SPORT RAMBLES
By LOUIS BLEWIS

SPORTS HAVE PROGRESSED IN THE PAST TEN YEARS

Today, the Daily Times' tenth birthday. Ten years back a newspaper scarcely touched with news knowledge of the workings and needs of a community than would be found in any individual over a similar span of years.

Today, sports in this village and township have been advanced so far by the fact that there is a newspaper ready at all times to cater to the needs of the athletic organizations and the athletic-minded people who avidly consume news of their favorite sports and teams.

The fact that the public wants its sporting news stated out regularly and in large quantities has caused our editors to open up wider and wider to receive the increasing number of events which have been growing to a large measure because of the cooperation of the Daily Times.

Smaller clubs have been fostered in the past decade. Ten years ago there was only one club of importance in this village, the Mamaroneck All Stars. When football basketball and volleyball came rolled around, the All Stars were the biggest and their athletic teams became known throughout the East.

With the passage of years, the club had its vitality and to a large measure fell apart. Now there are three athletic organizations of prime importance here, the Dodgers, the Blue Sox and the tattered in the shadow of the former All Stars club.

Decided as they are, and embracing only certain groups, it is difficult to estimate that any one of the three can attain the high place that once was occupied by the All Stars, but indeed, it is more than probable that some Mamaroneck club can stand for the pleasure of sports and athletic organization.

PAUSE TO EXPRESS HOPE THAT UNITY WILL COME. Now, on the tenth anniversary of the Daily Times, we pause to express the fervent hope that the union of the three Mamaroneck athletic clubs, or factions, will not be long forthcoming.

All in whom we have spoken here agreed that such a step would be one of the best interests of the entire community. If the local clubs can share this viewpoint and are willing to undertake the organization of a solid, lasting club, the Daily Times will feel itself duty-bound to aid in every way possible to justify that end.

DODGERS OPEN AT HOME ON SUNDAY AGAINST YONKERS

Face Colony Club Eleven At Harbor Island—Cue Hand-les Team Drills

HAVING impressed their followers by a show of strength against the Port Chester Don Rovers last Sunday in their inaugural game, the Mamaroneck Dodgers are set to gain some of their slightly frayed nerves next Sunday when they open their home schedule against the Colony Club of Yonkers at Harbor Island.

In the Colony Club eleven, the North Enders will be hitting their strength against a worthy opponent. The Yonkers City team has been in existence for the last four years, and every day practice has completed a string of 39 victories with only four the marring their record. Not a single defeat, marked up against the club during that span, according to information set out by the team.

In the absence of Coach "Tut" Brady, the Dodgers have been drilled under the tutelage of Frank Cane, former Mamaroneck High School quarterback. Care was taken to let last Sunday's contest and received praise for his handling of the eleven. He played on the Orange and Black team of 1929 and was signed on several All-County teams by county sports men.

Mamaroneck former Yonkers High School backfield ace, is the star of the Colony Club ball-carrying quartet. The punting is comparatively built and very fast.

Over half the visiting team was comprised of recent years with Yonkers Central. Quarterback J. S. Savelle is a graduate of Manhattan College, while A. P. Pusey, right end, was a member at one time of the New York University varsity squad.

WOMEN'S ALLEY TEAM PLANNED

Practice Session Planned For Tomorrow — To Enter County League

A women's bowling team will represent Mamaroneck this winter in the Westchester County League and was announced today by Leonard J. Gross, superintendent of the St. Thomas Alley, and a practice for the candidates has been called for tomorrow afternoon.

When women desire to try out for the team or to join the weekly bowling club that will be started, they are to come out tomorrow for the practice session.

Setting in the ranks of the weaker set but solid tenpins forward, forward circles in the best bowlers and in practically every community in the county there is at least one women's club functioning.

SCHOOL IS CLOSED
NEW ROCHELLE, Oct. 2 (AP)—Henry Bernard Elementary School, in the exclusive neighborhood section, was ordered closed today because of a polio epidemic scare and the school's 411 pupils were told not to return for two weeks. The Board of Education's order was prompted by the report last night of Dr. Frank J. Marley, a board member, who said the epidemic centered at the school developed its third and fourth polio patients since the season opened last weekend.

Wrigley Field, Where Cubs Meet Tigers in World Series

After the first two games of the world series have been played in Detroit, Cubs and Tigers move to Wrigley Field, Chicago, for the third, fourth and fifth contests. The field is pictured, with insets of the rival managers, Mickey Cochrane of the Tigers and Charley Grimm of the Cubs. Each manager has won two league pennants, the Cubs in 1922, the Tigers last year.

Deals Loom As Managers Gather For World Series

Biggest Player Shake-Up In History Expected In Oct. Season—Collins, Cards' First Baseman, Not On Market, Is Report

DETROIT, Oct. 2 (AP)—Major League managers and owners, taking a business holiday for the World Series, already have signed open-market contracts for the season's biggest player shake-ups expected to occur before the season opens.

Deal with a fair percentage decrease for team groups and trades that fall through at point-counter contractual terms, it appears today that at least a dozen of the 16 big league teams will figure in the shake-up, including seasons before the call is sounded for spring training.

Some of the trade talk revolves around the Philadelphia Athletics, who finished last in the American League, and the St. Louis Cardinals, second out of the National League, but the sensational Chicago Cubs, both have some tempting material. Their motives for parting with it, however, are vastly different.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Leaving by bus students of the Mamaroneck High School American History class, made a pilgrimage of historic Westchester on Saturday. Conducted by William Palmer, the tour covered places of historical interest throughout the county during the day the group stopped at such places as Heathcote Hill, Patsy Point, and Speltz Brook Road. St. Paul's church at Eastchester, the Roger Morris House in New York City, Van Cortlandt House, and Philips Hall were included in the tour. A great percentage of the historical material was afforded the group in White Plains, where dates back to the American Revolution. Those who participated in the tour are eligible to write an essay on what they saw on the trip. A book entitled "Westchester County in the American Revolution" by Otto Harfand will be presented the writer of the winning essay.

School Paper Published
The first issue of the high school paper, "The Record," was published Wednesday. Under the supervision of an entire new staff, the paper will be edited twice every month. This year's staff is entirely new and is expected to bring to the publication last year earned four honorable ratings. These consisted of a second place award from the National Scholastic Press Association and a first place award from the N. S. P. A. Convention in Manhattan, Missouri, and the latest, a first place from the National Society of the Quill and Pen.

The present staff of the paper is composed of Genevieve Harrison, editor-in-chief; Walter Dean and Alan Yarbester as associate editors; Bob Brooks, Jack Morris, and Jeanne Porter as news, sports, and feature editors, respectively.

Butler Elected Coaches' Prexy; Feeley Honored

Hackley School Mentor Succeeds Len Watters At Annual Fall Meeting

Ed Butler, of Hackley School, Tarrytown, was elected president of the recently-organized Intercollegiate Athletic Coaches Association of Westchester County at the annual Fall meeting at Hotel Roger Smith, White Plains, recently.

Ed Butler, of Hackley School, Tarrytown, was named vice-president, and Charles H. Pearce, county athletic supervisor, was elected secretary-treasurer. Butler succeeds Len Watters of White Plains as president.

Discussing the business meeting, motion pictures of the 1932 Olympic Games were shown for the entertainment of the thirty-two coaches and their wives in attendance. The films were loaned through the courtesy of Gustave Treen Kirby, former president of the National A. U. I. The coaches formulated early plans for their first Fall sports meeting, to be held shortly.

The association was formed last February. Its objectives are social activities, fostering of good sportsmanship, and aid in maintaining the highest possible standards of the coaching profession.

Local Coaches Present
Those present included: from Bedford Hills, C. J. Manning, Elmford, Robert Jeffrey, E. E. Bellows, Rio Neck, Loyd A. McGee and Dudley Reed; Hackley, Tarrytown, Ed Butler; Brewster, J. J. Feeley, Harold Siskin, and E. Negretti; Hastings-on-Hudson, Irving Tarrytown, M. P. Purdy; Katonah, Erwin Harnisch; Mamaroneck, Edward J. Sweeney and William P. Marks; Aloha, from Mt. Vernon, W. Also Charles H. Pearce, County Athletic Supervisor; James Smith of Mamaroneck; W. S. Gardner, of White Plains; and R. Derr, of Pockskill.

Slight Advance Noted In Contagious Disease Cases

WHITE PLAINS, Oct. 2—Contagious diseases in the Westchester County Health District, have increased slightly with the onset of cold weather, the weekly summary of Dr. Matthias Nicoll reveals.

Whooping cough led the field with 24 new cases reported, during the past week. Six of the cases were in Port Chester and five in White Plains. There were seven cases of scarlet fever and pneumonia reported last week as compared with six of scarlet fever and only one of pneumonia during the corresponding last week last year. One case of typhoid, the intestinal disease resulting from insufficiently cooked pork, was reported from Arden.

WARNEKE PITCHED FLAWLESS GAME TO REPEL TIGERS

Hurling Duel Between Arkansas Results in Victory For Tobacco-Chewer

By EDWARD J. NEEL, Associated Press Sports Editor. DETROIT, Oct. 3 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers had to see them to believe them, and now it's up to Tommy Bridges, one of the finest curve ball pitchers in the American League, to stop these impudent Chicago Cubs if they're ever to be stopped short of baseball's world championship.

Before hitting to all these stories of Charley Grimm's young upstarts, of that "dazzling" young streak that called away the National League championship in the stretch, of the five-year-old and nine-year-old youth.

But you can't expect people who fought Dixie Dean and his St. Louis right-hander, seven other names only a year ago, to be won by a lot of youngsters, even if the youngsters are good.

New the Tigers know and unless Bridges can do something about 36-year-old Charlie Root, the oldest man on the Chicago ball club, the 1935 World Series will be for the three game series in Chicago Friday with the Cubs.

There's a terrific suspicion abroad that they're ripe for a long contest right now, but so will come out and say that definitely until Bridges or best Dixie Dean will hit in St. Louis, has had his fling.

With one fall to start, really, thanks to the brilliant pitching of long Lou Warneke, now the undisciplined hurling champion of Arkansas, the Cub kids are on top and plan to stay there. They seem Warneke, pitching brilliantly, would shut out the Tigers as he did, 3 to 0, allowing his four hits, hand-cuffed the sluggers who have the American pennant race won.

The Tigers last yesterday, before slightly less than 10,000 backers, with their own Arkansas hero, Lynn Wood (Schoolboy) Ross, pitching ball that might have been a warning against any but a winning team.

The Tigers might as well have stayed home for all the ingenuity and as Joe Louis and just as cold, chilly but the crowd.

BRIDGE TOURNAMENT A duplicate bridge tournament was held at the home of Mrs. Alma S. Clark, 41 Fulton Street, last night. Mrs. W. B. Winters and Mrs. James Fray, presided. Mrs. P. D. Poucher and Mrs. A. Gabriel.

EYE HAS WINNING MOUNT; PAYS 10-1 AT BELMONT PARK

Boots Home Tribunal in Seventh Race in Gallant Stretch Bid

Charley Eye of Rye Neck, apprentice jockey, yesterday sent a band of his followers here into joy when he booted Tribunal, Andy Schuttlinger's horse, across the finish line in first place in the seventh race at the Belmont track. Tribunal paid the juicy odds of 10-1. . .

Another horse, another 10-1 shot, took the lead at the outset of the mile and an eighth race, the closing event on the card at the Long Island track. For three-quarters, he was in place and a bronze plaque awaited the stretch, young Eye not on the pressure and his mount responded gallantly to the lead and winning away by two lengths. . .

The win on Tribunal was Eye's "soft season" experiment in a Colic interest. That the former eye had the shirt that made a meal of half their catch. . .

East Enders To Launch Strong Attack Against Cross-County Opponent

Rod and Gun in New York State

By JAMES L. ANGLE (Associated Press Staff Writer) Anglers who know a little something of the background of the sport that Isaac Walton first publicized widely are interested in the dedication at Calistoga, September 28 of a monument to Seth Green, "father of fish culture in America." . .

A five-foot granite boulder, on which the famous angler once sat as he cast his line for the white trout of Spring Brook Creek, has been set in place and a bronze plaque affixed to the stone. . .

New York State trout fishermen are watching with a good deal of interest, and envy in some cases, the "soft season" experiment in a Colic interest. . .

Closing the season during the month of August and reopening Sept. 14 and including Oct. 15 represents what some anglers believe to be an ideal season. . .

Some fishermen boast of catching two fish at once, some under the same net, but it remained for Donald E. Gansung and Paul C. Durbin of Rochester, to catch half a fish—and they catch the shark that made a meal of half their catch. . .

HEPBURN'S FILM HERE TOMORROW

She Rocks Soubriety in "Alice Adams" Role—Fred Stone Also in the Cast

Proletaria and Soubriety were a tangled web in "Alice Adams," which stars Katharine Hepburn in the title role.

Based on the South Carolina novel which won the Pulitzer Prize for 1928, the story is an unromantic picture of the struggle of heart-broken youth which a girl endures in her fight for love and moral rectitude in a small town.

Not since Mrs. Hepburn was the American heart with her portrayal of the spirited girl in "Morning Glory" has she had a role which gave her such opportunities for an actual characterization, unadorned and unadorned.

The story, "Alice Adams," tells the story of a girl who is a social outcast, and who is a social outcast, and who is a social outcast, and who is a social outcast.

Each of the characters in "Alice Adams" is carefully drawn and carefully plotted for real human interest and single picture. Included in the cast are Fred Stone, James Van Dyke, Tom Marshall, Frank Yankton, Charles Grayson, and William George.

The film opens at 8:15 and 10:15. The film opens at 8:15 and 10:15. The film opens at 8:15 and 10:15.

ORGANIZERS HIT WIN ROAD AND CONFIDENCE RETURNS

The spirit of the Mamaroneck High School football at quite a low ebb after the reversal at the hands of Greenwich High School.

Although Rye is slightly the smaller school, the Green was reported to be strong and primed to give the Organizers a mighty fight.

The 17-point total rung up by the Mamaroneck High team, we believe, was the largest single game score recorded by a Tiger since the opening game of the 1935 season when Joe Castell and Co. humbled Greenwich by an overwhelming score.

JENNINGS AND SALTIS HEAD FOR HIS THINGS

Unless we raise our game, this rivalry is going to slip up and take out of two youths on the Hilltop outfit, Bruce Jennings and Adolph Saltis.

Jennings in the last who last Spring proved Henning West of New Rochelle to a head-breaking achievement—the 100-yard dash in less than 14 seconds.

The same speed and the additional quality of shiftness marks his leadership work on the football field. His time of 31 and 34 yards for touchdowns against Rye were masterpieces of shiftness.

SALTIS HAS DEVELOPED INTO GOOD DROPKICKER

Saltis, who Rye the honor at slightly over the 200 mark is fast for his size and the boss of the left side of the Tiger line. Very few goals are recorded through his hands of his ball and foot charge on the defense.

On Saturday, Adolph Saltis stepped into the role of point guard, converting two extra points.

He tried another field goal from a difficult angle late in the game but his effort was hindered. Perhaps his talent in sending the pigskin sailing over the crossbar will come in mighty handy to the Organizers as the season progresses.

HUMPHREY INJURY IS NOT SERIOUS, X-RAYS INDICATE

Believes High School Guard Will Not Be Lost To Team Long

With the mauling news on hand that Joe Humphrey, 140-pound star of the Mamaroneck High School football team, had broken his right arm, it was generally expected that the star player would be out of the game for some time.

However, reports from the hospital indicate that the injury is not as serious as first feared. X-rays indicate that the bone is not broken and that the player will be able to return to the field in a few days.

Coach Miller expressed a large amount of relief over the news. He believes that Humphrey will be able to return to the field in a few days and that the team will not be without a star player for long.

The problem of replacing Humphrey on the line is an acute one. Although Coach Miller's plan is to put in the first man available, it is generally expected that the team will be without a star player for some time.

BELLOWS H. S. WILL CONTINUE 2-SESSION PROGRAM THIS YEAR

This Is Decided By Board Of Education After Questionnaire Reveals 505 Parents Favor Plan While Only 40 Oppose—Over 100 Present At Meeting

Frederick E. Bellows High School will continue to operate during the 1935-36 school year under the two-session plan, according to a ruling handed down by the Rye Neck Board of Education last night at its meeting which was attended by over 100 residents who reiterated to a large degree the protests that they had made the previous week at a public hearing over the continuance of the present plan of study in the high school.

The stand of the board, according to Dr. Donald M. Tower, superintendent of schools, was based primarily on the sentiment of the children's parents, who responded to a questionnaire with a vote of 505 to 40 against going back to one-session. The survey sent out to the parents, asked whether they were desirous of having a new plan whereby grades would be combined and the district "re-constituted" so that the present system in vogue is abandoned.

Contrast to sentiment The sentiment shown in the vote by the parents contrasted sharply with the feeling on October 1 of the public hearing on the school survey reports of Guilbert and Bellows when 300 residents of the district unanimously voted to reject the report and its recommendation that the two-session plan should be continued.

Changes that the questionnaire as submitted to the parents was not hurried at Dr. Tower by Dr. W. S. Scherer. "You put down all the reasons on the paper why it should be continued, and none why it shouldn't," he asserted.

"Why didn't you put down that it would mean a saving to the taxpayers?" Scherer asked. "It is a deduction in the number of teachers and in the cost of light."

"It would eliminate the necessity of 11 and 12-year-old children running dangerous intersections after dark," he continued. "You mention of selling was very unwise," he alleged, pointing out that according to the State Department of Education only a taxpayer conforming to set-up statutes was eligible to vote.

"This was not a vote, just an expression of opinion," Dr. Tower retorted. "See Children's Influence Scherer then declared that in many instances the parents' vote was influenced by the children's vote." (Continued on Page Eight)

COURT AFFAIRS DEATH SENTENCE FOR HAUPTMANN

Highest Tribunal in New Jersey Upholds Jury's Verdict Of Guilty

NEW TRIAL PLEA DENIED Opinion in Case Written By Justice Charles W. Parker Who Is 73

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 9 (AP)—The highest court in New Jersey, the Court of Errors and Appeals, today upheld the death sentence pronounced by a jury in the case of Bruno Richard Hauptmann for the kidnapping-murder of young Charles Augustus Gansbort, Jr.

The opinion was unanimous. The denial of a new trial leaves Hauptmann with three more years to live. He may appeal to the Court of Pardons of which Governor Hoffman and six judges of the Court of Errors and Appeals are members. They can only commute his sentence to life imprisonment.

Appeals to the Court of Errors and Appeals are usually denied unless there are extraordinary circumstances. He may also appeal for a new trial on the basis that new evidence has been discovered. And he may also appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States.

The opinion was written by Justice Charles W. Parker, who is 73 years old. Lloyd Fisher, of Flemington, who became chief of the defense staff of the case, and John J. Reilly, of Brooklyn, by Hauptmann and his wife Anna, recently were sentenced to life imprisonment.

The case, the court observed, was submitted by the court to the jury on the theory that the child died of a fall. Reports were widely circulated that most of the members of the court had been in one time or another with writing the opinion. Only Justice Parker's name was not mentioned in this regard.

The court held that the claim that Hauptmann was coerced into signing the confession was not supported by the evidence. It held that the confession was voluntary and that the defendant was competent to make it.

School Board Acts To Adjust Situation At Murray Avenue School As Claims For Damages Are Filed

At the same time that the Mamaroneck School Board received notice last night of two claims against it for alleged flood damage to two homes near the Murray Avenue School playground, it took action to improve the drainage conditions of that playground.

M. E. Maloney and Company, local contracting firm, was awarded the job of constructing the new drain which will prevent large quantities of water from collecting on the playground during heavy rainstorms, and that will instead carry it off to a town storm sewer that is about to be completed.

WORKERS IN COAT COMPANY HERE GO OUT ON A STRIKE Make Demands For Union Shop Which Means Shorter Hours For Employes

The Rebelite Coat Company which opened a factory at Halsted and Every Avenue, here, several weeks ago in the hope of avoiding garment workers' strikes that are causing trouble in New York City, had a strike of its own on its hands today.

Seventeen of its 45 employes have voted out in an effort to induce the company's manager, Sidney Begelman, to maintain a closed shop.

While Union organizer Abe Gelfand claims that operators in the factory must work as many as 60 hours for a pitance of $4 or $5 a week, Begelman denies this and proceeds to indicate that his employees are getting a minimum of $20, with extra for overtime.

Ethiopians Keep Up Flank Attacks On The Invaders In North And Deny That Any Large Force Has Entered Eritrea—Italians Claim That The Natives Are Salting Wells

By THEODORE B. GOETZ Full League of Nations assembly met at noon New York time in Geneva for what may be the most critical session of its history. Large and small nations alike were ready to vote sanctions against Italy for Mussolini's war on Ethiopia but there was dissension which was expected to soften the penalties.

ITALY SEEKS TO JUSTIFY ACTS IN ETHIOPIAN AREA Says Northern Italy Is Striving To Restore Regularity In Civil Life

ROME, Oct. 9 (AP)—The Italian government undertook today to justify before the world its tactics in Ethiopia. A government spokesman announced that Italy's northern army was making every effort to restore regularity to civil life in captured Ethiopian territory and to lead natives to free themselves of the yoke of the Italian flag.

The war itself developed grim realities as the Italian advance into the country was resumed on three fronts. An Ethiopian commander charged Italian troops with capturing bearing commissions from the air in Ethiopia and natives in the southern provinces, according to R. B. Ekins of Mamaroneck, United Press correspondent in Italy. Ekins commented pointed out to an Associated Press correspondent that a fertile valley south of Addis which he said would supply Italy with grain, cotton and wool, and make Italian immigration to America unnecessary.

The Ethiopian kept up flank attacks on the invaders in the north and denied again that any large force had entered Eritrea. Though reports were credited in London that the native commandos favored a drive to cut the railway in Amara, from Italian support of Massawa, Rome reported again that the Ethiopian Italian right flank, claiming capture of an Italian column and six other officers.

Another Ethiopian captain, Ras Kassa, reported in the front movement with an army of 30,000 soldiers. Ras Kassa reported, marching toward the Sixth River on the border of Italy's colony of Eritrea.

THUNDERBOLTS TO PROVIDE TEST OF DODGER STRENGTH

Unbeaten Byram Eleven Takes On Local Team At East Port Chester

The Mamaroneck Dodgers, coached by an 18-0 triumph over the Colony Club of Yorkers, will go on the road next Sunday, battling the unbeaten Byram Thunderbolts of East Port Chester at Byram Field.

Included among the victims of the Thunderbolts this season are Hillendale A. C. of Stamford, the Treasons of the same city, and the Tuckahoe Blue Jacket.

Every meeting between the Thunderbolts and the Dodgers in the past few years has been a hard-fought affair. In 1933, the teams battled to a 12-12 tie and last year the Dodgers emerged a 6-0 victor when "Shelley" Logan tossed a touchdown pass to "Red" O'Neil as the final play of the game.

The Thunderbolts are coached by Charles Dutton, assistant manager at Greenwich High School and are captained by "Red" Kennedy, who earned his year as a signal-caller last season at the Greenwich High School.

AGGRESSOR COUNTRY NOW FACING TREAT OF NAVAL BLOCKADE

Its Spokesman Says Such A Move By Britain Will Lead Inevitably To War—Italians Are Depressed By League's Overwhelming Condemnation Of Country's Acts

By THEODORE H. GOETZ

Answering League of Nations sanctions against him, Mussolini's war machine rolled forward further into Ethiopia today with only sniping resistance to its chemical and motorized efficiency.

Lacking a solid front against Italy by land Great Britain is reported to be lining up the powers for a naval blockade and an Italian spokesman at Geneva today told the Associated Press "that means war."

A new drive was under way from the north toward Makale, 300 miles from Addis Ababa, and the Italians claimed the Ethiopians were in retreat. In the south, the Italian army, under General Graziani, was reported to have advanced on their terms.

GROSSO HITS 253 FOR BLUE BOX IN TIMES PIN LOOP

Despite Anchorman's High Score, Team Drops Two Games To Dregs

One of the highest scores in the history of The Daily Times three man bowling league was returned last night by Leonard Grosso of the Blue Box at the St. Thomas Alloys, who shattered the pin for a 253 score. Despite Grosso's mark, the Blue Box went down to defeat at the hands of the Dodgers in two games...

Michael Holds Record. Michael, incidentally, is the only three-time winner of the title, arriving at Sumnerfield Park first in 1925, 1927 and 1929. De Mar won in 1930 and again in 1931.

Rod and Gun in New York State

Associated Press Staff Writer (The careful observer nature who goes frequently into the fields and woods has visual records of the State's conservation policy has done for what is called "rod and gun" in New York State.

Throughout western and southern New York, where a year ago, hundreds of the greatest animals are reported weekly.

Farmers investigating a sudden dropping of their crop yields to inquire each year have found a colony of leeches, called "rod and gun" in New York State.

Another year visitor to New York State is the turkey vulture, several of which have been reported in Westchester County by Game Protector E. T. Townsend.

Spottsmen reading the regulations of the Federal Migratory Bird Treaty are warned by the Conservation Department to beware of conflicting state law relating to some of the birds listed.

Several Southern and Central Western States have open season on mourning doves, a carefully protected bird in this State.

Some hunters reading the provisions of the Federal regulations might get the impression that an open season on this bird has been erected. It is not.

Hunters who had well-rewarded by a good bag of ducks after a day in a cold swampy lake or creek have had the cheering sensation of a wide survey of meeting areas that the "rod and gun" season in years is at hand.

There will be the largest migration in six years' history of the Huntington, vice president of the Game Birds, who will be in charge of the survey.

Flying over the nesting areas, four men traveled 12,000 ft. in 102 hours to make the count. They estimated that 40,000 nest sets had been laid and are nesting in the Great Lakes region.

ALL STARS NOW RULE FAVORITE IN PRO LEAGUE

Although Beaten By White Plains, 14-13, Locals Made Impressive Showing

The Mamaroneck All Stars, rulers of Westchester's own professional football field for more than a decade but relegated to a new low level the advent of "big time" football aggression by the New Rochelle Bulldogs, today loom as the favorite team to win the incipient Eastern Westchester County Professional League championship season now in progress.

Although White Plains' Bears, considered favorites by the black and white crowd, lost their game 14-13, Sunday, Mamaroneck linked like the better team.

White Plains, on the other hand, is not so generally, but proved to be sufficient to carry through the schedule with better than a 50-50 record.

With Benson, Caputo and Merello leading steadily, the Bulldogs took the first game by a 10-point margin, 10-0, and the second by 13-0.

AND NOW THEY'RE ASKING US FOR PROGNOSTICATIONS

Some reader, probably with the hope that the writer gets into complications of some sort, has written in and requested that we forecast the W. L. A. A. gridiron race at this time.

That's a job we don't relish, but obliging. Tackle New Rochelle at the present time must be regarded as the choice with White Plains the logical runner-up.

And who should we place in the third berth but Mamaroneck High School. And 'taint partnership either. The Tigers are really about the ordinary run of teams turned out at the Hilltop school.

THIS LOOKS LIKE NEWS

Superintendent of Schools Boothby reported to the Mamaroneck School Board the other night, that he had received a request from a parent asking that his son be punished by the school teachers. The Board has a by-law prohibiting corporal punishment, and it decided to adhere to that policy in this particular case.

We know nothing of the circumstances of the case but here is something which is apparently news. In the old days it was considered rather a matter of course for a teacher to mete out punishment as he or she saw fit. It was just a part of school routine and when Johnny came home and reported that the teacher had tanned his jacket, the chances were that the parent's sympathies would all go out to the teacher. In fact, Johnny was a very lucky boy if he didn't get a home-made thrashing to supplement the one the teacher had given him.

But times have changed and parents have become exceedingly touchy on this subject. It doesn't much matter what Johnny does in school now, if the teacher dares lay a hand on him, that teacher is mighty sure to hear from the front-line trenches. Many an enraged parent becomes so aroused because Johnny probably gets what is coming to him that he not only lodges a complaint with the School Board, beseeches the local editor to crack down on "the brute who beat up his son," but, then, when the use of the press is denied him, appoints himself the town-crier and proceeds to go hitler and hitler trying to stir up sentiment against the cold-blooded creature who has offended him. This too many Johnnies have come to think that they are rather privileged characters and that they can get away with anything short of murder in school.

So, it looks to us like news, when, in this day and age, a parent feels that his boy needs a tanning and respectfully requests the Superintendent of Schools to have the teacher give it to him. There is seemingly a shirking of parental responsibility but, not knowing all the facts, we cannot be too certain on that score. Undoubtedly the School Board took the right action and if the boy in question is a wise boy, he will perhaps profit by the knowledge that his parent is not one of the kind who believes that his child can do no wrong and who is willing to back up the teacher in her attempt to make the trouble-maker to the mark. It is somehow refreshing to know that that type of parent is not entirely extinct.

THINK IT OVER, GIRLS!

Miss Mabel Gartner, professional director of a New York Executive Service, spoke before the Juniors of the Woman's Club of Larchmont, a few days ago, and told the girls a few things they should remember when they go looking for a job. It was all good advice but nothing she said was more apropos than what she said about makeup. "Too much makeup," she told the girls, "is as bad as no makeup."

This is stating the fact mildly enough. If the writer had said it he would have said, "Too much makeup is a lot worse than no makeup." One has but to look around him to conclude that some girls labor under the impression that the value of makeup lies in the quantity that is used rather than in the manner it is applied. Many a pretty girl makes herself ridiculous because she does not know how to apply makeup. Instead of imitating the real artist who creates a masterpiece with deft strokes of the brush, she emulates the sign-painter who is not painting a masterpiece for microscopic inspection.

We do not know how many girls have secured jobs because they knew the artistry of makeup but we can easily imagine that a great many have failed to land jobs because they presented horribly dabbed faces to their interviewers. If Miss Gartner can do anything to convince her sex that excessive makeup is abominable, she will be rendering distinctive service.

READY FOR TENTH SEASON

The Larchmont Choral Society, which has rendered such splendid community service, is now preparing for the opening of its tenth season. It will hold its first rehearsal on Monday evening, October 21, and will again be under the direction of F. Colwell Conklin, who has labored so whole-heartedly to build up this organization.

Not only has the Larchmont Choral Society become an indispensable community asset but it has attracted wide attention beyond our borders. It has been a consistent winner in the prize competitions held for such singing units in Westchester County. It not only offers exceptionally fine training for our local singers but the concerts it gives from time to time afford great pleasure to our music-loving public.

That the advantage of being a member of this unit are appreciated is indicated by the fact that a majority of last year's members have stated that they will be back again this year while many others have made application for membership. It is expected that the 1935-36 membership will be the largest in the history of the organization. Those who have good voices and who would like to improve their vocal knowledge would do well to enlist for a season under the able direction of Mr. Conklin.

THE REPLACEMENT PERIOD

There are two points in the latest report from the Savings Banks Association of the State of New York which are pleasing although on the surface it would seem they are self-contradictory in significance.

First, the association reports, the people of the Empire State have on deposit more than five billions—yes, billions, not millions—of dollars in their 137 mutual savings banks, an increase of almost $34,000,000 over 1934.

The number of depositors has also increased to 6,819,000, a gain of 52,000 in the year. Yet the quarter ending with Oct. 1, shows a decrease in total deposits from the preceding quarter, which is a bit hard at first to reconcile with the statement above. It means in substance, that while the first two quarters of the year pushed up deposits tremendously, the third quarter fell off in total deposits because of withdrawals.

Now that isn't bad news by any means. Savings banks are fine institutions but idle money is a community, a state, a national liability. Consequently, when money is withdrawn after prior heavy deposits, there is reason to believe it is taken for spending purposes.

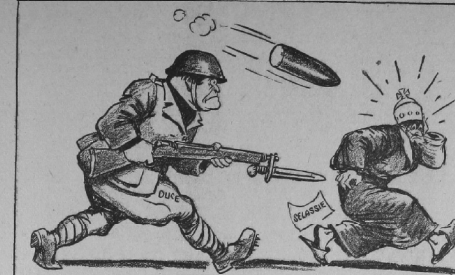

"If these figures show anything," says Harold Stone, President of the State Association, "they indicate a healthy desire on the part of the general public to replace what has been worn out during the last few years of skipping."

Replacement means more men employed in factories, more salesmen on the road, more stock on the merchants' counters and more profits all down the line. It means a general distribution of the money withdrawn from savings accounts to make replacements, money that eventually finds its way into the tills of shops, into the cash-boxes of the doctor and the lawyer, into the drawer of the tax collector, into the housewife's weekly budget account.

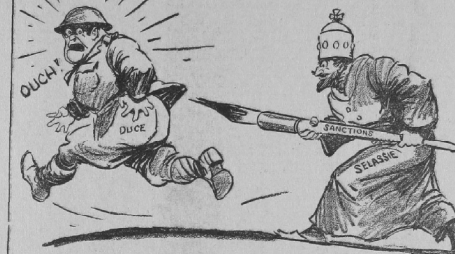

Articles will wear out. And they must be replaced if we are to maintain our fine standard of housewifery convenience and comfort.

That era comes about here and Westchester largely a residential community, must inevitably profit from the movement.

Behind The Headlines

By JOURNALISTIC EXPERTS

WASHINGTON NEW YORK

Believing nations must get it out of their heads that they can annoy American nationals or property on the high seas simply because of President Roosevelt's pro-peace policy. There's a hidden catch which usually means that the nations are not so popular and diplomatic as they seem.

The administration seeks to minimize the danger that 120,000,000 people may be dragged into war by what bristles a single shipper or citizen. It has decreed that the United States shall not take any immediate action of force. Not even highest officials guarantee that the scheme will work for another fourteen months.

But the United States absolute international rights under this treaty plan. According to the inside view at the State Department, if there should be derogations against Americans or their property in this country were the right to submit claims against offending nations at the close of the conflict.

Comptroller General McCall's friends are quietly promoting a movement to repeal the law barring him from reappointment after his 15-year term ends next June. Only consistent strong support in Congress, which respects his spending the executive branch, could the administration may not take kindly to the scheme. It might be a good idea to be disappointed several times. When Secretary Wallace was asked what he could find money to enforce the unpopular potato control act, Mr. McCall publicly pointed out how the funds could be scraped up. What made it worse was that Mr. Wallace had asked the Budget Bureau, and not Mr. McCall, for advice on the point. The usually obliging Budgeters disagreed with the acknowledged authority on government expenditures.

Mr. McCall also blocked or handicapped other projects. Mr. Roosevelt's substance committee at Washington is to be available as a presidential nominee if the GOP picks him. Many think he'd be the ideal man if finances, foreign expenditures make up the major campaign issue.

Mr. R. M. Oliver has returned to her home on Railroad Avenue after six months of several months in North Dakota.

Rev. Frank F. Getman, rector of St. Thomas' Church, with his family has returned from a month's stay in Maine.

The changing of gears in shifting the relief machine from PERA to WPA, has almost halted the federal program for taking care of the needy. Despite promises that 3,000,000 would be on work relief by November 1, that by November 15, it's impossible to estimate how many will be employed before the snow flies.

Local officials are filing litigation. In many instances they received PERA allotments for October based on their regular relief rolls. A week or two later word came that their funds for that month had been reduced 40 per cent. This means stopping many of the relief rolls and allowing payments to those who were retained. Meanwhile WPA projects and funds designed to fill the gap are not forthcoming.

With the approach of winter the condition becomes especially acute in the northern states. Free of the Hopkins hospital project can be undertaken in the cold weather sets in, and the same applies to other states. Mr. Roosevelt, Messrs. Roosevelt, Hopkins and others will have a real job on their hands when they return from their ocean cruise. They'll be the ones who will need relief then.

Legal
Of the record administration lawyers contend they have proved of nothing better than a 50-50 split in the four cases now on the Supreme Court's docket.

They expect to win the Hooper Mills Company action, in which William M. Butler, company receiver and GOP bigwig, has challenged the validity of the present sales tax. The AAA's best lawyers say they aren't worrying. But they also concede that the Bankhead Cotton Control Act will be upset because the tax imposed is purely punitive. D. of a rights doubt that they can win the steam clearance case, for the expert of the federal government to take over property is applied intensively rather than specified. They look to the court to sanction TVA's right to sell power to private municipalities.

Government lawyers will apply some surprises. In New Deal cases decided last May Mr. Roosevelt's legal staff pretty closely to legal technicalities. But in future litigation they will emphasize the philosophy of all these experiments and plead change of circumstances as partial justification.

Pass, Sarles to Hull, In Second Period Nets 7-0 Victory For Bellows '11'

East Enders Gain Second Consecutive Triumph In Grid, Repelling Mount Kisco-Lips County Team Threatens In Final Quarters

A convincing and brilliant passing attack late in the second quarter which carried the pigskin down mid-field across the goal line gave the Frederick F. Bellows High School eleven its second straight win of the season by a 7-0 score at Mount Kisco yesterday over the Mount Kisco High School.

Captain "Linky" Sarles was the hero of the touchdown march. It was his strong right arm which threw strikes in the hands of his receivers to gain most of the yardage in the long drive. After being blocked momentarily by the Mount Kisco forward wall when his backfield failed, the victors were able to snarl a short pass over center to a field which he returned to the score standing up. Joe Humphrey added the extra point with a placement that split the Bellows' defense.

There was no more scoring, although the losers carried the fight into Bellows territory in the second half and kept it there for the entire two periods. Mount Kisco's second drive into Bellows territory early in the third period. After an exchange of kicks Bellows had the ball in mid-field, but was penalized 10 and then five yards putting them in the hands of Ed Moore, who later recovered a fumble for the Red and White.

With Mamaroneck's crashing through the line and passing successfully to keep the Bellows' secondary from closing up, Mount Kisco kept to the eight-yard line. Moore eventually got them back to the 15. A pass to Paul Bell had only three yards to go, but a thrust through the left side of the line this fall and Bellows took the ball on its reward yard.

Kicks at Danger

But not until George Humphrey, standing 10 yards behind the goal line, kicking all the way to mid-field was the Red and White eleven out of danger. A second sentence by Mount Kisco stalled the Red and White. Coach McGee's leads took two running plays before the game ended. The passing and running of "Linky" Sarles was the outstanding feature of the contest. His tosses were at all times accurate, and a second bellows touchdown was placed well at center.

Fresh from a decisive 18-0 rout of the Colony Club of Yonkers, The Mamaroneck Dodgers football club confidently face the underdog Bryam Thunderbolts at the Bryam School field, East Port Chester, tomorrow afternoon. The same lineup that manufactured three touchdowns last week to hand the Yorkers eleven its first setback in four years will take the field for the Dodgers with one exception.

Ed Munster is slated to start at left guard in place of the injured Louis Di Forio, according to co-coach Frank Cane, who has been conducting practice sessions for the past week in preparation for tomorrow's encounter.

The Thunderbolts, coached by Charles Daniels, assistant at Greenwich High School, have registered three victories this season in 10 games, their victims being the Hillside A. C. of Stamford, the Stamford Training and the Tunkhasee Blue Jackets. For the past two years they have held their town championship.

"Red" Kennedy, former Greenwich High School lumina, will lead the Bryam team, their victims being the Hillside A. C. of Stamford, the Stamford Training and the Tunkhasee Blue Jackets. For the past two years they have held their town championship.

SPORT RAMBLES

By LOUIS BLEIWEIS

WILL THE ALL STARS TEAM BE ONLY SHADOW OF PAST?

Or will the return years of semi-professional football a dosage signal their halt? These are some of the questions that sport fans are asking in connection with the return of the All Stars to the football field in Mamaroneck tomorrow, facing New Rochelle in an Eastern Westchester League fracas.

County sports writers, who were present at White Plains last Sunday and saw the locals in action against the routed Bears, were unanimous in their opinion that there was good in the Mamaroneck football bills and that the All Stars had a team that was really a creditable eleven.

CUNNINGHAM WILL AGAIN BE CYNOSURE OF FANS

Can Joe McGuire, Charley Hector, "Chuck" Verro, Bill Holder and other fine backs steal the thunder away from the idol of local grid fans, Bill Cunningham? We doubt it. As far as we can see, Bill will again be the center of attention tomorrow when he assumes the halfback role for the Stars.

Last week Cunningham flashed the same brilliance in the backfield that has been his wont for many years in the past. His own sweep, off-tackle slices, passing and kicking were revelations to the team's supporters.

LEAGUE AN EXPERIMENT TO TEST THE FANS' SUPPORT

At the beginning of this season, a group of enterprising young managers got together and agreed that Westchester was a fertile field for a semi-professional football league and that the fans were prepared to stand back of such an undertaking.

The spirit of the meeting ran high and a league did materialize. Whether that league is to exist and to grow is entirely up to the fans. Their support is vitally necessary.

PELHAM WALLOPS SCARSDALE, 26-0; DAVIS IS BEATEN

Mount Vernon Eleven Suffers First Setback—Harrison Victor

A pall of gloom hung over Pelham Memorial High School's football camp through the entirety of the pre-season practice period. Coach's Bill Shilling and Art Schaeble drilled an apparently green squad for the 1935 campaign. Today Pelham is celebrating its second overwhelming victory of the season, having scored over Scarsdale yesterday by 26-0 to take its ninth straight win in two seasons.

While Pelham with Johnny Butrows once again playing in all-star style, was rumpus over Scarsdale's gridmen, A. R. Davis of Mount Vernon, originally scheduled to play Rogers, N. J. Jay College today, succumbed, 18-0 to Horace Mann, New York's undefeated team of last season. Davis was heretofore undefeated and undefeated in three games.

In an important intra-city contest, Saunders outscored Yorkers County, 26-0. A startling upset was registered by Richard Bell, 20-0 victory over Greenwich, Conn. Carl turned back a strong North Star team, 19-2.

LANDOWNERS ASSOCIATION READ FOR HANDING SEASON

WHITE PLAINS, Oct. 15.—With the hunting season opening today on wooded lands in the town of White Plains, the Landowners' Mutual Protection Association of White Plains announced a declaration of war on all hunters who ignore its restrictions.

The association, formed five years ago, covers 2000 acres of land in Westchester and Putnam Counties and has a membership of 1000.

Last year it successfully prevented a proposed 100-acre tract from being used for hunting on posted land at a $10 fee.

SPORT RAMBLES

ALL STARS SHOWING WAS DISAPPOINTMENT TO FANS

The large crowd that turned out on Sunday to watch the All Stars football team, highly touted in advance as a crackerjack grid outfit, were a mighty disappointed crew at the close of the game when the Home Towners took the short end of a 13-0 score against the New Rochelle Huguenots following a hollow exhibition.

On the previous Sunday, the Stars had given a great performance in holding the White Plains Bears to a 14-13 tally and outplaying the County Seaters, but the spark of that day was not present at all in the battle against the Huguenots.

The team lacked luster and all in all showed a lack of cohesion that was surprising for a mid-october game.

TEAM WILL UNDOUBTEDLY BE BETTERED AFTER THE FIASCO

"Buck" Freeman, the hustling coach of the team, is not the sort of a man to sit around idly and watch things occur in a manner that doesn't suit him.

"Deliver or I'll deliver my own," is the fashion in which "Buck" does things, so look for a much improved eleven in the next contest.

Albis aren't in his line so "Buck" is determinedly setting out to see that no repetition of Sunday's contest will occur the rest of the season with no excuses offered for his team's slide. "Everything happened," Buck declared.

DODGERS CONTINUE TO DISPLAY GRID ABILITY

The Mamaroneck Dodgers evidently are headed places and in putting the skids under the Byram Thunderbolts last weekend added more than a little to their reputation as a scrappy, smooth-working outfit.

Any such further performances as was shown on Sunday by the All Stars would seem likely to result in a possible happening realized. The All Stars must perk up to keep step with the younger Dodger club.

UND efeated East Enders Face Major Test In Fray With Techen Who Held Port Chester To 18-14 Last Week—Dedication Exercises

Plans are going forward for the formal dedication, Saturday of the new Rye Neck Stadium located in the rear of the Byram Warner School when Edmond Tech of Mount Vernon battles with the highly undefeated Bellows High School eleven.

The game is expected to provide the biggest test of the entire season for Bellows. Edmond Tech last Saturday held the strong Port Chester W. L. A. team to an 18-14 score, edging a powerful attack against the Scepters and causing them no end of worry before the final whistle blew.

Bellows will rely again on their passing attack that has already humming two loss this season. The East Enders hold a 7-0 victory over Scarsdale High and a 7-0 triumph over Mount Kisco.

It is not probable that any changes will be made in the Bellows line up which has turned in two victories to date.

Planned Plans for the celebration of the opening of the new stadium include a parade from the F. E. Bellows High School of officials and school children, and athletic exhibitions by pupils of various grades. The newly organized Bellows band, under the direction of Mr. Olson, will add music to the occasion. One thousand leather seats are being erected to accommodate the large crowd of parents and friends who are expected to attend.

Edmond Tech has yet to win in four starts, but has been no worse than a tie against the White Plains team. A. R. Davis took Mount Vernon to the wire, 27-0 in the opener, and Dwyer blanked the Techen again the next week, 20-0. Tuckahoe High School won a one touchdown victory.

Pelham Favored Over Orange In Friday Contest

Undefeated, Unscored Upon Pelicans Ranked With Best In County

The most formidable opposition it has encountered to date will face the Mamaroneck High School grid squad Friday afternoon at the Hill Top field when the undefeated and unscored upon Pelham High School eleven trots forth on the field of battle.

Passing what sports writers rate the third strongest team in the county, second only to New Rochelle and White Plains, Pelham will be the favorite to keep its record unblemished in its meeting with an Orange aggregation that has won but once in three starts. In contrast to Mamaroneck's lone victory over the Washington Redskins, with a breezy 20-0, and over Scarsdale 27-0, Coach Carl Hilltop's regulars played only one period and a half in the first game in showing a resolutely powerful St. Michael's team.

According to Coach Story, the Hilltoppers will have few changes from the lineup which opened the Washington struggle. A brief battle may be switched to guard and Dick Eggers promoted to right tackle.

Mamaroneck players were cheered by the news that Captain Phil Rimmans, who had several stitches taken in his lip as a result of an injury received in Saturday's opening battle, will take his regular place in the line and that Phil Schellinger, who received a severe shaking up, is also expected to play.

Injured Hank Swell But the injury line that has been dogging the Tigers all season may be the services of Tammy Dwyer, Melvin, whose hand is badly swollen from being stepped on by Mamaroneck's line, and Jimmy Rigano, who underwent a three operation last week, are out to the eleven for the week.

Mamaroneck will outpitch the visitors eight pounds per man on the field. The Pelham eleven's handball weights are about even. The Pelham line averages 164 as compared with the Orange's 172 and the handball quartet 167 1/2 as compared with Mamaroneck's 160.

Johnny Barrows, the Pelham fullback, has been practically unstopable and is already being considered for All-County by Pelham and the Vernon sports commentators.

The 175-pound forward is characterized as being one of the best line crumblers seen in Westchester in years.

Some were gliber than they have lost are the Dodgers and the Captains, who have taken two out of three 75 matches will be showing at the St. Thomas alley.

COUNTY'S ANNUAL EXPOSITION OPEN AT WHITE PLAINS

Creative Talents Of Westchester Residents Are Shown At County Center

WHITE PLAINS, Oct. 16.—Creative talents of Westchester residents, what they do when they play, what they think is beautiful, how they spend their leisure hours, how they dispose of the waste days of unemployment, are shown in dramatic form at the second annual Recreation Exposition which opened last night at the County Center.

The show far surpasses last year's not only in the number of exhibits but in staging and in the wide range of recreational interests demonstrated.

Local county recreation commissions and playgrounds usually take first honors in interest. Recreation committees of Port Chester, Mount Kisco, Eastchester, and Boardville have particularly dramatic exhibits showing arts and crafts developed during the last year and setting forth with pictures and miniature stage sets activities of those communities.

Hobby Displays Striking

One hundred entries from the amateur camera clubs of the county portray the high type of photography of camera enthusiasts.

In one booth members of the Archers' Association make bows and arrows and show how to use them. The Little Opera Company demonstrates with pictures and sketches the strides of Yentles made by that amateur group.

A splendid display of the handicrafts of Yentles people is shown by that city's Recreation Commission.

A big display gives full information on accomplishments of the Westchester Workshop.

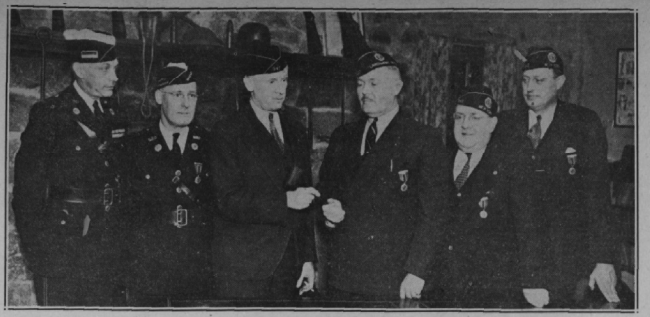

Some of the most beautiful articles in the show are to be seen in the exhibition of the Mount Vernon Recreation Commission, which displays more types of jewelry and crafts than any other with the possible exception of the large display staged by the New Rochelle Recreation Commission.

The story of childhood and the way in which Westchester cares for its boys and girls is dramatized by Children's Camp Handwork.

The booth that drew the largest crowd last night is that of Camp Elmfield, the camp for transient men. Carvings, furniture, weaving, ship-in-bottle, sawed-in-handred articles which homeless men have made are shown by men themselves who seek shelter at Camp Elmfield. Westchester wares will win many of the prizes which have been made by hand.

County Commander McGuffin Conducts Larchmont Post Ceremony

Wyman D. Herbert was installed as commander of Larchmont American Legion Post 347 last night at an impressive ceremony conducted by County Commander George W. McGuffin of Elmford. The installation followed immediately after the annual election.

Other officers installed were: Harold T. Hughes, first vice-commander; Walter Haszlett, second vice-commander; Malcolm H. Smith, third vice-commander; Dr. Mitchell L. Potvin, adjutant; Lester C. Fazio, finance officer; the Rev. Robert M. Russell, chaplain; John L. Deitz, judge advocate; Herbert P. Hutchings, sergeant-at-arms; Benjamin A. Colonna, historian.

Ingress to the activities of the city's fall after studying pictures shown by the Animal Protective League. Even the latest will want to take to the woods and fields at the park exhibition of the Westchester Trails Association and those of the park departments of the county and state.

Not all the articles on display are business—there are two deer from Lake Saratoga whose pen is in a containing seven kinds of live snakes and a cage of pheasants shown by the Fish and Game Association.

There is also the largest and finest show of tropical fish yet to be staged in Westchester. The fish exhibition, staged in the lower hall, is one of the most beautiful sections of the show, every type of rare fish being seen in tanks set along two walls of an aisle that leads three large, beautiful tanks containing rare fish valued at more than $2,000.

The Townsman Plan Committee has 2 booths showing the recreational facilities of Westchester County available to men and women past 60 years of age.

Canoe Exhibition Tonight

Tonight W. Van B. Claassen, vice-commander of the Atlantic Division of the American Canoe Association, will give a demonstration of canoe safety on the steps of County Center. His act will take the place of an athletic show by the Mount Vernon Tug Verein, which has been postponed to Friday night.

After the canoe act, Herman Schaefer, national checkers expert, will stage a game of checkers, and a gigantic checker board made by the Westchester Workshop.

RYE NECK SCHOOL BOARD HAS PARTY

Entertains Teachers Of The System At Dinner At Lawrence Inn

Eighty-two teachers of the three Rye Neck schools were present last night at a dinner and reception given by the Board of Education in honor of the new instructors of the system at Lawrence Inn.

Dr. Irving A. Maxwell of the School Board was toastmaster.

A welcome to the instructors was extended by Harry W. Bell, president of the Board of Education.

Among the speakers were Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Donald M. Tower, Miss Mildred A. Torrence of the Bellows High School faculty, the first graduates of Rye Neck High School, Trustee Arthur W. Malaga, Principals Harold C. Trone, Miss Marie Haggerty and George R. Ayres, Trustees William J. Kahn, Clerk Edgar E. Howe and Miss Augusta Stearns of the Daniel Warren School.

Mrs. Garnet T. Triner of the Board of Education was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

The dining room was colorfully decorated in the colors of Bellows High School, blue and black. Flags and banners also lent a decorative appearance.

Mrs. Tower, a soprano, sang several selections. Mrs. Tyson acted as accompanist.

BUDGET REQUESTS INDICATE COUNTY COSTS WILL RISE

It should be said in this connection that substantial reimbursements are expected from state and federal funds, when congress makes appropriations under the Federal Social Security Act.

"When final adjustments are made it is hoped that net expenditures from county funds will not be any greater than in previous years."

Among the other items causing the increase, according to Mr. Fulger, are: mother's allowances, $25,000 larger than in 1934; special relief items, $25,000 larger, and food costs, $25,000 to $30,000 greater.

The welfare department is making a total appropriation of $2,257,812 compared with this year's budget of $2,064,700.

The Park Commission requests an appropriation of $24,458, or approximately $28,000 more than the 1935 Budget appropriation of $166,660.

"This increase," Mr. Fulger said, "is due largely to the necessity for additional funds for repairs which the budgets of the last two or three years and also to the increase in the estimated revenues for 1935."

ALPHABET ORIGIN DISCOVERED BY A RESEARCH EXPERT

George Lamsa, Internationally Known Ethnologist, Makes Announcement

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
(Copyright 1935 by United Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Dr. George Lamsa, internationally known ethnologist associated in research with Smithsonian Institution scientists, today announced solution of a centuries-old mystery—discovery of the origin of the English alphabet.

The discovery involved search of ancient Greek manuscripts, the revelation that the Greeks themselves had no idea where the alphabet came from, and finally the ultimate discovery of the first alphabet as used among the fabulous civilizations of the ancient Near East.

Arames, a language which spread through the Euphrates Valley about 600 B. C. and a later form of which was spoken by Jesus, provided the key. The accents of the Near East, Dr. Lamsa found, developed the alphabet, almost as it is known today, from observing the sun-disk and other objects at every hand.

Almost every letter of the modern alphabet once was a picture with a definite meaning of its own—from "A," which meant God, to "V," which meant the human hand, Dr. Lamsa

FRENCH PROPOSALS FOR PEACE OFFERED

Great Britain to consent to conclude three negotiations.

(Copyright 1935 by United Press)

PARIS, Oct. 16.—(Special Press)—Complications of alarming extent were disclosed today coincident with Premier Pierre Laval's sudden effort to bring Italy and Great Britain together in peace negotiations.

French and British viewpoints are far apart, it was learned, despite the surface cooperation at Geneva in applying penalties against Italy for its war on Ethiopia.

It is indicated that Great Britain is willing to make no concession to Italy unless Premier Benito Mussolini first calls off troops now advancing in Ethiopia.

Usually well-informed newspaper commentators now suggest that there may be a clash at Geneva this week and between France and her Balkan allies over support of Britain.

Reasons for acute French anxiety over recent events in the Italian crisis are understood to be:

1.—The peace plan which has been advanced to ensure a friendly settlement it was significant that the first letter in the V and C, meant respectively God, house and canal, or the doily, home, and transportation.

With a little imagination nearly all the letters in the present day alphabet are understood to be pictures, modified through the centuries, of the objects they originally represented.

THE ABSENCE OF A DETACHMENT FROM FRANCE TO THE BRITISH MIGHT BRING ABOUT A DETACHMENT FROM THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

It is said to intend to insist on a definite statement before Germany's withdrawal from the League of Nations becomes final next Monday so that Britain may then restate its own policy as regards the League of Nations Pact in view of the altered situation.

A report that Italy has asked France if it would be able to hold the Brenner frontier under the League of Nations treaty against Germany in case of attack while Italy was occupied in Africa was received with incredulity at first, but it persists.

It is significant that the first letter in the V and C, meant respectively God, house and canal, or the doily, home, and transportation.

With a little imagination nearly all the letters in the present day alphabet are understood to be pictures, modified through the centuries, of the objects they originally represented.

CONSTRUCTION TOTALS 400 PERCENT AHEAD OF MONTH YEAR AGO

Survey Of 11 Communities In Westchester Reveals $225,000 Invested In September Of 1934 Compared To $1,165,000 This Past Month—Gains Continue

By THEODORE B. GOETZ
WHITE PLAINS, Oct. 17.—Westchester building last month was 400 per cent ahead of September, 1934, a partial survey of the county showed today.

Figures so far this month are 600 per cent above September last year and October may end 50 per cent in advance of September this year.

This Westchester's biggest industry is having its first real boom since 1929—although the figures don't yet look like 1927 and business men in all walks in the county are watching, cheering.

A survey by the newspaper and other officials in the county covered the four cities, five of the largest towns and three of the largest villages.

In these 11 communities, building permits worth $225,000 were issued in September, 1935, $1,165,000 last month, and $723,000 the month before.

Several outstanding indications of a boom were revealed by the survey. Yorkers in 15 days this month has had more building than last month and three times as much as a year ago September.

White Plains, with a big new apartment building this month, is already more than 400 per cent ahead of last month. Here has passed last month's total in two weeks.

Local Figures
September building in this township shows an increase of almost 400 per cent over the figure for the same month in 1934.

Six Hurt In Plane Crash
COLUMBUS, OHIO, Oct. 17 (UP)—Six men were injured today when an Army airplane crashed into a building of Fort Hayes troops during maneuvers six miles south of Shadville, near here.

G. O. P. Concentrates On Assembly Fights

Election Of Five Republican Legislators Is The Aim Of Party In Westchester—Certain County Ticket Will Win

By HUGH W. ROBERTSON
WHITE PLAINS, Oct. 17.—The real goal of Westchester Republicanism in the coming elections is to elect its five candidates for the assembly.

Confident of victory of the county ticket and leaning largely to local needs the city and county leaders of the G. O. P. county organization has planned to exert every ounce of resource toward winning the county with its legislative candidates.

At present there are four Republicans and one Democratic assemblyman in the lower house at Albany and one Republican and one Democrat in the senate, the upper house. Senators run in even-numbered years and two-year terms so that this battle is deferred until 1936.

But in the matter of assemblymen, Republicans place in state party committee in selection next year of national and state candidates, in the very conservative themselves. Hence no Republican state chairman Melvin Eaton has been touring the state predicting triumphs of the assembly this year. Included in that prospect is a state Republican delegation from Westchester, which would meet elimination next month of the sole Democratic assemblyman in the other districts held against Republicans.
