

TALKING IT OVER

By CHARLES KING

If Edward J. (Ed) Storey read page five, section three, of Sunday's New York "Herald-Tribune" with care, he would not have been Stanley Woodward's remarks on "giving the game back to the boys" which were couched in the column "Views of College Sports."

Assuming Mr. Storey did read Mr. Woodward's opinions on the subject, the chances are there was a "letter to the editor" in the mails before sundown on Tuesday.

Write Mr. Woodward, "Giving the game back to the boys" has reared its ugly head again, this time at Yale. Ogden L. Miller, chairman of the board of athletic control, says Yale will keep its football coaches off the bench this fall. If opponents will agree to do the same thing.

It is hoped with some optimism, the writer continues, "that the prospective opponents will quash the scheme." ... Cornell and Harvard already have notified the school that they will have no truck with any such multiplicity. The others probably can be counted on to turn down the proposition.

The coach's letter, which was tried out in the Try Baseball League a year ago and was rejected because the players didn't like it, this department's reaction is that it is not safe for college boys to play football except under the direction of a competent man who knows all the angles."

Mr. Storey and others of his school of "progressive physical education," as Elmer S. Vance of New Rochelle claims that the time is coming when the boys will know the game and maintain a level ten to ten off.

I have heard him characterize assertions of opponents, who cite Mr. Woodward's "safety under the coach" dogma in Mr. Woodward's own phraseology: "military discipline."

Mr. Storey's school of thought contends that athletes, especially footballers, know before game time whether they'll be "safe" or not. "If they're learned enough and tackle, the safety coach is not worth mentioning," he asserts.

All that worry can be eliminated by playing boys who have learned their lessons properly during the game.

TITANS DEADLOCK VETERANS AT 2-2

By CHARLES KING

One of the finest softball games of any season was witnessed for over an hour before more than 300 spectators at Mamaroneck Avenue School last night as the Titans, Titans and Veterans of Foreign Wars Drum Corps battled to a 2-2 deadlock.

Little Claudio Ruggerio and Paul Bolling, the expert pitcher, looked up in a pitching duel. With six balls of play behind them, the Titans scored on the V. F. W. turn.

Up to that time he had allowed but three hits and had blanked the Titans in every inning since the first.

But as the dusk gathered over the field as the Titans came to bat, Bolling was separated from four runs by the Titans in the first half of the frame.

The Titans scored once in the first and added five more runs in the third. Up to that time he had allowed but three hits and had blanked the Titans in every inning since the first.

Outfielder Draws Walk In Fifth, Advances On Ritz's Long Fly Then Crosses Plate As McCaffrey Throws High; Both Hurlers Give Up Two Hits In WIAA Game

By ROY HICHELSON

The baseball team representing Mamaroneck High School went through the acid test yesterday afternoon, and emerged with flying colors. In one of the greatest schoolboy pitching duels ever seen on Mamaroneck Field, the Tigers secured one run on an error and that proved to be enough to defeat New Rochelle by a 1-0 count. The triumph was Mamaroneck's first straight and their third W.I.A.A. success.

Both teams entered the contest having met each other in previous encounters, but the Orange capitalized on a pair of Mamaroneck misplays in the fifth frame to score the one run that swung the tide of battle.

Carpino, who had pitched well in the first two frames, was the pitcher of the day. He pitched a perfect game, allowing only two hits and one run. He pitched a perfect game, allowing only two hits and one run.

PROBE HYDE PARK DYNAMITE PLOT

State Police Discredit Story Of Explosive Planted On Roosevelt Estate

MAMARONECK—State police and secret service agents today investigated a story told by a carpenter for the Roosevelt estate at Hyde Park that he had planted dynamite on the estate.

Capt. J. A. Gaffney, commanding officer of the Tenth Regiment, said he believed "there was nothing in the story."

President Roosevelt is confined to his bed in the White House with a stroke almost but it was said he planned to come to Hyde Park for the week-end if he is able.

The carpenter, whose name is withheld, gave his information yesterday to secret service operatives at the Summer White House. He said he passed up the information about 35 years old, on the road when their car broke down. They told him, he related, they had just planted dynamite on the estate.

BRAYES GET LITTLE PAIN
HOSYON—Lloyd Little (Pain) Wacey who with Paul (Pain) Wacey made up one of baseball's greatest "brother acts" for more than a decade, was traded by the Pirates yesterday to the Braves for pitcher Nick Strassburg.

Strassburg, a right-handed pitcher, 6 feet 1 inch tall and weighing 160 pounds, ended his membership with the Braves by being shipped off the field for missing the umpire's call for a strike last year.

He is 23 and was four and a half years old when he was born in the East.

FOODMEN ROUTED BY HALSEYS, 10-1

Tipico's Triple Tots 8th inning, 8-run Tornado Against Tote.

On the eve of the season's first night, it was seen as though the first exhibition of power hitting was staged at Mamaroneck of the Mamaroneck Division, Recreation Softball League.

But the Halsey A. C. which triumphed 10-1, did it on seven hits, eight of the tallies coming in the fourth inning when the batters got a season's supply of errors out of their system.

Going into the fourth, the teams were deadlocked at one-oh. Tony Vitt, Halsey hurler, and Ernie Tote, pitcher for the Foodmen, were in the box.

Phil Quercia, first up, singled to center. Jack Armstrong, error on Grandstand's short, Red O'Neill singled to left, but a fast relay cut Quercia off at the plate. Things looked sour enough at this juncture but for Castimore, who hit a home run.

The Halsey team scored in the first as a pitcher's error, leading to a home run by Jim Vitt. The Foodmen scored in the second as a pitcher's error, leading to a home run by Jim Vitt.

The Halsey team scored in the third as a pitcher's error, leading to a home run by Jim Vitt. The Foodmen scored in the fourth as a pitcher's error, leading to a home run by Jim Vitt.

LABRUSCIANO SCORES IN 440, PREVENTING SWEEP BY RIVALS

Quarter-Mile 1st Lone Panther Victor; Sullivan, Scarsdale, Vaults 11 Feet, 3 Inches As Merwin, Castimore, Gain Double Triumphs At Daniel Warren School.

Just as everyone expected, the closing track team representing Scarsdale High School turned back the Bellows squad with plenty to spare when the teams met at the Daniel Warren field yesterday afternoon. By winning ten of the 11 events, the charges of Fred Wehner emerged victorious by a score of 69 to 26.

The lone Panther to gain a first place in the meet was little Albert Labrusciano in the 440-yard run. He won the race in 1:12.2, a time in two years, came on in the last 20 yards to overtake two Scarsdale runners and win in the excellent time of 1:12.2.

Labrusciano held second position as long-legged Ted Tote shot to the front. Midway through the race, Tote sprang from the lead, but Albert put a beautiful stretch drive to keep his perfect record intact.

Tom Forte and Ralph Manella each placed second in two events. In the 100-yard dash, Forte gained three points in the 100-yard dash, while Manella placed third in the 100-yard dash.

Miss Snow To Speak
On Library Program

Mamaroneck will be represented on the program by Miss Helen Snow, librarian, Bellows High School, when the trustees of the New York Adult Education and Library Extension Division meet in joint session with the Westchester Library Association, on Saturday.

The morning session, which will be opened at 10 A. M. by an address by George P. O'Neill, president of the Board of Trustees, will be devoted to business of the Adult Education and Library Extension Division. Services the division can render to local libraries will be discussed by Dr. Frank L. Tolman, director of the division, and Miss Anna Clark Kennedy, senior supervisor of school libraries.

Teachers, Parents
Defend Rug Books

A hundred New Rochelle parents and teachers were virtually unanimous in support of the Rug Book controversy in which the American League and other organizations branded the books as subversive.

Accused Dr. Stevenson, vice president of the New York State Education Council, found himself virtually alone in criticism of the social studies books. He declined to call the books subversive, but said they were woefully inaccurate and failed to present fairly the underlying philosophy of the American Government.

At Least They Spend
Comfortable Nights

LEESBURG, Ga. (AP)—The Agricultural Adjustment Administration sent a committee to investigate the needs of a Negro family which recently had obtained 13 mattresses.

The committee reported it found six of the mattresses on one bed, four on another and three on the third. The mattresses had been so high that its occupant had to climb onto a chair to get into it.

CONDUCTORS AS FAT MEN

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Order of Railway Conductors, one of the "big four" rail unions, disclosed today it had asked two railroads for 15 per cent wage increases, indirectly to sound out sentiment on a nation-wide pay boost in the industry.

They spoke with Willis Thomson, supervisor of James A. Koenig, who defended the books at the Huguenot Town Meeting.

Two Musical Groups
Unite For Concert

The Westchester Chamber Music Society and the New York University Glee Club will present a joint concert of choral and orchestral music tomorrow night at 8:30 in the Little Theatre of the County Center, White Plains.

According to Maurice Zuckert, director of the Chamber Music Group, the first half of the program will be devoted to choral singing, the last half being exclusively to the society. The two organizations will join bands only at the end when they perform "The Paladins," N. Y. U's college song.

CITY OF MOUNT VERNON

In preparing for the defense of American liberties, economy will play a vital role. Government, national, state, local, must lighten the other burdens of the Taxpayer so that he may be the better able to meet his share of the cost of defense.

City officials, throughout the nation, must realize that this obligation of economy rests heavily on their shoulders. For the local unit of government draws its revenues largely from real estate, and the real estate tax, reflected in rentals, reaches into every corner of our national economy, affects the price of everything. Thus a sane restraint on real estate taxes is also an essential factor in price control.

Recognizing this great obligation of municipal economy, the City of Mount Vernon has inaugurated a number of reform measures to cut costs without impairing essential services to its residents.

Still another way to reduce real estate taxes is to widen their distribution by increasing the number of owners. To this end the City of Mount Vernon will offer for sale at absolute auction, on Tuesday evening, May 27, all real estate in its possession, improved and unimproved, and not required for its uses.

Held by the city, this real estate means a loss of tax money. In private hands, especially when improved with homes, apartments and business structures, it will be revenue yielding both to the city and the owners of new houses, apartments and business buildings.

In times like these, real estate is the best of all investments, more particularly in a community where the officials are mindful of the obligation to economize.

Mrs. C. B. Brush Pays Tribute To Friendship; Princess Gives Indian Program

Mrs. C. B. Brush, president, presided at the annual luncheon for more than 300 members and guests of the Larchmont Woman's Club yesterday afternoon. In saying that "friendship and friendship are the two most important things in the world," she was one of the many who spoke at the closing party of the club.

Against the Spring gaiety of the costumes of Princess Te Ata, Chachama Indian, great-granddaughter of the great chief, was a quiet contrast. Following her introduction by Mrs. Deane Egan, program chairman, the Princess presented a dramatic interpretation of the Long Ago Time of the Indians, chanting songs which were the last of a ceremonial dance.

Austrian Pianist To Perform On Bellow's PTA Program

Fritz Kramer, noted Austrian pianist, will play in an informal concert at the installation of officers by the Frederick E. Bellow Parent Teachers Association, tomorrow evening, in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Kramer, who is at present a guest of Eric Zlot at Stuart Avenue, has just completed a series of concerts in the New England States. He first arrived in the United States in the Fall of 1939 from London on a seven-week tour through Canada, California and Western States, then came back to New York for a series of recitals with N. B. Co. of the Magic Key program. He returned to London to complete arrangements for his own piano arrangements for the BBC.

His concert appearances have included Boston Symphony Hall, where Fritz Kramer of NBC Chicago directed. Later he contracted with the Boston Symphony, where he played at the Philadelphia Academy in New Hampshire. Mr. Kramer has circled the world three times on musical tours, playing and directing concerts with various musical groups. He has come to the conclusion that there isn't really any "light" and "serious" music, but only "good" and "bad" music. "Living with music," he said, "is the same as living with art. Such composers as Cole Porter, Jerome Kern and the best of the moderns are not only good, but they are also good."

ENGLAND STILL COLD: KNITTERS STILL NEEDED

Bundles For Britain Makes Nation-Wide Appeal For Volunteer Workers

To help meet the increased demand for knitted garments, the War Relocation Authority is appealing for volunteer workers to knit for the British.

The appeal is being made in the form of a booklet, "Knitting for Britain," which is being distributed to all members of the War Relocation Authority.

The booklet contains instructions on how to knit, and lists the types of garments that are needed. It also contains a list of the names of the volunteer workers who are needed.

The booklet is being distributed to all members of the War Relocation Authority. It is also being distributed to all members of the War Relocation Authority.

EX-CHAMPS FACE HOME STANDS IN FOURTH POSITION

(By the Associated Press)

The heaviest pressure in the major leagues today is not on the first-place clubs. It is on the World Champion Cincinnati Reds and the once invincible New York Yankees, both of whom are in fourth place in their respective leagues and virtually at the crossroads of the pennant trip.

Their predicaments are strangely similar. Both have lost five of their past seven games. Each has had trouble finding out its pitching staff, each has been in a hitting slump, each will be at home today and tomorrow for a two-game series with the league leaders—the Brooklyn Dodgers at Cincinnati, and the Cleveland Indians at New York.

The Reds were humiliated 12-1 yesterday by the Chicago Cubs and left staggering on the fourth place in the National League. The Dodgers, on the other hand, have won five in a row and 20 of their past 25 since getting out of the wrong for a night.

The Yankees, who finished last in the American League last season, are also having trouble. They have lost four of their last five games and are in a hitting slump.

The Cardinals, who were in first place yesterday, 4-2, with a 10-0 victory over the St. Louis Browns, are also having trouble. They have lost four of their last five games and are in a hitting slump.

The only Yankees victory in the past seven games was a surprise conquest last week at Cleveland when the Indians still had their heads in the clouds from a game winning streak.

Archibald Triumphs In Washington Bout

WASHINGTON (AP)—Joy Archibald, a little fighting man from Providence, R. I., had come to recognition today as the rising contender for the National Flying Featherweight title.

Archibald guided a split decision over Harry Jeffra of Baltimore, last night in a bout that served as a test for the featherweight situation.

Jeffra, who lost a disputed decision to Archibald two years ago, but reversed the verdict in Baltimore in 1940, was recognized, prior to last night, as the featherweight titleholder in New York, Maryland, Pennsylvania and California.

Referee Eddie La Pore said his two judges, Bob Miller and James Sullivan, decided Archibald's right before the fight, at which time selection of entries into their books will be determined.

The 1961 racing season for Long Island Sound was ushered in by Larchmont's Horseshoe Harbor Yacht Club yesterday afternoon with the year's first Special Sunday regatta, not quite 24 hours after Commodore Rodney Ollinger had presided over Horseshoe's commissioning ceremony.

Saturday's competition was limited to a team race between Internationals off Larchmont, which was captured handily by Don Miller's Bready, an entry of the vic-

Only 23 craft elected to compete yesterday. There were plenty of sails on the Sound, but the consensus aboard Fred Horton's com-

Committee boat was that the 25-mile northwester was responsible for the apparent lack of interest.

Corney Shields Aileen triumphed in the field of eight internationalals over an 11-mile course which

In Met Tournament

Angelo Caprizo excelled with a three-game total of 616 pins as the St. Thomas Blue team posted a 3-0 record.

2,136 totals in the Metropolitan championships at the Ossining Recreation Saturday night.

Caprizo as forced to share individual high game laurels with the veteran Wiltmer Russell when both overcame a 10-0 deficit.

Howell Perrin, of Horseshoe Harbor, who is handicapper for the L. I. S. Yacht Racing Association, acted as regatta chairman on Saturday and selected the International teams.

By winning, Brenda broke a losing streak which had extended the better part of two years. Sailed by Phil Howard, she amassed a 50-foot lead over George Esselborn's Myth at the leeward mark. Arthur Brown and Jules Recher, will compete in doubles. Singles entrants will also see action Friday.

The Blues' scores:

Caprizo	206	150	230	616
Recher	168	146	166	479

Knapp, captain of the Blue team, successfully tacked across Brendy's bow, but the latter reasserted herself to triumph by a fulsome margin.	Grosso	128	94	190	512

The site of the first English settlement in the New World — the Port Raleigh section of Roanoke Island—has been acquired by the national park service for permanent preservation, Harold L. Ick recently announced. The place where the first English child, Virginia, was born, is now a national monument. Sir Walter Scott was not entirely dependent on his writings for a living. For 25 years he was sheriff, a sort of justice of Selkirkshire, and also a clerk of the court of Edinburgh, Scotland. The Virginia Dare, was born 354 years ago. Two positions paid him about $8,000 a year and took little of his time.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor creases and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. The left edge of the page is bound, and the overall tone is a warm, off-white or light beige.
