Germany Calls For Release Of Prize Crew

OSLO (AP)—A German protest against liberation of the American freighter City of Flint and interment of her German prize crew was delivered today to the Foreign Office but well informed sources expressed the opinion it would be rejected.

BERLIN ANGERED

The Norwegian Government's decision in freeing the vessel was based on Article 23 of the Hague Convention Rules, which says a prize crew can be taken into a neutral port only because the vessel is unseaworthy or because of weather, or lack of fuel or provisions.

GERMANY PROTESTS

BERLIN (AP)—The German charge d'affaires at Oslo protested today the Norwegian Government's interment of the German prize crew from the American freighter City of Flint and release of the vessel to the American port.

PRAGUE ORDERLY

PRAGUE (AP)—Three more Czechs, including two policemen, were shot today for "acts of violence against a German," it was announced officially.

NAZI REBORN POWER

BERLIN (AP)—The power of the "Nazis" to lead an all-German "revolution" in Germany was reported yesterday by extension of German law against treason to the protectorate.

Nazi Czechs were arrested yesterday and Czech independence was ordered closed for three years as a result of "glorious demonstrations" by the Nazi members of the protectorate.

Only major details were disclosed yesterday about the arrests but it was stated the list included two policemen and seven Prague University students. They were charged with assisting German saboteurs during an anti-German demonstration.

Whether any German had been killed could not be determined. Additional arrests included three students and a policeman who were arrested and held for 24 hours on charges of "acts of violence against a German."

The newspaper Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung reported today that the Reichstag had passed a law to extend the Reich Law for the Protection of the German People to the Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia.

Vets To Hear Flyer

Captain Derek D. Dickinson, above, professional war aviator, will speak on "Our America's Debt Hereafter" at a meeting of the Larchmont Post 347, American Legion, in the Post Park clubhouse at 4:35 P. M. today. Capt. Dickinson fought a 22-minute air duel with Bruno Mussolini, son of Il Duce, over Spain.

Smoke Causes Alarm

Smoke coming from the law office of Ernest R. Eckley at 155 East Devon Post Road caused a fire alarm to be sounded at 5:30 P. M. yesterday. All companies responded, with Fire Chief Frank Lubranski in charge. The smoke was caused by an overturned stove in a back room. There was no damage. The Larchmont Fire Department extinguished a gas fire at Manor Place and the Boston Post Road at 9:30 P. M. yesterday.

It's Grievance Day

The Boards of Trustees in the Village of Mamaroneck and Larchmont will convene at 10 A. M. today to sit as boards of review to "grieve" filed against valuations set in the assessment rolls which 1930 taxes will be based on.

Stolen Car Found

A stolen automobile stolen from Julius Smith, 205 West Boston Post Road, Mamaroneck, was recovered by police yesterday afternoon. The car had been parked on a street for several days in that community. Village police were informed.

'Hillbilly' Dance

An old-fashioned barn dance, with "hillbilly" music from Amosk, will be given by Mamaroneck Post 90, American Legion, at Attorney Hall, on Barry Avenue, Saturday evening, Dec. 5. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the post. Commander James Bayles announced.

An "all sports" program will be held by the Mamaroneck Kiwanis Club at the Crescent Beach Club tomorrow night. Eddie Dooley, well-known sports writer and radio commentator, will address the club on this season's football team.

All's Well!

All's well in the Mamaroneck Village Police Department today. The clock in the Junior High School tower, which had been out of commission for weeks to the detriment of a traffic officer at that point, has been repaired and in operation for several days now. The stray skunk which had caused consternation by making his home under headquarters has been spotted but the officers thought he had gone. He was seen, however, only this morning. The skunk has apparently called a truce, having laid down no fence, being in those no-barrier communities, "all quiet."

Larchmont Church Holds 3-Day Novena

A three-day Novena of Thanksgiving, which opened yesterday afternoon, is being held by Augustine's Church, Larchmont, under the leadership of Rev. Augustin Mehl. Beware Of Marrying That Devoted Son!

By EUGENIE DEK
 I tried to find when we profusely wished to marry a boy who got his first proposition late in childhood and said "I'll make you such a good husband. In a week, I'll be a millionaire." Oh, the joy of that day! I was so happy that I didn't think of the possibility of my being a poor girl.

But that was before we had our first child. He was a boy, and he was a good boy. He was a good boy, and he was a good boy. He was a good boy, and he was a good boy.

THEY'VE KNOWN EACH OTHER
 As long as you live you will always find your husband's mother as a friend. They will always find in her a confidante and a friend. They will always find in her a confidante and a friend.

ANGEL'S DAUGHTER'S MARRIAGE
 When a young woman is asked to marry a boy who got his first proposition late in childhood and said "I'll make you such a good husband. In a week, I'll be a millionaire." Oh, the joy of that day! I was so happy that I didn't think of the possibility of my being a poor girl.

PLAN RINK NEXT YEAR

Proposal of Lions Club Rejected Because Of Soft Spots

There will be no ice skating at Harbor Island this winter, the Village Park Commission decided last night at the home of the chairman, James H. Gillen.

The area suggested for ice skating by the Mamaroneck Lions Club would be dangerous, Village Engineer Claude A. Latimer reported to the Commission yesterday.

The Commission decided that the area was too soft and that the risk to skaters would be too great. It was decided to reject the proposal and to plan a rink for next year.
