Harriman Hits As Ike Links

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Governor Averell Harriman delivered a personal attack on President Eisenhower last night. He said the President "has been taken over by big business."

Mr. Harriman, still insisting he is "not an active candidate" for nomination, told a party dinner crowd that Mr. Eisenhower had appointed high administration officials and "must be responsible for them."

"I don't (Secretary of Agriculture) DeLoach who is destroying the farmers' income, it's Eisenhower," he said.

"I don't (former Secretary of the Interior) McKay who is destroying our natural resources, it's Eisenhower."

The only new irrigation under Eisenhower has been the spin king system at the Burning Tree golf course."

Names In Dentures Help Identification, Investigators Told

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—If a Virginia medical examiner's suggestion is followed, you'll be getting your name on your false teeth.

He says dentists should be persuaded to inscribe the wearer's name inside the under plate of the dentures. While the monogrammed chopsticks obviously would be a help to the absent-minded, Dr. Harold DeLoach has other ideas for his plan.

Speaking at the third annual Southwestern Homeless Investigators Seminar Monday, the assistant state medical examiner of Virginia pointed out the help it would provide to officers in identifying victims.

Dr. DeLoach explained that teeth are seldom destroyed when a body is burned or decomposed.

'Like New Orleans' Say Many of Shrimp Creole At Depots, for 4, $1.29

"I'm a traveling salesman and I can tell you that your frozen Shrimp Creole is fully as good as you get in restaurants in New Orleans." Comments like this have become frequent at Seaberg's Freezer Owners Depot in White Plains. The Golden Shrimp Creole sold there is handy enough for emergencies, delicious enough for "company," reasonable enough for everyday eating. It contains more Shrimp than anything else and is seasoned just right. Comes in aluminum cans so you can simply slip into oven and heat. 1/2 lb. individual serving is 4¢; 4-serving 2 1/2 lb. canister is $1.29. But only at Seaberg's, 200 Westchester Avenue, block below Altman's.

High Caliber Program Given At Spring Musicale Concert

A high plane of entertainment from Bach to Rodgers, with a reminiscent stop at Gershwin, was presented last evening on the Mamaroneck Junior High school stage by the vocalists of the Mamaroneck High School Concert Choir and other talented groups under the direction of Bernard B. Stone.

A larger than usual group of community music enthusiasts were present to hear perhaps as mature a group of students as ever graced that stage. The enlightening program was stirring and varied. Its director has a distinct flair for dramatic production and staging as well as for directing and producing a musicale per se.

Highlights of the Spring Musicale were many and the audience was receptive throughout. From the opening strains of religious music by Oton, Zegerstein, Bach and Mozart, through the colorful "Pony and Bear" excerpts, the program was kept noted by well-paced, near-professionally rendered numbers.

In traditionally madrigal style, seated about the stage in a candelabra, the 24 Madrigal Singers excelled in presenting a group of five selections: "The Spivack," Fulton Harrell, Duncan O'Dwyer, Sue Farrell, Douglas Witek and Peter Collins, accompanied by a dancing ensemble of six and the Concert Choir, performed "The Prodigal Son" highlights with finesse, with the lighting effects by Witek and Michael Ginzburg.

"Ukulele Numbers"

A sequence of two Rodgers numbers in robust all-male style, "Tote Jui To Dadi" and "Kaua as Clu," both from the ever-popular "Oklahoma," was performed with skill by the men of the choir. Especially effective was "Folly Wally Doodle," the song organ and later at the piano. Alan Danson was tenor soloist, Daniel Quintana was baritone, and received enthusiastic audience response for her three solos, "Prelude" from "Four Quartets" by Debussy; Gershwin's lyrical "Prelude No. 2," and "Klatchian" "Toccata."

A truly melodic and moving version of "Black Is the Color of My True Love's Hair" was sung by the Concert Choir, directed by Witek. Peter Garlock provided incidental baritone solo in the Dawson Negro spiritual, "Evers' "I Feel Sure." A choral scherzo on the "Folly Wally Doodle" theme was rendered in costume by Van Der Berg, Sue Chaffield and Daniel Quintana, with "Lovely Rose," by Eric Ziman.

Members of the Chamber Orchestra, performing with distinction, were trained by Frank Manbrell and W. Allen Lathier, who participated with them. Others in the group were: Thomas Lambert, John Dahm, Claudia Conlon, Lynn Harrell, Joseph P. Rosen, Robert G. Felder, Miss Chaffield, Esther Greenfield, Catherine Morgan, Jack Kowalski and the students of My True Love's Hair" was sung by the Concert Choir, directed by Witek. Peter Garlock provided incidental baritone solo in the Dawson Negro spiritual, "Evers' "I Feel Sure." A choral scherzo on the "Folly Wally Doodle" theme was rendered in costume by Van Der Berg, Sue Chaffield and Daniel Quintana, with "Lovely Rose," by Eric Ziman.

public order, and it can create revolution and subversion."

"Don't expect a solution to every human problem from the administration of our three central political bureaus," he stressed. "Disease, ignorance, cruelty, greed, hatred and indifference will remain, and a degree of intelligence is needed along with freedom of speech. Without intelligence, the problems of human existence, the divorce laws, racial monopoly, labor monopoly, cannot be solved. There is no neat solution, and there is no solution without risk."

"Our civil liberties didn't come to us intact and complete from the founding fathers," Mr. Malin said.

Gains Cited

"Recent gains in the freedom of speech were noted by the speaker, including the end of official prior censorship of motion pictures, with the reversal by the Supreme Court (which he said is "not sacrosanct, but after a means of getting business done") in 1952 of a 1915 decision, since motion pictures are now no longer simply entertainment but a means of mass communication of ideas and information. "But crime, horror and obscenity still exist," he went on, using the cooperation of parents, school, church and synagogue in combatting them. "How shall we use government power to control without service to the bureaucrats who make the decisions?" he asked. "The trouble with democracy is that whenever you look you find shenanigans."

Turning to the problem of free speech in public schools, Mr. Malin urged the avoidance of "making officers out of faculty and curriculum, extracting variety of techniques without fear of controversy." Public schools have become the answer to every controversy, he said, and will graduate students into a Never Never Land instead of citizens who have been taught how to handle the community. "It is a common basis of public school problems he cited the handling of sex education and the handling of the Protestant Reformation, noting that "if the Reformation is not treated as a controversy, it cannot be treated as a fact."

"Theology and controversy will be with us until Doomsday," he said, emphasizing the importance of keeping channels of discussion open in the schools. "Free minds get clogged by argument, first by a common basis of experience which enables us to be a community," he said.

Honest Subterfuge—That's Cool Make-up!

Make-up should be an "honest subterfuge" but not a means of concealing one's eyes how well they really are, advised Richard Willis, television beauty consultant, who spoke at the confirmation ceremonies and guests of the Intermediate Section, Catholic Women's Club of Westchester, at the New Rochelle clubhouse.

Mrs. Willis noted that one must recognize the difference between street make-up and theatrical make-up, which is what most magazines publicize. Eye make-up, he continued, is "high fashion" and is applied to only about 20 per cent of the general public. It depends upon the complexion and how well it will appear, he said. Neck lines, he added, are very important than the shape of the face. He observed also that health will often have an adverse effect on the use of ordinary soot cosmetics.

Joe Connolly No-Hits Carolans Village Gang Buries Forty-Niners By 18-5

The Old Village Gang of the Manhattan Independent Softball League had better practice tonight as they bashed out 14 hits off Jim Fraloni's slants to take an 18-5 demolition from the Forty-Niners.

In addition to their blazes the Orange took advantage of 10 bases on balls and wild pitches. Meanwhile Tommy Zeh, Village's pitcher, was firing a one-hitter.

That lead was short-lived as the Carolans, who acted in evening, came up with a total of eight runs on seven hits, one walk and no less than six wild pitches. That put the game away then and there but the boys last scored in the second, another pair in the third and six in the fourth. The Forty-Niner outfit managed single runs in the second, fourth and fifth and got their only hit, a single by Bruce Cunningham, in the fifth just before the umpires called a merciful halt to the proceedings.

With all that activity it is no wonder that the game led to be called because of darkness at the end of four and a half innings. In this case the shades of night presented the prizes at dinner following the trophy, and Phil John Veecey of the Manhattan Softball Photo by John Sarro

PRAYER FOR TODAY

As we prepare for tomorrow's annual salute to our armed forces, dear God of peace, bless our military establishment upon which we depend so much for our safety. Help us to maintain our civilian and military strength, so that we may retain our hard-earned liberties and enjoy the blessings of freedom in security.

Oregon Primary Rules

THERE'S NOT even a glimmer of opposition to President Eisenhower in today's GOP Primary Election in Oregon. But for the top rival Democrats, Estes Kefauver and Adlai Stevenson, there's decided political significance.

Try and Stop Me

Discouraged by a laundryman who shrunk his clothes to such a degree that he scarcely could squeeze back into them, Francis Duffy finally sent the offender a note reading, "I'll bet you can't shrink THIS." The laundryman met the challenge. The Colonel got back a measly "carpet" sack and a card demanding "Says Who?"

MY ANSWER

Question: Do you believe God, who is love itself, ever gets mad? —H.I.M. Answer: Speculation about God, outside of that which He has revealed about Himself, is very unwise. We must turn to the Bible and find out what it teaches and let it go as that. God does not get mad, in the sense that He loses His temper. But the Psalmist tells us: "God is angry with the wicked every day. It is an sin which He hates; and He hates it, so much that He did a wonderful thing to free men from His power and compunction. —He gave His Son to save us from our sins. Therefore, we see the love of God."

THE COUNSELOR

Have Stamps, Will Join Club Question: I have been saving stamps for several years but have never joined a stamp club. Will you tell me how I can get in touch with one here, that is, if there are any nearer than New York City? —O. H. S. Answer: There are several in Westchester. The quickest information about any stamp club may be obtained through the Westchester Philatelic Society which meets on the third Friday of each month at the YMCA in White Plains. Yonkers has a very active club which meets the first Friday and third Tuesday evening of the month at Haugari Hall, 47th Street, Astoria, N. Y. Stamp Club meets the second and fourth Thursdays evenings at 1015 High School. Members about other clubs, attend a meeting of the Philatelic Society at the YMCA.

WORDS, WIT, WISDOM

There will be no ocean liners in 2,000 A. D. Anyone inventing space rockets will travel via atom-powered submarines which will be free from the slow and pitching of present-day surface carriers. That's one of the answers to any rate, speculations about the world to come. According to the country's most practical and forward-looking scientists, the world of the next century will be traveling in space, electrically propelled submarines.

India, Land Of Steady Heat, Helps Men On Summer Garb

NEW YORK.—It's the season for dreaming of trips to far-away places, so come along with me to exotic India and mysterious Indochina.

The trip may be only synthetic, but not the materials. They are pinks (genuine cotton and polka madras Examined after Madras, India, where it originated).

This borrowing from lands of steady heat is a whole new thing in men's sportswear this Summer. As sensible as it's colorful, admittedly, nothing's so cool as cotton, the only fabric that is at once porous and absorbent.

All Washable

Everything's washable, of course, including sports shirts, slacks, shirts, Bermudas and beachwear. And the last-though muted colors are not fast. They aren't meant to be.

Remember last Summer's beach and playclothes, on a much smaller scale than the men's studs now, that I said would "bleed" when washed? Well, that's the most prized characteristic of madras, the once you wash it, the more color they run together and blend, and the more beautiful it becomes. At least in the eyes of connoisseurs.

Western eyes, trained to admiring only wash-fast colors, may need reorientation. The new madras patterns are not clear, airy outlines to start with, so that when the colors run together the effect can become richer and quite pleasing.

Conversation Piece

And whether the individual madras is handwoven in India or machine-approximated on American looms, you can't miss a real conversation piece on links and beaches by buying up a lot on its individual lot.

You'll learn, for instance, that your cabana set of India chukka cotton derives from the original polo shirt; chukka is basically the same word as a polo shirt in the Orient, is widely played in India. Or you'll select a madras shirt in one of the regimental stripes—it comes in 25 different ones. The history and exploits of a "you" chosen regiment may prove good for half a dozen aesthetic anecdotes.

You'll tell the Bangkok background of your Bangkok Bay sports coat in touch-tone hair-line stripes of green, blue, white or India. More, of your Rice

Goelet Buys NYC Building

Henry Goelet of 540 The Parkway, Mamaroneck, investor and builder, has purchased the property located at 107 West 44th Street, 100 feet west of the Avenue of the Americas in New York City.

This property is contiguous with the five-story store and garage building recently constructed by Mr. Goelet at the southeast corner of 45th Street and the Avenue of the Americas, and rented to the Kinney System for 20 years.

Major League Races Start Taking Shape
Associated Press Sports Staff
It begins to look more and more as if the two major league pennant races will be three-team affairs with the other clubs good enough to keep the leaders on their toes.

In the National, it's Milwaukee, St. Louis and Brooklyn. In the American, it's New York, Cleveland and Boston—although the Red Sox may hold only a half share of the third contender's entry along with the Chicago White Sox.

The Braves, with Warren Spahn looking like a sure thing, and Hank Aaron finally hitting the ball, retained their slim edge over the Cards by winning the New York Giants 7 1/2 last night while St. Louis landed with four runs in the N. L.'s top 10 hitters, put down the Philadelphia Phillies 14, Brooklyn wasn't scheduled.

In the only other N. L. game, Chicago's Cubs finally won on the road, knocking over Pittsburgh 4-1. It was the Cubs' first success away from Wrigley Field in 11 tries this season.

The New York Yankees upped their A. L. lead, snapping the White Sox' six-game winning streak with ridiculous ease 10-3 while lefts-hander Whitey Ford

Stoddart Nips McIntyre For 440-Yard Win

Bitter cold weather and a powerful Rye high school track crew proved too much for Mamaroneck's cindermen as they easily snapped 27.1 to 27.1, finishing on the victory field. Coach Pettibone's contingent was only able to take four events from the speedy Garnets.

Colony once again garnered the only individual running contest for Mamaroneck as he capped the half mile. The cold held his time down to 2:08 as he also led down the distance of Storey's victory.

Pellico Bests Girolamo For 2-Hit Triumph

The western and bats were cold yesterday at the Parkway Field diamond in Pelham, where only three of the four bats were used in Pelham edged Mamaroneck 11 in non-league play on two unearned runs, 2-0.

Three of these bingles were of slacker variety, the fourth being a 37-foot triple by Pelham's Stan Beaghen which proved last-minute.

Beaghen unloaded his tremendous shot after Mamaroneck centerfielder Joe Roma had dropped Kevin Hagearty's one-out loft in the last of the fourth for a two-base error. A sacrifice fly by Jack Pellico, which would have been the third out, scored Beaghen.

Going the distance to average the other side of the diamond was Mamaroneck rightfielder Pellico who chalked up a two-hit triumph.

John Cardas' slip homer in the seventh was the fifth and Pellico's sacrifice fly to center in the seventh was the only hit for Mamaroneck.

The other side of the game was a double by Beaghen and Pellico which just fell into the rightfield line for a double.

It was the shortest game in the MAMMALS history. The MAM rightfielder huffed power ball while favoring seven and walking two. Pellico whiffed five walks.

Mamaroneck threatened three times, but Pellico, with the help of poor base runner Joe Roma on second, strangled each rally. The Pellico ace cut Chris Lally on a pop to end the third inning, stranding runners on second and third.

BHS Juniors Rally To Trip Garnets, 5-4

A two-run rally in the last of the seventh enabled the Belongs junior varsity to down Rye yesterday at Harbor Island, 5-4.

Mike Scarrangella went the distance for the Panthers to stain a four-hit victory. He fanned nine and walked four.

A single by Scarrangella after Mike Aloia and Ron Soriano had stroked to open the seventh loaded the bases with one out and Belongs trailing 4-3.

Rod MacDonnell singled home the tying run, and Lou Marclante batted in the winning run when he drew a free ticket to force home Soriano.

EGAN CLAIMS GOP DISSATISFACTION

Edward J. Egan last night declared that he decided to run for the Republican nomination for representative in the 26th Congressional District when he and his backers "found widespread dissatisfaction with the county chairman's choice this morning."

Mr. Egan, addressing some 50 members of the Young Republicans for Egan at the Bevan Hotel in Larchmont, said he did not intend to limit his campaign to the county chairman's choice. "I knew we would have a large number of very progressive voters who were not in favor of the man who was designated."

Mr. Egan, an attorney who resides with his wife and five children in Larchmont, said the county is overwhelmingly Republican and the next Congressman will be chosen from the primary election next Fall.

TRAFFIC

A good chance of being caught if they drink too much.

But so are the drunks of 42 people in the county so far this year. The program has drawbacks, yes!

No one relishes the prospect of being delayed and questioned when returning home late at night. But neither does anyone relish being involved in an accident with a drunken driver.

Details might be worked out and the effects of illness, towns and villages throughout the county will not necessarily be coordinated. But considering the lives involved, the program has been considered by those worried by our increasing highway fatality rate as well worth a trial.

RESIDENT CHARGED WITH OBSTRUCTION

Charges of disorderly conduct and obstructing traffic were leveled against a resident of Mamaroneck, N. Y., yesterday.

First signs of the campaign became apparent in the past few days when the three rivals—Mayor Edwin B. Dewey of Mamaroneck, Edward J. Egan of Larchmont, and Benjamin Nields of Rye—started dropping harsh criticisms of their opponents late speeches which had previously read aloud as if they were written by the same press agent.

So close had been the positions of the three that Mr. Dewey yesterday said "As a matter of fact all of us are in agreement on the basic issues."

The opposite had been true from the start in the 27th District. There Representative Ralph W. Ginn and Supervisor Christian J. Armbruster have been slugging it out with bare knuckles. Not only are these two virtually poles apart on most of the issues but each has been hurling charges at the other.

Mr. Ginn and Mr. Armbruster can get together on the time and place for a debate. Mr. Armbruster is making a meeting in Roosevelt High School in northeast Yonkers, where he has many supporters.

Mr. Ginn favors holding the debate in Republican headquarters in the southern end of the city, or in either of two schools.

The class has been special during the Winter and Spring and will be presented to the bishop by the Rev. Canon A. Pennington of St. Thomas. The candidates will be confirmed before the altar of the Communion rail.

Special music will be directed by the Choir under the direction of Warren A. Foley, organist and choralmaster.

POLITICAL ROUNDUP

It's A Slugfest For 26th District

After weeks of political agonizing, the three contenders for the Republican nomination for Congress in the 26th District are taking off the gloves as they near the June 5 primary battle.

The change is due in part to the peters which affect most candidates in the primary election. Some of it, too, is the result of over-enthusiasm of the supporters of the rivals and the whispers of the editors who enjoy no more than a slugfest. In any event, the contest promises to grow hotter.

Davis Rumps Mams In 8th, 3-1, On Falco's Hammer

The Daily Times, Mamaroneck, N. Y., Sat., May 19, 1956

Crillo Gives 1st Hit After 2 Outs In 8th; 2nd Safety Ends It

By FRED DWYER
High School Correspondent

After hitting 75 innings of hitless ball, right-hander John Crillo was rapped for a scratch single for a three-run home by Jay Falco which produced a 3-1 WIAA victory for A. B. Davis over Mamaroneck yesterday at Manchester Field.

The setback just about eliminated Mamaroneck's chances of retaining the crown it annexed last year, since it would be the Tigers' mark at 2-2 while demoting them two levels behind Yankees.

Davis and Mamaroneck exchanged unearned markers without benefit of a hit in the initial frame, then went on to play six innings of scoreless ball. Stan Cherson went the distance to gain a two-hit victory. He fanned nine and walked three.

It was the fourth league triumph for Davis which won't sports an overall 3-1 mark. The lone defeat of the Hilltoppers was a 4-3 extra-inning affair, which was dropped a three-run loss to unbeatons Yankees last week.

Mamaroneck meanwhile, now holds a 3-5 overall record, with games remaining against Port Chester, Roseton, Gorton and Yankees.

Roma Saves It In 8th
Centerfielder Joe Roma made a sensational diving catch, and Ralph Casazza's sinking line for the second out in the sixth inning to preserve Crillo's no-hit bid. Roma dove, and Crillo collected the solo sacrifice. For Mamaroneck once again were Fat Pennucci and John Cardenas. These were the only players to be at bat in the eighth.

Felici could not pull down the Mams Thursday.

The game was slated to continue on-league play at Manchester Field against Port Chester on Monday night.

For the Yankees: Gorton, Fredrick W. Cobb, Post, White Plains, will be most with Jackson Thayer, commander, presiding.

Mr. Allman will receive a certificate of appreciation from the council for his work as loan guarantee officer of the V. A. in the Albany district last year.

Portside Falco, swinging in the clean-up slot, cleaned up completely as he rocked one of Mamaroneck's seven chances right field for four bases, the game and possibly the title.

Crillo, who had fanned six and walked three, was hit by a super ball while hitting ninth and walking four.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Take the word of boxer Carl "Bobo" Olson, the lightning left of middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson strikes twice.

Olson, the former champion from San Francisco, lasted just six minutes longer against the dancing dandy from New York's Harlem last night than he did in Chicago last Dec. 2.

A left hook put him to sleep for the full count and more to break the division round in his title bout scheduled for 15. The last previous time they met the end came at exactly the same time in round No. 2.

Pay days for both the winner and the loser were forestalled by legal action. Olson's estranged wife obtained a court order to stop his share, and Uncle Sam slapped an income tax lien against the champion's share.

Following last night's televised twilight affair, manager Joe Gassen declared Sugar Ray will now go after the light heavyweight title. It was the general understanding he might do so if the current title holder, Archie Moore, graduates fully to the heavyweight division.

Olson said "I never saw the punch and never heard the referee count to 10. All I know is that when I got up, I saw the people standing."

For the education of his own and not Bobo, Robinson said: "I set him up with a right to the body and the knockout punch was the left hook to the jaw. I hit him good."

Olson said "I never saw the punch and never heard the referee count to 10. All I know is that when I got up, I saw the people standing."

Mantle And Berra Spike Yank Punch

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Staff

You can love those New York Yankees of old time, but you've got to look upon Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra as the best one-two punch in baseball—the bread-and-butter guys for the Oakland Stengel.

Mickey and Yogi have the look of the old Yankee window-busters, the nearest thing, perhaps, to the Duke and Lou Gehrig in what they called the American League in the late 1920's and early '30's.

Mantle, only twenty-four, leads the A. L. with 15 homers, 43 hits and 409 batting average at the moment. The only big departure he doesn't lead is runs batted-in. Yogi has the edge in that one with 38 to Mantle's 32.

Berra's the A. L. runner in hits (407) and home runs (12) with a .357 batting average. The power-partners put those statistics to work again last night as the Yankees, scolding, just to two and one-half game led in the A. L. and ousted the Chicago White Sox 8-7 in 10 innings.

Joe Judge's Cleveland dropped an evening battle with Washington 4-1. The Boston Red Sox, handling Kansas City a fifth straight defeat, took their third place from Chicago by a half game.

In an afternoon game, Detroit defeated Baltimore 3-2. In the National, free-swinging Cincinnati put in an Brookly six-game winning streak, 7-6 in 10 innings. Philadelphia, behind Curt Simmons' three-hitter, side-tracked the St. Louis Cardinals 4-2. And the Chicago Cubs topped Pittsburgh 3-2. Tweakling weather postponed Milwaukee at New York.

Mantle and Berra each had four hits against the White Sox and each drove in three runs. Mantle belted a pair of home runs, one left-handed and the other right-handed—and for what it's worth, stayed 13 games ahead of Ruth's pace in his 60-bomber season.

Mantle's second drive of the night came off reliever Minnie Howell with two out in the ninth and tied the score at tall. Andy Carey's single broke it up in the 10th, following a Gil McDougald's single and a sacrifice.

BELLOWS OUTHITS EAGLES, 8-3, BUT DROPS 6TH GAME

Despite outhitting its opponents, 8-3, F. E. Bellows suffered a 4-1 setback from Eastchester yesterday at Harbor Island in SWIAC activity.

It was the sixth defeat in the last seven games for Bellows, which had beaten the Eagles earlier in the campaign, 4-2, to improve its mark to 3-0.

Since this victory the Panthers have been adding badly dropping games to Rose, Pleasantville, Edison, Hastings, Pleasantville and Westchester.

ville again and yesterday's Eastchester. Only a 6-2 decision over Whites Harrison has prevented a complete collapse of the Panthers.

Marciane HRs
A circuit lead by Lou Marciane enabled Bellows to take a 1-0 lead in the initial frame, but the Eagles rebounded with one run in the second and three in the fourth to win.

John Finelli again hurled a strong game for Bellows against the Panthers, but was pulled in the seventh.

The Panther ace fanned 12, batted and walked seven, allowing three hits. After Eastchester had strangled the game in the second via two walks, a single and an error, it bunched its other five runs in the fourth with Finelli's wildness to stretch the lead.

After Roberts walked, Tom Vaccaro tripled. Carlo walked, stole second and scored behind Vaccaro on Reilly's base hit.

Leading 4-1 Stanley nursed his advantage well. He was in trouble frequently, but delivered that "K" winner in the ninth. Stanley scattered eight safeties, fanned 10 and walked six.

F. E. Bellows wanted to continue competition in New Rochelle against Blessed Sacrament Tuesday, but was scheduled to Rye Friday to meet the league-leading Cardinals.
