LARCHMONT FACES TEST OF STATION PARKING SYSTEM

Legal Right to Restrict Area Challenged By Town Resident

A resident of the unincorporated area of the Town of Mamaroneck is challenging the legal right of the Larchmont Board of Trustees to restrict parking at the station to residents of the village.

Village Attorney William J. McWilliams disclosed last night to the Village Board that Paul E. Gilbert, 124 East Post Road, filed a brief Tuesday night before Judge John R. Cahill in Larchmont which asked for a writ of summons issued to him when his untaxed car was found in the restricted village lot south of the railroad tracks at the depot. Mr. McWilliams explained that the one in question is the Larchmont system of "parking insurance" which only limited travel to residents of the village.

Mr. Gilbert, a New York lawyer, claims the restricted parking area is invalid under state vehicle and traffic laws and a violation of Article I section 11 of the State Constitution which states that no person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws of this state. He also claims that the restriction is a violation of the State Constitution.

Mr. Gilbert's brief asks the court to declare the restriction invalid and to require the Larchmont Board of Trustees to issue a writ of summons to him.

Spartans And So. Cal Picked n Big Games

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Staff

NEW YORK—Two of the season's biggest games are scheduled for this weekend with Notre Dame the guest of Michigan State, while Southern California and Stanford battle on the West Coast for Rose Bowl honors.

Only two defeats mark the records of these four teams. More were lost a thriller to Southern California, 27 to 23, and Southern Illinois was split by Camp collection, 7 to 17, in the first of a six-game doubleheader on 12-29.

Here's how the crystal ball says a game, plus others on Saturday's schedule will turn out:

Michigan State over Notre Dame: The Spartans have had a coach's rest to get set and allow for injuries to heal although Notre Dame got little rest in its scrimmage in defeating Navy last Saturday. It should be a very tight game similar to the 35-33 Michigan State victory of a year ago.

Connacota helps a Cal Southern California over Stanford: Any team which put Connacota in its lineup must be favored.

Illinois over Iowa: An Iowa victory over Illinois is as rare as a tie reduction.

Tennessee over Washington & Lee: The generals are defending Southern Conference champions but their past history won't do them any good against the current victor.

Maryland over Navy: Dick and Ed Modrowski, the Miami Mo and Little Mo of the Virginia team shouldn't have any problems with the Middle.

Princeton over Harvard: The first of the year's Big Three games. But the only thing about this one will be Princeton's score.

Georgia Tech over Virginia Military: The perfect spot for an up-

Bellows Shoots At Rye Jinx; Tigers End Season At PCHS

Both Mamaroneck and Bellows rifle machines may be the driving force in the season at PCHS. The local team on pickup opponents in what ordinarily would be the final appearance of 1951 for both outfits. The Panthers, however, have their contest with Danvers postponed from last week to Nov. 11, so they'll still have one to go after meeting Rye at Daniel Webster Field Saturday. Mamaroneck will go to Port Chester seeking its third straight.

Bellows has chalked up three in a row and will be trying to see up the mythical "Little Three" crown against a Grays eleven that has won four of six Bellows, 45-16, but everyone is very conscious of having been able to take a football victory from Rye in the 14 years and Jack Peardon's grudge is 7-0 against two seasons ago.

All Bowlette Tilts Are Split Decisions

Scoring a shutout was a rubbered assignment in Bowlette rated matches on Larchmont Bowls alley but night and no team was able to turn the trick. The Doc's Girls, Olivettes, Tullies, Roses, Lilyettes and Palmettes all recorded a 5-5 decision in the final round.

Best of the pinfalls was Fran Hutton's 5-0, with Yonkers' 4-0 for the runner-up spot. The latter took single honors with 1-0 game and Hoffman of the Ohio Four was just one out off that score in her second try.

Police Warned To Save Rocky

BROCKTON, Mass. (AP)—Police have been warned that an attempt may be made on the life of boxer Rocky Marciano at a homecoming reception for him Saturday.

Hot Off The Gridiron

Five Westchester schools and three from along the county borders are still waiting the unbeaten, unblemished and unscathed football season heads down the long stretch.

Still in the scorching category are the Orange and White Plains (4-0), Scarsdale (4-0), and Cortlandt (4-0).

Roundout (4-0) is rounding out the season with one in Riverdale, just south of Yonkers, with a 5-0 record.

Undaunted but hot bracket in Brewster from Yonkers, with four wins and a tie in five starts.

Chappaqua has finished its season. Coach Mark Whitlock's charges wound up the campaign with 20 points scored in the combined opposition's 21. Mainstay of the Chappaqua squad was apocryphal Tom Schenley, a versatile halfback who tallied 14 touchdowns for 96 yards, the highest individual total in the county this far.

Elimford, with one game remaining has enjoyed a tremendous season. Coached by Tom Schenley, the Elms have scored 116 points in six games with Washington and Jefferson.

The NCAA's chief argument in favor of controlling television of college football games is the alleged adverse effect on small college attendance. This week, Franklin and Marshall will play Washington and Jefferson.

Women's Guild PTA Entertains At Luncheon Hears Talk On Christophers

The Rev. James Keller, founder of the Christophers, last night described the work of the organization for more than 100 members and guests of the Women's Guild of St. John and Paul Church in the rectory.

Emphasizing the individual's responsibility for "positive constructive action," Father Keller said, "Less than one per cent of humanity have caused most of the world's recent misfortune. This handful, which has bet the basic truth on which this nation is founded, usually strives to get into fields that touch the lives of all people: education, government, the writing and news, papers, magazines, books, radio, motion pictures and television.

"You as parents," he continued, "should encourage your children to enter these same fields and work as hard to restore the fundamental truth which the other one per cent are working furiously to eliminate. We will then soon be on the highroad to lasting peace."

The speaker also related several of his experiences during his world travels in promoting the Christophers movement.

Preceding the talk a short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Paul Ryan, guild president. Assisting Mrs. Frank Polera at the social hour following the program were Mrs. Eugene Lenczner, Mrs. Roy Keller, Mrs. Raymond Richards, Mrs. Walter Brady, Mrs. George Connor and Mrs. Jean Higgins.

Good Literature Encouraged As Antidote To TV And Comics

Encouraging children to read "good literature" was urged upon parents last night by Mrs. Philip Wesson in a talk on books and reading for the Barry Avenue School PTA in the school auditorium.

"Good books must compete today with radio, movies, television and comics in our children's lives, it is more important than ever for parents to encourage children to read good literature and widen their horizons," Mrs. Wesson said. Introduced by Mrs. Lowell Dyer, program chairman, the speaker was observed on the program held in observance of National Book Week, Nov. 11-17.

Mrs. Wesson, known for her story hour programs at the Mamaroneck Free Library, urged each family to set apart a daily reading time with the young children and to supply each child with his own library of "worthwhile books." She mentioned the book review sections of the New York Sunday newspapers, the bi-monthly "Horn Book," and "An Apple Field" by Amelia Munson, as helpful guides to good books.

"Mr. Wesson recommended as 'one of the best books' for young readers, 'Ails Eleanora,' written and illustrated by Faymora of Mamaroneck. She credited her address with the story of 'The Secret Turnip,' a longtime favorite with children.

PRAYER FOR TODAY—Father in Heaven, Thou who call us in voice and song, help us to be worthy of You in our daily life, in our every deed. Teach us the way of true believers and doers; help us to follow the true and the right in Your name's sake.

BEANS UP THE NOSE THE action of Capitol Police in Washington in requesting motorists to take down Confederate flags from the radio antenna of their cars before entering the Capital Plaza is an utterly proper. Official regulations, quite justified, forbid the flying of any flags or symbols on those grounds other than the Stars and Stripes.

The point, while minor, sharpens up a somewhat controversial situation. There have been articles written to newspapers in increasing number recently, protesting this fact, which is mainly indulged in by the younger generation. It is not, in fact, geographical or political, although some see in it a protest against the Truman administration. Many of the cars bearing the Confederate emblem are from states above the Mason-Dixon line.

Do not regard the temporary whim — call it a passing adolescent craze if you wish — with too much seriousness. The worst thing would be to prohibit it generally. Don't forget the story of the over-zealous mother who, on leaving the house, warned the children that whatever else they did, they must not under any circumstances put beans up their noses. That was an intriguing prohibition, and children being what they are, Mous was hardly out of the door before they began to experiment.

Recall, too, the number of otherwise intelligent citizens who never thought much about drinking intoxicating liquor until an overly paternalistic government told them they shouldn't.

A PICTURE FOR POSTERITY FOUR outstanding citizens of Westchester appeared before the County Board of Supervisors last week. Two spoke eloquently and appealingly upon the desirability of establishing a Westchester County Museum.

These two were William J. Wallin of Yonkers, a former Mayor of that city, a former member of the County Park Commission, at present chancellor emeritus of the State Board of Regents, and Elliot Hurd of Ossining, president of the Westchester Historical Society. The two other equally distinguished residents of the county were George P. Grant, senior editor of the Reader's Digest, Chappaqua, and Carl H. Forstner, philanthropist, of Purchase.

The presentation advanced by these four citizens stems from a study made of the proposal by the Board of Directors of the Westchester County Association, that group, composed of leading industrialists, labor leaders, publicists and educators, is an excellent cross-section of Westchester citizenry. Their views deserve the serious consideration of the Supervisors.

The request was that the Board study the desirability of a County Museum. The Board has granted that request. Now, it is to be hoped, matters of cost and of location as well as of the type of museum most appropriate, will be promptly reported by the Board's committee assigned to the task.

Certainly Westchester needs a museum. There is scattered throughout the county a vast substance of historical material which could easily be gathered under one roof, provided there is a guarantee of safe-keeping and proper preservation. Public and private donations can be envisioned. Many objects of art, paintings, sculpture and the like would undoubtedly be questioned.

But the museum could and should be something much more than an art gallery. As Chancellor Wallin told the Supervisors, there should be a complete picture of our rich heritage from the past. And there should also be, as an educational institution, of domesticated and wild animals for educational purposes. The possibilities of such a public institution are unbounded.

Now we feel, and hope, that the cost is not excessive. There may be abandoned estates, large homes no longer occupied by some of our older families, which might be acquired without much expense. There undoubtedly are county-owned parcels of land which could be utilized without issuance of a single acre. And Westchester is a generous place when public service of this type is held desirable.

All in all, the proposal has sound merit. We trust not too many more years will have passed before this admitted need has been met.

Washington Politics Are Seen At Worst In Probe Of Oil Deal

BY RAY TUCKER WASHINGTON — The tolerant, easy-going and cynical spirit which represents Washington politics at its worst is illustrated dramatically by a Senate Committee's investigation of the oil-lease venture of Theron Claude Lamar, who heads the Tax Division of the Department of Justice. It also involves a former Attorney General and present Supreme Court Justice—Tom Clark of Texas.

WHILE serving in the D. C. in his present post, Mr. Lamar got a chance to take a gamble in a wildcat oil enterprise in Texas. Although it is charged that several partners were "shady" customers, he invested his money in the hope of getting rich quick. He didn't, according to his testimony.

REFUSED—Mr. Clark, then Attorney General, was invited to participate in the wildcat strike. According to the records, he refused to do so because of the questionable nature of the question and background of the men sponsoring the scheme.

A Glance Backward

A DECADE AGO (From The Daily Times) Prime Minister Churchill of Britain warned that the struggle going on in Europe might soon engulf "the remaining fourth of the globe." Russia was battling for the fight against Germany. Britain was putting on a new, special offensive to relieve the tension on her ally and the whole world was shadowed by threats of wider war. Kirk Savage was nominated to succeed Edward L. Greene as president of the Shore Acres Property Owners' Association. Ted Shawn, eminent American dancer and educator, gave a teaching demonstration and lecture at Murray Ave. School in the second program of the Westchester Dance Forum series. Art Frierden and Orin Leubuski were the joint winners in a Harrison High School football team that steamrollered Frisco. Gary started for the victory. Tyrone Power and Betty Grable were appearing in the film "A Yank in the R.A.P." at area movie theaters. Groups of exactly five men were appearing in the Larchmont Town of Mamaroneck Joint garage instructor at its first public inspection. Henry Taylor, consulting engineer, was on hand to answer questions. 20 years ago: John Donnelly, chairman of the Village Board of Assessors, refused to reveal who issued the order for a blanket 20 per cent increase in assessments. Joseph Gagliardi of Larchmont captured the Williams College golf championship.

Col. Joe Bush Says:

He—how did that feller get in there? They say there's no business like show business. After a long day's afternoon and night of watchin' the hams on TV, we're eager by the time we happened to that feller with the five-o'clock shadow?

Count that day lost, whose low increase assessment was not. Dealer leave the RFC on the spot. Armistice Day is, naturally, a fitting reminder of World War I. But it don't seem to carry much weight in authority in that circus tent over in Panmunjom.

Judy Garland Spurns Advice And Collapses

NEW YORK, (AP)—Actress Judy Garland, on a successful comeback track, collapsed backstage at the Palace Theater last night after disregarding her doctors' orders not to perform. The show must go on, the twenty-one-year-old singer insisted, according to her physician, Dr. Udal J. Salmon.

Her doctor had taken from the actress in an ambulance to a private sanitarium for "a few days." The doctor said she was suffering from "nervous exhaustion."

Miss Garland collapsed shortly after becoming ill in front of her evening audience.

She opened at the theater last Oct. 15. The critics raved, and the crowds flocked to the boxoffice. It was a triumph for the movie star, following a series of illnesses, temperamental outbursts, a suicide attempt and two divorces.

Dr. Salmon said exhaustion was "irrevocable" and added that he had been treating her for several emotional reactions.

Characterizing the play as a "mossy," Mr. DePaul suggests that it should be given a "fresh presentation" in terms of human emotion to move the audience emotionally as well as intellectually.

Acute Alcoholism As Illness Topic Of Women's Association

The public health problem created by alcoholism was discussed yesterday for the November meeting of the Women's Association of the Larchmont Yacht Club at the club house by the Rev. Clifford Earle associate secretary of the Division of Social Education and Action of the Board of Christian Education, Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

Dr. Earle pointed out that as early as 1790 it was recognized that some kinds of drunkenness should be treated as a sickness, and that under the direction of Dr. Benjamin Rush, leading medical authority of his day, was the origin of the licentiousness of the independence, the church established general assembly to study the problem of intemperance. Today, the speaker noted, acute alcoholism is regarded as an illness, and is treated as such by the medical profession.

The problem today is stated by a church committee which consults with leading authorities on the subject, Dr. Earle continued. The program includes a goal of voluntary total abstinence and requests practical legislative control on liquor traffic.

"Can we, as adults, accept it in our children's lives, is one question raised in the speaker's discussion of the acute problem of freedom in education.

The program was planned in conjunction with National American Education Week. Miss Noar traced the history of American education and outlined the best of which the modern school is built.

The modern school, as depicted by Miss Noar, is one which endeavors to prepare the child for his place in society. "There is only one way to learn," she declared, "and that is by experience, both actual and vicarious."

Mamaroneck JV's Rip White Plains Juniors, 26-18 In Final Game

Mamaroneck High's grid coaching staff favored its Jayvee squad with a few varsity-sophomore players at White Plains High Stadium and the Orange Junior Varsity promptly thrashed the previously undefeated-unconquered Orange Juniors 26-18 in the final game of the season on Saturday night at the MIS Jayvees and now football is officially over as far as the MIS is concerned.

From the moment when Perry Hill caught a 25-yard pass in the first quarter the visiting team never trailed, although the Orange came within one point of tying the score on two different occasions. Each time, however, the Orange padded its advantage and a brace of TD's in the final quarter made White Plains' last touchdown of little significance.

Mamaroneck's tactics were made by Hill, quarterback, who caught a 25-yard pass from Green to score in the optimum case and the same combination clicked for the extra point. The WP touchdowns were earned through two runs by Hill and Seward and a recovered fumble in the end zone by guard Pervanova.

The visiting Tigers made 30 yards for a TD the first quarter and took possession of the ball, 10:30 Sun Harris running 21 yards to pick up a first down on the Orange 36 at the outset to set the stage for a score. Harris and Walker then broke in the end zone and all the way to the White Plains 18 where he was picked down behind. The Juniors were penalized for offsides, gained four of the five yards on the ground and then Green led to Hill, who made the touchdown at the end zone after slipping to a yard, Green tied to Hill again for a TD.

The one-touchdown lead didn't last because the WP team roared 20 yards for a TD, which Seward the final 13 straight up the middle. The attempted conversion failed and Mamaroneck held the slim 14-0 edge.

Coach Rocky Circo's charges then put on a spurt of their own, going 80 yards for their second score. Pervanova came in live on the first down and Walker made another of the first downs. With White Plains tightening up in the middle, Wilkey Kaufman was sent on a review and he covered the end zone and he covered the end zone and he covered the end zone.

Nobody Licked M. H. S. Tigers By More Than A Single TD

It's the time of year when most football teams look back on their games and try to imagine how they were and try to imagine how they were and try to imagine how they were.

Injuries, as all rabid Tiger fans know, came close to ruining the season completely but Harry Harston regrouped his forces in time to make the campaign successful. Nobody had forgotten that the Hill-top pickup pick's previous five teams had not dropped more than one game a year, which is paragoning coaching for a school of Mamaroneck's size. There are less than 900 students at the Hilltop and fewer than half of those are boys. Davis and Roosevelt, for example, have had tremendous advantages in the way of personnel.

Unless prep school transfers hurt again next year, Mamaroneck should have at least the nucleus for a strong team in '52. In the backfield there will be Pory Dalton, Nino Macrone, Tom Pervanova, Fred Richards, Jerome Pervanova, Arlie Robinson, Perry Hill, Tilton Gardner and Joe Cardone for the logical candidates. For starting roles on the line.

A Foreign Policy For Americans

By SENATOR ROBERT A. TAFT

To Protect Liberty, Fundamental Purpose

CHAPTER I

What Are the Purposes of a Foreign Policy? No one can think intelligently on the many complicated problems of American foreign policy unless he decides first what he considers the real purpose and object of that policy.

Fundamentally, I believe the ultimate purpose of our foreign policy must be to protect the liberty of the people of the United States. The American Revolution was fought to establish a nation governed in liberty. That liberty has enabled our people to increase steadily their material welfare and their spiritual freedom. To achieve that liberty we have gone to war, and to protect it we would go to war again.

Only second to liberty is the maintenance of peace. The results of war may be to punish aggression in the destruction of liberty and, in fact, may lead, even if the war is won, to something very close to the destruction of liberty at home. War not only produces pitiful human suffering and utter destruction of many things worth while, but also almost guarantees for the victor as for the vanquished.

War, undertaken even for justifiable purposes, such as to punish aggression in Korea, has often had the principal results of wrecking nations based on the principle of liberty and spreading death and destruction among an innocent civilian population. War should be undertaken or seriously risked only when it is clearly in the national interest of American liberty.

Not Isolationism Our traditional policy of neutrality and noninterference with the affairs of other nations is the best way to avoid disputes with other nations and to maintain the integrity of this country without war.

From the days of George Washington that has been the policy of the United States. It has never been isolationism, but it has always avoided alliances and interference in foreign quarrels as far as possible. It has, however, always had a ready-made plan in advance, to take any military action outside of our territory.

Rye Neck Seeks Purchase For Class Overflow

Gerlach's Estimate Values $16 Million; Valuation Offsets Increase

By JOSEPH W. SHANNON WHITE PLAINS.

A $16 million Westchester County Executive Herbert C. Gerlach to the Board of Supervisors today.

While the $15,823,203 estimate including special taxes is $633,153 more than that for this year, an increase in the total assessed value of Rye Neck, which the county will result in a three-percent decrease in the tax rate.

Supervisor Owen A. Mandeville declared dispatch of the truck was a violation of his instructions that the truck should not roll without approval of the Council and Chief Thomson contended the action was in keeping with Town responsibilities in the Fire Chiefs' Emergency Insurance Problem.

Insurance and liability coverage were the matter was first altered when the supervisor read Attorney John J. Gerlach's opinion at their meeting the insurance policy. When the question was broached, the Council had already left for the management of the station.

Mr. Delius judged the insurance would not apply if the truck had been used to respond to an invocation in the insurance policy. When the question was broached, the Council had already left for the management of the station.

After the patrol car returned to the station at 10:15 P. M., Chief Thomson turned over to the Council in an order of the Board of Supervisors.

He asserts that almost all of the increase is caused by factors over which the county has little or no control, including a 460,000 increase in the cost of materials and higher costs of materials and wages.

The message points out that revenues showed an increase this year and that 1952 estimates have been based on an expected continuation of this trend. Mr. Gerlach notes that the county's gross budget is $1,813,000 over this year's appropriations. It is $2,420,000 over the 1950 level.

Higher Revenues Estimated In a message accompanying the budget, which will be submitted at the Board of Supervisors' meeting this afternoon, Mr. Gerlach states the tax rate reduction was accomplished by elimination from the budget of $4,437,000 in obsolescent and capital items; and estimating higher revenues and lower debt service cost, in addition to the more than $19 million in assessed values. Mr. Gerlach notes that while next year's gross budget is $1,813,000 over this year's appropriations, it is $2,420,000 over the 1950 level.

The message points out that revenues showed an increase this year and that 1952 estimates have been based on an expected continuation of this trend. Mr. Gerlach notes that the county's gross budget is $1,813,000 over this year's appropriations. It is $2,420,000 over the 1950 level.

Higher Revenues Estimated In a message accompanying the budget, which will be submitted at the Board of Supervisors' meeting this afternoon, Mr. Gerlach states the tax rate reduction was accomplished by elimination from the budget of $4,437,000 in obsolescent and capital items; and estimating higher revenues and lower debt service cost, in addition to the more than $19 million in assessed values. Mr. Gerlach notes that while next year's gross budget is $1,813,000 over this year's appropriations, it is $2,420,000 over the 1950 level.

He asserts that almost all of the increase is caused by factors over which the county has little or no control, including a 460,000 increase in the cost of materials and higher costs of materials and wages.

FOOTE RESIGNS 2 TOWN POSTS

Superintendent of Highways, Engineer Has Served Since 1936

A. J. Foote, Town of Mamaroneck engineer and superintendent of highways since 1936, last night submitted his resignation to the Town Council, asking that his resignation be effective at the end of this year.

Mr. Foote has twice before sought retirement from his town posts and retained his post at the request of Supervisors Owen Mandeville and the Town Council. In view of his recent illness, the Council last night agreed unanimously that Mr. Foote should resign when it is best for him.

Mr. Foote first became associated with the Town in 1929 when he was engineer for the sewer commission. To that post he desired three drainage pump stations that were incorporated into the county system in 1932. That year Mr. Foote planned the two town parks at the Larchmont railroad depot and the Mamaroneck Golf Course. A revised set of assessment maps for Town tax administration in 1933 he was appointed to the dual engineering and highway post.

RYE ASKS COUNTY SHARE SUIT COST

The Rye Town Citizen's Committee last night passed a resolution asking the County to "assume its full share" of costs laid on the Town by the Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corp. suit.
"The Republican County organization has given us a bad deal, and we shouldn't hesitate to let them know it," said Robert M.

Roberts, the committee's chairman.
It was pointed out at a meeting at the Ridge Street School that in both the gas company's certificate of necessity and in its contract with the County, it was stated a gas compressor station would be built in Westchester.
Ralph J. Marasco, a member of the committee, pointed out that prior to the County Board of Supervisors' adoption of the contract, a telegram was sent to it by two Rye Town officials urging a delay in granting approval of the pipeline until all facts relative to the location of the booster station were made known.

National Rent Director Calls for Building Cost

MOORE (AP)—Complete equalization of all residential construction except in critical housing shortage areas was urged last night by Fane E. Woods, National Rent Stabilization Director.
He told high ranking military officers and New Zealand construction and real estate dealers he would present his suggestion to Eric Johnston, Economic Stabilization Administrator, and Charles E. Wilson, Defense Mobilization Director.
The curtailment is necessary, he said, "to insure adequate housing for defense workers and military personnel in critical areas."
A critical area is "any place where housing is tight enough to have rent control," Mr. Woods explained.

Suicide Ruled in Death Of Scarsdale Resident

SCARSDALE—
Death of Miss Helen Simonds, forty-three, of 40 Crossways early today was ruled a suicide by County Medical Examiner David M. Smith.
Miss Simonds was found lying on the floor of her garage about 2:30 A. M. by her maid, Mrs. Frances Wichmann. A Scarsdale doctor pronounced her dead of apoplexy caused by carbon monoxide gas.
Police said the ignition key in her 1951 car was turned on but the motor had shut off before they arrived.

in good hands...

Faith in his little world comes easy.
Loving hands protect him.
But beyond his mother's hands are many others.
Hands of skilled and careful hands that prepare, test and safeguard everything he eats, wears or uses!
You may not have thought much about it—but from your childhood on, millions of people and thousands of great businesses compete to earn your confidence. The result is good living, convenient living—an everyday personal world in which you can have great faith, and take great pleasure.
Fine products of all kinds, from medicines to motor cars, wear manufacturers' brand names you can trust. Friendly, familiar advertised household names that guarantee quality, because the makers are competing with others for your favor. Trademarks that say satisfaction because you know the makers stand squarely behind their products, and work constantly to improve them.
There's another kind of security behind brand names... the security of great industries built by your everyday purchases. These industries proved in the last war that you had placed the necessary production for national defense in good hands.
As you study the ads in these pages, remember this: Free, vigorous, progressive American manufacturing industries and their trademarked products prove it over and over again.
