A young woman who had forgotten an aunt's birthday was riding on a street car a few days after the event and happened to meet the very same aunt.

The niece apologized for her thoughtlessness, explaining that she would have called in person if it had not been raining.

Score one for Auntie! As a matter of fact, regardless of the weather, a telephone call is a nice, personal way to remember a birthday or anniversary.

It is particularly appreciated by persons living in another town or city. And you'll likely be surprised to find out how little it costs to send your voice across the miles, especially at the low rates in effect to most points every evening after seven and all day Sunday.

TAXICAB DRIVER SPURNS RELIEF

Negro, Recovered From Illness, Wants New York To Take Family Off Dole

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—Eugene Casey, 32, Negro taxicab driver, sent a letter to the city treasurer today stating he wanted to know how he could "pay back" the $430 he and his wife received.

"Just to let you know me and my wife have no further need for the relief," he wrote. "I am putting my cab on the street and would like to be out on my own. Please if you can let me know how I can pay back. Thank you very much sincerely."

Eugene W. Casey, "Ora La Casey," the letter, which arrived at City Hall amid mounting requests for relief, was attended by a notary.

Casey, born in South Carolina, said his household went on relief when he was ill in city hospital.

He explained it "was in line with the way I was raised up to wish to repay the aid, now that he's able to work again."

"That's the way I'm raising my kid boy," he said.

M. H. S. AND BELLOW'S TO GRADUATE 250 STUDENTS JUNE 28

(Continued from Page One) Following commencement the class will file out and go to the gymnasium where a reception will be held and where they will receive their diplomas.

The reception following the program was an immense affair of last year. The high school orchestra will play processional and recreational music.

Each graduate is given four invitations to the event, two of them intended for the parents, provide for seats on or very near an aisle.

According to Mr. Abrin every parent should have a good view of his child's graduation.

"Building the World of Tomorrow" the commencement theme of Bellows High School, is based on the World's Fair. Harold Augustus Graham of Greenhaven, noted author, who will make the commencement address, will have a topic in keeping with the theme.

The three student speakers, Miss Rosemary Eastman, Miss Helen Westcott and Richard Strohbehn, will deal with the theme of building for better international understanding between nations through the fair.

Edward Leonard, superintendent of Hyde Park schools, will award diplomas and honors to graduates and other prizes will probably make those awards. Rev. Foster Zipes, pastor of the St. Charles church, will ask the benediction.

Both boys and girls will wear caps and gowns of dark blue. They will march into the auditorium and onto the stage and will march out following the exercises.

The orchestra will play "Powers are to the graduates will be used as part of the stage decorations."

Survivors Recall Slocum Disaster

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—A solemn little band of survivors today recalled a June morning 24 years ago when historic "Hell Gate" on New York's East River became in reality a blazing inferno filled with the screams of a drowning day of the General Slocum steamship disaster.

The excursion ship carried 1,081 victims to fiery death in one of the world's great marine tragedies. The 34th annual memorial services of the disaster were held at the Lutheran Cemetery in Middle Village, where 900 of the victims lie buried.

CHURCH PLANS SEX CLASSES ROCHESTER (UP)—A proposal to give sex instruction in Sunday School classes for pupils between ages of 14 and 18 years comes before the United Lutheran Synod of New York convention today. The sex-instruction proposal, which calls for parental approval of the plan before it could be instituted in a church, is one of five points in a social welfare committee report urging more thorough study of marriage and divorce.

INDUSTRY SHOWS MODERATE RALLY

Auto Output, Cotton Manufacturing Lead Way in Gain From Low Point

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—Industrial activity rallied modestly from the previous low point but weak, with substantial gains in automobile output and cotton manufacturing leading the parade. The Associated Press seasonally adjusted index, based on latest available statistics and with 1929=100 rose to 66.7 from 65.8 a week earlier and compared with 104.2 last year.

Automobile production was up sharply as Ford started his assembly line moving again after a short shut-down. Steel mill activity improved slightly.

The big bulge in cotton consumption coincided with the placement of a huge WPA order for some 37,000,000 yards of cloth.

Residential building continued its rising trend of the past three months, touching a new high for the year approximately one-third above the February low point.

Represented at the meeting were the Sons of the G. A. R., Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Disabled American War Veterans and Jewish War Veterans.

CONGRESS HOPES TO CLOSE TODAY

(Continued from Page One) Its audit committee, comprising a resolution for a separate inquiry into any complaints that the WPA is slacking politics, proposed instead an investigation into the use of any federal or state money in campaigns.

The House met two hours early to clear its calendar and still leave time for the usual song-singing. The delay in adjournment held up President Roosevelt's departure for the wedding of his son, John, at Nahant, Mass., Saturday. The chief executive remained at his desk to see on the final read of bills, but will depart by special train shortly after Vice President Garner and Speaker Bankhead whack their gavels for the last time. The President was slated to take a last-minute scrubbing on the veto of a bill to continue low interest rates on government loans on farm lands and commodities. Mr. Roosevelt declared the measure would cost $20,000,000.

The veto, dispatched to Congress yesterday, was promptly overridden in the House by a vote of 244 to 87. The Senate arranged to vote today and leaders forecast it, too, would vote to enact the bill.

Third Sacker's Blow Clears Base; Santoro Scatters Opposition Hits

The lusty bat of Jim Tobin, third sacker and former New Rochelle high ace, once a victory song for the aghast Mamaroneck All-Stars yesterday as they noted on a fast Port Chester Holy Name combine at the lower diamond, Corpus Christi Field.

The victory was 3-2. With Dave Stewart, Charley Lane, and Joe Santoro on the base, Tobin swung hard at one of the veteran "Babe" Rogers' fast balls and connected for a triple to the far outfield, driving in the three only runners, and the fifth frame. Not only did Tobin star at bat, but he also played an extremely light defensive game at the hot corner.

The committee least saw D. White, local Shamrocks journeyed to Manhattan Bay, there was considerable local interest in the snip spot race of Orienta T. LARGEST GRADUATING CLASS

With the graduating of approximately 200 students on June 28, Maroneck High School will have its largest graduating class.

What is going to be one of all the new graduates is a question that is being asked all over the country today as a result of the lack of employment and the limited opportunities for securing a foothold in business and industry.

Mamaroneck can take pride in sending forth 200 young people who are prepared. It could take little pride in graduating High School, at this time, was graduating a class which numbered far below its proper quota.

THE TAXPAYERS SPEAK

It is always wise for those in authority to listen carefully to the expressions of opinion of taxpayers groups, for these represent the citizens who foot the bills and who, to a large degree, vote for candidates from a viewpoint of economy in administration.

Particularly worth it is advisable for county officials to weigh the arguments advanced by the Westchester County Taxpayers' Association, the only countywide organization of this type, for this group has never been impulsive in its views or extreme in its demands.

Three further reforms in county government, over and above those already adopted in the new county charter, were asked by this association at its annual meeting last Tuesday evening.

The second reform would create a debt commission, with power to veto any county or city or town or village or special district bond issues unless the improvement is considered necessary and wise, such veto to be wiped out, however, by a majority of the affected taxpayers vote for the bond issue after the veto.

In this connection it might be explained that where such bond issues relate to public school education, there may be appeal from the debt commission's veto directly to the state department of education, which may overrule the debt commission by ordering a referendum.

The third reform proposed is the establishment of a county department of assessment, to take over the functions of assessing property valuations as now exercised by city, town and village assessors.

The taxpayers' association also wants amendments to the state constitution. It asks for one which would limit taxes on real estate for all local tax purposes, other than interest and amortization on outstanding bonds, to two per cent of the assessed value.

The association wants further a state amendment limiting local debt so that future bond issues cannot be issued for any improvement of less than 10 years duration. And as a third amendment, a municipal finance commission in the state administration, empowered to review and revise local budgets when petitioned by three per cent of the resident taxpayers.

WESTCHESTER'S CREDIT STILL GOOD

The credit standing of any corporation is usually tested by the willingness of financial institutions to lend it money at a low rate of interest.

This was an even better interest rate for the county than was the rate on the regular bond sale in April when the interest was .8152 and it is interesting to note that both issues, the $422,000 in April and the $625,000 yesterday, were purchased by an investment company whose head is a resident and former town official of Harrison.

It is of further gratification that there were 18 bidders yesterday, all representing substantial investment firms and banks, whereas no farther back than five years ago only one bidder appeared to bid for county bonds, and bought them all at a small fraction under the legal maximum interest rate of six percent.

There is one other point which might be considered significant. The reader may wonder why it is that county bonds are sought so eagerly at such low interest rates, when private corporations and individuals seeking loans experience great difficulty in successful negotiations with the banks.

In other words, county bonds are far except and would be the last to default before the state and national governments, in the eyes of investors, whereas the banks do not know what may happen in the form of increased taxation or further governmental regulations to impair the fiscal standing of private enterprises.

As if the banks were as sure of the soundness of private loans as they are of those made to county, state and nation, there would roll from their vaults such a golden stream that recovery of business would be a matter of months instead of years as now.

THE DAILY TIMES

Published Every Morning, One of 12 Dime Issues... MAMARONECK, N. Y., TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1938

Subscription rates for mail in the United States... THE OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE VILLAGE AND TOWN OF MAMARONECK

TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1938

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS... THE ASSOCIATED PRESS is authorized to publish in its newspapers...

ASSESSMENT REDUCTIONS ASKED... Town of Mamaroneck officials are faced by approximately 250 applications for reductions in tax assessments.

There is nothing startling in the situation. Taxpayers have been so sharply brought up against it that many of them find it necessary to fight for any possible advantage...

The claim that property values are not what they were is too obviously true to be contested. On the other hand, many items which enter into municipal management are exceptionally high and the need of tax money is most keen...

The Board of Review clearly has a busy Summer ahead but not so hard a one as would be the case if the great majority of the grievances were based on claims of inequality in the assessment roll.

THE DEADLY WEEKENDS... Police throughout Westchester had not anticipated any particular volume of trouble over the last weekend.

Nevertheless the weekend showed seven deaths in this county, the largest fatality list of any weekend of 1938. There were two drownings, one in Peekskill and one in Yorkers; a manslaughter in Tuckahoe a fatal train-boarding accident in Peekskill and three deaths by automobile, one in Mamaroneck, one in Mount Pleasant and one by a hit-and-run driver in Hastings.

Just ahead is the second of the year's three-day holidays, the Fourth of July weekend. What it may bring in fatalities and injuries time will tell. But you can start right now taking precautions to see that you and members of your family are not among those in the newspaper death list next Tuesday morning.

DEFEATING ADVERSE CONDITIONS... Rather good reading was the story carried in the papers the other day regarding the awarding of the M. Samuel Stern Memorial Prizes which are awarded annually to pupils in the elementary schools of New York City, who are chosen as the best examples of what can be done under adverse conditions.

These children had made marvelous scholarship records and had outdistanced their more fortunate brothers and sisters. They had made these records in spite of handicaps which would have conquered them had they not possessed an indomitable spirit. Instead of letting their handicaps crush them, they looked upon these handicaps as added fuel for their incentive.

This we call good reading because it should show most of us what willers and quitters are compared with people who really have something to write about. Most of us are physically fit enough but we have a tired feeling which we cultivate until it becomes a worse handicap than any which cannot hear and eyes which cannot see.

SEARCH FOR LABOR WISDOM... There will be a good deal of interest in the mission of the site experts representing business, labor, education and government, whom President Roosevelt has sent abroad to study labor problems in England and Sweden.

This we call good reading because it should show most of us what willers and quitters are compared with people who really have something to write about. ALBANY CONCLAVE TURNS TO LIFTING OF GAMBLING BAN

Convention Delegates Discuss Proposal To Eliminate Old Law

ALBANY, June 29 (AP)—Constitutional convention delegates, weary after hours of wrangling over the "search and seizure" issue, turned today to discussion of another controversial subject—whether to remove New York's ban against gambling.

They took up for general discussion, preliminary to a vote next week, a proposal by Republican Delegate Henry Hirsensberg, Orange County, calling for elimination of the constitutional anti-gambling clause.

Sharing interest with the gambling discussion was a message to the delegates by Governor Lehman, cautioning that adoption of a proposal to require the state to pay the entire cost of railroad grade-crossing elimination soon would require approximately $200,000,000.

49 Complete Educational Training At Rye Neck Exercises

Young men and women leaving school today must strive to mould their lives' work to the imperfections of the world, to get along in it as best they can, rather than to revise persons and conditions around them in a highly reformist manner. That was the address given to 49 graduates of Frederick Bellows High School last night at their 49th annual commencement exercises.

The speaker was Harold Augustin Chahian, of Brevoort Lane, author of the semi-symbolic offering of Michelangelo's famous carving of David's head, and how that famous sculptor moulded his art into an imperfect block of marble.

YONKERS, June 29—Westchester is the chosen of a development that will make it one of the greatest metropolitan districts in the country. Richard Wadsworth, a nationally known editor, told 400 civic, political, business and industrial leaders of the city at an annual Chamber of Commerce dinner last night at the Ritz Hotel, Yonkers.

The dinner was marked by presentation to Mr. Wadsworth of a silver plaque from the northern end of the county. The plaque was presented to Mr. Wadsworth by the Chamber of Commerce.

The first ceremonies were held at New Canaan Avenue intersection, where the Merritt Parkway is now, which Governor Crosscut had authorized in 1928.

It was at King Street that New York State and Connecticut representatives participated. Following the presentation of the two states and the two counties, the Merritt Parkway will eventually connect with the Boston Post Road at Stamford. Connecticut representatives also participated.
