WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Truman's indication that the need for aid to Western Europe won't end with the Marshall plan in 1952 spurred bipartisan criticism in Congress today. SINCE here in Westchester discrimination and prejudice do not exist to the degree they do in other parts of America, there is naturally not such keen local interest in recent rulings of the United States Supreme Court...

CONFUSED PRIMARIES

THERE were two candidates for reelection to the United States Senate this past Spring whose records in voting were almost synonymous. They are Claude Pepper, Florida Democrat, and Wayne Morse, Oregon Republican.

Of the latter, Westchester's Congressman Ralph Gwinn recently wrote in a letter to constituents: "This candidate for reelection at home makes speeches for Americans."

Yet in the primaries, Pepper was defeated while Morse was renominated. In both cases a substantial vote was cast because of strong primary election opposition.

Why was one defeated and the other renominated? The answer, we feel, can be only that there is confusion in peoples' minds.

A PLEA FOR THE PITCHER

WE HAVE in recent weeks pointed with pity to the plight of the pitchers in what is sometimes euphemistically called our national pastime.

We now repeat that prayer. Consider, for example, the events of last Thursday. With two outs in the sixth inning the Yankees scored seven runs against Detroit.

This in our humble opinion, is not baseball. When any team in the case of the Red Sox on Thursday, gets 28 hits and 29 runs, with one player hitting three homers...

Truman-Acheson Variances

On Cold War Are 'Simple'

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON— "Why do President Truman and Secretary Acheson take such widely divergent views on the important question of possible war or peace with Russia?" asks a reader.

On a Monday, for instance, Mr. Truman warns that war is imminent, in a public statement or in a message to Congress. A few days later, Mr. Acheson informs us that the prospects of peace are excellent.

When the President and the Secretary of War are in such a state of mind, it is not surprising that they are in such a state of mind.

2 Senators See Blunt Talk Aimed at Minimizing McCarthy Charges

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Truman's assertion that Russia is preparing for war stepped up Congressional efforts today to get this nation's defenses ready for any crisis.

At the same time, however, two Republican Senators suggested that Mr. Truman's blunt talk about preparing for war might be aimed in part at minimizing public attention to the Communists — in government charges of Senator McCarthy, R. Wis. and others.

GOP Senators Wherry of Nebraska and Brewster of Maine said they don't disagree with the President's Saturday statement in St. Louis that the Soviets have preached peace — but devoted their energies to fomenting aggression and preparing for war.

But Wherry, the Senate Republican leader, noted that the President's blunt talk about preparing for war is just as important to clean out the Communists in our government as it is to stop their expansion abroad," Wherry declared.

Brewster said it seems to him Mr. Truman has been reacting to Communist threats in the foreign field almost to the exclusion of any similar dangers at home.

"It may be a campaign to take the people's mind off of the McCarthy charge of similar affairs," Brewster said. He is chairman of the CIA's senatorial campaign committee.

The Senate Foreign Relations and Government Operations committees are to work this week on redrafting an administration bill which would limit the President's authority to supply arms to any nation whose defense Mr. Truman deems vital to that of the United States.

Family Car Seen Outmoding Retail District But Shopping Center Foes Dispute Claim

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles developed by staff writers concerning the proposed establishment in Mount Pleasant near Thornwood of a large regional shopping center and its possible effect upon the existing economy of Westchester and its municipalities.)

It is this newest of the new shopping centers, the huge, white, modern regional center, that is now proposed on a large tract opposite Thornwood railroad station. If the Town of Mount Pleasant grants a pending petition for rezoning of 15-acre tract of residential property.

After weeks of bitter controversy over the impact of such a development on the sparsely-populated town, several of the key issues remain unsettled.

1. What will be the effects on residential property values in the surrounding area?

2. What will be the effects on the town's economy?

3. What will be the effects on the town's traffic?

Dancing Classes

The use of school buildings at half price for dancing classes sponsored by the Parents-Teacher Associations last night came in for a lively discussion at the hearing held on the Mamaroneck Board of Education's policy for use of building charges. On one side of the fence were members of the PTA and others who maintained that inasmuch as the dancing classes are held for the students at half-price or less, it increases the number of children who could attend. If a child's parents can't afford the price, the parents have merely to ask the school principal for permission to attend free and after an investigation it would be granted. Mrs. John H. ... George Schuler declared that such classes should be held for parents who couldn't pay or wouldn't ask to be taken in free, and should not be given use of the buildings free of charge, even though sponsored by the PTA. PRAYER FOR TODAY... MORE FOR THE ELDERLY

JUST ahead this week is anticipated action by the Senate on the report of its Finance Committee on increased coverage and larger annuities for those who retire at advanced ages from active work.

The House passed a law last October; the Senate is now set upon its views. Therefore, the new bill, which will be a compromise between those of House and Senate, will be drawn and passed. The House bill gives wider coverage; the Senate bill gives larger payments.

Thus, it is definitely in the cards that men and women after reaching sixty-five will receive more liberal treatment under Social Security. There are now in the nation more than 11 million of this age or older, representing more than seven per cent of our total population.

What was his new compromise bill becomes vital, obviously, of considerable interest to a large segment of our population, those who will benefit and those who must pay the bill.
