WARM AS TOAST

Question: Your column can be of great help to me because of the problem of heat again this year. The problem of heat again this year, complicated by the shortage of gas, is a real problem. In this specific instance, we have been given no help in the other day when the temperature outside registered 40 degrees. Last year, we could expect no heat before 9 in the morning, and the fires were banked at 9 at night regardless of temperature. Perhaps you wonder why I have not reported this in the so-called proper authorities. It is because the complaints the authorities did us harm. The landlords find out who made the complaint which puts us in a strained relationship. The reaction of the landlord is "If you don't like it move." Move. Where to? Subscribers

"THINK OF THESE THINGS" Editor, The Daily Times: Society has provided means for dealing with any laws Frank Ward may have broken with just and fair play. None of the penalties prescribed, however, include medals intended and we omitted them to make him a path for campaign purposes. In that the only side of Frank Ward is his quietness? I think Frank we his neighbors know is kind, friendly and considerate. A Frank who can take a neighbor or two and gather the children of the neighborhood with Coca Cola and other soft drinks and take them, time after time, for an outing on the Sound, because he really loves them.

THE CHOICE OF A SENATOR

THERE is no more important function to be served by the electorate of Westchester on next Tuesday—Election Day—than the proper choice of a United States Senator from New York.

The choice lies between John Foster Dulles, Republican, and Herbert H. Lehman, Democrat-Liberal. The fourth recognized party in the State, American Labor, put up no candidate for the position.

The cleavage between the expressed philosophies of the two candidates is largely upon domestic issues. On foreign affairs, each is dedicated to the present bipartisan policy of the United States, to preserve by every honorable means the cause of peace, to support, through military aid the power of resistance by Western Europe to aggression from Russia, and to strengthen our own national security to the point where Russia will be deterred from attack upon us.

There is, however, an important difference between the two men on the question of the United Nations. That has done with the experience, the understanding, the equipment each would bring to the United States Senate.

Mr. Lehman, while well experienced in administrative affairs of the State as handled at Albany, where he served as Governor for 10 years, has not matched this experience and participation with personal tasks which would have given him an understanding of foreign policy.

Thus, he served acceptably in foreign relief and rehabilitation work during the war, and also in a similar capacity for the United Nations. But this accomplishment is only a small segment of the experience needed to qualify a United States Senator for participation in the formulation of foreign policies which will preserve the peace.

On the other hand, the record of Senator Dulles could hardly be bettered in this line. It has served under four Secretaries of State either as consultant, delegate or head of the American delegations at every important international conference since the war—and this under secretaries of a different political faith gives concrete evidence of his capacity to put our foreign policy above party lines, evidence as yet lacking for his opponent, should there be a change of power at Washington.

At the original conference at San Francisco where the charter of the United Nations was drawn and signed, at the first Council of Foreign Ministers at London, at the Moscow conference of the same council in 1947, at the United Nations general assemblies in London, Paris and New York, it has been John Foster Dulles who has personally taken a large role in shaping our policies and adhering to them through one crisis after another. There is, without doubt, no other single individual in America who has so much personal observation and wisdom of contemporaneous international affairs to offer in the service of his country.

Not only would all of this vast experience and knowledge be lost were Mr. Dulles removed from the Senate; there would also be a sharp blow to the bipartisan concept which has featured the development of this policy and its usefulness for peace.

As to domestic affairs, we believe implicitly that the defeat of Senator Dulles would be interpreted by the Truman Administration as a green-light signal to pursue still further its trend toward what has become known as the "statism" concept which has, by which we mean the continued growth of bureaucratic control over the individual citizen.

A vote against Senator Dulles is a vote for socialized medicine. It is a vote for sick agricultural schemes which keep food prices in the grocery stores high. It is a vote to increase Federal taxes. It is a vote to repeal the Taft-Hartley labor reform law. It is, most of all, a vote to give Washington an increasing authority over the lives and personal habits of the private individual on the assumption that he does not have sufficient intelligence to manage his own affairs.

These are reasons why we believe it is to the best interests of the State of New York that it continue to be represented at Washington by a man of proven experience, ability and influence. That man is John Foster Dulles.

Another surgical operation has been televised. If this keeps us the appendix will qualify for a Hooper rating. A gift of 5,000 apples has been sent to the United Nations. Let's hope the Russians don't veto this gesture because the donation did not come in the form of pie, slush or cider.

Red Hot Servicemen Record 2809 Series

Leaders of the Servicemen, a Daily Times League entry, rallied in all directions last night to carve out the local series' best team pinfall, 2809. All three of the Servicemen's aggregate efforts struck past 250 mounds and their final game of 9-7 swept the two honors for the night.

As would be expected, that result easily carried the Servicemen a 4-0 triumph. The Servicemen, another aggregation which is hot after the 1949 championship, also pounded out three game blanking while the Shore Clubmen retained their place with a 2-0 win over the Red Hot.

Two weeks ago the Times League's second round, which bested the double century figure. Last week they had a cumulative slump and fell off to nine "select class" pinfalls. There was a slight trend upward this time as ten games reached that figure, five of them coming from the hottest team on any local alley. However, it was Marty Fader of the Servicemen who made the difference with his 225 pinfall.

The other noteworthy singles were noted by Johnny Mackay (203) and Joe Canini (212), Tommy Ward (220), Rolfecke (228), McMillan (233), Mervyn (282) and Tedesco (311).

These latest scores of the Servicemen right back in the thick of the struggle. It was their third straight match victory and

Rams May Add Irish To List

NEW YORK (AP)—Up-and-coming Frinham may add where Army left off as an annual opponent for Notre Dame in New York.

Plans for a series between the two Catholic institutions, becoming possibly in the near future, discussed informally during a visit here this week of the Irish athletic director, Ed O'Malley.

Krause said Notre Dame is anxious to play a game in New York every year "preferably a New York team."

"If Frinham is interested in playing us regularly, we will be glad to present the proposal at a meeting of our athletic department next week," said Jack Coffey, athletic director at Park.

BASEBALL BONUS RULE MAY FACE NEW ATTACK

VERSAILLES, Ky. (AP)—Opponents of the new bonus rule criticized bonus rule today evaluated their chances of striking it out from the books.

The measure comes before the Winter meeting at New York, Dec. 12-14-15 with the major league council on record as recommending it be deleted.

That puts it squarely before the owners to repeal, amend or retain it.

The council also would like to see the American and National League reach a uniform playoff system when pennant races end in a tie. It said it would like to meet next week but didn't name a specific plan.

They have won eight of their last nine games. Last week, they ran off with both team highs and wins were repeat winners in that category. Every member of their lineup recorded better than 200 games. That was Charlie Lam, who suffered no ill effects from a 271 series, 193 being his poorest game.

The scores: Servicemen 2809, Shore Club 1949, Red Hot 1879, Mervyn 1879, Mervyn 1879, Mervyn 1879, Mervyn 1879, Mervyn 1879, Mervyn 1879, Mervyn 1879, Mervyn 1879.

SOMETHING NEW—SINGERS FAVORED

Off on another nerve-racking week of practice drills, Mamaroneck High's all-triumphant grid squad is facing this Saturday's tilt in an altogether new and unfamiliar field. For the first time since the Tigers rolled up the score in their curtain dropper last Saturday, they will be on the ground with the odds in their favor.

With Alvin Otto Kolb retaining his healthy accuracy, the Mamaroneck team will be in a decisive victory over the Metropolitan shooters who were host at their range last night. Kolb, with a 195 top score, dropping three points in the kneeling position and two in the standing position. Low Hazleton of the MRC and Ed McMillan of the MRC were knotted for the runner-up spot with identical totals of 193.

It's no fun being and then a big pot on the back should be given Ed Purts and his Mamaroneck High School cross-country team which has won four of the engagements this year. The disciplines were of the triangular variety and the Bengal harriers finished second in one of the events last in the other. However, I thought their captain is siding for a spell, and the Bengal Tiger runners don't give up easily. They will keep pushing right through the rest of the season. Incidentally, the state gets really rough from here on with the WTA meet coming up on the 10th and then the District One encounters a week later.

The locals don't figure to do much, if anything in either of those countywide events. There isn't a very wide interest in cross country in Westchester, perhaps because of the fact that it isn't much of a spectator sport. Plenty of good old fashioned track fans are harbored in the vicinity but they don't care to tramp all over the woods just to watch a bunch of youngsters run. And no one blames them for that. When the high school athlete gets out for cross-country, he is interested in the sport for the physical benefits it will give him rather than the cheers of the multitude. He's you and no one else to aid out on the hills and the hill and dale. You do it all by yourself and when you win there just isn't the same respect, thrill to match it.

Back To The Gridiron
The last few days we have been in a mathematical mood and have compiled and released the scoring totals of the scholastic sports in this area. This practice has never met the approval of the coaches because obviously the object of the game is to win and not for each team to see how many points he can accumulate by himself. However, the policy in the past, we will continue same. This revamped system of releasing the praises of athletes to the sky and the commercializing of sports has gotten so far out of hand that no stone can be left unturned. Perhaps it's a step forward but there are so many chances to success which start on the athletic field that even if the boys can't keep their minds on the readin' and writin'.

From the Mailbox
Publicist of the University of Maryland reports that Joe Pettus, one of the greatest backs to be turned out by MHS, continues to spark the "Tempt" football squad. We expect that the collegiate grid world will be hearing from Mr. Pettus when he becomes eligible to play varsity sports. Joe and quarterback Jack Schwartz are recipients of Charles Keller scholarships, awarded by the famed New York Yankee.

Speaking of the Yanks, George (The Kid) Kalkreuth wings his butterfly skills into the Stadium this week. Another hard-to-stop passer against the tough Yankee line. The traditional "Lumberjacks" of the National Horse Show will be staged at Madison Square Garden this week. The "matinee" actually starts in the morning. The only list of 68 is an all-time high. Seven Westchester enthusiasts are on the list.

Duke's Earon Picked As 'Linenam of Week'
DURHAM, N. C. (AP)—Blaine Earon, Duke's sophomore end who wasn't even a regular member of the team at the beginning of the season, is this week's "linenam" of the week.

Stengel Is Named 'Manager of Year'
NEW YORK, (AP)—Casey Stengel, who led the haploids in the Yankees' season, was named as the major league's "Manager of the Year."

CHICAGO, (AP)—Two Montreal Canadiens hockey players were jailed last night following skirmishes with a group of fans during the National Hockey League game with the Chicago Black Hawks at the Chicago stadium.

One spectator suffered a scalp wound which required several stitches. Five other fans, struck slapping blows by a slick-wielding player, were not injured.

Chicago's president, Art Ross, and Leo Gravelle, were charged with assault with a deadly weapon. They were released on $200 bonds signed by William C. O'Connell, president of the Chicago Cubs. Ross is in court Nov. 14.

Fighter Reserves Get Attention
While the varsity jogged around and enjoyed practice of a mild winter, the flight instructor and his aides Orlando Cisano and Bill Rowland gave the reserves and active-duty pilots a hard workout at the Hilltop. The Hilltop brain trust decided to give the reserves a workout in the early days of this week since they were unable to schedule a Juvvave game, thus leaving the active-duty squad members with the prospect of flying duty for more than 10 days.

The regulars welcomed this move and took full advantage of the opportunity. Coach Harrison lined up a few new pilots to keep them on their toes and the reserves were under the supervision of quarterback Lou Rigano who was charged with the second and third stringers who, if they continue to improve, may be worth their weight in gold during the next two weeks.

The Yonkers lot of 1948-49 was the first lot since 1946-47 which the bengals will not only be coming out on top but, now that their weight is gold during the next two weeks.

SALEM, N. H. (AP)—Amateurs with plenty in their hearts and a knowledge of the physical geography of Rockingham Park were sought today in connection with the "spoging" of five horses in the seventh race here Oct. 24.

H. M. Lewis, track veterinarian, said he was convinced "amateurs" were involved because the sponges were obviously pushed up by a person's fingers.

The sponging was discovered by Lyle Phillips who found a small blood covered sponge in the feed bin of his horse Sarskerack, which finished fourth in the race.

Mexican Riders Amaze Audience
NEW YORK, (AP)—The all-around fearless work of the Mexican military jumping team at the National Horse Show, which went into its third session today, was completely unexpected. It still has the audience gasping.

When Olympic champion—and one of the world's greatest horsemen until someone proved otherwise—Col. Humberto Martinez does not win, his students take over. Of the three military contests held so far, the equestrian one for Col. Matiles and two for Capt. Ruben Ortiz, who won the Dakota trophy at last night's event in Madison Square Garden.

The Mexicans will shoot for two more military trophies today, the international low score challenge trophy and the Gen. Manuel de la Camacho trophy, which they captured last year.

They were never more right than yesterday when they predicted that when Sammy Snead teed off for the first round of the North and South Open Tournament, most of the first tee standees took off after the slugger from White Sulphur Springs, Va.

Pete DeRuza Hits Comeback Trail--Saints Open Court Drills

Mamaroneck Fighter Debuts On Thursday

Mamaroneck, which hasn't had a professional boxer since Pete DeRuza was slugging his way around the water-wet ring, once again has a representative and it's time it's midweek Pete DeRuza. The stocky local boy who once was the pride of Westchester and packed the County Center every time he stepped inside the ropes there, signified his readiness to make a comeback in a statement yesterday. Because of his sensational past record and his reputation as being a crowd-pleaser, the Mamaroneck fighter has been given a semi-final billing for Thursday night at the Sunnyside Gardens, Queens Boulevard and 45th Street in Long Island City with Mike Ferrando of Brooklyn as the opposition.

The last time Pete put on the gloves was in December, 1947 when he boxed the feature at the Park Acaez, losing a 10-round decision to Cowden. Reuben Shanko, one of the toughest welters in the history of the ring, among the long list of foes DeRuza proudly boasted of was having never knocked off his feet. However, the ex-welter, weight champ of Westchester, who came close to getting a shot at the world's crown when Henry Armstrong held it, lost that decision when Maxie Berger of Canada sent Pete down for a nine-count at the County Center in a tussle that had the fans in such an uproar that a riot later developed. DeRuza, who was DeRuza's greatest triumph, was given the nod in that one, again on a decision.

The comeback attempt was all Pete's idea, says his new manager, Mike Aloisi. The Mamaroneck slugger made his mind up to take another stab at it after working out at the New Rochelle YMCA and Westchester's Gym, 141st Street and Boggs Avenue in the Bronx. He has gone through the regular training grind, rising at six each morning to run 10 miles before breakfast shadow boxing and skipping rope at the Eugene W. Glavin Athletic Club's emporium of pugilism for eight or ten rounds of boxing.

With eight months of non-health-giving practice, DeRuza claims to be in the best condition of his career. Both he and his manager believe that the 160-pound class will be his best bet and the slither when former world's champion Benny Leonard said was the hardest hitter in his division already has warned DeRuza the task Leonard handed Pete for several years and didn't need coming to decline that, his job charge was the class of the division if given a chance. However, at that time DeRuza was suffering with thin skin tissue around his eyes and, on the advice of his handlers, decided to hang up his

TOWNERS EXTEND KEGLING STREAK

The Towners replaced the Expresses as the Larchmont Ladies Bowling League's hottest pin-sucking unit as the result of last night's matches at the Larchmont Rec Center. After a skid of three straight wafers the Expresses were ousted by the Towners who were aided by the Toddlers 2-1 while the Towners were carving out a split decision victory over the Meabanes. Meanwhile the Embassy grabbed the only shutout and Don's Four had notched three straight light encounters. The Towners have now notched three straight wins in a row, both matched by the 12-12 in the newly matched fumes' circuit.

The high single for last night was a 198, rolled by sportswoman Claire Giancola of the Towners. Floris Lanza fired a 194 single and continued on to a 493 score, best individual pinfall of the evening. Other leading players were done by Evelyn Pruitt, Elaine Foster, Marie Librandi and Nancy Forzani.

The boys were far out in front in team triple scores with 1277 but the Towners nipped them for single high with a 620 tally.

The scores:

Five Vets, Three Newcomers On Local Quintet's Roster

Although it's awfully hard to believe, Westchester's football season is creeping into its final 1949 stages and to give it a little shove down the hill, the first sign of formal basketball was seen this week. It was the St. Augustin's Saints of Larchmont, the county's outstanding non-professional quintet, which made that initiation as they have for the last three campaigns since they were formed. They made it in the form of practice sessions on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the St. Augustin's Gymnasium with the entire eight players they plan to carry on their roster this year available for the workout.

Tony Lidooni, the diminutive sharpshooter, will again lead the Saints this year in a player-coach capacity. Lidooni announced yesterday that there would be five holdovers from the team which completed 20 victories last year and dropped only six. This leaves only five for three new faces and they have already been chosen. The returnees are Dave Latimer of Section 11, George McGee of the Fort, Han, Joe Cullen of Manhattan Joe Connolly of Iona and Lidooni himself who also returns.

None of the additions are unknown locally in striving to make their widely known names. The newcomers are Larchmont-Larchmont who have succeeded recently in one instance—Larchmont.

Now for the recently made gains. First man to be hired to the job was Tommy McGee, husky ball-hawk who starred for the Pellham Sun Inn during 1948-49.

Then came the revelation that Bill Cunningham had agreed to the Mamaroneck High team last season. Had been added. The third man is George McGee, a 6-foot, 11-inch Larchmont who is the third man on the team to come from Iona College. Negotiations also are in full swing to acquire the services of a nationally known ex-collegiate star for at least a few games. Further information in that line is forthcoming.

Actually, the only fault that can be found with this Saint's preparation is the lack of a really big man. Latimer, Dubey, Connelly and Cunningham all are three or four inches six feet but any or all of them would have a time taking rebounds away from a really big behemoth such as is rapidly taking over the same.

Junior High Gridmen Elect Guinee and Rex Co-Captains

The Mamaroneck Junior High's football team held its final 1949 meeting yesterday and the squad unanimously elected right guard Bob Guinee and quarterback Bob Rex as the honorary co-captains for the recently completed season. The Junior High gridmen, captain and willing coached by Bill Howell, had a fine all-around campaign, winning three of the four engagements. The bag of wins included two over Eye and a single victory over Ridgeport. Ridgeport ruined the Junior High team's perfect slate with a 15-12 conquest last Friday which was considered a slight upset.

Most of the athletes who trudged through the slate with their usual coach will undoubtedly turn out for the Hilltop varsity next year. The Junior High team was originally formed so that the scholastic youths could gain experience against teams of their own caliber.

Marvin Williams and Albert "Ducky" Walker ran up the highest point totals for the Bengal Clubs, with a cut, registered 78 markers as compared to their opponents 40. Both backs scored four touchdowns and were voted twice on extra points for 28 all-around. Tom Caparotta, fullback in Howell's single wing offense, tallied twice and one conversion for 13 points. However, his great value was in his superb ball-handling. Earl Holland and Bob O'Donnell, accounted for the remaining markers.

Aside from the ball-carrier, quarterback Bob Rex was a stand-out and another key ball-handler. On the line the mainstays were Bob Guinee, Gorham Cowi, Joe Dimarco, Dick Diforio, Johnny Hughes and Jay Fisher.

For many of the Junior High operatives, it was the first contact with grid fundamentals, a Mount Vernon Police Athletic League footballer will meet the Passaic PAL eleven at Memorial Field tomorrow afternoon in an Eastern Scholastic PAL League game. A victory will give Mount Vernon the league championship.

PRAYER FOR TODAY—May my vision, dear Father, never become so clouded that I shall overlook the tremendous power of faith. It is by faith, I know, that I can cultivate virtue and conquer sin. It is by faith that I learn to tolerate annoyances and bear the burdens and woes of life, yielding ever to Your guiding will. My faith stands for the invisible realities that the eternal verities that cannot die.

YOU STILL HAVE TIME TO VOTE

BY THE TIME The Daily Times reaches your doorstep today you will still have time to vote if you have not already done so. The polling booths will be open until 7 P. M. and if you are in line at that time you will be permitted to cast your ballot.

Although this is known as an "off year" in politics, it has not been an off year if gauged by the interest in the race for United States Senator and for Supervisor and Councilmen in our town election.

Although the vote up until noon here had been heavier than in previous elections, the great bulk of the voters had not yet voted the polls. Every indication points to an extremely close race in the Town of Mamaroneck, so close in fact that your ballot could even be the deciding factor.

In an election so bitterly fought as has been this one, it is essential that every possible voter make known his choice if the will of the electorate is to be truly expressed.

Although The Daily Times is firm in its belief that the re-election of Supervisor Mandeville would be in the best interests of the taxpayers, it is as firmly believes in majority rule as the keystone of our democratic form of government. And there will be no bitterness remaining with us after tonight against any party, any candidate, if the electorate decrees us in error.

We know that every good American living within the boundaries of our town will join us in burying all differences and in giving support to the victorious candidates once the electorate has rendered its verdict in a campaign issue in 1950 and 1952. So, once more the nation has the spectacle of politics being placed ahead of the nation's welfare!

HOW MUCH WORSE MUST IT GET

PRESIDENT Harry S. Truman traveled last week through the section of the nation hardest hit by the coal and steel strikes. But he remained silent about his plans for strike settlements, if any. Correspondents on the train returning from St. Paul were unable to elicit any comment from him on the conditions in areas where the President's official passed miles of idle plants and long rows of empty freight cars.

At Pittsburgh a reporter dashed to the observation platform of the President's car, holding up a newspaper whose headlines read: "Coal Shortage Grips City—Hospitality Run Short as Coal Wave Hits." But Mr. Truman did not come out upon the platform to express any sentiments. Later it was explained he was remaining inside to write a speech delivered Sunday night over the air extolling the virtues of the Democratic candidate for the Senate from this State.

The coal strike is now 50 days old. The steel strike is 38 days old. Many more than a million men are idled and many families without income. The economic status of many large cities has been hard hit. Many industries dependent either upon steel or coal have been forced to shut down and send their workers home.

Yet Mr. Truman stubbornly refuses to make use of a potent weapon to end the emergency—the Taft-Hartley Law. This is because his political advisers think it would be a mistake to use the very law which he intends to attack as a campaign issue in 1950 and 1952. So, once more the nation has the spectacle of politics being placed ahead of the nation's welfare!

How much worse must the situation get before Mr. Truman will admit that an emergency exists?

Col. Joe Bush Says:

How much weight can a vote of oxes draw? Mike Wardell of American Airlines is claiming the record for "Duke" and "Jerry," the two Durham oxen that pulled the "Flagship Westerner" airplane along the runway before the grandstand at the County Airport last week. The oxen weighed 39,000 pounds. Anybody got any rival entry?

We have got to admit we don't know much about oxes or bulls. In fact, up to now we had always thought Durham was a smoking tobacco.

Our stand on foreign affairs is that we believe in the open door policy. And the back door on Sundays. Our slogan when we run—if we can get anybody to nominate us—will be: "No Oxes and No Free Beer Everybody."

We never worry very much about what we would do if we had John D. Rockefeller's money. But occasionally we get sort of curious of what he would do if he had our money.

Looks like practically everybody in our neighborhood is taking up this new card game called "Canasta" which as far as we can figure out is gin rummy with complications. It's a matter how well you play it—his the fellow who keeps score who always wins.

COMMENDS SUPERVISOR

Editor, The Daily Times: The campaign to replace the present Town Supervisor is quite fantastic in that the major objections to Mr. Mandeville seem to be for his writing on behalf of the Board. The subject of taxes should not be brought out at all. The claim that he talks for his Council should be commended. From the available facts, it seems that the record should stand for itself.

Although I was introduced to Mr. Mandeville we had no conversation and I do not know him from "Adam." But I have seen ample and satisfactory evidence of his administrative and executive ability.

A Glance Backward

A DECADE AGO

(From The Daily Times) Although a total of 9,327 persons was registered for the Town of Mamaroneck election, interest was so low that the town clerk was expected to be light. Most observers believed that it would be a quiet election because of the fact that there was no opponent for Supervisor Post C. McCulloch who was seeking reelection to that post. The three-cornered race for councilman was drawing the most interest. Mrs. Regina Bach of Pryer Lane, Larchmont, returned from Europe aboard the Holland-American ship Westerland. Westerland's ten-seater toll on the Hudson River Parkway was held illegal by the Appellate Division of the State Supreme Court. County authorities immediately announced they would appeal the decision. Soviet Russia announced the United States for repulsing the Arms embargo, asserting that it was "only a mask to cover up their strivings for profit." The Thanksgiving Day situation in Maine was further muddled when Governor Lewis O. Harvey proposed it should be observed on Nov. 30. President Roosevelt had already chosen Nov. 23. This left Maine, Mississippi, Colorado and

George Okerhausen's Bellows football team played its best ball of the season in holding the NYSD eleven to a 6-6 tie. Able LaTrusciano scored the BHS touchdown. Mamaroneck High's team, obviously underated, played to a 9-0 success with many favored opponents. Peter Hoffman, Carl Weisbach, Margaret Beaver, Judith Starr, and Andrea and Margaret Wilson, won honorable mention in the eighth annual children's national photograph contest.

Barry, Quitting Jail, Faces Old Gem Thefts

NEW YORK (AP)—The man rated by police as one of the most successful levee thieves of all time will leave prison next week—only to face some old counts left over from his heyday.

Arthur Barry, now fifty-nine and white-haired, admitted at least 100 burglaries in Westchester, Long Island, Connecticut and New Jersey, and his loot was estimated by police departments and insurance companies at between $4 million and $10 million, of which only $50,000 ever was recovered.

Barry is to be paroled next Tuesday from State Street Prison. He will be met by Nassau County detectives with eight yellowed bench warrants left over from the $100,000 robbery of financier Jesse L. Livermore.

But Nassau District Attorney Frank Galotta admits he doesn't know how much of a case he has against Barry.

Said Galotta of the eight warrants charging Barry with first-degree assault, robbery and burglary in the Livermore case: "I don't know what I can do with them. District Attorney Eli N. Edwards is dead. County Judge Lewis J. Smith is dead. Chief of Detectives Harold R. King is retired, and most of the detectives are dead or retired. But Barry will be arraigned anyway, next Wednesday or Thursday."

Livermore, himself, committed suicide nine years ago.

The Livermore robbery dates back to May 20, 1927, and it was that robbery that proved the undoing of Barry and his partner, Earl Monahan, known as Boston Billy Williams.

They were captured and tried in 1927 on a number of indictments.

Barry testified against Monahan, who was sentenced to 10 years and died in prison of tuberculosis.

Barry was sent to prison for 23 years.

A silver plaque was presented to Mr. Gleitsman by Lawrence A. DeLeon, president of the league, as a testimonial from all members of the board. Mr. Gleitsman was the original sponsor of the league and served as its president for three years. He is also one of the

Architects, Servicemen Close Gap In "Time" Kegling Circuit

Although they took two out of three games last night at the Larchmont Rec Center, the pace-setting Taverners of the Daily Times Bowling League did not finish from a running margin out to a single length by the Friendly Servicemen and Architects who mopped up the Spanten and Rees while driving to spurned victories in the weekly matches. The other triumphant quintet was the Englishmen who beat the Olers and thus created a two-way knot for cellar in the eight-team circuit. The Taverners, who have now won 18 games and lost six, have been seeking the Rec Center pins ever with consistency, but the Servicemen have just been red aggregated has post four consecutive match victories and has topped 11 of the last 12 games they have gone after. That's almost unbeatable quite, and just how low it can last is a big question to the rest of the Times loop at this time.

Third kepler to turn the trick when he upended 899. There was a tie for the single high between Don Treanowen of the Olers and Sonny Lambardi of the Servicemen who held over identical games of 234 pins. DaCico was right behind with a 223 and Cowling's best was a 222. The race for the biggest number of pins for a team in one game was just as close and the Servicemen with their final production of 862 were in front of the surprising Shore Club by only three pins.

N. D. SHART NAMED LINEMAN OF WEEK

NEW YORK (AP)—Big Len Hart, Notre Dame's husky 240-pound end, is this week's Lineman of the week.

Hart's work in the Michigan State game earned him the award in the weekly Associated Press poll.

Thus for the second straight week the award went to a player from the Pittsburgh area. Hart is from Turtle Creek, Pa. Last week he snared went to "Tweener" Eason from Altoona, Pa.

Frank Leahy, Notre Dame coach, thinks so highly of his four-foot-four end, he would like to try him at fullback, carrying the ball. However, Hart is too good a blocker at end.

Besides he sometimes carries the ball on end-around plays and when he snafus forward passes. In one play of the Michigan State game Hart caught a pass. Two MSC tacklers tried to stop him, but both were knocked flat.

Hart's performance surpassed that of Jimmy Kynes, Florida center, who spanked his team to an upset triumph over Georgia. This week's nominations:

ENDS—Joe Glavin, Washington Art Weber, North Carolina, Bud Grant, Minnesota, Bud Sherrod, Tennessee, John Cawley, Appalachian State, Leon Hart, Notre Dame, Rudy Bauman, Texas, Freddie Williams, Rice.

Maryland Suspends Horse Race 10 Years

BALTIMORE (AP)—Salvatore J. Cicero, accused of stimulating a mare he had entered in a Pimlico race, yesterday was suspended for 10 years by the Maryland Racing Commission.

The commission heard testimony that the owner-trainer administered benzadrene to Rough Ory before the second race at the track last Oct. 26. Rough Ory won, returning $46 for a $3 bet.

Key witness at the hearing was Joseph Louvain, former stable boy employed by Cicero. He testified he held the thoroughbred while Cicero "needled her with a hypodermic."

CIPOLLA ROLLS 206 AND EV LOOP

Mary Cipolla with an eye-opening 206 single showed the way in the first round of the Pimlico Handicap at the Mamaroneck Rec Center last night. The number one horse in the field, she led the line up to a shut-out victory over the Marketes. The Expressites upped Sal Gals by another 3-0 margin while the Pharmaceutes mopped it. Four Eyes winning to end the race was made necessary when the 100-1 accumulator ended in a flat-footed tie, but both compiling 560 points.

The blanketing was one straight for the Cleavers who are now one of the hottest teams in the circuit.

Gorton HS Ruled Favorite In WIAA Cross-County Meet

By OSCAR BARBER

Gorton High School appears to be the team to beat tomorrow at Tibbetts Brook Park when the WIAA conducts its annual cross county championships over the wooded two-and-a-half mile East Yonkers course. The Wolves, however, have to contend with entries from the defending champion Roosevelt Indians as well as from the challenging New Rochelle, Mamaroneck, Yorkkers Central and A. B. Davis barriers.

The Wolves' stock went up after their victory in the Yonkers City meet last week. Led by Walter Paul and Bill Lyle in third and fourth places, the Gorton runners chased each other across the finish line to garner the low score of 32 to dethrone the defending champion Indians who were a distant second with 64.

DERUZZA DEBUTS TOMORROW NIGHT

The initial act test for Mamaroneck's Pete DeRuzza, top up tomorrow night at about 9:30 P.M. when the local batter steps onto the ring at Sunnyside Gardens against Mike Ferrando of Brooklyn. This engagement of middleweights is a semi-final on the card and pans out as a close scrap between the "cutie" and a heavy hitter. DeRuzza, best known to this town has ever produced his first knockout since December of 1947 and therefore any future he may have in the prize fighting game will hinge on the success against Ferrando.

Pete rounded out his night workout wearing grimy gloves by skipping rope and then shadow boxing. He has trained faithfully and finally got down to 160 weight. Mike Aloisi, DeRuzza's opponent, has been in the middleweight ranks. Previous to this long layoff he was a welterweight but early in his career the Ward Avenue scouter found in the featherweight class.

COUNTY ENTRIES SCORE IN SHOW

Five Westchester area entries broke into the scoring on the final day of the National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden, New York City, yesterday.

Silhouette, a black mare from the Ward Jones Farm in New Rochelle, finished fourth in the $1,000 pure harness stake. Fourth place in the working hunter preliminary championship went to Hydro Fashion, a chestnut gelding owned and ridden by Betty Nason of Greenwich.

Jean Cochran of Westport, Conn., rode her Lotter to sixth in the Trotwood Farms stake and another Connector to fifth. Golden Hill, a chestnut gelding from the Greenway Farm, placed fifth in the Alred Mackay Memorial Challenge Trophy hunter stake. Golden Hill also placed third in the $500 yearling stake.

BELLOWS SQUAD BEARS WIND-UP

Bellows, a small local high school whose athletic teams some times do the things it turns out to be best in several sections of 1949, the club with Tuckstone on the latter's plunkin platter of the season's highlights. The try to keep their heads above the water in the thoroughbred making their third road trip of the campaign. Five of their first seven days were contested on the Danell Warren turf in familiar New York.

Coach Jack Pearson declared yesterday that he was highly pleased with the East End team's progress. He was particularly firm in his belief that, with even reports of success, Anderson never let his boys could have taken the bacon home. "I've a good club," the smiling BHS grid coach said. He continued, "I was very terrific and I was impressed with the heaviness of their line although all pre-game reports emphasized that their forwards were big and rused. We needed just one break at a vital spot in the game but it just wasn't in the cards for us to get it. We definitely had more drive than our opponents but they were all over Dan Anderson, trying to keep him from getting near Ed's field. Perry Cochran Va. ## Harrisburg Horse Sale Sets First Day Mark

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Having got off to a record first day start, the initial large consignment of yearlings will go on the auction block at the 11th annual standard bred horse sale today.

A record shattering $208,000 was paid yesterday for 163 trotters and pacers, most of them horses in training. The total was some $20,700 higher than the first day last year when the overall figure reached an all-time harness horse sale record of $1,078,000.

Bellows Gridmen Complete Season Tomorrow Against Tuckahoe

Panthers' Opponent Unbeaten; Locals Aim for Fifth Victory

Unbeaten and once tied Tuckahoe plays host to Rye Neck's Bellows Panther gridmen tomorrow afternoon in the final tilt of 1949 for the locals. Both teams have won four times but the BHS eleven has dropped three along the road while the Tigers' lone spot is a schlesie tie with the NYSD. Kick off time is listed as 7 P. M.

Tuckahoe's fighting squad will have to cope the verdict on this one or sink down to the 500 level. The Rye Neck club holds decision over Clifton, Irvington, New Canaan and Harrison. The Irvington trouncing knocked the Bulldogs out of the select class so if the East Enders do pull the trick it will not be their initial experience at that type of work. Only Rye's swift attack has been able to send the Bellows down to defeat since the Panthers first got a taste of what it's like to win.

The Tigers' Tuck's nick-name have taken the measure of St. Agnes, Dobbs Ferry and Clifton-Harmon. The Crotons were taken into camp by 51-0 last Saturday while Bellows removed the same outfit by 33-0 count. Thus Bellows will be after win number five in this time and also will have to shake off the after-effects of the Rye nightman's Tuckahoe still must play Clifton-Harmon in Turkey Day special. A Bellows triumph would complete the best season and East Enders' record has been able to put together since the 1943 Panther went undefeated under Howard Schmitt's coaching and under the leadership of Eddie DeLoe. DeLoe has made a name for himself as an All-East coach at Syracuse University.

Detroit Youth Tuckahoe's ace carrier has been put on the injured list due to a badly swollen ankle and may not see any action.

NRRS-DAVIS HIL TOP ATTRACTION

Westchester's oldest schoolboy football rivalry—New Rochelle vs. A. S. Davids of Mount Vernon—highlights the weekend grid schedule of 71 games.

The New Rochelle-Davis series, inaugurated in 1897, celebrates its fiftieth anniversary game this Saturday. The 50th meeting between these two ancient schoolboy rivalries finds the Maguennos a top-notch favorite. And rightly so, for the Queen City 11 now win five in a row and has not yielded a point in six outings. Davids, beaten only by White Plains, has also won five.

On the 49 previous career, Davids has won 24, tied 10 and lost eight times. Scattered along the way in the series, uninterrupted since 1931, however, Davids has enjoyed little success against the Purple Wave, winning only 1942 and 1947. The outlook is rather dim for the Mount Vernon school again this year.

Unbeaten, untied, unscored on Scarsdale's grid since 1947, the straight-against Horace Mann of New York today on the home turf. This area's only other unbeaten until its Hastings, Mount St. Michael also will see action. The latter on Saturday Hastings is scheduled to meet the Mount St. Michael straight while Mamaroneck, winner of all five starts moves into the last two days. Harvest on the last two days. Harvest on the last two days.

Vinnie DeLoe is the regular quarterback for the Orange and Black and he will be ably assisted in the backfield by Roy Saravella and Bob Smith. However, it will be Coach Chalval pulled out the first stringers in a tilt two weeks ago. The opposition rolled to two quick TDs.

Kramer Rips Pancho In Match At Center

By HAROLD SMILEY

Jack Kramer, king of the tennis pro, gave Richard (Pancho) Gonzalez, 1940 and 1949 amateur champion, another net lesson last night in winning the 10th match of their career pro tour, 6-4, 6-4 at the County Center in White Plains.

Approximately 3,500 fans saw the concentrating Kramer extend his margin to 7 matches to 3 over the youthful Pancho. In the other singles encounter Francisco Pancho's Scarsdale opponent, Frank Parker, 6-4, 6-2, for the ninth time in 10 matches. The long-time Tiger star managed to tie the South American in their other engagement at a set-all.

The crowd got the biggest kick out of the doubles contest, replete with good and tricky volleying, in which Kramer and Parker experience a bit of defeat in the second set, 6-4, 6-4.

The main attraction was a tame affair until 5-3 in the first set when the twenty-one-year-old Pancho got down to business. Kramer never did seem able to connect for most of the match at a time until games that (1) Bellows has and (2) again developed participation interest in the gridiron sport and that the following crowd through several losing seasons has not jarred their spirit.

Jack Peterson has supreme confidence in his charges and is sincere in his praise for the athletes who come off the mat to make "Jack" deserve a pat on the back for the memorable season. Happy to see the youngsters do it on their own, from a comparatively small school with limited material, he has done an outstanding job.

There's another guy in this territory who also knows something more about the game than just that you've got to get the points to win. He's Harry Harrison of the Westchester County "coach of the year" as far as many are concerned.

Coach Harrison's lads have a couple of big ones to look forward to this year. They know the first one is Port Chester, always deadly to the Tiger. They know the second is a pleasant season for the champs. But they also know nothing better than to run Mamaroneck's bid for a perfect state. Whether they can or not is questionable.

In his opinion they should be humiliated again in the Bergen area in another charitable mood. From the Mallory.

Jolly Woodbridge, quarterback on last year's fine Hilltop grid team and a state hockey player so well, has turned his athletic attention toward rowing and has made the freshman crew at Cornell the host of Jolly's friends and admirers from this vicinity who come off the mat to learn he is doing so well. The Princeton Alumni Association of Westchester County has dropped the hoop in announcing that a special railroad car will take Princeton rowers from New Rochelle to Old Nassau this Saturday, day of departure time, 10:30 A. M., and the return trip will start one hour after the Ell-Tiger encounter. "Mavor Moore" Cohen writes from Staten Island that his basketball team, the Blue Jays, has keenly interested in booking exhibition games with others in the 17-18 year old class. Anyone interested can get the mayor at 78 Victory Blvd., Staten Island, N.Y.

George Fenger Makes Gain In Local Grid Scoring Race

George Fenger, the lad who has managed to control his "crazy legs" and who has sparred the Mamaroneck Tigers to five straight victories this season, secured his trip on second place in the local scoring race by tallying twice last Saturday. Fenger brought his total up to a fine 43 to close in somewhat on Anderson, Bud Hankman, Ben Bellows, Anderson, or "Crump" as his critics call him, added another six points to the East Enders were being tipped by Eye and row curves around a record of 10 TDs and an extra-point for 61 markers, one of the top figures in Westchester.

The Pleasant, Tiger fallback held on to third place by going into pay-dirt, one to make his point total an even 30, all via touchdown passes.

Bob Keegan and Ed Feldt, both service at all tomorrow. This is considered a big blow to the Tigers' chances of remaining unbeaten because they are notoriously weak in the receiver department. Tyson sat out most of last week's scrap and the attack didn't function too well without him. When Coach Chalval pulled out the first stringers in a tilt two weeks ago, the opposition rolled to two quick TDs.

N. YONKERS WHIPPED BY MRC STRONG TEAM

North Yonkers proved to be an inferior opponent for the Mamaroneck Purple Club in their match at the Yonkers Range last night. The locals backed to a 54-0 win with their fourth straight victory of the Southern New York Inter-City League campaign.

Left Halfback with perfect performance in the prone and kneeling spots, bounding with speed with a 195 yard dash. ## Frat Keglers In Big Slump

The Mamaroneck struck the keynote of Fraternal League kicking last night at the Mamaroneck Rec Center by stopping the Odd Fellows "B" aggregation in a closely contested match. Other winning outfits were the Manzonis, Lions and Odd Fellows "A".

The Pokes, one of the brightest prospects in the Frat circuit, showed the way by contributing four of the five games that averaged over the Double C mark during the night. Wait Webber with two of them was the big series man at 500 pins but Gus Pennetta of the Manzonis continued past a 222 single for top honors. ## GRID BAN ON ELBOWS UPHeld BY COACHES

Don Anderson and Ken DeLoe, leading back pitchers, will open at the franchises and promise to give the host team a dose of all attack in the running game. Ed Keegan and Don Dahleren will not doubt set the opening tackle acts with Merv Bonnard and Steve Skehan at the guards and Bill Masrino at the pivot post.

They claim, in particular, that Don Anderson, Bellows high scoring end, while going off passes was held by Garnet heads who resorted to "double teaming" to stop him. The charge is that despite the fact that the new football rule restricting elbow blocking but most of them want to assure rigidly enforced.

"There's any holding about the increase in penalties," the coaches brought it to the coaches' attention. "The coaches," said Lou Little of Columbia University, "are the Rules Committee, today." They were all for it.

Max Cut DeLoe indicates "In fact, we sent letters to the various conference commissioners requesting strict enforcement. We feel it's a fine rule and will cut down rough play and injuries."

The rule stipulates that when an offensive player uses a hand or forearm in blocking the hand must stay in contact with the body.

Spotlight On Sports

By DICK CARPENTER

High spirited followers of Jack Peterson's Bellows eleven were up in arms over something that did not meet with their approval at Daniel Warren Field last Saturday. Rye kicked the East Enders' scrum but many Rye Neck faithful seem to think that the injured Ed Feldt's wrenching of his right elbow by officials once again.

ASHEVILLE, N. C. (AP)—The Asheville Citizen quoted Coach Carl Snavely as saying last night "it is very doubtful" whether Charlie Justice, University of North Carolina All-America football star, will play in New York Saturday.

Justice, an Asheville native, has been under constant treatment for a badly sprained right ankle received in the football game against William and Mary last Saturday. He reported "I practice today for the first time this week."
