Cordon Bleu Recipes Include Cream Puffs

Four distinctive Cordon Bleu recipes are offered today, following last week's demonstration for the Sisterhood of the Larchmont Temple given by Paul Mayer, graduate of the Dione Lucas Cordon Bleu Cooking School.

"Bouff Bourguonne" is described by Mr. Mayer as "Crouquembouche" is a dessert consisting of small, filled cream puffs, glazed and stacked to form a pyramid, the whole dusted with powdered sugar.

"Hollandaise Sauce" is described by Mr. Mayer as "Never fail Hollandaise" sauce is made as follows: Take two egg yolks, one fourth pound of butter, lemon juice to taste, two tablespoons of light cream and salt and cayenne pepper to taste.

PAUL MUNI IN "INHERIT THE WIND"

A BIRTHDAY AND AN OPENING
This week the beginning of a second Broadway year is being made for the drama based on the famous "monkey trial," INHERIT THE WIND. And indeed it was a year of crises for the hit play by the writing team of Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee.

Installed last Spring at the national theatre by producer-director Herman Shumlin, the play, boosted the return, from retirement of the star actor Paul Muni who had not appeared on Broadway for six years. The play, the star and the production was warmly received and became an immediate hit.

Four months later, however, in late August, the successful run was interrupted when Paul Muni was suddenly stricken with a stroke of the eye and compelled to undergo surgery. The play closed down for two weeks while Melvyn Douglas prepared for the difficult assignment of playing Muni in the role. He received excellent notices and now heads the national company playing in Chicago.

Completely recovered, Muni returned to the east on December 1st under dramatic circumstances. Douglas appeared before the curtain to announce that Muni would replace him for the evening performance. He received a tumultuous welcome and has remained in the part, without missing a performance. Recently Muni received the Anthony Award and the Tony award and the New York paper Daily Page One citation.

Rushmore Resident Asks Dredge Permit

Emil A. Gill of 428 Rushmore Avenue, Mamaroneck, has filed application for an Army Engineer's permit to dredge, place pipes and install floats on the east side of outer Mamaroneck Harbor. Col. John T. O'Neill, district engineer announced today.

Mr. Gill proposes to dredge an area 50 by 100 feet to a depth of three feet below mean low water. Some 1,030 cubic yards of dredged material will be deposited. Col. O'Neill said, "Some 750 cubic yards are to be deposited at the Government Dumping Grounds off Easton Point, and 300 cubic yards are to be deposited on the upland area situated thereon by suitable means. The applicant further proposes to install two floats secured by mooring piles. The floats will extend 30 feet seaward of the United States Pierhead and 100 feet landward. The decision as to whether or not permit will be issued must rest primarily upon the effect of the proposed work on navigation. Any criticisms or protests regarding the proposed work from the standpoint of navigators should be submitted to the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, Office of the District Engineer, New York District, 111 East 10th Street, New York 3, N. Y., prior to May 3, otherwise it will be presumed there are no objections."

Publishers Discuss Rising Costs, Quality

NEW YORK (AP)—Hot to cope with increased costs and yet produce better newspapers were chief topics of discussion at a luncheon today of the 10th annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association.

Edward J. Hughes, vice president of Westchester County Publishers, presided at a discussion group for publishers of newspapers with 10,000 to 50,000 circulation.

Mr. Hughes suggested that "we not let our discussions become so bogged down in mechanical and procedural expedients that we lose sight of our major objective: to provide better, more intelligently edited, better printed newspapers for more cultivated, more progressive Americans."

15 Years Of A. A. Sympathy Of Family Helps Drinker Adjust

Last of a Series
 When a new member of Alcoholics Anonymous stops drinking, he often discovers that he must develop new habits of thinking and living to resist the temptation to drink again. By the time he asks A. A. to help, serious frictions usually have developed in his marriage. His wife may already have left him, threatened to leave or be prepared to consider it seriously. Re-sentiments often exist between the alcoholic and his wife. When Westchester's first A. A. group was formed 15 years ago this month, wives of newcomers to A. A. usually refused to believe that "this time things will be different" and that their husbands would really stop drinking for good. Members often faced months of discouragement and ridicule at home before their families came to believe that A. A. could effect a permanent recovery. One of the most significant trends in A. A.'s Westchester history has been the growing willingness of the typical alcoholic spouse and family to provide him with sympathy and understanding as he begins a new, sober way of life. Their change in attitude is due to the now widely-accepted fact that "A. A. works." This development is spotlighted by the recent organization of an "Alanon" group in Westchester — a group made up of the mates of alcoholics. ("Alanon" is a contraction of Alcoholics Anonymous. A Westchester "Alanon" group meets on the third Thursday on each month at the former Scarsdale library, Wayside Lane and White Plains Road, Scarsdale.) While an A. A. member generally accepts full responsibility for his abnormal drinking behavior, the monochronic spouse sometimes realizes from informal "Alanon" discussions that she has contributed unwittingly to her husband's intemperance. While the alcoholic learns at A. A. meetings how to curb dangerous emotions like resentments and anger which may cause him to drink again, the wife learns how to develop a calm, relaxed attitude which helps him to maintain his sobriety. As a result of such meetings both the alcoholic and his wife undertake a constructive program to remove sources of friction which may have led to drinking trouble. In the past, Mrs. R. D., an "Alanon" member, expressed the change like this: "When my husband got angry over something, I was always ready to answer him back. A fight would develop, and then he would get drunk. Now when he blows up, I say nothing. In five minutes the storm is over and he is sorry about the whole thing. And he is still sober."

Other wives learn to remove petty irritants and to adopt A. A. slogans such as "Easy Does It" and "Live and Let Live" which help relax the tensions which often build up in alcoholic. Because of the new, constructive attitude toward the treatment of the alcoholic which is typified by "Alanon" groups, the chances are now better than even that once a problem drinker steps into his first A. A. meeting, he will never take a drink again.

A public A. A. meeting will be held at the County Center, White Plains, tomorrow at 8:30 P. M. Anyone who has a drinking problem, or who wants information for a relative or friend may attend.

ONCE OVER WEEKLY

by GUIDO CRIBARI

Two on the Nose

What's wrong with baseball? Nothing, you say, that a few hundred thousand fans scattered at some eight major league ball parks every day could cure. Poor early season attendance has a good friend, a real diamond in the baseball rough, has come up with two interesting suggestions. It's either pay-us-you-get-or-two-or-pair-betting at the ball parks, he suggests. And by golly, it's out as far-fetched as it might first appear that parimutuel suggestion.

After all, it's not two many years ago that Sunday baseball was looked upon as the nation's only sport about selling beer at the parks? Let's face it, the horse tracks are enjoying little of the same popularity and the only game magnet for the multitude is the waging ably.

It presents some interesting facts, at that, don't you agree? "Hey, two on the nose that Ford goes the distance." Or how about four on the nose that Mays goes 4-for-4 and that Miller is for the cycle?

CYO Adds Furley

CYO Director BILL MILEY sends along word that MIT FARLEY Jr. of New Rochelle is also a member of the committee for the CYO's annual golf outing at Westchester-Hills May 11. . . . Similar details for JOHNNY WALKER, who is out last week. . . . Congrats to TONY DIPRIMA, one of Westchester's best, on his promotion with the Mount Vernon Recreation Commission. . . . Congratulations to the members of the Boulder Brook Club officials for one of the finest horse shows ever staged in the county. . . .

Sanders' '66 Record For N-S Medalist

PINHEFERN, N. C. (AP)—Doug Sanders, who learned his golf on a nine-hole course in Scotland, 18, 100 yards, is the role of favorite as the North and South amateur tournament, hereafter pegged as a wide-open affair, began play today. . . . The twenty-three-year-old, top product salesman, who now calls Miami, Fla., home, won the medal honors yesterday with record-making 68, six, six, under par. . . . It was the lowest qualifying round since the 36-year-old young farmer cut qualifying play from 36 holes to 18 in 1934. The confident, businesslike manner in which he played, Sanders says, was the man to beat. . . . He combined drives, sharp hooks and just enough putting to come up with his record round. Four holes put of eight feet or less that failed to drop prevented him from turning in an even more remarkable score. . . . Sanders, the 1951 National Junior Amateur Champion, won both the All-America and world amateur tournaments at the age of 17. . . .

AUSTIN SPORTS NO-HITTER NEW ROCHELLE

Dan Austin was the spoiler in Larry Garcia's bid for a perfect game yesterday as Iona Prep edged the Scarsdale Cindermen 3-0 in the first annual dinner tonight at the Bonafoe Club, Bonafoe Avenue, at 8 o'clock. . . . Austin is a former WIAA coach and official and was physical education instructor at Albert Leonard. . . . Other officers to be inducted tonight are Pete Accolla, vice president, Nello Arano, treasurer, and Herb Scholmer, secretary. Accolla is a phys ed instructor at the State University of New York at Binghamton. . . . The staff of the Recreation Commission. . . . Following the dinner and installation proceedings, discussions will be held on the Sound Round, Babe Ruth League, and the city softball rounds conducted by the Recreation Commission. . . . Softball and baseball rules for 1956 will also be on the agenda. . . .

New Night Pilot

Newly Lt. C. R. Malloy Smith, son of Mr. R. Smith of 88 Briar Cliff Road, Larchmont, recently completed qualifications as a carrier pilot aboard the Atlantic Fleet support aircraft carrier USS Tarawa.

Mr. Smith is serving with Air Antisubmarine Squadron 1, which this week will commence a Summer of exercises aboard the Tarawa.

A 1932 graduate of Harvard University, where he majored in English, Lt. Smith entered the service in November, 1932, and took basic training at Philadelphia, Pa. He is a graduate of Winchester High School in Massachusetts.

At Harvard he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity and the Hasty Pudding Club.

Double Safety Winner

Kathleen McManus, fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. McManus of 817 Walton Avenue, Mamaroneck, is a dual national winner of a safety poster contest conducted by the American Automobile Association. It was announced today.

Miss McManus won first prize for a poster depicting a child "Walk on Left Facing Traffic," and her second victory came when the poster was chosen by the AAA for reproduction and use in the 1956-57 national school safety program.

The poster features a black background with a girl outlined walking on the left side of the road. At the right, against the black background, are the outlined headlights of a car and in bright red at the top is the slogan "Walk on Left Facing Traffic."

A total of 8,456 entrants from the U.S. mainland, Puerto Rico and the Canal Zone participated in the contest.

Miss McManus is a native of Mamaroneck and is a ninth grade student at Mamaroneck Junior High School.

Sobel Nominated

Laurence J. Sobel of 31 Howell Avenue, Larchmont, president of Larchmont Temple, has been nominated for the executive committee of the New York Federation of Reform Synagogues of the Fifth Avenue, New York City.

This is the largest agency of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, encompassing all of Greater New York, Long Island, and Westchester County, and representing 78 congregations of the 520 in the Union. Election will be held on May 23 in New York.

3 Zone Cases Up

Three applications for variances will be presented before a meeting of the Town of Mamaroneck Zoning Board of Appeals.

June A. Messer seeks permission to use property on the north side of the Post Road as a day nursery for the VFW clubhouse for a day nursery.

Beatrice Jaffe of 32 Poy Park Avenue seeks a variance to permit a store on the southeast side of Madison Avenue to be used as a dry-cleaning establishment employing more than the limit of four under the present ordinance.

Minerva Scher, represented by Joseph Kaprow, architect, asks for a modification to permit an extension to an existing building at 705 Weaver Street in an AA zone, which will be less than 40 feet from the street.

To Aid in Graduation

Army Col. John J. Dalton of 175 Prospect Avenue, Mamaroneck, husband of Mrs. Emma Hindness of Mamaroneck and director of the Infantry School's Reserve Department at Fort Benning, Ga., tomorrow will introduce his principal speaker, Col. Orville Z. Tyler, Jr., director of the school's Staff Department, at graduation exercises.

Col. Dalton was named director of the Reserve Department last July. He went to Port Benning from Korea, where he was a battalion commander with the 45th Infantry Division from May, 1953 to August, 1954.

He attended Ivy Neck Schools and is a graduate of Bellows High School.

Col. Dalton served in five World War II campaigns and as a company commander with the Fifth Infantry Division. He was battalion commander with the Sixth Infantry Regiment and Berlin from 1940 to 1953.

Merci, Non!

The Sweeps 2 State Primaries; Kefauver Man Tops Steveson

By The Associated Press
President Eisenhower won a Pennsylvania popularity contest with Democrat Adlai Stevenson by a comfortable margin yesterday. The President also won sweeping Republican endorsements in Massachusetts and Massachusetts and was ahead on scanty returns in Alaska.

Mr. Stevenson trailed a Democratic favorite son candidate—Representative McCormack—in Massachusetts and took a slight lead over Sen. Estes Kefauver in Alaska's Democratic primary.

Democratic 8,229 of 8,730 precincts—Stevenson 38,433, Kefauver (write-in) 35,250. Republican, 229 precincts—Kefauver 87,033, Knowland 39,984.

Massachusetts: Democratic 1,720 precincts of 1,767, including all of Boston—Kefauver 4,400, Stevenson 19,844, Dever 207, Eisenhower 15,888, 39,984.

GOP Rivals Talk Tonight In Larchmont

George Garman Jr., a graduate of West Point in 1945 and now a radio and TV announcer, will be the moderator at the appearance at 8:30 P. M. today at the Hotel Bristol of the three candidates for Republican nomination for Representative from the 16th congressional district: Robert L. Greson, president of the Larchmont-Mamaroneck Young Republican Club, announced last night.

The meeting was arranged to let voters in the area hear each candidate tell why he believes he is best qualified to oppose a Democrat in November. The Primaries will be held June 5.

The three candidates are Mamaroneck Mayor Edwin B. Doory, Edward Egan of 33 Byron Lane, Larchmont, and Benjamin Nields of Rye. Each will speak 10 minutes, then will answer written questions submitted.

The meeting is open and the public invited.

Mr. Garman earned his B.A. degree in economics and engineering from Cornell University in geophysics. He served as professor of political science at West Point from 1949 to 1952.

PSC Gets NHRR Bid For Commuter Raise

WHITE PLAINS—The New Haven Railroad applied yesterday to the Public Service Commission for a 25 per cent increase in the fare charged Westchester commuters.

County Attorney Harry G. Herman said today he has been served with copies of the railroad's application and other papers. Mr. Herman has called meetings with interested officials to discuss the fare boost request and to discuss what action should be taken.

One meeting will be held this week and another in the county's central transit committee. The other, on tomorrow afternoon, will include officials of all communities in the affected territory. Both

STONE APPOINTED MUSIC DIRECTOR

Assistant Promoted To Conklin's Position

The Mamaroneck School Board, meeting in Mamaroneck Avenue School last night, made six faculty appointments for the school year beginning in September, one involving the promotion of Bernard Stone from assistant director to director of music in place of the late P. Colwell Conklin, who had been director for more than 40 years.

Mr. Stone has been employed by the school district since January, 1955, first as a substitute in music and then as assistant director.

A graduate of Michigan State Normal College, he received his master's degree in music from the University of Michigan. He also attended the Christian Science Choral School.

He has served as director of vocal music in the public schools of St. Louis, Mo., and in Mount Pleasant, Mich., and as director of the choral groups of the Central Michigan College of Education.

He was for four seasons assistant in the choral department of the National Music Camp and

Port Chester Control Passes To Democrats

PORT CHESTER—For the first time in 12 years the Democrats have captured control of the Village Board. They won all three contested posts yesterday. They now hold 4-3 advantage.

Anthony J. Zaccagnino, a coal and fuel oil dealer and former trustee, was elected Mayor, defeating Anthony B. Gifford, Republican incumbent. The count was 3,053 to 3,381.

Trustees were won by incumbent Fred J. Flynn, D., with 5,848 and Nicholas Pasolino, D., with 3,604. The beaten Republicans, Charles S. Teichin and Dominic Pietro, polled 3,107 and 3,257 votes respectively.

At the organizational meeting in May there will be new appointments for Village Clerk Corporation Council and Village Treasurer.

Warren, Pa., Hotel Fire Lists 3 Missing

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—A restaurant fire destroyed the country-old Carver Hotel biggest in this city of 15,000, early today and hours later police frantically searched for guests and guests who had escaped as missing.

The hotel had an 800-room capacity. The fire started in a room on the second floor and spread to the third and fourth floors where they were sleeping.

Firemen said the flames mushroomed through the small North Philadelphia dwelling with such speed that the victims had little chance to flee the blazing death.

Four persons were injured, three while leaving out of windows in the pavement. Two others escaped unhurt.

Police said they understood that 17 persons were in the building when the blaze was discovered at 7 A. M., leaving two unaccounted for.

Russian-British Talks Agreement Hopes Up On Major Problems

LONDON (AP)—Soviet and British leaders decreed today an 11th hour reprieve for their talks on urgent world problems. Hopes rose for at least a small measure of agreement.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and Nikita Khrushchev, Bulgarian Party chief, looked thoughtful and solemn as they left No. 10 Downing Street after what has been their last session with Prime Minister Eden. But Sir Anthony smiled cheerfully.

Both sides had sent their top negotiating teams into action to try to break the deadlock and narrow the differences on the problems of the Middle East disarmament, trade and cultural contacts, German reunification and European security.

Package Deal Possible
Neither side wanted the talks to end in complete failure, and there was speculation that at an "overline" meeting later today the Russians might offer a package deal—cooperation in the Pacific for systems from some other country.

U. N. Aid Asks Jordan to O.K. Cease-Fire

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Dar Hammaraskold opened talks with Premier Samir al Rifai of Jordan today in another stage of his Middle East peace mission.

He is seeking a cease-fire agreement for the Israel-Jordan border similar to that he already negotiated from Iraq and Egypt. Syria agreed yesterday to a border cease-fire, subject to the U. N. truce commission.

There was no indication that Mr. Hammaraskold was taking steps to bring the Jordanian-Israeli border under control. He said that Arab infiltrators had killed four Israelis in an ambush several hundred yards from the Jordan border Monday. Presumably the fire was handled by the U. N. truce commission.

Another Israeli complaint that Syrians firing from an Israeli truce line in the Sea of Galilee was also being handled by the armistice commission.

Finelli Wins As BHS Scores 3 On Errors

Converting six Eastchester errors into three unearned runs, hustling P. E. Bellows continued unbeaten yesterday by downing the Eastchester in EWIAAC play, 4-2, for his third baseball victory of the season.

John Finelli, who made his debut last Tuesday with a no-hit, 13-0 victory over Harrison, pitched five hits over the course of the game. Finelli pitched six and two-thirds innings to gain his second triumph yesterday.

Bellows, meanwhile, took advantage of every break to spoil the perfect record of Finelli. He pitched six and two-thirds innings, allowing three runs, three hits and two errors. He struck out seven batters.

Errors are Difference
The veteran Eagle pitcher went with Chipello, but the breaks didn't.

The Panthers surged ahead 2-1 in the top of the fourth when Bob DiCenzo collected his first of his three safeties off Finelli, who was forced at second by Chipello, who stole second and rambled home an Chiappa's single to center.

Finelli reached first via an error in the top of the third, advanced to second when Jim Belli walked and tallied on John Lake's base knock.

The Panthers surged ahead 2-1 in the top of the fourth when their first runner ran as Hank Hull walked, stole second and third.

and raced across the plate as Ron Sudol, pinch-hitting for Howie Bellows, grounded to short.

DiCenzo singled to begin the sixth and after a passed ball had two grounders scored an unearned mark against Finelli.

Finelli fanned two and allowed a walk to Tom Johnson who scored on DiCenzo's third hit in the end game.

The high riding Panthers will be trying to match the number of victories they compiled all last season tomorrow at Harbor Island against Blessed Sacrament of New Rochelle. It is expected that the Panthers will take the hill for Coach Cy Lynch's charges.

Following tomorrow's encounter, Bellows is slated to experience his first match yesterday.

The brilliant play of Sanders overlooked a major surprise turned in by Bill Williamson of Charlotte, N. C., one of the finest amateurs in the Carolinas.

Other favorites came through in fine fashion.

Two-time winner Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., and Ed Patton of Morgantown, N. C., and Mel Ouellette of Old Westbury, N. Y., each a former North Carolina player, were named in the lower half. Patton met Galletta in the second round.

It was the "shocking" lifetime suspension of writer Wes Santee that prompted Fulton's decision to air his case, he told newspapermen.

John F. Kennedy Club will be a half-price at Stanford and captain of the United States track team which toured Europe. He holds conference yesterday with Larry Houston, secretary of the Southern Pacific Association of the AAU. ## BISCEGLIA PAGES 2-1 VICTORY WITH 577 PIN SERIES

Defeated decisively in the opener last night at the Larchmont Bowl, 952-869, the Beermen, who proved in brilliant style to top the Friedlies, 889-723 and 900-864, and thereby annex the bowling championship of The Daily Times Community League.

Once again it was the consistent ace swinging of Mike Bisceglia's long leader, which proved instrumental in the Beermen conquest.

Bisceglia first, 150 and a 196 scores to complete a 577 series which enabled the Beermen to finish regular season play with an 81-18 record, a game better than the Friedlies.

A 2-1 victory in the opener last night at the Larchmont Bowl, 952-869, the Beermen, who proved in brilliant style to top the Friedlies, 889-723 and 900-864, and thereby annex the bowling championship of The Daily Times Community League.

Once again it was the consistent ace swinging of Mike Bisceglia's long leader, which proved instrumental in the Beermen conquest.

Bisceglia first, 150 and a 196 scores to complete a 577 series which enabled the Beermen to finish regular season play with an 81-18 record, a game better than the Friedlies.

N. L. Skowron A.L. in Batting

NEW YORK (AP)—Ken Boyer, who hit only .254 as a major league rookie last year, is off to a whirlwind start and leads the National League in batting while giving St. Louis Cardinals' hitters high hopes of a banner season.

In his first seven games, Boyer has collected 15 hits—the most in the league—in 27 at bats for a .556 average. He got two safe hits and drove in four runs as the Cards topped Cincinnati 5-3 last night.

Finelli compiled also reveal that Bill Skowron of the New York Yankees is the American League's best pitcher—better among the players who have at least 20 times at bat. The husky Yankee pitcher shows a .464 average in 13 starts in 28 trips.

Actually, the Yankees are dominating the junior circuit statistics. Mickey Mantle is runner-up to Skowron with a .462 batting mark and Yogi Berra is fourth with .447. Earl Wilson of Washington, obtained from Boston last winter, is third with .433.

Mantle and Berra are deadlocked for home run honors with five apiece. And they're also tied for most runs batted in with 13. Dick Piccolino of Washington is third in RBIs with 7.

Boyer is having things pretty much his own way in the National League. Bill Sarni, also of the Cards, is a rather distant second with .440 on 11 hits in 25 at bats. Bill Arton of Milwaukee is third with .429 followed by Duke Long of Pittsburgh with .391 and Ray Jablonski of Cincinnati and Wally Moon of St. Louis with .385 each.

Jablonski, coming off a dismal campaign in 1955, tops the National League in homers with nine and runs batted in with 11.

After walking the first batter in the ninth, Mizell was relieved by pitcher Tom Seaver, who pitched the potential tying run on base.

The forty-one-year-old reliever bore down, however, to strike out George Crowe and got Johnny Kuck to hit into a game-ending double play.

Rain and cold weather rained away with his scheduled yesterday, limiting the action to three games, two in the American League. In those, the Yankees whipped the Washington Senators 4-1 and the Detroit Tigers clubbed the Kansas City Athletics 7-4.

The home run ball was very much in evidence in the Yankees' 7-4 victory. The team counted for all but three of its 11 runs made by the team.

The Yankees hit two, one of them a three-run blast by Hank Bauer. The other was a solo blow by Yogi Berra. The victim was left-handed Chuck Sobus who had been the distance reliever until pitcher to beat the Yankees so far. It was New York's sixth victory in seven starts and fourth in the season.

Curtin Takes Archers' Title
Gene Curtin of 128 Prospect Avenue, Manassas, scored an outstanding 500 total Monday to cap the Potomac Bowmen Archers of Danbury, Conn., trophy in their first field shoot this season.

Curtin is classified as a Bowmen "A" in the Greenwood Archers Association of Westchester County.

Pleasantville's Streak Ended At 23 By 9-0 Victory
Pleasantville's 23-game SWIAC winning streak was shattered by York, 9-0, yesterday as the Cardinals came up with five in the seventh to break a 3-3 tie.

Jim Peay, who had a single and three doubles, drove in the breaker with a two-bagger hit off reliever Tom Larkin, it sent York's starter home.

So at 11 p.m. Jack Hennessy pitched York to its fourth straight win in the conference. York needed help by Tom Whelan to get the final two outs. Peay has batted .444 in the four games. His blows have included 4 doubles and 2 triples.

GRAND SLAM BY KELLY
When TAMAN Own-Green, high moundsman John Kelly, from his own game with the grand slam home run against the Cardinals high yesterday. The blow, coming in a 7-run thrash, snapped a 1-1 tie and led to the Cards' 9-4 victory.

Santee Ruling Reveals Blast Against Ferris

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A former Stanford University track star has accused Daniel J. Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the American Amateur Athletic Union, of arranging for him to make a trip to Canada that exceeded AAU expense account rules.

Ferris, in New York, quickly denied the allegation, branding it as "ridiculous."

Kiwanis Sets Show

Final plans for a Kiwanis-sponsored early bird show are being made last night at a meeting of the club in seven Pine Street restaurant.

The picture to be shown will be "Rhinoceros" starring Ed Milland, and proceeds from the show will be donated to the Kiwanis Club boys' and girls' work program which includes such items as the four Kiwanis basketball leagues and the annual water carnival.

Because of the show there will be no Kiwanis Club baseball games Saturday morning, but a full slate of games will be held beginning at 12:30 P.M.

Speaker at last night's meeting was John Manrone, of the Wine Advisory Board, who told the story of the wine industry in this country and also presented a motion picture on the production of wine.

Wins Elks Scholarship

Paul Richard Schopfer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Schopfer, of 217 Stanley Avenue, Mamaroneck, was notified yesterday that he has been awarded a $500 scholarship by the New York State Elks Association. He will receive the award at a luncheon May 15 at the Hotel Commodore in New York during the state convention at which his parents will be guests.

He is the second of the two Schopfer boys to receive such scholarships. His brother Walter received the scholarship for two years and attends New York University where Paul plans to go. Paul will be eight years old in September. He was born and brought up in Mamaroneck and is a senior at Mamaroneck High School, where he is a member of the Bowling, Rifle, Engineers, and German Clubs. In his sophomore year he was a member of the Elks Camp. A member of the Mixed Club Club, he was member of the ticket committee for "Sabrina Fair," a school production.

Paul has played baseball in the Kiwanis League, and was a member of Boy Scout Troop 1. During the summer he worked as a machine surveyor, and has given work evenings at Shearman's Stationery, 280 Palmer Avenue. Formerly a Daily News newspaper boy, he once was newspaper boy of the month.

Light Registry

Volting will be light in Rye Neck at the annual meeting and election of school trustees.

That was decided yesterday when only 126 residents showed up to register. They are the only ones qualified to vote in the annual meeting and May 7 for George Garfunkel and Arthur F. Eysahe who are running for the Board of Education. Registration in the Mamaroneck district closes today at 8 P.M. and indications are that it also will be light there. There is no opposition to either Robert Carlock or Carl Nye who have been nominated for trustee posts. The annual meeting will also be held May 7 in Mamaroneck and the election will be May 2.

Catch As Catch Can

The 28th District's three substantial candidates for Republican nomination in the primary active between them roll up a good 600 points, and in reply to an anecdote from the press, Egan at a candidates meeting at the Hotel Bevan in Larchmont, Edwin Nields, president of the night told one on the three of them.

Mr. Dooley, Mr. Egan, and Benjamin Nields were up in front of the crowd, and three elderly ladies approached him and asked "Now where have I seen you, you gentlemen together before?" "That could hardly be," Mr. Dooley said, "since this is the first time we've appeared together."

"No, No, I remember," said one of the women. "It was in the wrestling matches at Bridgeport last summer."

Mr. Egan had said someone had approached him and declared the family's intention to vote for Egan or Nields, "but not for Dooley." "Not be called for a fair catch in the state game — and dropped the ball."

192 Bags Of Clothes

A total of 192 bags of clothing for the Save the Children Federation has been received in the Rye Neck and Mamaroneck School Systems during the annual drive conducted locally as part of a national campaign to raise money for clothing for needy children.

In Rye Neck, 82 bags were collected and at approximately 20 pounds of clothing in the total reached 1,880 pounds. A total of 37 bags was collected at the Barry Avenue school, 31 at Daniel Warren School, and 21 at R. E. Bellows High School.

SERVING MAMARONECK AND LARCHMONT SINCE 1925

SEVEN CENTS

THREE RIVALRY FOR Republican nomination in the June 5 primary for Representatives from the 28th Congressional District met last night at the Hotel Bevan, Larchmont, to state their qualifications for office and to declare their stand on issues. Guests of the Young Republican Club of Larchmont and Mamaroneck were (left to right) Edwin Nields, Edwin B. Dooley, and Benjamin Nields.

For Eisenhower And McCarthy, Too

G.O.P. Congress Rivals Face Each Other In Calm Meeting

The three rival candidates for the Republican nomination for Congress in the 28th District faced each other last night in a serene two-hour meeting and found themselves in virtual agreement on a variety of issues. President Eisenhower and Senator McCarthy, both received warm support, with the audience of more than 150 at the Hotel Bevan, Larchmont, applauding favorable responses to questions on the Senate and praise for the leadership of the President.

The candidates, Edwin N. Dooley, mayor of Mamaroneck, and County Republican organization designer; Edward J. Egan of Larchmont, and Benjamin Nields of Rye, appeared as public guests of the Young Republican Club of Larchmont and Mamaroneck.

The meeting was unmarred by debate, clash, or the taking of issue. Allowed 10-minute prepared talks on their qualifications for the office, the candidates were asked to answer only written anonymous questions from the floor, selected by Robert Grasson, the sponsoring president, and George Garman, radio-TV announcer, trustee and mayor of Mamaroneck, who was the moderator.

Mr. Egan in his introductory talk said, "The real test of Americanism is for the people to see for themselves who is the best qualified" for the office at stake. He "viewed with alarm," he said, "the apathy with which the people in Westchester County view primary contests."

Mr. Egan declared himself a regular Republican as were his father and grandfather before him. He pointed out that he is a practicing lawyer with extensive experience in Washington, representing clients before the SEC and other governmental bodies, and added, "I know my way about in Washington."

"You," Mr. Egan said, "are the only people who can decide who is the candidate."

Pointing out that the job of serving the county in any official capacity is an important one, Mr. Dooley said "virtually everyone is anxious to see his fellow Americans in one capacity or another." But he said, "If running for office becomes more of a fad than it is, everyone will be trying to get in the act."

Mr. Nields saluted Mamaroneck Supervisor George D. Birchell and Mamaroneck Town Republican Committee Chairman Nils Hanson as "young, forward-looking leaders." "That's what the whole party needs," he said, "younger men in action," and he pledged to contact such men in matters pertaining to the county.

Visit Ends On Friendly Note

Soviet Bosses Leave London For Scotland

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP)—Nikolai Dolitskiy and Nikita Khrushchev, from the Volga-draining land of proletarian Russia, today invited the hosts of Stuart kings and Scotch whisky. The Soviet Premier and Communist Party boss flew up from London after placing a wreath on the grave of Karl Marx and beginning their farewells.

Before journeying across the border, Khrushchev and Dolitskiy met in quiet talks with British Socialist Party leaders and made a peace of 40%.

The Russians conferred with Labor Party leaders for more than an hour and agreed with them on at least a token burial of the socialist, they had developed at a dinner given the Russians by the Labor Party Monday night over the situation of Socialists behind the Iron Curtain.

Today Laborite officials reported another aspect of that dinner, saying Khrushchev told them the Kremlin might try at some time to negotiate a peace settlement directly with West Germany if the Western allies stick to their present policies.

Labor Party leader Hugh Gallacher today was cordial and "ended on a friendly note."

On the Russians' return to London tonight, Bulgarian Prime Minister Zolov went to a joint communique summarizing the results of the talks they sound up today on such world problems as disarmament, German reunification, the Middle East and East-West trade.

The general expectation was that they would report progress only on lesser issues.

The two Red chiefs took a five-foot wreath of tulips, carnations and red roses to Marx's grave, the father of Communist theory died in London in 1883 and is buried in Highgate Cemetery, on the outskirts of London.

Reds Charge Threats And Intimidation

MOSCOW (AP)—Five seamen from the tanker "Ruspe" told a news conference today they spent six months in the United States in terror, "surrounded by the FBI."

"We were subjected to threats and intimidation," they said. "Our mail was intercepted." Referring to their departure from the United States for home in early April, these crewmen of a ship seized by Nationalist China in June 1954, said they had been able to contact Arkady Sobolev, the Soviet representative at the United Nations, only after they saw his name and address in a New York newspaper.

All maintained they chose to return of their own free will and would have done so earlier if they could.

Out Red Diplomats For Aid 5 Seamen

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has expelled two Russian diplomats at the United Nations because they exceeded their authority in helping five Soviet seamen leave U.S. custody 19 days ago.

The State Department late yesterday handed a protesting Soviet note to the members of the Russian United Nations delegation. The note also criticized the head of the delegation, Gregory Sobolev.

The note said Gurnyan and Turkin were guilty of "exceeding the scope of their official capacity" as members of the Soviet U.N. delegation staff.

The note did not demand Sobolev's recall. It went on to request Moscow to tell Sobolev and his staff to mind their own business hereafter.

House To Pass Highway Bill, Say 2 Rivals

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Republican Leader Martin Dies (Missouri) predicted today the House will pass the Democratic-sponsored highway bill by a substantial margin and with the support of most Republicans.

Mr. Dies forecasted and similar one from House Speaker Rayburn, D. Texas, indicated a 300-vote margin for the measure, on which the House opened debate today.

House leaders scheduled five hours of debate on the bill. Dies of expected floor fights over the bill's secondary provisions, they anticipated no final vote until the end of the session.

REPORTERS ERR ON IKE'S TALK

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower dropped his voice at one point in his news conference yesterday and the result was that some reporters misunderstood a remark he made on long-range missiles.

Mr. Eisenhower, discussing charges that the United States is dragging its feet in equipping Russia, took the position that the government is doing just about all it can. The way he put it was that "we are somewhere between certainly under the limit of maximum effort."

Lions Club Marks Its 30th Anniversary In Larchmont

Lions Clubs have developed a "chain of good will" and have a plan to continue the world over. S. A. Dodge, past president of the Larchmont club, said last night at the 30th anniversary celebration of the Larchmont Lions Club. More than 150 members and guests attended the dinner-dance, which was held at the Larchmont Shore Club.

Dodge, who in his term of office visited 40 nations through his dedicated work as a major factor for creating greater understanding among all peoples. He congratulated the Larchmont club for its efforts on behalf of the community and urged intensified effort in the various fields of its own service.

A feature of the meeting was the presentation of plaques to past presidents of the club citing their "distinguished and untiring service given to the world while serving with outstanding distinction, vision and quality."

John Brown, New York State president of the Larchmont club, presented the plaques to past Presidents E. J. Dooley, Ben Winant, and Joseph D. Dodge, past president of the club.

Club secretary Mr. Winant, and Joseph Day, deputy district governor of District 20, were also present.

guided in Washington by the President's State of the Union message, this would not be a rubber stamp.

The government, he said, should not interfere in the private life of the individual, but the Republicans should pursue a positive welfare program and not "sit back and let the Democrats do it all."

"I will be a typical Westchester conservative Republican," Mr. Neils said. "I was born here and I will never let Westchester down."

In the question period Mr. Egan was asked how many times he had appeared before official bodies in Washington. He replied that on 10 occasions he had appeared in Senatorial and Congressional hearings and investigations, executive and private.

Mr. Dooley, asked if the mayor of Mamaroneck is the village's executive officer, replied that the mayor is elected and leads the policy-making village board, and that the village manager is the administrative officer.

Rose Laphone

Asked his feeling on the Bricker amendment, Mr. Neils said a dangerous loophole exists that the U. S. could pass a law bypassing the Constitution. "I don't want to hamper the President," he said, "but I want to plug the loophole." Since the President is against the amendment, he said, he doubted it could be passed in Congress.

Mr. Neils said he would be guided by Joe Martin, Republican leader, and would vote the measure when the time for it is ripe.

To a question on a federal housing program in the 20th District, Mr. Egan said that since "we have no federal housing," it would restrict the question to public housing. At present we do not need it, but if it is found there are areas here where it is needed, I will favor it."

Mr. Dooley was asked what he means by his phrase "forward-looking Americanism." He replied that government should participate in areas where private enterprise and individualism are not sufficient. Also, he said the President has to show that America wants peace, and we should move toward it without bringing other countries in.

Mr. Neils, asked about local political organization, said the committee starts the year. Its candidate must get 500 signatures to get on the ballot, as do I and Mr. Egan. He said he added, "It is not a question of electing anyone, but the program."

OBITUARY

EDWARD ARNOLD'S DEATH AT 66

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Veteran actor Edward Arnold died today of a cerebral hemorrhage. He was sixty-six, his wife Cleo was at his bedside when he died. He lived in his home at suburban Encino.

Mr. Arnold, for whom this was the 49th year in show business, recently returned from making a movie, "The Ambassadors' Daughter," starring Olivia De Havilland, in Paris.

He formerly starred in the "Mr. Egan" radio series.

The heavy-set, deep-voiced actor was born Greendale, Illinois, in New York City. After doing various odd jobs he appeared in amateur theatricals and made his professional stage debut with the Ben Grey Players in "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in 1907.

His juvenile roles and stock-company performances followed. He made his movie debut in 1917 with the Embassy Studio, for which he starred in more than 40 films.

Mr. Arnold made his sound-picture debut, after more Broadway and stock work in "Okay, America!" in 1929. His screen partners since then included "Bessie Triggs," "Diamond Jim Brady," "Cardinal Richelieu," "Idiot's Delight," "Lillian Russell," "Dear Ruth" and "The Huckster."

GUYLA CZAPIK

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Archbishop Guyla Czapik, Hungary's highest ranking Catholic prelate, died last night, the Budapest Radio announced.

FREDERICK B. RENTSCHEL

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP)—Frederick B. Rentschel, 61, president of the United Fruit Co., died last night, chairman of the Hartford Capital Corp. East Hartford, Conn., a founder and president of the Wright Aeronautical Corp., and an organizer of the Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Corp. died yesterday.

JOHN BERMAN

MOUNT VERNON — John Berman, founder and retired president of Puritan Laundry Inc., died last night at St. Sinal Hospital, Miami Beach, he lived in Florida for the last four years. He was in his late sixties.

ALL THE WONDER OF a visit to the "Met" school in this student's eyes as she watches one of the admitted members of the Opera's special performance for the student members of the school.

Mr. Dooley said the program asks the vote to decide which candidate he wants.

Red Probes Supported

All candidates were asked if they approved the conduct of the investigation directed at Communism are effective.

Mr. Egan said "Yes, whenever they alert the people to instances of Communism within."

Mr. Dooley said the investigations have alerted us to dangers. There may have been some who were successful and should be continued, and we should support those who are doing the job here where it is needed, but it is a thankless task that should be done."

The candidates were then asked if they approved the conduct of Senator McCarthy.

Mr. Egan said "It would be more effective for me to question the rights of the Senate to censure one of its own members. However, McCarthy did an outstanding job. He may have made mistakes in judgment, but he was sincere."

McCarthy Contraries

Mr. Dooley said, "McCarthy is not a courageous man. I've met. Perhaps he violated protocol, but I would have to study the record on that."

Mr. Neils said, "All arguments for censure are out-of-date. He is unjust to the individual senator, he said to use a word against him not spoken before. It threatens freedom of speech, he said, and makes for serious splits in the ranks of the GOP. He had, said, urged Senator Egan to vote against the censure."

Mr. Egan was asked if the foreign aid program is accomplishing its goal or if better results could be had for less money.

Foreign aid, he said, is necessary to help the nations with us against Communism.

"I am bound to be shut out of the program and do all we can to keep it going until we knock out Communism."

Asked if the Federal Reserve is the most trouble since Mr. Dooley replied affirmatively.

Would Back Tax Cut

Mr. Neils asked if he favors a tax cut and how he would handle it, said Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Egan said, "I would like to see a tax cut, but I would like to see it handled in a way that would not hurt the economy."

Asked about federal aid to education, Mr. Egan pointed out that the White House Conference on Education, Mr. Egan said, "We don't need it here, he said, but if the President finds a need for it, I will be for it."

Mr. Dooley said that this is a high county and a rich state and it is not needed here, but that he would be for it if handled through the states.

Mr. Neils said Senator Taft had been against it then changed his mind. "Of all welfare problems," he said, "this gives me the most trouble." The danger, he said, is that it opens the door to thought control by the government, and it should be postponed as long as possible.

Central School District No. 10 also asked the questions from the audience.

Larchmont Temple Sets Family Service

Family Sabbath services will be conducted tomorrow at 8:30 P. M. at Larchmont Temple by Rabbi Leonard Scholer and Cantor Edward Graham, assisted by the Temple's Junior Mixed Choir.

Arthur Goldsmith of the vidual committee will direct participation in the services. Mrs. Lewis Goldsmith will lead the singing. Misses Joan and Helen will open the Ark, and Catherine Oppenheimer and Ann Dwyer, confederates of the Religious School, will read from the Torah. George Rosenthal and Arthur Goldsmith will serve as ushers.

Rabbi Scholer will preach on "A Story of Giants and Grasshoppers and You."

A social hour will follow and parents will be invited to the service.

His education program. The program also includes "off-the-cuff" instruction at night, by members of the cast and orchestra, after the performance. The education program, through which participating schools send students to the special performances at reduced rates, is sustained by donations and membership dues from the Metropolitan Opera Guild Inc. A benefit concert for the program will be given in the White Plains High School auditorium at 8:30 P. M. by the symphony of the air under the direction of Robert Lawrence, and will include "Met" stars Loris Albani and Cesare Valletti, Martin Sargis of Scarsdale, Metropolitan baritone, will serve as narrator.

ZONING

bel "opposed the variance while George Schuler and I contended that the question of hardship is open to a certain amount of consideration and, as in the past, in the opinion of the Board a variance is in order, the zoning regulations shall not limit the powers of the Board to grant any other remedy or relief which they deem just and equitable. However, decisions of the Board do not set precedents, as each case is decided on its own merits.

Arbitration Experience

"I have served many years as an official arbitrator of the Arbitration Bureau of the National Federation of Textiles. The arbitrations are conducted according to the arbitration law of the State of New York. We were always advised that we were laymen, and according to the law we were to make a just decision according to the facts of the case, and gentlemen, that's all we are required to do under the zoning required law. It is only the application of common sense, so why not apply it in this case?"

"Commissioner Berman, who voted against it, claims that the need of the main's quarters constitutes a self-imposed hardship. However, it is my considered opinion that the position taken by Mr. Kayser, mentioned above, would cause an invasion of Mrs. Seher's privacy and would spoil the architectural line of the house, which constitutes a hardship. I strongly urge the granting of the application by a unanimous vote of the members of the Board. I want to add that the granting of the variance will not be injurious to the neighborhood and will be beneficial to the public welfare."

Parsons Approved

Mr. Parsons declared immediately that he was in full agreement with the property and felt that there is a hardship and that approval should be given. When no danger to adjacent owners will result, he stated. "I feel that the variance should be granted."

Mr. Bierman and Mr. Robl volunteered to change their negative votes, so the application was granted by a three to two majority.

Native of Ohio

Mr. Braun, the new director, executive vice president of Merritt-Chapman and Scott Corp. He is a native of Ohio and was a member of the Board of Directors, Western Reserve University, and New York University.

He came to New York in 1949 Merritt-Chapman and Scott, and is a director of the corporation vice president of Newport Steel Corp., director of Marmon Power Shovel Co., vice president and a assistant treasurer of the Shoop Vending Machine Corp., director of the Osmond Co. Highway Trailer Co., Inc. the Savin Construction Drudge and Dock Corp.

Associations

He is a member of the National Association of Purchasing Agents, the National Association of Steel Institute, American Management Association, United States Chamber of Commerce, and the Sales Executive Club of New York.

Mr. Braun is married to the former Beatrice Blackmur and they have two children, Roland Nicholas, thirteen, who attends St. Ann's School, and Joseph Clyde, ten, a pupil at Daunt Warren School.

Nields Campaign Opens at Larchmont Dinner

The campaign of Benjamin Nields of Rye for the Republican nomination for Congress in the 20th District will be formally opened at a dinner meeting to be held in the Larchmont School Club.

Harold Rucher of Mount Vernon, chairman of the Nields campaign committee, said the meeting will be attended by 50 key members of Mr. Nields' constituency.

Oper. Guild Inc. A benefit concert for the program will be given in the White Plains High School auditorium at 8:30 P. M. by the symphony of the air under the direction

DEMOCRATS OFFER FARM PROPS, PAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to give farmers both price supports and "compensatory payments" was put forward by House Democrats today as a combination designed to assure 90 per cent of dairy prices on basic crops.

Chairman Cooley, D. N. C., of the House Agriculture Committee scheduled dairy committee consideration on the proposal for direct farm payments, which he said would include in a new measure to authorize the Administration's "soil bank" program.

The step was cleared with Democratic House leaders last night after they detracked a $1.2 billion appropriation bill which Democrats earlier had contended would have given Mr. Eisenhower the money and "all the authority he needs" to put the soil bank program into operation this year.

The soil bank money bill had been challenged by Republicans as lacking proper authority. They argued the Democrats of 1954 "put money in the pockets of Agriculture Bureau," then screwing up the pockets.

The sudden switch in Democratic strategy clouded the outlook for farm legislation the remainder of this session. It also appeared to have delayed indefinitely House action on Mr. Eisenhower's request for a soil bill with authority to start payments this year.

Democrats launched a fight to win the equivalent of 90 per cent of parity for farm crops through "compensatory payments" plan sponsored by Republican Page, D. Texas.

2 Larchmonters Take Awards In Federation Art Exhibit

By ELEANOR NEY
DELIGHTED AND REWARDED by the warm approval of the judges for the high caliber and continuing growth in quality of its annual art exhibit, the Westchester Federation of Women's Clubs celebrated the 10th anniversary of this project last night by bestowing awards upon the following county artists, gathered at the preview in the Bronxville Women's Club.

Grand prize and first prize in oil, went to the still life by Albert Francella, entered by the Manor Club of Pelham.

Other prize winners, together with the clubs which entered them as winners of local shows held during the past year, are:

Water color, "Lunch Hour," Charles Kingham, Woman's Club of New Rochelle, first; "Rusty Nails," Fran Mawick, Woman's Club of Crestwood, and "Turquoise," Mrs. E. J. Kelly, Woman's Club of Larchmont, first and second honorable mentions.

Portrait Prize
Portrait, "Jane and Jimmy" by National Academicians Louis Della, Bronxville Women's Club, first; "Portrait of Eric" by Joy Hilde Barnum, Woman's Club of Hastings, and "Tom" by Eda J. Lecky, Westchester Federation of Women's Clubs, first and second honorable mentions.

Graphic arts, "Albi Cathedral," Earl Purdy, Woman's Club of New Rochelle, first; "Golden Fiddle," Mrs. E. J. Kelly, Larchmont Women's Club of Crestwood, the honorable mention.

Still life, "Lunch Hour," Elizabeth M. Poucher, Woman's Club of Larchmont, first; "Terrophone," Marion Bonn, Bronxville Women's Club, and "Tride," Wynne Bryant, Woman's Club of Crestwood, first and second honorable mentions.

Oil, "Whats," Beatrice Joyce, Scarsdale-Hartdale Nevecomers Club, and "Fishing in the Westchester," Irene Emmrich, Westchester Woman's Club of Mount Vernon, first and second honorable mentions.

Traditional Show
The show, open today and tomorrow is notable in the meager representation of modernists and abstractionists. This is an exhibit of traditionalists, not stogy, highly enjoyable.

Judges were C. Stanley Dugan, art collector and painter; Paul Herick, C. Ivy, architect; and Dorothy Hart Drew, all artists of distinction; Elizabeth Barker, art patron, and Bryant Baker, sculptor of the world's great.

The latter expressed especially the view of the group, said there was no question in the judges' minds as to the best "three" in each category, of the question was their possession.

The fact that an acknowledged master such as Louis Della had worked in competition with complete amateurs, was both a problem and a challenge.

The several double honorable mentions were a reflection of the opportunity to which his talent in competition with professionals.

The problem rests with the amateur who may feel he or she can get nowhere against the most able professional.

Judges In Accord
Whether problem or challenge, the effects have been beneficial. The judges agreed almost unanimously in their weighing of value, and were completely at one in terms of the show far above the usual nonprofessional exhibit.

The hanging committee headed by Mrs. J. Herbert Berman, and Mrs. William C. Keenan, has done a superb job and the attractive setting of the show at the Bronxville Women's Club set off the exhibit as its previous improved "gallery" by the Hotel Gramman had never done.

Mrs. Robert L. Koch of Bronxville is chairman of the art project.

The grand prize winner, a still life, not only a favorite subject with viewers, is distinctive for planning composition, and is partially filled with blue flowers, a glowing orange, a tall still wine bottle, against a dark cloth. The color is magnificent.

Deborah Bennett Wins Science Award
Deborah Bennett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George K. Bennett of 500 Shore Acres Drive, Mamaroneck, has been named winner of the Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award Medal at Dana Hall School in Wellesley, Mass., where she is a senior.

Miss Bennett received the medal for achieving the highest scholarship in science subjects during her high school course.

A former student at Bellows High School, she has been a member of the Glee Club, the French Club and was vice president of her junior class. Member of the Student Council, she has been elected to membership in the National Omega Chapter of the National Omega League Society in recognition of high scholarship standards and school citizenship.

Miss Bennett expects to enter Smith College next fall.

Part Purdy's "Albi Cathedral" is in near-minimum, with exquisite details. Louis Della's portrait of two children, "Jane and Jimmy" has affecting appeal, and the artist is to be expected of the expert.

The second prize winning oil, "What's," by Beatrice Joyce, one of the outstanding attention-holders of the show. The standing of the artist is to be expected of the expert.

Several of the judges will attend the Spring Conference of the Federation tomorrow in the Hotel Gramman when John Scott Williams of Scarsdale, president of the American Artists Professional League will speak, and the winning artists will receive their awards.

Seventh Grade Dramatists Give 'Elmer'

A play entitled "Elmer" was presented this morning at the annual drama festival program at Mamaroneck Junior High School by the seventh grade Dramatics Club.

The play was directed by Richard Osburn who featured in the title role was Ann Prioung in the role of his repulsive sister, Jamie and Jeanne in the role of his two girlfriends. Also in the cast were Susan Green as Miss Finney, the seamstress; Susan Conrad, the mother; and Catherine Spano, the maid.

Other members of the club were: Margaret Schwartz, the maid; and Catherine Spano, the maid. Also was a member of the club, Mrs. Purdy who announced for the play and John Goodhue as the judge.

The play was a success and the cast of sound effects, setty burlesque and musical numbers and Courtyard Sweeties was a hit.

Election Held At Hadassah Meets In Rye

Mrs. Eugene Stern was elected president of Mamaroneck Hadassah at the annual meeting of the Community Synagogue of Rye, Mrs. Barnett Glassman was elected vice president.

Other officers elected for the coming year were: Mrs. Maxwell Koenig, treasurer; Mrs. Stanley Koenig, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Daniel Zell, recording secretary; Mrs. Marvin Gitter, financial secretary; and Mrs. Samuel Gutman and Mrs. Theodor Koenig, members of the executive board.

Plans were completed for the annual dinner luncheon May 2 at the Regis Hotel, with Miss Patricia Jessel, star of "Witness for the Prosecution" as guest entertainer.

In a plea for aid to the Hadassah Medical Organization, Mrs. Sol Grannet, honorary president, said, "We must believe that health is an instrument of peace, just as sickness is a source of suffering."

Hadassah's major contribution to continue to maintain our own health and teaching and research centers, and all the other Hadassah medical installations, the newest and smallest, Jerusalem, Israel.

Mrs. Grannet asked that members and friends send their contributions to the chapter's Journal in order to support the medical organization.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Henry Berman with a prayer for peace in the Middle East.

Mrs. Stern announced the patron's party June 16 at the home of Mrs. Henry Gitter. The May 6th meeting will take place in the evening instead of the afternoon.

Mrs. Perry B. Crane Honored By Board of Woman's Club

Mrs. Perry B. Crane, retiring president of the Woman's Club of Larchmont, was guest of honor yesterday at a luncheon given by the executive board at the Larchmont Yacht Club.

Mrs. Crane, whose club presidency followed a lifetime of service to her college, community and club, will be succeeded by Mrs. H. M. Shields. A surprise entertainment, under the direction of Mrs. William Sinter and Mrs. Harold J. Meyer, followed the luncheon which was under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frank E. Smith.

A graduate of Connecticut College and a former supervisor of music in the public schools of Connecticut, Mrs. Crane was born and grew up in Stamford Springs, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Crane moved to Larchmont in 1937 and Mrs. Crane joined the Woman's Club the following year, becoming a member of the choral group.

"In her mature approach she stands for service by participation," Mrs. Crane said. "This is progress and it is undeniable. It is the modern woman's awareness that participation in community life is a cornerstone of the welfare of the world."

"BARRETCUE BOY" apron in blue-and-black-stripe with face watch foot and chain. First left, was designed by Midge Grant. Adjustable straps allow fit to any height man. Second, "carpenter's lady" Blair's full skirt, with button orange cotton blouse coordinated to skirt's bright chintz applique in heavy-duty blue jeans denim, with matching "associate by Joyce. Third, bottle washer" aprons, by Kay Shannon, have vegetable applied pockets of old fashioned express striped denim, and snap-closing, adjustable waistbands that snap through the loops of the denim jeans. Laced denim shoes are by Caprice. Fourth, "tattered" walk shorts of heavy duty dark blue denim, worn with regulation overall denim. Fifth, "maternity jeans," by Donna, with cotton shirt in denim. Sixth, "hearts and flowers" suspender, in the new blue jean flats match the pants, have red elastic insert over instep. Par right "boat coat" sailing outfit, by John Wells. In rugged express-stripe denim; hooded duffer-type coat has bright red rope closures with wooden toggles; and Pappagallo's bow-front flats are in machine denim.

Denim Goes Back To Work, But In Highest Of High Style
NEW YORK—High fashion has "rained" so many work clothes—gingham, calico, denim, etc.—that it's a real switcheroo to find a functional fabric, great in style, applied once again to its original purpose. Get set for clothes named boat-coat, short-shorts, "maternity" pants, and ladder-embroidered culottes—each a genuine denims doll. Denim, in other words. All sorts of denim. From sheer dress weights to heavy-duty stuff. And not just blue denim, but also in the six synthetic stripes that have been in, on, and off, since frontier days. What's more, within a year most denim will be of the new variety. You just throw it in the washer, hang it up to dry, and it's ready to wear again. Small start has already been made out in California, where Stephanie Karet is doing some printed "retro" denim playclothes for this year's summer.

But the boom in stylish "work" denims has been spurred by the phenomenal do-it-yourself phenomenon. One or more do-it-yourself products, it's a big enough market for a "couture" of their own to come into being. Readers know how many more.

Reservations Filled For League Event

Reservations have been filled and there is a waiting list for the New Rochelle League for Service Spring event. Mrs. Robert R. English of New Rochelle, reservations chairman, announced. The luncheon, bridge and fashion show, "Fashions in the USA," will be held at the New York Athletic Club, Travers Island, May 12. It is to be presented by the fashion show, with Margaret DeMille as commentator. Mrs. Henry E. Mendes Jr. of Larchmont is general chairman. Mrs. English, a native New Rochellean, is a member of the Woman's Club of New Rochelle and she was in charge of the information desk of the New Rochelle Hospital for the League in 1954.

Temple's Senior Club Elects New Officers

Mrs. Fanny D. Selig of Larchmont was elected president of the Senior Club of Larchmont Temple at a meeting held at the Temple. Mrs. Frances Roberts, also of Larchmont, was elected vice president. Mrs. Seymour Hirschberg of New Rochelle, secretary, Mrs. Lillian Kirshon of Larchmont, incumbent president, was named honorary president. Mrs. Ida Reich was appointed chairman of hospitality. The Senior Club meets each Wednesday at 1:30 P.M. in the Youth Lounge of the Temple. The group is composed of local men and women who meet for cards, and other games and to discuss topics of general interest. All members are welcome. The club this week honored the birthday anniversaries of two members, Mrs. Rose Conrad of New Rochelle and Mrs. Theresa Margolis of Larchmont.

are about to be added, with the fourth annual "DIT" show now concluding its New York stand, prior to its national tour. For whatever you're doing—welding a hammer, brush, saw, broom, or sail—there'll be an appropriate denim outfit, as attractive as it is functional, by this summer. There'll even be "maternity jeans." All of these work, or loaf, shoes in matching blue or striped denim. Even men's walk shorts, for hot weather workshop wear.

The six regulation denim stripes are called engineer, factory, express, catwaba, pin, and soldiering (gold and brown). All as well as "dark blue" and "faded" blue, team well with Early American calico prints and gingham. But most effective combinations are solid blue denim with matching-striped denim trim.

The modern house of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Derector on Hook Road, Katonah, is unique because many of the techniques and materials used in its construction are incorporated in this architecture. Built of native stone, with wide areas of curving glass, the house overlooks the Cross River Reservoir. Two free-standing circular fireplaces and built-in furniture are features of the home. The grounds include tennis courts, a swimming pool and several barns which house Mr. Derector's Arabian horses. "Caramoor," owned by Mrs. Walter Rosen of Glendale Ridge Road, Katonah, was designed by the late Mr. Rosen to house his collection of Renaissance art. Entire rooms were brought from Europe and installed in a setting planned to recreate the surroundings and spirit of the Renaissance.

Principal rooms of the house open into a clustered courtyard. The estate includes a park of woods, lawns and gardens. At the request of the owner, this house will be shown only between the hours of 2 and 4. A modern art collection is displayed in the normal home of Dr. and Mrs. Norman Laskey of Croton Lake, Mount Vernon. The use of color and arrangement of the interior are of particular interest. Paintings to be included are originals by Rousseau, Matisse, Picasso, Soule, Leger and Rouault. Situated on Long Lake, overlooking a ravine, the house offers a wide view of Croton Lake.

Radcliffe County Home Tour To Benefit Scholarship Fund

"Westchester County Living" is the title of the fourth annual house tour to be given from 10 to 12 P.M. May 9, 1956, at the Westchester. Proceeds will be added to the club's scholarship fund which for 20 years has provided scholarships for qualified Westchester girls for their freshman year at Radcliffe-in-High.

Four homes and gardens in Mount Kisco, Katonah and Yorktown Heights will be included on the tour. The modern house of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Derector on Hook Road, Katonah, is unique because many of the techniques and materials used in its construction are incorporated in this architecture. Built of native stone, with wide areas of curving glass, the house overlooks the Cross River Reservoir. Two free-standing circular fireplaces and built-in furniture are features of the home. The grounds include tennis courts, a swimming pool and several barns which house Mr. Derector's Arabian horses. "Caramoor," owned by Mrs. Walter Rosen of Glendale Ridge Road, Katonah, was designed by the late Mr. Rosen to house his collection of Renaissance art. Entire rooms were brought from Europe and installed in a setting planned to recreate the surroundings and spirit of the Renaissance.

Kindergarten Thru College Guidance Is Traced By Panel

A comprehensive outline of the educational guidance program in Bellows High School was presented last night in the school gymnasium by a panel of faculty members. Kenneth B. Kinney, guidance director, was moderator and panelists were Miss Mary Mosen, Robert Tuck, Miss Annie McPhee, Miss Rhoda Southall, and Mrs. Louise Schofield. The meeting, sponsored by the Bellows Community Club, was opened by Dr. Olga Lurie, program chairman. Miss Mosen, speaking of her work with seventh graders, emphasized that the backbone of the guidance program is the home room teacher, noting that it is the child's parent in school. In working with this group just out of elementary school, stress is placed on making them feel at home in the new environment, explaining the school program and encouraging them to participate in school activities, she said. In the eighth grade, Mr. Tuck explained, the program is more day at the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Jewellinger Jr., 11 Masterson Road, Bronxville, is in charge of tickets. She is being assisted by the following area representatives: Mrs. Duncan Spencer of Bedford Village, Mrs. Hans Teuber of Dobbs Ferry, Mrs. Carl Pirozheimer Jr. of Purchase, Mrs. Maurice J. Melvin Matison of Hartsdale, Mrs. David S. Hays of Hastings, Mrs. Tom Lilley of Irvington and Mrs. Thomas H. Jameson and Mrs. Charles B. Emde, both of Katonah. Also, Mrs. Peter C. Dufault of Mamaroneck, Mrs. Richard H. Goldberg and Mrs. Maurice J. Hart, both of Larchmont; Mrs. Wendell Taylor of Mount Kisco, Mrs. William H. Yale of Mount Vernon, Mrs. Sim Andrew Kolch, Mrs. Archie R. Minsall, Briarcliff Manor. And, Mrs. Harold A. Mandelbaum of Scarborough, Mrs. Curtis B. Bayler, both of Polkman, Mrs. Arthur Sweeney of Pleasantville, Mrs. David P. Hanson of Scarsdale, Mrs. Arthur Lill of Tarrytown, Mrs. Joseph D. Marks of Dutchess, Mrs. James O'Wolf of White Plains and Mrs. Abraham Klausner, Yonkers.

caused, and suggestions offered by the counselor. Miss Southall pointed out that the senior year offers the greatest opportunities for developing leadership through such activities as the publishing of the year book, Senior Day and the responsibility of class officers. School-ship opportunities for further education are publicized to all seniors. Mrs. Schofield, college consultant, stated that because of the large increase in college applicants, colleges today are extremely selective in their choice of students and students and parents "must change their thinking" on "try Leagues" schools. She suggested an investigation of the good smaller colleges, and of colleges farther away from home. Retirements were served under the supervision of Mrs. Edward Mahring and a committee consisting of Mrs. John Schumacher, Mrs. Kurt Fuller, Mrs. Thomas Verratti, Mrs. Emmel Bonelli, Mrs. William Scherer, Mrs. Michael De Fonce and Mrs. Roland Flynn. Flower arrangements were by Mrs. William Kinney.

County Panhellenic Slates First Annual Lunch Tuesday

Rye At Bellows In Battle For SWIAC Lead Tigers To Host Scarsdale Nine Tomorrow

Urbane P. E. Bellows is slated to clash with Rye's undefeated nine at Harbor Island tomorrow, 7:45 P.M., with first place in the SWIAC at stake.

Manamont, after upsetting Port Chester and White Plains in WIAA play, will be seeking its third straight win in non-league activity against Scarsdale on Monday at Memorial Field at the same time tomorrow.

However, it will be the Rye-Bellows game which the eyes of the area sport enthusiasts will follow, eager to discover if the Panthers can continue unbeaten in league play.

There is little doubt that tomorrow is the "big" one for Coach C. Lynch's charges, who have defeated Harrison, Elmford and Eastchester this season.

Rye Leading SWIAC

The Panthers trail Rye by half a game in the SWIAC, sporting a 3-0 mark to a 3-0 record for the Garnet. Rye has displayed outstanding power this season. It improved its record to 3-0 last week by snapping Piasentville's 13-game win streak with an 8-4 victory.

Jim Peay has been the spark for the Garnet, banging out a single and three doubles yesterday. Piasentville to raise his average to .543. Southport Jack Hennessy had had games with Elmford and picked up the win, although coach Tom Whelan who got the final two outs.

Leading 1-0 going into the seventh against Eastchester Friday night, Bellows was allowed only one hit for six frames, with a 4-0 shutout.

and Blessed Sacrament of New Rochelle cancelled.

Following tomorrow's crucial contest, the Panthers are slated to host Piasentville Wednesday, with Mike Scarsdale to do the pitching. Scarsdale picked up the five-inning 9-0 win via Elmford earlier in the year.

Bellows is then slated to meet Tech at Memorial Field in Mount Vernon Friday, at which time it will conclude its most hectic week of the campaign. Pennell is Friday's tentative hurler.

Coach Lynch is expected to start Jim Bellows a short Lefty on center, Nat Hutchinson as first, John Laine in right, Harold at second, Roy Swanson at second, Bob LaBrusciano, Ron A. Sprague or Harvey Eberwein in left, Les Scott behind the plate, and Pinelli on the hill tomorrow.

It is still doubtful who will fire for Manamont against Scarsdale tomorrow, with Hennessy or right-hander Gordon hurrying Thursday by snapping Piasentville's 13-game win streak with an 8-4 victory.

The Manamont Independent Softball League got underway with a bang yesterday at Harbor Island, as 39 hits were smashed in his two games, five for the distance and six others for extra bases.

A four-run sixth inning, sparked by Joe Constantini's two-run homer, enabled the champion Villagers to down the Spoilers, 14-11, in the opener.

Following the Century Club's forfeit to the Converts, the Villagers scored twice in the top of the first, only to have the Spoilers retaliate with three in the last of the inning. After the Villagers went ahead 6-3 with four in the second, the Spoilers rebounded with two in their half and three in the third to take an 8-6 lead. Ace Andrews homered to open the third.

Villagers Take 10-8 Lead

Ronnie Paula, who had doubled in the initial frame, blasted a triple to highlight the Villagers' four-run fourth which pushed them ahead 10-8.

However, the battling Spoilers came back with another two in the last of the fourth to deadlock the contest at 10-10.

Constantini's homer and Bill Pooler's two-out single produced four runs and a 14-10 margin for the Villagers.

The Spoilers began to retaliate against Tom Zeh in the last of the seventh, as Andrews' single pushed two markers across to narrow the Villagers' advantage to 14-12. Zeh, however, closed the book here to protect his first win of the campaign. He worked for it by striking out three.

Mike Harrington, hurler of three frames, led the Villagers, while Andrews, with three-for-four, paced the Spoilers.

The finale found the Magrinos scoring in all but the sixth inning to blast the Dukes, 14-8.

Mike Harrington, hurler of three frames, was scored on in each of the final four innings, but the early lead the Magrinos had compiled proved more than substantial.

Glennon's booming homer in the first inning accounted for two runs, while Basco's three-run circuit in the second pushed the Magrinos ahead, 6-0.

Blanca's third straight safety in the top of the third eliminated the Magrinos with an 8-0 margin.

Mike Harrington's homer to open the fourth made it 9-0, before the Duke offense could begin to click against Harrington.

MISL activity is scheduled to continue at Harbor Island tonight, when the Rockets meet the East Dodgers. The Goals meet the others tomorrow, 8:30 P. M., and the East Dodgers clash with the Converts Wednesday at the 10:00 time.

The finale found the Magrinos scoring in all but the sixth inning to blast the Dukes, 14-8.

Mike Harrington, hurler of three frames, was scored on in each of the final four innings, but the early lead the Magrinos had compiled proved more than substantial.

Glennon's booming homer in the first inning accounted for two runs, while Basco's three-run circuit in the second pushed the Magrinos ahead, 6-0.

Blanca's third straight safety in the top of the third eliminated the Magrinos with an 8-0 margin.

Mike Harrington's homer to open the fourth made it 9-0, before the Duke offense could begin to click against Harrington.

MISL activity is scheduled to continue at Harbor Island tonight, when the Rockets meet the East Dodgers. The Goals meet the others tomorrow, 8:30 P. M., and the East Dodgers clash with the Converts Wednesday at the 10:00 time.

Engan Wins Singles Bowling Crown

BRONXVILLE—Ralph Engan of Yonkers is the 2013 singles bowling champion. He compiled a 3.83 average for the 13-game season which concluded a three-weekend run at the Bronxville Bowling Club alley yesterday.

Engan, twenty-seven—a old Yankee knickknacker, commented the singles title is his collection by hitting 1413 for the final eight games yesterday. He was the only bowler in the tourney to average better than 300 per game for the entire series.

Son of the Yonkers keeper John Engan, Ralph has been bowling for some nine years. He is averaging 199 per game for the regular season and has bowled two 300 games, one in Yonkers and another in Virginia while in the Army.

Pete Valenti of Port Chester, led the first two weeks, slipped to 1540 for yesterday's eighth game and finished second in the event with a 24-game average of 199.4.

Roger Loria of the Bronx, 1567 yesterday finished third at 197.

BEAR MOUNTAIN—
 The proposed connection between the State Thruway and the New Jersey Turnpike is at least four years from being completed. The Governors of New York and New Jersey met here Thursday to exchange views on the route through Rockland and Bergen Counties. The road would provide an express highway bypass of New York City for an estimated 3,500,000 vehicles a year at present and for some 12 million a year by 1970. That connection is expected to be started in 1958. Another link between the Thruway and the Garden State Parkway is scheduled to be completed in the middle of next year.

The bidding:
 South West North East
 3NT Pass Pass Pass

Among the most precise and descriptive opening bids in bridge are those of one, two or three notrump. The opener can substantially represent his high cards, distribution and scattered strength all in one motion. Where an opening bid of one in a suit may have very wide variations both in high cards and distribution, the area of strength and distribution becomes largely compressed within narrow bounds when the opening bid is some number of notrump. Thus the opening bid of three notrump signifies high card strength between 25 and 27 points, distribution that is usually 4-3-3-3 or 4-4-2-2, and stoppers or high cards in all four suits. (In counting the high card points, the Ace is valued at 4 points, K-3, Q-2, J-1.)

In today's hand we can note how well the opener's three notrump bid reflects a true picture of the real nature of the hand, whereas an opening one of two club bid would not at once convey to partner the overwhelming power and balanced distribution which in actuality exists. Of course the clear message is wasted in the present case, since North with this particular hand has no interest in proceeding further.

With proper care the declarer will have no trouble romping home with nine tricks. The opening plays of the king and queen or diamonds are ducked by South, but declarer should win the third round of diamonds. With seven sure tricks in his own hand and probably an eighth in clubs, the declarer has to find a ninth winner.

This can be accomplished by cashing four clubs, the two high spades, and then exiting with a diamond. Although this plan of play concedes to West without a struggle his four diamond tricks, it has the ultimate effect of compelling him to lead a spade if he has one to dummy's queen, or a heart into the declarer's AQ either of which gives South the contract. If, after running his clubs and spades, the declarer attempts a low heart to dummy's jack in an effort to gain the ninth trick, West can defeat the contract by going up with the king and taking his diamonds.

CONSTRUCTION PAY UP
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Labor Department estimated today the average pay rate for union construction trades workers at $2.95 an hour on April 1, or 4.1 per cent higher than a year earlier. Hourly wage scales rose seven-tenths of 1 per cent during the first quarter of this year.

I can (1 pound and 4 ounces) pineapple chunks
 1 tablespoon American-type soy sauce.
 Trim fat from around pork chops so there is only a thin layer of fat. Mix together the flour, celery salt, nutmeg and garlic powder; dip chops into mixture to coat. (A teaspoon or so of flour will be left; reserve.) Melt fat remaining from chops in a small saucepan with reserved seasonings. Brown pork chops quickly in fat; stand chops on edges against sides of skillet (or hold with forks) to brown while quickly turning to a golden color. Arrange chops in oven dish—8 by 8 by 2 inches. Stir pineapple juice and soy sauce together; pour over chops; add pineapple chunks. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until meat loses all trace of pink—about 45 minutes; cut slit near bone to test. Remove chops and pineapple and keep warm; sprinkle chops lightly with salt. In a small saucepan mix reserved seasonings with one or two teaspoons of water until smooth; add chops quickly in fat; stand chops in all liquid from pork chops plates.

U. S. Rushing To New-High Car Slaughter

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council says the nation may be headed for an all-time record of traffic deaths in a single year.

The council issued the sobering warning yesterday following the highest March death toll in its history.

If the present trend continues, the council observed, the 1941 record of 38,000 deaths in a single year may be surpassed in 1954.

The March traffic death toll was placed at 2,900—320 more than March, 1953, and 84 higher than the previous record of 2,816 for the month, set in 1937.

It marked the 13th consecutive month of increased traffic deaths and boosted the toll for the first three months of 1954 to 8,390, its second highest first quarter total on record. The record first quarter total of 8,615 deaths was set in 1931.

The mounting rate of traffic deaths prompted council president Ned H. Dreyfus to declare a "traffic accident emergency." He wired each state governor to urge an "all-out effort" to curtail traffic accidents.

Katz Elected Leader Of County JWV

PEEEKSKILL—Herman Katz of Peekskill was elected county commander of the Jewish War Veterans at the annual convention yesterday at the Jewish Community Center. He succeeds Alfred Jacobs of Port Chester.

Other elected were Joseph Atlas of New Rochelle, senior vice commander; Donald E. Noles of White Plains, junior vice commander; and Seymour Liberman of Yonkers, judge advocate. Ralph Plosky of White Plains, state senior vice commander, installed the officers.

Samuel Shulsky of Peekskill was unanimously endorsed for national executive committee. Following the convention, the JWV units marched in the Loyalty Day Parade at White Plains.

1st Stanvac Workers Move To White Plains

WHITE PLAINS—Fifty-six members of Standard Vacuum's purchasing department occupied space in the company's new international headquarters at 100 Westchester Avenue, today, six weeks ahead of the remaining 850 executives and other office workers who will be moving from downtown New York early in June.

The transfer of office records and equipment for the department began Friday at 230 Broadway, New York, where the group will have been housed for several years.

With the first of 27 separate departments installed in the building, work continued on the installation of partitions and a variety of special equipment in preparation for the move to its new date. One portion of the automobile parking area is already in use and work is nearing completion on the roads and finish grading around the building.

Crime Decreases 1st Time In 8 Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI reported today there was a slight decline in major crimes in the United States in 1953, the first drop-off in eight years.

FBI director J. Edgar Hoover described the decrease, amounting to a fifth of 1 per cent, as "almost negligible when viewed in the light of the fact that this is the fourth consecutive year that the estimated number of crimes exceeded the two million mark."

Last year's major crime total was estimated at 2,267,456 compared with 2,267,250 in 1954. The report said that 1953 crime was still 17.7 per cent higher than the 1947-54 annual average of 1,906,200 major offenses.

Whereas the national population has increased an estimated 9 per cent since 1950, it said, "crime has jumped 25 per cent—an increase almost three times as great as the population."

The 1953 crime reports reflected these statistics:

One major crime committed for each 73 persons in the general population, with 124,300 criminal attacks on persons, or 470 more than in 1954.

One rape committed every 27.5 minutes, a robbery every 8.1 minutes.

Ill, Penniless, Widow Of 76 Dies In Pond

FAIRVIEW—A penniless widow who was scheduled to be interred by the County Welfare Department from a private nursing home to the County Home at East View was found drowned yesterday in Raley's Pond. Dr. John Ryan, assistant medical examiner, ruled the death a suicide.

Two brothers searching for turtles near the pond on Central Westchester Parkway near Tarrytown Road discovered the body. Greenburgh Police and Parkways Police were summoned.

The woman was identified as Mrs. Florence Pomroy, 76, widow of a doctor from Johnston. The nursing home said that Mrs. Pomroy had not been seen since she went for a walk Saturday night.

Yesterday morning Edwin Pusaro, twenty-two, and Michael Pusaro, son of 87 Prospect Street, White Plains, found the woman's handbag, hat and coat lying on the shore. About 100 feet farther they saw the body and notified police.

Broken Pans Laid To Mute

MOUNT VERNON—A deaf mute who informed police he was "mad" because nobody understood him was being held today on four charges of malicious mischief. Three of the charges may turn out to be false, police said, because of the amount of damage.

Police charged that Benjamin Kocchin, twenty-two, of 154 Pearl Drive, is accused of tossing rocks through windows of a supermarket here and an industrial building at 35 Brookwood Avenue on three occasions. The said he also admits hurling stones at cars and buildings in New York and Pelham.

They questioned him by writing the questions on paper and he answered the same way, they said.

Question: Surveying the usual busy accumulation of laundry and housework, gardening and storm windows to take care of, I suddenly realized how original my husband helps me. I have two youngsters to care for. I paint and plaster whenever the house requires it. If I could money on myself, even for what I need, I'm told I'm extravagant. If my house isn't spic and span, my mother hawks me. If the yard isn't tidy, my neighbors talk about me. Do you think if I let my husband catch me with another man he'd get jealous enough to do his share of work?

Answer: When would you find time to see another man — no matter how briefly — in your schedule? I'm afraid as a solution that's out.

Us: You need is the spirit of independence. You worry too much over what other people say, think and do. You have your own personality to develop; don't try to conform to everyone's idea of what you should be.

Blanch that backbone of yours instead of eternally bending it. You will competently handle your share of work, but tasks which are physically masculine, will be left for your husband. If he neglects them, tough luck. They just won't get done. I doubt if your mother ever hawks you in walls, or if your female in-laws do the outside chores.

I suspect you're very young housewife; don't let inconsiderate people and their opinions wear you out before your time.

Question: How can I lose 20 to 30 pounds by Summer? I weigh 150, am 5'7" and am only 34 years. I dread putting on a bathing suit.

Answer: Take yourself to a doctor for diet and exercise recommendations. I hope articles like this are your strong subject for you'll be using it plenty to count calories. There just is no other way to lose.

You're a tall girl, well proportioned, so a bathing suit needn't

$95,000 Loot, 3 Men Nabbed

HOUSTON, Texas (AP) — Police arrested three men yesterday and said they had recovered more than $90,000 in cash in what they called a $300,000 robbery. Police said the money was recovered in a raid on the home of Harvey Marley, thirty-one, in San Antonio by Houston and San Antonio Police and Texas Rangers.

Marley and Edwin Roy Marmell, thirty-four, Houston automobile salesman, are held in jail here. San Antonio Police are holding Arthur Eckert, a used car dealer.

The three men are charged with burglary and felony theft in the looting of a closet safe at the home of Paul D. Denney, a bakery owner.

You're watching Radar prove it!

WITHOUT TCP At the San Antonio Proving Grounds, several cars were fueled with competitive premium-grade gasolines. The 201-plus H.P. car you see was driven about 3,000 miles, under normal driving conditions. Then the rate of acceleration was checked by radar. Performance was below par, due to deposits which caused the spark plugs to misfire.

WITH TCP The same car, after a few tankfuls of Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP, showed 18% faster acceleration when checked by radar. Results on the other cars, when switched to Shell Premium with TCP, varied. Most cars showed a 6 to 15% increase in pickup. In each case, TCP additive had neutralized power-wasting deposits, stopped spark plug "miss."

Shell Premium with TCP outclasses competitive premium gasolines in full-throttle acceleration test!

Modern cars are beautiful performers. Yet, within less than 3500 miles of driving, even a new car can fall victim to engine deposits.

These deposits cause pre-firing of the gasoline or spark plug "miss"—denying you the power you paid for, the acceleration you occasionally need no matter how careful a driver you are.

Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP, the greatest gasoline development in 31 years, neutralizes engine deposits. TCP additive restores power to your car that pre-firing and spark plug "miss" take away.

Switch to Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP and get back lost power as you drive.

*Shell's Trademark for this unique gasoline additive developed by Shell Research. Patent applied for.
