You've really come a long way since the good old days in the "7" Building with Joe Kennedy. At that time we both wanted to be D.A. about the best thing I got through football this year was really getting to know your "inside being" as an individual which is why we are really good friends now and I know it will continue because you have a unique ability in that you can make people laugh - especially when "being serious" is around. Besides this you are a real sensitive guy with a set of "BEEPIE EYES". You displayed your talent this year as a secretary and as a basketball star in the Junior - Senior game

 You made the season move a little easier. It wasn't so bad - the year here (well, maybe it was) take it easy. Oh yeah -

Dear Joe,
 I don't know what to say to you. I know your mad at me, so I'm sorry. I remember the night on the way home from the game way up in Whopper Falls, when ~~we~~ we had a real "heavy rap." we got to be pretty good friends since then but now, since certain things came up we sort of drifted apart and I'm sorry for that too.
 Remember Mondo's + the Excorsist those times were fun and I'll never forget them you a really good kid and a great person to talk to.
 Good luck always in everything you do. Take care say hello to Dulac love for me always,
 Peggy

and I remember the days we would play football together. More than anyone else though man you've really come a long way since last year and it shows on the outside what is why you are such a cool "dude" on the inside. Stay cool and I know I'll see you over the summer and if you around Pennsylvania next year stop in and see me cause we will always have a lot of good memories to share. Keep on growing and be cool - Buster Val
