Just Out

The M. H. S. R. (Much Happier and Success Railroad) has arrived on time and will depart today between 2 and 4 P. M. with the students of the Mamaroneck Senior High School.

The M. H. S. R. is the theme of the 1948 "Mahaicon" annual year book of the high school, issued today, which is dedicated to one whose life exemplified among many other virtues, gentleness, cheerfulness, helpfulness and loyalty—Miss Maude Morgan, secretary to Joseph C. McLean, principal.

The motif is explained in the foreword, which states: "We invite you to ride with us aboard our special train on the M. H. S. R. (Much Happiness and Success Railroad). The crew is expert, the equipment good and the passenger list interesting. The journey is not long—just a year of life at Mamaroneck High School. So, All Aboard! This string of 'Varnish' leaves on time!"

The Mahaicon was edited by Carol Stappert, who was assisted by the business manager.

Annual Meeting

Election of officers and the board of directors will feature the annual dinner meeting of the Larchmont Paltry Trade Association at 8 P. M. today at the Hotel Devan.

The following slate was presented by the nominating committee last month: James E. Scriver, president; Joseph W. Smadick, vice president; James S. Stassen, secretary; and George E. Mills, treasurer. Retiring president Gilbert W. Merrill, William C. Horn and Lucile Ford were nominated for the board of directors, and Eugene Ford, Guy C. Klein, Hugh Owen, Rae Ritchie, Thomas B. Sutton and a Milton Weinstein, whose term expires, were nominated for reelection.

Dog Show Judge

Mrs. Robert N. Kitching III of Larchmont will serve as judge in the 73rd annual Westminster Kennel Club show to be held next Feb. 14 and 15 at Madison Square Garden, New York City.

Mrs. Kitching will judge German shepherds in the Worker Class competition.

The names of the Judges were released by the Westminster Kennel Club at this early date so that dog fanciers will know as early as possible under whom they will be judged to show.

Sell-Off

The annual Chamber of Commerce bazaar, which will be held tomorrow, is a sell-off. Chairman Fred Rubin announced today that ticket holders should report to the West Main at 1 P. M., where the list will be waiting to take members and guests to Lloyd's Point, opposite Stamford.

The tickets are the Village Dock as the meeting place, but the dock is not yet in operation, Mr. Rubin reported.

Railroad Counsel

George Buland, former Larchmont resident, has been appointed general counsel for the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, Portland, Ore. Mr. Buland was assistant counsel for Southern Pacific for many years.

The family resided until three years ago on Monroe Avenue, Larchmont, and now lives there in Palo Alto, Calif.

War on Bugs

The first phase in the mosquito control program in Mamaroneck was inaugurated Monday. Village Manager William H. Johnson reported.

All marsh lands in the village were sprayed with a fog applicator attached to a jeep. The marshes will be sprayed again within the next four weeks, Mr. Johnson said.

CIVIL WAR THREAT SEEN AT TEL AVIV

TEL AVIV, Israel, (AP) — An Arab demand for Israel to hand over the landing of an Iranian arms ship threatened today to plunge the new Jewish State into civil war.

Shooting erupted when the arms ship, an LST, sought to land its forbidden cargo on the beach at Yotvata, 18 miles from Tel Aviv. The ship was moved overnight into Tel Aviv Bay and grounded within a few hours of the waterfront headquarters of the United Nations. Iranian arms are barred under the U.N. four-week armistice.

Soviet Veto Expected

LAKE SUCCESS, (AP) — An American demand for security council approval to world control expected to be vetoed by a Russian vote today. Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, denounced the American move last week. He charged the Americans are hounding their proposal in the face of continued disagreement between the United States and Russia.

BOARD APPROVES $172,000 FUND FOR NEW EQUIPMENT

$70,000 Improvement Plan Deferred To Hold Line On Tax Rate

In an effort to hold the line on the tax rate, the Larchmont Board of Trustees last night pared down a $70,000 equipment improvement program and authorized only the purchase of equipment amounting to approximately $12,000, the money for which is in the present budget.

Mayor Walter B. C. Washburn said he was in favor of authorizing any amount of equipment this year, if possible, and felt that the village should only buy those items which are most needed and for which it has the money.

Trustee Arthur Richards had prepared a report showing what equipment is needed for the village to function satisfactorily, necessitating bond issues totaling almost $50,000. A balance of $12,000 remains from a previous bond equipment issue.

The trustees authorized include two three-ton Buckway trucks, one two-ton Dodge truck, and a chlorination machine. The cost of the trucks was estimated at $184,400 and the machine at approximately $1,156 from the surplus.

This balance in addition to other money to be made up from the present budget, was authorized to be spent for a chlorination machine at the sewage disposal plant, at an estimated cost of $2,000.

Manager For Dewey Promises 'Startling Revelation' To GOP

By JOE HALL, PHILADELPHIA, (AP) — Herbert Brownell, one of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's managers, today promised a startling revelation "within 24 hours" when the names of the delegate to nominate Dewey is announced.

It will be worth a lot of space in the paper," he told his regular morning news conference.

Dewey's strategists made no secret of their disdain for a suggested combination of the forces of Senator Robert A. Taft and Stassen to "stop Dewey."

CHAMBER REVIEWS BY-LAW CHANGES

A new set of by-laws for the Mamaroneck Chamber of Commerce will probably be approved before the end of the summer, but it is almost certain that there will be a number of changes in those offered for study at last night's meeting of the Chamber at Mamaroneck Hall.

The proposed by-laws were submitted by Ernest Washburn, president of the Chamber, and the principal changes were explained by Arthur Dunn, Jr., executive secretary.

At the end of the discussion, upon the suggestion of Fred Rubin, it was decided to hold a special meeting within the next three or four weeks at which only the by-laws will be discussed.

WESTOVER AIRBASE, Mass. (AP) A radio-controlled experimental plane with no one aboard was out of control today—probably somewhere over New England—an Airforce spokesman reported.

A message was sent out on the public telegraphic network that it was not expected that the craft—a Grumman Hellcat—could remain aloft much beyond the noon hour, when it was expected to crash.

WOMAN WINS MAINE U. S. SENATE CONTEST

GOP endorsement in the Maine Primaries is almost equal to that of the Democrats.

If tradition prevails this September, Mrs. Smith will step into the seat of retiring Majority Floor Leader White.

FAVORITE SONS STILL SIT TIGHT

Dewey, Taft and Stassen Continue Hunt For Deciding Vote

By JACK BELL, CONVENTION HALL, Philadelphia, (AP) — The Republicans, who were sitting tight in November, got up for today in the choice for President.

Many of the delegates who straggled into this hall for the second day's sessions had been up half the night or more in who will sit tight in the Dewey-Taft-Stassen struggle for the nomination.

The "favorite son" candidates, whose names have not yet been shaken loose to produce a winner, were sitting tight. They gave every indication they intended to play every card and make no moves until the final approval of the convention had been made a couple of ballots on the nomination.

The third session of the convention began today at 11:22 A. M. The convention's resolutions committee came up shortly after 1 P. M. It has a list of proposed platforms. It must get formal approval of the convention, but ordinarily that is given without major argument.

As party platforms go, this is on the brief side, about 2,400 words in all. It has a little something to offer for everybody.

The biggest struggles within the committee were reported to have been over foreign policy and housing. The foreign plank pledges aid to other peace-loving people but within the prudent limits of our own economic welfare.

As for housing it says the federal government should help do away with slums and provide low-rental housing when the job can't be done by state and local communities or by private enterprise.

Another plank pointed out that if Republicans get their coveted hold on the White House they will need driver measures to defeat Communism at home.

The intensity of the delegate hunt was illustrated by the activity of Senator Robert A. Taft. Before the morning session of the convention, he conferred with the Missouri and Kansas delegations.

Taft in Paris was awaiting his own conference with the Wisconsin, Tennessee, New Jersey, Vermont, Maryland, Alabama, and Hawaii groups.

Talking with newsmen, Taft declined comment on the attitude of the Missouri and Kansas delegations, but said he held his own chances of winning the nomination are "very promising."

Backers of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and of Harold E. Stassen were no less active. And friends of Senator Robert A. Taft and of Speaker Joe Martin were talking up their man, bidding for

Early Checkup Of All Home-Canning Equipment Provides Added Bonus Of Convenience, Safety

This is the second of a series of weekly articles discussing home-canning and providing helpful advice in this field.

By JANE PAYNE
Westchester Lighting Company

Home canning always pays dividends, but an early checkup of equipment brings an added bonus of convenience and safety, and put you in a position to cash in on the "cream of the crop."

1. The new "time tables" for processing Time for most low-acid vegetables has been shortened, giving firmer products and better flavor. You can get a chart, free, from the Westchester County Home Bureau (address given below). These times are for vegetables to be processed in a pressure canner. If a pressure canner is used, 20 minutes must be added. Cans of contents must be tight enough to hold pint jars on a rack, with cover locked in place, and should be gauged that allows pressure to be controlled at 10 pounds. All low-acid vegetables should be processed under pressure.

2. Pressure canner (or saucpan). If the gasket leaks steam, replace it; otherwise you cannot build up the required pressure. Be sure vent pipes and petcocks are not rusted or clogged. Canners with clock-type gauges should be checked against a master gauge. This service is offered, without charge, by the Westchester County Home Bureau at Room 400 of the County Building in White Plains. Miss Helen Easter, the director, asks that you bring clean, covered vessel will do, if it has a rack to keep jars from touching bottom; and it is deep enough to have two inches of water above the jars, with a little extra space for boiling. A deep pressure canner can be used for a hot water bath. Set (do not lock) the cover in place and leave the petcock wide open.

3. Hot water bath. Establish this equipment, which permits you to process fruits and tomatoes the ideal way. Any large, clean, covered vessel will do, if it has a rack to keep jars from touching bottom; and it is deep enough to have two inches of water above the jars, with a little extra space for boiling. A deep pressure canner can be used for a hot water bath. Set (do not lock) the cover in place and leave the petcock wide open.

4. Miscellaneous small equipment. Be sure knives are sharp. Strainers unrusted that jar tops are not wobbly, and that you have Canton flannel or unbleached muslin for a jelly bag.

5. Jar, rubber rings and closures. Throw out all rings and metal vacuum lids which have been cracked or nicked edges. If there has been spoiling, boil jars for 15 minutes in a solution of one-half cup of washing soda to one gallon of water. Do not use an aluminum kettle.

Essentially there are two types of jars: Mason and Ball type. Ball or clamp jars require standard rubber rings. Before canning, check clamps and tighten if needed.

Three kinds of closures are made for Mason jars: (a) Metal vacuum lid with dowel-on sealing compound and separate screw band; (b) zinc porcelain screw cap, used with a rubber ring; and (c) glass top, small rubber ring and wide screw bands. Screw bands for closures one and three are not interchangeable.

Today, the metal lid is the most popular Mason jar closure. If you have experienced any sealing troubles with it, try those of the same manufacturer as your jars.

'CROSS' AFFECTS ONLY NEW SEED

Different varieties of vegetables, grown together in the same garden, often "cross," that is pollen from one variety is carried by bees to the flowers of another.

The bees that visit the leaves, roots or fruit of the parent plant but only the seed, so gardeners are quite unconscious of the mixture, unless they save the seed and sow it; then instead of having a pure strain, of one variety, they will have a mixture of types.

But when they try to grow melons, and harvest one which is not as sweet as it should be, they look about for squash or cucumbers growing near, and often assert that the lack of flavor in the melon is due to the proximity of the other vines.

The idea that squash and cucumbers can be crossed with melons so deeply rooted that it is difficult to combat, and in some community gardens a ban is placed on the vine crops except melons being grown.

If such a cross could be made it would not affect this year's melons, except in the seed. But it can occur. Two varieties of melons will cross, without effect on either except for their seed; the same is true of two varieties of squash, or of cucumbers; and squash will cross with pumpkins all without effect on the current crop. The seed, however, should not be saved.

Breeders have repeatedly tried to hybridize (cross) melons with squash and cucumbers, but they never succeeded. This is something that can only be determined by experience. In the case of varieties closely related, as there seems to be no uniform rule.

Squash and pumpkins belong to different species, but will cross; but the seed which results either refuses to grow, or if it does grow produces a seedless fruit of no value.

Poor flavor of ripe melons is usually due to lack of sunshine. They must be fully ripe when picked as the flavor never improves after that.

Experiments Disclose Soils Need for Air

The need for air in soil has been emphasized by experiments with so-called nutrient solutions, in which plants are grown without soil. Except in California, some device by which air can be supplied to the roots has been found necessary for healthy root growth. A loose soil, composed of coarse particles, allows air to penetrate.

GAMBLE AND GWINN JOIN IN FOUR VOTES

WASHINGTON—The two Westchester Congressmen voted together to override President Truman's veto twice last week and joined on two other occasions to vote affirmatively on new legislation.

On two other votes taken, Ralph Gamble tent his affirmative voice on the issues for a total of six "yes" votes during the week. Congressman Ralph Gwinn, however, did not vote on two issues electing to become one of a general pair—an affirmative and negative cancelling each other votes.

The two Westchester representatives voted together for successful overriding of vetoes on the Labor-Federal Security Appropriation Bill, and the Reed-Bulwinkle Bill. They also voted in favor of the Draft Bill and the Housing Act of 1948, both bills being approved.

Gamble voted alone on overriding the veto of the bill increasing benefits to needy and cash his

DEWEY VERSUS PRECEDENT

TO MANY who are precedent-minded, it appears of great importance that the Republican Party has never selected as a Presidential candidate a man who was chosen once before and defeated. Even where there were close races, a second chance to the near-victor was denied by the party.

In recent years we may recall that William Howard Taft, after his 1912 defeat, was not given consideration for the nomination in 1916. The nominee of that year, Charles Evans Hughes, failed to gain even serious support for another chance in 1920. Herbert Hoover, after his 1928 race for another term, was wholly omitted from the running at the 1936 convention, and was wholly befall his immediate successors in the fight against E.D.R.'s political supremacy. Al Landon and Wendell Wilkie, never had a GOP convention after a defeated candidate a second shot at the Presidency.

Now it remains for Philadelphia to determine whether the precedent still continues against Thomas E. Dewey.

By comparison, the Democrats have not hesitated to put upon the track candidates with previous racing experience. For example although President Grover Cleveland lost heavily to Benjamin Harrison in 1888, he was renominated in 1892 and won. And oldtimers will remember the two successive victories of William Jennings Bryan in 1896, 1900 and 1908.

After all, what are precedents? Until E.D.R. has no President had ever openly sought or been elected to a third or a fourth term. Accordingly, it is not so difficult to ask why the principle of precedent-breaking should be limited to the Democratic Party.

It might, in fact, be a good thing for the Republicans to begin breaking a few themselves.

COOPERATION REQUESTED

THE NEW YORK State Department of Public Works has announced that on Thursday a comprehensive survey of traffic on three Westchester Parkways, the Saw Mill, Hutchinson and DeWitt, will be conducted. The purpose is to obtain actual knowledge of the volume of traffic, point of view of motorists and its ultimate destination, parking and vehicle data, and the route he has taken.

To obtain such intimate information, it is necessary to halt motorists. But to save their time, they will not then be questioned. Instead, they will be given two cards. One card explains the purpose of the survey, with instructions, and is to be displayed, after reading, to the windshield so that the driver will not be stopped a second time. The other card, self-addressed and stamped, is to be filled out by the driver and mailed at his early convenience.

With expectations that nearly 60,000 motorists will participate in this survey, it can be seen how necessary it is that the public cooperate.

It is upon the basis of such information that traffic relief in Westchester hinges. For our own interests, then, we should cooperate heartily.

A Glance Backward

A DECADE AGO (From The Daily Times)
The Rev. Theodore O. Poeschl, Jr. and Raymond J. Whitney were elected president and vice-president of the American Legion Club and the Rev. Robert M. Russell was named to lead the Larchmont University Club. It was a good year for the clergy. To John T. Fitzgerald went the honor of being the first entrant in the first local Soap Box Derby. The American Legion Community Band of Mamaroneck gave the first in its series of Harbor Island concerts. W. S. Huxley was chairman of the group. Walter M. Franklin, chief of the Larchmont Civic Association, acquired a lot from the School Board to attend a special session to discuss providing pairs on the heating system of the old Central School. Larchmont's Young Men's Republican Club was making plans for its annual boat ride. The D. M. V. Kilmire was the lucky ship. Ed and Nancy Edwards entertained at a supper dance at their home and Mrs. Wesley M. Messersmith did likewise at a dessert bridge. Lucy Greenbaum had returned from Bennington College, following her graduation. Mr. and Mrs. Christina A. Hansen sailed for Bermuda to watch the finish of the Bermuda races. Helen McCall was graduated from the Oberlin Conservatory of Music and Helen O'Connell received her degree from New York State Teachers College, increasing its membership to 234 after a recent drive. Larchmont Post 347 of the American Legion stood third in the county. P. Colwell Conklin, popular podium performer, was appointed visiting lecturer in music education at the Penn sum-

GET FOGGY FROM LUPINE

MOSCOW, (AP)—From White Russia is reported that lupine, which formerly was raised only as fodder for cattle and as a natural fertilizer, is being used as a raw material for industry. Two Belorussian scientists have discovered a means of removing harmful alkaloids from the lupine crop and it thus can be used as a raw material for food products and medicines. Another scientist has discovered how to separate protein from lupine seed and obtains a product not inferior to protein of animal derivation. From lupine, scientists "invent" there can be made high quality wool and cheap artificial wool, plastics and plywood etc.

The Counselor

CAMP LIST DELAYED

Question: Not long ago you had an answer in your column, giving addresses for someone who asked about camps. I wrote for the list of camps but have not received it.

Answer: You might write again enclosing this Counselor column with this item marked. The State Commerce Department issued the Children's Camp Directory, listing 535 sponsored and private camps, and it may be there is such a demand for the directory, the Commerce Department can't get them mailed out to inquiring parents fast enough. As long ago as April, the Commerce Department sent out this request for publication: "Copies of the directory may be obtained without charge by writing to the New York State Department of Commerce, 112 State Street, Albany 7, N. Y."

The list includes "only those camps which meet the high health standards established by the state." It was reported, Information received from the State includes its name, location, director, whether camp is for boys or girls, whether it is tent or building, capacity of camp, rates, season and name of sponsoring organization, etc.

VEIN ANSWER-MEN

From Guthrie Shaw, county director of the Veterans' Service Agency, White Plains, in the County Office Building at White Plains, comes the following comment, accompanied by the name and address of the county deputy local directors of Veterans' Affairs in Westchester County communities. Write Mr. Shaw:

"While the reply to 'Bona fide' is checked, given in your Counselor column is quite correct and helpful. It would be advisable to inform the Veterans' Service Agency if they can obtain the same assistance in any one of our county local director offices of the Westchester County Veterans' Service Agency."

For the guidance of your office, I wish to say that the Westchester County Veterans' Service Agency is responsible for all Veterans' assistance to veterans in the Westchester County. The Veterans' Service Agency is the office of those located in the city of Yonkers, Mount Vernon and other cities in the county. They have their own Veterans' Agencies.

There are no offices of the New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs in the county as such, but the counselors are detailed to work through and with the county offices. Regular personnel calls are made by the New York State counselors on each of the deputy local directors, and contact with the counselors always can be made through the offices of the county local directors of the Westchester County Veterans' Service Agency.

We wish to state that, of the whole, we have found very few cases of delay in bonus payments. However, a matter of this nature, there are bound to be some. We will do our best to use our best efforts to clear this up, whenever you find such a case exist.

White Cross Firm Fails to Obtain Injunction

WHITE PLAINS—Holding that the plaintiff had not established a prima facie case, the court today refused to grant an injunction against the defendant, White Cross Firm, in its suit to stop the defendant from selling its product, "White Cross" toothpaste, in the city of White Plains.

The American White Cross Laboratories, Inc., of New Rochelle, N. Y., brought the suit against the defendant, White Cross Firm, of New Rochelle, N. Y., for selling its product, "White Cross" toothpaste, in the city of White Plains. The defendant, White Cross Firm, is a partnership of the defendant, White Cross Firm, and the defendant, White Cross Firm.

Justice Bailey held the proof submitted was not sufficient to convince him of an intention to deceive, nor that the trademark adopted by the defendant is so similar as to deceive or mislead the public into believing the marked product was that of the plaintiff.

Westchester's Baby Boom Jamming Schools, New School Construction Looms As 'Must'

By MAUREN MCKERNAN
SHEET Correspondent

WHITE PLAINS—Back in the frugal '20's, the aided dome of the Mamaroneck Town High School was a symbol that defeated a bond issue to build a new addition to old Central School on the Post Road.

As in Mamaroneck, all over Westchester voters cited glibbed school buildings erected during the booming '20's, grounded over bond payments, and despite the fact that Federal aid was available voted down new school issues.

Westchester's increasing population and increasing birthrate promise at least a 25 per cent increase in the number of grade school children by 1952.

Today's kindergartners forecast school populations of the future. The baby boom in Westchester since 1920 has filled Westchester school rooms to capacity. There is barely room for this year's new class of kindergartners, born in 1943.

Parents of Tomorrow

Those who like to look ahead and face problems before they become a crisis will find in today's kindergarten story in our cities portents of tomorrow's school taxes and building programs.

Take White Plains. By careful shifting of class rooms, now being planned, all next Fall's kindergartners will be nicely accommodated. But look at the kindergarten enrollment. Next Fall there'll be about 615 kindergartners. Last year there were 558, the Fall before 418.

Outgoing, almost at capacity, will welcome 250 newcomers, taking the space vacated by the 211 who pass on to the first grade.

Mamaroneck had 255 kindergartners last year, expects 370 this year. Next year's enrollment will be even larger. There's room this year and next, but not for the crop to be expected in 1950.

Already Mount Vernon knows that by 1952 there must be a new comprehensive high school for the city so that present junior high schools and the A. D. Davis High School can be converted to grade school use for the booming classes of the lower grades. Nichols Junior High School must become an elementary school to accommodate a neighborhood of expanding population. Two more kindergarten teachers have been hired for the enrollment for the beginners because last September's enrollment of 843 has already been passed by an enrollment of 900 for next Fall.

Hold Line This Year
The Tarrytowns, anticipating the consolidation of schools which was rejected in 1939, are holding the line and finding room for today's children, but this year's kindergartners will number 187 children as compared with last year's 153.

Port Chester's schools are complicated by the area's population shifts which make the future unpredictable. A new housing project may upset all present calculations. Many war industry workers moved away. Port Chester officials take the future development of parochial and private schools as a benefit upon which the taxpayer may rely for some relief from some of the problems hinted by such typical enrollments as that of the Park Avenue School, which housed 432 last year and has enrolled 487 for this year. Edison School had 392 students last year, 451 enrolled for the Fall. The 1947 crop of kindergartners numbered 442. By 1953 there will be 600.

New Rochelle Program

New Rochelle has anticipated the future and has embarked on a building program and plan to care for an expected 50 per cent increase in grade school population by 1952. Last year New Rochelle had 621 kindergartners in the nine schools. Today's enrollment indicates many more than 700 kindergartners next Fall. A survey now under way will lead to modernization of old schools to provide more classrooms, a new building to replace old Trinity School, a new school for the West area where a building boom is in progress.

Yonkers had headaches predicted on the erection of many new homes in outlying areas such as Nepera Park, where new buildings must be erected, and the decline of school populations in the old areas of the city now becoming industrialized. Some old buildings will have plenty of room while in other newer areas there's hardly standing room. Last year there were 1,700 kindergartners in Yonkers' schools. This number will be increased by about 200 this year.

Scarsdale, where an "extravagant" school house was erected in the low-cost building days now has comfortable accommodation for its children, although last year's 148 kindergartners enrollment will climb to 163 for the next term. About 200 are anticipated for 1949.

Peekskill is so hard pressed that a new building is planned for completion by Nov. 1, building costs regarding. Two buildings will be built to capacity in the Fall, three others can take a little crowding—then there's no more space at all. Based on the birth rate Peekskill expects about 400 kindergartners in 1952. The 1947 class numbered 179, this year 210 are expected.

The same story can be told in every village in the county.

GREECE—LAND OF STRIFE

REBEL strongholds in mountains make fighting difficult. Here a Greek officer signals for artillery fire against the leftists.

By LOUIS MESSOLONGHITES

RED CHIEF MARKOS

FIGHTING despotism is nothing new to the Greeks. After a century's respite from battling her age-old enemy, the Turks, Greece, the cradle of democracy, finds herself threatened by a new tyrant—Communism. This time the enemy comes from both outside and within. Soviet Russia and her Balkan satellites, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria, are actively aiding the Greek rebels in their war against the legal Athens government. These war pictures are from the documentary March of Time film, "Battle for Greece." That the leftist guerrillas, led by Markos Vamvakis, are losing in this bitter fight is largely due to the assistance the United States is giving to Greece: food, equipment and on-the-spot military advisers. Moscow, in its struggle for world domination, regards Greece of the utmost importance because of its strategic relationship to the Suez canal, the Dardanelles, and the Arabian oil wells, which are principally owned or leased by western companies. As in any war, the people are the worst victims, and the Greek rebels have spared their countrymen no more than did the Nazis. The Greek people, ravaged worse than those of any European nation except Poland, are suffering from starvation and disease. In sections controlled by the Reds, many are being driven from their homes and compelled to fight for the Communists.

These Greek refugees have a rendezvous with misery. More than 500,000 have been driven into cities from battle zones. Many have known terror since Nazi invasion in '41

GUERRILLA SCOUT reconnoiters village before attack. Greece's civil war has not faced battle lines and covers many areas.

PILLAGING and looting are synonymous with guerrilla warfare. Chasing the rebels on foot is so arduous that troops cannot guard every hamlet—with such tragic results as this house burned by Reds.

LOYAL Greek soldiers entering village. Their superior mechanized equipment proves useless in enemy's mountainous terrain.

MILITARY court trying a captured guerrilla (facing bench) for treason. Many prisoners are victims of circumstance. They have testified that the rebels forced them into service by threats to them and their families.

GREEK refugee children face a world of confusion and fear. These homeless youngsters, now dependent on the government for everything they need, are being housed after their rescue from onslaughts by leftists.

Captain
If you want Junior to grow up to be captain of a Bellows League team, four Panthers were elected by their teammates to lead East End aggregations during the season just completed. Junior suffered injuries to his legs, ankle, arm, or foot.

Dick Lawrence, for instance, was elected captain of the Bellows League team right after the first game. It apparently affected the team, for he failed to register a single victory during the campaign.

Red Talley was the next victim. He was named captain of the basketball team as the same time the quintet won the Little Three championship. The only item remaining on the court agenda was the state public school tournament but a sprained ankle eliminated Talley from the first two games and helped eliminate the Panthers from the tournament.

He was able to play in the semi-finals but he wasn't able to move around the floor with his usual speed. After three victories and O'Connell-Harmon put the East Enders out of further tournament play with a 30-10 win.

If you're still looking for examples, Ed Fellin's arm felt the jolt on the basketball diamond. His arm wouldn't respond and he did not register one victory during the Bellows League pitcher in the 1947 season. His track counterpart, Dan Brown, made the same mistake. He just couldn't get his right leg to jump early in the year and finished with only 20 points to his credit.

Sportsmen Stop Barons, 5-3; Cop First Half Championship

To absolutely nobody's surprise, the Sportsmen won the first half championship in the Larchmont-Cop City League. The end came last night when the League leaders stopped the Barons, 5 to 3.

The Sportsmen weren't taking any chances; they made sure Ed Reilly was on hand; they prepared to get Reilly three quick runs in the first inning; and they stood around and watched while Reilly was hit again and issued only two walks.

Air Scout Finale

Colored movies of activities at the Stewart Field encampment featured the Father-Son night of the Larchmont Air Scouts at a dinner at the Larchmont Junior High School. It was the final meeting for the 1947-48 season.

Also on the program were demonstrations of radio, slide projecting and receiving and the new electronic automatic key by Dean Noid and Ray Shapiro, six powered model planes by David Watt and George Warden and contact flying and instrument (blind) flying by John Springthorpe, Robert Savage and George Watt. Vice Dick Land, meteorology student, explained "Why I Know the Louis-Walcott Fish Wouldn't Be Touched!"

The fathers were welcomed at John Springthorpe. The color guard consisted of Ace Bissell, Land, Ace Bill Fitzgerald and Bob Savage.

Visitors included fathers of the Air Scouts, Jerry Gabbly, former meteorology instructor for the Air Scouts; Joseph Reis and Don Reis, Tarrytown Air Scout leaders; T. J. Feinblat, vice chairman of the Larchmont Air Scouts; Dr. Harold Friedman, commander of Troop 21, New Rochelle; Ned Cole, former Navy flyer, and Hugh Owens, representing the Rotary Club of Larchmont, Air Scout squadron sponsor.

Big Rush

Several Mamaroneck and Larchmont youths are among the more than 100 who have applied for the Naval Academy. DeWee will see the passage of the bill. New Rochelle Naval Militia Army authorities said yesterday they would not release any names.

"We've taken all we can, which is not a handful," a member of the recruiting staff said. "The quota has already been reached. Almost all of the applicants have been put on an inactive status pending further orders from the government."

Officers of the 42nd Fleet Marine Wing, Air National Guard, at the White Plains Army also reported that several Mamaroneck and Larchmont boys have filed applications. The army has already swapped with applications, but authorities are undecided as to just how many boys they can take.

Boat Inspection

Yachtmen are reminded that the courtesy inspection of motor boats will continue Saturday and Sunday at the Marine Club from 10 A. M. to noon and from 3 to 5 P. M.

Inspectors will also be at the American Yacht Club in Rye to inspect boats of members of that club. Other clubs wishing the service should communicate with W. W. Simms at Larchmont, commander of Fleet 603, U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary.

More than 50 boats were inspected in the harbor last week-end. Although most of them were passed and issued a certificate, several defects were found, such as defective fire extinguishers, lack of flame arresters and improper ventilation. In all cases, these hazards were unknown to the boat owners. When corrected, certificates will be issued.

Damp But Happy

Fifty-one damp but happy members of the Mamaroneck Chamber of Commerce landed at the Village dock in the West Basin at 6 P. M. yesterday after a five-hour cruise on Long Island Sound on the life II that began at 1 P. M. in spite of the storm.

More than 17 of those who made reservations well in advance were on hand.

The original plan to spend the afternoon at Loyd's Sand Hole was abandoned. Instead, the boat headed west on the Sound and cruised past Ft. Slooan, City Island, and stopped off at LeFrancis Island Airport. Refreshments were served during the afternoon. Fred Rubin was chairman of the event.

Smirk to Be Honored

A past commander's dinner honoring Julius S. Smith who served four terms, will be held by David Feltz, Jr., Post 1136, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Saturday at 7:30 P. M. in the Post Road clubhouse.

A caterer has been engaged to serve a turkey dinner with all the trimmings.

Ex-Commander Nicholas Leon heads the dinner committee, assisted by ex-Commander Walter Needham. Co-moderator is Jack Strickland and Adjutant George Smalls.

Ends Navy Career

Seaman 1st Class Robert P. Joyce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Joyce of 1460 W. 34th St., Lane, Mamaroneck, received his discharge from the U. S. Navy last week in San Diego, Calif., and is back home.

He recently completed a trip around the world aboard the U. S. S. Valley Forge, an aircraft carrier. He was an all-around athlete at Bellevue High School before joining the Navy.

Raining Horseshoes

It rained horseshoes, too, last night when 40 members of the Mamaroneck and Larchmont Chas held an inter-club boathouse dinner at Dabrowski Park between the rain drops and pitching winds.

Al Reich, assisted by Lou DeWick and Steve Alolik, cooked the steaks.

DeWee Polls 434 Votes On First Ballot

U. S. BOARD ASKS SOFT COAL PACT DATA TOMORROW

Deadline For Negotiations Report Set by Unit Named by Truman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Soft coal operators, except for steel company mine interests, were reported today to sign a new contract with John L. Lewis giving miners a 31 a day wage, with cost-of-living and pension fund royalty levies. Such a wage increase would be 12 1/2 cents an hour. Miners now receive a basic pay of $13.05 cents for an eight-hour day or $1.04 an hour. The new rate would provide $14.85 for eight hours at an hourly rate of $1.86.

The welfare fund, from which proceeds are paid to the U. S. P. M., the board asked both sides to accumulate now through a 10-cent-a-day royalty levy which is based on coal tonnage. During the last year this has raised $43 million.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The first roll call in the balloting for the Republican presidential nomination was instantaneous. The unofficial count shows DeWee with 434 votes. The majority necessary for nomination is 545.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Senator Joseph R. McCarty of Wisconsin, a Stassen supporter, said yesterday "there is no chance of a Taft-Stassen deal to beat DeWee after conferring with Mr. McCarty said the coalition forces out to stop DeWee will try to get a repeat after the second ballot, with the voting to be resumed this evening."

JACK BELL, PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey edged close to the Republican Presidential nomination by boosting from Massachusetts and West Virginia today as the GOP convention neared the climactic hour of balloting.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Sen. Robert F. Wagner and Council Director René Zaccaro headed the list in Camp Director Mort Hyman of Brooklyn, who will be absenting his second year as Camp Director when the Summer session opens Sunday. July 4 Council Field Executive René Zaccaro of Port Chester, will head the administration of the camp, as well as campy jobs he held at Camp DeWee last year. Ray Becker, formerly of New Rochelle, the reservation's year-round ranger, will head the maintenance group, and as the senior assistant, and in the summer assistant whose name is still to be released.

In the kitchen, the camp has the services of Frank Newsome, a chef who has had many years of successful service with the Tenmile River camps of the Greater New York Scout Council. Robert Lepin, of Rockville Center, L. I., will be the chef's assistant. Working with these two men are the elder and assistant Lewis Zaccaro of Port Chester, who will also run the camp's kitchen and cut and publish the first volume in recent years of the Camp Sweeney newspaper, "The Lariat." Assisting in this latter venture will be the members of the New Rochelle Press Club and volunteers from among both camps and staff. The Sweeney canteen, which carries clothing and equipment, as well as candy, soda and ice cream, is open to the campers twice a day, and is open Saturday and Sundays for almost the entire day.

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Israel's Zvi Leumi surveyed heavy losses of manpower today in an ill-fated attempt at sun-running and vowed to rise against the Israeli Government.

The crisis over the Trign army ship Alakem led to the resignation of two cabinet Ministers yesterday even while government forces made a series of arrests.

Peter H. Bergson of New York, head of the Hebrew Committee of National Liberation, and twenty-five-year-old Monroe Fin of Chicago, captain of the army ship, were reported by Jewish sources to have been arrested. The government declined comment.

Israeli shock troops were reported to have captured 50 Jews, believed to be among Ironists, in a series of raids on Revisionist Party headquarters and the suburban plant of the Ironist Government.

Jewish sources said Bergson was taken in custody near Kir Vitkin. Kir Vitkin is five miles north of the port of Netanya, where the army ship first tried to land for Jews. Bergson is not known here.

Ironist announced that Abraham Lavsky, a New York travel bureau agent, who helped arrange the ship's departure, was arrested of those wounded by the ship's crew. Lavsky was held in the nightingale, the ship's crew.

Samuel Merin, secretary of the American League for a Free Palestine, is general chairman, while the Rev. Thomas B. Kelly will serve as honorary chairman.

The Lewis-operator talks looked extremely promising, but it was still possible they might flop, requiring the inquiry board to report a new statement.

In that event, it was learned, the Justice Department is all set for the President's signal to seek another Taft-Hartley Act injunction against a Summer mine shutdown.

The department may ask for a court ban against either a lockout by the operators or a strike by Lewis' 400,000 United Mine Workers.

Board Chairman David L. Cole said both sides agreed to try for an extension of the present contract to permit further negotiations if it becomes impossible to work a complete new agreement to time.

RUSSIA, SATELLITES DRAFT REICH PLAN

DRAFT BILL REACHES TRUMAN FOR ACTION

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Foreign Ministers of Russia and seven satellite countries were reliably reported today to be putting the draft bill before the Soviet government in a separate government in Berlin.

One confidential source said that would be their most likely answer to the Western Allies' proposed federalization of Western Germany. This source added, however, that Soviet Foreign Minister Y. M. Molotov and his colleagues probably would go one step further than the Western Powers.

If a separate government is set up, he said, it will, in the opinion of Russia and her neighbors, would be a government aimed at German unity. Leipzig has been mentioned as a government center.

SULLIVAN DEFENSE ARGUES FOR RELEASE

YONKERS—Former Vice Mayor James A. Sullivan remained in County Jail today after being refused an immediate release while his lawyer battled to upset a forger conviction that carried a one-year term and a $1,000 fine. Supreme Court Justice Frederick J. Schmidt, sitting at City Hall, quickly rejected a request by Paul L. Bleakley, Sullivan's attorney, for a certificate of reasonable doubt which the present case is pending.

District Attorney George A. Panelli vigorously opposed the granting of the certificate by Judge Schmidt after Bleakley pointed out that Sullivan was entitled to his liberty because of a variety of developments that occurred during the trial.

The argument lasted over two hours and during the trial, the judge had to be reminded by Panelli of the facts and memoranda from both sides before making a decision.

U. S. Navy Fund Bill Approved by Truman

WASHINGTON—President Truman today signed the Navy Measure, which expands the fund bill carrying $3,748,059,250 to $4,000,000,000 for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The measure includes the Navy's plan to start construction of a 65,000-ton aircraft carrier that will cost an estimated $127 million. It will be the largest of its kind after the USS Iowa, which was launched in 1908.

The Navy had asked $3,927,737,700 for the year.

BY JOSEPH W. SHANNON

It is expected the case will be heard by the jury early this afternoon, and that Judge Elbert T. Callahan will instruct them they may return any one of five possible verdicts, guilty of murder in either the first or second degree, or of manslaughter in either first degree, or acquittal.

Our Democracy Falls Short In Many Ways, Residents Say

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the 33rd in a Saturday series of interviews with citizens. Suggested topics from readers are invited. Today's question is: "How is our democracy not a true democracy, and what can be done about it?"

Henry B. Zieger, 6 Hawthorne Road, Larchmont, chairman of the Town of Maramoneck Democratic Committee: "We are not a true democracy in my opinion, because we do not yet give young people equal educational and economic opportunities according to their abilities and interest of their economic and racial origin. When we correct that fault, we will have made a long step toward strengthening our democracy."

Mrs. Clayton Rawson, 219 Barter Avenue, Maramoneck: "Our democracy is not a democracy when we practice discrimination against any fellow citizen. What is the matter? The doctor says it all—'Watch the children. They have no false feelings of superiority. Let us learn from them'."

Mrs. Harry Richardson, 717 Hampton Drive, Larchmont, membership chairman, League of Women Voters: "Any evidence of discrimination I believe is contrary to the principles of democracy. There is no nation can consider itself a democracy unless it is practicing or condoning the existence of such an unfair restriction on the citizens' rights. We have many improvements to make in our own system of government before we can be held up to other countries as an example of true democracy."

Frank O'Donnell, 748 Forest Avenue, Larchmont, a national committee member: "I am a State Youth Democrat and former chairman of the N.A.A.C.P. In theory, our democracy is a dual concept. It is a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. It is the people who elect their representatives. It is the people who elect their representatives. It is the people who elect their representatives."

ner in which news has been distributed down through history from the printing press to the instantaneous radio transmission of news today. He stated that the "only cooperative press association in the country" dedicated through its 147 member newspapers to "the high purpose of our best newspapers" is the Associated Press.

ed out as a direct result of the invention of the telegraph since the transmission grew so keen for the use of the new wire service for transmitting news that a conference was called with six leading editors who organized the first gathering and distribution for the good of all the people.

The speaker stressed the fact that A. P. news is presented with an active method of news gathering and distribution for the good of all the people.

It is believed that the power to shape opinion developed by a controlled press has been one of the causes of war of the past 100 years," he continued. "It was one of the mistakes of the Versailles Treaty that it failed to establish a free press for foreign news to come freely into the conquered countries."

In conclusion, he defined the Associated Press as "new equality available at its source to all who seek it" and urged that when a lasting peace is realized, the peoples of the world be guaranteed "one of the most vital principles of democracy: the right to know the truth."

A balanced high school education will provide work, play, companionship and spiritual values. Miss Goyne, vice president of the G. O. declared in her address entitled, "The Evidence of Things Not Seen," that it is necessary for mental health, she pointed out. Academic subjects contribute most toward the development of work habits, she stated, with play and companionship being provided by recreational activities. Through athletic activities, the teamwork for the good of all learning to take victories and defeats in their stride.

"Minds molded in high school will eventually run the country in government and business," Miss Goyne said but added, "it is necessary to balance these material aims through cultural and spiritual leadership. There must be some teaching of humanity to insure mental health."

She mentioned justice equality by impartially understanding and love for all mankind as qualities which should be instilled in school "for it is here that prejudices are made or broken, tolerance encouraged or discouraged."

Heading for a greater understanding among the nations and peace as a foundation for international harmony, she concluded.

Horrors! Never Drink Coffee From the Saucer

By EMILY POET

It is incredible that the following letter just sent me could have been meant seriously: "I have been told that you have written your approval of drinking coffee from a saucer. Could this be true?"

It is as completely untrue as it would be to claim that I consider it is good manners to chew food with your mouth open, talk with your mouth full, eat your soup noisily or take messy food in your fingers.

Question: My husband's sister recently had a baby girl. We went to see her in the hospital and at that time no name had been chosen for the baby. As I, too, am expecting a child, I mentioned that whether it was a boy or girl, we were naming it for my husband, whose name lends itself to either sex. A few weeks later we heard that she had named her little girl for my husband. What is your opinion of this? And what do you think about our still using the same name? If this is done, would it be correct?

Answer: Unless—which is not likely—she has married a man of her own surname, it could not matter. And if you have a boy named for his father, he will be "junior," of course. If you have a girl, this name given her would interfere naturally with naming a younger brother "junior."

Question: How is it best to word a printed invitation to a party for my daughter? I had promised her a party at the time she graduated but I was ill. Even

STUDEBAKER RESIGNS U. S. EDUCATION POST

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Dr. J. W. Studebaker resigned today as U. S. Commissioner of Education, saying "I can no longer afford to remain in the Federal Government."

President Truman accepted the resignation, effective July 15. In his letter to Mr. Truman, Dr. Studebaker said he has continued as commissioner for 14 years "through the darkest years of economic depression, the period of defense preparations and the strenuous years of war, and three very difficult years of post-war readjustment."

"Along with too many other men, the time has now come when I can no longer afford to remain in the Federal Government," he said.

Mr. Truman in reply expressed regret and told Studebaker: "I can fully understand the situation."

Lutheran Synod Meets At Concordia Institute

BRONXVILLE—The 28th convention of the Atlantic District Lutheran Synod of the Concordia College Institute at Bronxville is being held today at Concordia College Institute at Bronxville.

There are 200 churches represented by pastors and lay delegates from Maine to New Jersey attending the meeting.

The Studebaker new look in a convertible!

Dreamlined new blue blood of all the sports cars!

IT HAS the eager look of "going somewhere" — even when you see it standing still.

It rides with dreamlike new comfort — there's plenty of soft-sprung, road-hugging weight beneath you every mile.

The far-advanced new Studebakers come in Clampon and Commander coupe and sedan, too — and there's a fabulously fine, special extra-long-wheelbase Land Cruiser.

HAROLD'S ESSO SERVICE

HE'S NOT ON OUR PAYROLL... but we couldn't do business without him!

When you take your car to an Esso Dealer Station for gas or oil — you're not really "doing business" with Esso Standard Oil Company, even though we make the fine products you get.

Instead, these 25,000 Esso Dealers from Maine to Louisiana, are local, independent business men. You deal with the owners themselves — men who have invested their money and their initiative in building their own futures on serving you.

From many competing brands of gasoline and oil, these local business men have chosen

Esso products. Year after year, they have seen first-hand evidence of the satisfaction to the buyer that Esso quality stands for.

As of today, these able business men have, on the average, handled Esso products for 12 years each. Many have bought from us for 35 and 40 years.

Obviously, we couldn't do business without these men. And naturally we're proud of them — just as proud of them in their way as we are of the 28,000 workers who are on our company payroll.

Both groups — our own employees and these "partners" in their independent businesses — express this company's basic belief that individual enterprise, given its fair chance to earn fair rewards — is the best way and the American way to make progress with and for all the people of this country.
