Bogus Service Button Lands Man In Prison

NEW YORK (AP)—Leon Zeld, 28, of Brooklyn, former quartermaster at the Larchmont Yacht Club, wearing the bogus button, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment yesterday in Federal court after he pleaded guilty to a charge of illegally wearing a serviceman's honorable discharge button.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Gerald V. Clarke said the case was the first of its kind in the United States. U. S. Attorney John F. McElroy said such cases would be prosecuted vigorously to protect the rights of discharges.

The prosecution said that Zeld applied for work June 4 at the Larchmont Yacht Club, wearing the button. The circumstances leading to his arrest were not given. Officials of the club had no recollection of Zeld, who worked only briefly as a waiter there.

Zeld obtained employment at the yacht club by representing himself as a veteran and acting never has been in service, Clarke said.

He added that Zeld was arrested in Monticello in 1943 for illegally wearing a major's uniform with decorations. At that time, Clarke said, the government did not prosecute because Zeld had sold $20,000 worth of War Bonds and was serving in the army.

State authorities here, however, sentenced him to 12 months imprisonment, Clarke said.

Elliott Denies Charges FDR Helped 'Deals'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Brig. Gen. Elliott Roosevelt says anyone who claims the late President helped "promote or assist" in the sale of war surplus to his son, said a statement today.

And young Roosevelt said in a sharp denial of a statement last night, he is leaving the Air Force simply because he does not wish to serve in the military.

He made the decision a month ago, he said, and he had no business transactions with the government, he said, adding of the reports: "I conducted my own business affairs, and my own investments, and still is mine and mine alone."

Asserting he had nothing to do with the sale of surplus, he said he was cooperating with a Treasury investigation of his affairs and had asked the Department to "make public all of the facts, without reservation, at the earliest possible moment."

"I am entitled to a full public statement of those facts for the sake of my family," Roosevelt said. His statement was made public by his attorney, Randolph Paul, former general counsel of the Treasury.

The Treasury began its investigation on orders of the House Ways and Means and Senate Finance Committees.

It stemmed from a story early in June by Columbia University's Pegler that young Roosevelt had borrowed $200,000 in 1939 from John D. Rockefeller, Jr., the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. president, who had sold three years later for $400,000 by Jesse Jones, then Secretary of Commerce, to Hartford Insurance Co. of New York.

Pegler wrote that "President Roosevelt knew of the loan and approved it."

General Roosevelt, who reverts to inactive status Aug. 15, said he filed his retirement request May 11, three days after V-E Day. He wanted to take part in the fighting against Japan," he added.

"I have neither the background nor the training for a non-combat assignment," he said. "I have no desire to finish out the war as an aircraft gunner."

Rationing To Continue On Meat, Sugar, Butter, Shoes And Tires

WASHINGTON, (AP).—OPA today announced immediate termination of the rationing of gasoline, canned fruits and vegetables, fuel oil and oil stoves.

Price Administrator Chester Bowles said that meats, fats and oils, butter, sugar, shoes and tires will stay on the ration list until military cutbacks and increased production brings civilian supplies more nearly in balance with civilian demand.

"Nobody is any happier than we in OPA," Bowles said, "that as far as gasoline is concerned, the day is finally here when we can drive our cars wherever we please, when we please and as much as we please."

The OPA chief said "right now it's impossible" to estimate when other commodities can be removed from the rationing. He said:

"It certainly can't come too soon as far as we are concerned. You can be sure that the oil and tires will go off the list the minute we hear that supplies are anywhere near big enough to go around."

Gasoline rationing began in the east May 15, 1942, and was extended throughout the nation Dec. 1, 1942.

The canned fruits and vegetables program began in March, 1943, while fuel oil rationing came to the east in October, 1942, and to the rest of the nation in March, 1943.

Bowles said that while immediate removal of several major civilian commodities from rationing may mean local shortages for awhile, the supply agencies assure him that the return to normal channels of distribution will take care of those trouble spots promptly.

Legal Holiday Plan Retracted By President

WASHINGTON, (AP).—The White House today retracted a statement that today and tomorrow are legal holidays.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said that last night's statement which held the import of creating two legal holidays for purposes of overtime pay was issued in error. Ross said in a statement:

"Today is not V. J. day nor is tomorrow. As the President believed yesterday, the proclamation of V. J. day must wait upon the formal signing of the surrender terms by Japan, therefore the executive order does not apply in any way to Aug. 15 and 16, Aug. 15 and 16 are not intended as legal holidays. The President merely excused government employees from work on those two days."

"The Executive Order will be applicable on V. J. Day when it is proclaimed. Before that date the secretary of labor will issue a clarifying statement to its effect."

Driver Uninjured As Car Hits Wall

World Hails Dawn Of Peace Era As Bloody War Ends

By The Associated Press

Millions lifted their hearts and voices today to hail the dawn of peace.

There were tears, laughter, hysteria and prayers throughout the allied world as Japan, last undefeated aggressor nation, announced it had surrendered.

"Thank God—thank God it's over at last," the British cheered again and again, in every language. The bloodiest, most destructive war in history was at an end.

Everywhere a day of wartime restraint and exploded in the greatest, wildest, most ecstatic celebration of all time. Bouts of happy crowds sang, danced and cheered into the early morning. Thousands prepared to continue the fiesta during the two-day holiday proclaimed for today and tomorrow by the United States and Britain.

Everywhere, veterans of the war were in the forefront of the jubilation.

In the Pacific Islands, in shattered Germany and bomb-crashed England, in Manila, Paris, in ships at sea and in hospital wards "they cheered and cried and hugged each other on the back. 'Now we'll be home sooner,' they said.

In America, they were teased and kissed and praised and wept over.

All through Latin America and the West Indies there was a wild rejoicing. "My German kicked over the traces in the most horrible manner ever seen there, aided by shouting, singing American servicemen."

Shooting, fireworks and some disorders were reported in Havana. In Buenos Aires there were violent demonstrations and frequent clashes between student and nationalist groups, which were stamped by police.

Pearl Harbor, where the Pacific war began on Dec. 7, 1941, sounded its air raid sirens to proclaim peace. Revolvers and rockets, if not shrapnel, littered the streets.

The West Coast, nearest the Japanese threat, shouted its relief and joy. Boat whistles whined and San Francisco went wild, offices of Hirohito, Hitler and Mussolini were banged, burned and kicked. Japanese Americans joined in the festivity.

In Times Square 2,000,000 persons jammed joyfully together under a canopy of ticker tape, singing and shouting the nation through city streets over the nation. Hoisting their horns. Long-haired peace protesters and rockers were set off.

Never had there been a celebration to equal it.

Arthur Dahlen, 14, of 216 Jensen Avenue, Mamaroneck, was occasion, shot who is home on leave from the U. S. Army, was struck by an automobile driven by Maurice Sabet of Scarsdale near the East Post Road and Mamaroneck Avenue.

The United Hospital, Port Chester, reported this morning that the boy condition is fairly good and that he is being treated for multiple lacerations and possible concussion. Sabet, who is home on furlough from the Army after repatriation from a German prison camp, was proceeding east on the Post Road when his car struck the boy while he was crossing from the northeast corner of the intersection to the southeast corner.

Victory News Flash Sets Off Spontaneous Celebration As Noisy Crowds Fill Streets

By RUTH R. TAUB

Good-natured, untrained hell broke loose in the streets of Mamaroneck and Larchmont last night, on the heels of the official victory news flash, while thousands of quiet celebrants streamed into their churches and others remained at home glued to their radios.

An impromptu parade, originating at Harbor Island in Mamaroneck, headed by the fire chief's car and followed by other apparatus, attracting hundreds of people and tin-can-decked cars, got off to an uproarious start shortly after the news came, and went through the streets of Mamaroneck in a noisy, cheering caravan, ending up in Larchmont, where usually staid residents went aloft in a hilarious burst of spontaneously centered around Chatsworth and Palmer Avenues.

Paper and confetti demonstrations, with plenty of fire crackers were in evidence everywhere. Cars with horns blaring in a continuous blast of noise were decked with red, white and blue streamers and American flags, trailing tin cans and other noise-makers as they traveled in an unending stream through the streets.

The celebration combined the noisiest features of a victorious football crowd, New Year's Eve, and the Fourth of July and Christmas of the period of the twenties.

Local clubs joined in the gala festivities with many cranks in members and guests in attendance. Hordes of Mamaroneck and Larchmont residents joined other Westchester commuters on New York-bound trains, where good-natured, untrained hell broke loose. Numerous passengers who tried offering a drink in place of the usual ticket.

Johnson Loses Race To Ring Town Hall Bell

By RUTH R. TAUB

Johnson was beaten to the ring last night by young Danny Amatuzzo of 129 Prospect Avenue, Mamaroneck, when Mr. Johnson attempted to sound the old Town Hall bell behind the library just as he had done on Nov. 11, 1918, at the end of World War I.

At that time, the bell was located at the Town Hall then on Prospect Avenue just across the street from the Municipal building. Mr. Johnson was home on leave from the armed forces at that time and rang the bell in celebration of the Armistice.

When he arrived at the grounds behind the library last night, he found that the bell sat on the ground with both of the posts supporting it broken.

Young Amatuzzo had dashed around the corner from his home at 129 Prospect Avenue, rang the bell and after climbing the metal fence, began to ring the bell shortly after 9 o'clock. After only three lusty rings, the rattled and weakened support giving up, the bell swung and tumbled to the ground.

Chinese Reds March On Key North Centers

CHUNGKING (AP).—Unofficial reports indicated today that Communist forces were on the march in an attempt to seize control of all key cities in China north of the Yellow River, including Feping, Tientsin and Tsingtau.

Among other Communist objectives was said to be Huachow, strategic key-point at the junction of the Tientsin, Pukow and Lungai railroads, which the Japanese occupied May, 1938, as a prelude to the battle for Hankow.

Unconfirmed reports, which must be classified as dubious until official confirmation is available, said uncontrolled forces already had seized control of Shanghai and were prepared to hold it until arrival of airborne Chinese National troops.

"At central air bases in South China, crack American-trained American-equipped Chinese Sixth Army veterans of Burma were ready to board transports for Shanghai as a precautionary measure."

(The Xenan radio declared yesterday that Communist Gen. Chu Teh had received a message from the 18th Army Group to return to their posts, and that Chinese Communist forces had opened offensives in North China, driving toward Suifu, Changshai, Jehol and Liching on the southern flank of the Russian offensive.)

Emperor Blames Atom Bomb

By The Associated Press

Emperor Hirohito accepted today the resignations of the cabinet following a broadcast shortly after personally informing the people that their nation was compelled to surrender to the Allies to escape obliteration.

Dornel dispatch recorded by the FCC indicated that Hirohito had requested the resignation of Premier Adm. Kantaro Suzuki and his cabinet. A later English language broadcast by Dornel, Japanese news agency, said the Emperor had asked Suzuki to remain at his post "pending the appointment of a new premier."

Hirohito's announcement, the first radio broadcast ever made by a Japanese emperor to his subjects, attributed Japan's plight to the invention of the atomic bomb, which he described as "a new and most cruel weapon, the power of which to do damage is incalculable."

"This is the reason we have ordered the acceptance of the joint declaration of the powers," the emperor declared.

Hirohito—in the face-saving tradition dear to the Japanese—maintained to the end that Japan had been battling only in self-defense and that she had given up the fight "to strive for the common prosperity and happiness of all nations and the well-being of our subjects."

War Minister Sidelined

The bitter reaction to Japan's militarists to the ignominy of unconditional surrender, however, was reflected in the immediate suicide of War Minister Gen. Korechika Anami and a broadcast address by Premier Baron Kantaro Suzuki in which he declared: "This day has become the day that never, never will be forgotten by the Japanese people."

Accepting command of the Allied occupation forces already had seized control of Shanghai and were prepared to hold it until arrival of airborne Chinese National troops.

"I think a merciful God that this mighty struggle is about to end," His next message was "I shall at once take steps to stop hostilities and further bloodshed."

Orders Caution

Admiral Halsey, commander of the Third Fleet, told his officers and men the world in a broadcast address from his flagship only 110 miles off Japan:

"The day that the fighting has ended, there must be no letdown. There must be no 'handing waiting.'"

Both Admirals Nimitz and Halsey radiated "cease fire" orders to all Allied forces in the Pacific and almost simultaneously with President Truman's Washington announcement of the Japanese

WAR RATIONING ENDS

World Hails Dawn Of Peace Era As Bloody War Ends

By The Associated Press

Millions lifted their hearts and voices today to hail the dawn of peace.

There were tears, laughter, hysteria and prayers throughout the allied world as Japan, last undefeated aggressor nation, announced it had surrendered.

"Thank God—thank God it's over at last," the British cheered again and again, in every language. The bloodiest, most destructive war in history was at an end.

Everywhere a day of wartime restraint and exploded in the greatest, wildest, most ecstatic celebration of all time. Bouts of happy crowds sang, danced and cheered into the early morning. Thousands prepared to continue the fiesta during the two-day holiday proclaimed for today and tomorrow by the United States and Britain.

Everywhere, veterans of the war were in the forefront of the jubilation.

In the Pacific Islands, in shattered Germany and bomb-crashed England, in Manila, Paris, in ships at sea and in hospital wards "they cheered and cried and hugged each other on the back. 'Now we'll be home sooner,' they said.

In America, they were teased and kissed and praised and wept over.

All through Latin America and the West Indies there was a wild rejoicing. "My German kicked over the traces in the most horrible manner ever seen there, aided by shouting, singing American servicemen."

Shooting, fireworks and some disorders were reported in Havana. In Buenos Aires there were violent demonstrations and frequent clashes between student and nationalist groups, which were stamped by police.

Pearl Harbor, where the Pacific war began on Dec. 7, 1941, sounded its air raid sirens to proclaim peace. Revolvers and rockets, if not shrapnel, littered the streets.

The West Coast, nearest the Japanese threat, shouted its relief and joy. Boat whistles whined and San Francisco went wild, offices of Hirohito, Hitler and Mussolini were banged, burned and kicked. Japanese Americans joined in the festivity.

In Times Square 2,000,000 persons jammed joyfully together under a canopy of ticker tape, singing and shouting the nation through city streets over the nation. Hoisting their horns. Long-haired peace protesters and rockers were set off.

Never had there been a celebration to equal it.

Arthur Dahlen, 14, of 216 Jensen Avenue, Mamaroneck, was occasion, shot who is home on leave from the U. S. Army, was struck by an automobile driven by Maurice Sabet of Scarsdale near the East Post Road and Mamaroneck Avenue.

The United Hospital, Port Chester, reported this morning that the boy condition is fairly good and that he is being treated for multiple lacerations and possible concussion. Sabet, who is home on furlough from the Army after repatriation from a German prison camp, was proceeding east on the Post Road when his car struck the boy while he was crossing from the northeast corner of the intersection to the southeast corner.

SUICIDE PLANES HIT

OKINAWA, (AP).—A pair of bomb-carrying Japanese kamikaze suicide planes crashed into Irya Island, 30 miles north of Okinawa tonight, injuring at least two American garrison troops in a futile raid which left Okinawa burning with fury.

The raid came 12 hours after President Truman's announcement of Japan's surrender was made known. It caused a two-hour blackout alert over Okinawa and nearby islands.

The alert, following by hours General MacArthur's communique declaring "offensive action in all sectors has been halted," turned Okinawa troops into the Allies' fiercest and most determined foe in under a bright moonlight about 3 P. M. to strike the astounding blow.

Tokyo Warns Allied Fleets Not To Approach Home Waters Until Surrender Order Is Effective

By The Associated Press

A Dornel dispatch broadcast by the Tokyo radio today said Imperial Headquarters is endeavoring to transmit the Imperial order to every branch of the forces but before it took full effect "a part of the Japanese air force is reported to have made an attack on the Allied base and fleet in the south."

"While the Imperial Headquarters are trying their best to prevent the occurrence of such an attack, Allied fleets and convoys are again requested not to approach Japanese home waters until cease-fire arrangements are made," Dornel said.

Manila (AP)—Japan's surrender envoy will fly in an all-white plane, decorated with green crosses, when he comes to learn the Allied terms for surrender, General MacArthur disclosed today in his second note to the Japanese since his appointment as Allied supreme commander in Japan.

Emperor Hirohito

Emperor Hirohito accepted today the resignations of the cabinet following a broadcast shortly after personally informing the people that their nation was compelled to surrender to the Allies to escape obliteration.

Dornel dispatch recorded by the FCC indicated that Hirohito had requested the resignation of Premier Adm. Kantaro Suzuki and his cabinet. A later English language broadcast by Dornel, Japanese news agency, said the Emperor had asked Suzuki to remain at his post "pending the appointment of a new premier."

Hirohito's announcement, the first radio broadcast ever made by a Japanese emperor to his subjects, attributed Japan's plight to the invention of the atomic bomb, which he described as "a new and most cruel weapon, the power of which to do damage is incalculable."

"This is the reason we have ordered the acceptance of the joint declaration of the powers," the emperor declared.

Hirohito—in the face-saving tradition dear to the Japanese—maintained to the end that Japan had been battling only in self-defense and that she had given up the fight "to strive for the common prosperity and happiness of all nations and the well-being of our subjects."

War Minister Sidelined

The bitter reaction to Japan's militarists to the ignominy of unconditional surrender, however, was reflected in the immediate suicide of War Minister Gen. Korechika Anami and a broadcast address by Premier Baron Kantaro Suzuki in which he declared: "This day has become the day that never, never will be forgotten by the Japanese people."

Urges Jap Revenge—Calling on the Japanese people to face present humiliations and get ready to "commemorate the purpose of this holy war" at some later time when they can "destroy the enemy," Prince Norihisa, Washington, T. I. broadcast a special message to Japanese-occupied territories through Dornel, the official Japanese news agency. Overheard and recorded by the Federal Communications Commission, the Washington message ignored Japan's order to surrender.

Chinese Reds March On Key North Centers

CHUNGKING (AP).—Unofficial reports indicated today that Communist forces were on the march in an attempt to seize control of all key cities in China north of the Yellow River, including Feping, Tientsin and Tsingtau.

Among other Communist objectives was said to be Huachow, strategic key-point at the junction of the Tientsin, Pukow and Lungai railroads, which the Japanese occupied May, 1938, as a prelude to the battle for Hankow.

Unconfirmed reports, which must be classified as dubious until official confirmation is available, said uncontrolled forces already had seized control of Shanghai and were prepared to hold it until arrival of airborne Chinese National troops.

"I think a merciful God that this mighty struggle is about to end," His next message was "I shall at once take steps to stop hostilities and further bloodshed."

Income Tax Cut Likely On Jan. 1

Low Income Groups May Be Relieved Entirely By Revised Law

WONT EASE '45 LEVY

WASHINGTON (AP)—All Americans seem likely to get a cut in their income taxes after Congress is coming back Sept. 5 in a tax-cutting mood. Some of the best-informed tax experts in Washington think a reduction in personal income taxes will be enacted before Christmas, with Administration approval if the cut isn't too drastic.

The expected reduction probably would be only moderate for most taxpayers. The man earning a lot of money would have a smaller percentage cut off his taxes than the fellow making $35 a week.

People in the lowest income groups would be the ones whose income taxes might be wiped out entirely.

A survey of Congressional and other tax authorities today produced the following picture:

1. Cut would be felt first in small pay roll reductions starting Jan. 1. It would not affect the filing of 1945 income tax returns next March 15. The "normal tax" of 2 per cent may be repealed.

2. Federal taxes on such items as alcoholic beverages, fur, luggage, jewelry, tickets, colored spending and telephone calls will be reduced by 10 per cent in 1945 rates six months after the official termination of hostilities.

3. The 55 per cent excess profits tax on corporations is sure to be killed. No body knows it now. The only question is whether to do it next Jan. 1 or later.

Better Grade Gas Due On Market Soon

WASHINGTON (AP)—That unrationed gasoline soon will be made to previous quality. Enough materials are available to produce a grade of gasoline that will be better than the rationed grade.

The OPA followed its announcement of the end to gasoline rationing yesterday with an easing of its regulations to permit more "A" car motorists to obtain new tires.

This still will be rationed largely on the basis of occupational driving, but 5 per cent of each board's tire quotas now are set to "A" motorists.

Gasoline dealers in Maranoneck and Larchmont were divided today on the prospects of a shortage with the end of rationing and a resumption of normal business today, but they agreed motor fuel soon will be of better quality.

Nearly all gasoline stations were closed yesterday but were open today. Motorists crowded the pumps and some operators feared supplies would be exhausted.

Some distributors are making deliveries today to those stations which were open for the previous day for the rush.

A representative of the Texas Company said he feared there would be a tight shortage of gasoline soon because of transportation difficulties. However, Standard Oil representative said he believed the distributors would be able to keep up with the demand.

Yards in Westchester from which supplies are drawn into the New York area, said, "We have supply on hand yesterday. Shortage of help and trucks will permit only normal deliveries today and tomorrow. But soon fuel will be being in from the West and the oil men say it won't be long before better gasoline is back in the civilian channels. With a lessening of military demands gasoline will be in more plentiful supply than it has been for some time."

Lt. Goeller Of 'Red Raiders' Squadron Wins High Tribute For His Courageous Service

The "courageous service" of Lt. William J. Goeller, formerly of Larchmont, was praised recently in a letter to his wife from Gen. George C. Kenney, United States Army commander. The son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Goeller of Griffith Avenue, Lt. Goeller, navigator in the Red Raiders' Squadron, was awarded the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" in action in aerial flights in the southwest Pacific.

Maranoneck High School and University of Vermont graduate, Lt. Goeller entered the service in March, 1942, and received training at Keefer Field, Miss., and March Field, Calif. He is now serving aboard a B-24 with the 22nd Bomb Group, 408th Squadron in the Pacific.

His wife, the former Elizabeth Denning of New Haven, Conn., is residing there with her parents. The Goellers resided at 43 Edgewood Avenue, Larchmont, before they moved to Seaside, Md.

The letter, in part, follows: "Recently your husband, Lt. William J. Goeller, was decorated with the Air Medal. It was an award made in recognition of courageous service to his combat organization, his fellow aviators, his country, his home and to you, while participating in aerial flights in the southwest Pacific Area from March 25, 1943 to May 21, 1943."

"Your husband took part in assignments which were hazardous during which hostile contact was probable and expected. These flights included bombing missions against enemy installations, shipping and supply bases, and every day was a day of great stress and responsibility. He is a man of courage and resourcefulness. He is fighting our country's battles against the Japanese aggressors."

"You, Mrs. Goeller, have every reason to be proud of the achievement of your husband. He is a man of pride and gratification."

"As a controller, I wish to congratulate you and the other officials of the Town of Maranoneck upon the achievements evidenced in your report."

Mr. Mandeville said the achievements of the 213 Larchmont residents who were on the list were 100 per cent cooperation from the town.

Hirohito Asks More Time To Send Imperial Envoys To All Fronts; Tokyo Issues 'Cease Fire' Order

Americans Notify Luzon Japs Of Surrender

MANILA, (AP)—General MacArthur obviously impatient in scattered fighting continued in northern Luzon, announced today the Japanese had delayed many hours in replying to his message. Although the Japanese Domei news agency reported Emperor Hirohito had complied with intention to issue a "cease fire" order.

The Allied Supreme Commander yesterday notified MacArthur to order all troops to end hostilities and to arrange for representatives to meet in Manila today and receive surrender terms.

The Allied Supreme Commander attempted to inform all Japanese of the surrender and watched the situation grow so indefinite as to whether Japanese field forces generally would accept the imperial decision to quit.

Tokyo Radio did acknowledge receipt of a note from Secretary of State Byrnes which instructed Japan to order hostilities ceased immediately and to accept the terms of the Allied Forces command.

A little later, a second message instructed Japanese leaders to order hostilities ceased and to accept the terms of the Allied Forces command.

The resolution, offered by Councilman Edward Walton and seconded by Councilman David A. Embury, read as follows:

"Whereas, this is the first meeting of the Town Board of the Town of Maranoneck following official announcement yesterday evening by President Truman of Japan's surrender and cessation of hostilities in World War II, and whereas, about 2,000 men and women of this town have responded to the call of their country and served commendably in the Armed Forces of the United States with about 50 of them making the supreme sacrifice of giving their lives in the great cause of freedom and peace."

"Now, therefore, be it resolved, that in acknowledging this meeting we stand for a moment in silence in recognition and appreciation of these services by these men and women and in expression of our sympathy to the families of those who made the supreme sacrifice."

Resolved, that a record of this action be spread upon the minutes of this Board Meeting and be made public.

The July tax report shows tax arrears amounting to $1,719,588. Mr. Embury's Public Welfare Committee report for July shows what the councilman termed a "gratifying and characteristic drop" in the county's tax arrears, with individuals at a cost of $813,360, as compared with last year's July figure of $1,206,811, covering $2,000,000.

Other church services held last night were at St. John's Lutheran Church, Maranoneck, and St. John's Episcopal Church in Larchmont.

Independent nominations may be filed up to Saturday.

George H. Stott of Larchmont took over the command of the Westchester American Legion last night when he was installed before an audience of more than 100 members of the organization.

Jap Ruler Voices 'Embarrassment' In Delaying Plan

Emperor Hirohito gave General MacArthur a diplomatic "so sorry" today and explained the Japanese would not be able to surrender on time.

The Mikado meanwhile ordered all his beaten legions to quit fighting, arranged to have members of the Imperial family visit the fighting fronts to enforce the order, and messaged to the Allied commanders headquarters in Manila a full report of what he had done.

One other imperial action of the day was the naming of the royal Gen. Prince Naruhiko Higashi-Kuni to succeed the premier succeeding the resigned Kantaro Suzuki, putting a descendant of the emperors in charge of the government for the first time.

Hirohito's message advised the Allied Supreme Commander that he was ordering ending hostilities had been ordered as directed and added that members of the Imperial Family would enforce it personally, although in some isolated instances it might take as long as 12 days.

The message, in English, estimated that six days would be required to make the message entirely effective in China, eight days in Java, and 12 days in New Guinea and the Philippines.

The message expressed great embarrassment, but said that it was "impossible for us to arrange for the speedy completion of the message" on Aug. 15, as demanded by MacArthur, "due to security of time."

One with the necessary preparations and notify General MacArthur of the day's representative, which would be made as soon as possible," the message said.

The type of plane ordered to make the flight by MacArthur also was questioned. The Japanese explained they did not understand the designation and asked the Allied commander to repeat the entire message of instructions to them.

NOISY END BOISE, IDAHO, (AP)—The "big bang" and 500 bang-bangs when the Hip Song Tong of Boise celebrated the Jap surrender.

The Chinese organization, led by 74-year-old Louis Sing Yoo, applied the lure to 10,000 fire-crackers the members had saved since their native country went to war with the Nips in 1937.

Sulfa Self-Treatment For GI Abandoned By U. S. Army

By HOWARD M. BLAKESLEE Associated Press Science Editor NEW YORK—One of this war's most life-saving marvels, the sulfanilamide which men put in their own wounds, has been definitely abandoned for use by the men.

Abandoned by the Army also is the issuance of the eight sulfa tablets which wounded men were instructed to swallow immediately.

No more of either the powdered sulfa for wounds or tablets to swallow are issued, although the men retain supplies which they had on hand.

The change marks the conclusion of a great experiment, which was good to a certain extent, but which developed disadvantages and which was finally outweighed by the many other life-saving treatments of wounded which the War perfected.

The disadvantages of powdered sulfa in wounds were known at the start of the war, but were surmised then by the urgent needs of setting up a huge medical organization.

The sulfa powders, while they killed some of the infectious germs failed to stop the decomposition which furnished the material in which blood poisoning might ultimately develop. The powders were a foreign body in wounds that usually healing processes.

After three years study, in the combat zones, and in hospitals in the United States, it was concluded that no recently known drug could sterilize an infected war wound.

The conclusion includes penicillin too. The reason for abandoning the eight sulfa tablets was mainly that too many men save up the issues to use the tablets for gonorrhea. There is one serious risk in self-cures of this general disease: if a man does not take enough he not only fails to cure the disease but afterwards his germs are likely to have an immunity from the sulfa which makes it difficult to cure him at all.

State Chairmen To Visit County

WHITE PLAINS—State chairmen of both major political parties will visit Westchester this week.

Paul Fitzpatrick of Buffalo, chairman of the Democratic state committee, will attend the annual convention of the Westchester Democratic county committee on next Thursday evening, Aug. 16, in Grace Church Parish House, White Plains. This was announced today by Democratic County Chairman Edward J. Murray of Yonkers, who said that the state chairman will address the county convention.

Glenn R. Bedenkapp, Lockport, chairman of the Republican state committee, had already been announced as a visitor and speaker at the annual convention of the Westchester Republican county committee on the following evening, Friday, Aug. 17, in the Little Theater of the County Center.

Both conventions are being held, as required by law, for reorganization and election of officers, following the election of respective county committees at the July 31 primaries. Few changes are expected in the officers of the two county political organizations. Present officers of the Democratic committee are Mr. Murray, chairman; Mrs. Ella Brady, secretary; Robert Campbell, New Rochelle, second vice chairman; Mrs. Catherine M. Sullivan, Peekskill, third vice chairman; Joseph Korshak, Yonkers, secretary; and Leslie V. Bateman, Mount Vernon, treasurer.

Republican County Committee officers are Livingston Platt, Rye, chairman; Mrs. Marion Mack, Hawthorne, vice chairman; Walter W. Westall, White Plains, secretary; and Evanso Ward, Port Chester, treasurer. Mr. Westall recently succeeded J. Harvey Turman, White Plains, as secretary, when Mr. Turman resigned in protest at the failure of the GOP executive committee to support the White Plains judicial nomination.

Waitress Wed 3 Servicemen

NEW YORK (AP)—The FBI announced today that Mrs. Margaret Mary Whalen Buckley, of 325 Walnut Street, Yonkers, a waitress and mother of two children, had been arrested charged with fraudulently receiving servicemen's dependency allowance checks from the government.

Mrs. Buckley, 32, was charged in charges of the New York FBI office, said Mrs. Buckley, since she had married two soldiers and a merchant seaman without obtaining a divorce from Charles H. Buckley, whose name she used in 1936, and who is with the Navy in the Pacific.

Conroy quoted Mrs. Buckley as saying she married Edward A. Conroy, army private, in July 1942; Albert R. Ferraro, a merchant seaman, in July 1944; and Clifford F. Kaiser, army private, a week later.

New York Blood Bank Is Closing

NEW YORK (AP)—The blood donor center of the New York chapter of the American Red Cross, closed its doors today—its task completed with the end of the war. Col. Earle Booth, director of the center, said that "during its existence 410,534 volunteer donors contributed—either at the Center or through four mobile units that visited outlying sections of the metropolitan area—a total of 1,278,265 pints of blood."

You Really Don't Need Sugar To Can Your Peaches, Pears

By SUZ SCATTERGOOD (Reprinted from The Birmingham, Ala., News) There is a great hue and cry these days for recipes for canning fruits without sugar and using the present sugar shortage. Special recipes for that purpose are not necessary. Fruits may be canned without sugar as well as with sugar so far as keeping qualities are concerned. In most cases fruit juices or these plus hot water are used to cover fruit in the jars in this the sugar syrup which we used under pre-war conditions. However, this does not mean to say that flavor, color, and texture will be the same in fruits canned without sugar and it is well to remember that just a little sugar added will make a difference.

In canning fruits without sugar, the idea is to have something in that line of food set aside for winter for come what may. They do not taste as well—neither do they have pre-war richness and tenderness due to the short-cut handling processes necessitated by the war-time era. No do those dehydrated vegetables upon which many of the fighting forces exist—taste so fine as fresh garden vegetables—all such things are necessary evils in the food line until peace returns.

It follows, then, that that pack of all fruits is recommended for canning with little or no sugar. Processing fruit in jars is recommended for all fruits in preference to open kettle canning for its method offers an appreciable saving in food value, color and flavor. Corn syrup may be used where it is in part for canning fruits. Better results will result from using half corn syrup and half hot water. Even smaller proportion of corn syrup and sugar will make some saving in sugar allotment and a better canned product.

top with Juices adding boiling water as necessary. Adjust tops and process in hot water bath 20 minutes.

PEARS The hard preserving pears may need about 10 minutes parboiling adding water to almost cover. Add sugar to taste and more boiling water if necessary to cover fruit in jars. Or, simmer in water with one cup sugar and cover fruit with the juices and boiling water as necessary. Process in hot water bath 25 minutes.

FRESH PINEAPPLE Remove skins. Slice off top and bottom of pineapple. Cut in slices as desired. Remove skin, eyes, and cores. Boil the skin and cores for juices to add to fruit. You can with sugar which gives best results with pineapple; make a syrup of desired thickness (using juice obtained from peeling in place of water as far as possible) and simmer fruit until slightly tender. Pack in sterile jars and process in hot water bath 20 minutes.

TOMATOES Scald for two minutes or until skins will cup off easily. Rub in cold water. Remove skins and cores. Pack in sterile jars preserving fruit down as firmly as possible without breaking. Enough juices will be released to cover the fruit. Do not add water. Adjust tops and process in hot water bath 30 minutes. If tomatoes are heated in open kettle first they may be processed only 10 minutes.

CANNING STRIPS FOR FRUIT Heavy syrup: one cup water to one cup sugar, corn syrup or honey. Replace water with fruit juice, if possible. Medium syrup: Two cups water to one cup sugar, corn syrup or honey. Light syrup: Three cups water to one cup sugar, corn syrup or honey.

APPLE SAUCE Add a little water to prevent scorching to sliced apples and cook until tender enough to mash. Press through colander or fruit press or taste or just a little to develop flavor or more for taste. Pack in sterile jars, adjust tops and process 15 minutes in hot water bath.

HEIRIES Heat slowly, adding a little water to avoid burning. Can without sugar adding hot water if necessary to berry juices to cover fruit in jars. Adjust tops, process in hot water bath 20 minutes. This receipt includes all berries except raspberries. No water should be needed as juices flow freely upon heating. One to two tablespoons sugar to the quart will sweeten amply.

Figs may be canned without sugar as mentioned for other fruits but better flavor and texture will be obtained by using the thin syrup covered in this article. This may be made of all sugar or part sugar and part corn syrup. Soak figs overnight in a hot soda bath using about two tablespoons sugar to the quart. Rinse and pack in jars. Cover with straight hot water, slightly sweetened hot water or thin syrup. Process 30 minutes in hot water bath.
