Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERP
Caroline Day contributes the story about a teacher who told her pupils to let down the names of the nine men who, in their opinion, were the greatest in American history. Each completed his list but 10-year-old Jerry who sat with furrowed brows chewing on his pencil.

Why Prime A Good Pump?

MEETING in Washington this week, CIO representatives are to urge upon the administration an emergency work program. The purpose is based upon the misapprehension that we are facing dire unemployment, despite reliable official figures to the contrary.

THE NEW HAVEN GETS HUMAN

ORCHIDS and a sincere 'thank-you' are apparently due County Executive Hoyens and County Attorney Hyman. According to authentic sources, the two played an important role last week in inducing the New Haven Railroad to drop its request for higher compensation.

ARICA, Chile (AP) — A rescue team it expected to return tomorrow with the body of Hamilton Sweet, 13, Manila Street, Ossining, N. Y., who was killed Feb. 20 when his private plane crashed in the mountains 93 miles from here.

WHAT TO EXPECT IN INDOCHINA

WHAT is likely to happen at Geneva with reference to settlement of the seven-year-old, deadly war in Indochina?
The best guess, it seems to us, is some sort of tentative agreement, at least enough to bring about a cease-fire type of armistice, for division of the country. That was the formula which brought an end to the firing in Korea.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

"The Authority on Authorities"
NOT QUITE A FORCER
There are lots of situations in which your partner's pass may be viewed as a "forcing pass" which obliges you to take some kind of positive action.

WHO 'CODDLED' THEM?

AS SUGGESTED last week in this column, clear evidence of preferential treatment by the Armed Services office big-name athletes was easily obtained by the Congressional committee looking into the matter.
But who did the "coddling"? It is yet to be ascertained. And we doubt that it will be learned. For, despite the direct line of command and responsibility within military circles, it appears routine for those who so desire to draw the silken curtains of secrecy.

GUESS THE NAME
1.—We are told that the real life of this time advances at a dramatic pace...

It was in 1940 that F. D. Roosevelt violated what many then considered and still regard as the limits of the powers of his republic...

It was in 1937 that Mr. Roosevelt, angered by the Supreme Court's invalidation of several of his New Deal laws, sought to pack the court...

We would like to stress one point in connection with these two forward steps. It is that in both cases support came from the party whose head had violated the traditions.

We salute these broadminded Democrats who share with the rest of us the feeling that the New Deal must not be permitted to return.

THE NAVY COMES TO PLAYLAND
AS A PART of the U. S. Navy's participation in Armed Forces Day tomorrow, two fighting units will be stationed at Playland and will be open to inspection.

One of the vessels will be a submarine chaser, Control USS PCCE 886. Recently this vessel completed a successful 15,000-square-mile search for a vessel lost off the Mexican coast.

We suggest that Playland, with its other attractions, may provide a good break tomorrow and Sunday for a view of what our armed forces have to offer in our defense.

PASS THE CREAM, PLEASE!
GOVERNOR DEWEY appears to have stirred up a South American nerve's neat about his ears.

How about putting more cream in our coffee, thereby using up more domestic milk surplus and at the same time less of the imported expensive coffee?

At any rate, let's get this home-American scrap settled before we begin to get letters from our English ally that both sides are wrong and everybody should really switch to tea!

TRAVELINGEST IN THE WORLD
HOME to a people who are accustomed to get misty-eyed when "Home, Sweet Home" is played, Americans are certainly the greatest people on the face of the globe for picking up and going places.

Travel agencies predict that this Summer will bring the greatest exodus to Europe of vacationing Americans that we have seen for years.

Then, travel in Mexico and South America will also increase, predict the agencies and banking companies. The devaluation of the peso in Mexico last month—bringing the price of gasoline to tourists down to 12 and 14 cents a gallon...

Another factor influencing added travel is the reduction from 15 to 10 per cent of the federal transportation tax.

As to domestic or continental travel by car, the mechanical device for conversion of gasoline into mileage which Henry Ford popularized, the American Automobile Association estimates that 66 million Americans will climb into 22 million cars this year for vacation travel.

So, the American tourist abroad may find some solace—a little bit at least—when he pays what seems an exorbitant price—that he is indirectly eating bread upon the waters.

White Pains Line Hands Mamaroneck First Win In Rye Scores In Seventh To Nip F. E. Bellows, 7-6

Rye Scores In Seventh To Nip F. E. Bellows, 7-6

Pitcher Frank Mack won his own game with a six-run effort in the last of the seventh which defeated White Plains 7-6. The Rye team, coached by High School A. Bellows, yesterday at the Rye diamond.

Red Finelli, who went the distance for the Panthers allowing seven hits, was charged with the defeat. Finelli recorded 11 strike outs, a career high.

Bellows, after completing a 4-1 lead, dropped behind in the third, and then had to rally for the tie score in the top of the seventh.

The Panthers collected four hits off the services of Mack, who fanned four batters when leaving three passes.

Bellows Takes Early Lead
 In the first inning of the game, White Plains' Ed Swanson, and three errors by Rye enabled Bill Leahy's charges to take a 3-0 lead in the first inning. The Garnet retaliation was brought about by Rye's single and Hank Hilly's error, closing the margin to 3-1 in the first.

Mat Healy walked, stole second and scored when the Rye third baseman misplayed the ball.

Finelli retired the Garnets in order in the last of the third. Mack followed suit in the last of the sixth, setting the stage for Rye's five-run rally.

Safe Off Jim Farino 1-0

Safety Off Jim Farino

Jim Farino Mamaroneck's right-handed arm was dealt a bad shuffle yesterday at Gedney Field in White Plains. The Jim pitching the best game of his scholastic career, limited the Plainsmen to a harmless, scratch single lead bounce in the fifth, but still was tagged with the defeat as White Plains scored a 1-0 WIAA decision in the battle of the underbellies.

George Banno went the distance for the Plainsmen, almost matching Farino's brilliant effort while allowing only two hits—a double and a single by Jack Kenner's leadoff in the fifth. White Plains hurler retired the Tigers via strikes.

The lone score of the game came in the last of the fourth when Farino, who walked only two men, issued one of his free tickets to Billy Merritt. Merritt skirted all the way to second on Bill Penco's sacrifice, and then scored on Charlie Halper's sacrifice fly. That was the game!

Banno's protecting his opponent lead like McCarthy is protecting Roy Cohen, proved almost un-touchable thereafter.

McPadden at the start of the seventh, and the little guy accomplished his assignment of leading Raino for a free stroll. Any slumber of hope which might have been raised by Mamaroneck's early, quickly dimmed as Raino got Al Robinson, trying to sacrifice, to pop out.

Jack Rosenblatt, who took a bad bounce for White Plains' first safety, Farino got Harry Berger on strikes.

Police Seek Motive In College Shooting

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—Authorities today waited for the government of two wounded students in the shooting of New York City sophomore to learn the motive and get a fuller first-hand account of a fraternity house death which followed an all-night beer party.

Sheriff Ben T. Latta said yesterday that Putnam Davis Jr., 23, of New York City, was apparently shot the sophomore early Saturday and then killed himself with the pistol.

The triple shooting took place in the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity house of William H. Joyner, 19, of Summit, N. J., and Allen B. Long, 19, of Chevy Chase, Md. Mr. Long was in the house in the shooting and Mr. Joyner in the chest.

Shooting Motive Unknown

Police could not say why Mr. Davis placed a bullet in his own head after the shooting, but he had spent the 12 hours drinking beer and listening to loud music.

The sheriff said more than 40 beer cans were in the room.

FRENCH THREATEN TO BOMB REBELS

Demand Air Strip Repair For Speedy Removal Of Wounded

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—The French announced today they would resume bombing of Communist Viet Minh 70-mile hospital complex unless the rebels agreed to evacuate French Union wounded from the area.

A French high command broadcast said the rebels would speed up the ultimatum. Otherwise, the French said, they would resume bombing the area.

The ultimatum was issued in a streamer eastward from the front lines toward the vital Red River delta.

Petty Tirades Are Excuse For Husband's Guilty Actions

By MURIEL NISSEN

I'm ready to admit I'm not a world beater on housekeeping, but I certainly do an average, or slightly better than average job. The children are properly served for and well behaved. I am a very good cook, as Lennie himself readily admits, and the house is kept clean and reasonably tidy.

My weaknesses are that I don't sew, can't run up slipcovers or draperies, and am not handy with a paint brush. With the excuse that I don't keep the home as he wishes, he has been going out with another woman, whom I shall call Dolly.

When I object, he adds justly to his other accusations and tells me I'm childish. Now, how far are his complaints justified and should I accept his date with Dolly cheerfully and submissively? Answer: Lennie is a weak character. Not only does he lack the decency to resist temptation, but he hasn't even the moral stamina to accept responsibility for his reprehensible conduct.

Trumping up reasons why you are to blame for his actions, he transfers slightly the guilt from his shoulders to yours. He works on the theory that if he believes hard enough, no one will notice his own shortcomings.

As a married man, he has absolutely no right to be dating another woman, and if Sally had conscience she wouldn't do it with him. Perhaps you aren't a perfect housekeeper, very few women are—but that definitely doesn't give him the privilege of acting like a madman.

Calling attention to your minor failures as a housewife certainly doesn't justify his major indiscretion. Since Lennie has a great desire to appear in the right at all times, it would be a good idea to let him find out how other people regard his extramarital wing the approval of anyone in either family, or of any friend or neighbor with a proper sense of right and wrong. Public opinion may sway his attention back to home, where nagging or tears would be futile.

Question: If a person receiving Social Security benefits dies the end of a month, does someone receive the payment for the part of the month that he was alive?

Answer: No. The law states that payments must end with the month before the month in which the beneficiary dies. Payments are not prorated over the number of days that the person was alive during the last month of his life.

Question: How many employees does an employer have to have before he must report workers' earnings for Social Security? Do part time employees count?

Answer: Every employer engaged in a trade or business covered by the Social Security Law who hires one employee or more whether steadily employed, or on a part time basis, must report the earnings of the worker.

Question: If I apply for Social Security benefits, does it mean that I can never go back to work again?

Answer: A person who is insured under Social Security can apply for payments and return to work at any time. Benefits will not be paid for any months in which he earned more than $15 in covered wages. When the insured person reaches age 75 he receives his Social Security benefits regardless of how much he earns.

Social Security

Questions may be sent to Curtis R. Lee, manager, New Rochelle Social Security office, 271 North Avenue.

Question: How can I find out what my family would receive from Social Security if I should die before I become 65?

Answer: Your Social Security office will be glad to furnish a free booklet entitled "How to Compute Social Security Benefits" to anyone who requests it. The booklet also explains to whom social Security benefits are paid either upon retirement or death of a worker or self-employed person.

PARTY NOMINEES WIN IN PA. VOTE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Organization-backed Republicans and Democrats scored comparatively high primary victories in Pennsylvania yesterday with only slightly more than 29 per cent of the state's five million eligible voters going to the polls.

It was one of the highest statewide vote turnouts in Pennsylvania in recent years.

The nominees to succeed Governor John S. Pine are Republican Lloyd H. Wood, fifty-six, present Lieutenant Governor and "harmony" choice of the GOP leadership, and Democratic State Senator George M. Leader, thirty-six, nominee of the party's state policy committee.

Riding to victory with Mr. Wood on the GOP slate were candidates for Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of Internal Affairs and three posts on the State Superior Court. There is no Democratic opposition to party-endorsed candidates in these races.

Also nominated were candidates for 30 Congressional seats, 219 State House of Representatives' chairs and half of the 50-member State Senate. Twenty-eight Congressmen were renominated.
