

Redskin Nine Cops Third Straight; Bellucci Shuts Out Americans

Carl Kniesch, Top Moundsman, Signed By Laronck Outfit

Announce that the Laronck, the Mamaroneck-Larchmont entry in the Interstate Coast League, will be a power in loop competition was provided yesterday when Harry Talgo, managing the Laronck outfit, announced that he had signed Carl Kniesch, a head-line hurler from Long Island, to head the team's hurling staff.

Kniesch, who most recently hurled for Floral Park, has a solid background of efficiency which rivals the marks established by Roy Stephenson, regarded as the top softball hurler in metropolitan New York. He not only pitches but also is a strong arm at the plate that he was often used in other positions when not on the mound. The veteran pitcher chained together many brilliant hurling feats while with Floral Park, and the former O'Rourke Braves and Liberty Aircraft, all Long Island teams.

The new Laronck moundsman hurled the Floral Park team to one title at Jones Beach in the pre-war era, led the Bombers to several titles in the Rockville Center League and pitched the Liberty Aircraft team to the Long Island Defense League crown and to the Metropolitan A. S. A. laurels during the war.

Several seasons ago while working for Liberty Aircraft and playing in the Middle Atlantic States A. S. A. tournament in Rochester he turned in the first perfect game in the regional play history, a feat duplicated only once and that time by Stephenson.

Among his records are a remarkable league mark of 14 unruns and only three defeats while hurling for the Bombers in the Metropolitan-Major League. His only setbacks were a 1-0 loss at the hands of the Long Island City Athletics and two 1-0 losses, 1-0 and 2-1, both to Stephenson and the Grumman outfit. Both games went the limit with the 2-1 loss decided in the final frame and Grumman beating him in extra innings in the world championship tournament at Cleveland.

Kniesch batted .200 in 21 games, a remarkable record in top-flight softball, and has racked up numerous low hit affairs in his brilliant career on the abbreviated diamond. Oddly enough, however, one of his best performances came three years ago at Rockville Center, L. I., when he hurled an entire 24-inning game only to drop a 2-1 decision to the Grumman team which has seemed to be his jinx through the years. Meanwhile, the remainder of the squad is being assembled and will probably consist of top-flight local establishers. Announcement of members of the team will be made as Talgo, who is being assisted by Charlie Grönberg, get their consent to play.

Industrial Commissioner Edward Corsi said the order, effective Monday, permitted the State Labor Department to prosecute violators.

The wage order was promulgated.

McLeod Halts Manzoni In Hurling Duel

Duncan McLeod, in real trouble only in the seventh frame, pitched the Redskin to a 2-1 win over the Manzoni Lodge squad last night in as tight a game as has been seen in many a moon.

The Redskin hurler allowed only three hits, two of them in the last inning when he yielded the only Manzoni run on bingles by Phil Querica, Rigano and C. v. Old Forge. Flint Park, 6:30 P. M.

The winning run came in the top of the seventh and Reiling started the rally with one out. He hit safely and was moved up by Al Hanrahan's sacrifice. Ed Stockman then came through with the clincher, punching a hit through the infield to send Reiling in with the run which essentially decided the game.

Taverns' Rally Wins, 6-0, In Larchmont

With Pat Bellucci hurling three-hit ball the Taverns of the Larchmont Softball League had no trouble as all last night as they thrashed the Americans by 6-0 at Flint Park.

Curiously enough it was Joe Bellucci who got two of the three safeties off Pat but he was wiped out in a double play after singling in the second and was left stranded when a twin killing knocked off Lee Gibson and Nick Staropoli in the fifth. Johnny Smirge Annexes Crown In Singles Alley Tournament

Johnny Smirge, whipping Ora Spencer by 2-1, nailed down the Town Singles bowling title as he capped the three games with a 225 string.

Smirge rolled a two-game margin over both Don Goetze and Chet Russell. Smirge rolled a tight match against Spencer and the issue was decided in the first game when both leaders were hit. Spencer lost that one by a 225-224 margin, but in the second and third games he dropped the third to the new champion.

Roads Being Missing

Edward Kline, owner of the "Red Key" Restaurant, 743 Mamaroneck Avenue, Mamaroneck, told Village police yesterday that $1 worth of coal had been stolen by someone who entered the restaurant the night before through a cellar window.

Detective Sgt. William O'Neill and Detective Jerry J. Gagnier state that the thief apparently entered by breaking a small pane of glass, then opening the window from the outside. The police investigation will continue.

Three other Magrinos, Michael, Jr., James and Donald, who served in the Pacific Theater during the war, Michael and Daniel were in the Marine Corps and James was a Seabee. Daniel is at home on leave from the Marine Base at Quantico, Va. John's homecoming reunited the four brothers for the first time since 1943.

A graduate of Bellows High School, John was discharged after issuing daily rations for civilian consumption in Vienna.

50th Parade

One man who will participate in the Memorial Day ceremonies in Larchmont will be marching for his fifth straight year. He is George M. Fayet of the Park Plaza Apartments, Mamaroneck, department judge advocate of the United Spanish War Veterans, who started his parading as a young man when he marched by the side of the Civil War veterans. Mr. Fayet, in accepting Commander B. F. McGrath's invitation to march again this year, he stated that he was "nurtured in memories of the Civil War in which three of my uncles served, as likewise the father of Mrs. Fayet."

"It seems to me," he said in conclusion, "to remember our honored dead each Memorial Day."

McLain Edits Bulletin

Joseph C. McLain, principal of Mamaroneck High School and president of the New York State Association of Secondary Principals, is responsible this year for publication of the Principal's Bulletin, the association's semi-annual magazine.

The first edition was turned out by the Larchmont High School and will also publish the second edition in the Fall. McLain's Bulletin was edited by John Sack, editor-in-chief of The Record, student paper of Mamaroneck Senior High School.

Mrs. Truman's Condition Shows No Improvement

GRANDVIEW, MO., (AP)—President Truman's "very weak" mother showed no improvement today, raising the possibility she may remain here indefinitely unless there is a decided change for the better.

Mrs. Truman told reporters at 2:30 A.M. that Mrs. Martha S. Truman's condition was "just about the same" this morning and that she didn't have a very good night.

AMENDMENT DEFERRED

WHITE PLAINS.—The Westchester Health Department reported today that an ordinance to regulate the use of fumigants was not passed at a meeting of the Board of Health yesterday but has been put aside for further consideration. Legion Sets Memorial Day Plans

Post 347 Plans Parade and Two Observances in Larchmont

CAPT. GEORGE C. CURRIER, USNR, has been selected as grand marshal.

Plans for Memorial Day observance in Larchmont under the direction of Larchmont Post 347 of the American Legion, are nearing completion, Commander B. F. McGrath announced today. Commemorative ceremonies will be held at the honor roll in Station Park and also at the honor roll on the Larchmont Village Green.

The Commandant of Post 347, McGrath, announced that the Legion's largest Memorial Day parade will pass along Village streets between the two honor rolls.

Capt. George C. Currier, USNR, has been selected as grand marshal. Capt. Currier is a member of Post 347's district naval procurement officer on the Staff of the Naval Station, 23rd Naval District.

In making his announcement, Commander McGrath stated that this is the one time of the year when we have the opportunity to pay tribute to our comrades-in-arms who have made the supreme sacrifice. It is our chance to demonstrate by our presence—service men, ex-service men, families and friends—that we do not forget them, nor will we ever forget them. It is a duty that we owe them. Soviet Army Looted Korea, Breiter States

The Russian army of occupation in Korea grabbed whatever loot was available after Japan's surrender and seized all public utilities. Dr. Bernard Breiter of Harrison, an army surgeon in Korea during the occupation, told the Mamaroneck Rotary Club yesterday in the Blue Haven Inn.

The Russians, who occupied the upper half of the country, were unassessable and selfish in their demands, according to the speaker, who offered several illustrations from his own experience.

Every city in Korea is tabbed with three names, he said, the Chinese, Japanese and Koreans each calling it by titles of their own selection. Politics in the country is "Soviet, American, Chinese" to numerous political parties.

An unusual fact was revealed by the speaker, stated that 70 white people could be found in Korea by the occupation troops. He claimed that President Roosevelt and Joseph Stalin divided the country two ways while the line was drawn with the line drawn at a 38 degree angle.

The Rotary Club voted a $25 donation in this year's honor for the speaker, Dr. C. M. McLain, president, introduced the guest speaker.

Greek Aid Plan Facing A Delay

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Truman's difficulty in finding a top-notch man to run the American aid program in Greece has been delayed in getting the operation underway.

The State Department already is reported to be acquiring a $100,000 RFC loan to finance the first of the $400,000,000 undertaking to buttress Greece and Turkey against any extension of Soviet power over those countries.

State Plans Probe Into N. Y. Relief

Luxury Cases Lead To Sweeping Inquiry Into City Welfare

O'DWYER IS SILENT

NEW YORK, (AP)—The State Department of Social Welfare was ready today to begin a sweeping investigation of the administration of New York City's welfare department as a result of disclosures that 97 relief families were living in expensive hotel suites because of the housing shortage.

State Social Welfare Commissioner Robert T. Landon stepped out of a meeting of the State Social Welfare Board at Albany today to announce that the board planned a full investigation of public assistance administration in New York City. Two Republicans and one Democrat will form the investigating committee.

Named to the investigating committee are Robert T. Landon, State Social Welfare Commissioner; Charles M. O'Dwyer, State Senator and chairman of the New York State Supreme Court Justice; and William O'Brien, of New Rochelle, a welfare store executive, both Republicans; and Herbert A. Wolff, of White Plains, lawyer and Democrat.

Mr. O'Dwyer, who has let it be known that he feels the department is doing a good job in the face of a shortage of personnel, is housing the increasing relief clients and the high cost of living, had no immediate comment on the State board action.

Neither had Republican Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, said his executive assistant, James C. Hagerty. Mr. Dewey had ordered an analysis and survey of City relief policies after disclosure that relief families had been placed in hotels at monthly costs running up to $100.

The State pays 80 per cent of direct relief costs.

The drug was discovered at the meeting by Dr. A. J. Liebman, Dr. D. Peristino and Dr. G. A. Snyder, directors of the laboratory.

Legion Post 347, The American Legion, has prepared in all particulars with the Honor Roll Committee on its proposed list of local names to be honored. Mr. Cargill, who is chairman of the committee, said that members of the bereaved families check closely the spelling of the 47 names. Any error should be reported to the Honor Roll Committee or the American Legion.

GOP SWINGS ECONOMIC REFORM AT AGRICULTURE BUDGET

MOVE FOR 32 PERCENT CUT

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee swung its economy axe at Agriculture Department today, recommending a 32 per cent budget cut.

In sending to the House floor an $87,153,576 bill for the department for the year starting July 1, the committee chopped $28,147,142 from President Truman's budget estimates.

The amount approved is $49,006,434 less than the department had to spend this year. It includes $2,000,000 in new authorizations and $10,429,719 in permanent appropriations.

To back up its contention that less federal money is needed, the report quoted statistics submitted by Anderson showing that between 1940 and 1946 the value of farmers' livestock, equipment and crops rose $1,400,000,000. The report also stated that the value of farm lands rose 20 per cent.

Farm savings from $4,200,000,000 to $8,300,000,000 during those years, with farmers' debts dropped from $10,000,000,000 to $8,300,000,000, the report said.

"Here, then, is unparalleled testimony to the splendid conditions of American agriculture," it declared.

The committee's major cuts were directed at the Federal Home Administration, an offshoot of the old Farm Security Administration, the Soil Conservation Service, the Crop Insurance Program, and the School Lunch Program.

Of the total recommended reduction, $148,000,000 was accounted for by transfer from the Agriculture Department to the Treasury Department. The Agriculture Department's total budget for 1947 is $116,000,000.

One heretofore allowed for various farm programs, including the school lunch program and conservation payments.

Some farmers come from customs duties, 30 percent of which had been earmarked for the Agriculture Department. The President's budget had contemplated the use of $100,000,000 of this money for benefit payments to farmers.

The committee said, however, that its action on the "action 32" money should not be taken to mean that similar action should be taken in future years.

"This fund is intended to provide relief in emergency periods when a surplus problem exists," said its action on the "action 32" money, however, does not exist at the present time.

The committee also recommended a 25 per cent cut in public relations and publicity activities of the school lunch program. The allotment for the school lunch program was cut from $75,000,000 to $56,250,000.

NY Methodists Hear Reports At Conference

POUGHKEEPSIE, (AP)—Dr. Frank Glenn Lambert, dean of Brothers College at Drew University, Madison, N. J., says that some professors of science and technology have "materialistic and mechanical interpretations of life."

Religion belongs in the schools and colleges as a guide to their curriculum and moral foundation which they need to lead them into a better social order," Dr. Lambert told the New York conference of the Methodist Church last night.

Bishop G. Bromley Oxley is presiding at the four-day conference meeting which opened yesterday. The 47 ministers attending heard that conference membership was 30,000, highest in its 148-year history; that the conference had paid off $1,152,475 of a $2,005,484 debt, and that enrollment in church schools showed a 1,302 increase.

Committee Approves Bill On Night Work

HARTFORD, (AP)—Connecticut today passed a bill which would permit women to work in the early morning hours if a bill approved by the General Assembly Labor Committee becomes law.

The measure yesterday was endorsed by a 9 to 3 vote by two committee members refrained from voting.

Child Of Future To Know All About Foods

MAURICE McKERNAN

WRITE PLAINS — Westchester's child of the future will reach for a glass of milk instead of a candy bar, as a matter of course, and what his mother doesn't know about vitamins, he'll tell her.

This will be after completion of plans now underway to develop nutritional education in Westchester Schools as an integrated part of social studies, public health, physical education and other subjects. The plans are being developed by the Nutrition Committee of the County Council of Social Agencies.

The educational campaign is being formulated as the result of a survey of school lunch programs, done under the guidance and advice of the State Department of Education. Mrs. Lillian Frank, Larchmont, is chairman of the committee which has just sent to all school principals and superintendents the findings of the survey.

Based on the premise that the best way to produce a properly fed population is to teach children make their own wise selections of food, the problem of improving the nutrition of Westchester's citizens should be largely one of class-room instruction.

This is because most schools of Westchester, the survey reveals, do not have need of a school lunch program where so much the nutrition program is resident.

The Sports Spotter

BY THE SPORT EDITOR

ONE THING NEARLY... They hemmed and they hawed and then they heaved and they heaved at Mamaroneck Avenue School Field last night—and it will be over whether it is to play the game between the Foodmen and Legion. Both teams tried to pass the buck to Umpire Sam Carriera and to the league secretary. Neither team got away with it and it finally turned out that the game was played.

Whether the field was in North or South was not an important matter. What is important is that some one official should be empowered to declare the field playable or unplayable. At present it is left up to the so-called "home team" to decide whether to play a game or not.

The league officials met at 8:30 tonight in the Daily Times office and this is one problem which they should take up. A team that wants to play, merely because it doesn't want a game postponed, can force play under the present regulations. And last night the boys, and some of the girls, got out there to fix up puddles with beams and shovels and finally got a half-hour late and surprisingly turned into a legitimate battle.

So why not empower one official to declare the field playable or unplayable instead of letting it go to a pair of managers who have differing opinions?

In the recent CIAA championships held at Hampton College, Foster edged in a thrilling dual with Morgan College's Ben Adams and dropped the mile decision by just a matter of a couple of feet. Foster, trained at the beginning of the race, went in front about 100 yards from the tape and then lost to Dixon's last ditch sprint.

The Mamaroneck speedster, however, took the Robert L. Vann Memorial Mile trophy for the second straight year. Nine college competitors in the event and Foster had no real competition for the prize which is awarded at North Carolina College's annual relay carnival.

NEW HAVEN, CONN.—Trustees of the New Haven Railroad have petitioned the United States District Court here for authority to issue equipment trust certificates, subject to approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission, covering the purchase of one-half of the 180 new passenger cars which the road has had on order since a year ago last January. Originally the 180 cars were petitioned to cost approximately $13,500,000. According to the petition just filed, the 90 cars to be covered by the trust certificates will cost $14,475,000. Larchmont Police Make One-Hour Parking Limit Monday In Business Area

Effective Monday, the Larchmont Police Department will enforce the one hour parking restriction on the merchants in the business area, Police Chief William J. Kersey revealed last night at the meeting of the Larchmont Fair Trade Association in the Municipal Building.

Addressing more than 35 members present, Chief Kersey said: "I am sure the merchants will cooperate with the police in an effort to eliminate the serious parking problem in the business section which serves residents of the town as well as the Village."

The merchants could help, he said, by seeing to it that they do not employ more than their cars on side streets rather than from their places of business.

It was agreed that the merchants are the worst offenders causing potential customers to go elsewhere looking for parking space.

Chief Kersey referred to a survey made by the Department made about a year and a half ago on the cars parked at the east side of Main Street. Over a period of four or five days the license plates numbers of 622 cars were taken down, he said. Checking the numbers with the registration files showed that 14 more than a third of the cars were owned by residents of the village. Bureau It was learned that less than 10 per cent of the cars were owned by residents of the Village of Larchmont.

One New Rochellean was asked his reason for parking there and he replied that he lived on Broadway and that the Larchmont Police were closing to his home. He also said that his dog, which he also kept in Larchmont since the stores were closed by the Fair Trade Legion posts, which are two of 40 in the county to send representatives. The growth in popularity of this patriotic activity is indicated by the fact that Westchester County has sent 14 more posts than it did last year.

Strict Inspection Set Up For Soap Box Derby Cars

At 3 Construction Stages

Strict inspection procedure was set up for Soap Box Derby racing cars yesterday at the Manamontek Lions Club steering committee for the derby classic out at the Manamontek Federal Savings and Loan office.

The inspection committee, under Stewart Halley, will check races through every stage of construction and boys will be required to notify the committee when their cars have reached the specific stages at which inspection is required.

Within a week after entry each competitor will receive a letter outlining inspection rules and three post cards will be enclosed. These cards are to be mailed when the cars are ready for inspection. When the cars are completed, when the steering wheels and brakes have been installed, and when the racer is finished except for the final covering. Inspectors will call to examine the car at each stage and competitors may not proceed from one stage to the next until receiving an official O.K.

At the time of the race, the inspection committee also has full authority, not only to inspect changes necessary under the 1947 rules but also to require an entrant to demonstrate his ability to build the car.

President Merrill reported that the larger cities, such as New Rochelle, Mount Vernon, Yonkers and White Plains intend to close Monday while the trend among the smaller communities favors a Wednesday closing.

Although it was impossible for the merchants to agree on the same day for closing, it is expected that a Monday, Wednesday or Saturday closing. Last night's voting showed, however, that a majority of those present favored a Wednesday closing.

Results of a poll taken among the members by mails revealed that, of the slightly more than 50 per cent of the members who responded, they were evenly divided as to a Monday, Wednesday or Saturday closing. Last night's voting showed, however, that a majority of those present favored a Wednesday closing.

Local Legion Posts Choose Hodson and Lightfoot As Boys' State Representatives

William Hodson and John C. Lightfoot

American Legion posts in Manamontek and Larchmont have selected their representatives for Empire State Week to be held from June 22 to 26 at College University, Hamilton, N. Y. They will participate with more than 300 other high school juniors in a practical demonstration of democratic government carried out by the boys themselves.

William Hodson, Manamontek Eagle Scout and a junior at Bellows High School, has been selected by Manamontek Post 80 and the selection of John C. Lightfoot of 26 Rockland Avenue, Larchmont, was announced this week by Merrill Hodson, chairman of the Larchmont Post 347.

The entire cost of the seven-day meeting will be borne by the two Legion posts, which are two of 40 in the county to send representatives. The growth in popularity of this patriotic activity is indicated by the fact that Westchester County has sent 14 more posts than it did last year.

Lightfoot is president of the Junior Class at Manamontek High School and was sophomore president last year. For the last two years he has been quarterback of the football team and a member of the track team. He also plays basketball in the Larchmont and Manamontek Recreation League. He is a member of the High School Club and A Cappella Choir and is active in the Larchmont Aveson Church Young People's Society. He has an average of more than 90 per cent for the year.

Hodson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Hodson, of 812 Stratford Avenue, Manamontek, is a member of the Physique Club at Bellows and this year became secretary of the Projection Club. In the eighth and ninth grades, he was general organization representative for his class mates, and in 1945 and 1946 he served as assistant manager of the basketball team. During Boy Scout Week this year he was Boy Scout Mayor of Manamontek, and is junior assistant scout master of Troop 2, Manamontek.

Another outstanding member of the Junior Class at Manamontek High School, Richard H. Hildrey of 164 Murray Avenue, has been named alternate to Lightfoot. The selections were made by Joseph C. McLean, principal, and Russell P. Aikus, chairman of the Larchmont Empire Boys' State Committee. Qualifications considered were character, scholarship, leadership and service to the school and community.

Trade Group Favors Closing On Mondays

The Larchmont Fair Trade Association last night went on record as in favor of closing their place of business Mondays during the week of the derby classic out at the Manamontek Federal Savings and Loan office.

This ruling, however, does not affect members of the association who have established other days for closing. For example, ladies dress shops are customarily closed on Saturdays, while barbers, tailors and food stores usually close on Mondays for either a half or whole day on Wednesdays, it was pointed out.

Although it was impossible for the merchants to agree on the same day for closing, it is expected that a Monday, Wednesday or Saturday closing. Last night's voting showed, however, that a majority of those present favored a Wednesday closing.

Results of a poll taken among the members by mails revealed that, of the slightly more than 50 per cent of the members who responded, they were evenly divided as to a Monday, Wednesday or Saturday closing. Youth Injured As Truck And Auto Collide

A 13-year-old Rye boy escaped death early this morning when his car plowed head on into the massive New England Transportation Company truck on the Boston Post Road near Weaver Street in Larchmont.

Identified as Peter Austin South of Woodrow Road, Rye, he was taken by ambulance to the United Hospital, where he is recovering from a fractured left leg and cuts on the arms. His condition last night morning was reported as fair.

Town Patrolman Christopher B. Smith said that the truck, which was carrying a load of lumber, was in the process of turning right when it struck the car at each stage and competitors may not proceed from one stage to the next until receiving an official O.K.

At the time of the crash, rushed to the scene and made preparations to extricate the boy from the tangled wreckage with the aid of a blowtorch. His unconscious form was finally released from the crushed car body and was removed in the ambulance.

Young G.O.P. Supports Ives' Labor Views

SCHROON LAKE (AP)—The fight of U. S. Senator Irving M. Ives to soften the proposed Federal law to curb the power of labor unions won support today from New York Young Republicans for expected approval at its closing session late today.

The convention platform committee adopted the program unanimously last night, shortly before Dewey implicitly scolded reports that he had split the scene by Ives because of the Senator's views on labor unions. The endorsement of Ives' views on labor legislation, which have been criticized severely behind the scenes by Republican County leaders, was contained in a platform submitted to the 15th Annual Convention of the State Association of Young Republicans in Schroon Lake.

"We'll May Be Innocent Of Charge, Owner States"

Reginald Jubb, owner of Jubb's Garage on East Prospect Avenue, Manamontek, reported today that "Wolf" his large Dalmanite, may have bitten Mrs. Audrey Norton of 135 Spruce Street as she walked Thursday on East Prospect Avenue. According to Mr. Jubb, the dog was "induced" by his Dalmanite or by Mrs. Norton's own cocker spaniel, which accompanied her to the dog's house.

"Mrs. Norton crossed the street," Jubb said, "so that her dog might make friends with 'Wolf.' A brief scuffle ensued and Mrs. Norton was bitten in trying to separate the two dogs."

"Wolf" plays with all the kids in the neighborhood and wouldn't hurt anyone, he could avoid it," Jubb added.

Mrs. Truman Weaker, Son Is Worried

GRANDVIEW, Mo. (AP)—President Truman said today that his weakening mother "had a fairly good night" but that there was no improvement in her condition. The President, looking dependent, left his hotel at Kansas City at 9:40 A. M. for Grandview for another day at Mrs. Martha E. Truman's bedside.

He was accompanied by his wife and daughter, Margaret.

GRANDVIEW, Mo. (AP)—President Truman became more anxious and perturbed today as his 94 year-old mother weakened perceptibly.

While his personal physician would not go beyond the assertion that Mrs. Martha E. Truman's condition was "unchanged," Mr. Truman said she was growing "a little weaker."

He has abandoned all thought of returning to Washington in view of the gravity of her case. His physician, Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham, limited his own report to a terse assertion the elderly patient's condition was "unchanged."

Observers were struck by the President's dependency, as he returned to his Kansas City hotel apartment last night after another day at his mother's bedside.

College Boys Stage Battle In Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—Embattled students of Johns Hopkins University fought off 250 invaders from the University of Maryland with sticks, stones, fists and fire hose early today in a fracas unprovoked by 200 policemen.

Eleven of the battlers wound up in jail on disorderly conduct charges. Magistrate Heuben Caplan reprimanded them after a hearing but dismissed them all in single time to be on hand when the starting whistle blows for a "tough" lacrosse game at College Park this afternoon.

Objective in the battle was a 60-pound bronze trophy which the Hopkins students swept off the Maryland Campus early yesterday in reprisal for a joint-daubing raid a few hours earlier on Hopkins buildings and sidewalks in midtown Baltimore.

Both sides still are holding hostages, a couple of dozen on each side. Several spotted shaved heads on their badge of battle, and the terrapin flag was secreted at Hopkins.

Ruled Up
Smiling Jack Fearon had his blood pressure go up near the bursting point Saturday, and it was about anything his Bel-lows diamond outfit did. As a matter of fact he was pleased with the team.

The Bellows turned in a 3-0 no-hitter against Pleasantville Friday afternoon with Ed Fiedt missing the up-crowd. Tom took six as they came up to the plate. That was fine, but it was reported, and the wire story on the game stated that it was a double no-hitter with Fiedt, Pleasantville (twice), holding the East Enders hitless while his defense bogged down to allow three runs.

What turned up Fearon was the fact that he and all of Bel-lows maintain that Frank Conia, usually left-hitting catcher got robbed. Conia singled home a pair of runs in the fifth and Fearon says that any scorer, any coach, any fan, any umpire, or any sports-writer who didn't call the single a hit was not only blind but also ignorant of being its scoring judgment to the game.

Anyway, to cover our high school reporter, he turned it in as a hit and it was regarded as such until we heard what Pleasantville had turned in and what the county-wide record was in the game. So, with all due respect to a service we followed the lead.

Anyway, Costa's hit went through the hole between third and short and wasn't touched by anyone according to the crowd. It was a safety if ever there was, and what's more it drove in two runs while the young Fiedt a cushion on which to throw.

Hope we never get Jack Fearon as hurried up as he was when he heard the news. It was when he heard the news that he was hurried up as he was when he heard the news.

Incidentally, Fiedt's effort was the ninth month game turned in by county writers. And the boys are really going to town.

New Rochelle Ousts Hilltoppers As VIAA Track Champs

Laroneck Nine Signs Quercia And Thompson

This said that in softball, a pitcher's game, all you need for a winning ball club are a couple of catchers. So, in addition to the 30 Laroneck-mamaroneck entry in this year's Interstate League play should finish among the leaders. For in addition to Carl Itzsch, New Rochelle ace who pitched last year for the Floral Park club in Long Island, the Laroneck have signed, soon Thompson of Larchmont, a top hurler in local softball circles for the past few years.

Thompson, who pitched last year's Laroneck Legion team into a county championship, is currently coaching for the Barons of the Larchmont Softball League. In his latest outing last Tuesday he pitched the Pals down while hitting in beating them 4-1. A chunky lad with a fast left ball, he is probably the most feared pitcher in these parts.

The Larchmont boys play at 6 Dean Place, a graduate of the Rochelle High School, and picked up plenty of experience pitching for Navy teams during his three-year tour of duty. He has been competing locally for the last 10 years.

Equipment Manager Charlie Gronberg also announces signing of Phil Quercia, hard-hitting outfielder for Mamaroneck in the Mamaroneck Softball League. In his last outing last Tuesday he pitched the Pals down while hitting in beating them 4-1. A chunky lad with a fast left ball, he is probably the most feared pitcher in these parts.

The Purple Wave paced the 42nd annual meet with 42 points while White Plains edged the Orange and Blue 31-14, in the real battle of the afternoon. The Purple-coached runners salvaged fourth place with 24 markers while Orange trailed with 20. Rosewood with 18, Team F Young with 9, and Port Chester with 3½ while Albert Leonard and Yonkers Central failed to score.

Two new records featured the afternoon's proceedings as the Davis middle relay team won the 200-yard race in 2:30.14, in the real battle of the afternoon. The Purple-coached runners salvaged fourth place with 24 markers while Orange trailed with 20. Rosewood with 18, Team F Young with 9, and Port Chester with 3½ while Albert Leonard and Yonkers Central failed to score.

Haas' Bird Takes Long Pigeon Race

The difference was only in fraction of seconds from the time when W. A. Haas' bird whipped an entry owned by A. Gasparini in a long pigeon race held over the weekend. The birds were released Sunday at 10:30 A. M. and Haas' entry "Twee" home, at an average rate of 1267.96 yards per minute while the Gasparini-owned pigeon came in with a speed of less than half that of a yard per minute less.

The owners of the first five to finish and their yards per minute were:
Gasparini 1267.97
Gasparini 1264.33
Swanders 1261.68
Dye 1247.34

Bumble Bee, Black Arrow Cop As YRA Racing Season Opens

Long Island Sound's yacht race season had a fast and furious start as the 30th race season got underway with two championship regattas run by the New York Yacht Club.

Saturday saw 77 craft, pretty close to a record number for the season's first race, come out for the competition, but the combination of rain, fog and the lack of wind held down the number of starters to only 13 craft finished the race.

A light southerly breeze greeted the racers Saturday and the skipper took full advantage of it to put on some thrills in the first 10 minutes. Arthur Koops, perennially easy triumph as he broiled Bumble Bee to the finish line 42 seconds in front of A. Lusk's Black Arrow. Left to right are Pierce Millman, Mamaroneck; Dave Lane, Larchmont; and Bert Leitch, New Rochelle.

Orange Nine Slashes Albert Leonard As Whitton Hurls One-Hitter

Tiger Moundsman Whiffs 13 To Score Easy 7-0 Triumph

By PETE TAUR

Coach Orlando Ciraco's baseball Tigers proved that "every thing comes to him who waits" yesterday afternoon at Manhattan Field as their game with Albert Leonard, which had been delayed for over three weeks because of rain, resulted in a 7-0 victory for the Orange. By avenging Leonard's 2-0 win earlier in the season, the Bengals came up with their sixth success of the year, which coupled with five losses, pulled them over the 500 mark.

Tommy Whitton's one-hit pitching while his mates collected ten safeties provided the impetus for the victory triumph as the leader Whitton recorded 13 strikeouts in establishing his third victory of the season. Meanwhile, the home team got to three Leonard twirlers for four runs in the third, two in the fifth and another in the seventh. Art Doyle started and was good until the middle of the third when Vito Mandarano took over. Mandarano lasted until the fifth when John Styles relieved and finished the game. It was the first Orange shutout victory of the current campaign.

The aim in the Orange's lineup was also good, filling in at first base in the absence of Jack Sanborn, as he hit the Leonard pitching for three hits in four trips to the plate and drove home a first-run single second strike home. Lou Royce, Elise Devol first-sacker, touched Whitton for the visitors only hit, a single to left center in the third. Whitton was never in trouble as he yielded only two walks and allowed but four men to reach second base all afternoon.

The Tigers got rolling in the third as Shaw drove a walk, was sacrificed to second by Rosenber and took third on Flinn's infield out. Shaw scored the first run of the game as Codino struck to center and scored on Peterson's triple to deep left. Whitton was hit by boy and moved to second on a wild pitch while Peterson crossed the plate. Whitton moved to third on another wild leave by Boyd and tallied when Benevento muffed Nordenschild's grounder. Nordenschild went around to third on Morrison's bingle to left but both runners were left stranded as Carlulo rolled out to the mound.

Mamaroneck added two more in the fourth as Shaw again opened the inning, this time coming through with his first hit of the year, a single through the box and past second. Shaw went to second on Rosenber's hit to left and scored on Flinn's infield safety which the pitcher defied. Flino went to second on Mandarano's wide throw past first and Rosenber scored from third and Codino scored from second. Codino fouled out to Flinn. The winners produced one more run in the seventh as Flinn opened with a single to right and went to third when Fernandez booted the ball. Flinn scored easily on Codino's third hit of the afternoon, a sharp single which dropped safely in short left field.

Mamaroneck, with a five and five WIAA league record, sees action again on Tuesday when it will play the Orange who has defeated by a 7-6 score, comes to bat.

Dodgers Take Over National League Lead

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

Cancel the odds on Joe Di Maggio's career and add a new chapter. The Yankee Clipper has recovered from a shaky 143 start and is back in the New York club into the thick of the American League fight with his .340 average.

The Yanks have won six of their last seven, moving into second place, 3 1/2 games behind Detroit.

Last night the Yanks had a rollicking 9-3 victory over the Washington Senators. Di Maggio continued his sensational streak with three hits, all singles.

As Boston triumphed Philadelphia, 9-2, in the afternoon, both the Red Sox and Yanks picked up a half game on Detroit whose day game with Cleveland was rained out. A scheduled St. Louis at Chicago night game was postponed because of cold weather.

Although three of the four national league games were played at night the big noise came at night as the Polo Grounds Customers watched their N. Y. Giants take a second straight lacing from Brooklyn, this time 1-2.

The Brooklyn's winning took their turn at leading the league. St. Louis Cardinals with a three-run homer that broke a 1-1 tie and gave the birds a 4-2 edge over Cincinnati.

Pittsburgh earned the night for Chicago, rallying with three runs in the last of the ninth, to dump the Cubs out of first place, 7 to 6.

The Philadelphia A's edged the New York Yankees over the Boston Braves.

Gael Eleven-Run Rally Tops Happy Boys In 16-11 Squabble

The Gael took the Happy Boys last night in a wild, woolly long softball affair at Mamaroneck Avenue Field.

The score was the least interesting part of the whole affair when the Gael's rally topped the Happy Boys' 16-11 squabble.

It was a tight matter up to the fourth as the Happy Boys taking advantage of Montaro's wildness scored one in the first on a foul.

The Gael went ahead in the second as Sands opened the big up with four safeties, including two home runs.

Pick Of Local Softballers On Laronck Nine

There'll be some fast softball on display Sunday night at Island.

The Laronck nine will be picked for the first time in the history of the sport in the local open of the Interstate Coast League.

Harry Talgo and Charlie Gaudin have gathered the best of the local talent in their effort to provide a contender in league play and have enlisted players from both the Larchmont and Mamaroneck softball leagues plus a trio from out of town.

The picking staff, with Carl Kniesch as its ball-sweeper, promises to be outstanding as Kniesch is backed up by Johnny Thompson and Pat Bellucci, than managers aren't sitting so well with league officials or with those who have charge of the field.

Taverns Shellack Old Forge By 9-3 In Larchmont League

A couple of walks and before three were out had four runs scored against him.

Another pair in the fifth came when Guiny Schmidt parked one way out of reach. Schmidt's homer came with Steve Loison on the sacks and was just so much insurance.

The final insurance was taken out in the sixth as the Taverns landed on Miranda's for four hits and three runs. Tony Loison's triple was the big blow in the rally.

Army Planes Fly Over Big Parade In Larchmont

As if aware of the occasion, Mother Nature dispensed her colors yesterday, a brilliant sun against a field of blue sky and white clouds, while more than 3,000 persons from the Village of Larchmont and Town of Mamaroneck witnessed the Memorial Day parade and services in tribute to the men of Larchmont who gave their lives for "God and Country in the cause of justice, freedom and democracy."

Marking the second peace-time observance of Memorial Day since World War II, the throng was urged to reconsecrate themselves to the ideals and principles for which their men paid with their lives, and to guard and preserve America through every generation.

"In order to accomplish these obligations," he said, "our first duty is to work for progressiveness, now, in times of peace."

Speakers through the line of march to witness one of the finest and largest parades ever staged in Larchmont while over-looked a squadron of Army fighters and bombers from Mitchell Field roared above the parade.

Scheduled to begin at 11 A. M. from the Station Plaza, the parade was nearly an hour late in starting due to the St. Anthony's Fire, Dr. Ryan and members of the Corps of Engineers, which was delayed in traffic.

A brief service was held before the parade started at the Town Honor Roll with invocation by the Rev. Dr. Floyd E. McGuire, followed by the playing of wreaths, a rifle salute, taps and benediction by the Rev. Francis J. H. From the Station Plaza, the parade moved across the Chateaufort Avenue railroad bridge turning right into Palmer Avenue.

Police in Larchmont and the Town of Mamaroneck under the command of their respective chiefs, William J. Kerecny and Paul A. Verick, led the parade.

Next in line was Capt. George C. Currier, USNR, parade marshal and his staff, Staff Sgt. John M. Coughlin, as aide; Lieut. Col. Frank Redgate; Major John F. Arnold, Tech. Sgt. Marjorie Larosa, Seaman 2nd Class Grace Lawhoney, Sgt. Frank O'Brien and George Payles, Spanish-American War veterans.

Following the marshal and his staff was a platoon of 50 troops from Fort Slocum under the command of Capt. C. W. Bennett; veterans of the Spanish American War, and members of Post 847 led by Commander McGrath.

The next division of the parade was led by St. Casimir's High School, followed by members of the Larchmont Fire Department.

The parade was followed by the Boy Scouts, Girls Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Brownies and Cubs.

The last division was led by the Boy Scouts of America, followed by members of the White Plains Child Care Center, was chairman of the Westchester Nursery School Council and a musical luncheon meeting in Donnybrook Lodge, Thursday, Miss Hudson selected Mrs. Walter Winer, of Palmdale, Other officers were recruited.

Gen. MacNamara Urges Training For All Youth

Plans for the next war have already been mapped by a future belligerent, Michael F. "Iron Mike" McNamara told yesterday's record crowd at Memorial Day ceremonies on the municipal lawn in the Village of Mamaroneck.

"Don't believe that bombs, mines and rockets are alone to be reckoned with in that war," he said. "Germ warfare, super-sonic speeds of guided missiles and the horror of the atomic bomb will intensify the conflict now being planned by an unnamed foreign power."

A retired army major who fought with General Patton in Europe, and is now an official in the Third Army Association of New York, Mr. McNamara urged parents to back compulsory military training for American youth as a safeguard against future aggression.

"Military history record that we were afraid to further the training of young men between 17 and 20," he said. "We should establish their status as cadets in the honorable profession of arms, similar to that of West Point cadets and Annapolis midshipmen. We must in a word, train our leaders of tomorrow."

After giving a brief description of the line he headed for the (Continued on Page Three)

Bike Rider Injured By Hit-Run Car

A 12-year-old boy was struck by a hit and run auto yesterday while riding a bicycle on Waverly Avenue. The car hit the boy as he neared Mamaroneck Avenue and escaped unidentified after the crash.

Vito Sinopoli, 12, of 135 Waverly Avenue, Mamaroneck, required eight stitches in an ugly gash of the left arm. Anthony Frascella, 27, Waverly Avenue, who was riding another bicycle alongside Sinopoli, assisted him to Dr. Emil Verrilli's office.

Another cyclist required three stitches in his right eye lid after a fall on Palmer near Rockland Avenue yesterday afternoon. Dr. Verrilli reported, he was Arthur Walker, 22, of 202 Sand Street, Mamaroneck, who was riding with his brother Albert, 11, when he fell.

Jack Redgate Rescues Girl In Air Crash

Jack Redgate, 21, the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Redgate, 114 Theall Road, Rye, an airplane mechanic at LaGuardia Field, New York, was one of the first persons on the scene of the United Airlines DC-4 crash at the field Thursday night.

In complete disregard of his safety while the craft was burning in the muddy ground, Mr. Redgate removed one girl from the wreckage, breaking through the tail of the airplane where she was trapped. He remained on the scene helping New York police and firemen after they relieved him of his rescue work.

When the tragedy occurred, Redgate was riding in a car with his supervisor a couple of hundred feet from where the big plane plunged to the earth.

Several months ago Mr. Redgate was involved in his own air crash, when the craft in which he was riding crashed into the water of the Apawamis Country Club, Rye. He was seriously injured.

He is a graduate of Rye High School.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Negotiations between John L. Lewis and soft coal operators of the North and West were suspended indefinitely today without explanation.

Lewis had nothing to tell reporters as he led his delegation from a 35-minute work contract conference with the operators representing 75 percent of the bituminous industry. He referred questioners to Ezra Van Horn, Ohio operator representative and chairman of the joint conference.

Van Horn, sober faced, said, "This meeting was adjourned by joint assent." He refused to comment further.

The breakdown of negotiations comes just a month before the Government is scheduled to return the mines to the owners. Both sides have been non-committal so far progress of the contract talks.

Some Plain Talk
TO USE a vernacular phrase, we are getting a bit fed up with the hypocrisy of meaty-mouthed politicians in Westchester who prate upon the public platforms of "keeping our country clean" only to turn around, take their feet from the trough of public patronage and trash into court to defend known proprietors of notorious gambling establishments.

We are well aware of the constitutional right of all persons, even of professional gamblers, to have legal counsel. We are also acquainted with the theory that an attorney owes it to his client to do the best for him that he can, even if fully aware of his guilt.

But what concerns us is the increasing frequency with which these professional gamblers, these proponents of the cynical "Never give a sucker a break" philosophy, seek and obtain representation by attorneys who have been honored by the young public. The inference drawn from their sales as public defenders is not so much that legal knowledge and counsel as influence. They want a "friend at court."

We would like to interpolate at this point a salient statement that we are not proud. We realize that there is a certain chance which we do little evil. But there are other and bigger games, run by professional gamblers who have chased out of New York City, where for too many heads of families leave weekly wages back at home. These are the scoundrels who seek to corrupt our police, who endeavor to buy their way out of jail when, if unaided, would rob Westchester of the good name it prizes.

Why should officials of our State, our County, our municipalities, accept legal retainers from men of this type? Why should they should in question know only of "ethics" as a word in the dictionary?

We spoke above of such practices by influential members of the dominant political organization of Westchester. We mean exactly that—the men who have been honored by the young public, the leaders of the Republican Party. It seems to us not too much to ask of these leaders that they exercise some restraint in this matter upon their pledges.

And as for the political-legals, individuals, it would be just plain silly for them to state that whenever they appear before a court in their legal capacity they automatically direct themselves of their political attitudes and affiliations. If that were true, they would not be so eagerly sought by the gamblers. So let us quit pretending, let us unmask the hypocritical, and face facts.

If the Republican Party in Westchester wants to keep this county clean, let it order those who has put in public office to cease immediately the defense of known professional gamblers.

Fish And Philophy

By PETE DOERN

The boys are whopping it up out of Peconic, and jacking from the wharf just there, and have them there along our shores.

Fire Chief George Burton called it up the other day to say that some of the boys from the Peconic had just come in with a load of Peconic. They clustered two boats. The weather was pretty rough, one boat was anchored three times.

This didn't affect the fishing apparently for between the whole crew they came home with 500 fish and basses, which is a lot of weeks and porries as we add it up.

Other highlights of the trip were that the two deputy chiefs, Leonard Erickson and assistant chief, Fred Peconic, according to Burton, and George Peconic was the noisiest fisherman.

They could be heard for three miles around every time he looked into it," said George.

Chas Radcliffe later called in to tell the department that some of the Old Fellows at a recent meeting had decided to try their hole with a fish net at Peconic.

They had a small, Radcliffe, Jim Yaple, Charlie Haskins, Lou Erickson and Vito Palozza, started out in the early hours, Tuesday morning and started fishing. They were out for two hours and returned with 221 weeks and popovers.

"Burton and his crowd might have got quantity," said Gratz, "but we got the big ones. As a matter of fact, the old timers told us when we came in, it was one of the best catches this year as far as size goes."

It seems there were seven ponds were taken; 6 over two ponds, 3 over 3 ponds. For the largest catch of the day, Charlie Haskins won a fish, he pulled in a 7 1/2 lb.

Samuel Johnson, once said, "We, the public, which has yet been convinced by men by which so many happenings have been produced as 'answered prayer'." And every time we read a newspaper, we think of our old friends, Albert and Mrs. Schroeter, and their friendly tavern.
