CASE OF LUCKY LEGS DUE NEXT

Genevieve Tobin Has The Lead In This Picture Coming To Playhouse

The latest of Eric Stanley Gardner's best selling novels to be screened by First National, "The Case of the Lucky Legs" comes to the Playhouse tomorrow with Warren William again cast in the role of the famous and astute lawyer-detective, Percy Mason.

The picture is said to be the most thrilling and exciting of all Gardner's stories, and carries an unusual romance with sparkling dialogue and hilarious comedy situations, in addition to breathtaking sequences.

It opens with a contest for the girl with the most beautiful hair, with the murder of the man who presented it, after he had shipped town with will the proceeds. The killing is tied up with a triangular love affair in which the winner of the contest, Patricia Elliott, her boss, Foster Hall, and her doctor-lover, Leo Talbot, are involved.

After the police are completely baffled, William steps in and solves the crime in a series of the most breathtaking adventures imaginable.

Genevieve Tobin has the leading feminine role as the wise-cracking secretary of the lawyer-detective.

Others in the cast include Allen Jenkins, Barton MacLane, Peggy Shannon, Anita Kerry, Craig Reynolds, Henry O'Neill and Joseph Crane.

Archibald Mays directed the picture from the street play, "The Case of the Holmes and Mr. Manslow, while Jerry Chodorow adapted the story.

Hide Spang Is Star Of The Play, "One Good Year"

"Clothes do not make an actress," says Hide Spang in "One Good Year." "You must be able to make a Christmas tree. But they do add coloration and interest to what might otherwise be commonplace and unexciting. Extrinsic details enhance the illusion for the actress as well as for the audience. For me, careful preparation comes in the form of such a beautiful gown that I actually live a role."

"One Good Year," for instance, my clothes help me create the part of the woman doctor, specifically I forget about myself and while playing this role, become a medical consultant.

With this remark, Miss Spang walked over to the wardrobe closet, opened the door, and proudly displayed her garments.

"Now, look at these outfits," she said as she held up several mannish suits and tailored blouses. "These make me a part of a modern, business, professional woman, one who has her own ideas in any emergency. They make me understand the casual, matter-of-fact effect that a woman doctor strives for."

"Thanked-for-the-idea-of-a-dress-dresser, I believe that support or confidence in the scientific advice of a doctor can be indeed in the place. I have the feeling that my recommendations just as patients would. They laugh and at the same time take my counseling seriously."

STUDENT HONOURED William J. Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Simpson, of 100 West Pine, Tuxedo, has been elected to Ad Honor, honorary chapter society at Cornell University. William who is a Junior, is a member of the varsity hockey team and last Spring was the ranking player on the varsity tennis team.

BOOK REVIEW

By JANE STREICH

"Miss Cratchit" by Mary Ellen Chase - Macmillan Co. $1.50

Mary Ellen Chase's book is a story of a woman who is a best-seller, and perhaps one of the best-sellers of the year "Miss Cratchit." This new story is one that has been told many times in the past year, but with infinitely more finesse, simplicity and a rather glowing hope for the future that many modern authors do not have. The Depression has struck a lot of women, but few of us but Miss Chase and her various leading characters refuse to give up. The story begins in the early nineteenth century, when the scene is gradually becoming an idea popular with the public, and leads on to a conclusion, when Miss Cratchit is creating

NO. TARRYTOWN HOST TO ORANGE AND BLACK FIVE

Stage Contest Tomorrow At Tarrytown—Tiger Attacking Plays Criticized

Following a hollow exhibition against Greenboro High school last Friday in which the Tigers bowed to the Orange and Black Five, the Tarrytown High School basketball team expects its first victory of the season tomorrow afternoon, against North Tarrytown High School in combat at the Tarrytown gym.

North Tarrytown is regarded as one of the powers in the Hudson Valley League despite the fact that its basketball team has been thoroughly reorganized since last winter. It is necessary because of the game played by graduates.

Mamaroneck displayed a very aptly attack against Greenboro, but it was entirely in coming out on the short end of the score. A shot from the middle of the last two minutes enabled the scoring stars to come from behind and win by a large point.

Coach Bill Harris employs an attack at the Hilltop school that is not only in coming out on the short end of the score, but also in the forward manœuvre for position. As the forwards are diminutive in size, they are not so many as the attack is built up within a few seconds after the pass is handed to one of the guards.

Of necessity, the Orange center, Fred C. Jones, is called and lead and shoulders above any of his teammates, must be close to the basket for the most part of the game. It depends the task of protecting the ball from the Orange and Black Five. According to many critics, with the attack.

MILIONS DECIDE TO PLAY SANTA CLAUS

Local Service Club Will Provide Gifts For Youths At Children's Village

The Mamaroneck Lions Club yesterday voted to play Santa Claus to the youths of Children's Village, a cottage of 20 boys at Children's Village, recreational institute at Dobbs Ferry, on Christmas.

Dr. Irving A. Marshall, chairman of the entertainment committee, planning for the Christmas party of the club, announced the suggestion that the step be taken and immediately it was accepted with enthusiasm by the service group.

On the advice of Dr. Marshall, the club will purchase a sweater for each boy, and a pair of socks which will be filled with candy, fruit and articles such as tooth paste, tooth brush, soap, bathing mirror, etc.

In addition, the members will bring games from their homes for the youths.

A barrel will be placed in the meeting room at next Tuesday's luncheon meeting to serve as a receptacle for the playthings.

Plans are proceeding for the club's own Christmas party to be held next Tuesday evening at the St. Thomas Christmas House, Dr. Marshall reported.

He said that the Women's Club president has agreed to handle and sing Christmas carols. A tree with all the advantages of the festive occasion and laden with presents for each member will be the center of attention.

Dr. Charles A. Ray, chairman of the civic committee, reviewed the discussion on the harbor dredging project which was the subject of a referendum last Spring by pointing out that over $150,000 had been spent since 1922 by the county, state and federal government on work related to Harbor Island and that an additional $35,000 was needed to complete the work.

An immediate discussion ensued with members making the suggestion to the understanding that the subject be raised in the community.

The prevailing sentiment that Dr. Ray is of the belief of the people that the $35,000 would only be a drop in the bucket and would lead to much greater costs in the future, was emphatically stated.

President Fred H. Bull, Jr., instructed the civic committee, which is composed of Dr. Ray, William Kuntz, Charles A. Galt, and William H. Baxter, Jr., to confer with village officials as to the community funds for the harbor dredging project.

Mr. Baxter announced that the award of the Scudder's Memorial Trophy given for outstanding service during the year in the community and presented last year to Mr. Galt, would probably be made during the middle of January.

The Rev. E. Foster Piper was introduced as a new member of the club.

DAMSKI WANTS SEELIG MATCHED WITH CHAMP

Paul Damski, manager of Irish League, midweight contender and a resident of this village, has returned from Cleveland where he had a 20-round decision over Paul Pyrene, hard-hitting contender, and is trying to sell the Madison Square Garden management the idea of boxing Seelig against Babe Risko, the division contender, in a championship bout.

In the event that Matchmaker Jimmy Johnson does not see the difficulties that might stand in the way of the bout, the fight will not be staged before March.

Seelig is scheduled to leave next month with Damski and Walter Nosed for England and will not return until the early spring. He still maintains that he intends to make his permanent home here.

BURGLAR STEALS CASH IN TAVERN

$21 in Bills And Change Taken From Place On Mamaroneck Avenue

Twenty-one dollars in bills and change were stolen from a table in the back room of the Tavern at 232 Mamaroneck Avenue early this morning.

The discoverer of the money was given after being called to the back door had been pulled away from the room.

When Kennedy looked for the cash where he had hidden it in a glass behind some bottles, he found only the empty glass. A search of the room also failed to locate the money.

Detective Ryan, called several days ago, was unable to locate the money, as there is no one who would be likely to have the money.

The tavern is to be sold to the village for the waterworks reservoir improvement.

"A number of the most popular stars of the industry will be in the line of fire in '36," he said. "The year of '36 will be a year of disaster for the industry."

JOTTING DOWN NOTES WHILE THE GAME WAS IN PROGRESS

The first round of the Mamaroneck-Buffalo basketball game which was taken by the Tigers, 23-20, was Max Wharton's foul shot and the first field goal was a short heave by Artie Poshen.

Poschen did not stay in the battle long, going out on fouls after 14 minutes of play, but during his stay checked up seven points.

Max Wharton, who scored that winning touchdown against Harrison last Fall by catching Lucky Barker's pass in the end zone, had a great night in juggling up 10 passes.

POSCHEN, BROWNIDGE TOWERED OVER TEAMS

Bellevue had three six-footers on its team, but these lack looked like mules when winged alongside Poschen and Ashley Brownidge, the two Mamaroneck slugs.

George Humphrey, the Bellevue point-man, was tied up into knots by the guarding of Ashley Brownidge.

For fight and "never-say-die" spirit, you've got to hand it to the East Enders. They never knew when they're licked.

GINGER ROGERS IN PROCTOR FILM

Popular Star Will Be Seen in "In Person" Over the Christmas Period

Eight years ago a film, re-acted youngster, Jack Green, was crowned the Charleston champion of the state of Texas. Today that youngster, Ginger Rogers, is hailed as one of the most popular motion picture stars. Currently she plays the dancing feet in "In Person" which opens today for a show at the RKO Theater's New Boulevard Theater. To Ginger Rogers this picture is the climax of eight years of hard work.

Ginger has traveled a long straight road since that day when she and her mother were stranded in Charleston when they did not have sufficient money to pay the bill at the shabby Loop hotel. It was Ginger's mother who took a cheap cafe.

When Miss Rogers started out again in Louisville, she was a hit. Since that time she has been traveling around the country, playing with her in this story of the loves of a motion picture actress are George Brent, Alan Mowbray, and Grant Mitchell.

The other feature on this three-day bill is "The Phillips Oppenheims" with Edmund Lowe and Valerie Hobson.

WILSON'S AUNT DIES

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Wilson of East Bronckville Drive, Larchmont, have been called to Mass. by the death of Mr. Wilson's aunt, Miss Agnes Wilson, one of Philadelphia's oldest residents.

JULIE VISITS SANTA CLAUS

Robert Schmitt Injured In Year's First Skating Mishap

In the first skating accident of the year to be reported here, Robert Schmitt, 24, of 90 Shadrack Avenue, Schmitt, was painfully hurt last night at Larchmont, Ontario Lake. Western State Police say Schmitt was skating backward at the time and failed to notice a sign stuck in the ice to generate its safety until he had crashed into it. He was treated by Dr. G. C. Lyons and later sent to the New Rochelle Hospital for great injuries. Later he recovered and was sent home.

"MUTINY on the BOUNTY"

with Clark Gable

FRANCOIS TONE

"Mutiny on the Bounty" Has Laughton, Gable And Many Other Noted Players

Mutiny on the Bounty! In the midst of every layer of sea adventure, every picture of life, of the bounding main, the white of a boy's "cat" on a sun-baked deck, the creak of billowed sails, paradise in the South Sea, hardships, the stern arm of the law of the sea—above all, adventure.

"Mutiny on the Bounty" which opened today at the Loew Theatre, New Rochelle, cannot be compared to any other film achievement. It stands alone and is so fitting of its kind that it has, ever, been named as what may be named for years to come.

It is not "romance" as actually that place a hundred and fifty years ago, a true chapter from maritime history that resulted in a great reforming of all 70 of the sea and was a climax for all time the brilliant treatment of the crew as we expect and suffered.

"Mutiny on the Bounty" has been faithfully reproduced from the sensational work by James Norman call law and Charles Noyes, in the form of the use of motion picture art work—its story as H. M. S. "Narcissus" told it.

The little seaman, Roger, H. M. S. "Narcissus" tells for the South Sea on a scientific mission to transport the breadfruit to the West Indies, and a crew is a motley one of convicts and sailors. He is picked up by the tyrannical Captain Bligh, who knows only one law—the law of the sea.

Captain Bligh is featured in "Mutiny on the Bounty" by Charles Laughton, who makes of the character a ruthless and harsh disciplinarian. In truth it is the greatest performance Laughton has ever conceived in the screen.

"Three Men on a Horse" Has Four Different Comedies

The unusual multiplication of "Three Men on a Horse" by four different stage companies now playing in New York, Boston, Chicago and St. Louis, offers both a parallel and a contrast to the earlier years of the century when the No. 2 and No. 3 companies were in their heyday. In the fall of 1910 "The Fortune Hunter" with John Barrymore, was having a phenomenal Broadway run, while another act was touring the large cities. "Seven Men on a Horse" was the next hit and on the road. Both of these pieces enjoyed many weeks at a time in several cities. They were under the management of Wagnhals and Hammer who were the first to produce two "Full in Full" companies.

Henry W. Savage had an eastern, western and a southern "Madame X." "The Third Degree" was still making a hit with two companies, while two each were offering "Philly of the Circus," "The Gift from Beethoven," "The Man on the Boat," "The House of a Thousand Candles," "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and numerous contemporary comedies.

Attractions presented in triplicate included "The Girl from the U. S. A.," "The Merry of Winter," "This Last one was one of many routine successors to "Ben Hur." A melodrama called "Daniel Boone on the Trail" was being done by four companies—was evidence of widespread interest in re-creating it was in history.

LIEN SALES SPREAD AS OWNERS DEFAULT

Proof of the inability of the Westchester resident to support his numerous governments is seen in the number of tax lien sales, which were held by some units in 1934 for the first time in their histories. Here is Comptroller Hasbun launching Yonkers' sale, which had a record roll of delinquent taxpayers.
