Postmen Drop Insulators Into First Place Tie In Major League

Parks Subdue Bazookas, 2-1 As Clippers Nip Printers

The Post Office five in Larchmont bowled a Major League, overpowered by Christmas mail, nevertheless rose up in its wrath last night and smote the league-leading Insulators in three straight games, knocking the Insulators into a tie for first place. The upset was not the result of any startling alley bowling by the Postmen, but rather the outcome of poor bowling by the Insulators plus the fact that they were rolling with a blind.

In other matches the Postmen had an excellent chance to take the league lead when they dropped the two games of their match to the Clippers, 2-1, while the Insulators took a 2-1 series from the Printers.

Every one of the three matches, despite the fact that there was no high scoring, developed into an exciting fray. The Post Office bowled in the 24th series, was always in danger of losing to their eventual victims, the Insulators. The end of the three games in particular, was close as the Mailmen just managed to edge out their way by a matter of four pins.

The name and Bazookas were hampered by low scoring. Walt Ferdin had high single for the match hitting 190, but Tony Fallace of the losers took high series with his 52. The Bazookas were fortunate to score the third game, winning it by a matter of only 14 pins.

It took the third match of the night, a match which had no bearing on the standings, to produce the highest scoring. The leaders, curiously enough, were both members of the losing team. Cahill led the Printers as they tripled, while the Clippers by 2-1 when he rolled a 221 single and a 574 triple, both high for last night's bowling. Shirchio wasn't far behind with 212 and 278. The best of the winning Clippers could do was Baggett's 229 series. The Clippers, however, heard their way on more consistent scoring by all five members of the outfit. They were fortunate to win the second of the three contests, taking it by only three pins, but the first was always theirs and the third game was easily taken by the Printers.

Center's Card To Feature Heavy Hitters

WHITE PLAINS—Judging from the heavy-hitting caliber of fighters that make up tonight's card on the center it appears doubtful that the program will feature the entire 34 rounds scheduled in a special six-rounder. The semi-final will bring together Eddie Tomney, Fallon and Randy Drew, Newark, N. J., middleweight slugger. The far scored a hit with local fans here two weeks ago by the manner in which he clubbed out a layo win over Leon Anthony.

A special out of four rounds will be the return to boxing Tony Mann of Brooklyn, and Steve Klak, of Garfield. This pair of contenders has thrived the last few weeks as they slugged each other to a Mexican standstill. Another six-rounder will round out the card.

Gifford Snaps Kegling Marks

THE Rev. Frank Dean Gifford, bowling with the Mamaroneck Lions Club team, snapped the marker for a 602 series last night to score the highest total in the last two days of rolling in the Westchester-Putnam Town Club. Gifford's series was built on games of 224, 250, 219, and second of the three strings in the high single in his top for the last two campaigns.

In completing his record string, Gifford, at one time, rolled 319 in a row, he remained the first game with two straight strikes and kept a six-inning streak in the second contest. He finished the second game with three strikes in the ninth and tenth frames. The 219 third effort was based on a four-inner in the middle of the first string.

A recapitulation of the record's recent bowling shows rolled 224, 250, 219, and second of the three games. Curiously, his last and longest game was the only one in which he rolled a 219.

The Lions Club team as a whole, meanwhile, was turning in poor scores to be matched up against the total of the Old Greenwich five which did its bowling on Friday at Old Greenwich. Their scores were not available at a late hour last night, so the local League is not sure whether or not they managed to gain anything on their

Ruffin-Angott Lightweight Scrap To Head Garden Card

The last important lightweight match of 1943 takes place at Madison Square Garden Friday night when Sammy Angott, former world champion and present National Boxing Association titleholder, scrapes Robby Ruffin, crack Long Island contender, in a contest scheduled for ten rounds.

When 1943 opened Angott was out of the lightweight picture and he had several times vacated his title. He had retired from boxing a few months before and in going so had yielded the championship, though New York he decided to return to the ring because long had again established himself as one of the top-ten 150-pounders.

In October at Longwood, Calif., he met Sluggo White in a bout over the N.B.A. sanctioned as a title event. Angott was overwhelmingly and once again claimed the championship, though New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania recognize White as the rightful holder of the crown.

As for Ruffin, he was given no consideration at all as a title contender.

East Enders Have Edge Over Tigers In Tomorrow's Court Contest

Rileymen At Full Strength; Bellows Starters In Doubt

Basketball rivalry between Mamaroneck and Bellows High Schools will be resumed tomorrow at 7 P. M. when the two squads clash in the first game of a home and home series. Tomorrow's contest will be fought out in the Orange and Black gymnasium, with the Rileymen attempting to break in to the win column, while the Tigers try to add a second victory to the victory they scored in their opening game against Skolnik.

The Blue and Black squad from Bellows will also be attempting to avenge the double defeat they suffered at the hands of Mamaroneck last year.

Both squads hope to be at full strength for the contest. All of Mamaroneck's first string outfit participated yesterday in a long scrimmage against Englewood. At that time the Orange team ended up on the short end of the score in the unofficial game as the squad showed definite improvement over its work in last week's game against Englewood. Coach Ring stated the team he expects to open the game tomorrow, with Gibbon and Glendon at the guard positions. Lovaloni and Brennan at forwards and Carter holding down the pivot spot. The rest of the Tiger first string got into the game as Coach Riley gave all of his squad a chance to play. Tom outscored the Hilltop outfit but the Orange five put up the kind of a battle which proves a rout for Bellows tomorrow afternoon.

Meanwhile the Blue and Black five was enjoying a day off. No practice was held yesterday at Bellows because Coach Jack Hasky couldn't get his first string together. Norm Ottmann, Dick Carpenter, George Carpenter and Peter Cottard are all recovering from bouts with grippe. All of them hope to be in shape tomorrow afternoon and Coach Hasky is expecting to start the same team which, thoroughly wiped out, they last week. Ottmann and Dick Carpenter will be at forward posts with Dick Joyce at center and Bob Joyce holding up with George Carpenter at the guard positions.

Off the messenger record of both teams the Panthers made some definite favorites in tomorrow's game. Bellows whipped a weak Skolnik team while the Tigers were looking in an inspired way. Coach Hasky is confident that his team can happen in a Bellows-Mamaroneck game. Should the Tiger five score a team record of six or more points, individual players will run into trouble, and plenty of it. Should the East Enders lose any of their key players because of illness they'll find themselves in definite difficulty all the way through anything they show up, but from what they've shown thus far this year, and taking in for granted that both squads will be up to par, the Panthers should win, but will be by no means an easy victory.

LINEUP COMPLETE
MAMARONECK (AP)—Andy Kreczko, College football coach, announced completion of his 23-man football squad with the selection of John Traverso, Indiana center-backer, and Cecil South, Ohio State end.

Craig Wood Competes In Miami Tourney

Miami, Fla., (AP)—If Craig Wood's putter starts smoking again and brings him first money in the four-day $5,000 Miami golf tournament, which starts today, he will be a "near-you-never" golfer.

"I'll be playing for keeps trying to collect all the money bonds I can, of course, but the tournament is chiefly important to the blood bank, as it was in 1941, and I do it with an ailing back strapped up tightly on my back."

He underwent operations last February and his back now is "as strong as ever, but his golf game is not playing masterly, as he said. "I'm playing miserably," he said. "I have entered only two tournaments since the operation, the four-hour event, with Jimmy Demarest to win the Minneapolis tournament and the Miami event in the Victory Open in Chicago."

Wood's return to the golf course. There's nothing really wrong with my golf, but I'm honored by the change after the operation."

"I wish I could be a golfer again. That's why I'm going to work so hard. It looks as if the year might not last for much longer. They may even decide to play the Open which was in Europe, but I'm not sure."

"Naturally my biggest ambition is to win the Open again. I'm going to work so hard. It looks as if the year might not last for much longer. They may even decide to play the Open which was in Europe, but I'm not sure."

Centers Win 2-1, Gain Tie For Community League Lead

The hectic race in the Larchmont Community League got even higher last night as the Centers, paced by some stellar rolling on the jaws of Wood and the two Saporitos, took the C. P. T. outfit into camp and drew into a tie with the losers for the league lead. Tied with the Clippers for second place when the night match began the Centers found themselves up with the C. P. T. outfit for first place when the contest was over.

The winners started slowly, dropping the first game by 41 runs as the C. P. T. outfit consistently to score 82. But then the two Saporitos and Ward got going. M. Saporito rolled high single games in three fairly consistent games on 138-105-167.

The final game was the closest of the three. This time it was the Centers who provided the margin of victory for the Centers as they rolled up 21, second high game for the night. When the scores were totaled at the end of the game the Centers had taken a tepid victory and won a tie for the league leadership.

All of the high running in the match was done by the winners as Ward scored 536 high triple at the end of the game. M. Saporito had high two game and Ward Saporito managed to roll a 217. Ward's series was based

D. Reed is the chairman. The program was supervised by the Larchmont Choral Society, the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls. Village Manager William J. Johnson pointed out today and during the two months from Sept. 30 to Nov. 15 the village collected 100 tons of paper. Others who contributed to the salvage of paper were the A. & S. Super Market, the Food Company and the village industrial employes.

Chairman's Resignation Follows Withdrawal Of Two Other Members

RULING RESPONSIBLE

Since there has apparently been no change in the status which the federal government has assumed in respect to engaging in a private business which deals in any way with the government, John W. Baum, chairman of the Larchmont-Mamaroneck Rationing War Price and Rationing Board, has submitted his resignation to the regional administration in New York, following the withdrawal of two of the board members, Percy R. Everett and Thomas Whitbread.

Mr. Everett, a certified public accountant, submitted the resignation a few hours after the board was advised last week of the resignation, and Thomas Whitbread, dealer in Oriental and antique goods, resigned yesterday.

Austin K. Griffin, the fourth member of the board expected to be affected by the law, has not yet resigned since at the present time none of his case involves government dealings. He is reported to be preparing to resign. Mr. Baum's letter, a copy of which has been sent to the regional office, is in his letter of resignation. Mr. Baum's resignation was accepted by the regional office. Mr. Baum is an investment advisor for a life insurance company and Mr. Whitbread is a certified public accountant, resigned last week.

Coal Loads Of Coal On Way Here

Gamble Reports Relief In Night As Appeal By County Brings Action Supplies At NEW LOW

A measure of relief for the local coal shortage was in sight for Mamaroneck today with the arrival of coal on the way to the Colonial yards, wholesale suppliers, for distribution to dealers in the Village. The shipment was announced today by Rep. Ralph A. Gamble who advised municipal officials in the county who have appealed for help during the shortage that the Solid Fuels Administration Office has at last awakened to the true scarcity in the county.

Mamaroneck and Larchmont dealers today reported supplies at their establishments are rapidly dwindling with orders piled up from home buyers who face the prospect of going bare.

One dealer alone reported that four carloads are needed at once to fill the orders now on hand. Representative Gamble declared that he had been informed by Chief Assistant J. O. Stacey, of the Solid Fuels Administration Office, that he had been assigned to the Rye Coal & Supply Company for New Rochelle, assigned to the Hugobon Coal & Wood Company, 19 cars are being shipped to Mamaroneck from the Colonial yards, and to these have been added 10 more for Colonial yards which involves dealings with the government. Grosso Leads Recreation 5 To Upset Victory in Community Loop

Clippers Lose Opportunity To Take Over League Lead

The Clippers in Larchmont Recreation Community League lost a golden opportunity to assume the lead by a 5-1 victory over the Reds in their game last night as they dropped a 2-1 decision to the Clippers. But both the Jolly Five and the Redskins were hampered by illness and couldn't put squads into action. The result was the schedule change which sent the Clippers against the Reds who suddenly and unexpectedly broke and won.

But the Reds and particularly the Red captain, Len Grosso, stood in the way. Grosso played his outfit to victory in the last two games of the fray as he hit 20 in the second game and got a 200-strike in the third. When Grosso went back, as he did in the first encounter, the team lost. His 501 score was far and away the best in the match.

For the losing Clippers it was Joe Torre who showed the way to their only win in the three games. Torre hit 203 in the first game which the Clippers easily took. After that he, as well as the rest of the Clipper outfit, failed to get anywhere as the Reds roared right along.

The match between the two teams came about last night as:

Count Named 'Horse of Year' By Big Margin

NEW YORK (AP)—By a landslide margin in the eight-year history of their poll, the nation's sports writers today named Count Fleet "the horse of the year" for 1943—and the Count did less work for it than any of the seven previous winners.

Although he's been on vacation for six months and had only half-a-dozen trips in the past altogether in his victorious campaign, the Fleet came in all by himself with the year's top honors in the annual poll of writers and broadcasters conducted by the Turf and Sports Digest.

Edging even the ovation that hard-working Seabiscuit registered in 1933 and the "double" busy Uncle Sam, Fleet had had such a 142 John D. Hertz's triple crown horse was named head horse of the year's top honors in the annual poll of writers and broadcasters conducted by the Turf and Sports Digest.

Local Players Members Of Hockey Squad

Defeated by Manual 5-1 in their opening game last Saturday, the county organizers Wednesday, the county's only independent amateur hockey team, are pointing for a clash with the Americans Saturday night at Brooklyn Ice Palace.

The team is managed by Bruce MacKenzie of White Plains, former coach at Scarborough. Other players on the roster are: Steve Kingery, Warren Wood, Ed Pennington and Bill Hayward of White Plains; Tom Melville, Bob Noelle, Tom Dury and Hank Rendes of Larchmont and Henry Williams, Bill Rye and Paul Marino of Port Chester.

MacKenzie said it is hoped to keep the squad together until war is over and then organize an entirely amateur league with games at Playland Casino in Rye.

The meet, which will feature a prize list of $26,000 with the top award $4,000, is a diamond championship event.

Louis D. Petrusen, who is staging the event for the 12th time, expects more than 1,000 bowlers to compete, topping last year's entry of 824.

Reds Gain In Victory Loop; Stripes And Eagles Win, 2-1

Steadily adding to their already sizeable lead in Mamaroneck Recreation's Victory League the Reds last night plattered a shutout on the Whites to gain another full game on the second place Stripes who were taking a 2-1 victory from the Stars. In the third match the Eagles drew up a bit closer to the first-place Blues as they won by 2-1.

The Reds, winning with almost monotonous regularity, have built up a four-game lead. Led by Mrs. Harvey Derby they experienced little difficulty in easily thrashing the Whites last night. Mrs. Derby, while her individual games were not high, still managed to score 120 on the loop which she hit 43 for her evening's work.

With adequate support from the rest of the team the miners had trouble only in the second game, but that they got out on the scant margin of eight pins. The other two contests were easy victories for the winners and a 12-2 series result, high for the circuit last night.

The other two matches turned into real dog-fights. The Stripes and Stars put on a contest in which Mrs. Saunders roiled the league's high game for the night when she hit 122 for her last effort. That game, plus the 125 scored by Mrs. Williams on a contest in which Mrs. Saunders roiled the league's high game for the night when she hit 122 for her last effort.

Tigers Postpone Game Vs. Pelham

The Mamaroneck High School football team, originally scheduled for next Saturday at the Hilltoppers' gym, has been shifted to Tuesday, January 25, according to an announcement made yesterday by Charles Warren of Mamaroneck High.

The change, the second made in a week in the Orange town and was made necessary by the early closing of school ordered by the Board of Education in an effort to combat the current influenza epidemic.

Other changes in the 50-game schedule originally set up for the Orange basketball season involved the cancellation of home-and-home games against both Union Prep and Salesian High.

Chain Store' Ball Magnates Fear New Ruling By Landis

NEW YORK (AP)—Ever since Commissioner K. M. Landis put out that recent baseball "protection" novel "chain store" farm system operators have been grating the aspirin bottle he is hoarding for a new knockout drug to control the commissioner is cooking up.

This is the fear that before the winter's end Landis is planning to set free several hundred minor league ball players—some estimated to be as high as 1,000—who went to war from the 108 clubs in the 16 leagues which suspended in 1942.

When they entered the armed forces, these hired hands were placed on the National Defense Service lists of those clubs. Since the players were inactivated—many for a flat $100 a head—clubs in league still doing business at the same old time. They were placed on the defense lists of those clubs and will report to those clubs when the war ends. It is at this long string of transfer deals that Landis is now aiming his high hand, and the reports are that he may declare the whole lot of them free agents.

Under baseball's setup, the commissioner swears the big stick over minor league ball only through an army-sponsor agreement. If the instructors claim to be able to give that stick, Landis couldn't have done a thing about these strictly minor league transfers.

But the agreement was couched, and now, if you believe the whippers, Landis is sharpening up his axe. Just how many players are involved isn't known definitely. However, on the 1943 reserve lists, released just a year ago, there were more than 500 players on the national defense lists of the circuits which suspended, headed by the 70 who went to war from the THREE LEAGUES and 91 from the TEXAS LEAGUE.

Many of the transferred players were moved up the line to clubs in the same farm chain. Landis has jockeyed over all defenses lists and found some of them far too big to take care of all the fellows who'll be coming back ready for work when the war's over. The result is he's reported ready to take them all home, so that each club will get himself up with any club. Naturally, this is not present from Santa Claus to the "chain store" operators, who've been counting on this transferred levy to fill their own minor league coops when the suspended boys open up again.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

PARTNER MUST HAVE IT

WHAT A PLAYER did not do in either the holding or the play can be just as informative regarding the holding as something he did. In a case where neither defender had made any bid, if one of them plays about a trick and a half of high cards on early tricks, and an ace remains still out against you, it is virtually a sure thing the partner holds it. If the man who already showed pretty good strength also had the missing ace, he probably would have trick in some kind of a bid.

Lutas Open Camp Fire Girl 'Pledge A Plane Campaign'

Eight members of the Lutas Camp Fire Girls, Larchmont, Camp Fire Girls spent the weekend collecting waste fat from housewives to turn into ration points and money. The money will be returned to the donor and the money will be put aside in a fund to purchase War Bonds and Stamps enough for an ambulance-plane.

This is a part of the National "Pledge a Plane" campaign conducted by Camp Fire Girls, and the fat drive is one of several "pledges that sell" collections to raise money for the mercy plane. This was discussed Monday at a Christmas meeting of the group in the home of Miss Mary John, Larchmont. The three girls who brought in the most fat were Adele Pat Donohue, Barbara Todd and June Battenhausen, with a total of 15 pounds. Marion James was chosen treasurer for "Pledge a Plane."

The group worked on miniature wreaths for trays at New Rochelle Hospital, and essays, with silver bells and pine cones. They sang Christmas carols and enjoyed the grab-bag. Refreshments were served by the housewife. Mrs. H. Hochstadt, group leader, supervised festivities.

Attending the visitors were Marion Katsenber and Virginia Harris. Patricia Nolan was welcomed as a new member. Also present was Evelyn Baker.

American Dirt Looked Edible, Garvin Says

He has brought his plans back several times with holes through the tentage and marks on the wings but the only actual damage to be feared, he says, is a bit in the gas line or some other vital spot in the motor. The anti-aircraft fire from the ground is more to be dreaded than fire from an enemy plane, he states.

One of his best friends, a boy from Harrison, was shot down shortly before Lieut. Garvin came home. He "bailed out" when his plane was hit and his family has heard that he is a prisoner of war in Germany.

Pilots are supposed to be granted leave after 50 missions and we asked Lieut. Garvin how he had collected 79 before coming home. "You just keep fighting until they send replacements," he answered.

In addition to his ribbon for overseas service bearing the insignia of three campaigns, he wears the ribbon of the air medal and small awards signifying nine oak leaf clusters. When his leave is over, he will report to the air base at Atlanta City for further instructions.

Lieut. Garvin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garvin of Mamaroneck and has lived here all his life. He graduated from Bellows High School in 1938 and entered the service in January, 1942, after working for a while at the Standard Oil Company in New York. He received his Air Corps training at Maxwell Field, Ala., and Spence Field, Ga., where he won his wings. He was 23 years old Christmas Day.

He was at a loss to answer a question about getting back into action. "Well, I don't know," he hesitated. "All the fellows are away and there isn't much doing around town. In a way you begin to miss the excitement. But, in a way, in schools where they teach men to fight in these planes, you can get plenty of excitement right in this country."

FDR Terms Fourth Term Talk 'Picayune,' Defends 'New Deal'
By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff

WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt, having brushed aside the "picayune" a direct question whether he would run for a fourth term, was on record today as endorsing an expanded economic and military isolationism after the war.

In allegorical and alliterative terms, he told the news conference yesterday he favored scrapping the term "New Deal" because, he said, "Old Doctor New Deal" has cured the country's internal ills.

The patient is all right internally now, he said, but Old Doctor New Deal has cured the country's internal ills.

Laughter swept the President's oval office and the chief executive, redfacing, replied: "Oh now—we are not talking about things like that now. You are getting picayune. That's a great word to use—another word beginning with a p—picayune. (He had used picayune and political before.) I know you won't mind my saying that, but I have to say something like that."

He said it seems pretty clear that the nation must now plan for, and help to bring about, an expanded economy which will result in more security, employment, recreation, education, health and housing for all its citizens so that the conditions of 1932 and the onset of 1933 won't come back again.

Returning Revived

A revision is being prepared in the allotment of points to restaurants, according to a statement of the Mamaroneck-Larchmont-Harrison War Price and Rationing Board disclosed yesterday, which will equalize the rationed allowed establishments which serve liquor with those who don't.

Henceforth, ration points for food and other necessities will be served according to the number of customers served, along with the volume of business done, whether the business represented liquor sold or food served.

The regulation will also affect drug stores and other places where soft drinks are served. In short, points will be granted for food on the basis of the number of customers to whom food is served.

Lieut. Tuck Promoted

Lieut. Andrew E. Tuck, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew E. Tuck, 50 Chatsworth Avenue, was recently promoted from second to first lieutenant, with an action award as a paratrooper with the 506th Parachute Infantry.

Lieut. Tuck received his first commission on entering the service in July, 1943, after a period of training with the Infantry Training Corps at Plattsburg, N. Y. He is a graduate of Lassie Military Academy, L. I.

Bond Drive Planned

An organization meeting will be held in a few days to synchronize efforts in Larchmont for the fourth War Loan Drive which opens Saturday, Jan. 18, according to E. F. McGrath, chairman of the Larchmont War Finance Committee.

Tentative plans were already made when chairman of the committee in all Westchester counties met recently at the Scarsdale Country Club, reported Mr. McGrath, who also attended. He will announce the names of the committee members in a few days.

Attention Housewife!

Housewives and butchers were reminded today by the local Rationing Board that each pound of waste fat brought in for salvage will earn four cents in addition to two red points.

There has been widespread misunderstanding, according to Clarence Greaves, chairman of the Price Panel for the Board, many dealers believing that ration points now given for the fat take the place of the four cents. The housewife should have both.

Smoke Calls Firemen

Larchmont firemen responded to a call Thursday afternoon from the Charles King estate on S. Beach Avenue, Larchmont, where flames were reported.

Firemen found smoke billowing from the great house, but no flames were apparent. The source of trouble was a burner in the office operating in an unapproved manner, according to George Lyons, caretaker, who called the fire department.

Lyons reported that the burner was working smoothly until 10 P. M. when he had a regular check-up. About 1:20 P. M., when he went into the great house, he noticed that it was rapidly filling up with smoke, and he tried to get into the cellar to investigate. Failing to break through the smoke screen, he called the fire department.

The caretaker said that no damage had resulted, and he commented, "It's the first excitement here in 10 years."

No Relief Due In Coal Shortage

Local Dealers Substitute Coke As Fuel Here With Supplies Dwindling

SHIPMENTS NOT SURE

Mamaroneck and Larchmont have a much better chance to keep warm over the holiday week than have other communities in Westchester and New York City, according to a consensus of coal dealers here.

Colonial coal yards, wholesale suppliers, who distribute to retail coal dealers, stated they expected a shipment the first of the week. They advised that there has been some coal stockpiled that efforts be directed, instead, toward getting the coal delivered. They admitted, however, that they wouldn't be sure of Monday's shipment until it arrived.

On the other hand, R. G. Brewer, Inc. is supplying its customers with coke because of the coal shortage. "As far as they're concerned, home owners will not have to face an empty coal bin because coke is being delivered in greater quantity. They were promised shipments of anthracite for the early part of next week, they said, but can make no prediction about the certainty of getting the coal to the consumer because of transportation difficulties.

E. J. Connor and Company is substituting soft coal for regular anthracite. It has quite a supply of soft coal which can be used quite satisfactorily in place of hard coal, although less suitable for household use, the company reports.

Regarding coke, Mr. Connor reports that only two shipments have come through this week though as was expected, anthracite orders have piled up in advance, waiting to be filled when the coke arrives.

"There is no coal on the road for us. We've received promises, but have not been advised of car numbers," Mr. Connor stated. "No one need do without heat of some sort, more than overnight," he concluded.

Wife Wounded By Husband Refused To Make Charges Despite Threats, Police Say

While Margaret and Thomas Lupo lived together in Larchmont, she was injured by her husband on Tuesday night when the exasperated husband pumped the contents of a .38 caliber revolver into his wife's body and then turned the gun on himself, a search of the police records today indicated it was not the first sign of trouble in the Lupo family.

Mrs. Lupo telephoned police headquarters, 28 units, her husband was threatening her and asked for help. Patrolman Gilbert Scherer was detailed to the house at 72 Grand Avenue and referred the parties to Village Police Court.

The wife wished to make no charge against her husband in Police Court, but the police would not let her stay away from her. She declared at the time that her husband was in possession of his brother's gun, the chief added, but Lupo denied having a gun. No search was made of the room he occupied, on Penrose Road.

Again on Nov. 29, Mrs. Lupo called for the police saying that her husband had been "pursuing" her and, according to the police records, she had taken refuge in the village incinerator. Patrolman John Pendegast answered the call but the woman, according to Police Court records, did not make formal charges against her husband in Police Court.

The case has been in Children's Court several times, the police say, with Mrs. Lupo charging non-support of the children. She is employed by the Happiness Laundry and her husband was reported unemployed at the time of the shooting.

Lupo is suffering from a scalp wound and a fractured skull but is apparently rational at times although still on the critical list. If he shows any improvement today, he will be questioned, Chief Matthews said. A police officer in the duty day and night at the hospital to report to headquarters any critical change in the condition of either patient. In spite of her marital wounds, Mrs. Lupo is reported to be in "fair" condition.

Martensson denied any negligence on the part of the police in the matter. "She wouldn't tell us to stay away from her, we could do so but she said she wanted to stay away from her. When we would leave her room, she wouldn't have let the gun where it would be found."

Ayres Shows Only One Larchmont Man In Latest Draft Contingent To Rotary Club Scheduled To Leave Jan. 10

A collection of stamps and envelopes bearing old postmarks was displayed yesterday to the Mamaroneck Rotary Club by George Ayres who explained the significance of many unusual envelopes examined by the members. Mr. Ayres is principal of the Daniel Warren School and president of the Mamaroneck University Club.

In the collection were several envelopes containing stampings indicating building dedications and other notable events; others denoting the first air mail flight to and from different parts of the country; envelopes covering commemorating celebrated events called "first day covers"; also the stamps issued by former Postmaster James A. Farley which were known as "Farley's Folly" and caused extensive discussion during Farley's term of office.

Rotarians were invited to hear Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt address the New York Rotary Club next Thursday.

Chief Appeals For Caution On New Year's Eve

With an eye to preventing accidents that may occur over the holiday weekend, Chief Arthur W. Martensson of the Mamaroneck Police Department today issued a statement which he hopes will call down the fatalities which every New Year's weekend brings.

"Enlisted men, Army officers and industrial workers are being killed and injured in alarming numbers on the streets and highways," he said. This seriously affects the efficiency of military and industrial activity.

"Drinking by drivers and pedestrians has contributed to the toll of injuries and deaths; with more workers and increased employment. It may be expected that more persons will be drinking in taverns and other places along the highways during the New Year's holiday."

Paris Suburbs Blasted By Big Allied Air Fleet

LONDON, (AP)—Allied planes bombed suburbs of Paris in daylight today, the Allies announced, after great formations of fighters and bombers of all types had streamed out after dawn in a continuation of the 10th day of the battle that sent more than 3,000 planes over enemy targets yesterday.

The brief radio announcement gave no details, and it was not immediately known whether the Paris blow was dealt by American heavy bombers or fleets of Allied medium bombers.

Paris, administration center for German occupation authorities, also is a Nazi war production center. The Renault Works on Seine Island at Billancourt is reported to be producing transport vehicles, and airplane engines. Reported by its Chem-Hone works, which turns out airplane engines for the Germans.

Today's attacks were in the wake of an assault on an objective—Paris—was made last night but which may have been the chemical and poison gas works of the Germans in Billancourt, a deep in southwestern Germany—yesterday by the greatest fleet of U. S. bombers and fighters, perhaps 1,500 strong, ever sent against the Reich. Twenty-five heavy and 15 fighters were lost in the weighty operation.

The closing raids of 1943 today also followed fresh blows last night by RAF Mosquitos which hit targets in western Germany, and new wave-landing operations, in which not a single Allied plane was lost.

Former Polo Star, Wife Found Dead

REED BANK, N. J., (AP)—Charles Reed, former aviator, polo player and well-known New York socialite, and his wife, Elizabeth, were found dead today, police said, after a fall from a high-rise apartment building at the Holly Tree Inn, in nearby Little Silver.

Police Chief Fred Ziegler of Little Silver said the bodies were found by seven-year-old Barbara Holly Straus, daughter of Mrs. Emily Homan Straus, owner of the farm and employer of the Lees.

Reed's sudden death was accidental in both cases.
