14 Survive Plane Crash

Wreckage Of Airliner Gives Up 22nd Body

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Searchers combing the area where an airliner crashed seconds after takeoff from Greater Pittsburgh Airport located another body this morning, bringing the complete count of the air disaster to 22 dead and 14 survivors.

The discovery erased any lingering hope that there might be another survivor in addition to the 14 who stumbled to safety last night, the flaming debris last night.

It came more than 14 hours after the twin-engine TWA Martin Skyliner crashed on the fringe of the big airport.

Rescue workers had removed 21 bodies from the ammonia debris last night. They were taken to the Allegheny County Morgue. Identification was proceeding slowly.

Inquiry Under Way

At almost the same time as the body was located today, a meeting of investigating groups, including representatives of the Civil Aeronautics Board and police and airline officials, was going on at the airport terminal building.

The big airliner, carrying three crew members in addition to the passengers, was taking off at the start of a trip to Newark, N. J., last night. Seconds away from the runway it swerved, a wing dipped and the plane slammed into a building, then burst into a ball of fire and smoke.

3 Missing In Airliner Crash

34 Saved As Plane Falls In Puget Sound

SEATTLE (AP)—A New York-bound Stratocruiser crash-landed in Puget Sound after its takeoff here today and the Coast Guard reported half an hour later that 34 persons aboard had been picked up.

The Northwest Airlines luxury liner went into the water after taking off from the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport. The crash scene was between the two cities.

The Coast Guard listed three persons as missing. The 31 known survivors were picked up in two Air Force amphibian planes. They were to be transferred to other rescue craft because the two planes were unable to take off with such heavy loads.

The survivors were picked up after they had been able to climb to the wings of the double-deck plane in the several minutes it remained afloat.

The fire broke out in the two-story asphalt mixing plant, unoccupied at the time. Sgt. Finlan Maegerle of Tarrytown Police discovered the blaze about 2 A. M. Five of the six Tarrytown companies were at blaze.

The flames shot high enough to light up the sides for miles along the Hudson. The building, 30 by 100 feet, had been recently used to prepare for the Spring road building program.

The cause of the blaze was said to be a faulty oil line which allowed oil to drip onto a floor and ignite. Firemen left the scene at 4:35 A. M.

Israel Arms Asked As Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Representative Keating, R. N. Y., said today he will ask a group of Republican colleagues to consider a bill to include arms aid for Israel in the Administration's pending $4.9 billion foreign aid bill.

It was a bright and clear Easter Sunday evening as the plane lifted from the runway. Flying conditions were ideal.

Thousands were at the airport to watch a colored fountain illuminated to climax, the city's Easter celebration.

Fear of a major Arab-Israeli outbreak together with low weather resulted in a relatively small attendance at this year's Jerusalem services.

In Vatican City Pope Pius XII warned that mankind is racing forward on the road of suicide and extinction from atomic bombs and guided missiles.

Addressing some 250,000 persons in St. Peter's Square below his balcony, the eighty-eight-year-old pontiff spoke of how the atom's vast energy might be put to peaceful use.

His message, broadcast to millions throughout the world, appealed for "light and strength from the risen Christ for those who control the destinies of nations."

On Cyprus, rebels gunned down a British civilian on an Easter promenade and hurled 120 bombs.

An estimated 10,000 Washingtonians lined the sun-drenched streets to watch President and Mrs. Eisenhower arrive at the National Presbyterian Church for Easter services.

In New York, chilly weather kept most Easter outfits under wraps as paraders moved along Fifth Avenue.

Former Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov spent the day touring England's Canterbury Cathedral with its controversial "Red Dean," Dr. Hewlett Johnson.

Fire Sweeps His Mansion In New Castle

By DAVID BALCH MOUNT KISCO—

A roaring fire swept the hill-top mansion of Broadway producer Billy Rose today, reducing the 25-room house to a blackened shell and destroying much of his valuable art collection. Damage was estimated conservatively at $400,000.

Four persons were in the building when the blaze was discovered at 2:10 A. M. A houseman was burned, slightly trying to save the collection of paintings. The house is on a 35-acre estate on Route 128 about two miles south of Mount Kisco in the Town of New Castle.

Rose at Scene

Mr. Rose and some house guests were awakened by the fire last night. He was back at the scene shortly before the fire was put out.

The blaze apparently started in a playroom in the west wing of the house. Frederick Hagnader, the butler, smelled smoke and aroused three other servants in a search for the flames, which were spurting through the roof by then.

Mr. Rose's telephone was dead—apparently the fire had burned out the wires—and Mr. Hagnader, the butler, called a house quarter of a mile away to sound the alarm.

Mr. Rose had his fire in the playroom fireplace, servants said, but the houseman, Joan Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Deems Taylor and an unidentified couple had had dinner and watched television before they left for New York at 9 P. M.

Some Furnishings Saved

A handful of furnishings were saved by firemen. Mr. Maxwell burned his hand while trying to save the dining room to save paintings. The butler, however, managed to crawl on his hands and knees to a safe and save the household silverware.

When Mr. Rose was reached in New Castle City at 3 A. M., his first question was: "Did they save the paintings?"

He and Mrs. Matthews went to the scene to help with the furnishings. Mr. Rose declined to estimate the value of the buildings and contents, regarding the paintings. "This is a terrific emotional loss," he said.

One of the paintings was reported by police to be worth more than $35,000. Mr. Rose was overheard to say that one of the treasures alone was worth enough to rebuild the house. The painting was reported saved.

Assessed at $70,000

The house is assessed at $70,000 but the market price would have been at least twice or three times that amount.

Harry Prochop, chief of the Fire Department, said:

YONKERS—

Three records were established as a field of 185 youngsters opened the bids in the Westchester Junior Indoor Swimming Championships last night at the Lincoln Street Pool.

The sixth annual Yonkers Herald-Statesman water derby pored down to 140 final slots, 78 boys qualifying positions and 62 for the girls, for tomorrow night's title-making. The records were set by New Rochelle's Yvonnerment Gene Eidenberg of Mamaroneck, representing the New Rochelle 'V', splashed the 200-yard free-style for the fifteen-stroke year group, in 2:14.40 better Peckskill Bill Bauer's 1954 mark of 2:16. Eidenberg also qualified in the century in 56.4, three tenths of the meet record. No one was close to him in either event.

Harold Tucker, another Mamaroneck boy splashing for the Huntington 'V', broke the 25-yard back-stroke in the eleven-twelve age group in 1:3. Tucker also set the new mark achieved by a full second the mark achieved by Ed Mc Anesney and Billy Cohen, both of Yonkers, in 1954. Tucker also qualified in the 50-yard free-style in one of the event's lower times. Peter Byers of Port Chester went the 25-yard back-stroke in 1:1 to top another record.

4 Better Old Mark
The third New Rochelle 'Y' representative to 40 over 100, previous top was Larchmont's Tom Collins, who went 1:8 for the 25-yard free-style in the ten-and-under age group to beat the 1955 time of 1:5.5 by Bill Muller of Yonkers. Ambrose Larchmont of the Yonkers, with 1:5.1, and Morris Epstein of Yonkers and John Wronski of Larchmont, with 1:5.5 also lowered the old time.

Some records barely escaped. Port Chester's Byers went the 50-yard free-style in the eleven-twelve bracket in 2:8.8, just under the standard. Salmini negated the ten-year-old's 25-yard back-stroke in 1:2, a mere 1/100th off the existing mark.

The female sailors had less crowded fields and record fever ticks. Perhaps the standout was Susan Salmini of the Huntington 'V' who went an 18-1/2 25-yard back-stroke in the eleven-twelve group only two-tenths off the record. Sue also qualified in the '50' free-style.

Official butterfly trials will be run off at that time to qualify winners in the final of the 100-yard freestyle in this event for the inter-county championships later this month. In all other cases, Friday night's final winners will be eligible to represent Westchester in the inter-county trials.

An Olympic contribution will be collected, in lieu of admission. MacDonal Mader and Peter Sinnott, both of Larchmont, won the 100-yard freestyle event for boys 15 and 16. Mader swam representing the New Rochelle YMCA while Sinnott represented St. Augustin's.

Other local finalists in the events for boys 15 and 16 were Tom Muller of New Rochelle and the 'V' in the 100-yard backstroke. James Hoffman of Larchmont, the 100-yard breaststroke, and Sinnott, repeating in the 200-yard freestyle.

Sheely Qualifies
New Rochelle and the Huntington YMCA hosted three finalists in the 15 and 14-year-old boys' events. John Sheely made the grade in the 200-yard backstroke breaststroke. He and Richard Mullen gained the last round in the backstroke.

Chlor Sloan, of New Rochelle and the Huntington 'V', was the only leader to achieve the status in the 11-12-year-old boys' division 25-yard breaststroke. Qualifying in the 100-yard and 100 and under were John Vronski and John Collins, both of Larchmont. Vronski, who was the 100-yard freestyle, and Collins, in the 25-yard breaststroke, and P. L. S. of the White Plains 'Y'.

East End Outlook 'Optimistic' For Successful Track Season

Expecting to show strength in the distance races and high jump and with a number of promising candidates on hand the Bellows Falls track team is optimistic as it prepares for its 1956 campaign.

Tom Morgan, a graduate of Wilkes College in Pennsylvania, was also assistant coach. Morgan was also assistant coach of the Fourth Army track team at Fort Sill, Okla., and throughout his career competed in the U.S. Army's C.V.A. meet.

Met Ring Title To Nethercot By K. O. In Ist
NEW YORK—Tom Nethercot of Port Chester captured the 125-pound Metropolitan A.U. boxing championship last night with a smashing knockout victory at St. Nick Arena. He thus qualified for next week's national tournament, the 100-year-old Y.M.C.A. meet the Met final by flattening Nick Spankov with a right cross to the chin in 1:16 of the first round. The New Yorker came in to throw a right hook one instead.

Cardinals Schedule Triple Header Will Start Off MISL Activity

10-Day Tournament Closes In High Gear

Hoping to retain the honors they swept in the Westchester Baseball Association last year, the Mamaroneck Cardinals will hold their first workout of the 1956 campaign at Harbor Island tomorrow, 2 P.M. They will continue practice Sunday at the same time.

All players, interested in playing for the WBA championships, are urged to attend these practices, and compete for starting berths.

Since the Cards will only have five weeks to round into shape for their league opener, Manager Mike DiRubevo will have to begin one the second or third week while rounding his squad to playing size.

Last-season regulars expected to attend tomorrow's session are DiRubevo, George DiStefano, Luke DeRuzza, Joe Petrucci, Ken DeMan, Ed Petrie, Dan Bianchi, Ed Feist and Tom Walsh.

College Players Away
Away at college and unable to attend this weekend's session are John Kenney, Bert Muech, Jim Farino and Mike Tannucci. However, these players are expected to be in top-notch shape to help the Cardinals to their stretch drive as they did last season.

Hard-hitting George Y, 4, who wasn't expected to play for Mamaroneck most of the season, meanwhile will be available until July. Hence, the Cardinals will be able to utilize part-time services of two stars they didn't expect would be available.

The trio of Farino, Felds and Lt. Kelly Wows 'Em Ossining Golfer A Hit With Bermuda Fans

HAMILTON, Bermuda—It'll be a long one before the top fans of Bermuda forget Lt. Paul E. Kelly of Ossining, N. Y.

The tall bespectacled former Rutgers golf captain will be remembered here for his greatest comeback ever witnessed in the history of major tournaments played in Bermuda.

Kelly last week won the Bermuda men's amateur championship, slipping a lining rally that left the gallery limp at its conclusion.

Rallies for Victory
Six-down after the first 18 holes, Lt. Kelly pulled his game together to cop a 21-hole lead on the decision from Leon S. Bishop of Brookline, Mass., brother of former U. S. amateur champion Tom Bishop, in the 36-hole final.

The young Air Force officer, a former New York University intercollegiate champion and 1953 Westchester County amateur titleholder, won the respect of the crowd for his determined tie victory.

Kelly negotiated the first nine holes of the afternoon round in 54 strokes, with the aid of two birdies to regain four holes and two-down with nine to go.

The Steep Hollow Country Club star was in complete control of his game and confident of victory. Bishop, on the other hand, tired and showed signs of weakening.

Kelly won the 30th and 31st first holes with par when Bishop flubbed a fairway shot on the 30th and three-putted the 31st into 10 feet.

Still even at the 36th tee, Kelly won the crown with a par-4 after a pro-swinging into the approach to the green. Bishop chipped short and took five.

Warriors Need I Win for Title
PORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—The Philadelphia Warriors need only a home court victory tomorrow night to wrap up the National Basketball Association playoff championship.

If Paul Arizin keeps up his 28-point average they should give him the trophy to keep this summer.

The steady Warrior-forward scored 30 points last night at Philadelphia outshooting Port Wayne Pistons 107-105, to take a 2-1 lead in their best-of-seven series.

The shortest player in the American League is Washington outfielder, Emilio Ortiz at 5-4.

Tannucci again provides the Cardinals with the strongest pick-off staff in the WBA. It was these hurlers who proved instrumental in pitching the Cardinals to the WBA regular-season title and Shaughnessy championship last year.

Mamaroneck finished second in its initial campaign in the WBA, but went on to defeat the Yonkers Coy Danham for the Shaughnessy title.

The 25-year-old hurler, known as the Cardinals' sweep honors.

Hence, during their two years in the WBA they have dominated play while compiling an impressive record.

With a host of returning talent on hand for the coming campaign, the outlook in the Cardinal camp is highly optimistic. The Cards not only boast of a powerful hitting staff, but also have some fine fielders and potent hitters to support their hurlers.

Young Herby Score apparently has put tinkers on his last ball, and this could provide just the impetus needed to carry the Cleveland Indians to the American League pennant.

FEEL WEIGHT OF BALL-SWING IT!

It is when you have a string of strikes, or you feel a strike to win a league game or match, that pressure gets you unless you are fundamentally sound. Unless like the topfliers, you have developed a full, relaxed swing to guard against such tension in a pinch.

Being in the thing—swing that results from a perfectly timed pull-away with the first step, putting the ball into regulated swing in a consistent arc. As sketch shows, the swing takes back to the center, the wrong one forced forward and down too quickly by tension, killing timing and control, and the correct one, which follows unflinching when the swing is complete; when you are relaxed and feel the weight of the ball.

Feel the weight all the way back, and down through. It is a swinging action, with an arc as unchanging as the hand of a clock. Let the ball drop downward, late in the swing groove; feel it drop. Never hurry to the line; never rush your follow-through, and you'll find you're easier and smoothly better. Get the feeling of the ball swing the club to your side and seal the arm well out in front of you as it reaches the top.

Don't be in a hurry to lift the arm upward at the end of the swing; make it follow—once the ball swings of its own weight.

Vanessa Sees A Liner Sail, Paper Edited

Vanessa Popp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Popp of 210 Beach Avenue, Manamorneck, learned Tuesday that getting out a news paper is entirely a matter of co-operation among many people and that the organized confusion of a big city newspaper office rapidly results in the production of an up-to-the-minute edition.

Yesterday Miss Popp, a ninth grader at Bellows High School visited the offices of a New York City afternoon daily and the first thing she saw was the teletype machine pounding out a story on Grace Kelly sailing to marry Prince Rainier of Monaco, a story with high local as well as international interest.

Then she was rushed to a window in order to catch a view of the liner "Constitution" sailing out of New York Harbor with Miss Kelly and her entire wedding party plus guests.

The paper's morning also provided a great deal of interest as Vanessa viewed a number of old stories on microfilm, including the account of the 1912 sinking of the "Titanic."

The young lady came out of the experience with the knowledge that all staff members from copy boys to top executives have to keep pace with one another in order to get the day's news out rapidly, accurately and in attractive form.

After watching the speed with which the news is processed and the procedure under which reporters, editors, and all others work, she is no longer mystified as to why they often are prone to cry "uncle" after a day's labor.

Young Miss Popp is president of the Bellows Junior Red Cross Council, a member of the Dramatic Club, former associate editor of the Juniors High School newspaper and a reporter for the Press Club at Bellows.

She has been in scouting for eight years and as a Marine, is attending the junior seamanship course at the Chatsworth Avenue School. She has, for five years, been a student in the L.O.R.A. London School of Ballet.

Pock-Marked West Main St. Getting Facial

Rusted, torn up West Main Street is getting a face-lifting with repaving underway today. And drivers forced to walk in lines to thread a tortuous way through potholes, will get a new lease on life.

Contractor Daniel F. MacNamee Company started removing loose material this morning preparatory to filling and surfacing the short stretch at the New Haven Railroad bridge.

Holes To 2 Feet Potholes of up to two feet deep together with torn up surfaces, exposing old trolley tracks have stalled traffic frequently. The situation has been aggravated by construction on the New England Thruway.

Work started today cutting out the loose material. Low areas and the old trolley tracks will be filled and covered with a binding mix and curbs to curb topping will be of sheet asphalt-type providing a smooth finish the same as Main Street through the business area.

Shields Annexes Frostdbite Championship At LYC

Knapp's Bid For 6th Crown in Row Fails

By AL BAMBARGER JR.
Crawford "Curry" Shields, who won the Larchmont Yacht Club frostdbite championship over the weekend, has succeeded in annexing Knapp Jr. without having to hoist a sail. High winds blew over the season-ending regatta scheduled for Saturday and yesterday.

Shields' Dainty ended the campaign, began last November, with a percentage of 483. Knapp, who lost his bid for an unprecedented sixth consecutive YCYC Winter championship, scored 390 with Acory. The figures are unofficial but are unlikely to be changed when the committee computes its final statistics.

Shields and Knapp, as champion and runner-up, became eligible to represent the Larchmont fleet in the VRA frostdbite championship at Manhasset Bay April 29-30. Larchmont's Jack Supplee grabbed the first such VRA prize in 1954. Bobby Merrill of Manhasset took last year's title.

Holds Summer, Winter Titles

Although he has acquired innumerable sailing honors through a long and distinguished yachting career — including the first men's North American championship — Shields was particularly thrilled by his latest achievement. For the "old master" secured a year-long domination of the one-design classes in which he is active. Over the 1955 VRA champ with Allen in the big International Class.

Both Had "Explosive" Swims

Knapp won the first four sessions and seven during the season. He had been really hot afternoons. On Dec. 4 Acory captured in the sixth race and did not miss the seventh, losing the defender a costly 48 points. Again, on March 18, Acory's outboard broke and Knapp dropped 24 points to his conqueror.

Polio Bowling Grosses $150 At Larchmont

Despite a comparatively small turnout due to yesterday's inclement weather, the annual bowling benefit for the March of Dimes netted $150 at the Larchmont Bowling last night.

The total will be donated to the Polio Fund to assist some youngsters afflicted with this crippling disease.

Highlight of the evening was the appearance of Marie Krulevic, a star at Larchmont whose hospital expenses of two years were paid through the efforts of the bowling benefit at Larchmont.

Joe Mastin, in his last year in charge of the event. Over $300 were netted last year.

lost—on the 11st hole. After 16 holes of the final round, Venturi and Middlecott were tied at one over par for the distance. Burke was a stroke back. Middlecott was short at 17 and chipped up. A puff of wind blew his first putt off line and, perhaps unnerved by the erratic elements, he took two more to get down.

One game Burke a few minutes later. He got on in two, 15 feet from the cup.

"I hit my putt and about a foot from the hole," almost did," he related. "Then the wind got behind it and took it on in."

In the next round was Venturi. His second shot rolled to the back of the green, passed the top of a downspout, then ricocheted over a chip and two putts for a bogey and suddenly the youngster who had led at the rest of yesterday needed a birdie on the last hole to tie Burke.

Burke was pro at Metropolitan Country Club, White Plains, in 1950. He didn't get it.

Drenched Diamond May Prevent Baseball Debut Of F.E. Bellows

Tomorrow's scheduled baseball debut for F. E. Bellows at Elmsford is still a big question mark due to yesterday's snow which left the wet Alexander Hamilton diamond in a drenched condition. Adding to the possibilities of the Panthers' opening being postponed is the fact that rain is forecast for tomorrow.

The tentative delay, meanwhile, may serve as an advantage for the Panthers, who have not been able to conduct a practice with all their players present.

Coach Cy Lynch held workouts daily at Harbor Island last week but some players were away on vacation, others were sick, and still others were working. The result was that only a handful of players attended the daily workouts.

Outlook is bright, said Coach Lynch. He has an optimistic outlook. With six regulars and John Finelli back from last year's 4-11 squand, F. E. Bellows should be much stronger.

The Panthers, however, have been badly hindered by numerous factors, and a postponement tomorrow might serve to their advantage. Should the game be postponed because of wet grounds due to rain, Coach Lynch is hoping it will be rescheduled toward the end of the week.

If it is not rescheduled as such, it will have to be fit into an already congested schedule—which will work a hardship on the BHS pitching staff.

Should Bellows open tomorrow, Coach Lynch will be forced to start the players who have shown the most during last week's practices. Freshmen Jim Reilly will probably lead off at short 609; Hank Bul hitting second and playing third base. Lee Lyon will be in center. John L. L. L. will hit fourth and play right field, while Ed Swanson will play second base and follow Lyle in the batting order.

Nat Hutchinson will hit sixth and stay first, while leftfielder Ron Sariano, esther Lex Scott and pitcher John Pinelli will round out the starting team.

With Reilly still a question mark at short and Bul having missed numerous practices due to his injury, the left side of the infield has created a problem for Coach Lynch.

Howie Eberwein, away on vacation last week, is a leading candidate to alleviate this problem, while Lyles may also be used at either of these positions. Ken Suddel has also looked good at the plate, and will probably be BHS' first pinch-hitter.

Behind Pinelli on the mound will be righttander Mike Scaranella and southpaw Larry Simon.

A surprise in last week's practice revealed another possibility among the members of the Panther squad. Coach Lynch insisted that Manager Al Mallock also take a few swings at the bat. Mallock did, and to the surprise of everyone, showed best performance of the previous day, and being Al emulated his performance of the previous day. Hence, Mallock is now among the contenders for a starting berth.

Coach Lynch also had high praise for Tom DeRosa, who in class did a superb job throughout the week in getting Harbor Island into condition for the Panthers workouts.

Warriors Cop NBA Crown

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Warriors were each $1,900 richer today after taking the National Basketball Association championship in one of the most amazing comebacks in the history of sports.

The Warriors overbore the Fort Wayne Pistons four games to one in the best-of-seven series which ended here at Convention Hall Saturday night with a 98-87 victory for the Philadelphiaans.

It was three years ago that the Warriors wound up winning 12 games and losing 57, 34% of their first place bids. It was likely as dismal a record as ever compiled in pro basketball. The reason they were still in the cellar, 15 games out, and last season they finished in the bottom again, this time only 11 games behind the Syracuse Nationals.

DETROIT (AP) — A gutted long-armed giant was in the right place at the right time on two occasions and belated away all but the faintest glimmer of hope that the Detroit Red Wings would repeat again as Stanley Cup hockey champions.

The Wings geared their defense to halt Jean Beliveau, but the twenty-four-year-old winger from Trois Rivieres threw three off the challenge and came through with two goals last night to all but wrap up the Montreal Canadiens' first Stanley Cup victory since 1955.

Beliveau scored in the first and second periods and the Red Wings never recovered as he scored again on wrap it up in 30 with a final period goal. Montreal leads 2-1 in the best-of-seven series.

Trout fishing in the lakes of Putnam and Westchester does not open until Saturday, April 16, coincident with the opening of fishing in streams. On Long Island, trout season also opens April 16 instead of April 10 as noted in last year's guide.

WHITE PLAINS — The month-long ninth annual Theresa Volkman of Peekskill Association tournament ended last night at Post Academy.

Theresa Volkman of Peekskill stole the spotlight with a resounding double victory in the singles and all events division, which included a tournament high 254 single.

Gloria Newman and Fran Prusciantone of Mount Vernon retained the dougie crown for the second successive year, carding a 1,019 net, 1,130 gross to capture the trophy awarded to the high net tender.

First place in the cash award gross doubles play went to Florence Palovick and Gloria Zermallo of Greenwich with their pinfall of 972 net, 1,222 gross. Joan Palmer and Marion Artwick of Bedford took second with 978, 1,129.

Julie Connelly and Janice McGovern of Yonkers took third place honors with a 1,169. Geneva Leire and Florence Adams of Ossining rounded out the first four with a 1,178 pinfall.

WHEN TAPPING UP AT A BASE, KEEP YOUR EYES ON THE BALL.

PUSH HARD ON THE BASE TO KEEP YOUR FEET FROM SLIPPING AS YOU START.

RICHIE ASHURBY'S USE OF HIS RUNNING LEAD TOOK HIM FOR THE WIN IN ALBANY'S PHILLIES.

Speed is a big asset to a player, but knowing how and when to use it multiplies its value, as the 1956 National League batting champion, Richie Ashburby, proved. He led the Phillies to the pennant.

Ty Cobb used his speed to well during his playing days that branch him said of Cobb, "He has brains in his feet."

Cobb took every advantage of his ability, making the most every break or mistake by his opponents.

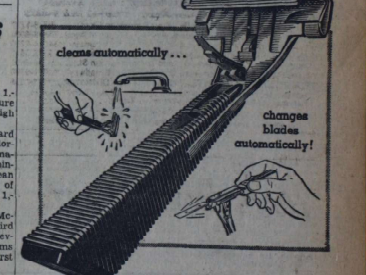

Learning how to get the most mileage out of your ability is just good sense, and leaning forward as you start to run will help you get the most mileage out of your speed. Pushing hard also will assist you in making a quick getaway.

This is another part of baseball, which coaching in training will pay dividends. It is a surprising and the chief difference is that you sprint for the ball instead of leaning the instant you hear the starter's gun as you would in a track event.

Of course you won't try to advance after the catch unless you feel that you can beat the fielder's throw to the next base.

This is something you have to learn by experience, and sometimes you can surprise the opposing team by running when the fielders don't expect you to run.

Sports ONCE OVER WEEKLY

The Colonel Goes to Bat

Today we turn over the editorial baton to our clear-thinking debater from Clearwater—Hugh W. Robertson—for his annual precarious trek out on the baseball diamond.

Mr. "H," who is presently winding up his own Spring training session along the sun-baked Florida shores, is a duly qualified prognosticator, having spent many a term burning diamonds in the roughs of the bush leagues.

Fried Highballs, affectionately known as the "Colonel" to more prominent members of the Fourth Estate, is no push button manager. As a matter of fact, he holds down the important assignment of vice president with Westchester County Publishers during the regular season.

Before embarking, however, we warn our important weekly adherents that the following are the opinions of our writer ROBERTSON and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the regular prognosticator who writes that returns be mailed directly to Mr. Robertson in care of The Sails, 667 Bay Esplanade, Clearwater Beach, Fla.

Colonel, you're just as cocky and the Dodgers just as talent-heavy. Their "B" squads could finish in the first division, respectively. There's less than a 50-50 chance that you're confident of a repetition of 1955—and I don't think that is going to happen.

In strict adherence to my widely accepted sense of loyalty to our readers, I spared no pains to get down to brass tacks, even in spots where the drought made the base paths as bare as the streets in Washington on "Tag Day." I even dropped to low as to attend games between Kansas City and Cincinnati in Tampa—and you can't get much lower than that without a submarine.

It was at Clearwater when Newcombe belted Puddin'head Jones—and he won't help much at the plate anyway. "Everywhere I journeyed, there was a crowd of fans who were deep-seated desire to return to the joys of snow and sleet and shush removal in Washington."

"Some other experts, perhaps not so popular or so universally acclaimed as this writer, hesitate about going out on the limb. They qualify their opinions with the words 'maybe' and 'perhaps.' Your own observer has no such weak-kneed attributes. Without qualification, without apology, positive in his knowledge that clean hands and a pure heart will put us through, here are the orders of finish in the two leagues for '56."

"American League—Boston Red Sox, Chicago White Sox, New York Yankees, Cleveland Indians, Detroit Tigers, Kansas City Athletics, Washington Senators, Baltimore Orioles, National League—Milwaukee Braves, Brooklyn Dodgers, St. Louis Cardinals, New York Giants, Philadelphia Phillies, Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati Redlegs, Pittsburgh Pirates."

"Some capricious critic may point out that my observations have been limited to the Grapefruit League training games and have not included the exhibitions in the Cactus Camp in Arizona. My answer to that is that I can read AP news dispatches, and I am a pro. I am positive."

"Anyhow, there you are! Anybody wanna bet?" P.S. Mr. Robertson assures us that the first week in October will be devoted to "crow-eating" should it be necessary. Good luck, Colonel...

Franklins Sweep To Major Pin League Crown

Bellows Game With Elmsford Is Cancelled

Today's baseball opener between F. E. Bellows and Elmsford has been cancelled, it was announced this morning by Athletic Director Jack Hasley of Bellows.

Since the Elmsford diamond still is in puddles due to Saturday's rain and Sunday's snow, Coach Rory Veteran of Elmsford was forced to call off this afternoon's contest.

Here, however, a problem in rescheduling arose, with Bellows wanting to play later this week, but Elmsford already having a game on its schedule. Since the teams have contested schedules heretofore, it was agreed by Veterans and Hasley to cancel the game.

The Panthers were slated to meet at Harbor Island this afternoon in preparation for a next Tuesday's SWIAC opener at Elmsford.

DTCL Action Slated Tonight

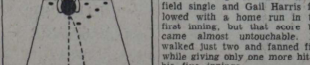

Competition in The Daily Times Community League is scheduled to continue tonight at the Larchmont Bowl, with interest keen on the first-place deadlock between the Friends and Beermen.

The teams are tied for the number one spot with 72 1/2 records, 10 games ahead of the second-place Grocers, who were eliminated from contention last Tuesday. Only nine games remain on the schedules with the Friends and Beermen scheduled to clash on April 24 in the final three tilts.

Pin Clinic

By Billy Sixty

SHIFTING ANGLES — Ball-and-pin spills, on which perfect fit is required, depend entirely on angle. For this reason I suggest shifting your stance...

THE 4-5 SPLIT — The position when shooting such spills as the 2-7, 3-10, 4-5, 7-8, and the 9-10.

For every free pass, the ball should be placed in the center of the table, self-addressed, stamped envelope to this newspaper.

The best angle for left side leaves is to move to the left of the center, and to about ally-center for right hand leaves. In converting pin 4-5 split, in the sketch, the proper angle with a book is approximately ally-center with straight ball a bit to left of center.

control as, of course, very important and control comes only with practice to give you angle plus confidence. Reach is a big factor. Reach as far as you can, with a free swing. Forget arm, hand, elbow, and wrist. Pretend you are going to knock down the pins with your arm.

Another helpful tip: On either the 4-5 or the 5-4 splits use the back pins No. 8 and 9, as your guide. Aim for them.

Rory Calhoun Gains 20th Win Unanimously Over Jack LaBau

By GUIDO CRIBARI

NEW YORK — Rory Calhoun, the Georgia strongboy who has adopted White Plains as his home, got in his easy Spring cleaning at St. Nick's Arena last night as he brushed aside obstacles in his march up the middleweight ladder.

Master for practically the entire 15-round bout, Rory gained a unanimous decision over rugged Jackie LaBau of East Meadow.

Utilizing a potent overhand right and despite the fact he lost the eighth round on a low blow, Calhoun left no doubt in the eyes of the 1,421 present. He won by $3,862. LaBau was being outboxed.

Vaccarella Calls It 5-5 — However, Judge Joe Vaccarella, Mayor of Mount Vernon, said he lost more than the majority of the split it down the middle, giving five rounds to each rival, but Calhoun the winner, 9 to 5 on points.

Babe Returns To Hospital for Cancer Battle

GALVESTON, Texas (AP) — Babe Dirksen, ahabria has suffered another setback in his battle against cancer.

His physician, Dr. Robert M. Moore of John Sealy Hospital, said last night her condition is "not so good" and said there was a "slight extension" of the cancer from which she has suffered since 1953.

While serious, it was emphasized her condition is not critical. Dr. Moore said that the cancer extension is at a point where X-ray treatments were applied three months ago and that further X-ray therapy is being given.

He also said that the famous woman golfer has developed a new pain in her left side at the shoulder but attributed this to pneumonia.

LaBau, a good left-hander, peppered Rory consistently about the face and in the sixth round opened a cut over the bridge of Rory's nose. This was the same round in which Rory tripped and went down to the canvas — for no count.

Calhoun had opened a cut over LaBau's left eye in the fourth round. Jackie also suffered a cut over his right eye in the sixth. In the seventh, when Rory was waiting for the first time for LaBau to miss one point-maker after another.

It was obvious in the ninth that LaBau was spent, and a leener, Shaper Calhoun would have had no trouble putting his rival away if the Finnaman has one weak link, it's his long-range boxing, which seems to signal before he is in, in spite of this, half of his 20 fights have been won via the KO route.

LaBau's longer reach had much to do with keeping Calhoun off stride, and Rory admitted after the fight that it's a weakness he has to work on.

Both had slowed in the fifth which was probably LaBau's best round. Jackie also suffered a cut over his right eye in the sixth. In the seventh, when Rory was waiting for the first time for LaBau to miss one point-maker after another.

Stingers Cop By 2-1, Near Club 40 Crown

The Stingers, racking up a 2-1 win over the Manhattan ABCs in their 40th game of the season last night at the New Rochelle ABC drives, came within one game of clinching at least a tie for the league title.

With only four matches to go in 13 games, the Stingers have an 11 game bulge on the second place Grasshoppers and need only one victory in the 12 plays to assure themselves of a tie and a berth for the playoffs.

The Ice Cubes, spurred by first two wins, fared with the opportunity of creeping to within a half game of second place manager. Palmer, incidentally, last week finished fifth in singles play in the county relay tournament in White Plains.

The Barmad Four roses called a bottle for last place, turned out to be a Mexican standoff although it provided the most exciting playing of the night. The Hoppers helped bring their selves close to extinction last night as they dropped a 2-1 affair to the Pink Ladies.

The real recap in the loop was for second place with the Ice Cubes, 2-1 victory over the Cornish yesterday coming fast.

They were going to take a permanent take on the league cellar, have been moving up steadily in the last two months and now are only a game and a half off of the runner up slot.

In yesterday's fourth match the Four Aces and Barmad each copied one game and tied in the third affair.

The feature match between the Manhattan and Stingers saw the former start out as though they were going to upset the league leaders. The Manhattan took the first game but then reverted to form and dropped the next two.

Hurlers Getting Hot In 'Grapefruit' Play

Associated Press Staff

After a hiatus of 14 years, there were only 20 - game winners among top league pitchers in 1955, there are again this Spring that the hurlers are back from exile.

Detroit and Milwaukee spotlighted the evidence as six pitchers breezed through 14 scoreless innings before the managers called it quits at Terre Haute, Ind. yesterday. There were 18 hits—all singles—in the game, but nary a runner got past second base.

Tracy, Dick Mowles and Pete Vukobrat checked the free-wheeling Braves on six hits while the Tigers got 19 from Lew Burdette, Red Murfitt and Humbert Robinson.

Home Bats Dodgers

At Washington, where Brooklyn and the Senators became the first to play in a major league ballpark this Spring, Camilo Pascual and Pete Ramon curled the Dodger lead with a double, Don Newcombe on even terms for eight innings before Pete Humes' hit home in New York's last one for inside-the-park home run in the ninth to edge the world champ 2-1.

Call Issued For Kiwanis Flea League

There are still seats open for teams in the Kiwanis Flea League. It was announced this morning by William Brady, chairman for the Kiwanis basketball program.

Open teams, the youngest of the four leagues sponsored by Kiwanis, are made up of boys under nine years old. If a boy reaches his ninth birthday before the season starts, he is ineligible for the league.

Mr. Brady pointed out that boys should organize their own teams and fill out a roster with a minimum of 12 players, all of whom must meet a minimum of 30 pounds and be in good health.

Other players may be secured and teams may be registered at the United Garden Supply Co., 1400 W. Broadway Avenue, Manassas, Va.

An indication it is required that each team enlists more adults, usually fathers of some of the players, who will act as manager and coach of the squad.

Three teams have already been registered in the Flea Circuit. Mr. Brady said, and more are being allowed to register.

Play will begin Saturday afternoon at Harbor Island.

Because of the growth of the boys in the league, special rules have been set up. Games, for instance, will be 15 minutes long. The Kiwanis club will supply baseball bats, base balls, caps, gloves, guards, chest protector and mask. Boys, however, must have their own gloves.

Officials will be assigned by the Kiwanis club.

Should some boys wish to play but are unable to form a team, they are invited to attend the training. The right leg, with a slide, breaks automatically—and in time to avoid a foul.

Kings Point Opening Opponent For Gael '9

Five Westchester County athletes, including Don Zack of New Rochelle, are expected to be in the starting lineup tomorrow afternoon when Coach Jim McDermott's Iona College baseball team hopes to begin its 1956 season. The Gael met Kings Point Merchant Marine Academy in a 3-30 road contest.

Iona was originally scheduled to try the lid off its site on April 3 against St. John's at Brooklyn but, but weather forced rescheduling of that tilt for April 18. Then "old man weather" pushed the April 5 Manhattan encounter back to April 24 and forced cancellation of struggles against non-hosts and non-Schuyler. With only 14 games scheduled in the first phase, Iona is now down to 12 games.

INSIDE BASEBALL FOR LITTLE LEAGUERS

By MICKIE MCCONNELL
Major League Scout and Instructor

This diagram shows what a shortstop takes the throw, fourth base second base for the pitcher, and the ball to the first baseman who has retreated to cover first when he sees that the pitcher will hold the ball. The second-baseman, racing the runner who cover first if the ball should bounce toward first, swings in back of the runner as the latter covers over the throw. The third-baseman, after breaking with the pitcher, rushes back to cover third in case of a bad throw at one of the other bases.

FINISH WITH SLIDE

FINISH WITH SLIDE. In a golf you hit against a braced left leg. The head remains stationary, doesn't move, to allow the clubhead to swing through on a perfect, grooving line. In bowling you also brace the left leg to keep the armswing in a groove. How to brace the left leg in bowling? You slide. You must finish with a slide, as sketch shows, to keep the body and arm in line. Stop with a jerk at the foot line, and either you will pull the ball high on the head pin, or you'll drop it too soon, out of control.

Slide freely, and you'll rinse the swing with a reach and a finishing armfluff that releases the thumb first and gives you that fine, effective feeling of applying the knee spin with the fingers.

Slides vary. Some togglers use slide 6 inches, some use more than that. But they all agree that the most graceful, so smooth, so relaxed as they release the ball, the slide that breaks the left leg prevents the arm from breaking to the left at the foot line, keeps the body in line, the shoulders squared, eyes front.

Develop a slide in practice, without a ball, over and over, until you feel the leg brace and the arm swinging on a smooth line. Don't worry about foul-ing. The right leg, with a slide, breaks automatically—and in time to avoid a foul.

Rye Neck Bundle Day

Rye Neck children left school today with a new kind of homework. The papers they carried home explain the collection of clothing for Bundle Week at Rye Neck School, beginning Monday and running through the week. The project is sponsored by the public schools and Save the Children Federation.

Clothing will be distributed free overseas, on the Navajo Indian Reservation, and in the Southern Appalachian Mountains. Some will be stockpiled for such emergencies as fires, floods, earthquakes, etc. Some will be sold at nominal prices to American troops. People who rebel against accepting charity.

Dr. Alvin Hicks, Rye Neck superintendent, expressed the hope that "our schools will make a valuable contribution to this important drive." He pointed out that children's clothing is the major need, but infants and adult wear are also welcome.

Items listed as most in demand are sweaters, shirts, pants, dresses, underwear, socks, pajamas, coats, hats, shoes, blankets, diapers, baby strollers, and bundles. All clothing should be clean, mended if necessary, and wearable.

Dr. Hicks requested that residents without children in school hand their cast-off garments to neighborhood students for the drive.

Scrap Drive April 29

The village-wide scrap metal drive of the C. J. Civic Association Inc., 711 Old Post Road, Mamaroneck, planned for last month and postponed because of weather, will be held on April 29, when daylight saving time begins.

Mayor Edwin B. Dooley will issue a proclamation declaring this Sunday Metal Scrap Drive Day in Mamaroneck.

Funds realized by the Association from previous collections have gone into a fund for the construction of a new clubhouse on Van Hook Road, a building for which has already been broken.

Any kind of scrap metal will be salvaged in any size and quantity.

Many trucks will tour Mamaroneck streets or stand by for calls from 10 A. M. until dark.

This is the chance to give Mamaroneck residents to clean out his home and garage of all the old stuff that's cluttering in the way since the last drive last Fall. Antonio Marini, director of the drive, stated, "What is junk to householders is money in the bank for our clubhouse."

Tension Eases As Middle East Shooting Halts

No Incidents Reported As Israel And Egypt Accept UN Plea

JERUSALEM (AP)—Tension eased noticeably across Israel today in the wake of pledges from Israel and Egypt to hold off any new shooting action except in self-defense.

The night passed quietly. No incidents were reported since yesterday's aerial bombardment over Israel's Negev Desert and an exchange of rifle fire across the Gaza frontier several hours ago.

Official reports from Cairo said the Egyptian commando squadrons were being withdrawn from Israel. But an Israeli Foreign Ministry spokesman asserted Egypt was trying to pull the wool over the eyes of the world.

A thirteen-year-old boy, wounded in the Negev desert Saturday, said that he saw Egyptian soldiers in the area.

By Israeli count, this brought the total of Palestine victims to 14 dead and 32 wounded since Saturday night. The Israelis said they had killed 13 Egyptians and captured 6.

The relaxation of tension over Israel was indicated by increasing reports of independent cease-fire days to be observed in Sunday.

The streets of Jerusalem, Tel Aviv, Haifa, and many other major cities were being decorated for the main celebrations Monday of Israel's eighth year as an independent state.

U. N. Secretary Dag Hammarskjöld, in Cairo on the first day of his Palestine peace tour, reported that Egypt and Israel had promised not to commit warlike acts against each other. The pledges from both countries, however, emphasized that they reserved the right to act in self-defense.

Be-Garlon Profile

Shortly after Mr. Hammarskjöld's report was made public at U. N. headquarters in New York, the Associated Press reported that Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion had written the Secretary General.

N. R. Soldier Shot To Death On Paris Duty

PARIS (AP)—U. S. military authorities say Specialist William Morris of New Rochelle was shot to death by a fellow-soldier Sunday.

The name of the man who shot him was not given.

Specialist Morris, twenty-one, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Morris of 107 Lincoln Avenue, New Rochelle. He was graduated from New Rochelle High School in 1953 and entered the Army Aug. 31 of that year. He was a member of Bethesda Baptist Church.

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP)—Riviera strolled happily hand-in-hand in the palace gardens in a gentle rain, then drove to a villa which she and the Medley-Princess had bought.

Princess Rainier III took the wheel of his big green American limousine for the five-mile drive with his radiant bride-to-be to the villa home of his sister Princess Antoinette at Eze, a French village midway between Monaco and Nice.

The luncheon was something of a family party.

The Prince's sister and father, Prince Pierre de Monaco, both of whom speak English, were on hand. So were the Hollywood film star's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kelly of Philadelphia.

On the way down the Prince encountered a roadblock of photographers at a narrow turn on the road. A French photographer lay down in the road to stop the Prince's car.

The luncheon was the Prince seemed to make a somber view of this. They wiped smiles from their faces as they moved slowly through the throng of cameras.

Mr. Innet took the initiative in the fight before the communter complaints came in. He conferred by telephone yesterday with his two other members, Supervisor James M. "We are agreed we will back the public to the fullest in opposing any rise in fares," said Mr. Innet. The railroad has indicated it would ask a 23 percent boost.

Mr. Innet said he will confer with County Attorney Harry G. Grace and the Prince seemed to make a somber view of this. They wiped smiles from their faces as they moved slowly through the throng of cameras.

$60,000 Held For Handicapped

Too Little In Injuries Suing

WHITE PLAINS—A $60,000 jury verdict to a severely injured workman has been set aside and a new trial ordered by the Appellate Division.

The court in the Appellate Division agreed to pay $60,000. The Appellate Division court termed the $60,000 award to Robert P. Giampila, thirty, of 325 Union Avenue, Mamaroneck, "grossly inadequate."

Mr. Giampila's attorney, Thomas P. Noon of Mamaroneck, asked for the new trial after the jury returned its verdict. The Appellate Division court in the case is Fred G. S. and Grand Jury, 40 Hudson Street, New Rochelle.

The workman was injured on Oct. 24, 1952, while he was working as an apprentice plumber at a home owned by Harry and Joseph Crystall Street, Harrison.

He was pushing the employer's truck which he had been driving driven onto the site. A backing up front concrete mixer truck hit him, besides to other vehicle.

Justice Panelli said Mr. Giampila was injured by a truck which he was driving, including pelvic and leg fractures and shortening of the left leg.

He said the workman was hospitalized intermittently between the date of the accident and November, 1955, and lost some $11,000 in earnings between the date of the accident and November, 1955, when he took a "seditary" job as a bookkeeper.

3 Supervisors Jump Into Rail Fare Battle

WHITE PLAINS—The Transit Committee of the Board of Supervisors reported today that its members have agreed to fight the proposed increase in New Haven commuter fares as its first official action since it was formed by the County Board to handle commuter complaints regarding railroad service in Westchester.

Supervisor Edward H. Innet of Greenburgh, committee chairman, said he has called his first meeting of the committee for 1 P. M. Wednesday, April 26, at the County Office Building.

Mr. Innet took the initiative in the fight before the communter complaints came in. He conferred by telephone yesterday with his two other members, Supervisor James M. Landis of Harrison and Supervisor Edmund P. Ward, White Plains 4 and 4th Ward. Mr. Landis is a Democrat and the other two are Republicans.

"We are agreed we will back the public to the fullest in opposing any rise in fares," said Mr. Innet. The railroad has indicated it would ask a 23 percent boost.

Mr. Innet said he will confer with County Attorney Harry G. Grace and the Prince seemed to make a somber view of this. They wiped smiles from their faces as they moved slowly through the throng of cameras.

75 Meet In New York

Commuters Organize In Support Of Egan

Business men commuting to New York City from the eastern half of Westchester County met last night at the Roosevelt Hotel to organize their support of Edward J. Egan, candidate for the Republican nomination for representative from the 26th Congressional District in the June 5 primary election.

More than 75 such commuters attended the organization meeting, which was directed by Bernard C. Egan, candidate for Mayor of New York City, and Arthur H. (Red) Moley of Larchmont, campaign chairman for the Egan bid for the nomination.

Edwin C. Kennedy of Larchmont introduced the speaker.

"I am proud to be a Republican," Mr. Egan declared that his father and grandfather before him were Republicans. Mr. Egan said he himself intended to remain a Republican forever, and that he and his backers had no quarrel with the county committee. The committee designated Mayor Edwin Dooley of Mamaroneck for the nomination.

Mr. Egan said he believed it was not credit to the party or to himself," Mr. Kennedy said, "and Mr. Dooley returned to lower himself to that level. Mayor Dooley has refused his presidential nomination in the past. It would be a shameful thing if we had a mid-slumping campaign within our own party. We do not intend to let it occur."

Mr. Duffy asserted that "even if we lose, we will be a credit to the party."
