Port Chester 56 Greenwich 44 Rosetonville 41 Harrison 32 Irving School 41, St. Pauls, L. I., 41

THE LAST OF THE SEASON. The Gaels will play a return match, the Mamaroneck quints yesterday named the Rosebuds.

THE LOCALS WILL BE AT SUCH A DISADVANTAGE. They know that in order to curb the Panthers, Big Ben Rogers...

HUSKIES KEED FOR EAST END 5

A SWIAC hoop battle of three minutes' duration at Harrison High School tomorrow evening will feature the Huskies of that town...

Neither side will be able to rely on their own offense. The clean-slated East End Redskins...

There isn't any question at all that East End yet but things haven't been running smoothly as during the earlier weeks of the campaign.

There's no doubt that a win over Harrison would bring a memorable victory to the Panthers...

The doctor said Hogan might never walk around 18 holes again. Much less play that distance.

It was the same smooth, steady stroke, the tiny Tustin, 1907, "no last year you were that 80-000 as the country's top pro..."

"I was today" said Hogan in the dressing room at Riviera Country Club. "He was terrific," said Brand, who never was believed from the first tee.

HOGAN WELL KNOWN HERE. Hogan, well known in Westchester because he formerly was pro at the Century Club in White Plains and also because he shot some smashing golf in the Gooden Round-Bomb Tournament played at Wyckoff Country Club, New Rochelle, in 1949...

in 1950 Yale will face the same 1949 football opponents—Connecticut, Brown, Fordham, Columbia, Cornell, Princeton, Dartmouth, Princeton, Harvard.

Combing The Town

Swans at Large

Somebody yesterday accidentally set free the two white swans at Larchmont Gardens Lake where the large birds are kept in a Winifred pen by the Town of Mamaroneck Park Department.

Luckily, this isn't the breeding season for swans, according to Thomas Alchovich, Park Department foreman, so whoever tipped the wits of the swan pair on the pen was in no danger of being nipped by a cranky bird.

Right now the swans are having a grand time in the open water on the lake and they're going to stay out there until the ice thickens enough to permit Alchovich to get them.

Capsules On the Way

A small supply of capsules, donated by an anonymous Mamaroneck resident, was rushed by air mail to Paris yesterday by Dr. Guy Abbeville, France resident, believed to be suffering from the serious virus infection. Dr. Daniel G. Karrel, chairman of this Abbeville Committee at Larchmont, reported yesterday.

Mayor Walter B. C. Washburn of Larchmont received a letter Monday from Pierre Belogou, a professor of English at the College Cochet, Abbeville, pleading for serums capsules to save the life of the Abbeville man. He is in the treatment of various virus infections, the drug is obtainable in France.

Two Mamaroneck Elks have been crowned champions of their respective ritualistic stations in the order, following a final contest last week held at the Ossining Lodge.

Kisco, Ossining, Peekskill, Poughkeepsie and Beacon as well as Mamaroneck. Through this procedure two candidates for each lodge station were chosen to compete in the Ossining trials.

Now on his way to Puerto Rico for army maneuvers, Corp. Citron expects to be transferred to a base in Alaska.

NEW YORK, (AP)—A government prosecutor today likened Alvin Karpis to Benedict Arnold, Brutus, the devil and Martin T. Manion, a federal jurist convicted of "social justice."

Hisss, who the State Department official is on trial for the second time on charges of perjury, his first trial last summer ended in a jury disagreement.

Diplomatic Relations to End Unless Bulgars Review Recall Demand

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The United States threatened today to break diplomatic relations with Bulgaria unless the Communist country withdraws its demand for the recall of American Minister Robert A. Heath from Sofia.

An American note replying to the Bulgarian recall request was ordered delivered by Dr. Peter Vodyanov, ranking Bulgarian diplomat here.

The note demanded the demand for Heath's recall as simply the latest of a "series of intimidations and restrictions" which have made it virtually impossible for the U. S. diplomatic mission in Sofia to carry on its duties.

Accordingly, unless the Bulgarian Government withdraws its note of Jan. 19 and demonstrates its willingness to observe established international standards of conduct, the U. S. Government would deem it necessary to terminate diplomatic relations.

Women Assist With Village Polio Drive

The March of Dimes drive for 1939 in Mamaroneck has been receiving splendid assistance from the women of the Village this week. Mrs. F. F. Hunter, one of the co-chairmen of the drive, announced today. Sixteen women representing four organizations have handled the collection boxes at the Union Savings Bank, County Trust Company and the Post Office.

Serving this week at the two banks from the Ladies Guild of Holy Trinity church were Mrs. Joseph McNaught, Mrs. Elizabeth Cleary, Mrs. Arthur Kane, Mrs. Francis P. McDonald, Mrs. Helen Howe, Mrs. Gordon Hill, Mrs. Louis Testa and Mrs. A. T. Kammerer.

Also serving at the banks from Court Holy Trinity, Catholic Daughters of America, Mrs. George Hayes, Mrs. Catherine Morris, Mrs. Rose Bouchard, Mrs. Blanche La Monde, Mrs. Christian Robinson and Miss Marjorie Hayes.

Dividing their time between the County Trust Company and the Post Office were Mrs. Adeline Stanopoli of the Betty Ross Lodge and Mrs. George E. Tetaz of the Mamaroneck Avenue School P.T.A. Next week, Mrs. Hunter stated, the collection at the banks will be taken over by members of the women's club of Mamaroneck.

In thanking those who have served this week, Joseph Warrington, chairman of the Mamaroneck drive, reminded all live residents that this year is a most important one for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the county unit.

"The importance of the 1939 drive for funds to wipe out the deadly killer and maim, infantile paralysis, can not be over-emphasized," Mr. Warrington pointed out. "Few people realize that the Village of Mamaroneck is one of the luckiest last year, we had only one case, two of them in one family. In proportion to population, other parts of our county did not fare so well."

"The cost of caring for victims of this crippling disease runs high, the national average being over $5,000 per case. If it were not for the funds provided by the people of the United States, the physical suffering would increase enormously and the financial burden would be far greater than most families could carry. But of even greater importance in the long run are the funds necessary to continue the research which the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis carries on aggressively from year to year. In 1949 funds for this important work are depleted because of the crises for aid that came from County chapters all over the United States.

"Those of us who are charged with the responsibility of raising this year's funds for the foundation and for the county chapter, sincerely urge that every man, woman and child in Mamaroneck be doubly the amount given last year. Only by being strong financially can we hope to conquer polio as we have long since conquered measles, scarlet fever, diphtheria."

Belows Quintet Wins At Harrison - Mamaroneck Drops Fourth

Panthers Nip Huskies 37-35 With Last Period Outburst; Long Set Shots Hurt Host 5

Belows bottled up the vaunted Harrison scoring attack last night as Coach Jack Haskiey pulled one of his trickiest defenses out of its inside line. It required a last minute spurt by the Panthers to pull out a glorious 37-35 victory over the Huskies in the deciding overtime game.

Belows dropping the deciding pointer from directly underneath with 10 seconds left. Belows retained possession on a walking violation and froze out the clock to preserve the margin.

The triumph propelled the East Tigers back into the thick of the SWIAC flag chase and was the fourth win in five games this season. None of the others have been as eagerly devoured.

The Haskies were again spearheaded by sophomore Ed Petrie who was all over the floor while scolding the Panthers down to the task at hand. Petrie had reached double figures in four of the frays this year and his high point total last night was 12.

Tommy Stierger was as much of a iron-stopper for the Huskies as nabbing rebounds and operated in the pivot for a major part of the game. One of the Harrison stars was unable to play because of a sprained ankle and Tony Marchione, who capped 20 points last week in a Husky win, was helped out of the row with 3½ minutes left after injuring his spine on a crunching foul to the floor.

Harrison played a steadier game than the Panthers in this one although neither team showed any signs of brilliance as a unit. It was a match of shooting from the outside. The East Tigers concentrated on hooks from either side of the rim.

Ed Polk and Joe Benedict sat in on shares of glory by concentrating vital points in the last five. Petrie after bench-riding during the first quarter came in as a replacement to distinguish himself with eight points, mostly on single set shots, while Benedict threw in the four vital markers prior to the driving layup which sealed the victory.

Belows' coach, Steve Benedict, said of his varsity squad members in bringing home the honor and all of them hit the scoring column.

The importance of the score for head-dead-eyes is stressed in the statistics that show Belows in 100 per cent from the free throw line and half and only three in the entire four quarters.

The score changed hands eight times but Belows had the easier time of it, never being out by more than three markers. In fact

BAYSHORE CLIPS GAELS 2ND TIME

Smooth ball handling and a quartet of deadly shooting eyes took the toil on the Gaels at Mamaroneck Avenue School gym last night as the Bayshore Panthers trapper the locals 52-45. It was the second loss to the Long Island quintet in as many frays for the Gaels and brought their campaign mark down near the 500 level. They have won five altogether.

Horace Brittain of the Gaels took high scoring honors by meshing eight points to 10 minutes. Bill Stival was at the top of the Bayshore team with 15. Albie Mitchell, scrappy center of the local outfit, based 14 markers from Tom Masez of the winners collected it.

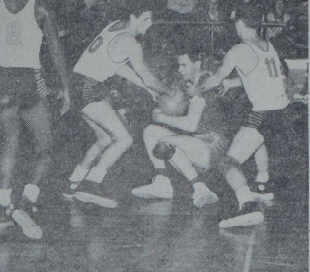

The Bayshore career parlayed a shooting average of about 30 per cent with some sets. Bill handling into a straightedge on the lead half.

The Gaels started slowly and had a huge 12 point deficit starting the frays after one quarter of action. Despite a furious counter-attack the locals could not make the lead.

During the entire fray the Gaels rimmed just one charity toss while the Panthers slipped in four out of five.

Tomorrow night the Gaels kick in New Rochelle for a return tilt with the Husquet Protectors. This will be the eighth of the season game from Dec. 19 of last year and the Trotters bowed in the outside.

Davis' Height Spells Defeat For Fighting Bengal Cagers

By JOHN TAUB

From a 34-30 spread the Panthers went on to completely dominate play in the final canto. Shannon's layup with less than two minutes remaining gave the Mamaroneck boys a substantial 11 point buffer before Condit's pass from the foul line cut the difference.

Ciraco saw fit to use only two shots the entire fray. Bruno replaced Carter at center and Dave Cvaniga seeing a bit of action hit for five and Al Mitchell teamed with Tony Donato for four apiece. The entire Mamaroneck Juvie unit had plenty of spirit and life while exceeding the 27-point mark.

The Bengal reserves stopped suffering on the short end of a 27-11 deficit. Spooking the Tigers Cuba was Buddy Boyle who finished with eight points while Larry Collins hit for five and Al Mitchell teamed with Tony Donato for four apiece. The entire Mamaroneck Juvie unit had plenty of spirit and life while exceeding the 27-point mark.

Fordham Collegians Attempt To Wreck Saints' Win Streak

Things at St. Augustine's have moved back to normal slowly since Larchmont's Saints participated in the regular season of the National Catholic Athletic Association. The female New York City over girls' team, Tony Louca, who is a player-coach of the Saints, has his fingers crossed these days that the Saints' winning streak, that six-game winning streak, that started blossoming right after opening day, will be over-saturation when they clash head on with the Fordham Collegians to support afternoon on the St. Augustine's hardwood.

If the Saints are a mile wide, the fans certainly will be forgetting after watching the Court Girls get away with little stunts. They will while the officials were mesmerized by their charms. However, the girls' team were not just an exhibition and the Collegians are after something more than a score.

Fordham has come into Larchmont to tackle the Saints once again for the past two years. They have yet to go home having the victory banner. Two years ago fans couldn't imagine the Larchmonters accomplishing what they did last year. The team was upset, a scorching finish by the Saints pulling out a 42-40 decision. Last year it was close again but not of the interesting variety.

Tomorrow's scrap will be heard from another angle as the boys and girls teams meet. Jerry Moyer and Gene Doherty, star players of the local group, are regulars on the Fordham University and spend a lot of their court time alongside the boys' team.

The Larchmonters—who are taking their winning streak to stride—will be at a decided high advantage tomorrow. Fordham plans to use Bill Carlson—all 6-foot-11-in—middle line and the Saints have no one anywhere near as tall. As if that wasn't enough, Carlson will be aided by Bill Woods, who stands about 6-foot-11-in. The Saints' captain Al Shields, the blond, is a center forward who is a force of spring and Ed Aberle, a center forward with a trunk-full of action.

Post-Graduates Out Of Schoolboy Sports

ALBANY, (AP) — Post-graduate high school students will be barred from interscholastic sports in New York State after Sept. 1, 1951.

The Board of Regents adopted the new regulation yesterday.

For many years, participation by graduate students in varsity athletic competition has been debated. New York is the only state in which they are permitted to engage in such events.

They now are prohibited from playing in such localities of the state.

The Regents said the new rule would "increase opportunities for regular pupils to win membership on high school teams."

It stipulates that a student will be eligible for interscholastic sports only during the specific consecutive semesters after he starts the ninth grade.

At present, graduates who have not reached their 19th birthday by Aug. 31 are eligible to compete in interscholastic sports beginning the following Sept. 1.

PIONEERS IN DOUBLE BILL OVER WEEKEND

Harvey Harnett, ex-Belows' cage defense and return to the first break will perform a full-time court study over the weekend when the Rye Pioneers engage in two contests. Tonight the Pioneers will be at Port Chester battling the YMCA quintet but they return home tomorrow afternoon to play host to the St. Paul Altoona Big Five.

The twenty Belows has been scheduled for almost a month on doctor's orders but has been pronounced sound once again and will rejoin Tom Walsh, his former Belows mate.

The Pioneers will also use Tom Coonan of St. Albans College, Jim Cunningham, Joe O'Driscoll, Dick Donohue and Oscar Haskiey.

The Ancients a leading Port Chester aggregation, features a brother set in the Paulino Phil. Pate and Cooper. The latter was named to the all WIAA quintet last year when he was Port Chester High School, while Phil is one of this area's greatest hardwood performers. Lou Puzo, who played softball and basketball here in Mamaroneck last year also will be in the Ancients lineup.

The New York Blue Jays clash with the Stamford Thunderbolts at 2:30 o'clock in the prelin tournament and the feature scrap will follow at about 3:45.

MORE CONVENIENT - LESS COSTLY

It is somewhat difficult to understand why opposition in political circles has arisen against adoption by the State of New York of the system of Permanent Personal Registration which is now working to advantage in 39 other states. New York is, in fact, the only one of the 48 commonwealths which still requires annual registration of voters in personal districts. In a few states there is biennial or quadrennial registration.

Pending at Albany is the Williamson-Roux bill. In the Senate it is sponsored by Wiley W. Williamson, Boardman, Westchester's senior legislator. In the Assembly it comes from Harry Roux of Warren County. Both are influential members of the GOP majority in the legislature.

Westchester has a personal interest in the measure since it was initiated and furthered by the Westchester League of Women Voters and the State LWV has named a Westchester woman, Mrs. William C. Scarsdale, an chairman of the State committee to advocate passage. The Citizens Union of New York City, and many similar civic bodies, has urged the legislation. Only recently former Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson, head of the administration in New York City, announced his support of the measure.

The shift from annual to permanent registration could, conceivably, cost a bit more than is now spent each year on the present system. But the more thorough work might offset this initial cost of establishment. And the added convenience to voters would be a factor which is hard to measure in dollars.

But most important of all, we believe, is the proven experience in other states which have changed to PPR. This is the addition of many thousands of voters to the list of eligibles at election time. Surely this is a necessary step to insure that the polls as possible. Now, many either forget or neglect to register in October. But perhaps by the time election rolls around in November they are more conscientious of a voter's duty.

Under permanent registration, a voter stays registered unless he moves to another district. These changes of address and re-registration, we are informed, could be handled by little more than postcard.

Before any definite decision at Albany to postpone action on the PPR bill this year has been reached, we feel quite strongly that those who make such decisions owe the voters a full explanation for their action.

Just why shouldn't the voters of this state have a registration system which is not only more convenient and less costly, but also certain to make many more thousands eligible to cast ballots?

Truman & Co. Demand Blamed For House Rules Unit Revolt

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON - The bi-partisan revolt in the House Rules Committee against Truman-Rayburn leadership, and hence the unsuccessful attempt to restrict to the Rules Committee the right to hold a pre-emptive vote on the bill, was set off by the administration's demand that the lower chamber give first consideration to the Fair Employment Practices Committee proposal and to the extremely controversial measure giving the Surgeon General virtual control over nurses training and education.

Both bills have been reported favorably by the appropriate committees, which the party leadership controls, but they were held up in Rules during the end of the last session. Both were laid aside for "further study" meaning that every member's vote is held in abeyance until the committee reports to the House. The fact that Mr. Rayburn won the first round in that arena is no guarantee he can win a later round.

TEST - Against the advice of some of his leaders on Capitol Hill, Mr. Truman demanded immediate action on them when the current session met. He regards the program as a campaign pledge that must be kept if possible.

Moreover, it has proved a sure-fire vote-getting measure for him in the past. He thinks it was for this reason the college vote which enabled him to defeat Governor Thomas E. Dewey in 1948. Although it has attracted little general attention, the measure's fate will furnish a test on prospects for the national compulsory health insurance. It lies in the hands of this program. Therefore, Mr. Truman boldly asked for a quick showdown.

Opposition witnesses, mostly from the South, denounced both bills. They made no vote-getting propositions. They declared that FEPC would stir up instead of allay racial trouble. The measure was assailed as an attempt to obtain in piecemeal form the anti-lynching law which a majority of both chambers seems to oppose.

LINE-UP - As the battle developed, however, Republican and Democratic members and count down in anticipation of a vote. They quickly discovered that they had, as of that time, eight members in opposition and only three in favor of these specific bills. There was one pro-administration conservative.

This line-up surprised the bi-partisan conservatives, because they had not expected Representative John E. Lyle Jr. of Corpus Christi, Texas to vote with them. They thought that speaker Sam Rayburn could keep him in line for the White House. Another member they were not sure of was Representative Christian A. Hefner of Boston, for he has sometimes shown liberal leanings.

With the three Democrats - Coakley of Mississippi - joining the ranks of the White House, the bi-partisan faction had enough to defeat both FEPC and the nurses bill.

REBELLION - Former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes gets partial credit for the anti-lynching law. He has been a member of the House since 1946. The South Carolinian's speeches and his known views for the White House philosophy have stiffened the spines of many Southern members, hitherto willing to go along out of party loyalty.

The Byrnes declaration of "atomism" at the Governor's conference at Hot Springs, last November, encouraged the Democrats to a new White House legislative program.

But what really ignited the flames of rebellion among Dixie members was his recent announcement that he would run for Governor in a few months. White House legislative program.

Saints Nipped, 75-72 By Collegiate Cagers

As was anticipated in some circles, the Larchmont Saints came within close range of an abrupt end yesterday when the Fordham Collegians carved out a 75-72 victory in overtime at St. Augustine's gymnasium. It was the first time since December that the local independent cagers had tasted defeat and since the end of the trail had to come sometime, they probably wouldn't have rather seen any other combu than the trick.

Fordham was that good. They completely outplayed the Saints on the boards and had the shooting ability to more than make up for the Larchmonters' steady eyes, throughout the squabble. The Collegians were never headed although the overtime period was necessitated when Gene Doherty crossed the cords with a right-handed hook shot just before the buzzer. That was as close to being in front that the Saints ever got.

The Saints, who now have won 61 out of 61 in four-year-of-competition — don't intend to let the capable clubs but it hurts them deeply to have their season's team miss a good scrap. Most of them did yesterday because the amateur crowd in front of the history was scattered throughout the stands for the highly entertaining afternoon. The natural letdown from last week's Cover Girls appearance was the reason for the student attendance. There doesn't seem to be any other plausible explanation.

The story of this contest is partially explained in the box score. There were nine turnovers, the double figures and the winners had five of them. Jim Johnson, a flashy operative who played out set shot, tied Joe Connolly of the Saints for high scoring laurels with 17 markers. Connolly of Larchmont garnered 16 while Ed Lall of the visitors had one.

GENE DOHERTY Hooks One In For Deadlock

less. Al Cooper did a yeoman's job under the boards for the Collegians while five other locals who had double figures were Jerry Moye and Jerry Lohman.

The contest was deadlocked at 12-12 after one period of play but Larchmont drove into a 16-20 advantage before halftime as Johnson sniped his accurate shooting and Cooper started to wear the smaller Saints out while fighting for the rebounds. Although it wasn't too accessible at the time, the Larchmonters were slowly piercing the bulls in the third quarter and to be held at bay for two points of it as the clock ticked around for the final time. With 15 seconds left, Gene Doherty unrolled his hook effort after the buzzer. Lall, an outstanding playmaker, then suggested the cunning error, just as he had during during the regulation time.

The Saints' foul shooting ability proved saved them from a score early. The charity tosses they dealt the locals and they scored 20 out of 20 attempted for another great performance. The players' need to had in their fingertips and their making good on 11 of 10.

However, the closing scrap took its toll of the Larchmont quiet and they were shown around in the extra-session although still forcing the issue right down to the wire. Lall, an outstanding playmaker, then suggested the cunning error, just as he had during during the regulation time.

WIAA Tennis Schedule Set

Six of the Westchester Inter-Scholastic Athletic Association's high schools are slated to compete in a five-week campaign this spring to determine a tennis title.

The court schedule, announced today, shows defending champion Mamaroneck arrayed against Gorton and Roosevelt of Yonkers. Davis of Mount Vernon, White Plains and White Plains. Only Yonkers Central and Port Jervis are skipping the activity.

First matches are down for May 2, and the schedule ends May 9 after each school has played every other school once. Team matches are to consist of three singles and two doubles sets, with no player eligible to compete in both singles and doubles during any one match. This provision dictates that schools have squads of at least seven players.

The schedule:

May 2—New Rochelle at Mamaroneck, Davis at Gorton and White Plains at Roosevelt, May 3—Mamaroneck, Davis, White Plains and White Plains at Gorton and Roosevelt at Davis, May 23—Roosevelt at White Plains, Davis at New Rochelle, and Gorton at Mamaroneck.

MAJOR LOOP KEGLERS OFF TO GREAT START

Bowlers in the Major League are out on the Larchmont Ice Center after this evening starting work on their record-high scores. Bill Welch, secretary of the Major League, recently announced the top figures for the first 48 matches.

Bert's Bowls and the Depot Wego are right up there in the lead race, both showing less than 15 losses and better than 30 victories. The Insulators and Sportmen round out the top four.

Bert's bowlers have won 20 of their 24 matches, including a 291 series, and a 1074 single, both considered the high figure in this area for the current season. They also chalked up a 1011 one-game tally which had to take a back seat.

Pete McDonnell stands at the head of the class in individual trophies with a 963 average. Fred Johnson Simira leads credit for a 615. McDonnell's leading single is 277. Simira and Johnson are tied with a 953.

Sid Anton, the sensational young bowling fanatic who has developed steadiness this campaign, is high average man with a 216 average champion in the Major League last year.

TIGERS WITNESS BUT FIGHTING 5

Out of last Friday's showing against unbeaten A. R. Davis, catcher, and his Mamaroneck High baseballers. That is the flame of hope was at least dimmed because losing four straight — three of them on any one occasion — can be of any consolation.

Cirino's game of light-hearted athletes is still running for that big victory which will start them on the trail upward and perhaps Courtis, this Friday night at Yonkers will be the one. At least that is the one the Tigers now point for.

The MHS mentor thought his charges did their best against Davis. The M. Vernon lads were just too big, as has been the case in most of the other fray this season. New Rochelle certainly won't let the Bengals anything except a couple of beanballs and Roosevelt — tallest pitcher in the WIAA — will be the one of ability to offer. However, the presence of the big boys is rapidly becoming a nuisance in the court sport and the bullpen has the vantage point to win one, on the field, and to be held at bay for two points of it as the clock ticked around for the final time. With 15 seconds left, Gene Doherty unrolled his hook effort after the buzzer. Lall, an outstanding playmaker, then suggested the cunning error, just as he had during during the regulation time.

Braves' Dash To Title In '14 Chosen Century's Big Upset

By GAYLE TALBOT Associated Press Sports Staff NEW YORK — On July 11 of 1914 the Boston Braves were running dead last in the National League—11 1/2 games behind the pace-setting New York Giants.

Three months later the team directed by "Miracle Man" George Stallings won the pennant by 10 1/2 games and blattered the former Philadelphia Athletics in four straight games of the 1914 World Series.

That, says the nation's sports writers and sportswriters, was the greatest sports upset of the first 50 years of the century.

14. Tanney-Dempsey Fight 14. By a margin of 128 to 53 the amazing feat of the 1913 fight was that it was the greatest prize fight in the history of the sport. Tanney was a greater shoo-in than Gene Tunney in 1937. Tanney's victory over Dempsey was their first fight for the heavy weight title at Philadelphia in 1908.

Only one other upset in the 50 years got really serious support among the 93 experts from Coast to Coast who replied to an Associated Press poll.

That was Little Centelle's dramatic 6-0 triumph over Harrod back in 1924 when the prize was a football pot. The prize was a football pot. The prize was a football pot.

RECOVERY ROAD FOR BHS CAGERS

Although pleased with the result of last Friday's road trip to Harrison, Bronx Coach Jack Hasker wasn't completely convinced that his cagers had found the formula to recover. The Panthers had enough in them to put the side in a losing slide that unfortunately only lasted through one game. But the lingering effect of that horrible experience at Rye two weeks ago led Hasker to believe that only one week of rest concentration by the entire squad will get the East Enders back on Friday in another SWAC clash with the Red Rovers. Jack Jarvis Eales will play for the week for the Rye Nicks. He worked EHS last Friday, 37-24.

production as they triumphed the Iona College Gaels, led by Frank O'Shea and John Walsh, scored the lead mid-way in the first half and fought off a late surge by Providence College to register an 81-70 triumph over the Friars Saturday night at the County Center in White Plains.

O'Shea, Iona's ace playmaker and set-shot artist, paced the Gaels to their 12th victory in 13 starts with 16 points. Walsh and Harry Chambliss gave the winners control of both backboards during the first half. Chambliss, who Jim Schimmell of the losers was high scorer with 21 points, was the only Iona player with the score tied at 20-20.

O'Shea made his next start against Texas Wesleyan in the feature of a scholastic-college double-header at the County Center Friday night. Archbishop Stepien High School meets Blessed Sacrament in the first game.

Harness Racing Opens April 27

YONKERS — The first night harness racing meet on the Yonkers Racetrack will start on Thursday, April 27, instead of April 28, as announced yesterday by the Yonkers Trotting Association.

The N. Y. State Harness Racing Commission on Saturday granted permission to advance the inaugural date.

William J. Crane, president of the YTA, said application for the change was made in order to avoid conflict with the first night baseball game between the New York Giants and the Brooklyn Dodgers, slated for Friday, April 28.

ROLL-OFF REQUIRED IN AGRES FIRST HALF

A roll-off for the first half of the Agres Bowling League will be held sometime in the near future. On-leave of the top spot at the present time are the Stallings and Motts with 27 points and one loss each. Meanwhile, the second half competition has already begun to heat up.

Other leading figures are Bob Pollock, one of the stars, and Agres officials. The records show that Fullerton posted the high score in the first half with 275 points and one loss. The Pollockers finished in third place on the list with 213 points and one loss.

RYE AND A. B. DAVIS SET PACE IN COUNTY SCHOOLBOY LOOPS

Hackley, Davis, Irving School, Pelham and ill-fated Bronxville are the only remaining unbeaten teams in Westchester and Putnam County. Dropouts from the ranks of the undefeated last week were White Plains, Haldane and Yonkers Central.

Hackley tops the pre and private teams with seven wins, including six straight, and is followed by Irving School and Davis with three 5-0 records. Pelham's straight championships have won four straight and were scheduled to meet Bronxville last Friday but the bus accident in which the Bronxville involved last Tuesday caused the game to be cancelled.

Davis on Top in WIAA
Davis leads the WIAA with a 4-0 start, but New Rochelle's pre-season favorites began to mark their influence felt as they triumphed over Mamaroneck and White Plains to move into a tie for second place with Yonkers and White Plains. In the first half games held in the past week, Pelham defeated the pace-setter, 16-10. Bronxville, which lost to Pelham 16-10, was scheduled to meet White Plains in Mount Vernon.

SHIELDS CAPS 2nd Straight Dinghy Honor

Conradus Shields piloting his Dainty yesterday led Larchmont in the County Center Dinghy Fleet for the second week in a row, scoring 237 points in six races as he took the lead for the mid-Winter series championship.

Shields was first to the finish in four of the races and was second in the remaining two. The northwesterly breeze was moderate, but his boat was in spots, just the kind in which Shields is at his best.

Bob O'Neil, the 17-0 dinghy champion, won one race and was runner-up with 231 points in his four races. John Nichols, with his Dainty, won the other race and gained 215 points with 215 following by Jack Oulph in Tuna-Dun, 207, and Arthur Knapp with Aqueduct 205.

GAELS TRAMPLE TROTTERS, 44-28

The Gaels outplayed their fifth victory of the season by clubbing the New Rochelle Trotters, 44-28, Saturday night at Albert Leonard's restaurant in the Queen City. The locals, who have lost three times, were never headed during the fray, mounting the front position in the second quarter.

Al Pulliam paced the Mamaroneck triumph in pinning with 16 while Albert Leonard contributed nine. Gil Allen and Tinker Douglas of the Trotters marked up eight each.

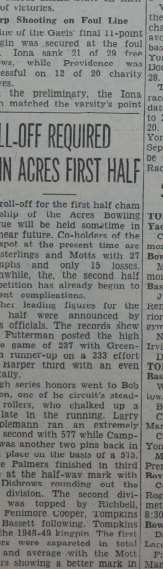

The Gaels' advantage was six points at half-time and then rose to 10 markers at the conclusion of the third quarter, mainly because their defense held the home club to just three points in that period. The final count was fairly evenly played as both sides substituted freely.

Not satisfied until they have a full schedule, the Gaels visit Pelham High School gym tonight to engage the Rye Neck A. C. quarter at 8 P. M. They return to their Mamaroneck High School home court Friday evening to clash with the Hastings Legion. The Legionnaires have many ex-Hastings High School stars and some contacts who have gained Countywide recognition while starring for the independently famous Hastings Siders.

Another Dewey

The identity of the middle name of Mamaroneck's building inspector, George Dewey Fitch, is the last name of New York State's governor provided Village Trustees Ralph Means and Corporation Council Anthony Sansone with some fun last night at the expense of two impressive gentlemen as they returned to Mamaroneck from a board the New York Central train.

Dimes Drive Expands

A total house-to-house collection of four volunteers for the March of Dimes drive in Mamaroneck met with such success yesterday that the committee has decided to continue the collection for the rest of the drive. Joseph Warrington, chairman of the local March of Dimes Committee, announced this morning if you see your neighbors with March of Dimes collection boxes in their hands, please contribute. Mr. Warrington said.

Two-Way Bouquet

L. Louis Giancola of the Mamaroneck Village Police Department received a bouquet last night for his handling of a burglary and robbery in Mamaroneck last month and the community tossed the commendation to Detective Jeremiah Geary and Patrolman Anthony Giancola without whose work, he claimed, the cases never would have been solved. The lieutenant's bouquet, which contained in a letter to the Village Board from George Warrington, Jr., owner of the Nutmich Arms Company, Halstead Avenue, where the burglary occurred. Four men were apprehended in connection with the burglary at the gun store and at the Palmers Wine and Liquor Store. They are now awaiting a hearing before the Grand Jury.

Indisputable Evidence

Mrs. Marie Walter of 223 Knollwood Avenue, Mamaroneck, was baffled the way it sounded in the Village of Mamaroneck was offering to sell her a strip of property she already owned. The offer had come with a general announcement in the Village of Mamaroneck that bids would be accepted from residents of the Knolls on a strip of a village-owned reserve strip abutting their property. Confronted with the facts last night by letter, the Village Board readily admitted it did not own Mrs. Walter's strip. Evidence, among other pieces of evidence, village tax receipts for several she had paid.

Still Trying

The adage, "If you don't succeed, try again," is being applied by Village Manager William H. Johnson in his efforts to secure state permission for a traffic light at the Boston Post Road. Receiving a rejection Jan. 18 of a request made last Summer, he immediately phrased another request to the state, he told the Village Board last night. The new request is being made on the grounds that new construction is contemplated on the west corner of Rindell Road and the Boston Post Road and that when the buildings are completed they will obstruct the vision of motorists, creating a hazard.

Pressure Tactics Out

A salesman may think he's taking only his own foot when he shoves it in a door, but if he prevents a housewife from doing her errand, he may find himself temporarily out of a job. Pressure tactics are out! That was the ultimatum given last night by the Town of Mamaroneck police to a group of high pressure salesmen who want a canvass of Larchmont residents. The police reported several complaints regarding the aggressiveness of five of the group. The salesmen were warned to tone down their approach and not to do any selling at night, or they will be prevented from canvassing.

100% Muzzled

Hanging a muzzle on your dog's collar without making sure it covers his mouth will not amount to circumvent Mamaroneck's dog ordinance. Chief Arthur W. Waterhouse told the Village Board last night. Quizzed by Trustee John Withers, who had heard a dog owner remark that the dog would successfully prevent its muzzling, Chief Waterhouse explained that it's the responsibility of the owner to see that the muzzle actually covers their pet's mouth while he is on the street.

VILLAGE BOOSTS WATER RATE TO CANCEL DEFICIT

Charges Go Up Ten Per Cent In Line With Action of Other Communities

The Village of Mamaroneck last night followed the lead of the Town and Larchmont as the Village Board voted to adopt a system of water rate increases that will average 10 per cent.

As in the case of Larchmont, which will now pay $0 per 100 gallons for water, the Village Board voted to raise the rate for a 10 per cent rise, which was made necessary by deficits caused by the purchase of water from the New York City water supply, several months ago.

The town of Mamaroneck and the Village of Mamaroneck will join the town of Harrison next week in the purchase of water from the New York City water supply, which maintains its water rate at $0 per 100 gallons.

The rate rise proposition, formulated by Ecker and Dean, certified public accountants, New York City, evoked little comment from trustees after Mayor S. J. Scurio, who is a member of the Water Works board of trustees, and explained the reasons quickly adopted on the grounds that it would help make residents more conscious of their use of water.

The Mamaroneck village increase in the water rate is $1.00. The system of increases, it is estimated on the basis of last year's consumption, is $1,000. (Turn to Page 9, Please)

Polio Drive Will Benefit From Dance

Celebrities of stage, screen, radio and television are expected to provide part of the entertainment Monday at the dance to be sponsored by the Mamaroneck Chapter of Dimes Committee at the American Legion Hall on Prospect Avenue. Philip Kurtyka, chairman, announced yesterday.

The idea of the dance is the outgrowth of the March of Dimes balls held throughout the country in connection with the polio drive to raise funds to combat infantile paralysis. There will be no admission charge. Music will be provided by Jack Biele and his orchestra, provided without charge to the March of Dimes committee by the Musicians Guild of America, Local 38, of the American Federation of Musicians.

The dance will be held from 9 P. M. to midnight and many novel features have been planned. James Egan, Jr. in charge of the tag day collection Saturday, suggested last night the names of the Mamaroneck Woman's Club who assisted him from the Knolls were Buddy Castiglione, Joe Rianno, Phil Rigano, Charles Gallo, James Egan, Jr. and Max Schopfer. James Paulini represented the Rotary Club and Max Schopfer, James Warren, Jan Martin and Joan Gilette.

Also assisting was Walter Korvay of Long Island and Mary Strabach and Marie Pfeiffer, Sally Ernst, Ellen Barrett, Joan Armstrong, Bob Brasch and Redden Moss of Larchmont Acres and Walter Heibach, Jr., of Mamaroneck.

Next Saturday, Mr. Egan said, a large number of sub-tents have volunteered, and he expects representatives of the three service clubs and the Siks to "put tag day over in a big way."

WASHINGTON, (AP) — A tie vote kept the anti-jug discrimination bill bottled up in the House Rules Committee today. A motion to send the bill to the House for a vote lost by a count of 5 to 5. Larchmont Has Only 25 P.C. Of Quota With Campaign At Half-Way Mark

With the Larchmont March of Dimes Drive well into its second week, the community has collected only 25 per cent of its quota, Mayor S. J. Scurio, chairman, disclosed this morning.

Larchmont is shooting for $10,000 as its share toward relieving the coffers of the Infantile Paralysis Foundation in New York City. Larchmont, N. Y., is larger than last year, the community has not yet responded to the appeal.

A "dry" amount of money which might have helped the Larchmont drive has gone into the New York City fund, the chairman explained, since many individuals have stated that their contributions were made at their New York offices. He uses all Larchmonters to "give where you live."

Residents who have not yet made their contributions are asked to mail them in to one of March of Dimes, Larchmont, N. Y., or give them to any member of the city's committee.

CHAMBER WILL STUDY BUSINESS PROMOTION

A committee of five persons to study plans for increasing business among local merchants was appointed last night at the meeting of the Retail Division of the Mamaroneck Chamber of Commerce in the Playhouse Building.

The suggested plans range from sales days, a special monthly promotion, Albert J. Lombino, division chairman, said, and all are to receive careful consideration. Mrs. Brown's chief criticism of the present system of selecting school board candidates is that it placed control in a handful of citizens and eliminated opportunity for the vacant posts.

Open, Frank Discussion Urged Of School Nominee System

Mrs. L. M. Igenfritz, former publicity chairman and at present a member of the Committee for the Selection of School Board Nominees, today called for an "open and frank discussion" of the article by Winifred Winward Brown in Friday's Daily Times.

After outlining the objectives of the committee, Mrs. Igenfritz said, "We all know that democracy falters sometimes in its working."

MERCHANT NICKED BY CHECK PASSER

Village Police Are Seeking Man Who Victimized Jewelry Store

With daring abandon, a check passer nicked a Mamaroneck merchant Thursday with a $35 personal check drawn on the Mamaroneck branch of the County Trust Company within a few feet of the main building during evening banking hours.

Strauch jewelers were the victims this morning he snatched throughout Westchester County for similar acts. He walked into the jewelry store, purchased Ronson cigar lighter from owner Carl Strauch and paid for it with a check made out to cash and signed by "J. Miller of Larchmont."

Detective Jeremiah Geary of the Mamaroneck police Department said this morning he had received no additional complaints. He pointed out that a telephone call to the bank would have ascertained the worth of the check.

He is known to have attempted to pass a check at the Chester Floor Covering Company the same night without success.

Official Plan Legal Moves To Force Water Conservation

To secure countywide compliance and similar water-saving measures, all Westchester communities which buy water from New York City will be asked to send spokesmen to the Tuesday meeting. A representative of Commissioner Carney will be present to discuss new ordinances to make the laws legal to enforce. It is expected that Mr. Harding, but there may vary since some will be cities, some by towns and some by villages. Also, in some cases, new private water companies involved.

General discussion will be on ways and means to enforce these regulations as now operating in Westchester County, which is a conservation program of the state. The meeting was held at the Westchester County Courthouse, New York City, last night.

Decision On Housing Survey Due From State In Ten Days, Johnson Tells Village Board

Mamaroneck should hear the results of the State Housing Commission, to which the survey results were referred, stating that tabulation of the survey "is only completed."

The survey, a village law for most of the Summer, was organized following a one-day visit for state housing representatives here in March. They pointed out buildings that needed further study and these 90 forms the basis of the village's investigation.

The Citizens' Committee for a Housing Survey attacked the survey as inadequate and recommended a study of every home in the village to determine the actual need. Most realistic forecasts of the survey results indicate that housing conditions here warrant a 50 or 100 unit project, but that owing to requirements limiting the amount of income a family can earn to be considered for tenancy in a low-cost development, Mamaroneck will not qualify.

Panther Cagers Summer Eastchester - Gorton Humbles Tigers

Petrie Shatters BHS Record In 65-28 Pasting Of Eagles; Young Star Hoops 31 Points

If you weren't at the Bellows Falls last night, you probably haven't heard that there's a new name-plate hanging on the wall designated for the BHS basketball high scorer. Just to blink you up-to-date, the new owner of that well-sought honor is Ed Petrie, the versatile Panther sophomore who not only crammed 31 points through the air holes but also made possible a 65-28 devastatingly of the woody Eastchester Eagles.

Petrie, who shows unmistakable signs of future court greatness, put on a dazzling display of versatility that earned him the plaudits of the entire BHS crowd when BHS Coach Jack Hasky fluently pulled him off the ground. Eagles, Eddie, whose even six-foot frame possesses only two strong reactions, craned all over the visitors and rendered them helpless before the game was half completed. The sophomore flash pointed in his points on all types of shots and never can be charged with hesitations. His 15 field goals went flying through the rim mostly on driving layups, sometimes on the end of fast breaks and often through brilliant hocks of the Eagle ball handlers. In a nutshell his performance can be called flawless as any ever seen on the East End court.

To addition, the rest of the Eaglesmen were in a clicking mood too, especially George Fischer who controlled both halves with his best job of the season. Steve Johnson also came in for credit thanks to his rebound work and Pankey Viteza went back into the Panther picture with impressive work which was typical of the entire outfit. As far as the record goes, it was victory number two for the East Enders, their second straight and third SWAC triumph of the current season.

The Bellows Javes gave the signal of things to come when they completely outplayed the previously undefeated Eastchester reserves 45-10 in the preliminary. Like the BHS varsity, Hasky's second stringers have copied five out of six this far, considering the strength which the locals anticipated from the Eagles, this was the dearest win in their Jave term. Joe Costa banged the rim for 12 markers in passing the Panthers while Gary Wellman also vaulted into the spotlight.

The varsity first two contests almost from the initial tap-off. Bellows had five points before the visitors connected and had only one quick portion during the entire clash. Eastchester drew to within 11-8 but started to slip just before the second half opened and never regained composure. The spread was an almost ridiculous 30-8 at halftime, with, believe it or not, a complete blank for Eastchester's second quarter effort. Hasky used his entire roster in the second half but it still was just a question of how high the difference would run.

TODDLERS TAKE OVER IN LADIES' CIRCUIT

The Toddlers took command of the Larchmont Ladies League from last night when they blanked Don's Four on the Larchmont new courts. In the other matches, the Dit Dot Towners and Mechanics carved out 2-1 victories.

Mickie Castaldo rolled the high game, 201 Dims while Betty Blum picked up 316 mables for high series paraff. Castaldo and Betty Meyer were also over the half-century mark in triples.

Court Capers

Tom Walsh, who had held the BHS point mark until Petrie decided to throw off his wraps, was on the sidelines rooting for his successor. . . . With three seconds showing on the big clock before halftime, Petrie unleashed a mid-court set shot which struck right to the mark. It was his only set shot of the night. . . . The record holder fired 17 points in the first half and countered the 14 in the second.

After four teams had completed their basketball slating at MHS last night there was only one Senior Recreation League contest in the open air. Century AC cagers waited three periods before exploding a 20-point spurt which annihilated the Heathcocks and the Loops staged the instant campaign's biggest stunner in the second year by coming on with a rush to rack up the Colonials, 29-29. The Tigers thus remain at the top of the circuit after two rounds of play.

Charlie Trimboli and Len Clapp did most of the damage for the Century five which was behind by 16-13 and then stamped for almost three quarters of its entire output in one period. Cavalier topped the Heathcocks with 10 points. The losers slipped to the bottom of the loop after absorbing their second straight defeat.

Gene Crowley was the cork as the Colonials led for three periods but Perchipski and his fellow Loops came alive in the rising minutes and squeezed by for the decision, their first win in a pair of efforts. Crowley finished as top scorer with 10 points.

The sudden streak of upsets led the Senior Leaguers in a series of 10 games to a six-way tie for second place.

MHS Quintet At Lowest Ebb In 47-38 Road-Trip Defeat

Floundering on the verge of complete collapse, Mamaroneck High's case group showed abject misery in the way of attack or defense at Yonkers last night and took a humiliating 47-38 trouncing from Gorton, the local fifth consecutive defeat of the season without a return. Gorton, which snapped a five-game famine in its row, had nothing more to offer than manpower but still latched on to the triumph train.

The Bengals could easily have taken home their initial win if they knew where the basket was and if they had handled the ball cleanly instead of fumbling every other pass. The victorious host quintet netted its markers through two channels: the fast break and the potest set shot. They excelled in neither department but completed their offense through a Tiger court unit which appears to be sinking lower rather than climbing from the depths of circo.

MHS mentor Orlando Ciraco unloaded all of his valiant reserves and even inserted a pair of the 17 cagers who were part of a semblance of calmness. He left the floor with bowed head and without a solution to the problem. From all indications, a shake-up is in order with promising Javes getting a shot at varsity action. While dealing with the Tiger reserves, the host quintet was nipped by the Gorton second string, 31-30 in the preliminary round.

The Gaels went in over their heads at Mamaroneck Avenue School gym last night and were hammered by the Hastings Legion, 59-38. The visitors who have now annexed seven of 10 contests, didn't possess any height advantage but their deft ball-handling and fantastically accurate shooting eyes sent the Gaels reeling and left the locals never recovered and went down to their fifth clipping in 12 outings.

Knights Invade Saints' Lair With Well-Rounded Quintet

Shaped out of the heights of a six-point triumph obtain last week, the Larchmont Saints are ready and rarin' to go out on another score and plan to use this Congress Owen Knights of New York as the booster charge. However, as is typical of games opponents, the Knights are loaded with talent and have mapped out every splinter of the St. Augustine's gym, where the tilt will be started at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The Knights aren't known to local courts, having appeared here last season and carried off a one-point overtime win over the Larchmonters. They also were invited to the St. Augustine's tournament and battled into the semi-finals before falling.

Steve for the visiting quintet is 4'4 Jumbo Lyons, rebounder and pivot-shot artist deluxe who got experience at North Carolina State and Iowa College. Lyons is perhaps the most dangerous single operating the Saints have encountered this season. He is an above-average hoop artist with either hand and is tender with hand-offs after fakes at the rim.

Bob, built on the size of Irvy, Dolph Blose and considered just as good a shot as the other, is a crash in for driving layups and the Saints watched him turn the tide in last season's final.

Frank McKenna is co-director of the Congress Owen sports, being of six wins and two defeats, both losses suffered against top-notch teams and by slim margins. As a matter of note, the locals haven't been tripped when they were at full strength.

Tony Lascioni has named Joe Cullen, Gene Connelly, Bobby McKee, Joe Doherty and Mike Woods as his starting choice.

Basketball Meet In Garden Apr. 1

NEW YORK, (AP)—The fifth annual East-West college all-star basketball game has been scheduled for April 1, sponsors said today.

The looniness of the final score was a tribute to the shooting eyes of the players involved and not through any defensive wonders. Gorton's pilot Frank Kosky jumped 12 men with the score before it was over.

The Yonkersites steadied their pulse as time went on. A two-point deficit at quarter time was parried to 10 by halftime, inched up to 11 at the three-quarter mark and kept there for the remainder of the game.

Larry Collins sank 10 points for MHS in the preliminary but the Jack Curran elms Gorton through with 15.

With Yonkers Central and Pennsylvania coming up next week, chances at the Hilltop are anticipated.
