The following resolution was passed:

"The members of the New Rochelle chapter of the AVC wish to go on record as stating that those members of Congress who voted against the Fair Labor Bill have acted against the interests of veterans in taking a step against the rapid building of homes. It is our belief that setting up subsidies would provide the means of starting building of homes, or possibly inflicting a price ceiling on existing homes, would help to stop the inflated prices from going higher. The members feel that representatives of New York and other states have been disloyal to veterans and that they will act accordingly at the polls in the next election."

A discussion on "Compulsory Military Training" was led by Jack Werner and Robert Katzberg. A 10-9 vote defeated the idea.

The next meeting will be held at New Rochelle YMCA on March 26.

"The plush assignment in North China is what Virginia Mendes, a Larchmont Red Cross worker thinks of the Embassy Club in Peking, China where she went last month from India instead of taking advantage of a well-earned rest at home.

"The Red Cross Club here," she writes her parents in a letter which she took out of the building formerly belonging to the Italian Legion. It is a large, beautiful building and offers every facility imaginable to the worker. We have nine Red Cross workers on our staff and a local hired staff of 169. I find the Chinese much more cheerful and gay. It actuates me to find a way to use to see children once more laughing and playing in the streets."

A program from the Embassy Club, printed on heavy Chinese paper employing several kinds of colors, reveals a full and diversified schedule of activities provided by the Red Cross for the worker.

Don't Sell Russians Short, Col. Von Bernuth Cautions In Talk Before Lions Club

Modern war is violent beyond the ability of any one to imagine unless he has seen it, and but for the numerous incidents a great many more than did have occurred in 1914-18, it would have been a war of attrition, according to Col. William S. Von Bernuth, who spoke yesterday at the luncheon of the Mamaroneck Lions at the Flint Park clubhouse.

He was introduced by Col. Fred Wilson.

Col. Von Bernuth is probably the most distinguished soldier who has been in the Army since 1918. He was in military service, including both wars. He was attached to the Adjutant General's Office, and is a native of North Africa. He won the Silver Cross and the Oak Leaf in Italy, France, Germany and Austria.

"That, gentlemen," he said, "is to be a soldier to get 'em home long enough and can't understand why he permit these things to go on. He spoke of the men who come back, who have saved their money in order to buy a house or anything."

"Turning to the Russians, he said that they are by no means 'to be sold short.'"

"They have an objectively and definite purpose which is just this: they are interested in Russia only," Col. Von Bernuth continued. "They are not interested in saving the world and they are not interested in their own frontiers. And they know how to handle the conquered. For instance, they instituted a 9 o'clock curfew and said that after that hour would be for the streets and for the streets, there were no more found on the street. They were invited to line up against a wall and were shot. That ended disobedience of the curfew."

"Turning to Gen. Patton, whom he described as 'a supreme commander' and 'the best of the world would go through the years,' he said that he was such a general that he could be trusted by the soldiers who he served under. He knew what he had to do, and did it, regardless of the consequences."

He described Gen. Kesselring as among the outstanding Generals of the German Army who distinguished himself by describing the manner in which he handled the Rapid River and Ardennes battles.

Col. Von Bernuth did not take time to describe the Battle of Tieling, about 50 miles north of Moscow, in 1941.

Christian Unity Held Vital In World Crisis

Support of their own denominations and practices of other were urged at the Larchmont Avenue Church last evening by Bishop James P. DeWolfe of the Long Island Episcopal Diocese.

Speaking at a union Lenten service, Bishop DeWolfe said that organic unity within the Christian Church is not an immediate possibility, but that in the spirit of Christ in the world is possible and practical. Such unity is demanded, he said, in the face of our catastrophe.

Bishop DeWolfe challenged all Christians to a larger and fuller obedience to the word of God. Pointing out that the early Christians went to their death because of their obedience to the word of God, through their faith they became a benediction to the world, he asked that present-day Christians give a strong witness to their faith.

"The world is waiting to see obedience in Christians," he declared, "and judging Christians according to their obedience."

SchadPLEGES Many Reforms By Democrats

Larchmont would have a more effective board of trustees if it had the benefit of a constructive opposition party, Theodore Schad, Democratic nominee for trustee, told the Larchmont Democratic Committee Monday night at the party's headquarters, 2 East Avenue.

Mr. Schad, who is running with Richard Carr, made the following statement to the committee: "Both Mr. Carr and I ask for your support in our campaign on the basis of improving conditions in the city and for the good of the community. We feel that the Board of Trustees would be more effective if it had the benefit of a constructive opposition party."

"Improvements which might be shown in such matters as bus service which is highly inadequate at present; such as empty corners of streets, additional recreational facilities, rehabilitation of such services as the collection and disposal of wastes, and cleaning up areas such as empty lots, vacant shopping centers and school yards, and the like."

"I will do the things that will make it more attractive."

The last four dates on the calendar apply also to the Rapid River and Ardennes battles.

Tossed Away

They've packed away the basketball files... Mamaroneck High School. The season ended last week but the team went over to White Plains Monday to take part in the District One tournament.

Outstanding game

The boys had high hopes for that one and certainly were favored in the opening game. Very promptly they proceeded to throw away the first game and get themselves eliminated by an outstanding team which, out of record, didn't belong on the same floor.

Softball

The boys are beginning to talk more and more about the approaching season. The latest to collar us on Mamaroneck Avenue was Bill Kurlitzky who's getting himself a Vets team. The squad will be composed entirely of Vets and will be sponsored by the American Legion Post No. 50. Kurlitzky was already in training to fill out the roster.

Master-Minds

Don't hear too much about chess, but the Mamaroneck High chess team seems to be doing all right. The squad is in second place in the league behind A. E. Davis and recently came away with a 3-2 victory over Scarsdale to pull its season record up to three wins and three losses. Doug Corson and John Sack garnered victories for the Orange in this battle of the masterminds while Jim Davis settled for a draw and a smart play on Phil Fisher's part forced a stale mate and another draw in his match.

Baseball

We're beginning to get inquiries about possible baseball games for any local semipro outfits. If there are any such we'll try to put them in touch with the sources of these inquiries so that schedules can be arranged.

Benny's Five Close Season In Rec League 1st Place Tie

Final Standings:

Table with columns: Team, W, L, Pct. C.Y.O. 8 2 800, Benny's Five 6 4 600, Hungry Five 2 8 200, Bull's Sharks 7 7 300

Benny's Senior Rec cage league ended in a deadlock as Benny's Five took a double header last night and the C. Y. O. evened through a victory in a single game at the Mamaroneck Avenue school.

Benny's Five had one postponement to play off and took one with ease, trimming the Hungry Five by 22-15. But its conquest cost against the Rogers was an even matter and the Benny boys just managed to sneak through with 29-21 as Lanza and Westbrook led the scoring for the winners while Cartson was top for the Rogers. The three garnered eight points apiece.

The C. Y. O. meanwhile, watched through the signifiers by 35-19 as Sherman Fowler first in matters through the nets and Archer melted 13. For the losers it was Dave Shaw's nine points which were tops.

In a fourth contest the Hungry Five, led by Roberts, scored a 41-36 victory over Bill's Sharks.

The first place deadlock will necessitate a playoff between the C. Y. O. and Benny's Five. The event is as yet undecided.

Rye Neck Vets Take Upset By 37-32 Count

An underdog Rye Neck Veterans outfit pulled out easy in the Six-Town League last night when it overcame the Rye Varsity by a 37-32 score in a game at Bellows gym.

Trying in the first period the Vets picked up in the second and third cantos and then coasted in fourth. The Rye outfit was in front by a single point at the end of the first quarter, but then Gene Bonelli and Ed Bascome, high scorers for the Vets, began to go to work. Bonelli operated at full speed throughout the middle periods, Bascome and when the third canto came to a close the Vets sported a seven point lead which was cut to five markers in the last eight minutes.

Foul shooting played an important part in the fray as 11 of the Vets points were scored from the charity line while the losers managed to get only three.

Bob Lawrence garnered his high score for both teams as he led the losers with 13 markers.

In a preliminary battle the Rye Vets, outscored the Pirates by 53-33 and the victors used almost every player on their roster. Best score however, went to Joe Barile of the losers who netted 13 points. Markers led the V. V. by 11 markers.

Insulators Tumble Tumbo Five As Stevens Shut Out Pepsis

The Tumblers, getting ready to complete in the Met ally championship in White Plains, took a licking last night from the Larchmont Insulators in the New Rochelle Rec Major League.

The Mamaroneck outfit lost by 2-1 splitting two close games with the Insulators and then taking a shellacking in the third. The first fray was lost by just nine margins, the second was won by 15 and the Tumbos would prefer not to talk about the third.

Mike Shirgio, Insulator anchor man, carried a 618 on three consistent games while Sam Gannum's 556 led the Tumblers.

In a second match the Stevens Five thoroughly squelched the Pepsis by a 5-0 count. Francis McDermott carried a 611 series and a 623 string as the Stevens outfit was pressed only in the last game and won that by a handy 10 margins.

Thorn In The Flesh—

WE FACE, with sudden realization, an extremely serious international situation. The march of reinforced Russian troops through Iran, with these possible points of either diplomatic or military attack, brings to a narrowing climax the fears only vaguely held and inexplicitly voiced over the months since World War II ended.

To add up the score does not soothe the pain or smother the fear of what may lie ahead. Every Westchester mother, whose older son may have returned safe and sound, and whose younger son is applying for military service, must tremble as she reads headlines of yesterday and today.

These headlines—East March 13th—tell us that the Russian reinforced command of Soviet occupation forces in Berlin to return to the "press of new duties" in Moscow, to be followed by compulsory military training of the tanks, artillery and cavalry may conceivably strike at the command of Iran, or at the oil fields of Iraq, or at the Turkish border.

We know that Russia is a power which is growing in Iraq and the unlit world of the Danubian basin of Turkey.

Over here there is possibly collaborative development. There is the demand of General Eisenhower that the draft be extended beyond its present expiring date of May 15. There is insistence in high military circles in Moscow for compulsory military training of our youth.

There are the blunt statements from Secretary Byrnes and Secretary Vandenberg and Comptroller Clegg that we exhibit force in our diplomatic dealings with the Soviet.

To these we have the added recommendation of Winston Churchill that entry into through a military alliance between the English-speaking nations. And it should not pass without notice that we are fighting diplomatic battles in London, Paris, Moscow, Ruzsa, and perhaps in London and in Brazil, there is even a rumor that General Marshall may replace Mr. Byrnes as Secretary of State.

And the Senate's atomic energy committee, possessing still far greater information than is accorded the public, proposes that the atomic bomb be placed in the hands of a military rather than a civilian commission.

Against these preparations by America and by England, both these publicly known and those only through military alliance, the Soviet will not permit to threats of force from one nation, the equally blunt reply from government-instituted publications in Moscow that the Soviet will not permit to threats of force from one nation, the equally blunt reply from government-instituted publications in Moscow.

The American people do not know what is behind all this. We can only view events of the past few weeks and shudder at the implications. And we cannot escape the obvious fact that all of this is done in secret, in the shadows of the night, and behind the veil of the USSR. There we see the thorn in the flesh of the ostwar world, where we see the only imminent danger to the program for permanent peace.

We do not know what they know. Probably we shall not enter upon the military alliance sought by Mr. Churchill, but we should not enter an alliance in black-and-white is essential to a common understanding, and to joint entrance, either in the diplomatic sphere or upon the battlefield. And we are aware, too, that after providing Russia with the sinews of a victorious war, she holds out a friendly hand for harmonious progress upon the path to peaceful relations for all time.

Has Russia deliberately baited and snatched that proffered hand? Are we to be compelled to prove to Mr. Stalin, too, that might is not necessarily right—and that the free peoples of the world are determined there shall be progressively more, not retrogressively less, freedom for individuals and for nations? Must we fight against?

Col. Joe Bush Says—

See-o-o, big gassy Iran is going to gobble up defenseless little Ruzsa? Want that mean old Poland to do to you, helpless Germany a few years back? Seems to us this is where we come in!

The way things are going in Westchester, we can't find out whether the UN is willing to take over the County Airport at Rye Lake, or vice versa.

Our Sports Editor tells us that before long the shad will be running in the Hudson in Westchester. We go to the Fish and Game Club at Ossining, and that he'll take us along if we can get a root-bait. Wonder if Bob Auld has got one?

Seems just a little odd, don't it, that Somers, the only Democratic town in Westchester, has elected as its town clerk a clerk as the town's trademark. Still, it probably don't mean anything—lots of Democrats go to the circus just to refuse peanuts to the elephants.

County Public Works Com. Jim Harding don't enjoy this season of the year very much. Already, he says, the county's black-top roads are just like June—they're bustin' out all over.

Sheriff Eddie Gault says he don't get mad if anybody comes from New York City with a car that's got a license that calls him "Nanjo-o-o-o." Wonder what Gault would do if anybody called him "Sheriff!"

A Glance Backward—

A DECADE AGO (From The Daily Times). The harbingers of spring were around. The first robins, three of them, appeared on the lawn of Mrs. W. B. Dodge of Boulder Edge Lane, Larchmont. The three birds showed every intention of settling down for the summer, although spring was still a week away. . . .

NEW TAXIES ARRIVE NEW YORK, (AP)—The first new taxicabs in more than four years appeared on New York City streets today. The Terminal System, Inc., one of the city's largest fleet operators, put 50 new 1946 models into service to start a $1,000,000 program to replace all its 600 worn-out cabs.

DEWEY SIGNS BILL ALBANY, (AP)—Governor Dewey today signed a bill permitting all banking institutions in the State to close Saturdays during June, July, August and September.

The Counselor—

I am twenty-seven and my fiance is thirty-one. We are both Catholic. I have never been married, but he has been married and divorced. Since the divorce, his wife has died. Can we be married in the Catholic Church? My family says we can't be married in the church, and they say I must give the man up or leave home because of this religious problem, although they admit they can't find any other fault with him. Regardless of anything, I am going to marry the man, whom I love deeply, but, naturally, I will prefer to be married in my own church by my own priest. We are very unhappy. Can you help us? V. K.

In Our Own Poet's Corner

ORIGINALLY by George S. Aronson

Our town is a town that's progressive and knowing. We welcome advice, and we're constantly growing.

We boast of a "Tunuu" where wide information Can keep us abreast of the state of the nation.

Last week, we had Fadman, Clinton, and we thought young Mr. Fadman, suave and efficient as he is, also a man who is thoroughly frightened.

He tells us: "In order to live, we must work for World Government, right here and now.

That 'UNY' may be, in conception, sublime. Bewe can't make it work 'cause we haven't got time!

He thinks we are doomed if we do not make haste, Our city laid waste.

Since there's nothing on earth so contagious as fear, He soon had his audience crying "Hear, hear!"

A peek on the day when the atom bomb exploded! As lovers of peace, we have grievously hindered.

For here is a fact unmistakably true: There's no doubt the Russians are terrified, too.

They're arming, and grabbing, and hiding, and spying, and plotting, and plotting, and hatching, and lying.

They will not come in, and sit down, and play fair, And our Mr. Fadman's tearing his hair!

He begs us to listen, and think, and agree— But here is a question which justifies me.

If it's genuine stuff that his terrorists are made of— Please tell us, Comets what are the Russian afraid of?

1946 "Holdout" —

News Behind The News—

BY PAUL MALLON

OUR GREATEST NEED—Now that the Truman-Byrnes leadership has decided to take a stand for our way of life around the world, a new type of propaganda is beginning to appear in the news.

Quotations from the Chicago Record Table of our atom scientists last Sunday showed they expressed such views as . . .

"The United States is leaving its fate" . . . It is tragic that this nation has the atom bomb" . . .

"So any reasonable person should be led to the conclusion that no strong Truman-Byrnes stand for our cooperative way of doing things is making inroads in King's bringing her not to defense of the UNO she has refrained from entering wholly voluntarily."

And any thoughtful person think our government, our people or even our military leaders are "militarily" . . . Our army is not militarily, politically, as are the armies of totalitarian nations. Our army, indeed, is demobilizing. It is not invading anyone. Its whole military theory is defense.

It is fully as unreasonable to assume that it is "unreal" that we have a peace-loving nation desiring freedom of individuals and all nations, have control of the bomb. We should thank God we have it instead of aggressive nations with ambitions for control of people and their freedom.

It is Russia, which the scientists had not only had military secrets, but also, political, and every other kind of secret, he kept her complete censorship. The scientist never advocated that she drop her isolationism and open up to armament inspection, at UNO provides. In the face of the adamant Russian position, these scientists make a feeble assault upon average intelligence to say we should disclose our secrets.

Then, simultaneously, a New York gossip columnist professes to present Stalin's thoughts, which are completely censored from all the rest of the world. He writes: "Stalin's thoughts are so closed that he deliberately building up a case against Russia to get continuation of the draft and other war-time powers."

There should be a law against gossip columnists writing on international or diplomatic subjects, because they are the easiest of all lines for propaganda, and are so often used to discredit all lines for international in diplomatic and peace games to scare and deceive our people.

If you should know Russia has the draft of ten years for compulsory military training already in effect but they neglect to mention this. Furthermore, Franks,

March 15 Tax Quiz

BY HARRY M. HICKRY Collector of Internal Revenue (Editors Note: This is the thirteenth of a series of 12 brief articles, in question and answer form, explaining how to fill out your federal income tax return.)

Q. Besides filing my 1946 tax return, do I also have to file an estimate of my 1946 tax? A. Most wage earners do not have to file an estimate called "Declaration of Estimated Tax." However, a wage earner must file a declaration if his wage subject to withholding are expected this year to exceed $500 plus $500.

Q. What very famous document, kept in the H. S. during the war, was returned to England in January, 1946? A. Form 1040-E, available to all collector's office.

Q. What form should I use to file a 1946 estimate? A. Form 1040-E, available to all collector's office.

Q. By March 15, except in the case of farmers who have until January 15, 1947, what is the purpose of the declaration? A. To arrange current payment of taxes you owe over and above any tax withheld from wages.

Q. When will I have to make these payments? A. One-quarter when you file your declaration, one-quarter on June 15, one-quarter September 15, and the balance by January 15, 1947.

Q. Suppose I find my estimate is wrong. What should I do? A. File an amended estimate before the next installment date.

Q. Can I estimate my 1946 tax on the basis of my 1945 income? A. You can use your 1945 income as a guide, but you should figure the tax on that income according to the reduced rates recently passed by Congress for 1946. The new rates are shown on the back of Form 1040-E's. Tomorrow: Final Reminder.

In Brief—

THE RUSSIAN has developed a serum which may lengthen the normal human life span to 150 years. Grandpa says this is just a dandy idea, though for the life of him, he can't figure out why he wants to live 150 years.

If the Russian diploma would only cut out creating so many critics. Grandpa thinks life would seem longer—and a lot more comfortable.

The Russians insist the new serum is not a test Fountain of Youth. Just a reasonable facsimile thereof would be satisfactory.

The discoverer of the serum, known as ACS, is a 64-year-old Ukrainian ex-servant. It took him 20 years to develop it and it will take him 86 more years to find out if he is right.

A number of Moscow actors and portrait painters are trying the life serum. Maybe they want to find out just how long Art really is.

District Tourney

Jack Hasky's Bellows Panthers go to work again tonight in the District One tourney, this time against a strong Briarcliff outfit. Passing the first hurdle when they defeated Hendrick Hudsons Henshys by 2-3 the East Enders figure to find the going tough and tougher. Briarcliff, for instance, won its first tournament game by 5-3-R indicating a strong outfit on attack.

The Panthers will probably line up the same way as Wednesday when Bob Joyce, Benjie Herman, Warren Bacone, Vic Hallberg and Rudolf got the nod. Against them will be a five by sharp-shooting Doug Dallas and tall George Collins.

The game is a quarter-final in the tournament and we look for the Panthers with their revamped lineup and attack, to come through in good style.

Met Regula's
The first of the local keepers to compete in the Metropolitan championships got on the alley this week-end. Saturday, Dan O'Leary and Max Fader wrestle with the champion pins, with Sam Giuganone and Wilmer Russell doing their stuff at the same time. The boys will be rolling in handicap singles and doubles and the prices are sizeable with $800 going to the winning doubles aggregation in the tournament and $100 to the top singles score. All scores figured on a handicap basis. The net total prize amount is just half of the above figures.

On Sunday the Taverners, a five-man outfit try their luck on Paper's alleys where the title event is being held. Prizes amount to $500 for the winner in the hand-picap event and $250 for the net-to-tack winner.

We've been surprised that more local individuals and teams haven't entered this net tournament. All allow owners had plenty of notice but very few have registered to the competition from hereabouts.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

FAVOR THE HOT SID "IF YOU'RE ONLY SLIGHTLY STOPPED, short suit is a doubleton on trumps topped by the ace, should make you lean toward No Trump, as a result, or toward a suit call!" With such a hand, it is better to try to steer a probable No Trump contract into your partner's hand. If possible, by adding a suit.

No Alliance Is Needed

WHEN ALL that Winston Churchill has said is boiled down, we find in the essence it is the fear which the British Empire has of the growing power of the Soviet. It is because of that fear that Mr. Churchill pleads for at least a moral alliance...

Again, any such alliance might conceivably embroil the United States in disputes which the British Empire might have with other countries or even those within the Commonwealth...

Instead, the United States must endeavor to siphon into the United Nations every bit of power which we can give...

It is in connection with these principles that we point to the invariability of careless talk in these grave times...

For example, there ran rapidly through Westchester recently a rumor that Army and Navy leaders were being cancelled and men were being called back into service...

Accordingly, let us insofar as possible exercise restraint in our talk about the dangers of armed conflict. We may find comfort in the belief that Russia is not an aggressor nation nor are we...

Col. Joe Bush Says

Maybe Winston Churchill didn't get much rest cure while he was over here and maybe he didn't get the English-U.S. alliance he asked for. But there's at least one thing he accomplished: he put Fulton, Mo. on the map.

It's just as well the chessmen got back from Rome before the Spring baseball season got fully under way. There was "gettin'" to be quite a bit of confusion every time a newspaper used "Cardinals" in a headline.

Uncle Sam has put on "Operation Mock Out" and now he's started out for "Operation Crossroads," so maybe we can't blame Uncle Joe Stalin if he plans to do a little surgical work on Tel Aviv.

What we'd like to see for a change would be a picture of some American War Brides landin' in England. Don't this little-little business wear both ways?

We can remember away back when you had to a little cushion before you could start a car. Now there's one word you can use in front of almost any store and start a riot—"Nyons!"

The newspapers say that down in Mexico they the cals are payin' 50 cents for nyons. Looks to us, even at this distance, like sheer foolishness.

College Survey, MHS Vets Larchmont League Topics

Practical measures based on common sense, in the face of today's education crisis with respect to the high school graduates, were outlined yesterday by members of the Larchmont League of Women Voters by Principal Joseph C. McLean of Mamaroneck High School, chairman of the Principals Committee of Westchester County, which has initiated in order to survey the full college entrance placement picture for the year's high school seniors.

Sharing a program at the Larchmont Municipal Building with Harold Watson, dean of boys at M.H.S., in charge of school services available for returned high school veterans, Mr. McLean outlined the work of the committee and presented up-to-the-minute reports from 369 less-well known accredited colleges in the United States which returned questionnaires containing pertinent placement information, with emphasis on number of vacancies.

With expanded facilities, colleges in the United States anticipate a full enrollment of one and a half millions of which 750 thousand will be discharged servicemen, with first priority to fill the 48,035 freshman vacancies.

Mr. McLean pointed out that "Typical replies from the colleges show a general trend of wanting already taking no more applications, will accept only top ranking students."

With veterans in first place, and high school civilian graduates at the bottom of the priority list, the committee's high school graduates the crucial situation as much as possible, the principal continued.

He outlined their series of meetings and told League members that copies of the college placement data are being sent to every high school principal in Westchester County.

High School, he said, 153 seniors intend to enter college next year. 25 have been formally accepted, and even the best will have to be rejected because of lack of space.

To combat the emergency, the committee has proposed the establishment of an off-campus college center in Westchester, under the auspices of either Columbia University or New York University, which has promised it "warm sympathy, interest and cooperation."

A summary of the information tabulated in an extensive and exhaustive survey is available at the high school.

"The renet-custards in 'Junkie' Brand Renet Tablets make it so easy, gaster's milk for me to digest. Besides, they're quick 'n' easy to make. Take a tip from Mrs. Smith—start serving renet-custards today!"

Stevens Down Bennis By 2-1; Insulators Win

Two of the three local teams in the New Rochelle Major League came off with triumph last night as only the Tumblers took a 2-1 licking while the Stevens' quietest the Insulators were downing the Pinks.

The Insulator match turned in some top kicking as Toler carried a 670 for the losing Pinks but was able to salvage only the second game for his team, a string in which he legged 235.

The Tumblers were outclassed as they took the first game and then lost the second in a roll-off after tying the Recs at 919 in the regular 10-inning game. The third game went to the Rec outfit by a comfortable margin.

Spencer Kegles 65, Sets New Season Record In Community League

Taverners Whip Villagers As Diners Lose To Lucky 5

TEAM STANDINGS

Team	W	L	Pct.
Taverners	28	12	.700
Diners	23	28	.452
Morticians	22	29	.433
Lucky Five	22	43	.338
Villagers	16	45	.267
Community Five	16	45	.267
Spice Plugs	28	58	.328
Rickert	22	59	.272

Ors Spencer, rolling with the Diners, set a new series record in the Mamaroneck Community League last night when he hurled the maples for a 651 series, breaking the former 637 held by his team mate. Another leader, Chet Russell of the Morticians, crumbled the record at the same time, but only finished with 610 and had to yield top honors to Spencer.

The new record was set when Spencer munched up the evening with a snappy 247 game after having rolled 207 and 197 in his first two efforts. Russell was more consistent, but not as high as he put together strings of 224, 212 and 204 for his 640.

The irony of the whole situation came about when team scores were added up and it was found that despite Spencer's record-cracking alley work the Diners lost their match by 204 to the Lucky Five and dropped a game in their seemingly far less chase of the Taverners. It was only the last string which the Diners managed to salvage as Fred Bono led the Lucky Five with a 612 series, enough to top top honours on a normal night but last night just wasn't normal as individual scores go.

The Taverners, meanwhile, weren't doing anything spectacular, but except winning games, they look the Villagers by 2-1 while Johnny Smirge in the drivers' seat in individual scoring. The match was fairly close, the first game which the Villagers won by 13 pin, but after that the Taverners were in the lead.

The loss dropped the Villagers into a fifth place, with the Community Five who managed to lose to Bono by 3-0.

In a fourth match the Morticians, after practically burying the Recs in the first game, lost a second affair by just 11 times.

PROMISING YANK

Pleasure Boaters Putting Craft Into Water Find Much To Repair

After four years of laying-up, pleasure boat owners are "seager hoppers" this year and already many craft are overboard, which is some sort of a record for getting boats in the water.

Even with the knowledge that two years ago we had one of the heaviest snowfalls on record in April, boat owners still are getting their craft water-borne, and it's no wonder with the kind of weather we've been having.

It also is advisable for a very practical reason. Boats which have been laid on the ways for four years have taken a frightful beating. Some owners have put them into the water each year, merely to lay at mooring, but seams have remained tight and planks stayed in shape.

There's been some fine boats ruined in the last four years, seams were rotting, caulking dried out and droppings from the planks curling away from the ribs, and paint blistering under the hot sun.

It's too late now to say that all of this could have been prevented if owners had filled the hulls with water to the floor boards, and had protected the sheer and cabin tops with caulking and starting from scratch, but it may seem better to use new planks, burning off the old paint and starting from scratch, and even carefully raking the seams, painting the inside of the planks and re-caulking.

For those who find their boats in that condition we offer one serious word of advice. If the planking has curled outward, away from the ribs, don't plane the edges of the planks. As a matter of fact we would fill the seams with compound-no cotton caulking, and put her over in shallow water, and let nature take its course.

She'll look like a sieve-no question about that—but given time, the dried hull will soak up and become seaworthy again. Then, after she's thoroughly soaked, take her out again and see what can be done to pretty her up. All of which may take months of Three out of four underdog ladies foursomes came through last night in the Larchmont Ladies League to topple the front runners and considerably tighten the league standings.

The Services, first place squad, got its come-uppance when the Recs turned on the pressure in the two games and capped them both. The Services shot their bolt in the first fray in which Mrs. Tess Smirge smashed out a 213, high single string for the night. After that the match belonged to the Recs, even though they won both their games by virtue of a 31-point handicap.

The next to fall were the second place Plumberettes as the Services, Mrs. Mary Radcliffe, anchor of the losers, garnered the night's high series with a 518.

Came the last place Parquettes and they handed a 2-1 licking to the fourth place Beautifiers in a low-scoring affair.

The only match which ran true to form was that between the Florists and Centerettes. The Florists took that one 2-1.

The scores:

Rec Softball League Meets Monday Night

The Recreation Softball League operating under the Town of Mamaroneck Recreation program will hold a second, and it is hoped a final organization meeting at 8 P. M. Monday at the Daily Times offices. Last week's convulsive produced several problems which league managers will have to solve, among them roster limits, the number of games to be played, selection of officials and other matters.

The meeting will be under the chairmanship of league pres Bill Gunn who could not attend this week's gathering and all team managers of teams which have signed their intention of entering the circuit, should make it their business to be present.

Meanwhile, some teams are already beginning to get in shape as the J. B. State have called an initial practice for tomorrow morning.

You Can Save Lives!

THE QUESTION of cooperation in President Truman's program for food saving is brought home to all of us with the establishment of a Westchester County and local unit of the National Emergency Committee. County Executive C. Gerlach will shortly announce the county committee for each city and the six city mayors will do the same for their communities.

What is it that President Truman and ex-President Hoover and his new committee want us to do? Briefly, they ask that during the next 120 days, until harvests can come to famine areas abroad, we cut down on consumption of wheat products by 40 per cent and on food fats and oils by 20 per cent. ... If you wish, we can be more specific on these rules, which the Famine Emergency Committee will, doubtless, bring before us during the campaign now under way.

Col. Joe Bush Says—

Washington doesn't seem to be as interested in balancing the budget as it is in whether Henry Truman will get the nomination between Southern Democrats and Wallace leftists. Harry doesn't seem near as grateful about it as FIR.

It's good to see that the Rev. Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick is moving into Westchester County with the retirement of the county to a county that needed him more, and if he wants proof, we'll be glad to give him a list of the names of the three-hour-for-teach club.

Well, well, so of Mike Silverstein has at last got out of the Mount Vernon Police Department. Mike was in for so long there a vague notion that he was the one who pinched Cain for Adam. And also, another rumor that he had been raised Cain.

Uncle Barney Baruch's Congressional committee the other day that the Government ought to cut out the bank "about half" able to raise wages without lifting prices. Listen, Uncle Barney, if you want to get out at the bank in Washington you need a microscope to find the town.

Countyexec Herl Gersch is all set for next winter. He has got a electric blanket for his mistress and a sun lamp for his daughter, so now he can stay out with the State Trooper any night of his wind.

A Glance Backward—

(From The Daily Times) A storm of protest was aroused at a school board conference attended by representatives of more than 400 civic organizations, when it was learned that the Mamaroneck School Board planned to raise a new position of superintendent to $10,000 a year.

The Counselor—

WANTS HIS 100 PER CENT During the holiday season I was an agent for a cigar lighter or flashlight or some instrumental in getting them a very good account with an exporting firm whose name I do not wish to mention since. Nothing about my part in the transaction was put on paper, but the dealer told me I gave the man and it was my account. When I asked for my commission, I got no money but all sorts of sales.

DO NOT HAVE TO TRAVEL I tried to take my children to Washington to see the cherry blossoms and could not get hotel reservations. In three ways we can see cherry blossoms near enough home so we don't have to "pitch tents." 1. Drive to Central Park, New York City. 2. Drive to the first big May trees of cherry trees can be seen at the Museum at 81st Street and Fifth Avenue. 3. If you get lost, ask for the "Cherry Blossom" sign on the street and you will come out at the trees.

RUBBER BREATHES For a raincoat to be a raincoat that stuck together and is peeling? My son just received a new raincoat. It is finished and can't be revised. The manufacturer tells that the rubber breathes, or else it becomes gummy and useless. Being closed up in his job locker is just the thing that kills it. We told the manufacturer there should be a sign on the coats, explaining their habits.

NOT ON LEMONADE How are Kentucky Colonel's made? With the same loving care and attention that goes into the Kentucky Bourbon Mint Julep. My wife appoints these colored to be part of his unofficial staff. Their chief duty is to correct the manners of the Kentucky Derby. Their number is unlimited and includes fighters, baseball players, politicians, actors, businessmen, sportsmen, and undoubtedly a few high fives as well as drinking cologne.
