Harry Talgo practically lives baseball. Hardly an evening or weekend afternoon passes by that he's not sitting coveting on either a hardball or softball diamond...

PROCTOR IN PICTURE

Chunky Howard Proctor, 5 feet 10 inches, 160 pounds, will give the fallback part a real try at Mamaroneck High when Fall opens up under way that Coach George Brown doesn't shove him in at local scene.

Monahan Allows 8 Blows—Schemel Raps Double, And Scores Winning Run

Respected Joe Santoro pitched bravely in a mound duel with one Jim Monahan yesterday at Harbor Island and the Home Town boys came through with a five-hit performance which set the invading hosts upon one of his nine collective ears.

Joe was in top form as he led the Mamaroneck All Stars to a 2-1 victory over the Harbor Island ball club before the usual number of Sunday fans at the Island diamond.

While the former Bellevue High team was shaking its invaders with exceptional ardor the bats of the Home Town bludgeoners showed no real damage done...

WATER? LET'S ONE WAY YOU CAN COOL OFF! Step into a tubful of warm water and "follow through" with a shower, allowing the water to change gradually from hot to cold. The result will be that you'll feel not only cool but greatly refreshed.

One way—an easy, economical way—of having clean hot water on hand the moment you want it is to use an automatic gas heater. Thermostatically controlled, it uses only enough fuel to heat the water. There's no waste.

Less Than 8 Cents a Day You can heat 50 gallons of water automatically by gas for less than 8 cents! Fifty gallons is usually enough for a family of four for one day.

"It has been maybe thirty years since I first came across the writings of Dorothy Dix, and through those years I've come to call her friend because about the only difference between us is that she has taken the world into her heart, while I have had to concentrate on raising my own family. "She has common sense, humor and a temper. She can laugh, sympathize or get good and mad and raise merry Ned if need be... and I've often figured that if she knows how to help thousands through their troubles, her system certainly ought to work for me and mine..."

"Maybe I've never written to her for advice, but what she says about other peoples' problems I can apply to my own family... and it works."

REPUBLICANS WIN FIRST VICTORY IN SURROGATE FIGHT

Court Refuses To Allow Posing of Shells Ballot in Evidence

DEMOCRATS SPEED CASE

Weiss Indicates He Will Complete Evidence By Friday

WHITE PLAINS, Aug. 11.—The Republican Party today scored its first major victory in its opposition to a suit by Surrogate William J. Shells, Democrat, for an order to allow a ballot cast by Mr. Shells in White Plains, which had not been counted on Election Day, to be introduced as evidence.

The decision of Supreme Court Justice Francis Bergan, to use the Democratic lawyers immediately to ask for a conference of all parties concerned in the case, to be introduced into the court for the purpose of settling on procedure for future introduction of ballots.

The absentee ballot was cast by James Scott of Mr. Martin Avenue, White Plains, in the "Poulet District" of the "White Plains" ward.

Julius Weiss, chief counsel for Judge Shells, asked that a sealed envelope containing the ballot be opened in court. When the ballot was produced, Mr. Weiss said it was cast for Shells, and asked to allow it in evidence.

Alfred M. Bailey, counsel for the Republicans, objected on the ground that the envelope containing the ballot had been opened once before and that there was nothing to indicate whether or not it was the original one.

Mr. Weiss argued vigorously for introduction of the ballot as evidence, claiming that Mr. Bailey did not object to the ballot being presented until after it had been opened and that an added Democratic vote would be gained.

Justice Bergan ruled for Mr. Bailey.

Mr. Weiss has indicated that he will challenge 1,200 absentee ballots, but it could not be determined how many of this number will be affected by Judge Bergan's ruling.

The fight for control of the Surrogate's office was speeded towards a final decision before Election Day when Weiss indicated that he will complete his case by Friday.

Should Mr. Weiss rest his case on that day, the Republican forces opposing Judge Shells' petition for six-year terms, will probably begin their defense on Monday, with the ultimate possibility that the first phase of the legal fight will be ended within another ten days.

Justice Bergan will probably hand down another decision in order to expedite the decision to the Appellate Division and Court of Appeals.

Leaders of both the Shells and Republican groups have indicated a willingness to have a final adjudication before Election Day in order not to extend the legal contest at the polls over the office.

Two witnesses were called by Mr. Weiss this morning when sessions were resumed.

The first was Robert A. Simon of 215 Montrose Avenue, White Plains, who testified that he voted a (Continued on Page Five)

Boys Swim Away After Molesting Occupants Of Craft

A group of youths described by one policeman as a "bunch of young brats," landed on a canoe containing two young girls in Mamaroneck Harbor yesterday, annoyed the girls and finally swam away.

They were the object of a search being made by police and Harbor Master Richard B. Savage today.

The girls, Constance Bimenthal, 18, of 100 Montgomery Circle, New Rochelle, and Elaine Stern, 17, of 100 Montgomery Circle, New Rochelle, were paddling in a canoe southeast of the Westchester Beach Club yesterday between 1:30 P. M. and 2 P. M.

Seven boys, ranging in age from 16 to 18 years, were swimming at a beach opposite the Beach Club and when they spotted the girls, they jumped into the water and swam toward the canoe. They pulled around the canoe, making frightful remarks, Mrs. Bimenthal said, and finally turned the canoe over. The girls were thrown into the water. The boys attempted to fight the canoe and the girls clambered over the side. The girls continued to luster about the water and swim toward the canoe and look the paddles from the girls.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 11 (AP)—Japan choked Shanghai's Whangpoo River with a score of war ships, scattered others on the banks of the Yangtze and poured between 500 and 1,000 blue-jackets into the city in the newest Sino-Japanese war crisis today.

JAPANESE ARMY HEADQUARTERS announced today that the Japanese Army today launched a smashing attack on strong Chinese positions defending the historic Nankang Pass through which the Peking-Hankow line passes.

Before explaining what our demands are, we would like to point out that the garment industry is not a monopoly.

EIGHT SEEK POST AS SCHOOL HEAD

Rye Neck Board Interviews Applicants For Superintendent

Eight applicants for the post of superintendent of the Rye Neck school system, succeeding Dr. Donald M. Tower, who resigned recently, were interviewed by the Rye Neck Board of Education at a special session last night in the Frederick E. Bellows High School.

No definite action was taken by the board, although it was expected that Dr. Tower's successor would be named by a vote of some-thing like 10-8.

The names of the applicants were withheld by the board.

The majority of applicants are non-union, but some are union men, it was pointed out, and the men chosen by the board must obtain a release from his present contract before accepting the new one. A delay of some days, therefore, was expected.

The board, with all members present, including Trustee Everett H. Smith, who has returned from a vacation trip to the Great Lakes, met with Dr. Irving A. Marsland, President, presiding. It remained in executive session from 8 P. M. until nearly 2 A. M. today, Clerk Fred J. Griffith said.

Dr. Tower resigned to become associated with the Onondaga State Normal School.

Taskers To Seek Injunction Against Contractors Of New York Shaft

WHITE PLAINS, Aug. 11.—The City of Yonkers, with an eye to preventing the noise and expense of its best known industry, yesterday joined with its residents in seeking an injunction against the contractors of the new shaft for the city's water supply.

Judge Abtlin declined to say whether he would go down and see for himself, except to look at the plans and affidavits, and reserve decision on the application for a temporary injunction.

He indicated to counsel for the plaintiffs that there is a grave question whether they might not be regarded as interfering with the city's water supply.

3-FRONT ATTACK AGAINST SHELLS OPENED BY GOP

Republican Defense Opens Second Stage of Surrogate's Trial

MOVE ON FOR DISMISSAL

Shell's Voters Applications Also Faulty, G. O. P. Counsel Claims

WHITE PLAINS, Aug. 17—A three-way frontal attack on the claim of Surrogate William J. Shella to a six-year term was begun today by the Republican Party as the Democratic incumbent's trial before Supreme Court Justice Francis Bergan entered its second stage.

Alfred M. Bailey and State Senator Walter W. Weis, counsel for counties 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

Mr. Weis interposed objections to Mr. Bailey's claims that the applications were faulty on the same grounds that Mr. Weis had attacked more than 300 applications of absentee voters who had supposedly voted for the late Surrogate George A. Slater.

Mr. Bailey also argued a technical victory when Justice Bergan permitted him to amend his affidavit and add a claim that Judge Shella waived all rights to contest for a six-year term by allowing the surrogate's bench following Judge Shella's death.

Mr. Weis sought to block the amendment, but Justice Bergan held that Mr. Bailey was within his rights.

The Republican Party attorney also announced that he would present proof along three lines. The first, he said, will be an attack on applications of voters in various districts where no Slater absentee ballots had been cast, but shells voters did appear.

The second will be an attack on applications of voters in various districts where no Slater absentee ballots had been cast, but shells voters did appear.

The third will be an attack on applications of voters in districts where the ballots were divided by both Mr. Shella and Judge Slater or where there was a preponderance of Shella votes.

It appeared that Mr. Bailey's strategy was to challenge as many Shella votes as possible, thus forcing Mr. Weis' attack on the 300 Slater absentee voters.

COPELAND OPENS ATTACK ON BLACK

Senator Injects Ku Klux Klan Issue in High Court Nomination

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17 (AP)—Senator Copeland (D-N.Y.) raised the Ku Klux Klan issue against Senator Black (D-Ala.) in the Senate today with a statement that he felt "outraged by this proposal to put a Klan sympathizer on the Supreme Court."

Opening the debate before crowded Senate galleries on the nomination of Black to the Supreme Court, Copeland said the nomination should be rejected if the Klan relationship is accepted as true, but that if there was doubt about it, the senatorial mind should be bent back to committee for an investigation.

HIS WORK IS HIS HOBBY

Training Youth Is Hobby Of Rye Neck School Head

New Superintendent Here To Take Over Duties, Combines Recreation With Work; Leonard Also Likes Tennis And All Kinds of Sports

A hobby, and rare enough it is, of "training youngsters to become better men and women", is both recreation and work for Bernard A. Leonard, newly-appointed superintendent of the Rye Neck school system, who arrived yesterday to assume his new duties.

Immediately after his arrival, Mr. Leonard conferred with Dr. Irving A. Marland, president of the Rye Neck Board of Education. He also expected to confer with Dr. Donald M. Tower, whose resignation led to Mr. Leonard's appointment.

Asked his age, Mr. Leonard laughingly replied that he had played tennis with youngsters 20 or more years his junior, and "had them puffing and blowing after the match." Tennis and "all kind of sports," he said were among his hobbies.

"But my main hobby," he added, "is training youngsters to become better men and women. That, I believe, gives me more honest recreation and joy than anything else."

Wide of shoulders, neat in appearance, Mr. Leonard is of average height, and is, perhaps, on the plumper side. He has black hair, streaked with gray, brown eyes shaded with thick eyebrows, strong, even teeth and a jovial laugh.

"My policy here," he repeated in question, "is to carry out the motto of Dr. Marland and the Board of Education, I expect that fully a year will be required with the students and with the school system as it is now being reorganized."

Mr. Leonard expects to move to Mamaroneck within a few weeks. He has two grown daughters, one of whom, Miss Gladys D. Leonard, is teaching at Yorkton Heights, N. Y. The other daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Leonard, is attending the State Normal School at Plattsburgh.

ALBANY LEADERS TO OPEN PROBE OF SEX-CRIMES

Both Parties Agree To Create Special Legislative Committee

AIM TO CURB OUTRAGES

Group, Headed By McNaboe, To Work With Fund Of $20,000

ALBANY, Aug. 17 (UP)—Republican and Democratic legislative leaders agreed today to create a special legislative committee to study means of halting outrageous sex-crimes throughout the state.

The committee, to be headed by Sen. John J. McNaboe, New York Democrat, will have an appropriation of $20,000.

The legislative leaders—Senate Majority Leader John J. Dunningan, Brook, and Speaker Oswald D. Hoels, Democratic, agreed upon creation of the special committee, despite previous disapproval of Governor Lehman.

The governor vetoed the original appropriation for the committee after it was sent to him by the 1937 Legislature. As a result, the $20,000 will be taken from the legislative contingent fund.

The leaders moved to create the committee after the recent outbreak of sex crimes in New York City and elsewhere in the state.

In Reek's Assembly District yesterday a 15-year-old girl was beaten and criminally assaulted, police charged. Two other girls, they said, were held prisoners.

They were reported to have exacted the opinion privately that available troops could not meet the situation because of the number of persons to be moved and the time required.

"There are about 4,000 Americans in Shanghai. The Marine strength is about 1,150, and several thousand other soldiers and sailors are in the trouble zone."

NEW BRIDGE AN ASSET

The official opening of the Hillside Avenue bridge on Thursday was a more important event than many of our citizens appreciate.

Speakers at the opening ceremonies stressed the thought that a bridge should not only serve the purpose of bringing together the people who live on both sides but that it should bring them into a closer unity of understanding and friendliness.

Supervisor Fred G. Schmidt of Rye could not force an opportunity to inject a little humor into the ceremonies. After agreeing with Supervisor McCulloch's remarks on the purpose of a bridge, he said: "I wonder if it wouldn't be a good idea to have a one-way bridge—one way to Rye."

DR. TOWER'S SUCCESSOR. The Rye Neck Board of Education is to be congratulated on finding a man apparently so well fitted as B. A. Leonard, supervising principal of schools at Elmford, N. Y.

Mr. Leonard was one of eight applicants for the place who were interviewed by the Rye Neck board. The members of that board were strongly impressed by Mr. Leonard and, inasmuch as his educational background was also impressive and his recommendations most convincing, he was made the choice of the board.

His service in Elmford began in 1932 when he was made assistant supervising principal of the schools there. In 1933 he became supervising principal and held that position until called by the Rye Neck board.

MONEY-MAKING HINT. When the Fall house-cleaning starts in, most housewives make it a point to get all the old rags together, call in the rag-man and convert this needless clutter into a little cash which is so useful.

There isn't a house which doesn't have in it a few articles which might, quickly be converted into cash. There are many families which are short on cash, who could replenish their pocketbooks if they took this means of disposing of articles they no longer have use for.

converted into cash. There are many families which are short on cash, who could replenish their pocketbooks if they took this means of disposing of articles they no longer have use for.

Classified advertising in The Daily Times is not expensive and it brings results. Mrs. Housewife would do well to give her attention to this.

CUTTING THE LIVING COST

New York's City Health Department has revised its living schedules and has handed to its relief recipients a food program which shows how a family of five can live on $8.05 a week.

It can be expected, perhaps, that relief recipients should live high but most housewives will agree that it is neither practical to count out the grains of salt nor to hand over calories with a medicine dropper.

Sometimes my head goes in history and my cheeks burn with shame for Westchester. I had an attack like that the other day in Bennington, Vermont.

NEW ROCHELLE, Aug. 28.—Drew has retired today the battle pen and will of Frederick, Harry Oppen, "Drew" of American cartoonists, who drew comic strips for 57 years longer than any other artist in his profession.

His retirement ended the career of Happy Holliday, the cartoonist, the man with the top on his head, and Ghoulie, the ghoul, a ghoulie in Oppen's home in 1937. The Club called him "Drew" and the cartoonist "Drew."
