoning Hearing Set

Developing changes in zoning ordinance for the Town of Mamaroneck incorporated area will be submitted to a public hearing in the Weaver Street firehouse auditorium on the evening of June 6. It was decided by the Town Board last night.

The Zoning Board of Appeals has been at work for several months, revising the zoning ordinance to do away, mainly, with present unclassified property and classify such areas.

The Board also decided that June 7 it will pass a resolution directing a referendum on the purchase of aerial apparatus for the fire department in the Town. Only unincorporated residents will vote in the election, which will be held within 20 days after the resolution has been passed.

Only Once A Month

The Board will meet but once a month during the summer, it has decided. Its May meeting was held last night. One meeting on the first Wednesday of each month will be held during June, July and August. It has been the custom, however, to meet more often.

Town Installs 'Zoo'

A steel abut and wire partition has been installed around the Receiver's office in the Town of Mamaroneck.

The office was formerly open to the public and was "haunted" by a man who had been arrested for a "mean street" case.

Henry R. Dillon, receiver of taxes, has given a name to the "zoo" and has had it named "Zoo."

Outstripping Strip

Vincent Murphy, town administrator of the New York World's Fair, speaking before the Mamaroneck Inter-Club Council last night at the Orietta Beach Club, described some of the national and entertaining features of the Fair.

"And before I conclude," he concluded, "let me say that we won't have anything but a dance act in a hall about at the Chicago Fair in 1934."

"We can outstrip Chicago in anything," he said.

Without changing his serious expression, Mr. Murphy started to laugh and applaud.

Guests 'Thrilled'

First three persons to take advantage of the Mamaroneck town's Bureau accommodations for the World's Fair were "thrilled" at their stay here, said J. Harold Kelly, district and general manager for the Bureau today.

The party consisted of Mrs. E. W. Kelly, Mrs. Kelly's daughter, a principal, with his little nephew, they stayed in the building through yesterday, at a Larchmont townhouse visited by New York City and the Fair.

Mr. Kelly thinks it would be a good idea if local residents give a warm greeting to visitors, who may be identified by their labels saying "Guest of Mamaroneck." It would not be baneful, he said, if residents stopped motorists on the street to welcome them.

First inquiry to come in today was from Alberta, Canada.

V. F. W. To Celebrate

More than 150 persons are expected to attend the 35th anniversary dinner-dance to be given by the V. F. W. Post No. 1106, Veterans of Foreign Wars, it was announced today by Commander James Amoruso.

The dance will be given in the Mamaroneck townhouse at the Boston Post Road and Orietta Avenue, Saturday night. Reservations may be made through the committee, which is headed by Frank J. Knight.

Power Puzzled Over Removal Of Litvinoff As Foreign Minister

BULLETIN

RIGA, LATVIA (AP)—Latvia and Estonia were reported in informed circles today to have given a favorable answer to Adolf Hitler's proposition of non-aggression pacts with Germany.

BERLIN—A diplomat with intimate knowledge of German situation expressed the conviction today that the tone of Polish Foreign Minister Joseph Beck's speech tomorrow would decide whether war with Germany for the time being or whether Adolf Hitler would take almost immediate action against Poland.

Beck is moderate and leaves the door open for negotiations between Germany and Poland, the diplomat said. However, the possibility of war once more will have been banished.

Results of British-French efforts to bring Soviet Russia into a new coalition of nations are still in doubt by the sudden resignation of Maxim Litvinoff as Soviet foreign minister.

British officials professed to have no indication yet of the nature of the reply to Hitler. Joseph Beck's address to the Reichstag tomorrow, the official position was that Britain was retaining from "one word of unqualified approval" of Litvinoff's resignation.

Town Board Seeks To Avoid Purchase Of Additional Strip Of Land

A survey of the probable cost of re-locating the proposed Mamaroneck-Larchmont joint garbage incinerator on its site to avoid purchasing additional land or building a retaining wall is being made by Henry W. Taylor, consulting engineer, at the request of the Mamaroneck town Board.

Some months ago the Town and Larchmont purchased the site, for $14,000, near Byron Place and the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway tracks. Mr. Taylor was employed as consulting engineer to draw plans and specifications for the $130,000 plant.

The Board then asked Mr. Taylor to make a "rough estimate" as to what it would cost to relocate the plant on an existing strip of property of the building of the ramp and retaining wall.

It is expected to report "with in a few days," Supervisor McCulloch said.

"It is the feeling of the Board," he said, "that if the plant can be located on the strip of property of the building of the ramp and retaining wall, it will not only eliminate the purchase of property, but also save the cost of the retaining wall."

LITIGATION URGED TO TEST VALIDITY OF SCHOOL BUDGET

Adoption At Annual Meeting Held 'Improper And Undoubtedly Illegal'

RAYNOR CALLS FOR TEST

Larchmont Attorney Cites Law In Letter To Board Of Education

Litigation to test the validity of the adoption of the Mamaroneck Larchmont school district budget last Tuesday night will be suggested by Orin A. Raynor, of 38 Edgewood Avenue, Larchmont, attorney at law, to the Taxpayers League of Larchmont and Mamaroneck.

Proceedings to test the legality of the annual district meeting and of a number of items in the budget should be brought, Mr. Raynor said in a letter to the Mamaroneck Board of Education, a copy of which was sent to the Board today.

Mr. Raynor cited the State Education Law to support his contention that the meeting was "improper and undoubtedly illegal." He also cited the law which challenges the validity of a number of items in the budget.

"It was one of the qualified voters who attended the budget meeting at the Junior High School to vote upon the School Budget for the year 1939-40 and write this letter as a protest against the manner in which the vote on this budget was taken and also in connection with certain items contained in the Budget.

"Under the law only qualified and registered voters can vote on the budget but the vote was taken by voice where there were in the assembly a great many unqualified voters on this basis, the chairman announced that the budget was approved. The very fact that the statute requires that voters be registered establishes that the method of canvassing the vote in this particular instance was improper and undoubtedly illegal. Even for the most liberal interpretation of the law, the fact that the statute requires that voters be registered and no chairman of such a meeting no matter who he is could determine by listening to the 'aye' and 'no' votes how many persons who were unqualified to vote joined in one or the other indications of voting.

"Section 207 of the Education Law provides for the method of canvassing the vote at public meetings. In all propositions arising at public district meetings, involving the expenditure of money or the levying of taxes, the vote thereon shall be taken by ballot, ascertained by taking and recording the ayes and noes of such qualified voters attending and voting at such district meetings.

"In the annotations under this law it has been held under an opinion of the Education Department that a viva voce vote was contrary to this section. It has also been held that a raising vote (Continued on Page Three)

TOO MUCH SUGAR HELD DANGEROUS

Retary Speaker Gives Talk On Proper Foods At Larchmont Meeting

The way to combat the high percentage of indigestion in the United States is to eat the foods provided by nature, Paul O. Simpson, eminent dietitian and radio broadcaster, told the Larchmont Rotary Club yesterday at its noon-day luncheon at the Shore Club.

Mr. Simpson said that everyone in the United States consumes a couple of sugar daily. A small amount of sugar is all right but too much only invites disaster later on in life, he said.

"One thing this country is being cursed with is an overabundance of sugar," the speaker stated and recommended the use of nature's foods, such as potatoes and carrots with their skins, apples, peaches, and strawberries. He particularly emphasized the use of peach fuzz, for as he told the Rotarians, "There's nothing that will kill a cold faster than a peach fuzz."

"Chronic constipation is the mother of disease," he told the gathering and added that Americans do not consume enough fiber. "By life foods I mean earthy fruits and vegetables," he said.

In order to show what a good meal consists of, Mr. Simpson went to the Shore Club next Friday morning and directed the chefs in preparing a Rotarian's lunch.

The guest speaker was introduced by Ford Anderson, chairman of the entertainment committee who in turn was introduced by Dr. William O. LaPorey, chairman of the nominating committee, submitted the new state of officers to be elected shortly. The committee's selection of the new officers was unanimous approval of the club.

The new officers are: President, Fred Krueh, vice president, George Wright, treasurer, Kenneth Van Bover, secretary, and P. Colwell Conklin and Stanley Labov, directors.

Adrian A. Harrison was made a member of the Larchmont Rotary Club after a brief initiation.

It was announced that on Friday, May 19, the club will meet at the Westchester Country Club (Continued on Page Three)

Beacon Atop Smokestack Of Sanitation Plant Here Proposed To Guide Ships

The suggestion that a beacon light be placed atop the smokestack of the County Sanitation Plant on the Boston Post Road to guide craft into Mamaroneck harbor has been made by Supervisor Ben C. McCulloch.

The idea will be submitted by Mr. McCulloch to the County Sanitation Department officials, he said today. It was brought to his attention by Lefroy D. Kiley, president of Mamaroneck Tourist Bureau, Inc.

The chimney is built in the manner of a lighthouse and Mr. Kiley suggested that open tubes "made up outside" glass enclosed "rod" would require little current and would be appreciated by yachtsmen on Long Island Sound and in the harbor.

Charles Whalen, superintendent of the plant, said today that there are floodlights already in the topmost part of the stack which is 128 feet off the ground. They are not used, he said, for two reasons.

"One is that they are rather expensive to operate," costing about six or seven cents an hour, and the other is that to allow them to shine the glass must be given constant attention. The glass is coated with soot and smoke pouring from the chimney, he said.

Mr. Whalen suggested that the chimney is too high to be of practical use in guiding craft into the harbor.

He suggested as an alternative the placing of a searchlight at the top of the stack.

SALES TAX HELD ONLY SALVATION OF HOME OWNERS

Blasky Calls For Relief From 'Unbearable' Real Estate Levy

PLEDGES TO LIFT BURDEN

County Executive Blames Tax Burden For Many Foreclosures In County

Westchester County "demands the privilege" of raising home owners of the "unbearable" real estate tax, County Executive William F. Blasky declared yesterday, contrasting his statement with a 2 per cent sales tax as the salvation of county home owners.

Speaking at a tea in Ossining on the 20th anniversary of the Westchester County Children's Association, Mr. Blasky told more than 150 women, representing the county's largest cross section of the county, of his firm determination to alleviate the tax burden on real property owners, and at the same time to remove the county's bonded indebtedness.

In decisive language, the county executive lashed himself down on any program for a county-wide vocational education system or any other expansion of county services which would necessitate capital outlay at this time.

Calling attention to the large number of marriages foreclosed during the past few years, Mr. Blasky blamed the loss of homes largely on the tax burden.

"It is all right to talk about doing fine things for children," he said, "but the present groups must realize that it is our duty first to take care of ourselves. The children may need the help of vocational schools—but we can't take them away from others to do this for them."

Westchester County, he stated, now pays one-fifth of the debt outside of New York City, in the state. At the same time, the amount paid for relief in the City of Yonkers is greater, in proportion to its assessed valuation, than that paid by New York City, he said.

"And New York City has its sales tax," the county executive declared. "We demand the same privilege. If we levied that tax it would pay for every dollar of home relief expended in the county."

Dismissing efforts made by the county to reduce its debt, Mr. Blasky said that this year it has been decreased by more than $4,000,000 accomplished by the amortization of $4,900,000 worth of bonds, and by the issuance of new bonds totaling only $480,000.

Commenting on the assistance given by the Children's Association to the County Public Welfare Department for 35 years, Mr. Blasky reiterated the campaign promise to "keep politics out of the County Executive's office."

"I can assure you that I pledge myself to do this," he said, "and I will do it every month with it of the robbery held at 'Harry Hill' the estate of Mrs. Sol Strock."

BERLIN (AP)—A German proposal for a plebiscite in the Free City of Danzig to decide whether it should return to Germany was believed today to have been taken by Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop to Milan for his conference with Italian Foreign Minister Count Galzotto Ciano.

Britain Sees Danzig As Matter For Negotiations TENSION EASED

PARIS (AP)—France today viewed the Italian-German pact of Milan as an attempt to start "another Munich cycle" and braced herself to resist it.

Informed French circles believed Germany and Italy, now to be bound in a political and military alliance rather than the informal axis relationship, had three immediate aims:

1. To have Premier Mussolini intervene in the Polish-German dispute over the Free City of Danzig.
2. To set up a "Macedonian Front" in Yugoslavia while Croat-Serb military negotiations breakdown—the free state to be Italy's political base in "neutral" territory.
3. To have Premier Danzig intervene in the Polish-German dispute over the Free City of Danzig.

RYE BOARD CALLS FOR SWIFT ACTION ON CHARTER BILL

Compromise Plan Turned Down By Trustees And Town Council

MOVE 'NOT ACCEPTABLE'

Legislature Urged To Take Immediate Vote On City Proposal

Negotiations for a compromise agreement substituting for the proposed Rye City Charter bill struck a snag yesterday when such a plan was termed "not acceptable" by the Rye Village Board and the Rye Town Council, meeting in joint session.

The two boards, in a resolution turning down the compromise plan, expressed the hope that further negotiations would be continued.

While the two communities apparently had reached an agreement yesterday, the Rye Village Board announced its adoption of a resolution urging State Senator Finley W. Williams to bring the proposed charter bill to a vote in the Legislature, and to the Town Council.

The Legislature, according to word from Albany yesterday morning, is planning now to adjourn on the evening of next week. The Rye City Charter bill is to be taken up by the Legislature on the first day of the session.

The Rye Village Board's resolution was adopted at last Monday night's meeting, but was not announced until today. Legislators were urged to vote on the bill on the first day of the session.

The compromise plan considered by the Village Board and the Town Council yesterday would have amended the charter bill to provide for a becoming restrictive in 1942, and for the Village of Rye sharing in poor relief costs for two years thereafter.

Mayor W. Burdell Banister of Port Chester suggested that a 10-year compromise plan on relief costs might be acceptable, but no action was taken on the proposal. The Port Chester officials indicated they would favor the withdrawal of the charter bill, and other while negotiations as to relief costs were going on.

It was so known, no steps have been taken to amend the charter bill as it is being considered by the Legislature. The Rye Village Board's resolution was adopted at last Monday night's meeting, but was not announced until today. Legislators were urged to vote on the bill on the first day of the session.

BALLOT FAVORED

A letter in which Orson A. Raynor, Larchmont attorney questioned the validity of the adoption of the 1929-40 budget for the Mamaroneck-Larchmont school district, was ordered "received and placed on file" by the Board of Education last night.

This action was suggested to the Board by President William S. Hamilton because, he pointed out, Mr. Raynor said at the conclusion of the letter he intended suggesting that the Taxpayers' League of Larchmont and Mamaroneck bring legal proceedings to test the legality of the annual meeting.

"I have discussed the letter with counsel," Mr. Hamilton informed the Board last night, and we agreed that since the author intended going to the State Commission, it will entertain a motion to remove the letter and place it on file, and to thank Mr. Raynor for his interest. The motion was made and carried.

Second Letter Filed
A similar disposition was directed in connection with another letter on the budget, which was filed at 4 Virginia Place, Larchmont, who protested against the method of procedure at the annual meeting, and also informed the Board by the procedure of the budget could be arbitrarily cut by at least 10 per cent.

Mr. Hamilton said that the Board members and we agreed that since the author intended going to the State Commission, it will entertain a motion to remove the letter and place it on file, and to thank Mr. Raynor for his interest. The motion was made and carried.

'Oldest Tax' Paid

The "oldest tax ever to be collected" in the town of Mamaroneck was paid this morning. Town Receiver, George H. Dillon, received $1.00 in taxes from the town of Mamaroneck.

The tax had been outstanding since 1784 on a piece of property owned by the town of Mamaroneck. Mr. Dillon preferred not to identify the owner.

It was paid by the Home Owners Loan Corporation by check which arrived in the mails this morning.

It amounted to $2.48 for state and county taxes, 74 cents for school taxes and 86 cents for penalties, a total of $4.10.

"Glad to get that one off the books," said Mr. Dillon.

CHINESE LAUNDRY OPERATOR DEAD

Larchmont Man Found Dead in Bed; Police Seek to Locate Relatives

Police of Larchmont were attempting today to locate friends or relatives of Lee Quo, Chinese operator of the Jong Lee Laundry at 304 Riverside Avenue, Mamaroneck, who was found dead in his bed last night.

Death was due to a hemorrhage of the lungs, according to County Medical Examiner Amor O. Squire. Quo had been in ill health for some time, police Chief William J. Kersey said.

William Wade, Negro, of Larchmont, who had befriended Quo, went to the laundry last night and found the body stretched across the bed. He summoned police.

Quo was apparently between 42 and 48 years of age and his papers showed that he has a wife and three children in China. He had subscribed to Chinese Liberty bonds and was a member of an association with headquarters in New York.

Members of the association were scheduled to come to Larchmont today to make arrangements for the funeral, Chief Kersey said.

The man had lived in Larchmont for seven years, operating his hand laundry. A neighbor who observed signs on the premises and the door unlocked had found him sick in the bathroom frequently, Chief Kersey said. He always resisted the intrusion and very little is known about him, the police chief said.

Land purchase bonds in the amount of $124,250, with which the Village of Larchmont plans to purchase the property formerly known as the Cherry lot, were sold yesterday to the H. H. Chase Company of New York City. There was but one other bidder.

The H. H. Chase Company bid 1.80 per cent interest, plus a premium of 1/8 per cent. The other bid was by the R. D. White and Company, at 2.10 per cent interest plus a premium of 1/8 per cent.

The rate offered by H. H. Chase and Company was the lowest bid for the Village for a bond sale, according to Hugh Chubb, village treasurer. The previous lowest rate was 2.40. Lower rates have been offered, of course, on tax anticipation notes, he observed.

The other bid was by the R. D. White and Company, at 2.10 per cent interest plus a premium of 1/8 per cent.

The money will be available within a few days, and the Village will proceed with the purchase of the property. It is to be used, according to a recent statement by Mayor Harry E. Goeckler, as a park at first, and will be available if the Village needs it for future expansion.

Rye Man Missing Since Wednesday

Henry P. Zopf, proprietor of meat market at 49 Purchase Street, Rye, has been missing since Wednesday, police revealed today.

He lives over the market with his wife and daughter. They said he went out Wednesday morning to collect bills. Police inquired at 100 of 100, Judge Liddell said for 19 days in January, a bill of $200.

Counting 300 days as a average court working year, one visiting judge sitting constantly here would sit at least $2,000 a year. A bar is being set up to help the visiting judge, being unfamiliar with the community and the lawyers are said to function more slowly than their judges.

PUTNAM, FORMER RYE MAN, DISCOVERED IN INCOMPLETED HOUSE

Publisher Abducted Because Of Hitler Book

BAKERSFIELD, CALIF. (AP)—Bound and gagged, George Palmer Putnam, 52, Hollywood publisher of Scarsdale, formerly of Rye, N. Y., and husband of the late Amelia Earhart, was found in an incomplete house here today, a few hours after he was kidnaped from his North Hollywood home.

Putnam, unhurt, said the kidnapers demanded the name of the author of the anonymous book "The Man Who Killed Hitler" and suggested he would be "battered" if he ceased printing it.

A statewide search for the pair and for Putnam's car, in which they brought him here, was ordered by sheriff's deputies.

The publisher said he refused their demands and recalled that he had "thought the other warnings were phony." Receipt of a multi-ribbon copy of the book, two letters and a telephone call threatening his life were reported to Los Angeles police without his name on the one occasion he fired two shots at a man who was climbing a tree near his home.

"I'm a little upset but I'm not hurt," Putnam said as he sat in the sheriff's office here.

"The caller said Cole had an important matter to discuss and wanted me to come to his home. Shortly before 7:30, I walked into the garage. There two men jumped on me and pushed me into the car. They blindfolded me and tied my hands. They drove for about an hour. They conversed between themselves in German, but both spoke English. One finally said in an educated way, 'I asked them what they wanted and reminded them that kidnaping was a serious offense.'"

"They said they wanted to kill me. I had contributed to the Hitler book from the German end. I told them I didn't know and stick to that story.

"Finally they stopped the car. One of them got out. I am not sure, but I believe he went to take someone in a car which was following him. Soon he returned and we drove on. They did not threaten me, but suggested that I give up publishing the book. Then I could tell we were driving off the main road.

"They walked me blindfolded for a short distance and then made me lie down on a board. They tugged my legs and hands and mouth tightly and held, telling me I would be found in the morning.

"I managed to work loose the handcuffs on my mouth after an hour or so. I'm not sure how long. I called for help and some people. Then they called the officers. I discovered when they freed me that because I was in an unfinished house, I would have been found as soon as it was daylight. Obviously they did not intend to hurt me.

UNANIMOUS VOTE PASSES RYE CITY BILL IN SENATE

Constitutionality of Action In Doubt; Supervisors Must Approve

NEW OBSTACLES LOOM Westchester Voters Must First Grant Representation On Board

ALBANY—By a unanimous vote the Senate last night passed the Rye City Charter bill, for the transformation of that village into a city in 1942, provided the voters of the village approve at a special election this year, with the constitutionality of the Senate's action in doubt.

The validity of the measure, introduced by Senator Pliny W. Williamson, Bardsdale, had been previously questioned by Lieutenant-Governor Charles F. Bell, presiding officer of the Senate, because the bill had not been requested by the Westchester County Board of Supervisors.

The bill was called yesterday afternoon, Senator John L. Buckley, New York City Democrat, asked of a request for the legislation had been filed with the Senate. Senator Williamson immediately arose and asked that the question be withdrawn.

The bill was called and opened to Senator Buckley that he withdraw the question, and the speaker explained after the Westchester bill stated that there was a constitutional question involved and some day that question must be decided in court.

"The sponsors of the bill are certain that no request is necessary from the County and they are perfectly willing to take their chances in court," he stated that no one bring the question up and present the bill to the Senate.

The bill is not a referendum bill, but a bill which would grant representation to the County government. The bill is not a referendum bill, but a bill which would grant representation to the County government.

TOWN RECEIVES RECORD LOW BID ON BOND ISSUE

1.90 P. C. Interest Rate On $100,000 L. Beat Of Ten Submitted

The lowest bid ever received by the Town of Mamaroneck in a bond sale was received yesterday from A. C. Allyn and Company of New York City, bidding with 10 other bidders houses on Town bonds aggregating $100,000 and maturing in 10 years.

Allyn and Company bid 1.90 per cent interest, plus a premium of $2.50. The highest interest rate offered among the 11 bidders was 2.50 per cent.

The low interest rates bids and the unusually large number of firms bidding reflects the credit rating of the Town, it was generally conceded.

The transaction was arranged for the permanent financing of tax collection projects. They will be general Town bonds, levied over the entire Township.

The bids were opened yesterday by Supervisor Bert C. McCallister. (Continued on Page Three)

ASSEMBLY PASSES $50,000,000 SLUM CLEARANCE LOAN

Senate Gets Measure For Huge Low Cost Housing Program

ADJOURNMENT SPEEDED Budget Controversy Casts Fore-Shadow Of Special Legislative Session

ALBANY (AP)—New York's Assembly passed, 85 to 50, and sent to the Senate today a measure to authorize $50,000,000 in immediate state loans to municipalities for low cost housing and slum clearance.

The Republican Legislature, warned by Governor Lehman that to permit means a very "deficit" drafted today a several-million dollar 1939-1940 supplemental budget and prepared to adjourn.

Republican leaders, who already have announced $12,500,000 in high school bond issues, are expected to announce a similar program for the State.

Only two other major legislative items remain in the unincorporated areas, to which the association continues its activities. It will vote between 1 P. M. and 10 P. M. on June 8 at the Weaver Street Hotel.

The proposition is whether or not the Board, acting as the Board of Fire Commissioners, shall be authorized to expend a sum not exceeding $2500 for purchasing an aerial ladder and a pump.

The Board has already placed $4000 in the current budget for the purchase, leaving $2200 to be voted upon.

The association in adopting the resolution, "is convinced that the equipment is necessary for the proper protection of the unincorporated areas," Mr. Schwab said.

Walter F. Brady, chairman of the committee on the consolidation of local governments, reported that several hearings by the committee is agreed that "large savings for taxpayers can be effected through consolidation."

Before the final report of the committee, however, is made the association will meet with the heads of the ten villages and the Town governments. Mr. Brady said the meeting will be held at the Larchmont Tennis Club in Larchmont.

FIRE EQUIPMENT BOND ISSUE WINS GROUP'S SUPPORT

A resolution favoring the $22,000 bond issue for purchasing equipment for the Town of Mamaroneck fire department to be voted upon June 8, has been adopted by the Larchmont Grange Association.

In view of the fact, however, that the association favors a "pay-as-you-go" policy, the association is urging the Town Board to arrange the amortization of the bonds as rapidly as possible, at a term even less than five years if practicable.

Property owners in the unincorporated areas, to which the association continues its activities, will vote between 1 P. M. and 10 P. M. on June 8 at the Weaver Street Hotel.

Supervisors Delay Inquiry Slated For Monday

SPEED STRESSED

District Attorney Walter A. Ferris announced today that he will present to the Grand Jury next Tuesday morning the evidence obtained by him and by County Executive William F. Heakley surrounding private negotiations in connection with the sale by the county of Frey Park in Yonkers.

Mr. Ferris said that the regular Grand Jury will be held on Tuesday morning. It is proper that I present this to the Grand Jury on Tuesday morning.

As a result of the arrangement by Mr. Ferris to present all evidence, and perhaps witnesses, before the regular Grand Jury, it will be necessary for the supervisors' special committee, named on Thursday to investigate the case, to postpone its hearings until after the Grand Jury has finished with the matter.

Supervisor Robert H. Stewart, Mount Kisco, chairman of the special committee, has announced that the public hearings scheduled to start before his committee at 10 o'clock Monday morning in the supervisors' chambers have been postponed. Notice will be issued when they are to begin and it is expected they will be on either Wednesday or Thursday of next week.

The postponement of the public hearings by Chairman Stewart of the committee, however, is made the association will meet with the heads of the ten villages and the Town governments. Mr. Brady said the meeting will be held at the Larchmont Tennis Club in Larchmont.

Mr. Ferris stated that no evidence be made public until after it had been reviewed by the Grand Jury. "I am informed that a special committee of the supervisors has been named to investigate this matter," said the District Attorney today. "I do not feel at liberty to give the facts in the case to the supervisors committee or the board until the Grand Jury has reported of the case."

Prompt Action Stressed The board, in naming Mr. Stewart and his committee, stressed the need for prompt action so that any persons improperly involved might be censured at the earliest moment.

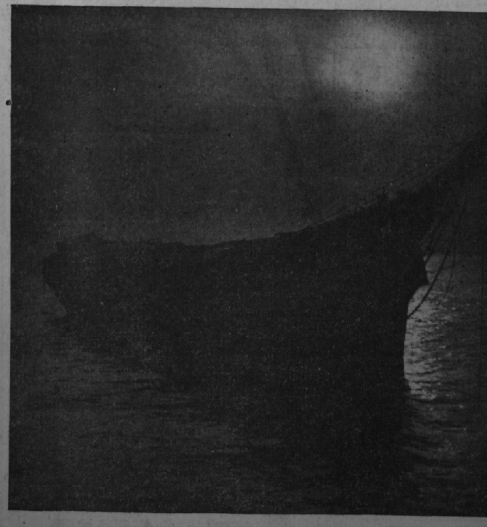

Other members of Mr. Stewart's committee are Supervisors Richard H. Level, White Plains; Richard H. Linn, North Canby; Bert C. McCulloch, Mamaroneck; and Edward F. Hennessey, Mount Pleasant.

Chairman Stewart and Mr. Level conferred yesterday afternoon with County Attorney William A. Davison on the procedure to be followed by the committee when the hearings begin.

Mr. Stewart, it is said, is anxious to present to his committee a chronological picture of the events leading up to the report from County Executive Heakley to the supervisors wherein he raised special questions concerning the sale of Frey Park.

Outstanding in the evidence which will be before both the Grand Jury and the supervisors' committee is the fact that although records of conversations were obtained (Continued on Page Three)

Electrician's Mate Held Door Open Long Enough To Admit Five Men

C., whose "superhuman" effort in closing a door between the control room and the battery room saved 33 lives aboard the stricken submarine Squalus today told how he held the door open long enough to save five men in the next compartment.

"The water was rising rapidly to the after compartment and I realized that the time was short if I was to close the bulkhead door. I had partially closed the door when several men climbed out from the rapidly filling after battery."

"I yelled: 'Keep it open. Keep it open.' Whereupon I let the door back on hinges to allow Officer Blanchard, Lessee, Boatman and myself to pass through. Immediately I swung the door tight and barged down the stairs to the rest of the crew."

"I know of only one man that was in the water-filled compartment. I saw him in the after compartment. He was in a stretcher from the Coast Guard Patrol Boat 'West Harris' last night after the great search but became motionless when I stepped into the cabin."

"Repair of the rescue chamber has been completed. Will remain closed until the after part of the Squalus."

Vets Issue Plea

No trace of the bronze plaque which was stolen from the grave at Harbor Island has been recovered by police—or by the World War veterans who are most anxious to retrieve it.

Since a meeting must be made, the plaque cannot be readily replaced. It will be replaced eventually, however, by Mamaroneck Post 80 of the American Legion, which originally erected the memorial.
