Donoghue, Sent To Canvas In 5th, Pounds Out Decision Over Levitt

By GUIDO CRIBARI
He may not have the talents of a champion, but there is no denying that Roger Donoghue, the best of one last night before some 2,000 screaming partisans at the County Center, Yankeeville, pounded back from the brink of oblivion to sound out a unanimous eight-round decision over durable Sonny Levitt of New York.

Over oblivion is the word for it. Coming along behind a cool lead, Roger and his followers were suddenly stunned when Levitt chopped down the pride of Yonkers with two stunning left hooks to the midway through the fifth round.

Donoghue dropped face-down to the canvas. He took a minute count on his knees, and then he got up to Levitt until the referee saw the sound of the bell.

But dramatic and explosive as the knockdown was, it constituted Levitt's sole big victory as Donoghue practically won every other round in the fight.

Roger in Control
He had the touch, cracked Levitt on the loach, showcasing Levitt on the verge of reaching three times. He rocked him with a left in the first round, repeated with a right in the third and fourth and a left in the seventh, a snappy performance. Levitt made Roger look bad on several occasions. But on the whole, Roger was in control most of the way. He won the first four rounds on the writer's card, lost the fifth, split the sixth, won the seventh and lost the eighth.

Referee Jim Crowley called it 4-2 for Roger, while judges Bill Reilly and Charley Rosen ruled 4-1, 3-1 and 2-2, respectively, for the Terrace City thumper.

It was a brutal setup for the last four rounds, and the fight is getting to be regular dirt for a youngster by stopping Tommy McEwen, 151-1-2, of Harlem after five rounds in the club. Al Robinson, 145-1-0, of the Bronx won a one-round kayo from Jack James, 161-1-0, of New York, and Rafael Laboy, 125, outpointed Tony Amabile, 124-3-4, of Kingsbridge, formerly of Yonkers, 122, at the end of the fight.

Next Tuesday's headliner will read welterweight Frankie Palermo of the Bronx against Jackie O'Brien of Hartford.

win in 24 pro starts. He has a loss and draw to show for 22 other two. Levitt has won 30 of 42 outings.

Undercard Uninteresting
The rest of the card wasn't much to write home about, with the exception of semi-final 4-2, which saw Earl Hilton, 128, of Philadelphia, outpoint 127-1-0, of Puerto Rico. The bout was a draw, 1-1-1, and 1-1-1, hammered out a victory over Al Torres, 155-1-4, of Manhattan.

One of the four-rounders marked the pro debut of ex-Golden Glover Richie Reed, 147-3-4, of White Plains, who showed up fairly well for a youngster by stopping Tommy McEwen, 151-1-2, of Harlem after five rounds in the club. Al Robinson, 145-1-0, of the Bronx won a one-round kayo from Jack James, 161-1-0, of New York, and Rafael Laboy, 125, outpointed Tony Amabile, 124-3-4, of Kingsbridge, formerly of Yonkers, 122, at the end of the fight.

Four College Elite In Semi-Final Round Of East NCAA Play

NEW YORK, AP—Four members of college basketball's elite took up Kentucky, St. John's, Illinois and North Carolina State will square off at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night in the semi-finals of the NCAA Eastern championship.

Kentucky, No. 1 nationally, will face a tired St. John's team, No. 8. Illinois, No. 2, will square North Carolina State, No. 8.

Those four powers moved forward last night in opening skirmishes at Madison Square Garden and at Raleigh, N. C.

Meanwhile, the Western NCAA will start warring up with Harvard tonight, starting the first two quarter-final games at Kansas City, N. C. Sub Top Villanova.

Kentucky had its troubles for a while at Raleigh last night but brought its class to the surface in time to trounce a tired-up Louisville team, 79-62, N. C. State, playing without three of its stars, thumped Villanova, 67-62.

At Madison Square Garden, before 17,987, Illinois' Big 10 champion slayers Columbia, unbeaten record—the only one left in the nation—70-71, while St. John's disposed of its Cornell rival, 63-52.

Until they ran up against Illinois' Ted Lowmyer and Don St. John's, looking a bit weary from its recent invitation tournament around, rolled up a 25-point lead early in the last half against Connecticut and then almost let the game get away on a strong rally spearheaded by Vince Youkassak and Bill Egan. However, time ran out on the Deacons.

A capacity crowd of 12,400 saw the two-game show at N. C. State's coliseum in Raleigh and almost tore down the house when Bill Egan, substitute for All-American Sam Ranzino, led the Wolfpack to its unexpected victory over Villanova. The Gray, Ind., sophomore potted in 27 points. Larry Hunsicker of New Rochelle, Villanova sophomore ace, scored 16 points.

Marriage Without True Love Seen Gamble Doomed To Fail

By DOROTHY DIX

Question: Should a girl accept marriage for security even though she isn't in love? I am a girl of twenty-four. A man is sure me to marry him. He has a good job and could support me comfortably. I like him, but I do not love him. I actually wonder when I think about marrying him I wonder if I could stand him with a man the remainder of my life of whom I have tired even now? I may never have another so good a chance to marry. I may never even fall in love. My decision now will mean my future, but how can I do the sensible thing when I don't know what the sensible thing is? And if it is the sensible thing to marry this man, how can I force myself to do something my heart isn't in? Answer: It is not the sensible thing to marry a man you don't love. It is the most idiotic thing you can possibly do because it is taking a step that is absolutely certain to bring you nothing but misery. It is taking a gamble at happiness in which the dice are loaded against you and in which you haven't a single chance of winning out. Make no mistake about marriage. It is a hard job at best and nothing but love can give it and make it worth while. And don't forget that if you marry a man you don't love, the man you could love is likely to come along when it is forever too late. Question: What is to be done about the husband who hangs around the house all day pestering me with teasing and boresome until he nearly drives me crazy? Mr. E. Answer: I don't know unless you can get him to join a club or to play golf, or else shove him out of the house into some other jangling place. For I take it he will furnish his wife with something to do or think about and fill up his time.

Royal Guest Dances With Jane Powell

A Glance Backward
A DECADE AGO
(From The Daily Times)
Mass resignations of important officials and charges that a minister sabotaged efforts to gain the support of Russia added fuel to the rapidly flaring political revolt against the Yugoslav government's plan to capitulate to the Axis. Daily Times staff photographer Jack McChes won two honors in a news picture competition at Kent State University. John C. Bordley of Larchmont told of his harrowing experience aboard the Tanker Charles Pratt when it was torpedoped off the coast of Africa. George Brown, Mamaroneck High Swimming coach, exhibited his colts in the second annual Saw Mill Bluff Kennel Club dog show. Kathleen Bergen of Mamaroneck was chosen chief of the Companions of the Foresters of America at an election at Armory Hall, Mamaroneck. A real three-ring circus—with elephants and all—was presented at Bellows High School under the sponsorship of the Parent-Teacher-Look Association. The James M. Cole indoor circus gave the performance. The Derby A. C. Seniors and Mamaroneck All-Stars intermingle led the local entries in the county amateur basketball tournament at County Center. Joe Louis made Abe Simon his 15th victim as the world heavyweight champion won an 11 technical knockout in the 13th round at Detroit. Simon put up a surprisingly strong fight.

Dancing with energetic JANE POWELL requires plenty of stamina from her young guest. But he is more than equal to the occasion. He gets extra foot-energy from Royal Puddings.

Labor instruction, concentrated in the vital and strategic industry in intellectual areas, has been given during recent years. Initiation into the "secret" world of espionage is the aspect which he pointed out as the average citizen, the spy in the air, who can be effective by turning over specific information on espionage to the FBI, an organization whose cause is not unshared.

Mr. Kirkpatrick repeated the oft-published list of prominent names of each individual in his report, which included names of prominent writers, ministers, musicians, doctors, professors, dramatists and those in show business, adding that not all are members or sympathizers of the Communist party.

To combat communism here, he concluded, we must inform ourselves of the facts and use the information by writing letters to newspaper editors and congressmen. It is the responsibility of each individual in his local community to expose non-Communist front organizations, he said, to check up on what books are used in local schools and to see to it that books are not used which are biased against the American way and the allied advances of the Soviet Union. Movies in which communist or sympathizers appear should be boycotted, he continued. "I'm not advocating book burning or witch-hunting," Mr. Kirkpatrick commented. A question period followed his talk.

WILL O' THE WISP IN RYE NECK

Edward Robert Petrie is a small town town—if the town happens to be Mamaroneck. He's also one of the most talented high school basketball players in the area, as you will readily verify if you have ever seen him go through his paces as ace of the Panther pack.

Case officials, sports writers, coaches and fans alike have told the Rye Neck star. "He's wonderful!" is the usual initial impression, but one word for a major college labeled Ed as "the best" he had ever seen perform in school ranks. One court after another summed up his estimation by saying that he would seem to get bigger every time Petrie touches the ball up!

HE CAN'T PLAY THE GAUDES, BUT . . .
Eddie can't play the Gaude's, but as well as his sister, Laurie, but on the hardwood there aren't too many things he doesn't excel in, meaning that Petrie isn't just a "shooting" basketball player. On the contrary, he is a magnificently polished passer, seldom makes a defensive miscue and is remarkably cool in the heat of hoop battle. He personally never seen him become enraged on a court, although some of the rough-house tactics employed by cagers trying to track down the Number One Panther have been enough to merit at least a drastic glance. But that's not the way Ed likes to fight back, he'd rather keep the scoreboard humming under the lights as he while the opposition blows steam. In summary, Bellows opinion seems to get bigger every time Petrie touches the ball up!

GAVE HIM A BALL, SHOWED HIM THE BASKET
Of course, you didn't think Eddie didn't find his act strange, right? It happened almost that fast. Petrie says it was wrong because he had never thought much about the game and then woke one morning to find that he had not only enjoyed it but could do nothing wrong in the sport.

Petrie was born in White Plains, near the County Center where he has gained many admirers since becoming a solid-side hooper. As a youngster he was not strongly attracted to athletics, although he did play baseball and considered the diamond to be his best sport spot.

CAME TO RYE NECK AND THEN . . .
In 1944 the Petries moved to Rye Neck and Eddie found that the fever here was basketball. It was only natural, therefore, for him to go into the neighborhood high school and play with the rest of the kids. It wasn't long before the other boys noticed how often their friend hit the target and even the varsity basketballers at that time turned of a "corner" who would come to make BHS history.

In 1947 Petrie went out for the Bellows case team and it was a foregone conclusion that he would make the grade because Coach Jack Hasley saw that the young Frenchman could almost make the ball talk. Hasley immediately moved Petrie to the skinny, small yearling, despite the fact that Petrie had a peculiar way of gripping the ball on set shots. That novel grip later developed into the style which now gives Ed the wicked back-stun that trickles the ball through the rim on shots that would normally be near-misses.

HE NEVER GETS ENOUGH OF IT
The Rye Neck standout, whose name is "Nick" to his mates, keeps at his specialty almost year-round. He often takes trips to YMCAs in nearby towns and even in the midst of a campaign he takes a five or ten mile trip to get a workout while the BHS game is closed. No one who has seen Ed in action on Saturday-morning outdoor sessions following a torrid Friday evening contest. This illustrates the tremendous joy he derives from the game.

The lad being analyzed in this space is an even six-footer and does not profess to be any four-letter sports star, such as the little Bellows school is noted for. He plays an acceptable shortstop on the baseball team and once tried to place-kick on the grid squad. A few tent in the wrong direction sent him back to looking at shoes while the molester-wearers were losing at moving targets.

BURNING DESIRE FOR COLLEGE BASKETBALL
With his scholastic credits used up and graduation approaching, Ed is looking forward to attending college. Innumerable scouts are willing to bet that Petrie can make the collegiate grade, and scholars are quite naturally flocking to his direction.

Ed's own desire is to play at Kentucky, where so many case greats have been produced. This when the telephone rang last week and one of Adolph Rupp's Wildcats introduced himself. Petrie saw the prospect of a greens coming true. He was speechless but was able to join in time to agree to a meeting with Rupp in New York this week. If the Wildcat mentor thinks anything of Ed, figures he'd like to join Larry Hennessy at Villanova. With 81 points for 30 games, over 1,000 minutes in four years and a glittering record as playmaker, Petrie's services are very much in demand.

RAN OUT OF GAS IN FINALE
In a County Center dressing room last Saturday night, a sweat-drenched Petrie sat exhausted and, for the first time in four years, was ready to quit. He played an acceptable shortstop on the baseball team and once tried to place-kick on the grid squad. A few tent in the wrong direction sent him back to looking at shoes while the molester-wearers were losing at moving targets.

That episode shows why all the Panthers have such high regard for Petrie, both as a teammate and fellow student. They know that Ed hands easy baskets to them when he could be trying for personal points, and that spirit has proved consistent in the Panther ranks. Always the lad to minimize his own value, Petrie claims his pals Bill Cummings and all the other BHS cagers were just as vital in the championship successes. He also attributes any personal accomplishments to the instruction of Hasley and anyone who the latter score he gets little argument.

Frat Kegging Hits Shutout Piv Pattern

The Mamoroneck P.W.D. Vigilantes and Mamoroneck Aces blanked their foes in Fraternal League bowling at the Mamaroneck Rec last night, with the Foxes taking three games by forfeit.

Although the Legionnaires were licked, anonymous Gus Pennetta of that team salvaged individual honor by knocking up an enviable 692 series and top game of 214. Danny Goette of the Mamaroneck Foxes-Whites-Drives chalked up a fine 824 for second place and Wall Webber posted a 707 triple, with 212 strike.

Larchmont Aces And Royals Set For Tournament

The two local recreation basketball league championship teams will take part in a tournament in the 21st annual Westchester Amateur Tournament at the County Center tonight.

The Aces went through the entire Senior League season without suffering a single setback and are easily the outstanding local quintet on the recreation circuit level. Leading performers with the Aces are Tony Liscione, Joe Cullen, and Gene Doherty, all members of the well-known Larchmont Aces.

Both local teams will be competing in the invitation section, where only championship class groups from Westchester county are permitted. The Royals played junior ball here but must compete in the senior division.

BASEBALL STARS FLOW TO SERVICE

NEW YORK (AP)—It may have escaped general attention in recent weeks, but major league baseball players regularly are being called into the armed services.

Yesterday's induction at Kansas City of Preston Ward, Chicago Cubs first baseman, pointed up that since last September, some 44 players either have or soon will don Uncle Sam's uniform.

Paul Petitt, the nineteen-year-old, $100,000 bonus pitcher of the Pittsburgh Pirates, received notice yesterday to report to Los Angeles March 30 for his physical examination.

Ward's induction makes a total of 22 National Leaguers in the service. The American League has 11.

Of the 16 major league clubs only the Philadelphia Athletics and Washington Senators have not lost any players. Most of their players are over the draft age.

Kentucky Jinx Over Illinois In NCAA May Get Third Test

NEW YORK (AP)—You can't blame Illinois' basketball team if it happens to look over the head of North Carolina State in the Eastern NCAA semi-final tonight and throw a few anxious glances in the direction of Kentucky.

Two times in the past the Illinois have gone into the NCAA tournament with lofty hopes only to have them shattered by the Wildcats from Lexington. In 1942 Kentucky.

Bribers Now Will Draw 10 Years In N.Y.

ALBANY (AP)—The maximum prison term for anyone convicted of bribing or attempting to bribe an athlete has been increased from five to 10 years.

Signing a ball list not to double the penalty, Governor Dewey described bribery or attempted bribery of sports events as "a shameful, evil thing."

The new law does not affect the maximum $10,000 fine for bribers.

The heavier prison penalty was requested by Gov. Dewey, 30th, after several college basketball players in New York City were arrested on charges of accepting bribes to "dump" games.

The measure covers bribing of professional and amateur athletes, jockeys and other race track employes.

It was introduced in the Legislature by the Republican majority leader, Senator Arthur H. Wickes and Assemblyman Lee B. Muller.

Hockey

Red Sox Nearing Top For Cutting on Roster
BOSTON (AP)—It's getting near cutdown time for the Boston Red Sox and soon the boys who can't make it will be on their way back to the minors.

The Sox will play the Washington Senators here today with right-hander Ellis Kiner listed as the starting pitcher. Kiner was rained out of a chance to start yesterday.

BOMBERS OPPOSE GAELS 3RD TIME

Regardless of the outcome of their Westchester Recreation Tournament game at the County Center tonight, the local Gaels will return to close out their home case season tomorrow evening at Mamaroneck Avenue School Gym against the "Yonkers" Bombers.

The Gaels-Bombers match is the third such meeting arranged this complex and the previous pair were split.

Tonight the Gaels play on Court C at 9:30 in the Center against the Rosehill AC of Yonkers in the open division. There are 20 quintets entered in this division with eliminations continuing for the next week.

Since the Bombers are one of the most popular teams ever to appear on the Gaels home court, a large crowd is expected tomorrow night. In their first clash, the Bombers took a 37-25 at Yonkers and in the return tilt at MAS the Gaels pulled out a 47-42 decision. The Bombers feature the playmaking of Bobby Peterson plus the scoring of Woe Field and Johnny Miles.

The Gaels, who will have both Ed Pulliam and Bert Murray back in action, have dropped five in a row and still seek win number 19. Percy Potter has also made himself available for full-time service.

Although they will not play on the home court after tomorrow, the Gaels have a tentative date with the Mt. Vernon Boys Club five arranged in a road contest.

LIVING COSTS UP; ESA SPLIT WIDENS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The mobilization program still buffeted by labor's bludgeoning wage stabilization system, headed into new storms today.

The government's latest cost-of-living index will be announced tonight. It is expected to show a 1.5-point rise between Jan. 15 and Feb. 15.

The price control office relaxed slightly its freeze on gasoline prices.

Johnston cites "Compromise" Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston said last night "too much compromise" over inflation is undermining the mobilization effort.

The new living cost index appears certain to add fuel to labor's claims of unfair treatment.

On the basis of the index, one million employees of non-operating branches of the railroad industry would be in line for salary raises of 5 or 6 cents an hour. But because of the 10 per cent ceiling in the wage stabilization plan, they may have to content themselves with 2.5 cents.

Rail Wage Hike Allowed Under escalator clauses in labor contracts, thousands of railroad workers who are not operating employees would be able to claim raises of 5 or 6 cents.

The non-operating group negotiated a 12.5 cent raise March 1.

The anticipated new index increase does not affect automobile industry workers. Their next cost-of-living adjustment is due June 1.

The new gasoline rationing permits the nation's 400,000 service stations to use the same margins they have used since the base freeze period — Dec. 19 to Jan. 1950 — but allows a minimum profit of 4 cents.

Price stabilization officials said the 4-cent minimum will force dealers who, because of price freezes, were caught in the general freeze with lower-than-expected profit margins.

Price Director Michael V. C. Sallie said the order may result in "some limited price increase but no general price rise in petroleum products."

Economic Stabilizer Johnston issued his warning against inflation in a broadcast speech.

"Inflation is already sabotaging our defense just as surely as if it carried the red flag of international communism," he said.

He called for a halt to the "upward march of farm prices," which, he noted, is driving the price of foodstuffs higher.

Mr. Johnston said last September's $4.5 billion tax increase already has been eaten up in the higher price the government must pay for weapons and military equipment.

Of the wage control dispute which has paralyzed the Wage Stabilization Board since the withdrawal of its three labor members, Mr. Johnston said, "So long as there is any hope left, I intend to keep on meeting with management and labor in an effort to get a wage board back at work."

Crane (Continued from Page 1) Both have denied they received any money from Mr. Crane.

Mr. Moran resigned his $16,000-a-year post as city commissioner yesterday after Mayor Impellitteri demanded that he do so or face other proceedings.

Mr. Crane disclosed his decision in a telegram to J. Edgar Redmond, president of the international, who had demanded Mr. Crane's resignation last September under threat of suspension.

In his telegram, Mr. Crane accused the AFL international president of hypocrisy. He said the international was well aware of the local practice of using funds to support political candidates.

In demanding Mr. Crane's resignation from the international office, the union had accused the attorney of hypocrisy. He said the international was well aware of the local practice of using funds to support political candidates.

Mr. Crane replied that the ultimatum didn't explain "in what manner my testimony was detrimental or what section of the IAFW constitution was violated."

After the O'Dwyer-Crane testimony before the Senators about the purported $10,000 contribution, committee counsel Rudolph Halley commented, "One man is lying."

Senator Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., committee chairman, said he asked the Justice Department to let Attorney Irving H. Gray go to New York to cover the entire record of the hearing.

mashe were out or cracked after several performances, so he looked around for a way of making puppet heads that would last.

He tried plastic wood or cellulose fiber ordinarily used to patch wheels which he subjected to plaster molds formed from clay models made by himself. "Dave" found that the new puppets last indefinitely and now makes all his actors' heads out of the new material.

He makes the puppet costumes, which camouflage the three fingers of each hand that activate the characters, on a miniature sewing machine.

Headings the steadily increasing list of his mimes are a clown named Pesty adapted from a comedian in Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," and Yi-Ki-too, an amiable Chinaman, who is sometimes assisted by his brother, Yi-Ki-won, when the situation becomes hazardous for the heroes.

The plot of "Dayo's" basic story calls for Pesty and Yi-Ki-too to be robbed by a red-clad black-masked creature known as the "Phantom" just as they are about to make a down payment on their home. The story relates how the blundering Pesty after five scenes of eerie settings and hilarious situations.

"Dayo" has his own plots with another black-capped crook in a smuggling tale and a futuristic creature known as a red-dish unshaven face who can be substituted as a tough sailor in a smuggling tale and a futuristic creature known as a red-dish unshaven face who can be substituted as a tough sailor in a smuggling tale.

The name is still in the experimental stage and when the kinks are worked out, "Dayo's" will be a new play with characters with movable lips.

He has also equipped himself with his own amplifier and a speaker when he plays before his group's auditors.

His present stage is designed to present from his parents, but he has no idea about the one should be constructed. Since puppeteering is essentially a portable business, he is designing a stage that will fold into one piece and be carried in one hand with the box of puppets and props.

For three years "Dayo's Puppets" has been a one-man show but three months ago the youthful producer hired an assistant, eleven-year old Jimmy Naughton, nephew of 65 Willow Avenue, Larchmont.

Jimmy is the stage manager and takes care of all scene and props effects such as creating doors, windows, and other effects which he has learned to do for a lighted cabinet, Jimmy has been a one-man show for three months.

Surprisingly, "Dayo" always adds his own shows and costumes only the outline of the plot and the various scene changes. The rest is done by the audience.

TWO RIFLES MISSING

Two Winchester rifles with a total value of $102.95 were reported missing yesterday from the Nurnich Arms Company show room at 530 Hasted Avenue, Mamaroneck.

Theodore Wood, an employee, who made the report to police at 9:27 P. M., said that one of the guns was stolen March 15 between 3 and 6 P. M. and that the second gun was taken from the same place on a gun rack in the show room yesterday between 1 and 5 P. M.

Mr. Wood could not immediately supply the serial numbers of the two guns since the records in the office were locked up for the night. Police will send out a teletype alarm on the theft as soon as the numbers are available.

The thefts recall the burglary at the Nurnich Company, an 8th Army staff officer in the parade on an open rack in the store, 15, 1949, when a revolver was stolen. Police will send out a teletype alarm on the theft as soon as the numbers are available.

The only mishap of the huge airport was the explosion of a C-119 flying boxcar cargo plane in the air after it delivered its passengers.

Crane days were filed, instead of the usual single count. Assistant Corporation Counsel Henry H. Crane reported that charges were filed on the recommendation of Mr. Farrell and that the latter asked for the maximum penalty on each charge.

Judge Philiziano retorted that Mr. Farrell came down here to prosecute one of these cases. The court prides itself on the record it has made in these gambling cases and considers itself more severe than any other court in New York State.

Mr. Crane added, "Luckless apparently, Mr. Farrell up so that he in Mount Vernon have to suffer for it."

Corralo was arrested in a first-floor apartment at 186 South 12th Avenue, in a raid of Sheriff's deputies and local police. Also arrested was the tenant of the apartment, Mrs. Ann Penna, thirty-nine, who was fined $500 on a charge of maintaining a place for gambling. He admitted also receiving $150 rent per month for the use of her phone and one room.

charge of auxiliary police training, stated today that first aid classes for the auxiliaries will start the following Monday evening, April 9.

Later, auxiliary police will start their regular police on their beats in the radio patrol cars at the headquarters desk.

Establishment of a Chaplain Service in each office of Civil Defense is urged in a directive from the New York State Civil Defense Commission, which has been sent to all members of the clergy in the Village.

Member of the Chaplain Service will participate in public information, recreation, welfare and medical services, the directive points out.

"Not only in their sermons, but also as speakers before lay meetings, they can do more to promote the public information and educational program than any other single group," the directive says.

The incorporation of auxiliary police will be held in religious publications and church bulletins should be a regular part of the information program.

The emotional strains as well as the physical shock of a disaster accentuate the importance of auxiliary police, the directive says.

Religious leaders and other welfare institutions must have persons who are trained in first aid and who are familiar with the location of hospitals and fire stations.

The Emergency Medical plan should provide for the assignment of chaplains to all fixed installations, such as clearing stations and emergency hospitals, and for the assignment of chaplains to the field as set up near the scene of disaster.

Religious rites for the dead are an integral part of the Mortuary Service plan. Chaplains of the Rotary Club, the Y, and other organizations should be assigned to all emergency centers which are established.

Chaplains should be requested to arrange for the incorporation of their buildings and of parochial schools under their jurisdiction.

In some localities, religious leaders are already organized into emergency groups, and would prefer to be given responsibility to execute as a group. There should be no difficulty in determining which of these groups should be designated by the U. S. since they are already organized.

Guests at the meeting included John Merritt and Jack Cox of the Post Chester Rotary Club, and Roger Clewer, a student at Belton High School, Stearns V. Rastigier presided.

TV RED INFILTRATION SEEN MAJOR PROBLEM Top notch actors and actresses, most of them unknown, are subscribing to communism by contributions to organizations supporting the Communist Party, it is charged in a report by the Mamaroneck Rotary Club yesterday in a meeting at the Greenlawn Inn.

Mr. Cunliffe, who worked with the U. S. Army counter intelligence and was formerly employed by "Counterattack," spoke on the subject of communist infiltration and infiltration into radio and television and stated that such infiltration is one of the big problems facing the U. S. since World War II.

Guests at the meeting included John Merritt and Jack Cox of the Post Chester Rotary Club, and Roger Clewer, a student at Belton High School, Stearns V. Rastigier presided.

A Scarlati sonata in c major rhythm.

Mr. Templeton was born in Cardiff, Wales, and began his study of piano when he was four years old. He recently returned to Wales to give a benefit concert in honor of Margaret Humphrey, his first teacher.

He won scholarships for study at the Royal College of Music in London and later advanced his musical education at the American Academy of Music.

In 1925 he came to London with Jack Hyton, British band leader and impresario for a series of broadcasts for an oil company. His concert debut was held in the Chicago Orchestra Hall in 1928 and since that time he has played recitals in practically every state of the Union, the provinces in Canada and in the Hawaiian Islands. # Kentucky And Illinois Clash In Final Round Of NCAA Tournament

NEW YORK, (AP)—Kentucky and Illinois, rated two of the best teams in the country, clash tonight for the Eastern NCAA basketball championship in a game that promises thrills galore.

A crowd of more than 18,000 is expected to pack Madison Square Garden for the final New York collegiate double-header of the season. North Carolina State and St. John's of Brooklyn meet in the first to determine third place in the eliminations.

Meanwhile, at Kansas City, Okla., A. & M. and Kansas State will battle for the Western title and the right to meet the Eastern winner for the national crown at Minneapolis on Tuesday. The Asians and K-state reached the final last night by beating Washington and Brigham Young, 61 to 57 and 64 to 54, respectively.

Both Illinois and Kentucky have demonstrated they can come from behind, do not get flustered under pressure, and can explode any time.

On Thursday Illinois, playing against K. C. State's zone defense, calmly sank set shots five minutes to go. Illinois exploded for an 84-70 triumph.

Kentucky tied at 48-48 with five minutes left, broke loose for 16 consecutive points in the remaining minutes.

Larry Goetz Started Umpiring Because He Was Biggest Kid

Associated Press Newsmen's CONCERN: If National League baseball players knew the background of Larry Goetz's start in umpiring they wouldn't give him many arguments.

The 60-year-old Goetz, who will be starting his 16th season in the National League this year, told the story of how he became an umpire.

"I never played any baseball but I was a pretty big kid. Because I was big I was asked to umpire kid games around here. I guess they figured that if they didn't walk off the field when I told them to, I'd beat them out."

Maybe it's because of a combination of being "pretty big" and "pretty good," but Goetz now has 31 years of umpiring behind him. His hair still is jet black and during training doesn't worry him at all.

Larry says he lives the same in winter as in summer—eating two meals a day and playing soccer around 1933.

Goetz related that he started umpiring as the son of the late John Spinney, one-time Cincinnati sporting goods store owner. He called Spinney "the father of baseball in Cincinnati."

Now only Bill Stewart and Babe Pinell exceed him in National League umpiring. He has worked in three World Series and admits that's an umpire's toughest job.

"Nobody can tell me you don't get the tension in a World Series," he said, "although a lot of it lets up as soon as the first ball is pitched in each game."

Two of Goetz's most memorable World Series experiences were working behind the plate in vital games of the 1941 and 1947 fall classics. He was behind the plate when Brooklyn catcher Mickey Owen dropped the third strike that gave the New York Yankees a new lease on life and resulted in a victory over the Dodgers.

He was behind the plate in 1947 when "Cookie" Lavagetto got the hit that broke Floyd Reynolds' bid for a no-hitter.

That also was in a Yankee-Dodger game.

Major Leaguers How They Look: New York Yankees

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Manager Casey Stengel will depend heavily on a good start there, says Casey. The Clipper takes over in center with Hank Bauer, Gene Woodling or Cliff Mapes on either side of him. Jackie Jensen, former California grid and diamond great, also remains from the '50 roster. Although being tried at pitching and playing third base, chances are that Jackie will be a utility outfielder when the season begins. You can't beat the Yankees' double play combination of Phil Rizzuto, shortstop and second baseman Gerry Coleman.

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Manager Casey Stengel will depend heavily on a good start there, says Casey. The Clipper takes over in center with Hank Bauer, Gene Woodling or Cliff Mapes on either side of him. Jackie Jensen, former California grid and diamond great, also remains from the '50 roster. Although being tried at pitching and playing third base, chances are that Jackie will be a utility outfielder when the season begins. You can't beat the Yankees' double play combination of Phil Rizzuto, shortstop and second baseman Gerry Coleman.

Sutphen Tops Fleet In Dinghy Regatta

Despite the fact that he won only one race, Jack Sutphen captured his Run Dum regatta trophy of the pack in all eight races yesterday at Larchmont Harbor and entered with results honors on a 162 point total. The Easter victory was the fourth in 16 regattas this campaign for Sutphen and enabled him to remain a prime contender for the Spring Series title, to be held for the past two years.

Art Knapp thrice raced Agency to first place and defended season title Bobby de Coppet had Zerkon home on top twice but victory was consistent enough to overcome the victor. The victor was second twice, took another part of third, the fourth and wound up fifth twice. Sutphen's wife, Fran, was in her usual crew spot in Run Dum.

De Coppet picked up 149 points to knock out Knapp, who had 156, for second place. Corry Shields piloted Dinky to fourth place in the first of 22 Interclubs, then came Howie Walden in Tri-tone with 150. Gil Shields raced Nimby to 116, and the third of Schleser got 110 with No. 20. Corry Shields won one race as the feature of his 146 1950-51 season. A swift west-southwest breeze of about 20 knots churned up whitecaps in the harbor and kept the skippers on their toes. One of the action puffs that reached 20 knots called Dave Koepfer's Flamingo and turned the boat on the second race and turned the craft over. That was the last casualty of the day.

The inaugural race of the day saw Sid Knoll steer Cold Spot to victory by a good margin.

Saints To Play Tuckahoe Quint At P. C. Tonight

The Larchmont Saints tackle the tough Tuckahoe quintmen in the opener of the Don Bosco Tournament at Port Chester tonight. The Saints have been reactivated especially for this event and the lineup sprinkled with college and high school standouts. Tuckahoe will feature Johnny Amay, Columbia University ace who second more than 1,000 points for the Light Blue in three seasons and was recently named the most-valuable player in the metropolitan area.

The Saints, with Tony Lorceno as captain, will see action against the Port Chester team. Don Scanlon of Penn. Dave Latimer of Seton Hall, Joe Cullen of Manhattan and Bill Brophy of Villanova. From the Westchester high school ranks Lorceno has drawn Ed Petrie of Bellows and Jesse Arnold, now Rochelle stalwart who posted an average of 30 points a game during the past campaign.

Game time is 7:45 P. M. and in the aftermath the Port Chester YMCA youth faces the Yorkers Division.

Major Leaguers How They Look: New York Giants

Associated Press Wirephotos

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—It was 10:30 in the morning when that little paper job of a manager, Leo Durocher, sparking in a blue sports ensemble, came walking through the dressing room door at Miller Field.

It didn't take Leo long to go into a rave over his pitching staff and first base problem straightened out, the team had the best percentage in either league the last two months.

"My field will be stronger," continued Durocher. "It will be stronger in reserve. Bob Hofman has a real good chance to stick in his 266 as Home City Artie Wilson, who hit 328 for Oakland and stole 31 bases, is real fact, and there's always Bill Ringer.

"Henry Thompson will be a better third baseman and Monte Irvin will be a better pitcher. I don't know who can play first base. We're not sure about that. Monte Irvin should be a big help. Why? You know he can play first base in an emergency, but he's not in right with Bobby Thomson in center and Clint Hartung in left.

"Now there's a boy, that Hartung. He's my right fielder. He's through with pitching. Clint or Rondo as we call him, can carry this ball club because he could carry it any other day. When he goes to the plate four times in a game he generally hits one. That's all I ask. In the field, too, he has improved. Every time I go to the plate I see him making good catches.

"I'm making no permanent prediction about this. We're going to be a tough club to beat."

Alvin Gettel, who won 23 games

PETRIE'S TARGET U. OF KENTUCKY; TRACKMEN DRILL

Ed Petrie, brilliant Bellows coach, stepped his basketball wares for Auld Rupp and his University of Kentucky coaching staff at Madison Square Garden Saturday. Petrie's chances for a scholarship to Kentucky were definitely enhanced by the workout and he will make a try to the Blue Orange county in about a month for the final job.

The track squad is in the midst of the finest shooting performances during the 21st annual Southern New York Sports Show opening next week.

The male sports extravaganza will run for six days, April 1 through April 6, and will offer to the hunter, fisherman and sportsman a varied program.

The show is again being produced by J. Hubert O'Connell, Westchester and Lou Mori, noted Providence sportsman, and it again will be sponsored by the Southern N. Y. Fish and Game Association.

Henry Scholten, of Eastchester, head of SYNCRAC's convention forum, has been named show chairman.

The show will obviously be hard at work under Coach Fred Wurzbacher and holiday-week drills have been slated if the boys are to attend. About 25 of the 37-man squad turned out for Friday's session. Wurzbacher has his work cut out for him this year and Bellows will be the number one target in this state after keeping the SWAC and Panther one-up.

Bob Kegan, ace Section sprinter, looks like he is keeping his legs in shape by participating in BBH drills. Keenan is on the Seaside Hall squad, as was Ed Keener, until the ladies joined the team. Ed's reputation as a power forward below shot put and discus star is with an Air Force bursa and he has been enjoying his service.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS... PRAYER FOR TODAY—Enlarge and strengthen my faith dear God... SALES TAX CAN RUIN A COMMUNITY

AS GOVERNOR Thomas E. Dewey struggles to decide whether to sign or veto the Legislature's measure authorizing an increase of New York City's sales tax to 3 per cent, we hope that Westchester residents will concentrate upon the substantial arguments advanced against the increase.

The sales tax boost, it is seriously contended, would be ruinous to New York's future. From time to time the suggestion advanced that this county or one of its municipalities should adopt this "easy" method of getting revenues by charging 1 to 2 or more per cent upon business—really upon every shopper in our home towns.

We have opposed this because it is basically unfair and usually unnecessary. New York, right now, for example, the Governor is being given plenty of powerful statistics to show that such an added tax is wholly unnecessary.

Some municipalities—particularly those along the Bronx border—might find something to be gained from shopping their way into Westchester from there, to escape the burdens of a 3 per cent levy. Regardless of such a prospect, we believe that the Governor will do well to refuse to give our county a warning—if and when a local sales tax proposal arises anew.

POLITICS LESS VITAL THAN VICTORY

ONCE more the argument develops whether the United Nations troops should halt at the 38th Parallel or cross it, whether we should permit the enemy to kill Americans, Britons, Turks and others of the U.N. fighters and yet not permit our own troops to go after them beyond an imaginary line.

It hardly needs reiteration that this is appeasement of the most dangerous sort. More than that, it is military and political suicide. This is to shun combat, to give our own people a handicap for one reason or another. It is a deadly, very deadly war in which the fate of the civilized world may be at stake.

The apparent differences between President Truman, his State Department, General MacArthur and such nations as Great Britain and France, ought to be resolved instantly. Already for weeks and months our people have been laughing up their sleeve and slaughtering American soldiers.

Our ships have been bombarding above the 38th Parallel. So have our planes. Why tie the hands of our troops in the field? What we need for the U.N. forces is more than unity among the civilized nations.

We also need a beautiful blend of common sense and respect, with a formula dedicated to victory rather than surrender.

PUBLIC OPINION FORCED THIS LAW

AN EXAMPLE of how powerful public opinion can be is to be found in the adoption of a law in New York City requiring all policemen to give 30 days notice before retiring.

All police organizations vigorously opposed this measure and, at the outset, many Councilmen of the metropolis shared their view. The right to retire with pension was questioned, as it is our dereliction—to choose a life pension instead of submitting his acts to a Grand Jury for scrutiny is so completely contrary to the public interest that the opposition eventually crumbled.

A public employe not only is obliged to stand for questioning but he must also waive immunity to prosecution as a result of such testimony. He is permitted to abdicate such scrutiny, he can quit—but not with the rich reward of a lifetime pension.

It is only because of the shameful series of retirements with pension and non-charge to the public and its agencies of law enforcement that the public became aroused.

When indignation among the people can force such a law to be adopted, there is great hope for fundamental reforms.

The Counselor

WAR DOCUMENTS Question: I am listing in this letter some documents in which I am interested. They are in the form of pamphlets and would like to know where copies may be obtained.

R. S. Answer: Write to the Superintendent of Documents, Department of State, Government Printing Office, Washington 25 D. C. and ask to have those pamphlets mailed to you. Since there will be a charge for each, you might be wise to write first asking for a price list.

EXTRA DAY Question: To settle an argument, will you please let me know whether Leap Year comes every fourth year without exception? My wife insists that sometimes Leap Year is skipped altogether.

D. R. Answer: While we dislike stepping into family arguments, we must admit that your wife is correct. Leap Year is skipped because of a year consisting of 365 days and six hours. These extra hours are set aside, and at the end of every fourth year, make an additional day.

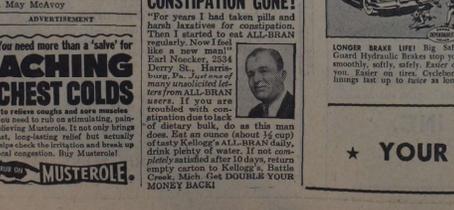

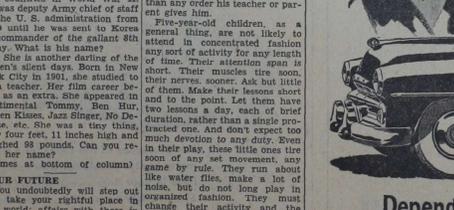

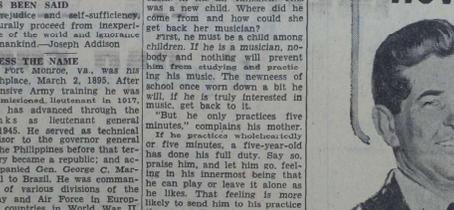

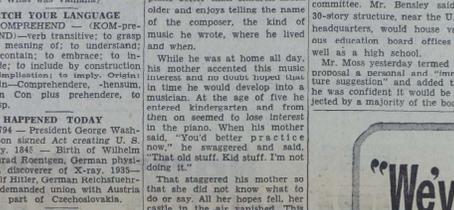

However, an exception is made in the case of those years that can be divided by 400, but cannot be divided by 400. For example, the years 1400, 1800 and 1900 were not Leap Years because they could not be divided by 400.

The reason for skipping Leap Year on an occasional year is because the addition of a full day every four years is too much. It makes the calendar come out even.

HONOR WORKING MAN

Question: Can you tell me where, when and why of Labor Day? A. M. Answer: Labor Day originated in New York City. In 1882 the Knights of Labor held a parade on the first Monday in September. Two years later, in 1894, a similar parade. The idea caught on and it was decided to dedicate the first Monday in September to Labor. By 1944, all the states except Alabama were observing Labor Day.

Incidentally, the "why" of Labor Day is to honor the working man. It is a day when we pause to appreciate the contributions of those who make our lives possible.

Some observers think the American people have developed a tolerance for chicanery. It seems the only place a fast buck is unpopular is a riding academy.

Current investigations just go to prove how you get along depends on knowing the right or wrong people.

In New York the Kefauver probe proves you can get along if you know the wrong people.

In Washington the Fulbright probe proves you can get along if you know the right people.

Pretty soon the House American activities committee will try to prove some people get along by knowing left people.

PRIVATE FLYING SAFE, AIR CONFERENCE HEARS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Private flying now is approximately as safe as horse and buggy travel was in 1909, an air safety conference was told today.

The comparison was made in a report prepared by the aviation safety center of Cornell University. The center is supported by the General Aviation Foundation.

The report said commercial flying is now twice as safe as in 1909, and private flying is now twice as safe as in 1909.

Mr. Moss yesterday termed the proposal a personal and "immature suggestion" and added that he was confident it would be rejected by a majority of the board.

A Glance Backward

A DECADE AGO (From The Daily Times) Yugoslavia took new defense measures soon after a military coup d'etat had overthrown King Peter II on the throne.

Stephen Johnston and William E. Stephens were the leading candidates for the second assistant or "balby chief" nomination as Halstead Manor Company took its turn at nominating an official of the Mamaroneck Volunteer Fire Department.

William Murray of Barry Avenue and Lloyd Murray of Fourth Street were promoters in the ROTC unit at New York University. By the scant margin of one vote over the requisite 26, the State Senate voted to approve the constitutional amendment which would divert $50,000,000 from unexpended trade crossing elimination funds to highway and highway improvements throughout the state.

The Larchmont Lions Club presented Manuel Salinas with a gold key ring after he had resigned prior to moving his residence to Philadelphia. Tub or roll material was featured at local food markets for 34 cents per pound. On the meat list was roast beef at 25 cents per pound. Winter season's equipment took over first place in The Daily Times Bowling League by downing the Dodgers.

Eddie Schwartzreich, Bill Kurz and Chester Pasano were members of the Mamaroneck 75-gers wrestling team that competed in the eighth annual Westchester Tournament.

President Joseph Gleason of the Mamaroneck Board of Education laid the cornerstone of the Junior High School, then being erected on West Boston Post Road.
