Sgt. Scilling Cited

As a member of the famed 11th Heavy Bombardment Group of the 7th AAF, Sgt. Armando G. Scilling of Mamaroneck has been commended by Major General Robert W. Douglas, Jr., commanding the 7th AAF in the Marianas, for his part in the campaign which has taken a large section of the Pacific from the enemy's hands.

General Douglas issued his commendation along with a personal message of congratulations to the group rounded out its fifth year, one of the oldest, most decorated heavy bomber outfits in the Pacific.

Based where the B-24 Liberator bomb, strafed and harassed the enemy at points within 600 miles from the Japanese mainland, the 11th Group has rolled the Japanese back more than 3,000 miles to their own front yard.

Its fighting tradition began at Hickam Field, where the group was all but destroyed in the Pearl Harbor attack. The 11th later sent home crashing down on Wake and Guadalcanal.

It precision-bombed northward through the Gilberts, Marshalls, the Carolines, the Marianas, bringing such targets as Truk, Tarawa and Guadalupe under its bombardments. Now the Bonin and Volcano Islands are the targets for its attacks.

"The valiant record of your group is the valiant record of the men, both as a unit and as individuals," General Douglas declared.

Sgt. Scilling is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scilling, 22 DuBois Avenue. He was graduated from Pottsville State Teachers' College in 1942 and entered the Army on Dec. 12, 1942. # CRIMINALS SLASH COLOGNE DEFENSES; ROOSEVELT TALKS IN LARCHMONT TO LEAD WORLD ACCORD

President Talks To Congress On His Yalta Trip

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff
WASHINGTON — President Roosevelt told Congress and the nation today that America will have to take the responsibility for world collaboration and we shall have to bear the responsibility for another world conflict.

Mr. Roosevelt said he returns home from his long journey with a firm belief that we have made a good start on the road to world peace.

Speaking on the joint of the House chamber at a joint session of the two branches of Congress, the president said in a personal report of the Crimea Conference that the Allies will not desert for one moment "until unconditional surrender" is won.

Calling on German people to join the German soldiers, he asserted, "I realize that the sooner they give up and surrender, the sooner their present agony will be over. They must realize that with only complete surrender can they begin to establish peace with people whom the world might accept as decent neighbors."

President Roosevelt described the German people as the "most unfortunate and the most pitiable of the world's peoples." He said that the German people are being treated as "inferior" and that they are being "used as cannon fodder" by the German government.

500 Volunteers Open Drive To Attain Larchmont Quota Of $43,000 For War Fund

Larchmont's army of over 500 volunteer workers began their solicitations today for the Red Cross 1945 War Fund, according to an announcement by C. Freeman Tibbets, executive campaign chairman. In an open letter to all residents, Mr. Tibbets said, "The American Red Cross, through the 1945 War Fund, again offers you a chance to share in its responsibilities."

"Your deep concern for the men and women in the armed forces can be no better expressed than in a generous response which will help to sustain the Red Cross worldwide services."

The service will be preceded by a quarter-hour recital of organ music by Richard Van Sever, organist of St. John's Church. Bishop DeWolfe as the fourth dean of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City, in June, 1940. He was elected Bishop of Long Island in February, 1942, and succeeded in May, 1942, in the Cathedral of the Incarnation, Garden City.

Bishop DeWolfe was born in Kansas City, Kansas, in 1895 and was educated at Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio.

In 1932 he received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Kenyon College.

From 1935, when he was ordained deacon by Bishop Leonard of Ohio and elected by Bishop Wise of Kansas, to 1937, he was rector of St. Peter's Parish, Pittsburgh, Kansas. Then he became rector of St. Andrew's Church, Kansas City, and in his 32 years there the parish grew from a membership of 90 to more than 1,000 communicants.

In this parish Bishop DeWolfe started the construction of one of the finest church buildings in the Middle West, a noble Gothic structure designed under the supervision of Dr. Ralph Adams Cross, architect of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City.

Douglas Aboard First LST To Hoist Flag On Lingayen, Watched MacArthur Land

A half dozen reasons for "feeling good" are listed by MacArthur in a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas A. Langford of 225 Lawrence Avenue, Mamaroneck, following the invasion of Lingayen Bay on Luzon Island where his ship, LST 740, was the first to hoist its flag on the beach.

But the climax of all the reasons is the simple statement, "Maybe it's because I'm still alive." He adds that it's a good feeling to know "each invasion brings me that much nearer to his home that I can again."

He had a front line view of the landing on the beach, according to his letter, first watching the campaign leave MacArthur's ship "shoot" his march through the surf to the beach. His boat then departed its cargo, "everything from carrier airplanes to planes."

MacArthur has been in the Pacific area since last May and has participated in two major operations, Leyte and Palau, before the one he describes in the following letter.

"I feel good, I don't know why it's nice to feel good, though. I hope you get that feeling once in a while. Maybe I feel good 'cause we're on our way home, maybe it's 'cause the tension has been lifted, and I'm now loose like a run down spring. Maybe it's 'cause the captain says that plane that went down was hit by us, and I know I got at least one shell into him before he hit. Maybe it's 'cause after the build up to how terrible our first invasion MIGHT BE it was not at all terrible, but more like a practice, and the troops we carried got ashore, and to their objective with practically no opposition. It's nice to know the friends we made while they were on board did not run into the gaps when they landed. Maybe it's 'cause I'm in the United States, the first to be hoisted on the beach, was one belonging to the 740. Maybe it's 'cause I'm still alive and longing to be home with the ones I love, and each day and each invasion brings me that much closer to seeing you."

"Naturally I can't tell you much about the operation, that is I don't know what we can see, but I can write what I think will be the most interesting part of the read most of it or heard all about it on the radio. We saw Gen. MacArthur, he got on his ship, 'Sleeping Ashore.' He came in a small boat and after the cameras were off first, he made a speech. The general said, 'The 740 was part of the backdrop of the scene. I wonder if you could see it at all. We were on the right, and in back of him. When they got down the beach that night, we found we were deep inside the gulf, and all around us were ships of all kinds, just about everything was there. The general said, 'The 740 was part of the backdrop of the scene. I wonder if you could see it at all. We were on the right, and in back of him. ## Red Cross Army Waits Word To Go

300 Workers Ready To Start One-Day Drive Here On Sunday

LEADERS ISSUE PLEA

With only 48 hours left before Mamaroneck's Army of Red Cross collectors will swarm through the village in an intensive two-hour campaign to raise $22,000, an urgent appeal was issued today by Henry T. Hornidge and Malcolm B. Brown, co-chairmen, to all residents to increase their last year's contributions in order to assure the quota.

Addressing all citizens that the workers will rally upon them between 3 and 5 P. M. Sunday, the chairman declared, "Certain donations and withdrawal from the fund will be repeated and there have been some unexpected delays, but the work already done in the business section and with organizations in addition to requests already received from many of our most substantial contributors indicate that Mamaroneck is willing to give even more generously than last year."

Both chairmen emphasized the fact that the quota is larger this year because of the fact that the City of Rye is trying to take away from us. We have no alternative but to fight this thing through to the finish.

The list of the Rye Neck case can be presented to the Public Education Committee has been completed by Judge Henry Hornidge and forwarded to Dr. Ernest Cole in order to put in proper form for presentation.

"During those very hours Sunday afternoon when the Red Cross workers will make their rounds to reach the objectives set for this year, we are asking you to stress today 'many of our men in the service will be engaged in the heaviest and bloodiest fighting of the war. Those men have the objectives assigned to them and they will be deadly effective. After all, it is very little that we are asking for."

"All organizations which have met since the Red Cross appeal went to them have either requested or raised their pledges. It was reported by Joseph G. McLean, who although confined to his bed, has been directing the Red Cross drive in the business section, states that his workers have been getting together noon with their quota oversubscribed.

"The major goal, however, according to Mr. Hornidge, will fall upon the residential districts. There are 10,000 homes, each with 300 women and men, one contributor will cover the bill for the year."

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

THE PASS AS A WEAPON THERE ARE many uses for a pass beyond those customarily seen in the average game among pretty good players. Fine players use it sometimes to create an illusion of weakness when the situation indicates they will get a last or chance to bid. Coming in at the late stage makes them seem to have a much weaker holding than actually is the fact. Veteran competitors will be wary of a tricky bidder who uses those tactics, but most players succumb as victims to the lethal weapon.

Naturally South got away with his contract after West had refused hearts, south had been with a club bid, and ruffed his last heart. Then, after a string of ruffs in the hearts, he led a diamond in the 10th to the won by the 11. If East had been foolish enough to play a diamond, an extra trick would have been won.

Tenpins Lose By 3-0 Count; Rec Four Wins Two Matches

The Barrys of the Mamaroneck Mixed Doubles League ran their hand to six full games yesterday by the simple expedient of taking a 2-1 victory over the third-place Jersey after the Jerseys had indignantly dropped a 3-0 postmortem tenpin to the Racquet. Mean while the Tenpins, in second place, did the league leaders a favor by bowing to the Barrys by 3-0 and dropping two more games of the pace.

It was a night when the worm turned as the teams tied for last place, Beglums and Jamarcek, both took shutouts and suddenly did the league leaders a favor by bowing to the Barrys by 3-0 and dropping two more games of the pace.

Misfits Annex League Lead As Messersmith Rolls 562

Was Messersmith of the Misfits turned in a 562 triple last night in the Larchmont Mixed Doubles League and led his Misfit duo to a place in solitary glory at the top of the league. The victors, who whipped the Happy Duo, had a three-way tie as both the Standards and Dees-bee dropped two games, the former bowing to the Capriotti while the latter took it on the chin at the hands of the Veronites.

The Standards, even though they lost, hit a 1002 triple, high for the night's bowling, and were only blanked because of the 35-pin Capriotti. After losing the initial encounter, the victors took the second string by 21 maples and annexed the third by a margin of six pins, both margins far less than their handicap.

Russians Reach The Oder 11 Miles South Of Port

LONDON, (AP)—Russian troops closing on Stettin have reached the Oder near Griefenhagen, 11 miles south of the port, a Moscow dispatch said today. The Germans declared the Soviets had thrust to within 13 miles of Stettin Bay, 75 of the U-boat base of Swinemunde.

Red Army artillery was shell-ing Stettin, the port of Berlin at the Oder's mouth.

The river divides into two main channels at Griefenhagen.

The German High Command said Marshal Georgy Zhukov's First White Russian Army was wheeling westward a Combe from Stargard to Griefenhagen, the last town 14 miles from the Baltic coast and 17 northeast of captured Naugard.

It said a Zhukov spearhead had reached the Oder at a point 13 miles from Stettin Bay. Gollnow is northwest of Stargard, 22 miles north of Naugard, both captured yesterday.

The Berlin radio asserted Zhukov had massed five infantry and two tank armies on the central sector for a push westward on March 5.

Moscow dispatches said Zhukov was advancing steadily beyond Naugard and Naugard, 22 miles north of Stargard, and tightening his flank on the Baltic coast in preparation for a push north on March 5.

The Germans also reported the Second Polish Army, pushing up the Polish corridor, farther east toward Gdynia and Danzig.

Marshal K. K. Rokossovsky's White Russian Army to the north, west of the Baltic coast, into the coastal strip of Pomerania between Danzig and Kostrzyn.

Plans Get Under Way Early For Village Participation In Victory Garden Program

The Mamaroneck Victory Garden program and Harvest Show will again this year be supervised by the Garden Club of Mamaroneck in cooperation with the War Council. It was announced today from War Council headquarters.

Mrs. E. S. Shumaker, president of the Garden Club, will select the chairman and subcommittees according to the procedure followed last year.

Issuing a statement today in connection with the announcement, Leona Pratt, chairman of the War Council, said it is most gratifying to the War Council to have the Garden Club accept the task of supervising the program.

She said that with this experience, we are assured of an efficient and thorough professional result in 1945. It is a vital community program and wartime service. Our fourth year Victory Gardens should be our best.

"President Roosevelt has asked for more and larger Victory Gardens this year because of the increasing demands for our foodstuffs from our armed services and the people of the liberated countries. Our fourth year Victory Gardens should be our best."

Churchill Back From Frontline Conferences

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill has returned to London after a visit to the front where he conferred with Gen. Eisenhower and Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery.

A considerable part of the tour was in German territory.

The Prime Minister and his chief military adviser, Gen. Sir Hastings Ismay, spent the weekend at headquarters of Eisenhower and Montgomery for the purpose of discussing with them and other Allied commanders a wide field of military matters," said Churchill today in a broadcast from the U. S. 9th Army, which were in some part in the drive to the Rhine.

Churchill looked around the ruins of this fortress city—the most completely destroyed city since St. Lo—without visible displeasure and said grimly: "There will not be any unemployment around here after the war."

It took considerable argument by Lieut. Gen. William Simpson and Major General Joseph M. Stilwell to keep the fearless British warrior from visiting the Rhine River at Düsseldorf.

"If they are shooting you can't sit in a tank and I will be all right," Churchill told Simpson. "The degree that we are able to raise our own vegetables there is the degree that we are able to raise our own transportation system. We hope that there will be more and better vegetable gardens in Mamaroneck this Summer. The Garden Club will gladly help our residents to help them selves. The whole community should be grateful for the special service by those so well qualified to give it."

Americans Face Light Opposition Inside City

PARIS — Americans captured at least a third of Cologne in the Kyll. At least 8,000 men and forced the German defense back into the old city section around the heart of the devastated metropolis.

By JAMES M. LONG

Associated Press Staff

PARIS—The first American First Army troops driving into Cologne today reached the vineyards rimming the ancient heart of the wrecked Rhine city against surprising light opposition.

First Army infantry rolled through the great industrial area in the north and western sections of Germany's fourth largest city, and shelled the railroad marshaling yards, among the biggest in the Reich.

The fall of Cologne was expected by the German high command. The German commander said that south of Cologne Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton's "blacked out" Third Army had achieved a deep breakthrough in the western section of the middle Rhine and Coblenz in the area northeast of Kyllburg, about 100 miles south of Cologne. The Americans were 44 miles from Coblenz, pushing beyond the Kyll River, last great natural barrier, from two breadheaves four to five miles wide and three deep.

Between these erupting fronts, the American First Army pushed to within seven miles of Bonn. To the north, the foe was feverishly strengthening fortifications east of the Rhine and mustering troops to man them.

Nazi demolition squads, trying desperately to guard the rich industrial Ruhr, left the Rhine valley in the hands of the invading First Army. The city's main street from Bonn to Weest, 100 miles long, held the westernmost bank of the Rhine from Cologne all the way north to Rheinfelden, 100 miles south of Weest, except for a tiny pocket in the north, about 10 miles north of Honberg, and a 45-mile stretch from two to three miles deep from Bonn to Weest.

American pilots who flew over Cologne described it as a "dead city" with only a few buildings left standing.

Further north units of the First Canadian Army stabbed into the outskirts of Xanten, key enemy strongpoint guarding the Ruhr. Our fourth year Victory Gardens should be our best.

Floeth's 249 String Snaps Season Mark In Acres Bowling League

Richbells Nip Dribrow Five As Tompkins Trounce Motts

As Floeth of the Sterling eight pins back of the high score in the Acres Bowling League as he started off the evening with a stellar 50 score to break the season record of the loop and lead the Stringers to the first of their two victories over the Basses Five.

Floeth nabbed the final two frames and finished with a night's total of only 530, but his first game was his last as he went to take a partial hold on second place in the circuit as the runner-up Dribrows lost to the Richbells and plummeted all the way from second to fourth.

Also moving up to a claim on second place were the Fenimore who, despite some mediocre keeping in their first game, were able to annex the last two and keep pace with the Stringers. Wilson led the Fenimore attack on the Fenimore with a 502 but he had to give the Fenimore high in the Templeman of the losers and high since to Wye Messersmith, one of the defeated Fenimores.

The Richbells, meanwhile, were taking a fall out of the first place title, as the Dribrows again the score was 2-1 as the Richbells led the leading Richbell five with a 538. The Dribrows took a short lead in the match but they were first game that supposedly succumbed in the final two encounters.

It remained for the battle between the Motts and Tompkins, engaged in a dual for first place to develop the night's top series legging. Max Gosweller of the Motts turned it in when he hit 561 for his three games and fired a 225 string in his fourth game despite his work the Motts managed to drop three games, leaving the last only because the Tompkins had a 35 pin handicap margin. Al Williams of the Tompkins more than kept pace with Gosweller up to the last game but then fell behind and finished with a 500.

Bulldogs Drop Two Games In Midget League

The Bulldogs of the Midget Court League at the Mamaroneck Avenue School set some kind of a record in their recent games when they lost two battles and only managed to score three points in the pair of games. Tried by the Commandos, champions of the first round of play in the circuit, the Bulldogs then proceeded to lose 5-2 game to the Basketers. Pugliatti was the star who made the only field goal score by the losers.

The Commandos, with De Ruzza in the win scored early and often to blitz the Bulldog five. De Ruzza earned 12 points. The Basketers, on the other hand, were almost no better than the Dogs as they tallied only five points through the four quarters. Just enough to take the victory.

In another fray the Black Widows outplayed the Averages by 7-3 with Colassio carding a pair of baskets from scrimmage to lead the victors.

Panthers Travel To Harrison; Tigers Play At Isaac Young

By The Sports Editor
Both the Delbous and Mamaroneck High School quints hit the road today as the Panthers are making a last ditch attempt to get into at least second place in the S.W.L.A.C. and the Tigers hope to improve their position in the W.I.A.A. by taking Isaac Young into camp. Both local outfits will be attempting to snap losing streaks which both will be meeting squads which they defeated earlier in the season.

Few will forget the Belbous-Harrison fray played at the East End school in January. The Panthers were riding high with a long winning streak. Harrison also had a victory sign. Both squads were undefeated after three games. The Panthers came out on top by 26-20, winning in the last half.

Since then the picture has changed. The Belbous, after suffering three more losses, have bounced back and are now on the verge of a streak which has seen them well up in the S.W.L.A.C. In the course of the season they have taken Pleasantville and the Belbous. The Belbous are now on a losing streak. The Panthers, on the other hand, have won almost all their games. The Delbous, on the other hand, were almost no better than the Dogs as they tallied only five points through the four quarters. Just enough to take the victory.

LONDON (AP)—The Russians have driven to within 25 miles of Berlin's city limits, outflanking the German defenses and reaching Seelow, nine miles west of the Oder, a Transzone broadcast said today.

Seelow is directly east of Berlin on the main railway and is 32 miles west of the Oder. It is on the main railway skirting the Oder which connects Stettin and Frankfurt.

Marshal Georgy Zhukov's massive new offensive, timed with the Allied drive to the Rhine, 321 miles to the west, also has reached a point 29 miles from Berlin northwest of Kuestrin, Berlin reported.

Transzone said Seelow was reached from the Russian bridgehead at Goerzitz, between Kuestrin and Frankfurt, and said fierce fighting was taking place in the west with many places changing hands repeatedly.

Heavy attacks are taking place at Niederwutzen, four miles southwest of Zehren in a loop of the Oder from Stettin Bay to Crossen following a terrific artillery barrage that began 48 hours ago.

Although the focal point of the attack was on both sides of the Oder, 20 miles east of Berlin, with the Russians battering at the northwestern, eastern and southern fronts of the fortress of Kuestrin to the southwest.

Moscow remained silent on the reported offensive.

Twenty miles west of Danzig near the Baltic coast, the Russian offensive against the fortress of Soltawa, the Germans said.

The Germans indicated the Red Army had captured the town of Seelow from the north, east and south and intimated that units of the Red Army had broken through the city and even driven beyond the city on the Baltic coast.

A dispatch late last night from Associated Press correspondent Eddy Gilmore said the Red Army "may sign pointed toward an early breakthrough of the all-out offensive on Berlin."

The logical place for the first attack was Zhukov's "Oder front," he added.

Kiwanis Hears How Distillers Share In War

The contribution made to the war effort by the liquor industry through conversion of equipment in the liquor industry and the production of explosives was described last night to the Manamooch Kiwanis Club.

Introduced to the Kiwanis at the Manamooch Methodist Church, the speaker was Program Chairman Alvin Freisinger, Mr. Freisinger told of the quick conversion of the liquor industry and stated:

"Smokeless powder for explosives, medicines for the war hospitals, rubber, plastics and photography all have pressed the distilling of the liquor industry and stated: 240 million gallons of alcohol are to be distilled for war purposes."

He told the group that the sale of liquor in one year produces $1,400,000,000 or enough money to buy 20,000,000 battle tanks or 100 aircraft carriers or 4,000 flying boats or 400,000 medium tanks or 140,000 pursuit planes or 140,000 heavy machine guns.

All complaints, inquiries and suggestions should be submitted to Mr. Funkh of 578 Main Street, Room 12, New Rochelle. The area over which Mr. Funkh will maintain control includes Post Chester, York, Manamooch, Larchmont and Harrison.

Says He Paid Bove $110,000

NEW YORK, (AP)—John S. MacDonald, vice president of the Walsh-Kaiser Shipping Co. of Providence, R. I., testified in Superior Court yesterday that he paid $110,000 cash to a later leader Joseph S. Fay and James Bove.

The two men, AFL building trades union officers, are on trial charged with conspiracy in the extortion of $420,000 from contractors of the vast New York City Delaware Aqueduct project.

Parks Plaster Lions By 3-0 To Regain Lead In Community League

Clippers Upset By Derbys; Jesters And Postmen Win

Taking on the Larchmont Lions and mercifully trouncing them 3-0 the Parks of the Larchmont Community League shuttled back into first place last night as the Clippers, who had taken the top spot last week, met an inspired Derby outfit and were defeated by 2-1.

The hot scrap for the league "championship" momentarily turned in favor of the Parks as Johnny Guad, rolling a 554 triple, led the team to its easy victory over the Lions. "The Lions, for the first time in several weeks, put a full team into the fray as the club members, bolstered by ill health in the last two weeks, came back into action. The Lions, however, lost three and were completely outclassed. In the first two games although they did manage to make the final string close.

The Clippers, meanwhile, caught Harvey Derby's squad on a just night when the Clippers weren't hot and the Derbys were just good enough. The result was a 2-1 triumph for the Derbys and the Clippers relinquished the league lead which they had held for two weeks.

They had taken last week. Despite their loss the Clippers produced the match's top bowler in Bob Johnson who hit 210 and 530 for his night's work.

Two other matches saw the Jesters down the last-place Mifflins and the Postmen take the Reds in a camp, both squabbling going by 2-1 scores. Neither match had any effect on the standings in the circuit.

With scores coming fast and furiously the Red Neck squad moved ahead in the first period, and to their lead during the second and then without a determined Slocum rally in the third quarter, coming back with a rush in the final eight minutes.

High scorer for the fray was Mrokowski of the soldiers who rashed a total of 18 points while Loicouo, Palmieri and Cullen of the Reds, starting comparatively slowly, hit a 185 in his first string.

Rye Neck A. C. Downs Slocum Quintet, 60-46

The Rye Neck A. C. scoring early, often and with steady consistency, repeated an early season victory over the Fort Slocum outfit last night as it downed the soldiers by a 60-46 count.

With scores coming fast and furiously the Red Neck squad moved ahead in the first period, and to their lead during the second and then without a determined Slocum rally in the third quarter, coming back with a rush in the final eight minutes.

Recher Smashes 652 Series As Milkmen Wallop Printers

Julius Recher, getting back into the form he showed last season, led the stellar local keepers of previous years, tumbled the timbers for a six-triple in a match at Mamaroneck Rec Wednesday to lead the Milkmen to a shutout triumph over the Printers.

Recher, starting comparatively slowly, hit a 185 in his first string.

Stripe Trio Nips Red By 2-1, As Blues Hand Eagles Shutout

Although Mrs. Dorothy Derby showed a momentary flash of the form which made her one of last season's Reds of the Victory Bowling Club, she was outplayed last night by the Stripe trio as the Diner Club was whipped 2-1.

Stripe trio, consisting of Mrs. Derby, Mrs. Dorothy Matheson and Mrs. Dorothy Matheson, took another victory. Mrs. Derby was high for the match and kept high triple and single for the league last night as she hit a 208 in her second game and finished up with 480. Her bowling, however, was not good enough to take the first game, curiously enough the scrap in which she rolled her lowest score of the match.

While the Stripes were taking their victory the Whites fully chasing the leaders, were topping the Stars by the same 2-1 count. Losing the first game the Whites came back to annex the next two strings by substantial margins. Mrs. Dorothy Matheson of the Victorious Whites was tops in the match with 463 for her three games.

The night's only shutout went to the Blues over the Eagles in a battle which saw the Blues easily take all three strings as none of the Eagles trio enjoyed a good night while the Blues were bowling consistent games.

NEW TROOPS PREPARING FOR NEW RHINE CROSSING; BRITISH MAY BY-PASS BELT

Soviets Aim For Link With Allies In Elbe Valley

LONDON, (AP)—The Russians were reported carrying out a large-scale regrouping of armies today preparatory to another massive drive on the Berlin front aimed at linking up with American forces in the Elbe valley in the heart of Germany.

Moscow dispatches said the Russians might by-pass Berlin as a knot of resistance in the drive to cut Germany in two and that the Elbe, which flows diagonally across Germany from Prague in Czechoslovakia to Hamburg on the North Sea, might be an important link in Soviet plans for future operations as the Vistula and Oder in past and current drives.

Moscow dispatches stated that the formations of Marshal Konstantin Rokossovich's Second White Russian Army were being held to the Oder near the Oder battle line with Marshal Georgy Zhukov's First White Russian Army.

Rokossovich had shortened his front vastly by a hard-driving offensive in Pomerania which had reduced the German-held pocket along the Baltic east of the Oder to the 200-mile area around Danzig and Gdynia.

He was speeding his assault on the front with an impetuosity which suggested that even larger parts of his armies might soon be freed for the climactic battle along the Oder.

Apparently, the Germans said today, the Russians were broadening their attacks east of Berlin. Four rifle divisions, including the 2nd, attacked repeatedly on a broad front between the two Oder River fortresses, Kustrin and Frankfurt, the German radio said.

Probably taking advantage of the regrouping process on the Russian side, however, the Germans claimed a number of local successes.

Berlin denied that the Russians were making a drive on the Oder. In the Berlin district, the Stettin suburb across the Oder from the Baltic sea.

1st Army Bulges Three-Mile Deep Bridgehead

Associated Press Staff

PARIS—The First Army attacked bulged the three-mile deep Rhine bridgehead several hundred yards farther tonight along a river strip which the Germans said was 12 1/2 miles long.

British Canadian and American Ninth Army troops to the north kept the Germans on edge by maintaining 40-mile smoke screens along the lower Rhine. The enemy said a crossing attempt was imminent between Emmerich and Wesel, where the last major German troops were driven across the river.

The German High Command was shifting 7000 artillery tanks along the Rhine's east bank and a major offensive was expected to be launched by the end of the week. A superhighway swings 15 miles southeast from Wesel, then turns northeast and north to Berlin, for a total distance of approximately 350 miles. Enemy broadcasts declared the main Allied thrust would be along the route over the north German plain.

Lieut. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges had thrown so many men, cannon and trucks into the rugged Westwall east of Remagen that nothing less than a major German counter-attack could bridge his armor.

The U. S. Third Army just to the south eliminated all the Germans west of the Rhine and Moselle rivers except for two small pockets.

At least eight miles of inner German east of the Rhine were now in American hands. The Germans peppered the bridgehead with light artillery fire during the night but made no counter-attack.

Paper Pickup Fills 2 Cars, Part Of Thrift

CHARLES J. BOYLE, JR.

In spite of the serious shortage of volunteer workers at the Red Cross, Mamaroneck collected enough paper to fill two freight cars and part of a third, at least equaling the $2,000 pounds collected during the last one-day pickup in January, according to the estimate of Chairman Charles J. Boyle.

Apparently, the call for volunteers yielded little help because "the same dozen or so faithfuls were on the job." He pointed out that most of the men who assist with the loading are "the best men in Mamaroneck" who find time to add a few hours to their schedules to help put the paper drive over.

War Fund Collections Reach $20,776 For Mamaroneck; $1,224 Cleanup Now In Sight

MAMARONECK added $2,474 last week to the $18,302 collected last Sunday for the Red Cross War Fund campaign bringing the total up to $20,776.

The village is still $1,224 short of the $22,000 goal which was set for the campaign. The collections from The Playhouse during the week of March 15 added to the credits received from the county reach the $24,000 total of last year. Mamaroneck has exceeded $176 over the goal. It is expected that The Playhouse will collect additional sums which were not expected of them in the drive.

The young officer's parents are of the belief that the mission was either the last or next to last but was scheduled to make, since, on Feb. 17, he wrote he had "two to go" to complete the 35 sorties needed before obtaining home leave.

The Sports Spotter

By THE SPORTS EDITOR

They began in a blaze of glory and ended it in an abysmal slump. We're thinking about the Balfour basketball team which won eight straight at the beginning of the Balfour season and then dropped in the last ten games, losing the final halldozen in a row. From the champs of the S. W. I. A. C. the Panthers fell to fifth place in the league.

How could a team start so fast and finish so slowly? We've been looking for the answer and, aside from the fact that a couple of the boys were ineligible for short periods, we think that answer may lie in the team's defense.

Bohlers started the season with eight straight wins. During that halcyon period the Panthers allowed just 16.6 points, or an average of 22.2 per game. Bohlers ended the season with six straight losses. During that season the Panthers allowed 32.5 points per game. An average of 30 markers per game.

Now we ask you a question: The defense fell apart and that seemed to be the answer to those who are asking why the Panthers went into a tailspin. If you want more figures, here they are. In the first eight games the Panthers allowed the opposition to score 30 points just twice; in the last ten games the opposition scored more than 30 points eight times and the Panthers won the two games in which their opponents tallied 30 or less. Twenty times the enemy scored more than 30 the Halcyon loss.

In comparison the Panther attack suffered little. The team metched an average of 36 points in their eight games and fell to an average of 31.5 in the last ten. Unfortunately, the team allowed a 15 point loss, effectively a 5 point loss. That totals 20 points per game, plenty to lose any battle on the court.

And yet we know that the Panthers constantly were drilling on defense.

Anyway, except for a picture of the East End basketball school and individual scores recorded of the boys, that's the last we'll be hearing from the Panther cage until next October rolls around.

League Leaders Tripped, 3-0 As Jerseys Blank Gardens

League leaders in the Mamaroneck Rec Mixed Foursome circuit had a tough time last night as the front-running Barrys, lost all three of their games to the up-and-coming Rec four and the ten Pins, in second place, won their match by 2-1 that ended their night in a triple tie with the Jersey and the Recs.

In a fourth match the jameleers took the Beginners by 2-1.

Rye Neck Wins Albany Fight To Halt School Grab

Revision Keeps District Intact; Survey Provided

After a two months' fight which has caused the greatest stir in the history of the Rye Neck School District, the residents of that area won the battle today over the attempt of the City of Rye to partition their school district.

An amendment was submitted in the Assembly this morning making several changes in the bill now under consideration to amend the City Charter, the most important of which provides for leaving the Rye Neck School District intact.

Assemblyman Frank McCullough of Rye who was responsible for the introduction of the amendment, disclosed this morning that there is a slight string attached to the matter in the form of an amendment which would leave the City of Rye that a seven member commission be appointed to study the school situation and attempt to work out a solution which will be acceptable to both communities by the time the Legislature meets again next January.

The Rye Neck position during the last few weeks has apparently been to allow sufficient time for a solution to be worked out. The submission of the amendment resulted from a conference yesterday with the City of Rye.

Larchmont Tops War Effort Goal

$51,028 Total Sends Red Cross $6,528 Over 1945 Campaign Quota

4,111 GIVE TO DRIVE

Total collections of $51,028.31 to date have sent Larchmont $6,528 above its Red Cross War Fund goal of $44,500. It was announced this morning by G. Freeman Tibbets, executive campaign chairman.

To a total of $50,308.81 announced Tuesday at a report meeting has been added $497.50 collected since that day and reported yesterday by Mrs. Emil A. MacTaggart in Larchmont at a War Fund meeting in the White Plains headquarters. The new total represents 4,111 contributions.

In a letter sent to all volunteer workers, Mr. Tibbets extends "sincere congratulations" to them for their work and to the community for its generous response. He also paid tribute to Mrs. MacTaggart for her "marvelous work."

"It would be difficult for me to express my tremendous appreciation for the work that has been done in Larchmont," Mr. Tibbets said. "Not only has every one of our districts and the advanced gifts section surpassed their individual quotas, but a total of 6,988 cards distributed to Larchmont, only 85 have not yet been returned."

The cards were collected by districts and their respective chairmen follow:

District 1, Thomas J. Morrison, Jr., $4,091; district 2, Rudolph S. Neff, $3,115.55; district 3, Mrs. W. E. W. $3,640; district 4, John T. Whitton, $3,775.55; district 5, Emil H. Fink, $2,845.50.

District 6, William R. Farrell, $2,845; district 7, William H. Baldwin, $2,635.50; district 7B, James E. Steves, $2,015; district 8, Harry A. Brown, $2,424.50; district 8 T, Roosevelt Allen, $1,972.25; district 9, J. J. Hollan, $1,758.94.

War Fund headquarters at the Chateaufort Gardens Apartments will close tomorrow, Mr. Tibbets said, adding that returns after the closing date will be accepted by the district chairmen.

"If for reasons beyond our control we are unable to complete calls before Saturday, March 24, please turn cards back to your supervisor," he said.

Lt. Douglas T. MacTaggart Awarded 2nd Oak Cluster

Douglas P. MacTaggart, 26, of Larchmont, above, pilot of a B-17 Flying Fortress taking part in Eighth Air Force aerial assault on Nazi military and industrial targets, has been awarded a second Oak Leaf cluster to the Air Medal for meritorious achievement.

The airman is a veteran of several Eighth Air Force bombing attacks on a variety of objectives ranging from Nazi airfields and ordnance depots to synthetic oil refineries and rail line positions. He holds the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" in aerial combat.

Lt. MacTaggart is a member of the 34th Bomb Group and the 45th Fighter Group. The division is commanded by Lt. Col. Robert H. Smith, who is currently based at the Presidio in San Francisco.

The procedure, as explained by the assemblyman this morning, is to recommend to the members of the commission that he be appointed to the position of member of the Board of Education or Citizens Committee in Rye Neck and possible the City Council in Rye.

The bill, if passed as submitted to the Legislature last month, would have left the Greenhaven district and Palmer estate out of the Rye Neck School District causing a tax loss on about $4,000,000 worth of assessed valuation. The City of Rye would have been obliged to maintain its share of the debt load, however.

His plan will succeed partially. His intention, however, for an agreement with Union Free School District No. 6 of the Town of Rye and Harrison, will be to divide the consolidated Rye district into three districts: one for the Palisades, one for the Palisades and one for the Palisades.

LONDON, (AP)—The Russians have opened a violent attack against the last German positions west of the Oder in the Sztettin area with a drumfire barrage followed by masses of tanks and infantry, the Germans reported today.

In East Prussia the Russians announced a seven-mile breakthrough to the shores of the Frisches Haff, a Baltic lagoon, which divided the remnants of the 200,000 defenders of the Koensberg zone into two main pockets.

Another major attack has been reported by Marshal Ivan Konev's First Ukrainian Army north of Rastenburg and in the Grotkau area, the German communiques announced, and penetrations were made. German troops have been ordered to retreat to the west.

The German reported Soviet breakthroughs in the Oder basin were expanded until they hold about 100,000 Russians, but Moscow has never officially confirmed the crossing of the river.

2-Mile Advance Lengthens Rhine Bridgehead

By JAMES M. LONG Associated Press Staff

PARIS—Americans fought within 200 yards of the virtually severed Ruhr-Rhineland Superhighway today and advanced up to two miles southeast of Frankfurt in a supreme effort to trap German forces already wedged astride the big military road east of the Rhine, it can be considered cut by infantry and armor divisions. The advance was reported by a correspondent Don Whitehead reported from the front.

A hundred miles to the south, the new Seventh Army offensive rolled forward along a 50-mile front from Saarbrücken to the Rhine, and aerial reports indicated the Germans already had started their flight to Frankfurt from the Saarland and Palatinate.

The Sports Spotter

Gene, but scarcely lamented, is the local scholastic basketball season which closed yesterday in Port Chester with Mamaroneck High School's 14th loss and seventh straight defeat.

Only the port mortem of which this is one, remain. There'll be only one more, when we add up the individual standings of the members of the two teams. We suspect that there will be a surprise in the scoring totals of the two squads, although up haven't yet finished adding them up.

Anyway, yesterday was probably the last game for four of the five Mamaroneck players who were named in the last game. Mamaroneck's Bill Mather, Willie Carter, and Leo Caddell are all seniors, as is Coach George Mooney's chief replacement, Charles Bilgiao. Most, or all of them, will be in the service when another cage season begins around the middle of the year.

Prospects for next year at the Hilltop are not too bad although the team will have to be built from the ground up. Morrison looked good in several places as a substitute. Talgo has possibilities if he can add a bit of speed. Sid Nordenschild of the junior varsity squad appears a sure winner and "Red" Tully, who's fighting spirit goes with his hair, will probably rate with the Orange's best.

Anyway, except for one more column and the individual standings, records, that's the end of inter-scholastic basketball until another November rolls around. We're kind of sorry to see it go!
