2 Mamaroneck Men Meet Death On Battle Fronts

Samuel Paonessa Killed In Action At Mindanao

Pfc. Samuel Paonessa of Mamaroneck was killed in action on June 23 at Mindanao, according to a War Department telegram received Saturday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vito Paonessa of 147 Madison Street. He was serving with the 24th Infantry and had been overseas since January, 1944. Pfc. Paonessa, born in Mamaroneck 20 years ago, was a graduate of Mamaroneck High School in the Class of 1942. He entered the service the following August and received industry training in Louisiana before going overseas. Before the campaign on Mindanao, he fought at New Guinea, Luzon and Leyte.

He is survived by his parents, three brothers, Pfc. John Paonessa who is at home after active service with the Marines in the Pacific, Vito Paonessa and Joseph Paonessa; Mrs. Rosa Tomasi, and three sisters: Mrs. Rose Tomasi, and the Misses Betty and Marian Paonessa, all of Mamaroneck. A Requiem Mass will be held Saturday at 8 A. M. at St. Vito's Church in Mamaroneck.

Officials View First Colonial Style Building

Village officials and members of the Post War Planning Commission attended the formal opening of the first Colonial style, first rehabilitated building acquired through plans by the village. The building is located at 425-427 Mamaroneck Avenue.

The building, jointly owned by the village and the Mamaroneck Dress Shop has been redecorated in Colonial style and painted white.

Mayor R. J. Santora, who was present to inaugurate the building, James Guma, president of the committee, and the village officials, were present.

Since the group already wears the badge as a unit of the 1st Air Division, which is the distinguished Unit Citation last year, officers and men will show the new award by an Oak Leaf Cluster.

The deeds for which the 350th Fighter Group was cited helped clear the ground for the great allied airborne invasion of Europe on land last September. On the dates mentioned, the 350th Fighter Group was assigned the task of neutralizing enemy gun positions in a military operation designed to land effectively a large force of airborne troops.

Despite losses, the group sent its pilots back to the front again and again. With wing guns and bombs, in this type of air combat, the 350th Fighter Group destroyed four German pillboxes, 25 machine gun positions, 17 light and heavy anti-aircraft batteries, silencing all these gun positions.

Members of the commission who attended, in addition to Mr. Litchfield and Mr. Wesson were Frank Brown, Edgar B. Burchell, William Macdonald, Joseph Ripano, Fred Vankovick and Albert Wilson. Trustees Edward J. Kuhn and John Willy were also present.

Refreshments were served at the close of the program and the officials inspected the premises.

Nye Neck Fact Finding Committee Paves Way For Survey Later

FIRST MEETING HELD

The Nye Neck Board of Education held its first meeting last night with the five members of the Fact Finding Committee who received their official appointment to study the school situation in the district.

The members of the committee include: Frank Anderson of 345 South Drive, Nye Neck; Kenneth E. Black of 325 Carroll Avenue, assistant to the principal; E. Eisenhower, in Albion, Kan., the Director's mother; D. Brown of 111 Florence Street, a security guard; William Lyon McLaughlin, of 1323 Heron Avenue, a free lance designer; and Kirkwood Savage of 618 Oakhurst Road, traffic department superintendent for the New York Telephone Company.

The committee will be expected to make a report to the board of education by the end of this month, but the members will meet again themselves to determine the procedure which will be followed in the study.

The board has no connection with the future appointment of the three members of a committee to study the future of the City of Rye, the future of the Greenburgh district as it affects the Nye Neck school boundaries.

Mr. Jackson said, but will make an independent study of the problem.

Boat Owners Get Increase In Gas Rations

WASHINGTON (AP)—A maximum increase of 50 percent in gasoline rations for pleasure boats was authorized today by the OPA.

The increase is similar to that given all A-1 class car owners, effective June 22.

The present limitation on rations for personal use of boats will be increased from 24 to 36 gallons quarterly for inboards and from 10 to 15 gallons quarterly for outboards.

All boat owners, however, will not get the maximum rations. Inboard owners who use their craft for such purposes as conducting pleasure or hunting parties may also receive larger rations.

Increases restore the maximum limit in effect Oct. 1, 1944—175 gallons quarterly for inboards and 20 gallons for outboards, subject to horsepower limitations.

The largest increase in rations has been granted to inboard motor boats. The new limit is 1-20 gallons quarterly, compared with 12-20 gallons heretofore.

"This increase is designed to permit more fishing and to help the nation's food supply."

Outboard motors used for fishing parties will have a maximum of 20 gallons quarterly.

Parting Gifts Go To School Board Head

In "appreciation of his outstanding service to education," Philip O. Moynahan, retiring president of the Board of Education, was presented a fountain pen and desk set last night by John Jordan, president of the Teachers' Association.

Mr. Jordan, in a brief presentation speech, recalled that Mr. Moynahan, during his six years as president, "has never missed a day of school."

They work about three hours a day," he said, "and play most of the rest of the time. The discretionary factors make the day rather pleasant. To come back here and see all the restrictions is quite a let-down, even though these restrictions are necessary."

Sometimes I wonder: are we more superior than those who take it easy?"

Asked how he had any of the spirit of cooperation in carrying out his duties, he said that he had been described as "pretty tough."

"If we in the army had got away," he commented, "I would have fought together with the prisoners."

Other guests introduced included William Smith, president of the First National Life Club, and Joseph G. Buzby, Ohio, brother of the retiring president.

The only other bidder was the County Trust Company with an offer of 52 percent and a $1 premium.

Last year a similar sale for $100,000 was in the County Trust Company at an interest rate of 4 1/2 percent.

Many Surrender As Marines Fan Out On Coast

GEN. EASLEY KILLED

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Dr. Edgar C. Easley, commander of the 97th Infantry Division, was killed in action on Okinawa Tuesday. His wife was notified by the War Department today.

The Japanese lost 10,000 Allied task forces were on the ground near Miyako Island about midway between Okinawa and Formosa.

The United States broadcast said three battleships were in one force while the "mainstay" of the second consisted of five aircraft carriers.

The dispatch said reconnaissance planes had spotted more than 100 Japanese warships in the Kerama Islands, 20 miles west of Okinawa.

Large numbers of Japanese troops were seen from the cliffs of southern Okinawa today and more and more were surrendering to U. S. tanks and troops broke through to the south.

Two Marine regiments seized 700 yards of the south coast and as they fanned out, an artillery spotter plane pilot said he saw many Japanese or civilians leaping into the sea in the first mass suicides since the Saipan campaign.

Other Japanese troops in increasing numbers were slipping in among the Japanese communications streaming through the lines and were surrendering. Many of the few who were not surrendering were the most stubborn opposition.

One of the most stubborn opposition was met before Maui, near the island's southeastern coast. The Japanese commander was captured and was determined to stand up and die.

Loss Concealed

Tokyo radio broadcast declared its fall would have serious military consequences. The enemy claimed a "heavy hand" fighting still was in progress.

The Eighth Regimental Combat team and the Fifth Regiment were ordered to withdraw yesterday and anti-Japanese survivors were on the west coast of Okinawa, near the center of the island's southern coast.

With the enemy breaking his disorganized confusion in the Marine sector, the Japanese commander and 500 Japanese surrendering in one day. Gen. Chester W. Nimitz said today that the Japanese were "surrendering" by nightfall.

The southern end of the island was held by the Japanese in some sectors. Japanese fled frantically across open terrain. Anti-aircraft and heavy weapons were abandoned.

Other Japanese made death stands, usually in small groups, taking a heavy toll of American lives, until wiped out by tanks, flamethrowers, or small arms fire. They killed many Americans, including some high ranking officers.

WEST POINT, (AP)—General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower's triumphal tour turned to duty to the U. S. Military Academy today. He was dubbed "Dare Devil Dwight," the "Daredevil Don," in the class yearbook.

An address to the cadets at West Point at 12:10 P. M. and visit to the quarters he used as a cadet.

After a review of the enlisted detachments at the post and a second address at 3:30 P. M., a general inspection was scheduled.

The city's millions returned to work with his stirring words tingling in their ears.

"Peace is an absolute necessity to this world, the nations cannot stand another world catastrophe of war. I believe that we should be as cautious as we can in the kind of war we are exploring every direction in which peace should be maintained. I believe that we should be strong, but we should be ready to defend our rights, but we should be consistent in our recognition of the rights of other men."

An estimated 4,000,000 persons crowded to pay tribute to the tall "conquering hero."

The first case of a four-year-old infant born in a hospital in honor, the modest luncheon of the Nazis total approximately 1,300 diners at the Waldorf-Astoria.

He said he hoped "the rejoicing" to which we indulge because of the ending of the war will never blind us to the task we still have in the Pacific."

Golfing Story Gives Yeoman Touch Of Home

A wave of nostalgia swept through the Mariana Islands recently—at least the part where Yeoman 1st Class John S. Hains of Mamaroneck is stationed with the Navy Seabees—when the June edition of Esquire was delivered containing the now famous story of Bobby Jones' golfing feats at the Winged Foot Golf Club in Mamaroneck in 1930.

After reading the story and studying the reproduction of a painting of the scene he "wasn't good for anything the rest of my lunch hour," he wrote, "except some real good thinking of the home town by the sea and my many friends in the Mamaroneck Fire Department."

Yeoman Hains who is the son of Mrs. A. E. Hains of Rose Avenue, is a Bellows High School graduate and received Seabee training at Camp Peary, Williamsburg, Va., before going overseas. His letter to The Daily Times follows:

"Today I received two unexpected treats as I sat with nothing especially in mind, except, perhaps the little lady who awaits my homecoming. The first was in the form of my June edition of Esquire, which has just arrived. I read the second on turning the page to 43 for there was a full page commentary by O. B. Keefer entitled "Prelude to the 1930 Grand Slam," the story of how Bobby Jones' golfing career dangled on a single 12-foot putt on a green at Mamaroneck, N. Y.

"I might have said that there was also a third beautiful treat, for opposite the commentary is a double-page facsimile painting by Robert Fawcett of Jones' famous 12-foot putt in the 1929 National Open Golf Championship, which put Mamaroneck right up there in the headlines for several days.

"Needless to say, I experienced a feeling of nostalgia after seeing this painting in Esquire and wasn't good for anything the rest of my lunch period except some real good thinking of the home town by the sea and my many friends in the Mamaroneck Fire Department.

"When I entered the naval service at the end of 1942, I was secretary of Halstead Manor Home Co., No. 4, Halstead Manor Home Company is fairly well represented out this way for I understand that Jack Strickland is an island very close by and Les McArdle, who was a Halstead Manor officer when he entered the service, is also near.

"I know that both Jack and Les will agree with me when I say that the war picture looks pretty good out here and that undoubtedly Mr. Top is spending an awful lot of time in his air raid shelter these days.

"One of my friends back home has been sending me The Daily Times and it is a real pleasure to read the news of happenings back home. It was a terrible shock to read of the untimely death of WHITE PLAINS. Officials of the Town of Somers are named as defendants in a suit brought by two taxpayers of the town, in which it is alleged that certain requirements of law were not complied with in construction of a two-story addition to the Somers Town House.

The suit was started by Mrs. Emily Adam of Shenorock and Ludwig G. Anger of Somers, represented by John J. McGuire of Yonkers. Named as defendants are Supervisor Elmer Galloway, Councilman Thomas Delworth, Charles Ward, Gertram Polhill and James J. McNulty, Clerk of the Town. Pocket-Sized Ceiling Price Lists Issued

For the active participation by housewives and other shoppers in the government's meat control program, OPA has prepared for distribution to consumers a quarter of a million pocket-size bulletins listing the top ceiling prices for popular cuts and grades of meat. Daniel P. Woolley, regional OPA administrator, announced today. The distribution of these price lists was recommended by OPA's Consumer Advisory Committee.

The lists are available to consumers at local War Price and Rationing Boards and price panels. A quantity of these price lists has been sent to civic, labor, church and educational organizations for distribution.

Prices shown on the lists are ceilings for meat sold in Group I and 2 stores, which are independent stores with annual gross sales of less than $20,000. The ceilings are based on the new meat price schedule that goes into effect June 15, and are the highest that may be charged, regardless of the size of the store.

"The large majority of retailers who are living up to their obligations under prices control will welcome the appearance of these lists," Mr. Woolley said.

"Shoppers who refuse to pay over ceiling prices help the conscientious retailer, who may have

Schools Get Tract For Memorial

Parents Present Park As Tribute To Richard Kemper, Killed In War

MONUMENT PLANNED

The presentation to the Manamorneck school system of the tract of land, extending 250 feet on the Boston Post Road between the Junior High School and Central School by Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kemper of 325 Beach Avenue, Larchmont, as a memorial to their son, Richard, who was killed in the World War, was announced yesterday by Philip O. Moynahan, president of the Board of Education.

The plot, which will be known as Richard Kemper Park, will be landscaped as a memorial and monument will be erected bearing the name of the boy. Plans for the inscription of the names of all students of the school system who have given their lives in the present world conflict.

The offer was made at a recent meeting of the board. Mr. Moynahan disclosed and the resolution was adopted thanking Mr. and Mrs. Kemper for their gift.

Richard Kemper graduated from Manamorneck High School in 1937 and received a B. S. degree in 1941 from North Carolina State University. He entered military service in March, 1942, and underwent his basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C. He went from there to Officer Candidate School at Fort Benning, Ga., where he was commissioned 2nd Lieutenant. He was given special training, including ranger tactics, at Camp McCain, and about 1944 returned to Camp McCain where he was assigned to the 1st Infantry. In May, 1944, he was promoted to 1st lieutenant and immediately volunteered for overseas service. His death occurred in the Philippines on June 10, 1945, while he was leading his platoon in an attack on an enemy position on Luzon. At that time he was commander of Company A, 1st Infantry, 9th Division of the 1st Army.

The tract selected for the park is situated on the Boston Post Road immediately east and adjacent to the grounds of the Junior High School. It is a tract of approximately 250 feet on the Boston Post Road and is about 100 feet deep. Options have been obtained and it is expected that the purchase of the property will be consummated within the next few days.

Plans have been prepared by Vernon Stauffer, president of the Shore Acres Corporation in Cleveland, Ohio, and Mr. Moynahan said.

It is proposed to remove the present structures and erect as soon as possible with the land. Plans have been prepared but the general thought is to plant the property with trees and shrubs and to use the school parking ground and playground.

Cemetery Wall Found On Lot Sold By Town

The purchases by Perry Demas of the Manamorneck Class Company of the property on Mount Pleasant Avenue adjoining the town-owned cemetery has revealed the fact that the cemetery wall encroaches upon that property a distance of two and a half feet.

The wall has been there since 1908. It was revealed Wednesday night at the Manamorneck Town Board meeting, but it was not until Mr. Demas had a survey made that the encroachment was discovered.

The property was bought upon settlement of back taxes and the town is waiting about $350 in arrears because of the encroachment. The property will be re-evaluated with the two and a half foot strip becoming exempt.

The report of the Welfare Department for the month of May submitted by Councilman David Demas, upon the fact that the town owned cemetery had a wall of 11,072.02 ft. against 76 ft. 1944. Baruch Urges Razing Reich's War Potential

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bernard M. Baruch urged today that the United Nations "break once and for all Germany's dominance of Europe" with a specific, industry-by-industry destruction of Germany's war potential.

In testimony prepared for the Senate military affairs committee, he recommended that "the German settlement be used as a basis for a comprehensive, all-embracing agreement with Russia" to make peace problems.

He said "a new cave area of bomb shelters" would be the price of failure to achieve these objectives or to rally and enforce, by universal military training and other means, the United Nations Charter now near completion at San Francisco.

Asserting it was not enough to demand an "economically weak" Germany, Baruch said there must be a program "sufficiently specific" to be established and that "a policy of occupation" is needed to ensure the American free enterprise system in a world drifting toward a series of various kind.

450 B-29s Raid Kure Plant And Other Targets

GIAM (AP)—Four hundred B-29s today attacked Kure, Japan's largest naval arsenal and five big aircraft factories with 100,000 tons of incendiary bombs in a precision raid made visually from medium altitude in clear weather.

Seven other small industrial targets were strafed Monday and Wednesday.

Japan's two largest arsenals, Osaka and Nagoya, were virtually destroyed. The Kure plant, blasted today, manufactures a wide variety of ordnance, fuses, propellants and torpedoes. It covered approximately 11,000,000 square feet.

The other five targets were the Mitsubishi and Kawasaki aircraft plants at Kagamiyama, 20 miles east of Nagoya; Kawasaki aircraft plant at Himeji and the Kawasaki aircraft plant at Akashi, both in the Kobe area; and the Mitsubishi-Mishima aircraft plant at Tomonashi, 90 miles west of Osaka.

A Japanese communiqué claims 28 of the great raiders were shot down.

B-29's already have destroyed 100,000 square miles of Japanese urban industrial areas, 21st Bomber Command headquarters announced while today's raids were in progress. Recent B-29 attacks on seven smaller industrial cities—all more than 100 miles from Kure—destroyed 271 square miles of new Japanese city. The total area destroyed today was 15 square miles. The total area destroyed by B-29's since the start of the war is 1,100,000 square miles.

Osaka, Japan's second largest city, suffered 271 square miles of new Japanese city. The total area destroyed today was 15 square miles. The total area destroyed by B-29's since the start of the war is 1,100,000 square miles.

Rotarians See Village Scenes Of Long Ago

"Manamorneck of Long Ago" was the title of an interesting movie shown Manamorneck Rotary Club members yesterday at their luncheon at the Elms Club.

Compiled, edited and shown by Charles D. Sillock, the film included scenes in Manamorneck as far back as 60 years ago, with contrasting views of the same locations as they are today. Mr. Sillock gave a running commentary.

Mr. Sillock was introduced by Joseph J. Dinoff, Rotary program chairman.

Among the visitors was Lt. Col. Philip T. Trumbull, who has spent more than two years supervising reconstruction work in the Italian theater district in Rome. He stated that in the province where he saw active German soldiers, Germans had destroyed 1,000 ordnance, but that the work of his army was so fast and efficient that it had already rebuilt 600 of them.

Mr. Sillock has been in the Army five years.

Announcement was made by Alvin Eisman, chairman of the Rotary, that the club would be repaired and placed at all entrances to the Village. Posted throughout the nation as community guide, these Rotary signs bear the name of each local club, its meeting place and time.

Philip Trumbull, chairman of the golf committee, announced that the club would hold its annual golf tournament next August at the Westchester Country Club in Rye, to be followed by a dinner that evening.

Highland, chairman of the dinner committee, announced that the installation of officers will be the installation of officers.

A plea for volunteers to help in the paper salvage pick-up was made by Charles Sillock, who is acute and that all men of the community who are willing to contribute a few hours of their time would be most welcome.

Those desiring to volunteer their services may contact Mr. Sillock by calling Manamorneck 88.

President William J. Kuhn presided and announced that the last business meeting of the club had adjourned the hundred per cent dues for 1945.

Donna J. Fox was a visiting Rotarian from Larchmont.

Yanks Clearing Okinawa As Foe Fears Invasion

GIAM (AP)—American mop-up patrols began the grueling job of annihilating Japanese sniper nests on Okinawa before the main invasion force could be staged from the newly-won island base, 325 miles south of Japan.

Tokyo radio reported Premier Kantaro Suzuki warned his cabinet an invasion of Japan was impending and said the people of Okinawa, home island nearest the main island, were prepared for an invasion, convinced "the enemy will certainly land" there.

Pacific Fleet headquarters made no bones about the fact that Okinawa is being a forward staging base from which bomber and fighter planes can cover assault waves striking in Japan or China or both.

Residents of Orienta Charge Break-Down Of Zoning Regulations

BOARD HEARS VIEWS

Should the Village of Mamaroneck retain as much waterfront property as possible for future development as a park or should a portion of it be sold for boat storage purposes in order to get as much foreclosed property as possible back on the tax rolls? That was the question which was presented last night by the residents of Orienta Point, an association for more than an hour before the board of zoning regulations of the village. The matter is the subject of a regular meeting of the board, which was held at the village hall last night. The board recently accepted an offer for $100,000 from Leslie Goodwin, 200 Westchester Avenue, to purchase a 100-acre tract of property on Rummage Avenue, which is zoned for residential use. The zoning board to allow him to convert a building on the tract into a boat storage yard.

The Orienta Pointers are charging that the village is leading to the breaking down of the zoning of the district by accepting such an offer and that property values are not being properly protected.

The subject was made by a letter which was made by Edwin C. Waldweg of 103 First Avenue who said he was a spokesman for the Orienta Pointers. He felt very strongly on the subject, although his resentment was not being expressed in behalf of the association.

Edward W. Plume of 620 Forest Avenue, who is president of the association, was appearing as a spokesman for the Orienta Pointers. He presented a three-page letter describing the stand of the executive board of the association. It requested the trustees to drop the proposed sale.

He became emphatically that "we don't want another City Island on Rummage Avenue," he said. "We don't want another City Island on Rummage Avenue," he said. "We don't want another City Island on Rummage Avenue," he said.

Assessor For Village Ouits Post

OFFERS NO REASON

Barney Epstein, assessor of the Village of Mamaroneck for the last seven years, submitted his resignation last night to Village Manager William H. Johnson.

When the manager's announcement was read to the board, Mayor B. J. Santoro asked if the resignation had been accepted and the manager replied that it was, just being presented at that time. "Well, Mr. Epstein is your appointee as village manager," pointed out Mayor Santoro. "It's up to you."

"I know that," Mr. Johnson replied. "I'm merely reporting the matter to the board. It's apparently nothing to do but accept it since Mr. Epstein seems to have made up his mind, and I want to say that while he has been on the job, everything has been done in a fine, efficient manner. The only complaint has been that he couldn't be here at the time. There is no better assessor in Westchester County or in the whole state of New York for that matter than Mr. Epstein."

Mr. Epstein declined to give a reason for the resignation at the close of the meeting, answering all questions with the statement, "The mayor knows all the answers, ask him."

Mayor Santoro said this morning that, during a recent conference with Mr. Epstein on the subject of his impending resignation, the assessor referred him to a letter he had written to the board in April in which he asked that his base salary be increased from $10,000 to $13,000.

The board declined to include the raise in the budget and the assessor has since informed that a recent appeal made by Mr. Epstein before the State Tax Commission resulted in the raising of the rate on special assessments from the cent and a half to one and a half per cent.

His resignation was accepted at the same time that the assessor informed that a recent appeal made by Mr. Epstein before the State Tax Commission resulted in the raising of the rate on special assessments from the cent and a half to one and a half per cent.

"This increase, in effect, will add to the village's budget an increase in the amount of $61,149 in taxable values over the tentative figure," the assessor's report reads, "despite the increase in capital values of the village, the net result of the total assessed values of the village is a decrease of $15,977 over the previous or current tax rate."

Mayor Santoro also stated this morning that there is no doubt that Mr. Epstein has done an efficient job as assessor and works hard. "I think we all agree we have taken part in a historic moment in world history. All controversy has been cleared away days before this final action, and the village is now in a unanimous standing before the State Tax Commission."

The signing ceremony was called to order by Mayor Santoro. Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo of China, heading a procession of 153 delegates, entered the auditorium of St. Francis' Veterans Memorial church at 100 Westchester Avenue.

President Truman, who received a thunderous welcome at the city yesterday, is scheduled to make the closing address of the conference beginning about 5 P. M. Officials estimated that the number of delegates will be in the neighborhood of 1,000.

Thus the order is China, Russia, Britain, France, Argentina and the United States. The signing ceremony takes place in the order of signers. The one exception was that the United States is host country and will sign last.

When Mr. Epstein was first appointed his salary was $18,000 per year. His present salary is $10,000. The salary he requested, however, he added, "is a disadvantage to all of us who work in the village."

First School Head Recalls Graduation Of 50 Years Ago As 43 Get Bellows Diplomas

Standing before the 50th anniversary graduating class in the school which bears his name, Frederick E. Bellows, who came to the village 35 years ago as superintendent, recalled memories of other classmates last night at the high school exercises.

The only survivor of the first faculty of four, Mr. Bellows told of the class of 1895, which he recalled as the first class to graduate in the school.

His task was preceded by slides showing the school's history since its inception, and referring to the names of the early years. Mr. Bellows said, "You have seen so much history that perhaps you don't want to hear any more. But you can imagine the memories which arise when I look at these pictures."

When the former superintendent came to Mamaroneck he found a school of 150 pupils, all elementary, and no records of anything but financial and registration reports, he said. "The first week I was there I prepared a course of study which the Board of Education immediately adopted and printed," he went on, "and when I left 11 years ago several members were still in existence."

Naming the six men on the board, Mr. Bellows referred to Daniel Warren, for whom a school is named as a "grand good man, a strong personal friend and a friend of the school and community," he declared.

Mr. Bellows spoke of the early years as "delightful, profitable and inspiring to me—years of considerable accomplishment."

Recalling the "independence and democracy of the school" in those days and until 1900, he said, "we were unaware of the existence of the State Education Department until the end of the year when statistical and financial reports were turned in. There was nothing of the harassments that worry the life of today of boards, superintendents and principals in these autocratic days."

The speaker told of "generous, harmonious pupils" who he sent to colleges and state normal schools. "They were not afraid of progress," he added, "but progress. Not ultra progressive, but conservatively progressive."

Desiring that Bellows "stand for definite things," Mr. Bellows named three objectives of the school: "to prepare for the course of his students; a harmonious (Continued on Page Three)

Most of the Village of Mamaroneck Police Department and all the volunteer firemen were called out last night to look for 10-year-old Freddie Lerner of 418 Fourth Street, Mamaroneck, who had been AWOL since 1 P. M.

Two of his playmates finally found him about 12:30 A. M., when he had hidden in the night under a Nissan car in the wooded area between Hunter and Fourth Streets.

Freddie left yesterday morning to visit his father and when he came home he had only 40 cents left out of $2 of his mother's which he had taken with him and he was ordered upstairs with the ominous warning, "Wait till your mother comes home."

When his father came home, Freddie had departed again, but he was found in the night under a Nissan car in the wooded area between Hunter and Fourth Streets.

World Trial Marriage

ANY contract, any partnership, any treaty must depend for success upon the efforts of the contracting parties. That is why the success of the peace charter of the United Nations signed yesterday at San Francisco does not hinge upon its terms and provisions as now subscribed to, but rather upon the manner in which the 50 nations and others as subsequently admitted, endeavor to strengthen and enlarge the powers of the pact.

This world organization is a bit like marriage. Every husband and every wife of some years standing knows that it is not the initial affection or ardor which carries through marriage; it is an institution which requires hard work if it is to stick. When the youthful attraction has waned, when what was novel becomes banal, when the bloom vanishes and the couple settles down to regular, day-in-and-day-out living, then comes the real test of the marriage. The real characteristics of the couple determine whether that marriage will succeed or fail.

If we are going to live in peace with this new world force, we must know it and handle it. What is it? Is it something to fear? To avoid? To resist? To oppose?

We cannot agree upon these answers until we can agree on something which is not a handle to us. An agreeable answer is therefore, "What is it?"

The first genuine glance at the Russian system will tell you it is NOT Communism. It is not what it calls itself because practices the communal ownership and operation theory only on its farms.

In industry, where its government always has made greatest efforts, it follows a kind of Socialism, but with "rents and profits" which are repatriated to Stalin. So, it is not Socialism.

Col. Joe Bush Says— The way the railroads are advertising for you not to travel, and tire companies for you not to drive, and meat dealers for you not to eat—without the only real reason being that when they ever start making "an again: 'The air is so full of so many things, I'm sure you'll be as happy as kings.'"

Uncle Bill Bleakley of Yonkers celebrates his 34th wedding anniversary, which is a long time for any woman to put up with any man, even if it is a good paper.

Now, that also means Helen Gerlach of Ossining is "driven" around. It's the one the Countess gave his daughter, back in 1941 when she graduated from Cornell, and now that Barbara's in the Red Cross in the Pacific, the old folks are just keepin' the battery warmed up 'till she gets back.

What we want after the war is a real word head of control—not just a '42 model with a new cigar light.

WHAT IS COMMUNISM?—A Boston reader has written to ask what is this thing called Communism and why should it not dominate Europe.

The Russians seem to be fairly agreeable peasant people. As George Eisenberg said, they do not laugh and enjoy life. They are not a warlike people.

What is this thing which we are faced? What does it want? This raises the prime question of the world today, for it is the question behind war or peace, behind the strength or weakness of the San Francisco peace formula.

If we are going to live in peace with this new world force, we must know it and handle it. What is it? Is it something to fear? To avoid? To resist? To oppose?

Anything which is anti-capitalist was made possible by the Bolsheviks favored immediate revolution for overthrow of capitalism and Lenin wrote the communal dogma, compromising the Marx, Bolsheviks, and Stalin has compromised it further.

The methods of secret police, absolute discipline upon the individual, no free election choice, subjection of the individual to the will of the state, purges, and unannounced dictators were originated by the self-styled "Communists" and taken up and been carried by equal or greater violence by Mussolini and Hitler, on the plea of suppressing Communism.

COULD YOU TELL ME HOW TO GET SCORCH FROM A COTTON DRESS? Mrs. J.

If the dress is white and the scorch is slight, just moisten the spot with water and place it in the direct sunlight. If it's a heavy scorch, dampen a cloth with hydrogen peroxide and pat it over the stain; over this, place a dry cloth and press with a warm iron, as rapidly as the peroxide soaks through, replace the top cloth.

This is only for white material, as hydrogen peroxide removes color, and if the dress isn't white—but so will the color. We don't know of any way to take scorch from a colored material; even so, what material the scorch can't be removed if it is very severe as it will have injured the fibers.

Abbink Heads Directors Of Trade Council

The thorny questions of disposal of government-owned surplus abroad and exportation of surplus from the country demand careful consideration. The development of imports in combination with qualified import organizations is essential. Whenever foreign trade blossoms out in the news, as now, many export traders and ill-conceived promotion schemes break out all over the country. These must be watched to prevent heavy losses and kick-backs.

Mr. Abbink addressed a forum meeting of the Larchmont Council for the Promotion of Peace Planning in June, 1944, when Thurman Arnold, associate justice of the United States Court of Appeals spoke on the subject of "Cartels."

Present FM Sets Outmoded By FCC Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission decided Wednesday that Frequency Modulation radio for the promotion of Peace Planning megacycles band, outmoding existing FM receivers. This allocation is higher than the 84-102 megacycles band proposed in the Commission's earlier report and means that frequency modulation must move up in the modulation spectrum from its present position of 44-50 megacycles. The decision ends a month-long controversy between FCC and spokesmen for the FM industry.

Larchmont Hero Saves Navy Ship POUNDED BY 50 BOMBERS

Thomas Trained Gun On Jap Suicide Plane In Desperate Battle
CRAFT SET ABLAZE

Right up there at the top today with the No. 1 crew of the World War II is Robert F. Thomas of Larchmont, the 20-year-old engineer's mate, third class, who kept his 20 mm. gun trained on a Jap suicide plane until it caught fire and went striking the deck of the ship 12 feet from the gun.

It happened May 13 in the Pacific area when the destroyer escort, U.S.S. Bright, was attacked by a Jap plane and launched one of the most desperate struggles of the war—and the shortest. It lasted about three minutes.

The 20-millimeter anti-aircraft gun on the Larchmont ship caused the plane to roll crazily and fall to pieces in the water, said Lt. McMahon said. "At about 750 yards the fighter burst into flames, the port wing falling off, causing it to finally crash directly astern with the remaining portion of the wing hitting an empty depth-charge rack."

The crash caused immediate fire of the ship's main battery, forcing the ship to circle helplessly.

The young engineer, who has been recommended for the Navy Cross at home next week by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Thomas of the Chatsworth Gardens Apartments, and according to his mother, has had "very little time" about his grueling experience.

Prt. Feldman Home, Recalls Seven-Day March Without Food To Nazi Prison Camp

BY RUTH B. TAUB

Six months in a German prison camp, preceded by a 14-day march without food in the first seven days, and a bout of pneumonia thrown on for good measure, haven't changed Pvt. Milton Feldman, ex-prisoner of war, from a Russian, Dutch and British colleague, and for the American enlisted man, a respect from a hard experience.

The 21-year-old liberated prisoner returned Tuesday to spend 70 days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Feldman, and amidst and prayers of thanksgiving are the order of the day at their home at 1800 Palmer Avenue, Larchmont.

Mrs. Feldman, husky with a largynitis attributed to "nerves" she is sure she is the "happiest and luckiest mother in the world." A good many Larchmonters, who share the Feldmans' grief last Winter and their subsequent return from captivity by a rifle squad, are inclined to agree with her.

Pvt. Feldman's story is one of grueling days and nights of pillaging and marching from Jetties 150 yards away, surrounded for three days by a 100-foot high wall, and separated from his outfit, intercepted by the Germans and sent to a concentration camp.

"After four days of marching without food, you begin to get used to it," he recalled yesterday. The last week of the march added to the menu less than a pound of bread, two spoonfuls of jam, a spoonful of margarine, molasses and a Jerry coffee, brewed from scraps.

Prison fare at Muhlberg-Elbe, 60 miles south of Berlin, housing 20,000 prisoners of many nations, had little in common with the chicken and steak twice a day, informed by a telegram signed by 224 representatives of New Rochelle, Larchmont, Pelham, Rye, Mamaroneck and Mount Vernon at "Save the Fair Employment Practices Commission" rally held last night in Albert Leonard High School.

The blue-eyed, smiling young man has already gained back 20 of the 60 pounds he lost during his imprisonment, and is "feeling wonderful." He was liberated April 23 by the Russians, walking the 20 miles to Russia, Germany, under their supervision, thence the American leg by truck to Halle in the Meiningen Airport, by plane to Le Havre, and after a month at a Reconstruction Allied Military Personnel Camp, home on the moon ship General Butler, landing at Hampton Roads on June 20. At the end of his 70-day ordeal, he will spend two weeks at the Lake Placid rest camp, before reassignment.

In the meantime, all he wants to do is "sit around and take it easy, and just do what I feel like for a change." He is more convinced than ever that "America is the best country in the world."

His reminiscences were again and again to the generosity and kindness of the Dutch and Russian prisoners, and the patients at the hospital where French doctors cared for him while he was in camp.

"Nothing is too good for an American," he said to the Russian team and according to Pvt. Feldman, he and we ever have trouble with them, will be political, pure and simple. They are our friends, and he also expressed deep admiration for his Dutch buddy, Ben ter Beek, who had been taken prisoner in 1942, and whom he described as "a terrific cook and the most delicious cake out of absolutely nothing, and what's more, decorated to read 'Cheers for America!'"

Another thing he won't forget is the memorial service held at the camp for President Roosevelt, which was a "big event" for the prisoners.

American soldiers assembled, together with Soviet, Dutch, Polish, Russian, and other prisoners, and a memorial service was held at the camp for President Roosevelt, which was a "big event" for the prisoners.

BORNEO ALL CENTER POUNDED BY 50 BOMBERS

Early Invasion Fared In Tokyo Radio Report

MANTILA, (AP)—An Allied fleet of 50 ships pounded Borneo's main base of Balikpapan all day yesterday and poured more shells into shore defenses, early in preparation for an imminent landing, the Tokyo radio reported today.

The enemy account said Allied mine sweepers were clearing the enemy craft from the water cover of the "turbid bargefront," had "nursed the shore for 'close and careful reconnaissance'."

The broadcast was unconfirmed, although Gen. Douglas MacArthur acknowledged today that guns of "light naval units" have taken up the bombardment of the oil-rich island Borneo coast.

Early reported that an Allied landing in the Balikpapan area is "imminent" and said "since the night of June 25, enemy warships and planes have been engaged in a continuous reconnaissance of our coastal positions." Eight cruisers, 10 destroyers, 181 torpedo boats and submarines "carry out furious bombardments against coastal installations," the dispatch asserted.

MacArthur said light naval vessels added shore targets on Borneo, including the island of Balikpapan, at night after attacks Friday, 13th and 14th. The Japanese attack destroyed 181 tons of oil, 13th Balikpapan's petroleum district, the island's main source of fuel for the past two weeks in more than 2,500 tons.

Australian planes now hold 125 miles of coastline in north Borneo and Sarawak, the Melbourne radio reported today.

Oil wells on recaptured Tarakan, off Borneo's east coast, already are being pumped into Allied storage tanks—two months after D-Day.

Japan Shifts Defenses To Invasion Area

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Japan's Army defense reorganization shifted today to Northern Japan, a move in direction from which Tokyo has been anticipating an invasion.

Gen. Keisuke Fujii was named Commander of the Tohoku Army district, a Northern Honshu Island, Tokyo Radio announced shortly after reporting ten Superforts mined waters bordering the district.

An All-England broadcast reported by the radio reported the Cabinet had ordered "top priority" in the four largest, is on the island's largest target, in the 24-foot to increase production.

President Kanryo Suzuki's 41-member "Extraordinary War Measure Committee," an advisory body created under the Cabinet's newly-issued dictatorial powers, held its first meeting today at Suzuki's residence.

At a luncheon meeting held at the Elks' Club, he also announced that the series of events commemorating the village's incorporation will begin toward the end of August and continue until Nov. 16, the date of the anniversary, when the major event in the celebration will be held.

Assisting Mr. Heithaus on the executive committee will be William Falcher, R. J. Difuria, William F. MacDonald, Jr., and Mrs. E. B. Ingraham.

Honorary chairman for the celebration are six former mayors of the village.

Chinese Occupy Luchow, Air Base

CHUNGKING, (AP)—The Chinese High Command announced today that Chinese troops captured Luchow, former U. S. 14th Air Force base, at midnight last night.

The capture of the strategic Chungking junction city came after bitter fighting through its suburbs. The center of the city in flames for a week or more was destroyed, the Chinese said.
