Book Drive Goes

The Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls are joining in the Village of Mamaroneck's campaign to send "Books for Peace" to a German city in the American Zone, with representatives of the three organizations meeting tomorrow at 8:15 P. M. in the Mamaroneck Free Library to make plans for the book project.

The Woman's Club, in cooperation with the library staff and local civic, service, religious and social organizations, is in charge of "Books for Peace." An exhibit of books among the 1,200 on the approved list will be on display at the library.

Invitations have been accepted by the following additional organizations, whose representatives will attend the meeting: Catholic Daughters of the Americas, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Ladies Auxiliary, St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Bookers of Columbus, Holy Name Society, N. A. A. P., American Legion Women's Auxiliary, and Holy Trinity Society.

Folk Song Series

Ira Garfunkel of 413 Carroll Avenue, Mamaroneck, a student of folk music, will give a program of English ballads and folk songs Friday evening, Dec. 19, at the Mamaroneck Free Library in the first of a series of three programs sponsored by the Library Association.

A second program later in the winter will feature the folk music of America, including the music of the Negroes, Scotch-Irish, Germans, and Indians. The third program will present the folk songs of other countries, including African ritual music, Spanish gypsy ballads and other traditional songs and South American traditional songs.

Mr. Garfunkel will present the following recorded ballads from his collection: Barbara Allen, Black is the Color, Goodbye, Death of Queen Jane, Dublin City, Golden Vanity, Henry Martin, Marie Groves, Tom Pierce, Turtle Dove, Twelve Days of Christmas, and Two Sisters.

A graduate of Bellows High School, Mr. Garfunkel is studying mechanical engineering at New York University.

Now On Carrier

Seaman E. Alfred Dahlgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Dahlgren of 325 Mamaroneck Avenue, spent Thanksgiving at Camp Abard, the U. S. S. Badger aboard an aircraft carrier in San Diego, Calif., and was recently assigned to the USS Albatross, returning from Operation Christmas Island, Calif., after returning from Operation Christmas Island, where he will leave San Diego on Dec. 6 to spend four months on Guam.

Seaman Dahlgren enlisted in the Navy on Nov. 4, 1942, at the age of 17. He has one more year to serve.

Editor To Speak

Alexander Gardner, editor of American Legion Magazine, will be the guest speaker at a Corporate Communion Breakfast for men and boys of the Thomas Episcopal Church, Mamaroneck, next Sunday at 9 A. M.

This will be the first such communion breakfast at the church, the Rev. Arnold J. Schaefer, rector, reports. He plans to hold a similar event each year at this time. All men and boys of the church are urged to attend.

Complete Course

Detectives Thomas J. Boyle of the Larchmont police, Joseph P. Positano of the Town of Westchester, and Patrolman William P. Positano of the Mamaroneck police completed a four-day course in photography Friday.

Incognito?

Very few, if any residents of Larchmont noticed his name, but George Sanders, the suave Hollywood actor, was a visitor there yesterday.

Mr. Sanders spent the day with his cousin, Allan S. Sanders, and Allan's wife, who are staying at the Ivesan Hotel, Larchmont, following their recent arrival from England.

Fire Fighters Install

Edward Schackelinsky of 329 Stanley Avenue, Mamaroneck, recently elected a director of the Westchester County Firemen's Association, will be installed along with the other directors and officers at a ceremony to be held Saturday, Dec. 13, in the Ceresito-Tuscan American Center, Inc., hall, Yonkers.

Action Starts Immediately

For generations and generations smart people have found it profitable to dispose of their unwanted items through the "For Sale" columns of newspapers.

You, too, can profit from the use of our columns. You see practically anything can be sold through our want ads columns for cash. Telephone Mamaroneck 8-1100 the first thing tomorrow morning to place your ad. In all want ads, dress, dress, electric stoves, etcetera. Action starts immediately.

BERGER OF BRITISH, AMERICAN, FREELY ZONES HELD

Bidault to Press For German Plan In London

BULLETIN LONDON, (AP) — Russia turned down today a French counterproposal for a meeting with the French, the French Zone may be merged with the British and American zones to establish a unified Western Germany.

Bidault, who is going to Paris today for conferences with French Government leaders, said at this position in a meeting with French reporters shortly before the Foreign Ministers Council opened the second week of its sessions at Lancaster House.

David S. Sayers, authorized reporter that Russia had turned down today a French proposal for setting the issue of German assets in Austria, which is the chief barrier to completion of an agreement on the subject.

The French plan has been under consideration by a committee of the Big Four since they are due to report to the Big Four tomorrow, and the committee may not necessarily be final.

The Russians contended they are entitled to all assets in Eastern Austria formerly owned by the Austrians.

The French proposed that by way of settlement they accept payments of $100,000,000 plus shipping Company and a share in the Zisterdorf oilfield production.

Today's deputies meeting, said efforts by the United States and the United Kingdom to give a value on their total claims.

Secretary of State Marshall and his aides prepared quickly to meet the German and the eventual creation of a central German government.

Forum Shows UN Pace Cause Of Impatience

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

With the slow progress toward a system for the enforcement of world peace appears to be the main theme of the World Federalists to the United Nations discussion yesterday on the Westchester papers Radio Forum over "What is the World Federalist?"

The negative speakers were Adda Brunner, Bozeman, teacher at Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, and Dr. Samuel Coy Inman, The UN should be strengthened, Mr. Green argued, through an amendment to the charter, to bring about immediate disarmament of all nations. This is not possible, he said, until we are able to make the move entirely possible, he said, in view of the fact that the world federalists do not now ask for nations to give up their own national systems of education, economics and government, and an enforcement agency to curb all acts of aggression, as a first step.

Miss Bozeman, who is an attorney specializing in international law, said she was not sure of the difference between the world federalists and the UN, which is present stand in the way of a world government. Any progress in the world is not made through the United Nations, she argued, but through a system that recognizes the fact that all nations have individual characteristics which cannot be changed by the simple writing of a world charter.

She also cited the way in which one nation can block all the others in the United Nations through use of the veto, argued that a World Government would be for the benefit of all nations because a veto would not be allowed and decisions would be based on majority vote. ## Stassen's Forthright Manner Appealed To Southern Youth, His Tour Manager Reports

"Harold Stassen's chances of receiving the Republican nomination for president are considerably brighter" according to Warren Holly of Larchmont, who returned home last week after accompanying the Republican presidential candidate on his tour through the Southern states.

Mr. Holly went along as assistant trip manager at the request of the trip manager, Amos J. Peaslee, his uncle, Clarkburg, N. C., a well-known laborer.

"The trip was quite a success," he continued. "It is estimated that Mr. Stassen picked up 34 out of the 117 delegates in the states that he visited."

He said he had observed that the younger people supported Mr. Stassen than members of the "Old Guard," finding him "very honest and forthright in his manner in which he faces right up to the issues of the day."

Mr. Holly added, "I have a remarkable knack for answering direct questions, and I have been flying in a chartered DC-3, the Stassen party left Washington, D. C., on Nov. 11. The itinerary included such places as New York, Detroit, St. Paul, Lincoln, New Denver, Amarillo, Tex., Little Rock, New Orleans, St. Petersburg, Jacksonville, Orlando, Chicago, winding up at Stassen's native city, Milwaukee, with a huge crowd.

Although the flying weather wasn't too good, he said, the trip ran very smoothly. He also pointed out that the men behind Stassen are all very capable and successful businessmen in their own right. "Wherever we stopped along the way, we were given a very cordial reception," he added.

Mr. Holly is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Holly of 40 West Road, Larchmont. To make the trip he took a leave of absence from his position with the General Reinsurance Corporation in New York City, which he has been associated for six years. He also took four years' time out to serve in the Army during World War I. Mr. Holly is scoutmaster of Larchmont Troop 3 sponsored by the Men's Association of the Larchmont Avenue Church.

Post Offices Hiring 30 Men Each For Rush

Postmaster Isidore Linehan of Larchmont announced today that he expects to hire about 30 extra part-time workers to help handle the annual Christmas mail rush.

Postmaster Linehan said that he hopes to complete the hiring by the 15th of the month.

In Larchmont, Postmaster Frank Eger stated that he also expects to add about 30 extra part-time workers, starting on the 15th.

In spite of the anticipated heavy loads, the Post Office Department in Washington has announced several reductions in rates to pay for extra help.

The allocations for the Mamaroneck Post Office was cut from $3,022 last year to $1,775. No figures were given for the Larchmont office, but Postmaster Eger said that he had been informed that the allocations would be reduced.

Both Postmasters urged residents to buy their stamps now and avoid the last-minute rush of waiting and confusion.

Vandals Break Street Lights And Windows

Several acts of vandalism were reported in Larchmont over the weekend, with police rounding up six youths whose ages are from 10 to 15.

Four of the boys were apprehended at 12:30 P. M. Saturday by police as they were breaking street lights along Shore Drive. They were reprimanded and turned over to their parents for disciplinary action.

Police picked up two more boys at 4:40 P. M. Saturday who were responsible for breaking six small panes of glass in the garage of the Lee Court Apartments and an apartment window. They also were reprimanded and turned over to the parents for disciplinary action.

Police are still investigating the complaint of Mrs. Leslie Stewart of 18 Elm Avenue, Larchmont, who reported at 1:15 P. M. yesterday that some windows had been broken, and a complaint from George W. Dolan, owner of 22 Larchmont Avenue, that some boys had broken into his house.

Sheldrake YC To Hear Talk On Cruising

Dr. F. A. Morrison of Harrison, a well-known yachtsman, will speak at a meeting of the Sheldrake Yacht Club at 9:30 P. M. Thursday in the clubhouse. He will also show technical motion pictures.

The speaker, who started cruising in 1936, is skipper of his own yacht, "The Billy Breeze," a 42-foot auxiliary sailboat from Maine to Florida.

He is a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Navy during the war and is now a commander in the Coast Guard Auxiliary, a member of the Sheldrake Yacht Club and a member of the Corinthians. He was formerly a member of the Orienta Yacht Club.

Last Summer, Dr. Morrison led the Sheldrake Yacht Club's burgee on a cruise to Maine.

Gas Reported Stolen From Two Automobiles

Isidore Lichter, owner of the apartment house at 350 Prospect Avenue, Mamaroneck, complained to Mamaroneck police last week that gasoline had been stolen from two automobiles owned by tenants.

George Evans and James Minirey, the tenants, told police that someone had been draining gas from their cars during the two weeks between the hours of 10 P. M. and 7 A. M. Evans said about 10 gallons of gasoline had been removed from his car, while Minirey estimated that he had lost 14 gallons.

Warrant Arrested, Told To Get Out Of Town

A New York City vagrant was given a 10-day suspension sentence yesterday by Judge John R. Casper, with the provision that he keep out of Larchmont.

Joseph A. Boulin, who gave his address as the Palace Hotel, 37th Avenue, New York City, was arrested yesterday morning by Larchmont police at the intersection of West and Post Roads. Although he did not show any visible means of support, he claimed he had $200 in cash on his person. Taken to headquarters, he was arraigned on the charge of vagrancy and pleaded guilty.

Brush Fire Quelled

The Larchmont Fire Department responded to a still alarm at 12:28 P. M. yesterday when a rubbish fire broke out at Rockwood Drive and Woodside Way. Firemen used 80 gallons of water to put out the blaze. Several fires have occurred at the same location recently, so it was decided to burn down the rubbish pile to prevent more fires. Recall was at 1:45 P. M.

Prices Will Lighten Santa's Pack This Year, U. S. Predicts

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Christmas shoppers can expect to find records on the rise in prices, but the Government believes Santa Claus' generosity will be tempered by his prices.

Some officials predict his pack will be as full as it was last Christmas.

At the Commerce Department, which keeps tabs on all retail sales, experts think November and December buying will match the gains shown in October when merchants took in a record-breaking $10,722,000,000, or 13 per cent more than in October.

Gamble Hits Loose Thinking In State Department As He Protests Iron Shipments

WASHINGTON—Assailing the "loose thinking and blunders" of the State Department in its interim aid program, Rep. Ralph A. Gamble, R.-N. Y., chairman of the Joint Committee on Housing, today renewed his protests against proposed shipments of pig iron to Italy.

In letters to Secretary of State George C. Marshall and William McChesney Martin, president of the Export-Import Bank of Washington, Chairman Gamble asserted that recent and projected aid programs would deprive the United States of the soil pipe needed to complete 300,000 homes.

As a result, he said, veterans and others who are being called upon to help finance the reconstruction of Europe find themselves in the ironic position of being homeless while critically needed building materials produced under government subsidies are being shipped abroad.

In his letter to Mr. Martin, Rep. Gamble said:

"The Joint Committee on Housing was created to investigate the housing situation in this country and report its findings to Congress. We soon learned that the major bottleneck in the production of homes is the shortage of cast iron soil pipe and that incentives even in the form of government premium payments averaging $864 a ton were insufficient to step up production to anything nearly approximating the demand.

"The primary cause of course, is the blast furnace situation. Existing furnaces have a fixed output which cannot be further increased. Therefore, their use to provide materials for shipment abroad deprives the domestic market of an equal amount of the raw material for cast iron soil pipe.

"During the first six months of 1947 we exported 200,000 tons of pig iron to Italy alone. That quantity, along with an equal amount of scrap, is sufficient to provide enough soil pipe for 125,000 American homes.

"I noted that under the interim aid program the State Department requests the shipment of another 20,000 tons of pig iron to Italy in the four-month period."

Embury Backs Racial Curbs In Fraternities

A move to form enough fraternities to meet the needs of college students of every race and color has developed as a result of an address by David A. Embury, chairman of the National Interscholastic Fraternity Conference which closed its two-day convention at the Hotel Commodore.

Embury's stand that fraternities have the democratic right to place racial and religious restrictions on their membership, has been organized and ready to go.

Board members present were George Birchell, vice president; Alfred M. Greger, treasurer; Mrs. Claude L. Seixas, secretary; Mrs. J. M. Kempfer, and R. Paul Kirk.

The next meeting of the board will be held Jan. 10.

Cets His Wings

W. D. Van Buskirk of 17 Maple Hill Drive, Larchmont, was recently awarded a private pilot's license to operate a single-engine airplane, running one of his life's ambitions.

Although he has always wanted to fly, he became seriously interested a little over a year ago when he began taking lessons.

Last February he purchased the Hudson Valley Flyers, Inc., a small seaplane club based on the Hudson River in Yonkers. He is now president of the club.

Mr. Van Buskirk learned to fly under the instruction of Joseph A. Chino, an instructor for the Hudson Valley Flyers. He was given his flight examination by CAA Examiner John Viola of Yonkers.

The new pilot is associated with a banking house in New York City and is a native of Chicago. He is a graduate of Middle College, Mich., and resided in Cleveland prior to moving to Larchmont 10 years ago.

Teachers' Workshop

A group of 38 local teachers are attending the three-day teachers' workshop which opened today in the Garden Room of the Larchmont High School, presented by Binney and Smith, New York City art products firm.

The first workshop of its kind in Westchester County, the project features arts and crafts training to meet educational needs. Hours today, tomorrow and Friday from 2:30 to 5:30 P. M. and from 7 to 9 P. M. In addition to the 38 teachers from the Larchmont-Larchmont school system, the workshop is being attended by 100 teachers from the Pine Brook, the District Property Owners Association and at several universities and at schools in Syracuse and Utica in New York State.

Good Deed Backfires

While in the act of doing a good deed, Edward Wiloughby of the Chatsworth Gardens Apartments Larchmont, last night severely cut his right thumb, town police reported.

Mr. Wiloughby noticed a piece of glass in front of the Plaza Pharmacy on North Chatsworth Avenue. He picked it up to prevent anyone from being injured by it and in tossing it into a wastebasket, he cut his thumb on his thumb. First aid was administered and he was taken to New Rochelle Hospital, where the wound was treated.

Pence Book Guests

Guests at tonight's organization meeting of the "Books for Peace" project at the Mamaroneck Free Library, will include Mrs. J. D. Phillips of White Plains, chairman of the International Relations Department of the Westchester Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. M. Thorsdote of New Rochelle, Federation president.

Mrs. Phillips, organizer of the plan to send representative books to German children in the American Zone, to further understanding of America, will outline the plan's inception, and Mrs. Lee will speak briefly.

Branching Out

Jean Roberts, editor-in-chief of The Record, Mamaroneck Senior High School newspaper, was made-up editor of the current issue of The Principals' Bulletin, distributed to members of the New York State Association of Secondary School Principals, who will meet in Syracuse Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Principal John C. Mealin of the Senior High School, chairman of the association, is editor of The Bulletin.

Tribute To Poet

A tribute to Larchmont's late soldier-poet, Joyce Kilmer, whose birthday anniversary falls this night on Fred Waring's radio show from 10:30 to 11 P. M., when the orchestra and chorus presented a special arrangement of "Trees," Kilmer's famous poem.

An American Legion Post No. 65, will hold its annual memorial service for the poet on Monday.

Board Told To Alleviate Drain Peril

Larchmont's Trustees Promise Action After County Warning

HEALTH MENACE, SEEN

Prompt action was promised last night by the Larchmont Board of Trustees to alleviate the drainage conditions of sewage and storm water in the Pine Brook Drive and Kilmer Road area and along Palmer Avenue to Harrison Drive.

The worsening conditions have attracted the attention of the County Health Department, a representative last night told the board that unless immediate steps are taken to alleviate potential health menace his department would have no other course than to report the condition to the State Health Department which in turn would force the village to install a sewage system.

"We are very much concerned," Mayor E. Spencer Grason said after hearing the representatives of the Board of Health. "We will take prompt action."

Trustees Arthur Richards was asked to prepare a preliminary estimate as to the probable cost of correcting the condition.

The condition existing at the Brook Drive and Kilmer Road areas has been before the Board several times in the last seven years but corrective measures had been postponed because of the war.

A letter of the Kilmer Road Dam of 23 Pine Brook Drive, Larchmont, to the District Property Owners Association, which was prepared statement to the board.

He said, in part: "On November 10, 1946, the Kilmer Road Dam of 23 Pine Brook Drive, Larchmont, to the District Property Owners Association, which was prepared statement to the board."

County Budget Report Skips Top Pay Rises

WHITE PLAINS—The Budget Committee of Westchester's Supervisors filed its report yesterday on suggested revisions to the 1948 county budget. It previously recommended by County Executive Herbert C. Gerlach, chairman of the committee.

The report was presented to the public hearing next Monday afternoon, under the County Charter, the only changes which may be made are revisions downward.

The absence of Budget Committee action theoretically denies the board the right to increase the salary of Vincent Ehrbar, as proposed by the County Charter, and also to Finance Commissioner.

Mr. Ehrbar's salary, $8,300 to $12,000, was proposed by the County Charter, and Mr. Ehrbar, County Executive, is the only one to whom the board was asked to raise the salary.

Mr. Ehrbar also mentioned that should it be an offer for the out-of-towners could not leaving a flock of unsplit trees on the lot for the village to remove. It was pointed out by Mr. McWilliam, however, that the tenant of the property owner could be held responsible for any refuse left on the property.

Harold Widmark, Jr., of New Rochelle told the board that he was a wholesale distributor of trees supplying the independent Christmas tree sellers and said he felt the association was only trying to benefit itself in preventing outsiders from selling trees.

"They are trying to make it difficult for a fellow with $50 to make $75," he said.

Mr. Widmark told the board his firm supplied about 80 percent of the trees that come into Larchmont and had hopes to show how the association would benefit if it was successful in keeping others out, by setting their own prices. "The only way to open the market to competition."

He said he had had 12 to 15 transient dealers in the area but it is believed that only four or five are permanent. The board told the matter into consideration.

Mr. Merrell also appealed to the board to consider the commission, composed of two board members, two association members and two contractors, to study the parking problem in the business district.

Mr. Merrell also pointed out that one of the reasons for dirty streets is all-night parking which prevents street sweepers from properly cleaning the streets. The board took the matter into consideration.

LEWIS P. WELLS, (center), president of the New Rochelle Hospital Board of Governors, and chairman of the building fund campaign, points to the $622,422 now collected date in the $2,000,000 campaign.

There were 50 key leaders in the New Rochelle Hospital $2,000,000 building fund campaign in attendance last night at a dinner at the Ritz-Carlton, marking the beginning of the concluding phase of the second year drive.

To date $622,422 towards the $2,000,000 for the proposed west wing had been collected or pledged. The second phase of the campaign will end next Spring.

Lewis P. Wells, president of the Board of Governors and chairman of the campaign, presided. He said that at the final meeting in June a total of $660,000 had been collected, including approximately $100,000 which was anticipated would be left over from the East Wing campaign of 1945-46.

Report Ready

An exhaustive report on the city of government, including a study of the Moore Plan by which cities receive tax funds from the state, will be presented at a meeting of the city government committee of the Mamaroneck Realty Board Monday at 9 P. M. in the directors' room of the Union Savings Bank.

The report is the result of several weeks' research by former Mayor Henry T. Hornidge, with the collaboration of Lawrence S. Greenbaum. Considerable correspondence was carried on with the State Controller's Office and State Attorney General's Office in Albany. The report will be submitted to residents of the Village following the meeting.

Budget Approved By Town Despite Pay Rise Protest

The Town Council last night formally adopted the 1948 town budget at a public hearing over the opposition expressed by the budget committee of the Larchmont Gardens Association, whose suggestions for reducing the tax levy were termed by Supervisor Bennett of 506 Shore Acres Drive, "as ridiculous."

The adopted budget, for which the association has "holding sets" the rate in the unincorporated area at $14.42 per $1,000, a decrease of 84 cents over the preceding year. The gross budget remains at $709,640.37, with estimated expenses of $24,718.68 leaving a net tax levy of $454,921.70 which is to be charged only to the amount of the increase. The elimination of the general town tax represents a savings of $1.16 per $1,000 assessed valuation for taxpayers of the Villages of Mamaroneck and Larchmont.

Charging that the Town Council has not exhausted every effort to reduce the tax levy, the budget committee of the Larchmont Gardens Association proposed, among other things, that the town default in its payment of bonds thereby making the unincorporated area a "city service" general town charge and using the town's surplus to pay the bonds.

Supervisor Mandeville, apparently irked with the suggestion to allow a default on the town debt service, he said, was not surprised to hear such proposals, adding that they were "unreasonable."

The spending of general town funds to pay the tax levy, as prescribed by law and can't be spent in any other way.

The Government was striving to reopen strike mines. Rail traffic leaving Paris reached 80 per cent of normal and some commerce was coming through the Atlantic ports.

Conditions along the Mediterranean Coast were so bad that trains from Paris were proceeding only as far as Lyons.

Premier Robert J. Schuman's Cabinet continued raising salaries of public employees and the Council of Ministers seemed ready to approve raising minimum pay throughout France from 10 to 15 per cent in the strikes led by the Communist-dominated general committee, read a four-page statement to the Council.

The cost of debt service has increased in the cost of salaries and wages, as reflected in the proposed budget for the year 1948 and the failure to apply all of the savings to the debt service.

The tax bills from the Town of Larchmont for 1947 amounted to $43,035, aggregated as follows: Town tax, $13,763; school tax, $16,842; total per household, $30,605.

Arabs Raid Jewish City Of Tel Aviv

Double Attack Plunges Palestine Into Fourth Day Of Fighting

HUNDREDS WOUNDED

JERUSALEM (AP)—A double Arab attack on the Jewish city of Tel Aviv broke the Moslem Sabbath calm shortly after noon today and plunged Palestine into a fourth day of fighting in which 44 persons, 21 of them Jews, have been killed.

Hundreds were among the wounded. Damage mounted into the millions.

Arab mobs struck at the Hatikvah and Zabalot quarters of Tel Aviv, week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Farrell of Pelham, while his mother happily notes that, "The situation in New Rochelle Hospital following an exchange transfusion, the first such operation to be performed at the hospital to correct a blood condition with which he was born. The baby was affected by an incompatible combination of the Rh factors in his parent blood and would have died within a matter of hours had it not been for the exchange transfusion." Staff Photo.

Five minutes later, snobs started pouring into the Zabalot quarters of Jewish ex-servicemen.

A bomb tossed by Jews into his garage at Haifa during the morning.

While the fighting raged in the Jaffa-Tel Aviv border area, Jerusalem appeared for the most part quiet.

Reports from Natanya, on the coastal plain where Jewish settlements were being built, said Arabs were Jewish to work after a three-day strike and were not demonstrating.

British troops still were at their posts throughout Palestine.

Girona Wins New Delay In Gambling Case

The trial of Henry "Fox" and A. H. Girona on charges of participating in a big-state crap game, begun in the Supreme Court, was again postponed this morning at 9:30 A. M. Thursday.

Judge Hunter Weighan, presiding in the place of Judge Patrick J. Hughes, signed the adjournment to allow Girona five days to summon witnesses, which he claims number 28.

This morning's hearing in Manhattan and County Judge of the Chamber, announced this morning.

Mr. Ward has been identified with aviation for over 26 years, and licensed by the C.A.A. for 20 years. He has been flying since 1921, and was a member of the World War II was chief of flight of the Navy's Instrument Flight Instructor School. When he went into the Pacific Theater he was in charge of the Marine Air Group 10 on Okinawa. He is now on most of the islands in the Pacific "right on into Tokyo and Southern Korea." He was at Guadalcanal at the time of the surrender of that city.

He came out of the service with rank of major. He is now in addition to the speaker, there will be a short business meeting. Ward, superintendent of operations at the Mount Vernon branch, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The other speakers will be Lester M. Johnson of Mount Vernon, recording secretary of Century Lodge No. 1504, International Association of Machinists, and Leon Mason of New York City, director of training with the Army Exchange Services at the New York headquarters.

Truck Hits Pole, Snaps It At Base

Blinded by the glare of headlights of an oncoming vehicle, a truck driver crashed his truck into a telephone pole in front of the Larchmont Gables Apartments on Boston Post Road last night, snapping it off four feet from the base.

Bruce E. Sawyer, of Elizabeth City, N. C., driver of the tractor trailer truck, told town police he was heading west on the Post Road at 12:35 A. M. and was blinded by the light of an oncoming passenger was Charles Cartwright of South Mills, N. C. Sawyer complained of an injury in his right hand and was taken to New Rochelle Hospital, where he was treated for wrenched muscles and released.

Raging Brush Fire Lights Up Sky

For nearly an hour last night thousands of Mamaroneck firemen battled the brush fire at Godey Pond on Windfall Avenue near the Town water works.

The glow of the raging fire lit up the sky and many Mamaroneck residents called police headquarters to report it. Mamaroneck firemen were alerted to the fire at 11:30 p. m. and were on the scene at 11:45 p. m. The amount of damage was not reported.

Larchmont Legion Post 347 Launches Two-Week Drive For Gifts For Disabled Vets

The annual drive by Larchmont Post 347 of the American Legion to collect Christmas gifts for disabled veterans was announced today by Dr. Joseph M. Roth of the gifts committee.

The campaign will begin Saturday and continue through Saturday, Dec. 20.

The Christmas season, with its joy and good cheer, can be a dismal time of year for those veterans still lying in hospital beds, who are forgotten. Commander William Blumgold said in urging the men to help by donating gifts.

A network of collection depots will be set up throughout the business section of Larchmont and members of the Post will gather these gifts to be deposited in the American Legion Clubhouse until the first of the year.

The following articles are suggested as gifts: cigarettes, playing cards, tooth paste, brushes, combs, hairbrushes, shaving cream, electric razors, books, small cameras, flashlights, games, sewing kits, socks, mufflers, lounge slippers, pipes, cigars, toilet kits, lighters.

It is requested that no sharp instruments be given.

It is suggested that gifts be wrapped as Christmas presents and it is important to place a label or tag on the outside of the gift, listing its contents, since they will be used by boys.

For those who prefer to give money, a special gift account has been set up at the branch of the Town Trust Company at Palmer and Chatham Streets.

The gifts committee appealed to "all residents of Larchmont to make this a merrier Christmas for those who need Christmas cheer."

Serving on the committee with Dr. Roth are Dr. Samuel Crain, Dr. Robert C. Thomas, Dr. Irvin W. Luroc, and Charles Schmidt.

Two Residents Seek Utility Aid From Town

Despite the fact that their budget committee had taken the Town Council to task for not presenting a more closely estimated budget at Wednesday night's public hearing, two members of the Larchmont Council for Town Aid in paying the cost of connecting a sewer line and installing a new water main.

Mr. Smith asked that the Town replace the present 4 inch water main in Barnum Road. He stated that he was at the end of the street and when several of the residents were driving water at the same time the pressure dropped considerably.

He said it was quite aggravating to be taking a shower and "just as you get all lathered up there is little water to wash the soap off."

Mr. Smith said he had requested action on this matter last year but it was deferred as no pipe was available at that time. He thought the Town might be able to do something about it now.

Mr. Mandeville replied he believed it was a necessary improvement and that the pipe was now available. The Town, he said, would look into it and take steps to correct the hardship.

George Quinby of 30 Lansdowne Drive, Larchmont, asked that the Town reimburse him for the expense of connecting his house to the sewer line.

He explained he has resided there for the last 21 years and has been connected to the sewer line since he moved there.

It recently was revealed he said, in filling up the cess pool (Continued on Page Twelve)

Injuries Fatal To Lee Williams In Post Road Crash

A Larchmont resident died last night at 10:15 in United Hospital, Port Charles, after being struck by a car on West Post Road near Ribbell Road.

Lee Williams, 68, a resident of the F. C. House, Larchmont, was crossing the street when he was hit at 9:15 P. M. by an automobile driven by Arthur A. Little, 51, of 29 Fairview Place, New Rochelle.

It was the first traffic fatality in New Rochelle since May 23, 1946, when a Massachusetts truck driver was killed after his truck smashed into a parked trailer on Boston Post Road near the F. C. House.

Williams was very dark at the scene of the accident. His date has been set by the coroner for the 10th day of the month.

Little, who is a used car salesman and buyer, was driving a 1939 Ford when the crash occurred. He was wearing his seat belt.

Police arrested by police on a technical charge of automobile homicide and released by the Police Department. County clerk in the custody of police. No date has been set by the coroner for the 10th day of the month.

Little, who is a used car salesman and buyer, was driving a 1939 Ford when the crash occurred. He was wearing his seat belt.

Police reported Mr. Williams was struck by the left front end of Little's car and that the impact broke the lens of the left headlight.

Police also said the skid marks of the car measured 17 feet 10 inches and the car was lying 17 feet, three inches from the curb.

Suffering from a possible head fracture and both legs broken, Mr. Williams was removed in the ambulance to United Hospital, where he died.

Mr. Williams had lived in Larchmont for two and a half years, residing with his son, Robert C. Williams.

He was born March 13, 1879, in New Rochelle and spent most of his life in Iowa in the dairy and ice cream manufacturing business.

His wife, the former Elizabeth Schmeling, died in 1934. He had been married 34 years.

In addition to his son, he had two sisters, Mrs. Annie Tagger and Mrs. Edward Standford.

Funeral services will be held at 3 P. M. today at the Fox Family Funeral Home, 91 Post Road, Larchmont.

Carroll Park Group Formed By Residents

Formation of an association in Larchmont to be known as the Carroll Park Association was announced today by Dominick R. Stuenkel, of 337 Wagon Avenue.

Purposes of the Association, whose members are residents of Carroll, Frank and Wagner Avenues between Boston Post Road and Halstead Avenue, are (1) "to maintain the present residential character of the locality (2) to enable its residents to maintain and improve the restrictions as to the use of property and the type of buildings erected thereon and to prevent the violation of the restrictions and (3) to sponsor and support any activity beneficial to the community."

The association has been incorporated under the laws of the State of New York as a membership corporation.

A meeting will be held next month, to which all residents of the area will be invited, to formulate a plan of action.

Chilren Rail Strike Blamed On Communists

Rail service was tied up yesterday by a 24-hour strike of 30,000 trainmen which the Government blamed on "Communist inspired."

A few trains operated under troop guard after the Government placed the lines under Army control. The trainmen struck for payment of a retrograde pay equivalent to two months salary.

Mr. Kholoff was authorized to attend the National Association of Letter Carriers Conference in Washington, Jan. 12, 13 and 14.

NEW FOOD CABINET

The United States Food Committee took over the Administration food survey and planning with a plan for an all-out national food survey to curb waste and reduce the use of grain for such things as whiskey and beer.

Forum Leaders See Improved Labor Outlook

Closer cooperation between management and labor was foreseen by three leaders in the fields of labor, personnel management, and business last night, speaking at a forum sponsored by the Mamaroneck Branch, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, on "Labor Looks Ahead" at the Mamaroneck Avenue School auditorium.

Speakers were Fred Rosenbergh of Mount Vernon, associate editor of "Color Line"; Leander M. Johnson, also of Mount Vernon, recording secretary of Century Lodge No. 1564, International Association of Machinists, and Leon Mann of New York City, director of training with the Army Exchange Services. Paul B. Hoerber of 317 Beach Avenue, Mamaroneck, also spoke, as did the head of the mental health department of Harper and Brothers, acting as moderator.

Prior to the discussion, a 10-minute film, "Labor Looks Ahead," made under the auspices of the Canadian government, was shown. The film portrayed harmonious labor and management relations in Canada.

Following the showing, Mr. Hoerber called upon the speakers to comment upon the film.

Mr. Johnson, in a gathering that the film had brought to his mind, said that organized labor is not so hostile but although he is a union man, he added, they "should outdo the closed shop."

He said that organized labor is a good thing and among the things it has done is to bring its fight against discrimination.

Mr. Johnson, who is also chairman of the committee of the Vernon N. A. A. C. P. branch, said that the film showing "Canadian labor and management sitting down to settle their differences" is a good example of what U. S. labor should do.

He tended to favor the influx of foreign labor to help bring the cost of labor down, although he is not sure it would solve any problem.

Mr. Mason said that the "under-lying theme of the film is that of labor and management getting together."

He pointed out that he himself was well acquainted with the situation as his chief problem in his position was that of personnel.

To overcome the problem of getting management and labor together, he said, "it's simple to talk about but not so simple to do."

He accused management of exploiting labor and said management had only itself to blame for bringing on its headaches. "Labor," he continued, "is within its proper right to expect to live as well as management."

He did not believe it from a communist viewpoint but rather from the point that a man is entitled to his earnings. Mr. Mason said that he did not believe it from a communist viewpoint but rather from the point that a man is entitled to his earnings.

Magnet Of Greater Weight Than U. S. Destroyer, Is Put Into Columbia's Cyclotron

IRVINGTON—A huge magnet outweighing the steel in a U. S. destroyer was completed today for Columbia University's new giant cyclotron designed to delve into some of the deepest secrets of atomic structure.

The cyclotron will be the most powerful in the world, but not the largest. Columbia physicists said. It will fire atomic bullets at new high energies of 400 million electrons, enough to smash the cores of even heavy atoms like lead into 50 component parts. The bullets will be protons, one of the fundamental building blocks of all atoms.

New kinds of matter may be created, and new clues may be gained to the mysterious "cosmos" that holds all atomic cores together, said Dr. John R. Dunning, scientific director of the project.

Built in cooperation with the Office of Naval Research, the cyclotron is expected to start operating this summer. Construction was started nearly a year ago at a new nuclear physics research center at Nevis, a Columbia-owned estate overlooking the Hudson River near New York City.

The great magnet, weighing nearly 2,300 tons, is the core of the atom-smasher. In a 100-foot-long building, an overhead crane assembled 60-ton slabs of steel, each five feet thick and 14 feet in diameter. These slabs were bolted together to form a ring of the magnet, separated 18 inches apart. One is suspended from the top of the frame, the other rests on its base. Some 190 tons of copper wire will be coiled around the ring, making them electrically conductive.

All the cyclotron's work will be done in the circular chamber, a squat window frame of thick steel. The sole job of the magnet is to create a magnetic field to make the protons spin speed around on their paths.

The chamber will be released by an electric source in the center of the chamber. They will travel through a hollow electrode of new design, and high frequency modulation will give them kicks in speed as they travel around. Within one-thousandth of a second, the protons will travel 100 miles in widening circles until they hit their targets at a speed of nearly 110,000 miles per second.

The chamber, encased in stainless steel, will be nearly airtight to keep the protons from striking atoms of air.

Mr. Phillips, who has traveled widely in Palestine and Israel, said that the sole job of the magnet is to create a magnetic field to make the protons spin speed around on their paths.

Ultimatum Given Italy On Jewish-Arab Border Violence Flares Up Anew By Leftists

Attack On Jobs Made Basis Of Threat; Woman Killed By Policeman

ROME, (AP)—Communist-led Rome workers today gave the Italian government three days to accede to their demands for employment and for punishment of police who "forced men, women and babies" in bloody disorders last night at the Capital's gates.

The other half of the ultimatum, which was not stated, implied, however, was the threat of a general strike and labor turmoil in Rome.

The demands came from the new organized workers' high command for the Capital and Rome Province, the existence of which was announced in today's Leftist press along with its demands.

The organization's name was given as the "Provincial Committee of the Communist Party of Internal Commissions." The press announced that it would "take action" in Rome.

The new committee's first act was to publish a letter commencing denouncing police action against workers' demonstrators yesterday, when a worker was killed in street fighting with police.

The "sub machine guns of the Government of plutocrats have struck workers in breaking law indiscriminately," the Communist paper, "Unita," declared.

The story, which appeared under the headline "Ultimatum to the Government which means an Unemployed" concentrated its wrath on Premier Alcide De Gasperi and his cabinet, including Scelba (who commands Italy's police) and the new Mayor of Rome, Salvatore Rescaioni.

The leftists urged an "Avanti" to a headline "Blood on the Hands of Scelba."

The two papers said 70,000 unemployed gathered in the slums of Primitivo yesterday, and charged the Government with "breaking the law" in the demonstration.

One workman died of a sun shot wound, several other demonstrators were injured, 10 police were hurt, one lieutenant seriously.

FARRYTOWN—Westchester Parkway Tolls are "an unjust levy" upon the people of the County and should be removed, declared Harold T. Garrity, Yorkers, Democratic County chairman. The Yorkers political leader spoke here last evening at an organization meeting of the Democratic County Committee at Farrytown.

Editor's note: This is the sixth in a series of interviews with Garrity on important issues of the day. The feature appears each Saturday in "Daily Times." Today's question is: "Do you think greater police protection by the use of more permanent police or temporary police officers at street crossing guards is needed?"

Mr. Bradford B. Hoves, 447 North Barry Avenue, Mamaroneck, said: "I don't believe we need more protection, that is, more police. I do think, however, that the signs on Barry Avenue are badly placed. The school zone should be much longer, as it is in other communities. It should extend from Boston Post Road along Barry Avenue to Halstead Avenue. Cars entering Barry Avenue are not aware that they are in a school zone until they are right on top of the school."

Mr. Andrew Sametia, 433 Beach Avenue, Mamaroneck, said: "I don't think it's a problem of more police, but one of teaching the children responsibility. Mothers should teach their children early on to keep off the street. The police man on duty at Barry Avenue can't watch every single child as they dart in and out all along the street."

Mr. A. Henry Neale, 28 Maple Hill Drive, Larchmont, said: "If additional services are required I think it would prove satisfactory to hire temporary street-crossing guards for operating a vehicle with improper registration after being operated with a car driven by Felix S. Lapolla of 515 Carroll Avenue, Mamaroneck."

The left front fender and bumper of a car driven by James O. Hagens of 603 Third Street, Mamaroneck, were damaged at 8:55 A. M. when the vehicle ran into the right side of another car at Halstead and Barry Avenues. Mamaroneck police reported Hagens' car was at the right side of the intersection and was starting to make a turn when it collided with a car driven by Joseph Spadaro of 621 Wood Street, Mamaroneck, whose car was going through the intersection. The car was damaged and doors of Spadaro's car were bent.

Mr. Thelma A. Pollock of Mount Vernon, told Mamaroneck police that she was driving on the south on Mamaroneck Avenue when she was struck by a car yesterday her car struck a ladder protruding from a parked truck, breaking the ladder and other equipment. She was not injured and also damaged her right door. Mrs. Pollock's car did not have a red flag attached, because she was temporarily blinded by the glare of the truck's headlights. The truck was Joseph J. Minichello's. Town police reported two vehicles were damaged when they collided at 11:12 A. M. yesterday on Weaver Street at Rockland Avenue, west of Mamaroneck. # Cars And Buses Stoned By Jews In Retaliation

JERUSALEM, (AP)—Violence erupted anew today in the tense, borderland area between Arabs and Jews. Three Jews were killed.

A car driven from the Jewish underground Army Haganah charged the Palestine police with turning an armored car on the Jews, killing a small child and wounding a woman. It said one member of Haganah had been killed by British troops.

The communique said the situation was "worsening" in the borderland area. Fires flared from three or four small Jewish homes and observers said "general panic" prevailed over the United Nations decision to partition the Holy Land.

Three Jewish dead and two wounded were brought to a Tel Aviv hospital from the trouble area. The report did not say if the Palestine since the start of Arab-Jewish riots stemming from Arab resentment over the United Nations decision to partition the Holy Land.

Haganah charged that two police armored cars had fired into a crowd of Jews and said that the police had been given orders to "shoot to kill."

Not Injured In Seven Car Crashes Here

There were seven automobile accidents yesterday in Mamaroneck and Larchmont yesterday but no one was injured, police reported.

The right side of a car driven by Thomas Conte of 1 Woodland Avenue, Larchmont, was badly damaged when it struck a tree at 4:50 P. M. when another car backed into it. According to the police report, Conte had made a right turn from Palmer into Depot Way and was about to make a left turn when Mrs. Wilhelmina E. of 3815 Palmer Avenue, Larchmont, struck her car out of a parking space on the side of the Conte car. Mrs. Conte told police she did not see the Conte car.

Mrs. Josephine V. McEwen of 6 Linden Avenue, Larchmont, reported to police that as she was making out of a parking space on Larchmont Avenue at 4:05 P. M., the front bumper of her car scraped the light at Post Road and Elm Street.

T. Victor M. Pierce of 200 Mamaroneck Avenue, Mamaroneck, told Mamaroneck police he saw a car driven by John L. Casco of Brooklyn. There was no damage to L. Casco's truck, police said. Both trucks were traveling east on the Post Road.

The left front fenders of two cars were damaged when the cars collided head-on on Shore Road at 8:55 A. M. Roger Sirogo of Brooklyns was issued a summons for operating a vehicle with improper registration after being operated with a car driven by Felix S. Lapolla of 515 Carroll Avenue, Mamaroneck.

Marshall Set To Ask Russia To Cut Demand

LONDON, (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall and key American economic advisors decided to press Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov today for an answer on whether Russia will diminish its $100,000,000 reparations demand and defer collections until Germany is back on its feet.

The United States delegation met privately for two hours in advance of the Foreign Ministers' session. Diplomatic informants said Marshall, with support from Secretary of the State, Dean Acheson, takes the position that there can be no agreement on reparations until Germany is able to pay them.

The reparations issue is settled, and may insist as well on an accounting of the amount already extracted by Russia from Eastern Germany.

Rickey Returns Leo Durocher To Brooklyn Manager Post

BROOKLYN, (AP)—Leo Durocher today was returned to his old job as manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers by President Branch Rickey, succeeding interim pilot Brad Shotton after serving out a season-long suspension by Commissioner B. C. Gowdie.

No salary terms were announced. Durocher was said to have signed a 1947 contract calling for $200,000 last winter before his suspension.

The Dodgers never announced whether he was paid while suspended from the ban in California.

Durocher, always a stormy petrel during 20 years in the major leagues, was suspended by Commissioner B. C. Chandler for the entire 1947 season for "conduct detrimental to the game" and the suspension was directed by St. Petersburg, Fla. Franch following charges brought by Larry MacPhail, former New York Yankee president, against Durocher, Rickey and Harold Parrott. MacPhail's charges involved suspending interim pilot Brad Shotton after serving out a season-long suspension by Commissioner B. C. Gowdie.

Larchmont The Town

Stars At 70

Two elderly residents of West Street, Larchmont, Hugh Lawrence, 77, and his brother, Harry, 70, say themselves in luck for the first time last night.

They appear in a 15-minute Paramount feature which is entitled "Everybody Talks About It," a film about the weather produced by Jack Edwards Larchmont in cooperation with the U. S. Weather Bureau.

The Lawrence brothers, friends of J. M. Angeli, Jr., of 1095 Grove Street, Mamaroneck, who suggested their appearance in the picture, witnessed a showing of the film at Mr. Angeli's residence. The film is now being shown throughout the country. "McCrory of the 'Hink Jinks'" radio show is commentator.

Mr. Eaton, who lives at 8 Woody Lane, Larchmont, is the producer of the Grantland Rice Show.

McGrath Installed

Benedict F. McGrath, (above) Larchmont realtor, was installed as vice-president of the New York State Association of Real Estate Boards at an inaugural luncheon held last night at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel in Albany. This marks the third year that McGrath has held the position. He previously filled the offices of secretary and treasurer.

Mr. McGrath is a past president of the Westchester County Realty Board, past president of the Larchmont Real Estate Board, and served on numerous committees in all the boards with which he is identified, and is also the immediate past commander of Larchmont Post 347, American Legion. He takes over his new office on Jan. 1.

ICC Grants New Haven Fare Rise

Spokesman Says Road Will Seek Similar Hike From State Board

IS SECOND IN YEAR

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today authorized increases in first class passenger fares on Western railroads and in passenger coach fares on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad.

In New York City, a New Haven Railroad spokesman said an application would be filed with the New York State Board of Real Estate to make the increases applicable to fares from Westchester stations to New York.

The increase effective on all lines operating West of the Mississippi will be 2.5 cents per mile, raising the rate to 2.875 cents a mile.

The New Haven railroad was included among the 60 Eastern carriers which permitted to increase both coach and Pullman fares an average 10 per cent last summer.

The ICC subsequently authorized a 20 per cent increase in freight rates for all railroads. The roads are now seeking a 30 per cent permanent raise in the freight schedules.

The New Haven Railroad said the Commission several weeks ago, however, that while the first class travel charges increase, it largely a passenger carrying road and would request a further revision in passenger fares as well as operating expenses.

In both cases acted upon today, the ICC authorized the increases to be made effective on five days after the public hearing. In the West, now 25 cents per mile, are not affected by the increase. The New Haven, however, the road had been permitted to raise fares 10 per cent last summer, the New Haven had led the other Eastern Railroads in the first granted the new increase.

The spokesman said that the increases which would be put into effect around the middle of December.

Tribute Paid To Deceased By Elks Club

Fifty persons attended the Elks' traditional memorial service for the late Elmer H. Aldrich, which was held last night at the Elks' clubhouse on Boston Post Road, Mamaroneck. The service was dedicated to the memory of Aldrich, who was born in Larchmont, N. Y., and died in New York City.

Mayor B. J. Santoro, a past president of the Elks' club, also dedicated the service to all those who lost their lives at Pearl Harbor. He said that that experience showed that we have the ability to work and live and play in unity with each other. A nation made up of God-loving people will always be a nation composed of leadership, charity, justice and brotherly love, the mayor said.

The musical portion of the program was sung by John De Sole, soprano, who rendered "The Lord's Prayer" and "Oh Saviour Hear Me." He was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Isabella Sherrin.

The Elks' ritual was delivered by Exalted Ruler Fred J. Yankovic, who presided. Other officers present were: Heitman, Estemed Loyd Knight, James A. Steen, Senior Exalted Ruler, and Arthur W. Bradley, Junior Exalted Ruler. Walter W. Wright, Secretary, Joseph H. Muller, and Tiler William F. Anthony, were also present.

Payment of the fine was deferred until Lambert pleads guilty on Dec. 1 after his arrest at Huguenot and Madison Streets—a block from police headquarters—by Patrolman Joseph Devitt.

Man And His Cousin Spend 39 Hours In Line To Gain First Auto License Plates

BY JOSEPH W. SHANNON

WHITE PLAINS—For the fifth successive year Marvin Keeler of 27 Fisher Avenue, White Plains, is the winner of the annual endurance contest for license plate V-101, the lowest automobile registration number publicly sold at the Automobile Bureau here. For the first time since the war each car can have two plates in 1948.

Keeler and his cousin, Dorothy Mae Valentin, of 219 Gallagher Street, Buchanan, completed a 39-hour vigil at 9 A. M., when the 1948 markers, black numerals on an orange background, were issued to them. Starting at 8 P. M. Saturday, five hours earlier than last year, Keeler and Mae Valentin took turns sleeping in the parked cars as they protected their positions at the head of the line.

More than 300 people, most of them carrying umbrellas, were in line at the bureau Saturday morning. ## Editor Urges U. S. Vigilance To Keep Peace

We must be ready to act with other democratic countries to stop aggressive war, Alexander Gardner, editor of the American Legion Magazine, told 100 members and guests of the St. Thomas's Men's Club, at breakfast at St. Thomas's Church yesterday.

Mr. Gardner, a frequent contributor to "The Saturday Evening Post" was hopeful that the United States would take the lead in the General Assembly and Security Council of the U. N. in favor of democracy would have a sobering effect on Russia and its aggressive neighbors.

Speaking on the anniversary of Pearl Harbor Day, he referred to the date as a day of "national humiliation" and said that the war took a terrible toll of our young men and our material resources at all levels.

He quoted from the preamble to the League of Nations which urges that the organization "insure a sense of individual obligation to the community, to the nation and to the world."

County Budget Hearing To Be Held Tonight

WHITE PLAINS—Westchester's proposed 1948 budget of $20,290,983 versus $11,903,961 for the tax levy, will be submitted to public expression of views at the annual budget hearing this evening in the Surrogate's Court, County Court House, White Plains.

The hearing will be conducted by the Surrogate's committee, which declined within the time limit to increase any items. The County Charter provides that after the hearing only downward revisions may be made in the figures.

The rules for tonight's hearing provide that speakers representing civic and taxpayer organizations will be heard first. Those who wish to be heard individually, however, will be limited to five minutes until addressing the speaker has been heard after which a 30-second period will be accorded any so desiring.

Department heads will accompany County Executive Gerachevich to the hearing and will answer questions. Those appearing formally are asked to leave recommendations in writing for study by the Board of Supervisors. The hearing is scheduled to start promptly at 8 o'clock.

Tenant Faces Noise Charge By Landlady

Andrew Balits, a tenant in the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Gronda, 1517 Broadway Avenue, Mamaroneck, was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct yesterday morning after allegedly keeping his landlady awake Saturday night.

Appearing this morning in Mamaroneck Police Court with his attorney, Morris Karris of Mamaroneck, Mr. Balits pleaded not guilty before Judge Patrick J. Hughes. At the request of his attorney, an adjournment was granted until Friday.

Mr. Balits was arrested on the complaint of Mrs. Frances Gronda, 1517 Broadway Avenue, who charged that she had been disturbed by the defendant kept a vacuum machine and water faucet running for more than an hour Saturday night.

At 10:38 P. M. Saturday, Mrs. Gronda reported to Police headquarters that there was a disturbance in her home. A policeman, Patrolman Alton Palms, was called and met by Mr. and Mrs. Gronda who told him that their tenants, Mr. and Mrs. Balits, who live on second floor, were running a vacuum machine and water faucet, letting the water run steadily, and pounding on the floor.

Chief Palmer was called to the scene and went up stairs and told the Balits that a complaint had been made by the landlady. He reported he was told by Mr. and Mrs. Balits that they would let the water and motor run all night.

At 11:48 P. M. Mr. Gronda told Chief Palmer she wanted the tenants removed from the premises. A very loud noise coming from a running motor on the second floor, and water running continuously.

That final vote could come late today, but it is more probably sometime tomorrow. First, the House had to act on various amendments to raise or lower the $500,000,000 total of the bill.

Holy Trinity Society Plans Sunday Forum

An open forum on Communism, headed by three prominent New York City officers at the Holy Name Society of Holy Trinity Church, Mamaroneck, Sunday at 8:30 P. M. in the Holy Trinity Church auditorium.

James P. Maurer, Francis X. Paly and Emerica A. Walsh, Jr., of New York City, have been invited to conduct the forum by the Rev. Thomas R. Kelly, pastor of Holy Trinity Church.

Father Kelly said the program will be divided into three 20-minute speeches, followed by a period of open discussion and questions and answers.

"I feel the good people of Mamaroneck will need no urging to be present and to take an active part in the discussions," Father Kelly said. "Communism is the menace of the day and I sincerely hope every American—Catholic and non-Catholic—will be with us on next Sunday night."

Father Kelly is moderator of the society. Other officers are: Robert Bucklow, president; James Hogan, vice president; Charles Cross, corresponding secretary; James Smith, recording secretary.

5 More Jews Die As Battle Of Tel Aviv Is Renewed

By The Associated Press

ARAB leaders connected with Cairo today declared they would oppose the partition of Palestine, already stated with the blood of 88 persons since the old Turkish Empire communal rioting over the United Nations decision. At least 216 had been killed in the Middle East.

A British policeman was killed in Haifa, Israel, it was announced he was shot by unknown persons while dismounting from a bicycle.

The fiery battle of Tel Aviv was renewed during the morning and a force of many Arab and Arab were killed. Seven Arabs and a force of many Arab and Arab were killed. Seven Arabs and a force of many Arab and Arab were killed.

Blodder even than Palestine was renewed during the morning and a force of many Arab and Arab were killed. Seven Arabs and a force of many Arab and Arab were killed.

The British informed the United Nations they would abandon the old mandate over Palestine, May 15, making way for the Jewish and Arab states. The situation in Palestine, but the British had been killed in Syria.

When the sword speaks, everything else must be silent," said the ex-Prime Minister, Neville Chamberlain, in a speech in the House of Commons.

Premier David Ben-Gurion of the Arab League's "defensive and immediate" action.

The Lebanese Army now on the border has been ordered to join its part with other Arab armies in saving Palestine when the present time comes.

At the same time a five-day action which called the strike continued, workers called by the CGT in an attempt to pull approximately 120,000 civil servants of their jobs, was meeting with dubious success.

The strike started for some groups of government employees last night, but Government officials declared that the workers were functioning normally.

A spokesman for the Paris transport system said the subway and bus strike had been called off by the Union because it was "a failure."

Headquarters of the CGT-affiliated union which called the strike continued that it had been "annulled," but declined to give the reason.

A few hours before the subway and bus strike was called, the Government announced the arrest of nearly 1,000 persons in a nationwide campaign against sabotage in strike crippled industries.

The Interior Ministry said that security police had made the arrests in the past eight days—about half of them Saturday and Sunday.

"Some have been detained," he said. "Others have been fined and a few jailed."

Savings-Loan Assn. Declares 114th Dividend
The Mamaroneck Federal Savings and Loan Association has declared its 114th consecutive dividend. It was announced today by Fred T. Wilson, executive vice president.

The dividend, declared by the Board of Directors at its recent meeting, is at the rate of two per cent per annum, credited to all accounts as of Dec. 31, 1947.

Mr. Wilson reported that the association has shown "remarkable growth again this year in line with the growth of insured savings institutions." He pointed out that since approximately 90 per cent of the assets of this association are invested in first mortgage loans in this community, it is contributing to the growth of Mamaroneck and the surrounding area.

Court Upholds Validity Of In Rem Action
The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court Tuesday unanimously affirmed the order of the County Court which struck out the answer filed by Robert Miller, 1029 Mamaroneck Avenue, Mamaroneck, who contended that his property could not and should not be legally foreclosed by the Village of Mamaroneck in its In Rem action. Village Corporation Counsel Anthony Sansone reported.

The Court struck out Mr. Miller's answer on the ground that it was sham and frivolous, decreed it to be a nullity, and affirmed the judgment entered in the action. Mr. Sansone said.

In the answer, Mr. Miller contended that his property could not be legally foreclosed because he had several certified proceedings pending, that the Village in foreclosing the properties and would be turned into a real estate concern, and that at some future time he hoped to be able to sell the property. By a foreclosure in the In Rem action, the answer said, his interest would be wiped out.

TRUMAN CRITIZES GOP COUNTER PLAN FOR PRICE CONTROL

President Calls For Adoption Of His Program

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Truman met Republican counter-proposals for wage and price legislation today with the declaration that anything less than the Administration's 10-point program for curbing rising costs will be inadequate.

Mr. Truman told his news conference he will request Congress in a couple of days specific legislation covering the wage and price controls which he has requested.

In a sharp criticism of one feature of the proposed Republican program, Mr. Truman said the country's Anti-Trust Laws will be enforced to the limit as long as he is President. He made his comments in a 10-point program which would allow some relaxation of the Anti-Trust Laws to permit industries and business to pool resources and information.

Asked if he also opposed any relaxation of the Anti-Trust Laws to meet the new England situation, Mr. Truman repeated that as long as he is President there will be no relaxation of the Anti-Trust Laws if he can help it.

Afternoon dress worn in the evening or with a simple evening dress. Is it not both correct and fashionable to wear a hat with a dinner dress right through the late afternoon and evening? There are a great many hats designed for the evening."
My original answer was to the question, "Is it correct to wear and keep on a hat at a dinner party?" With an afternoon dress, a hat would be entirely suitable in a public restaurant, but not in a private home. One would wear a hat with a simple long dinner dress with sleeves, but wearing a hat with full evening dress definitely would be in bad taste.

Girl Without Dates Should Hold Fast To Her Principles

By ANGELO PATRI
There is a girl who is grieving because she is not popular among the gay companions of her school group. She is good-looking, healthy, at the head of the class, but she is often overlooked when the boys are dating the girls.
"I'd love to go, Mr. Patri, but they expect me to drink what they drink, smoke when they do, and it smokes when they do, and it smokes when they do."
I do, above all, want to be married when the time comes and have children of my own. I am so thrilled."
Naturally, But to these girls I would say, "Don't you know that there are boys and young men who have the same standards as you have? Don't you know that somewhere in the world there is a young man who will come your way when the time is ripe, and he will know you and you will know him and live, if not forever, at least for the better part of the time, happily."
If there were no fine young men in the world we could not go on and we are getting on. Our boys are taller, healthier and handsomer than any others in the world. They are intelligent, decent, hard-working young people and they, too, are hoping that somewhere waiting for them is the fine young woman who will mother their splendid children.
Character is a slow growth. Young people make many mistakes as they grope their way toward maturity. They are beset by feelings, emotions and circumstances for which they have had scant preparation and so, lacking experience, faced with exciting and stimulating situations, they do sometimes make mistakes.
But one swallow does not make a summer, nor one error a sinner.

We all learn by experience and suffering to take the better road. The young girls who, like this one, are giving their way toward happiness need only hold fast to their own sakes and for the sake of the home and family which they will be and by, head, wait. Be friendly, open-minded, listen and talk. Do not fast to the standard because, in time, the right young man appears. He was getting ready for the right girl while she was getting ready for him, and together they will build an American home and family that will be added strength to their community. Look for the right companions where they are likely to be found: in church, in young people's clubs and societies, in the best groups in the school. They are always there.

Mother Is Wrong In Insisting Girl Marry For Money

By DOROTHY DIX
Dear Miss Dix: What is your opinion of mothers who try to marry their daughters to rich men?
Answer: I think that no woman can commit a greater crime than to force her daughter into marrying for money. Happy marriages are not merchandise that is sold across a counter. They are the free gift of love and the one thing that no money can buy.
We are appalled when we think of a mother bringing such pressure upon her daughter that she makes her give up the boy she loves to marry some man whose only attraction is his pocketbook.
Ambition may make a mother forget her duty as a mother and daughter. She wants her to have nice houses, jewels, and to be a brilliant figure in society. But generally it is because the mother has had a hard life and she has grown bitter and disillusioned, and she wants to save her daughter from her fate. She has come to think that the things that money buys are worth more than heart-throbs.
But it is not true. No woman has so little in life as the one who has only money, and no mother does her daughter such wrong as the one who keeps her daughter from the happiness of marrying just for love.

Combing The Town

Messiah Night

A complete recording of The Messiah will be presented to the public by the Mamaroneck Free Library on Friday evening, Dec. 19 at 8 o'clock.

The recording was made by the Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Malcolm Sargent, and includes the Huddersfield Choral Society, Bruce E. Angus, organist, choir master and concert pianist, will present the program and offer a brief discussion concerning the period in which the work was written, the musical content, and the Biblical content. He will also discuss its worth in modern music and its place in the church of today.

This production of the Messiah has been recorded on 20 discs. The two albums were presented to the library by the Music Appreciation group organized last year. This will be the first time it has been presented at the library.

The building will be especially decorated for the occasion with Christmas greens by the members of the Mamaroneck Garden Club, under the direction of Mrs. Gordon Proctor.

Santa's Helpers

Helping Santa Claus to spread the spirit of Christmas and to bring cheer and happiness to others are members of the Larchmont Fire Department paid personnel, who are devoting many extra hours to the repair and restoration of toys.

The toys, representing a large and varied assortment donated by Playtime in Larchmont and other friends of the Fire Department, will be distributed to the Christmas gifts to children in the community.

Much ingenuity and ability by the firemen is shown in the work they have done in repairing toys, which are on display at Headquarters.

Legion Set For initial Rag Pickup

Trucks To Your Village Streets Tomorrow For First Collection

DRIVE OPENS 1 P. M.

All preparations have been completed by Mamaroneck Post 90 of the American Legion for the first Legion rag pickup tomorrow in Mamaroneck.

Following the pattern of the Legion's community-wide paper collection, the village fire whistle will blow at 1 P. M. to signal the start of the pickup. All members are requested to assemble at the first Legion rag pickup tomorrow, Avenue, before that hour, to leave with trucks which will tour every street in Mamaroneck.

The rags will be transferred to large trailers which will be sent directly to the mills. Commander Isidore Lenhan again pointed out that the freight yard will not be used as was the case in the paper pickup.

Evening from the sale of the rags will benefit the Legion building fund.

Residents are requested to have their rags, carpets, rug, canvas, mattress, old clothing, shoes, and even old shoes at the curb ready for the collection before the whistle sounds.

The committee in charge consists of: James P. Evers, Leonard Thomas, James Celestino and George Spuehrer.

A meeting of the Century Club, which will have materials of this description which they would like to have collected, may call Legion Headquarters, Mamaroneck 9-2169, on Sunday morning for special arrangements will be made to have them picked up.

Mr. Fahy served in the Army as a new member; Alex C. Reid, 20 Wagner Avenue; Warren E. Cutler, 128 South Barr Avenue, and Joseph W. Humphrey, 640 North Barry Avenue.

Members of the Century Club, the following officers were elected: President, George Spuehrer; Secretary, James Celestino; Treasurer, Leonard Thomas; and Publicity, James P. Evers.

Mr. Fahy is commander of Mamaroneck Post, Catholic War Veterans, Jersey City, Mr. Evers, Jersey City, Mr. Reid, Jersey City, and Mr. Cutler, Jersey City, are members of the Jersey City Post.

Larchmont Forum Speakers Hold Optimistic Views On Future Of British People

Nationalization is unound economically in that it breeds inefficiency and unethical in that it brings with it the great political danger of power, Lord John Hope, member of the British Parliament, and Dr. Lancelot Rex Robinson of Bronxville, right center, noted economist, discuss the topic of last night's Larchmont Public Opinion Forum at the Chateaufort Avenue School auditorium. He spoke on the topic, "British, Left or Right?" with Dr. Lancelot Rex Robinson, noted economist and lecturer.

Furthermore, the son of the former Viceroy of India declared, the backbone of the English community is disappearing with the gradual establishment of nationalization. He foresees the obliteration of the "middle people" or rentier class. His definition of nationalization is "ownership by the government of the basic means of production and distribution."

But, the young Englishman maintained, "we're going to get through our difficulties. Do not lose faith in the British. We have made mistakes before. We will make them again. But you can rely on the British to set their house in order."

"Under a partnership between Britain and the United States, our goal will be the safeguarding of the dignity of the individual and the dignity of the human race."

Nationalization leads to Big Four Takes 2-Day Recess To 'Cool Off'

LONDON, (AP)—The Foreign Minister's session scheduled for Monday was postponed until Monday on a British initiative in order to allow tempers to cool after last night's violent argument.

The postponement was announced by the conference secretary.

A member of the U. S. delegation said it was expected that another session today would result in quick tempers and confusion. The two day recess will give the Ministers time to plan a course of action.

Authoritative sources said the conference was "hopelessly deadlocked" on the subject of reparations and that without agreement on reparations discussion of economic and other subjects was useless.

Secretary Marshall is expected to decide over the week-end whether to try and break off the conference immediately or go through the function of finishing the agenda before going to Paris. Part of the decision will depend on the attitude of Foreign Minister Molotov of Russia at the opening of the Monday meeting.

It was understood to be willing that the session continue. A Soviet spokesman said the future of the parity would depend on Marshall.

Marshall was scheduled to meet Molotov and his deputy, Andrei V. Vishinsky, at lunch today at Ambassador Lewis W. Douglas residence. An official spokesman said the luncheon was arranged several days ago, but it is expected Marshall would be unable to attend because of the Russian insistence before the afternoon meeting of the U. S. delegation.

Some of Marshall's advisers said privately they believed Molotov's attack yesterday, when he denounced the whole range of the Western powers plan in Germany and killed all hope even for superficial Big Four agreement on Germany and that it is a meeting would be accomplished by going on here.

Three Slain As Chicago Gang Launches War

CHICAGO, (AP)—Three gunmen, described by police as "mad dog killers," killed three men and wounded two others before one of the gunmen was slain by police machine-gun bullets today.

Police seized one of the gunmen and hunted for a third after the wild shooting spree by the two free last night and early today.

Two of the victims were slain in a "gang hide-out." Two others, also abducted and shot, escaped, although they were wounded, one seriously. One man was slain in a South Side garage, from where the trio had forced the two others into their car and driven into Western suburbs.

Remains of two of the kidnaped men were found today about 10 hours after the trio had slain John Cochran, 33, a carpenter, a used furniture store, at the garage of his brother, Nick, 40.

Cochran's slayer was identified by police as Tom Daley, 42, an ex-convict who was spending his day of detectives early today as he attempted to flee from a West Side apartment. His slaying followed the seizure of one of his companions.

One of Daley's companions, seized as he entered a West Side home where he was spending his honeymoon with his 17-year-old bride of 10 days, was identified by Capt. Eugene Barry as Lowell Fontana, 19. Barry said Fontana was the third man in the gang and driver of the car in James Morrell, also 19.

King To Mark Birthday

Residents See Decided Need For More State School Aid

Henry Avenue, Mamaroneck, "I really think they should be upped up to the Town to carry it alone and I also think there should be more recreation facilities for the youngsters which would increase the burden of the Town."

Mr. L. M. Schuler, 412 Manor Avenue, Mamaroneck: "Education being so important to our youth, our schools should receive additional state aid. In the future our schools will have to be enlarged and they should get more funds from the state at any time they need it."

Mr. Maxwell Kowsek, 526 Stanley Avenue, Mamaroneck: "I think they should. There should be no limit to what the State should give. I think the education of the children comes first."

Mr. S. Littlefield, Jr., 111 Manor Avenue, Mamaroneck: "Yes, definitely, because it will help to educate our children more opportunities."

Mr. J. P. Schuler, 412 Manor Avenue, Mamaroneck: "I believe the state, with direct control being given to the local controlling bodies, should make a large contribution to state aid funds and merit a larger return than to pay its teachers at least 10 per cent higher than is required by the State. I think it is a matter of state aid."

12 Arabs Killed As Jews Toss Three Bombs

Jerusalem, (AP)—Bombs tossed 12 Arabs and wounded 25 in Jerusalem and Jaffa attacked today.

Two anti-personnel bombs were tossed into the tenement Arab market place before Jerusalem's ancient Damascus Gate, killing six Arabs and injuring 41 others. A bomb tossed from a speeding truck at a coffeehouse in all-Arab Jaffa killed six more Arabs and injured 40 others.

The Holy Land death toll in Jewish-Arab fighting since the United Nations decision to partition Palestine rose to 210.

Eye-witnesses at Jaffa said the bomb was thrown from an army plane driven by Jews who entered from the direction of all-Jewish Tel Aviv. The explosive wrecked the coffee house, and damaged an Arab taxi company and the Al-hambra motion picture theater.

Visitors included Rotarians of the Jersey City and Newark Rotary Clubs, and the Jersey City and Newark Rotary Clubs, and the Jersey City and Newark Rotary Clubs.

Leaders Claim Leftists Lose Rome Strike

ROME, (AP)—The Government of Premier Alcide De Gasperi denounced today as "without foundation" Communist claims of victory in the 48-hour general strike which ended at midnight.

The Communists asserted they had secured an additional 170,000,000 lire ($13,547,974) in unemployment relief funds out of the Government with the strike, which ended after a steady show of Government military force.

A communique from the office of the Christian Democrat Premier Alcide De Gasperi was unfounded and that the strike should be regarded as a failure. The offer of 11,000,000 lire ($834,820) of the 11 billion total, was prepared to add 2,000,000,000 lire from funds already set aside for public works, the communique said.

A report that the City of Rome was prepared to add 2,000,000,000 lire ($317,000,000) has not been confirmed. Labor had asked for a 14 billion lire program, with 30 billion in new appropriations.

The situation in Rome was said to be normal this morning with ending of the strike. Jeep loads of police circulated through the city but found no trouble.

The Communist Party, Secretary of the Chamber of Labor of Rome Province, which ordered the work stoppage Wednesday night and called it off last night, effective at midnight, said only one step in its daily news bulletin this morning: "Victory."

If Pope's organ of Premier Alcide De Gasperi's Christian Democracy Party is justifiably in a secretly set and printed issue intended to appear as the strike ended, "The Faith" of Giuseppe Di Vittorio, Communist secretary general of the National Labor Confederation, which helped endorse the end of the work stoppage, told 120 union leaders who endorsed the Chamber of Labor's Emergency Committee was "triumphant."

GOP Plan Devoid Of Any Attack On Truman's Plea

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Republican Congressional leaders were reported today to have shied away from making any significant demand for Government controls in their forthcoming cost of living statement.

Members who saw a preliminary draft of Truman's statement prepared to lay before a conference of all the Republican Senators today said it was significantly devoid of any attack on President Truman's request for standby wage-price and rationing authority.

These Senators, who asked that they not be identified publicly, said they interpreted this as leaving a loophole through which the GOP could fall back on some form of compulsory action if the voluntary methods it supports fail to halt rising prices.

The statement of Republican aims, which Taft said will be made public only after it has been carefully screened by the conference, is expected to explain that the GOP is just as much worried by the threat of inflation as the Democrats.

Taft already has laid point by point, the measure the Republican leadership intends to lay before the regular session of Congress starting in January, as well as the proposals on which action will be sought before the Special Session starts up next week.

Taft already has said that three of the four points covered in the Wobolc Bill, approved by the House Banking Committee, are included in the over-all policy statement.

He listed these as an extension of Federal Reserve Bank authority over exports, expansion of transportation controls and a proposal that Federal Reserve Banks and other agencies be authorized to purchase for parcelling out scarce commodities and possibly for reduction of prices.

Taft said the Wobolc Bill's proposal for an increase in gold reserves behind the currency issued by Federal Reserve Banks and their members—designed to reduce the amount of money in circulation—did not include in the over-all policy statement. He said he would need more study by the Senate Banking Committee.

Other points the Republicans are expected to include a call for sharp reductions in Government spending, a cut in interest rates, and extension of rent controls and restoration of the curbs on installment buying which expired last year.

Gamble Speaks Yesterday Before Real Estate Board

New York, (AP)—Rep. Gamble said Larchmont says lumber producers are prepared to slash prices as much as 25 per cent and that Congress will act, if necessary, to legalize an industry wide agreement to implement such a reduction.

Gamble speaking yesterday before the Metropolitan Association of Real Estate Boards, said that Congress, by granting lumber producers partial immunity from the anti-trust laws, would be acting to alleviate the present housing shortage and help curb inflation.

Former chairman of the Joint Congressional Committee on Housing said that materials are the chief cause of high housing costs, adding that the greatest increase had occurred in lumber, with prices now averaging 221 per cent more than the 1930 level.

Gamble said he had been informed by big timber interests that they are ready to work out a price-cutting plan if it can be executed with the approval of the Department of Justice.

Gate Party

Prior to Santa's arrival Sunday at 2 P. M. at the Weaver Street Firehouse, where the Town Fire Department's annual Christmas party will take place, there will be a song, Terry-Tone cartoons will be shown, and a magician will perform for the children of the unincorporated section. It was announced today.

All children from 2 to 12 in the Town are invited.

Candy, gifts, and oranges will be distributed from a giant Christmas tree in the auditorium. Ice cream will also be served.

The party is being sponsored by volunteer members of the Town Fire Department under the supervision of Martin Egan and Fred Zuk.

Parents of sick children in the unincorporated section are requested to phone Chief George W. Burton at Larchmont 2-6414 and arrangements will be made to have Santa visit their homes and present a gift to them before the party gets under way.

Lions Don't Like It!

The Lions Club doesn't like it, either.

Individually and collectively the Lions, who conducted the annual Soap Box Derby under the sponsorship of The Daily Times, are writing the Chevrolet Division of General Motors to oppose the Derby, that they really don't like the withdrawal of the Derby from Mamaroneck.

Secretary Charles Warren was unanimously directed to write a letter to Myron E. Scott, general manager of the Derby, expressing the club's feelings on the matter and by a similar vote every member was asked to produce a carbon copy of an individual letter at the next meeting. Those unable to produce a carbon will be given a receipt to obtain to the file box.

We really don't like it, Chevrolet!

Fighting Memorial

Next Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Benno Eikan, former owner of the property in which the Park veterans housing project now stands, will light a 30-foot high Christmas tree in the middle of Eikan Road in memory of the late Major William Harvey Smith Larchmont, who lost his life in World War I.

The tree, which will have from 150 to 200 lights on it, was donated by Mrs. Isabel Woods Smith, the late major's wife, now living at West Hampton Beach, L. I.

Mrs. C. C. Merritt, mother of President John C. Merritt, Larchmont Veterans Housing Corporation, has also donated 150,000 red lights to the project.

Santa Plays Host

Columbia Home Company No. 2 of the Mamaroneck Fire Department will hold its annual children's Christmas party on Sunday at 2:30 P. M. in the company headquarters, Barry Hall, Jefferson Avenue.

The Santa Claus will be on hand to greet the boys and girls of the neighborhood and present gifts to all the children.

Mr. Ayles has also presented a motion picture show for the children.

First Lieut. Walter Granger, chairman of the event, extends a hearty welcome to all the children of the neighborhood for an afternoon of fun.

Ingenuous

George Ayres is not only principal of Daniel Warren School, a member of the National Education Association, University Club, Student Aid Fund—but a stage technician, too.

Mr. Ayres has devised a snow-storm machine for the Daniel Warren School Christmas play, "The Birth of a Song: Silent Night," which will be presented tomorrow night.

Initiation mica snow will be placed on a board above the stage and at the opportune moment, an electric fan behind the board will be turned on, blowing the flakes on the scene below.

Cats Promotions

2 More Youths Held On Purse Theft Charge

Two 16-year-old New York City youths were arraigned this morning in Mamaroneck Police Court on charges of grand larceny.

The two boys, John Pellano and Edward Scannell, accused of purse snatching Sunday night, were held and were held for trial in New York City by police and returned here by Det. Sgt. William O'Neill and Det. Jerry Gray.

Both were with two other New York City youths, Anthony Tedone, Jr. and John McMurray, 17, when Tedone is alleged to have snatched a purse from Mrs. Anna Bascone of 321 Carroll Avenue, Mamaroneck, Sunday night as she was walking along the East Post Road.

Pellano and Scannell escaped as a Mamaroneck policeman stopped the stolen car in which they were riding. Tedone and McMurray were picked up by the Larchmont police in Larchmont, where they are being held for the Grand Jury.

Oil Shortage Leads To Wide Price Variance

An increasingly serious shortage of fuel oil is resulting in a wide variance of prices being charged domestic consumers, industry spokesmen said today.

The price as of today varies from 12 1/2 cents to 12 1/2 cents per gallon in most cases, with one company temporarily quoting a lower price. What the price will be tomorrow, no one knows, dealers confess.

At a meeting of the Westchester Oil Trades Association yesterday, members declared they are "disturbed" over the price picture, over which they have no control. They must adjust their prices to keep pace with the price they pay to suppliers.

Association spokesmen again warned that consumers should expect to receive 100 per cent of their normal consumption this season. Consumers must conserve, they emphasized.

Some suppliers are in a better position than others and can charge lower prices. It is always the small independent dealer who charges the higher price, it was declared. Some of the major dealers have to pay premiums to obtain a supply and in their turn must pass the increase along to the customers—prize go out of business.

The dealer who charges a higher price may not be making as much profit as the lower-priced dealer, it was added. The spread between his cost and his selling price may be as great.

Several other residents also spoke in opposition to the application of the Zoning Board's decision that it had found no evidence that the price of any commodity, including oil, is related to the law of supply and demand.

Man Guilty As 'Bookie'

Larchmont Man Guilty As 'Bookie'

4-Hour Trial Before Cavanaugh Convicted In Town Court Jury SENTENCE DEFERRED

For 50 minutes last night a jury of five men and one woman deliberated over the fate of Dave Cavanaugh of 425 Boston Post Road, Larchmont, charged with book-making, and returned with a unanimous verdict of "guilty as charged" in Town of Mamaroneck Police Court, ending the trial which lasted for more than four hours.

Judge Wesley M. Messersmith presided.

The sentencing of the defendant was postponed until the afternoon of the 18th. The maximum penalty is a fine of $500 or one year in jail or both, with the option of appeal to the case to a higher court within 30 days of sentencing.

Cavanaugh was arrested Oct. 14 on complaint of Anthony Amoruso of the Bronx who told police he and his companions had been kept from getting jobs by Cavanaugh when they attempted to collect $110 which they claimed to have won on bets placed with him the previous day.

The case was first brought to trial on Nov. 20 but was declared a mistrial when an attorney for Cavanaugh asked the names of a spectator, stood up in the back of the courtroom and called the jurors a "smokey."

The six jurors were called and only one, James Spino, 65, of 427 Center Avenue, Mamaroneck, was hit by a car at 3:05 P. M. while crossing Fayette Street at Larchmont Road. He was taken by police in ambulance to United Hospital, suffering a fractured left knee, bruised left shoulder and lacerations of the scalp.

Operator of the car, James Nolte, 18, a student, who lives at 420 Fayette Street, was traveling north on Fenimore Avenue and was turning left into Fayette Street when the car struck Mr. Spino.

Discord Stalls Air Progress, Editor Claims

We're going to run ahead of England and Germany and the rest of the world on getting planes on time through the air, but we're going to have to wait because our airlines are so inefficient, so inefficient, Fowler Barker, editor of "Mammoth" Magazine, told the members of the University Club of Mamaroneck last night.

"Planes can land in fog now technically, but not politically," he declared. "The most advanced application of the most advanced technology is being stymied by lack of unanimity among the lines."

Andrew Wilson, Jr., chairman of the County Trust Company, announced that a Christmas bonus of 5 per cent of annual salary would be paid to all members of the staff, Dr. Joseph E. Hughes, president, and William L. Butcher, executive vice president, spoke briefly in welcome and to extend holiday greetings.

After a buffet dinner and dancing, entertainment was provided by a choral group of 25 staff members, under the direction of Purdy Ungemack of Port Chester and now with the White Plains office, who presented a program of Christmas carols and psalms.

Mrs. Gordon E. Kenning of the Larchmont office, sang "Star of Bethlehem" in a soprano solo. Mrs. Kenning's husband, her maiden name of Constanca Stefanik, has made many professional concert appearances.

Woman Fined $10 For Store Rumpus

Mrs. Eleanor Temple of 679 Mamaroneck Avenue, Mamaroneck, arrested Monday afternoon on a charge of disorderly conduct, was found guilty this morning by Judge Patrick J. Hughes in Mamaroneck Police Court and fined $10.

Mrs. Temple was arrested by Patrolman Anthony Giannola on the complaint of Irving Lederman, manager of the Wagner Department Store when she refused to leave the store during a Saturday afternoon sale.

Mrs. Temple claimed she bought a sweater in the store on Saturday and had returned to get her money

ANSERS ORDERED TO TEL SENATE OF COMMONS TRAINING

Republicans Call For Probe Into Grain Deals

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republicans called today for a probe into the grain deals made by the administration to consider Anderson's refusal to make public any information not authorized to do so by Joint Congressional resolution.

The announcement was made by Senator Taft chairman of the Republican Policy Committee after a hastily called meeting of the committee.

Taft told reporters that the meeting was called at the request of the Appropriations Committee to make public any information not authorized to do so by Joint Congressional resolution.

In a letter to Chairman Bridger, R., N. H., of the Appropriations Committee, Anderson suggested yesterday that Congress adopt a Joint Resolution of Congress to legalize the action which I shall then be glad to take.

"I have consulted President Truman," Anderson said, "and am confident that he will approve a Joint Resolution of Congress to effectuate my suggestion that names of traders be made available."

Taft said "The Secretary is absolutely wrong under the law." In refusing to furnish the committee the information without a resolution.

The Appropriations Committee is trying to run down names of Government officials used inside information to profit in commodity trading. The Agriculture Department has been asked to furnish authority over commodity exchanges and under this authority to change the names of traders, including names of traders.

A subpoena, or order, for Anderson to produce this information would be issued by the Appropriations Committee. The subpoena was called to meet at 2 P. M. today.

Taft said the committee wants Anderson to provide all the information that he has covering "everybody."

Weather Man At Airport Sees Snow On Way

A winter storm with temperatures as low as 17 degrees below zero started over the Great Lakes from Canada today possibly bearing a load of Christmas snow for Westchester's White Christmas.

Frank J. Sacco, weather expert of Westchester County Airport, reaffirmed his prediction that stormy weather would begin here next weekend and that Santa's reindeer would find plenty of ice and snow on Christmas Eve.

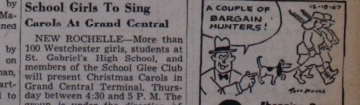

The cold front passed over Winnipeg, Ont., last night sending the mercury down to minus 17, and it was expected to pick up more snow on its trip across Lake Erie.

The lowest temperature registered here was 27 degrees, noted at 8:15 A. M. today at the airport weather station.

ALBANY (AP)—Strong, gusty winds swept across New York State today, snapping utility wires and tree limbs and whirling snow over many highways.

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicted the winds, which ranged between 30 and 45 miles an hour last night, would diminish slowly during the day.

One death was attributed to a trick of the wind. Temperatures fell nearly 20 degrees overnight, after a New York City day in the 40s upstairs and up to 55 degrees in General State. Police advised northern New York motorists last night that heavy snow was falling in Lewis County because of a blinding snowstorm.

Messiah Recording

The Mamaroneck Free Library will present a recording of "The Messiah" at 8 P. M. today under the direction of Bruno Walter, organist, choirmaster and concert pianist, who will discuss the pre-entertainment after it is played.

The recording, comprising 20 discs, is played by the Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Malcolm Sargent, and includes the Hildesheim Choral Society.

All residents are invited and a radio will be available at the library for those who wish to hear Secretary of State Marshall's speech to the nation at 10 P. M.

Party Day

Members of the Mamaroneck Rotary Club enjoyed their annual Christmas party yesterday at the Blue Haven Inn.

Each member took a gift for another member. The gifts, placed in a large grab bag, were drawn out and distributed. Program Chairman was Melvin Collins, assisted by Frank C. Cook.

Tom De Rosa and Fred Vancovy led the entertainment and singing.

Coach Harry Harrison of the Mamaroneck High School football team was presented a silver table lighter engraved with the school in recognition of the splendid success enjoyed by his team this year.

Ends Army Career

Kent Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville W. Wood of 1 Woodlawn Avenue, Woodstock, Larchmont, has received his discharge from the Army as a sergeant and will return to Williams College in the middle of February as a sophomore.

Sgt. Wood went to Japan the day after Thanksgiving last year and returned to Seattle, Wash., where he was discharged from Fort Lawton. He was a member of the 44th Aviation Troop Infantry.

Issues Radio Appeal

Samuel Markie of 44 Monroe Avenue, Larchmont, was interviewed yesterday by the radio and Linn Falkenberg on their "High-Lines" broadcast, describing the work of the American Council for Toys to War Orphans of which he is president.

The national Business and Professional Women's Club is among the organizations supporting the project. Mr. Markie said Objective of "Toys to War Orphans" is the distribution of toys to five million youngsters in European orphanages.

House Passes Bill To Curb Rising Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House sent to President Truman without change today the Senate-passed bill for voluntary pricing agreements to hold down living costs.

The vote was 281 to 73. Forty-four Democrats and 29 Republicans voted against the bill while 178 Republicans, 102 Democrats and one American laborer voted for it.

Democrats made a futile attempt to alter the measure and give the President authority to order allocation of scarce commodities if necessary, but they were overwhelmed by an almost solid Republican front.

The bill was passed after only two hours of debate under procedure that prevented free offering of amendments and curtailed debate. Democrats contended the procedure "was" (Continued on Page Eleven)

Larchmont Boys Fall Into Lake Stir Six Hour Police Alarm

RADIO SENDS APPEAL

BY ALLAN BERNHARDT

Four Larchmont 16-year-olds fell through half-inch ice on Sheldrake Lake, Pine Brook Boulevard and Quaker Ridge Road, New Rochelle, while playing ice hockey late yesterday. Taken home by an unidentified motorist, they received treatment for submersion and were calmly released to their parents. Patrol authorities frantically dragged the lake and attempts were made to locate the youths. Patrolmen in the White Plains, where at three times the management of the Larchmont District Scout Council and Court of Honor held last night in the Junior High School gymnasium. Competing in pyramid-building, knot-tying, lashing, first aid and ice rescue work, Troop 6 earned second place and Troop 3 came in third.

Most unusual from the stand-point of the large group of participants and friends who witnessed the tests was the ice rescue demonstration in which each contestant was given a pocket knife and other improvised means to pull a "victim" from a spot 10 yards from "shore" across the gymnasium floor. Two teams had had luck with their improvised lines and the "victims" were "out," according to the judges.

All events were run promptly by John Forrest, district commissioner aided by a staff of visiting judges from other Scout Council districts. The head judge was Robert E. Pethum, field executive, and his staff, Scout executive John DeCarpi, Scoutmaster Ernest Asensky, Troop 2, Troop 8, Port Chester, and Samuel Bennett, Scout commissioner of Port Chester.

Following the contests, Troop 6 and Troop 3 participated in an impressive candle-light ceremony as a tribute to the Court of Honor. Harold M. Sherman, Jr., Larchmont district chairman of the Larchmont district committee of Honor and individual awards were made by other members of the Larchmont district committee.

Larchmont Troop 7 was awarded a banner for the greatest progress in the advancement of its members since the last Court of Honor.

The top individual award was presented to Scout Robert Gantner (Continued on Page Eleven)

In addition to the officers, the following were elected to the board of directors: Walter W. Berg, J. Gordon Dux, G. Lawson Hoyt and Albert C. Woodruff, Jr.

Give To Gerlach! Help Herb Get To Florida On $20,000! Send Your Old Tires, Shoes

WHITE PLAINS — The first chapter of "Bundles for Gerlach" was formed here today to "dig out our tin cups" to relieve "the plight of this long-time professional public servant who can't get along on his late from the public purse of $20,000 a year."

Old tires, old coats, plugged nickels, inflation marks, Bronx Valley sewer tax receipts and other "junk" will be accepted by the committee. "Bundles for Gerlach" will be delivered in baskets provided by the committee to County Executive Herbert C. Gerlach "before he goes to Florida," it was announced. Contributions are to be sent to "Bundles for Gerlach," 18 Benedict Avenue, White Plains.

Temporary offices of the White Plains Chapter are Richard F. Crandall, New York newspaperman, 18 Benedict Avenue, chairman; George F. Perkins, New York radio executive, 15 Cushman Road, vice chairman, and Carlton G. Huxter, 87 Westview Avenue, secretary.

The "plutiful plight" of gaunt Herbert Gerlach, his financial straits to the bones, struggling to get along on $20,000 a year, is a disgrace to the taxpayers of Westchester, said the Bundles for Gerlach committee.

The committee urges formation of other chapters of "Bundles for Gerlach" from the mortgage-covered homes of Mount Vernon to the shantytowns of New Castle.

"We have been worried about Gerlach's financial straits and starving Grecks," said a committee statement, "wide all the time we have here a potential Westchester to beco road. Let us show our public servant with tokens of our esteem. Let us also send some suitable gift for Herbert."

The committee seeks to enlist "war veterans who are proud of Westchester's splendid housing program" to help in the drive. "Less than $20,000 a year, his wages, whose budgets have not been increased for ten years, 1941, small merchants who are being driven out of business and hard-working petty city and county officials who have missed the gravy train of the Marxists' "County Chairman Platt" says the statement, "apparently has revised the watchdog 'Public Office of a Public Trust' to a public office is a private trust—into our pocketbooks."

PRESIDENT APPEALS FOR 17 BILLION TO BUY LASTING PEACE

Congress Urged To Support 'Bold' Defense Plan

BY DOUGLAS R. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman's considerable cloudiness to commit America to a $17,000,000,000 European recovery program and a "biggest dose of free man against totalitarian pressure."

Mr. Truman proposed that this vast sum be invested over four and a quarter years as "a major step in our nation's quest for a just and lasting peace."

As first installment he asked for authority to spend $6,800,000,000 in the first 12 months. His message outlining the largest spending plan in the nation's peacetime history went to Congress in the closing hours of its special session. Mr. Truman urged swift action when the regular session starts in January, so the recovery program can begin April 1. He predicted the "determined opposition" already announced by European Communists will result in further increments to strike "for the purpose of bringing chaos in the hope that it will pave the way for totalitarian control."

Even American security and the safety of life are at stake, the chief executive declared.

He asked Congress to tip its "grave and significant decision" in favor of the "Marshall Plan" to finish a job on which he said $15,000,000,000 already has been spent since the war ended. The decision, he said, will:

"Determine in large part whether the free nations of the world can live in peace and prosperity as independent states, or whether they must live in poverty and in fear of selfish totalitarian aggression."

Daily Times Story Pays Off As Man Gets Social Security Benefits After 4-Year Loss

As a direct result of reading an article on Social Security payments which appeared in the Daily Times on Nov. 24, a local resident started to get old age insurance payments which he had been losing every month for the last four years.

The article in the Times pointed out that all persons who reach age 65 should get in touch with the office of the Social Security Administration at 200 North Avenue, New Rochelle to check on whether they have any Social Security payments coming to them.

This man (whose name cannot be revealed because Social Security records are confidential) lost $1,106.30 up to the time he started getting benefits in November 1947. He had worked in a job covered by Social Security up to 1942. At that time, although he was entitled to payments, he did not file a claim for Social Security insurance payments as he was not notified by the Social Security Administration because of the expense involved.

At one time the Government notified everyone holding a Social Security number at the time the person became 65.

However, this practice has been abandoned because the Social Security Administration because of the expense involved.

In 1943 the local resident took a job with a non-profit organization, which is not covered under Social Security. As a result he could have been drawing payments since 1943. (The only way on a person who is entitled to them cannot draw payments is because he may be working under Social Security. If a person works in a job not covered by Social Security he can receive payments.)

Mr. Blank was lucky in one respect. He saw The Daily Times article on Nov. 24th and called at the Social Security office in New Rochelle on Friday, Nov. 28, the last working day of the month. If he had let his visit go until Monday, Dec. 1, he would have lost another monthly benefit of $20.

Rally 'Round The Tree

Churches of Mamaroneck and Larchmont will start the observance of the Christmas season with special musical programs at all services of which will be found on page 4. Climaxing the day's observance will be the first annual Christmas community-wide sing before the Village Yule tree in front of the Mamaroneck Municipal Building. Freecited by the playing of chimes from the tower of St. Thomas's Church, the community program will feature seasonal and popular songs led by F. J. Conklin and J. Ellsworth Olsen, directors of music in the local schools.

Members of the Bellows High School Band will provide a companion for the program scheduled to start at 6:15 P.M.

Come One, Come All

The Town of Mamaroneck Fire Department Christmas Party for the children, between the ages of 2 and 12, from the Unincorporated Area will begin at 7 P.M. tomorrow in the Weaver Street Fire House.

Recorded Christmas carols will be played while the children are being seated, followed by the singing of carols by the children. J. Fred Coates, composer of the famous "Santa Claus is Coming to Town" will lead the singing.

Three reels of Terrestrial cartoons will be shown, after which refreshments consisting of ice cream, cookies and soft drinks will be served.

Paul Luther, well-known radio announcer, will act as master of ceremonies and will introduce a famous magician who will perform several tricks.

Following the singing of more Christmas Carols, the highlights of the three-hour program will take place when Santa Claus will make his appearance from the sky.

He will be assisted by his volunteer firemen who will distribute presents, candy and oranges to each child. Martin Boek and Fred Zulich are co-chairmen of the annual party.

Story Of Synthetics

The use of many synthetic materials was described in a report of the Larchmont Rotary Club yesterday at the Larchmont Lodge by Dr. F. H. Yankovsky, executive director of the Stamford Research Laboratories of the American Cyanamid Company.

Dr. Yankovsky explained the treatment of cloth and leather and also various laminated plastics and woods.

Visitors included Professor T. James Aron and the chemist and Art Haverly, Jr., of Yonkers.

Next Friday, the club will hold its annual Christmas party at which each member will bring a child.

A/S Dahlgren enlisted in the Navy last October for a three-year period. He expects to be assigned to a ship or station upon his return to Great Lakes.

Cvaniga Draws $200 Fine For Bookmaking

Dave Cvaniga of 423 Boston Park, Larchmont, owner and operator of the Broadway Bookery, who was convicted of bookmaking at a jury trial Wednesday night, was fined $200 this morning by Judge Wesley M. Messersmith in Town of Mamaroneck Police Court.

Cvaniga was found guilty of bookmaking by a jury of five men and one woman at the trial, which lasted more than four hours. It was the second trial, the first being declared a mistrial when a Bronx attorney for the complaining witness, Anthony Amorosa, called the proceedings a "mockery."

Town police arrested Cvaniga on Oct. 15 after Amorosa and two others complained they had been chased out of the diner by Cvaniga who believed had been double-crossed and refused to pay $11.00 in winnings. Amorosa, previously convicted for gambling, testified he had made bets with Cvaniga the day before.

3 Veterans Appointed Patrolmen

Village Board Names 2 Men From Buchanan, One From Ossining

START WORK JAN. 1

Three disabled veterans were appointed to the Mamaroneck Police Department at a special meeting of the Board of Trustees Wednesday night.

They are John F. DiGiorgio of Ossining and Norman Van Tassel and Louis Fritchard, both of Buchanan, whose appointment by the board is effective Jan. 1 at a salary of $2,850 per year. Fritchard and Van Tassel, both Navy veterans, have previous police experience as special officers with the Westchester County Parkway Police. They are also graduates of the police school conducted by the County Jail under the sponsorship of the F.B.I., the Sheriff's Association and the New York State Police Chief's Association. DiGiorgio, who served with the Army, has no police experience.

The men were selected from a certified pool list of seven men who had signed on their applications that they desired to work in the Village of Mamaroneck.

They were selected from a list of 100 men who had applied for the position of Patrolman Frank Nask, Thomas Slough and Joseph Tolve, who are on provisional appointment.

The Town of Mamaroneck and Village Board have not yet appointed any other appointments.

Cancelled Of 1948 Derby Proves Big Disappointment To Majority Of Residents

Editor's Note: This is the eighth in a series of interviews with citizens on important issues of the day, appearing every Saturday in "The Daily Times." Today's question is: "What do you think of Chevrolet's action in eliminating Mamaroneck and Larchmont from the All-American Soap Box Derby?"

FRED T. WILSON, 420 South Barry Avenue, Mamaroneck: "No, I don't like it either. The Mamaroneck Soap Box Derby, of which I had the privilege of being the first general chairman has become an institution in the Village and Town of Mamaroneck and we don't like the idea of being arbitrarily told that we can't have any more under the sponsorship of Chevrolet. I believe we should continue the Soap Box Derby without Chevrolet's sponsorship as I feel there is enough support in the community to enable us to offer some sort of a scholarship."

BARNEY EPSTEIN, 741 Halsted Avenue, Mamaroneck: "Chevrolet's action to eliminate Mamaroneck and other small 'grass root' communities localized the Derby is in my opinion, a very short-sighted and indefensible decision."

"They could have very easily extended the national finals to two or three days, if necessary, until a champion was selected. The feeling they have created for themselves will tend to do more damage than can be imagined. The feeling that the youngster will have will be one of discouragement."

"It suggests in this day and age of 'big business' and 'consolidation'—Chevrolet felt it was a smart move. They have certainly made a 'bomber' and it will result in being 'penny wise and pound foolish'."

MRS. F. P. McGOUGH, 506 Prospect Avenue, Mamaroneck: "I'm thoroughly disappointed. I feel especially sorry for the children in that they won't have the pleasure of anticipating the event."

WALTER L. HETTHAUS, 645 Wood Street, Mamaroneck: "I think it is very unfair and un-sportsmanlike for Chevrolet to eliminate Mamaroneck and Larchmont after they helped to make it an advertising stunt for the village, which did not think it worthwhile to participate in the beginning can now get in the parade. Chevrolet always emphasized sportsmanship in the Soap Box Derby. Hereafter, they will have to admit it is an advertising stunt for the benefit of newspapers and Chevrolet dealers in large cities. It would have been more fair to eliminate towns and cities which did not or could not have 25 or more cars in their local races."

MRS. RUDOLPH E. NIELSEN, 13 Bay Avenue, Larchmont: "I feel the Soap Box Derby had become too commercial and although the cars were supposed to be the product of the child's work, it had been professional help and the competition became unfair."

THE REV. HERBERT F. LANDES, 1 Bay Avenue, Larchmont: "I think the great enthusiasm and interest in the event stirred up by competitive projects are good for young people. I think it would be to continue the local race."

JEROME KLEIN, 2 West Avenue, Larchmont: "It is the privilege of Chevrolet to sponsor or not to sponsor any project it sees fit. I don't feel the young boys need to rely on Chevrolet for their cars."

MAMARO NIPS RELAZE, American Cyanamid Company, under the direction of Fire Chief Michael Crispien was called out at 3:14 P.M. yesterday to quell a brush fire on a lot adjacent to the Junior High School on the Boston Post Road. One had no car in the lot. Lieut. Herman Paulk reported the fire.

MARSHALL PLAN DUE FOR ROUGH GOING AS BOTH SIDES ATTACK

G.O.P. Lining Up Behind Taft For Annual Program

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Sharp attacks from both Republican and Democratic ranks today forecast rough going for the four-year, $17,000,000 Marshall Plan which will come back to work Jan. 6.

Republican leaders—excluding Senator Wadsworth of Michigan—apparently were lining up behind the program of the Senate (R-O) which any formal pledge of European aid be limited to one year.

Taft wants Congress to review the program annually and decide whether it should be continued. This found favor with at least Gov. Leverett Saltonstall, Edw. C. Johnson of Colorado, who told a reporter:

"I am opposed to this Congress committing future Congresses. I don't want to furnish some form of surplus food supplies to permit its safety to export more than half of the amount the President requested during the next 15 months."

President Truman asked for a $6,500,000 outlay in the 15 months beginning April 1, when stop-gap relief for France, Italy and Greece will expire for a total of $22,000,000 provided.

Congress provided $322,000,000 to send food, fuel and fertilizer to those nations in legislation approved just before the end of the special session last night.

Approval of this measure, generally accepted as the foundation of the Marshall Plan, indicated that eventually the lawmakers will agree to furnish some form of economic aid to the 16 non-Communist nations of Western Europe.

But the amount and the method of the aid is still in question. Shorter Period Possible.

There was some indication, for instance, that the Administration might be willing to retreat from the President's request for approval of a plan covering the full four years.

Sen. Hatch (D., N. M.), a close personal friend of Mr. Truman and a strong supporter of the program, told a reporter that if a year by year commitment is the price for getting the economic aid underway, he would be willing to go along.

Sen. A. W. Capper (R., Ill.), House Republican who said he hopes the program can be "shortened," said he would support the program if the Administration declines to make an immediate comment on the President's message submitting the long range recovery program.

But he told his colleagues that "what we do now will determine whether there is to be a third world war and whether the United States is to be fatally isolated in an economically Communist world."

Democratic Leader Barkley said he believes Mr. Truman had arrived at a "conservative figure" on the cost of the aid program, and that he hopes Congress will approve it.

Anderson Gets Ready To Bare Grain Dealings

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson today prepared to make public on a "let the chips fall where they may" basis a list of some 14,000 speculators in such commodities as wheat, corn and butter.

Backed by a Congressional resolution bearing President Truman's signature, Anderson told Agriculture Department workers to get the names together as quickly as possible and said he may be able to give them out within the next week.

He already had made it plain the list will include the names of Congressmen, if any, as well as officials in the Government executive departments, if any, who have furnished their bank accounts to large-scale gambling in commodity trading the upsurge in the cost of living.

Work Finished On Interior Of St. Thomas's

A festive service of thanksgiving and blessing of the memorial lanterns which are a part of the interior restoration of St. Thomas's Church will be held at 11 A.M. tomorrow, the Rev. Arthur A. Fenton, rector, announced today.

Mr. Fenton has been completed on the restoration of the interior of the church by the J. and L. Lamb Studios of Tarrytown, N. J., architectural craftsmen.

In the chancel, the heads and bevels of the ceiling beams have been finished with a warm sandstone color. The chancel has a rose tint with alternating floor-dolls and crosses done in 22-karat gold leaf.

Cavalcade To Carry Gifts To 'Herb' As Supervisors Consider His Bonus Plea

WHITE PLAINS—"Bundles for Gerlach is snowballing right at the top hat of the top County official," it was announced today at Headquarters of the movement, 18 Benedict Avenue, where baskets have been lined up for "contributions" to County Executive Herbert C. Gerlach "who can't get along an $20,000 a year and a private income and needs an additional $3,000 of public funds."

A motorcade is being organized, the committee announced, "to deliver tokens of love" to Gerlach at the County Office Building on Monday, at the time the Board of Supervisors meets to vote on the proposed salary increases and bonuses for themselves and County department heads.

An enrolled Republican has offered two trucks for the motorcade and asked that his name not be used "for fear of reprisals."

The committee hopes the cavalcade can visit Ossining, "by his home town folk can join in this outpouring of suitable gifts from a grateful citizenry to his hard working official." The County Executive was not at his office yesterday morning or today.

The first contribution announced by Richard P. Crandell, chairman of the first chapter, was an old McKinley Presidential campaign button, "McKinley and Protectionism—Auxiliary Formed."

"Bundles for Gerlach" is preparing to grant charters to other chapters in Larchmont, Fairview and elsewhere in the County. A real estate man is reported to have offered space in a vacant store in the White Plains shopping area where a downtown branch headquarters could be located, and a collection depot may be set up on the steps of the County Office Building. Associated with Crandell are George F. Perkins, New York radio executive and Carlton Bucher, both of White Plains.

The committee said it hoped to fill the baskets with bundles for Gerlach "before he goes to Florida," but the County Executive said he is not thinking of going to Florida.

Other contributions announced today included a Sam Brown belt "no Oxen can tighten his"; a cap invasion money "for his pension fund"; a can of clam chowder, weather-stripping "against the cold winter"; ten dollars in the amount of $100, the Scarsdale Democratic Club "against the cold weather"; a pair of shoes and an outdated timetable to the West.

Mr. Chauncey T. Scorr of 14 Idlewood Road, had organized "Handouts for Herbert," the Women's Auxiliary of the executive committee, Victor Vignette, 9 Hewitt Avenue, and Walter W. Rostenberg, of the Alexander Hamilton Apartments.

3 Veterans Appointed Patrolmen

Village Board Names 2 Men From Buchanan, One From Ossining

START WORK JAN. 1

Three disabled veterans were appointed to the Mamaroneck Police Department at a special meeting of the Board of Trustees Wednesday night.

They are John F. DiGiorgio of Ossining and Norman Van Tassel and Louis Fritchard, both of Buchanan, whose appointment by the board is effective Jan. 1 at a salary of $2,850 per year. Fritchard and Van Tassel, both Navy veterans, have previous police experience as special officers with the Westchester County Parkway Police. They are also graduates of the police school conducted by the County Jail under the sponsorship of the F.B.I., the Sheriff's Association and the New York State Police Chief's Association. DiGiorgio, who served with the Army, has no police experience.

The men were selected from a certified pool list of seven men who had signed on their applications that they desired to work in the Village of Mamaroneck.

They were selected from a list of 100 men who had applied for the position of Patrolman Frank Nask, Thomas Slough and Joseph Tolve, who are on provisional appointment.

The Town of Mamaroneck and Village Board have not yet appointed any other appointments.

Cancelled Of 1948 Derby Proves Big Disappointment To Majority Of Residents

Editor's Note: This is the eighth in a series of interviews with citizens on important issues of the day, appearing every Saturday in "The Daily Times." Today's question is: "What do you think of Chevrolet's action in eliminating Mamaroneck and Larchmont from the All-American Soap Box Derby?"

FRED T. WILSON, 420 South Barry Avenue, Mamaroneck: "No, I don't like it either. The Mamaroneck Soap Box Derby, of which I had the privilege of being the first general chairman has become an institution in the Village and Town of Mamaroneck and we don't like the idea of being arbitrarily told that we can't have any more under the sponsorship of Chevrolet. I believe we should continue the Soap Box Derby without Chevrolet's sponsorship as I feel there is enough support in the community to enable us to offer some sort of a scholarship."

BARNEY EPSTEIN, 741 Halsted Avenue, Mamaroneck: "Chevrolet's action to eliminate Mamaroneck and other small 'grass root' communities localized the Derby is in my opinion, a very short-sighted and indefensible decision."

"They could have very easily extended the national finals to two or three days, if necessary, until a champion was selected. The feeling they have created for themselves will tend to do more damage than can be imagined. The feeling that the youngster will have will be one of discouragement."

"It suggests in this day and age of 'big business' and 'consolidation'—Chevrolet felt it was a smart move. They have certainly made a 'bomber' and it will result in being 'penny wise and pound foolish'."

MRS. F. P. McGOUGH, 506 Prospect Avenue, Mamaroneck: "I'm thoroughly disappointed. I feel especially sorry for the children in that they won't have the pleasure of anticipating the event."

WALTER L. HETTHAUS, 645 Wood Street, Mamaroneck: "I think it is very unfair and un-sportsmanlike for Chevrolet to eliminate Mamaroneck and Larchmont after they helped to make it an advertising stunt for the village, which did not think it worthwhile to participate in the beginning can now get in the parade. Chevrolet always emphasized sportsmanship in the Soap Box Derby. Hereafter, they will have to admit it is an advertising stunt for the benefit of newspapers and Chevrolet dealers in large cities. It would have been more fair to eliminate towns and cities which did not or could not have 25 or more cars in their local races."

MRS. RUDOLPH E. NIELSEN, 13 Bay Avenue, Larchmont: "I feel the Soap Box Derby had become too commercial and although the cars were supposed to be the product of the child's work, it had been professional help and the competition became unfair."

THE REV. HERBERT F. LANDES, 1 Bay Avenue, Larchmont: "I think the great enthusiasm and interest in the event stirred up by competitive projects are good for young people. I think it would be to continue the local race."

JEROME KLEIN, 2 West Avenue, Larchmont: "It is the privilege of Chevrolet to sponsor or not to sponsor any project it sees fit. I don't feel the young boys need to rely on Chevrolet for their cars."

MAMARO NIPS RELAZE, American Cyanamid Company, under the direction of Fire Chief Michael Crispien was called out at 3:14 P.M. yesterday to quell a brush fire on a lot adjacent to the Junior High School on the Boston Post Road. One had no car in the lot. Lieut. Herman Paulk reported the fire.

Surprise, Mr. Claus!

Santa will be in for a surprise when he moves in for a landing on the roof of the Falkerson's at 305 West Street, Manamouche, tonight.

Daniel Falkerson has rigged up Santa's double, a sheep and reindeer and has placed it on the roof. The Santa, made of paper, cardboard, cotton and cloth, is taller than Mr. Falkerson, the sleigh is made of thick cardboard, and the reindeer is also made of cardboard, but it has real horns.

The chimney was left unobstructed, however, to allow St. Nick to slide down when he arrives.

Mr. Falkerson has four children, Joan, Danny, Dolores and Richard.

50th Annual Party

Engine Company No. 1 of the Larchmont Fire Department will hold its 50th annual Christmas party for members and their wives and guests Saturday night in the company room at the Municipal Building.

The room has been decorated for the occasion, and Santa Claus in the person of Kenneth Hollister will appear and hand out gifts.

Lieut. Thomas Brennan is in charge of the affair, assisted by William Bishop, Ophourse Smith, Jr., Duncan MacPhail and Lieut. Philip Taylor.

Pre-Flight School

A special invitation is extended to college students on vacation to attend the air-age instruction and pre-flight school sponsored by the Larchmont Air Scouts, to be held in the Junior High School Saturday, Dec. 27, Monday, Dec. 29, Tuesday, Dec. 30, Friday, Jan. 2, and Saturday, Jan. 3.

All sessions will be from 9 A.M. to 10 noon, except the Tuesday session, which will be from 7 A.M. to 10 P.M.

Prof. Roland H. Spaulding of the School of Aviation, New York University, heads the list of prominent instructors.

For further information, call Larchmont 2-1888 or 2-2323.

Treat For Kids

Nearly 500 children, accompanied by 200 parents, jammed the Weaver Street Fire Department auditorium Sunday afternoon and were greeted by Santa Claus.

Presents were given to each child as well as packages containing oranges, candy and peanuts.

During the program, the boys and girls were entertained by a magician and several Terrytoon cartoons were shown. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and soft drinks were also served.

F. Colwell Conklin led the audience in singing Christmas carols. The party was sponsored by the Town of Manamouche Fire Department.

Late Visit By Santa

Halstead Manor Home Company No. 4 of the Manamouche Fire Department will hold its annual children's Christmas party at 2 P.M. Sunday in the company rooms.

An afternoon of entertainment has been planned for the youngsters and will include movies, refreshments and distribution of gifts by Santa Claus. Lawrence O'Leary, chairman of the house committee, is in charge of the affair and will be assisted by members of the company.

May Still Be Right

The strong sun was Edward Staponow's only ally today.

Mr. Staponow, assistant meteorologist at the U.S. Weather Bureau Station at Battery Place, New York City, and a resident at the Inverness Apartments, Manamouche, told the Daily Times yesterday that there was little or no hope for a "White Christmas."

Snow from yesterday's fall was still on the ground as the Daily Times went to press today, but the sun was taking its toll. Mr. Staponow's prediction still may come true.

'Twas The Night Before Christmas

Whereas we generally utilize this space to recite verses of the unlimited possibilities in the use of Want Ads... on this night we know no one has thought for anything other than "White Christmas" so we will just wish you and yours "A Merry Christmas" from the editor's good meet when you call Manamouche 2-2100, your Want Ad result number.

Christmas Music Rings Out Tonight

Local Churches Start Joyous Observance At Midnight Programs

SERVICES TOMORROW

A burst of halloes will ring out tonight and Christmas Day will commence at St. Thomas' Lutheran Church with the singing of "Silent Night" by Grier and Kreidel, followed by singing of the anthem by the senior choir, "A Lovely Rose In Bloom" by Tractariet and the postlude "Pasture" by Tonks. The Rev. Theodore J. Possett, Jr. will deliver a sermon on the topic "The Holy Night."

Services will be held at 10 A.M. and 11 A.M. Christmas Day. The latter service will be held in the church at 11 P.M. with the prelude "Silent Night" by Grier and Kreidel, followed by singing of the anthem by the senior choir, "A Lovely Rose In Bloom" by Tractariet and the postlude "Pasture" by Tonks. The Rev. Theodore J. Possett, Jr. will deliver a sermon on the topic "The Holy Night."

Celebration of the annual festival will commence at St. Thomas' Episcopal Church at 4 P.M. today with the visit to the manger and the presentation of milk boxes. The tower bells will be played by Charles W. Hall at 5:30, 7:30, 8:45, 9:45, and 10:45 P.M.

A carol recital will be given at 11 P.M. followed by a choral celebration of the Holy Communion at 11 A.M.

The Manamouche Methodist church will conduct a candlelight service starting at 11:15 P.M. with the hymn "The Christmas Manger" and the presentation of milk boxes. The tower bells will be played by Charles W. Hall at 5:30, 7:30, 8:45, 9:45, and 10:45 P.M.

On Christmas Day there will be a celebration at the Holy Communion at 11 A.M.

Little Peace Seen In Holy Land

Fear Of Violence Cuts Down Pilgrimages To Scene Of Jewry

ONE NEW 2 ARABS DIE

BETHLEHEM, (AP). — Cold, rain-soaked winds swept the Judean Hills today as Christmas Eve pilgrims, thinned to a handful by unceasing strife in the Holy Land, arrived in this birthplace of the Prince of Peace for traditional observances.

Many of them came from Jerusalem, six miles down the road over which Joseph and Mary passed nearly 20 centuries ago today to seek and be refused shelter.

Jerusalem, (AP) — A Jew and two Arabs were killed today in continuing communal violence in the West Bank. The fatalities rose to 310 in Palestine and to 431 throughout the area of the British Mandate for Palestine, when the United Nations decided to carve the state into Jewish and Arab nations.

Scattered sniping and shelling were reported, broken up by a charge of Hagana forces, the underground Jewish fighting force.

Weather Permitting

The recently organized Airbuses Club, comprising 22 members from Mamaroneck, Larchmont, Harton, White Plains and Scarsdale, will hold its first contest for handlaunched gliders Sunday at the Daniel Warren School athletic field. The purpose of the club, whose president is Bob Ireland, a student at Mamaroneck High School, is to increase interest in model building of all types.

Endurance and stunt flying prizes will be awarded at the meet, which is open to grade school students (Group One), and Junior and Senior High School students (Group Two).

The prizes consist of jet racing cars, plane kits, boat kits, gliders, and other small items. All contestants will receive some kind of prize, all of which will be donated by Magee's Hobby House of 629 North Barry Avenue.

The contest is open to all children, regardless of whether they are members of the club. In case of inclement weather, the contest will be held Thursday, New Year's Day.

Thus far, the Airbuses Club has 22 members. A meeting place has been provided by Charles F. Magee at his Hobby House with sessions being held every Saturday at 1 P. M.

All members of the club are enrolling in the Academy of Model Aviation, Washington, D. C., a federal project designed to stimulate interest in this field.

Santa Gives An Encore

Santa Claus will pay a visit to the Masonic Hall on Prospect Avenue, Mamaroneck, at 2 P. M. Sunday before going into hibernation for another year.

The occasion will be the annual Christmas party for children given by Abel Lodge No. 212. The party will be held at the Masonic Hall, 100 North Barry Avenue.

Louis H. Nebel, noble grand, heads the party committee, assisted by Elmer and Harold Radcliff, Charles Tiffen, Ed Julius, Vito Palazzola, William Pickett and George Nichols.

Election of lodge officers will be held at a meeting Monday night in the Masonic Hall.

Joyous Celebrants

The festive mood of residents in the Washington section of Mamaroneck, of course, has been traced to Christmas and all it signifies. But a special note on the back of the year is the Republican Committee, under the direction of Joseph Fallone, which has provided Christmas carols on records at its headquarters, 614 Mamaroneck Avenue. The records were played each night for two hours during the week preceding Christmas Day.

Also contributing to the annual celebration were the light decorations, funds for which were contributed by residents of the section.

Violent Deaths Mark Holiday Across Nation

By The Associated Press

A heavy toll of deaths—death traffic and fires the principal causes—marked the national celebration of the Christmas holiday.

Accidents on the highways as usual over a holiday period, resulted in the largest number of deaths—at least 271. But fatalities from miscellaneous causes were past the 100 mark, more than double the total last Christmas.

More than 30 persons died in fires, including 10 Indians in a gambling shack in Garrettsville, Ohio, seven persons in a small hotel in Orange, Tex., and four others in a dance hall near Frederickburg, Tex. Others killed in fires over the holiday included seven in Brighton and two each in Connecticut and Maryland.

The traffic toll of 271 and 102 from miscellaneous causes for a total of 273 covered the period from 6 P. M. Christmas eve to midnight. For the corresponding period last year the total was 261, including 213 traffic deaths and 48 fatalities from miscellaneous causes—fires, plane and train crashes, asphyxiation, etc.

The National Safety Council, although making no prediction for the period covered in the survey, had estimated that traffic accidents for the four-day Christmas holiday period would total 400.

California led the nation in violent fatalities, with 100 in the last Christmas, but this year's total of 27 compared with 24 last year. This year's traffic toll in California was 21 as against a record 25 in 1936.

Boysed Squad Off To Europe, Fox Reveals

The U. S. Olympic boysed squad of 17 men has been ordered to depart for Europe Tuesday on the ship Arcturion.

America by Avery Brundage, U. S. Olympic committee chairman, in spite of the unsettled dispute over U. S. ice hockey representation. It was learned today that John J. "Don" Fox, Larchmont undertaker and U. S. Olympic coach, is standing part.

With the scheduled sailing order pending, Mr. Fox says that he is ready to announce his decision on the hockey problem.

The Swiss organizing committee recently recognized the American Hockey Association as the U. S. representative at the Winter games Jan. 20-Feb. 8. Through the U. S. Olympic committee he insisted that it had the power to choose its own team.

Mr. Fox and other Olympic officials feel that the A.H.A. is tainted with professionalism. "I believe Mr. Brundage has worked out something with the International Olympic Committee, which so far has stayed out of the situation," Mr. Fox declared.

He should reveal a favorable decision soon or I feel we would not be sailing."

The U. S. Olympic committee has threatened to boycott the games if the A.H.A. is forced upon it.

Mr. Fox, who has been busy with preparations for departure will leave tonight for Lake Placid, where the king and queen of the Winter games will be honored along with the boisterous crowd of spectators returning to Larchmont Sunday night.

Business Enough In Village Today

Persons having any complaints regarding slippery streets or other contingencies that may require aid by the Port Chester Street Department, can call the Village Board, P. O. 1400 up to the usual closing time at 8 P. M. and tomorrow from 9:00 A. M. until noon tomorrow.

The board of trustees, Douglas J. Miller, chairman of the public buildings and grounds committee, turned down a request by the Village Rooms employees to close shops today and tomorrow morning in order to give them a long Christmas holiday. They made the request Dec. 15 on the grounds "there would be little or no business."

Truman Will Sign Inflation Bill Monday

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Truman will sign early next week, probably Monday, the anti-inflation bill passed by the special session of Congress.

Telling reporters this today, press secretary Charles G. Ross said Mr. Truman will issue "an adequate statement" of his views on the legislation.

It has been indicated the President will sign the bill, although he has criticized it as inadequate. The heart of the measure is a provision for the Government to promote voluntary industry agreements to hold down prices.

The convoy was en route to Jerusalem from Tel Aviv, Jewish Agency sources said it was at 10:30 P. M. when it was attacked by half way between Jerusalem and Tel Aviv, and again at Jerusalem's outskirts.

The attack on the second convoy, in which four Jews were killed, was made inside Jerusalem.

Production Record Due Next Year

Ebb In Tide Of Price Rises Also Forecast By Top Economists

INFLATION TO ABATE

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The next 12 months should bring record wheat U. S. production and perhaps an ebb in the tide of rising prices, the government's top economic reporter today said.

The three major influences on the economic pulse during the next year, Dr. Nourse told a reporter, probably can be listed in this order:

1. The weather. If wheat, corn and other crops escape a drought which has hit the harvest, food costs could lead the way to more stable prices.
2. Labor relations. A "third round" of sizeable wage increases, and a new wave of strikes curtailing production, could heighten inflationary pressures.
3. Foreign aid. Depending on how much help is needed for European reconstruction, some existing shortages may be critical. The council already has advocated Federal controls to keep the scarcity of certain goods, including steel and grain, from setting off a further inflationary spin.

Congress thus far has authorized only voluntary agreements by business, agriculture and industry to divide scarce goods. This is a provision of the Republican anti-inflation bill which Dr. Truman is expected to sign shortly.

Big Wheat Crop Seen

10 per cent of the winter wheat, the Agriculture Department had good news last week. Its winter wheat forecast indicated another "bumper" wheat crop—3½ to 4 billion bushels—may be harvested in 1948. But most of the increase is the result of rising prices.

By usual measurements, the nation's production rose in 1947, Dr. Nourse pointed out, and is expected to rise further.

In terms of dollars, the "farm national product"—the combined value of all goods and services produced—probably has hit a record high figure of $28,000,000,000 a year, or about 15 per cent above the rate of $24,000,000,000 last year.

Manila Typhoon Victim List Put At 56 Persons

MANILA, (AP)—A savage typhoon swept the Philippines today, leaving at least 56 persons dead, and portions of Manila were five, said the Red Cross today.

Five other ships were damaged, 10 per cent of the historic city of Tacloban on Leyte was reported wiped out by storm-whipped waves, and portions of Manila were hit.

The latest official death toll in Manila and nearby Quezon City was five, said the Red Cross today.

Earlier, it reported that 56 persons were killed in the typhoon.

Hans Beith, Jewish Agency Leader, Slain In Palestine

JEERUSALEM, (AP)—Arab attacks upon Hans Beith, a high ranking Jewish Agency official, and four other Jews in attacks on two Jewish convoys in the Jerusalem area today, associates of Beith reported.

Earlier, stray sniper's bullets killed a three-year-old Jewish girl in New York, and a 17-year-old woman. Five other persons also met death in the Holy Land's continuing Arab warfare.

Beith was an organizer of immigration for Jewish children. He formerly worked an aide to the late American philanthropist, Henrietta Swoh.

An agency source said the car in which Beith was killed and another Jew was wounded also carried Mrs. Golda Meyerson, acting head of the Jewish Agency's political department, and Isaac Greenbaum, an agency member.

The convoy was en route to Jerusalem from Tel Aviv, Jewish Agency sources said it was at 10:30 P. M. when it was attacked by half way between Jerusalem and Tel Aviv, and again at Jerusalem's outskirts.

The attack on the second convoy, in which four Jews were killed, was made inside Jerusalem.

UN Veto To Be Topic Of Radio Forum Sunday

What should be done about the UN veto?

This question, which is stampeding the politicians of the world, will be discussed by W.F.A.S. Sunday from 4:45 P. M. on the regular Westchester Newspapers Radio Forum, with four prominent Westchesterers taking part in the discussion.

Speaking from the Westchester County Club, with Frances Maritz, Mount Vernon attorney, in her regular place as moderator, the four speakers will be:

The Rev. Jesse S. Thomas, minister of the First Methodist Church of New Rochelle and president of the local chapter of the American Association for the United Nations.

Frank Ewing, a retired New Rochelle attorney, who after World War I joined the New York League of Nations Association and took part in discussions at that time similar to those being held all over the country today. He is a member of the Foreign Policy Association.

Dr. Ignace Danowski, originator and moderator of the Bronxville Community Forum and head of the history and public speaking department of Bronxville High School, and Rabbi Lawrence Schwartz, head of the Jewish Community Center, White Plains.

Thomas urged that the blanks be filled out completely and returned to the United Nations by the 15th of the month.

The topic to be discussed on the Jan. 4 forum is "Should We Have Compulsory Health Insurance?" It was announced today.

Tommy Manville Enters Hospital On Christmas

Christmas brought little joy to Tommy Manville, fifty-six, who was admitted to New Rochelle Hospital last night, suffering from an upper respiratory ailment. He was described this morning as a "civic man, although his condition is not critical."

Former Judge Dies

FAIRFIELD, Conn. (AP)—James O'Malley, 73, of New York City, retired New York State Supreme Court Justice of the Appellate Division, died yesterday at his summer home.

Strauch Jewellers.

11 Auto Crashes Over Christmas Reported Here

Snow, falling at the rate of one inch an hour from 3:30 A. M. up to noon today, turned Mamaroneck into a Winter Wonderland.

Readings taken at the pumping station in the town at intervals No. 1 showed that more than 9 inches had fallen by noon.

The storm began at 3:20 A. M. and by 8 A. M. six inches had fallen. At 10 A. M. there were 1 1/2 inches. The U. S. Weather Bureau said the snow would continue into late afternoon.

The season's first heavy snowfall, partially paralyzed motorists, slowing to a walk while pedestrians, unwilling motorists after workers took to the middle of the roads to find their way to offices.

The Mamaroneck office of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company, reported at 10 A. M. however, that trains were running on schedule.

School children, their faces wreathed in smiles, were making the most of the Winter sports with their sleds and skis, old and new alike.

icy road conditions due to the high snowfall, 12 inches on Tuesday, resulted in 11 automobile accidents over the Christmas holiday. Larchmont and Mamaroneck but no one was injured.

Many cars parked overnight on streets, leaving snowdrifts and hampered the work of snow removal crews which have been out since early morning plowing all streets.

William H. Johnson, Mamaroneck village manager reported all equipment was out, consisting of five tractors with snowblowers and plows attached. The first truck went out at 7:30 A. M.

Commenting on the situation Mr. Johnson said the department has been working to come and we have to make the best of it.

"We will work all day and night if we can keep the streets clear."

"Motorists were warned to stay home unless it is absolutely necessary to go out. Visibility for drivers was near zero today and chains were an absolute necessity. A. J. Foote and James Ward, Mamaroneck, reported seven cars were out sending Post Road, Larchmont, and Palmer Avenue at 5:30 A. M. Five plow trucks were sent out at 8:45 A. M.

"The Mamaroneck Pharmacy, Frank J. Monahan, general foreman of the Larchmont Village Highway Department, said, "but we'll make it out. We're going to have a very quiet village."

Mr. Monahan reported his department had been using three plow trucks today. Mamaroneck was shifting to north, and northwest winds were blowing, which brought a Canadian movestrom to the east were suspended the airport plow crews kept going to clear the runways for possible emergency landings of small planes.

Falling at the rate of an inch an hour, the snow was more than an inch deep at Westchester County Airport in Harrison at 10 A. M., with no sign of a lull in sight.

Hundreds of snow removal men working on streets, parkways and roads, basing keeping ahead of the fall—and State Police Sgt. Alvin Johnson, in charge of Troop K barracks at Hawthorne said the drifts were getting ahead of some snow-removal gangs.

Johnson warned motorists to "stay home unless it is absolutely necessary to go out." Parity Police reported only a few minor accidents.

Visibility for drivers was near zero today and chains were an absolute necessity as the year's first big snowfall blanketed the county.

Frank Socy, Westchester County Agency long-range forecaster, who had predicted the holiday would usher in "hard winter" said the storm had come up the East Coast from Florida, freezing when it hit into north winds from Canada.

"The snow was badly damaged and had to be towed away after they skidded and collided Wednesday at the intersection of Chatsworth and Vanderburgh avenues, Larchmont police reported."

James J. O'Connor of 830 Stiles Avenue, Mamaroneck, told police he was going about 10 miles an hour when his car skidded east on Vanderburgh came on onto Chatsworth. O'Connor said when both put on their brakes they skidded and hit head on. Operator of the other car was Mrs. Helen R. Torres of 40 Mamaroneck Avenue.

Combing The Town

Storm Stalls Us, Too

Only a few Daily Times trucks were able to negotiate the streets yesterday afternoon and so only a few stands and curbside boys were supplied with their papers.

Circulation Department crews are making arrangements to deliver Friday's and Saturday's papers today. In some cases where trucks can use main plowed streets they will drop off bundles and boys can come from the streets to get them.

In this way it may be possible to distribute Friday's papers during the morning and this afternoon's papers on second runs.

All's Serene

Usually when a car is stalled at the busy and dangerous intersection of Boston Post Road and Mamaroneck Avenue, it's close to a miracle if it isn't crashed by an oncoming truck and another vehicle proceeding at a high rate of speed.

But not today. A Pelham dairy truck sat uncontentedly all morning right in the geometric center of the intersection, wasn't scratched by a truck and probably won't be until its driver returns to dig it out. The small could outrun a truck under such conditions as prevail.

Gets Promotion

Martin E. Rose, son of Mr. Harry A. Rose, of 17 Centre Avenue, Larchmont, has been promoted from Technician Fifth Grade to Technician Fourth Grade for his work at the station with the 118th Medical Station Hospital in Fukuoka, Kyushu, Japan.

T. Rose enlisted in the army on September 18, 1946, at Fort Dix, N. J., and after completing the basic training at Fort Belvoir, Mo., was shipped to Japan for sea service in December, 1946. Prior to entering the service he attended Mamaroneck Senior High School.

In Tokyo Area

T. S. George B. Stoddard, son of Mrs. George D. Stoddard of 88 North Chatham Avenue, Larchmont, is stationed at the 12th Cavalry Regiment, which is part of the famous First Cavalry Division on occupation duty in the Tokyo-Yokohama area of Japan.

He entered the Army in September, 1946, and went overseas in December, 1946.

Greeks Seek To Outlaw All Leftist Groups

ATHENS (AP)—Fighting between the Greek Army and Communist guerrillas continues in the Konitsa-Iannina region of Northwestern Greece. The Government reportedly pushed plans for outlawing the Communist Party.

Greek troops, fighting up the main highway connecting the two towns, made contact with guerrillas holding the vital Bourzouzi Bridge in the Konitsa area. Guerrilla communications lines from Ioannina.

Guerrilla forces meanwhile were reported employing artillery and mortars extensively in an effort to prevent any reinforcement of the Konitsa Garrison, which already has been attacked three times and is in a state of semi-siege.

A third Army communication said 65 guerrillas were killed and 63 taken prisoner in northern Greece during the past 24 hours. The advancing Government relief forces smashed a strong guerrilla defense point five miles northeast of Kalsipi, and press reports from Agrinio, 100 miles north of Konitsa, said more than 200 guerrillas were inflicted on a 1,500-man guerrilla force which barricaded itself in the Village of Kato Provasa, 12 miles to the East.

In Athens, the Government, reacting to the proclamation of a Greek Communist State, was said to be preparing to pass a law outlawing the Communist Party and certain other leftist groups. The new law reportedly would be based on a similar one enacted under the late Premier Eleutherios Venizelos, but with more severe penalties. The old law has not been enforced in recent years.

Plane Drops Food To Stranded Cats
A plane equipped with skids and piloted by Al Bennett took off from Westchester County Airport in Harrison at 10 A. M. today to drop food to two Parkway policemen stranded by snow drifts in a police booth at Croton Point Park last yesterday.

The plane was rigged with skids last night to be used for any emergency. Half hour after County Commissioner of Public Works James Hardie asked aid to the two policemen the plane, an Aeromax Champion, took off.

Manager Robert Gallaway of the Airport, announced this morning the plane would be available for use at the discretion of any others in dire need of aid.

DRIVER LIES IN BLIZZARD AS STORM STALLS TRUCKS AND ROAD TRAFFIC

DRIVER LIES IN BLIZZARD AS STORM STALLS TRUCKS AND ROAD TRAFFIC

Police Rush Six To Hospitals In Race With Storm

Nearly every object that moves was brought to a standstill yesterday in the most crippling snow storm ever to strike this area.

The 26 to 30 inch snowfall exceeded all previous levels in recorded history.

Four county deaths, one in Mamaroneck, were attributed to the storm. While one man collapsed here from exhaustion and six expectant mothers were rushed to White Plains Hospital, Port Chester and St. Vincent's Hospital of police.

The storm crippled the county, halting trains for the first time since the blizzard of '88—except for the strike of '46. Buses were completely mired from late afternoon until 10 P. M. today.

The New Haven operated trains from Grand Central last night to Westchester and Connecticut as often as possible, since operations on a half-hour headway, its main power lines, made operations possible when snow on the third rail halted the New York Central line.

The first buses pulled on short lines from Port Chester to Rye. From White Plains buses were sent on irregular schedules to Elmsford and to Port Chester. The first bus from Port Chester to White Plains was out on the third rail at 8:45. A line of White Plains was open out to Bryant, and other communities reported similar short-haul service.

Traffic on Boston Post Road has been snarled since yesterday afternoon. The main road was completely blocked by this morning's traffic was still tangled on the Post Road hills in front of the storm's snow a pain to the street.

Only main thoroughfares were open to slow moving traffic and town police were running cars, and trucks through Weaver Street and Town Avenue to bypass the Post Road jam.

Larchmont is virtually snowbound, with its breakdown of its two large plows and with a third small plow called in, as it was useless. Frank J. Monahan, general manager of the highway department, is postponing they are making every effort to hire bulldozers from private contractors.

The Town Department has all of its plows operating after one broke. A rush trip to New York was made for a new plow and repairs were made. Plows worked all day through the night in an attempt to keep the main arteries open. Supervisor Owen A. Mandeville personally took charge of operations, and was driving a plow himself until dawn today.

Mamaroneck Village Manager William H. Johnson reported all equipment out and operating since early yesterday morning. He stated that he hoped to have the village streets plowed by tonight. All kept open. Throughfares have been kept open.

Jacob Walker, 45, of New Rochelle, died of a heart attack while shoveling snow from a truck stalled in a snow drift on Boston Post Road near Ketter Avenue at 4:13 P. M.

Walker, who was a helper on Ruppert beer truck, was carried by the driver, Joseph Vesce, of New Rochelle, and onlookers to the offices of Dr. Nolan H. Baird, where he was pronounced dead.

According to Vesce's statement to Mamaroneck police, they were traveling west on Post Road at about 9 P. M. when they became stuck in a snow drift. Both he and Walker got out and shovelled snow as best as they could to start up. Walker collapsed.

Dr. Paul Macneaney, Maurice Thomas collapsed in front of McNeaney's at 303 12th Street, Mamaroneck, at 5:13 P. M., while on his way to work at the Pure Food Factory. He recovered from his over-exposure but was transported to a jeep owned and operated by Leo Jubb, which was pressed into service by Mamaroneck police.

Fire Chief of the three communities issued an appeal to all residents to use the utmost caution in preventing fires and asked residents to report any fires immediately. (Continued on Page Three)

P. J. Hughes Dies In His 69th Year

Village Court Justice Succumbs Suddenly As He Sleeps At Home HELD POST 10 YEARS

Patrick J. Hughes for 10 years Justice of the Mamaroneck Court of Special Sessions, died suddenly at 9 P. M. yesterday at his home, 415 Hinman Place, his mamaroneck. He was 68 years of age.

Death, believed to have been caused by a brain hemorrhage, came to Judge Hughes as he slept in his living room at the house.

His wife, Mrs. Florence W. Hughes, had been shoveling a path outside their home during yesterday's blizzard, found him dead upon her return to the house.

The short, heavy set, bespectacled justice occupied the local bench in 1937, and had just elected for his successive four-year terms. His current term had two unexpired years.

Born in Canada, Judge Hughes received his Bachelor of Laws degree from New York University in 1906. Always a keen student of human nature, he served as an inspector for the Treatment Department of New York City while attending law school.

Educated in public schools in the New York City, he also attended the Evening High School there from 1904 to 1908 at 23 years of age.

Justice Hughes had been appointed to the bench in 1937, Judge Hughes had served as assistant attorney general of the State of New York in which capacity he prosecuted violations of the State Labor Law for sanitary and safety conditions, fire hazards and guarding of dangerous machinery, child labor, employment of women after hours, employment of children on dangerous machinery, wages, claims and violations of the Workmen's Compensation Law in the courts of New York City and State.

Justice Hughes came by his legal career accidentally. No members of his immediate family and none of his relatives were engaged in law. He applied to military training at West Point.

But his father, a salt cutter in a fall on the East Side of New York, disappointed of his own ambition and Judge Hughes turned attention to medicine, a field which career he was unable to qualify.

After attending the College of the City of New York, he enrolled in the N.Y. Law School, emerging with an LL.B. degree.

Judge Hughes had been a resident of Mamaroneck for 22 years and was a member of the Mamaroneck Lodge of the Veterans of the 12th Regiment of the National Guard.

He is survived by Mrs. Hughes and a brother, James Hughes of Valley Stream, L. I.

Funeral services will be held at 2 P. M. Tuesday at his home with the Rev. Arnold A. Penton, rector of St. Thomas's Episcopal Church officiating.

People Urged To Save Food

WHITE PLAINS—Health Commissioner William A. Holla appealed to all Westchester people to conserve food and oil. He declared that snow blocked roads will prevent local deliveries of milk and food.

Dr. Holla said that residents should keep temperatures in their homes at a minimum to save fuel and oil. He urged people to run out of it before deliveries start again.

Rest Charged With Bookmaking

NEW YORK—Sol Rosen of 322 Wagner Avenue, Mamaroneck, was arraigned before Magistrate Eugene R. Canino in Gambler's Court here Wednesday on a bookmaking charge. Bail was set at $200 pending hearing on January 13.

Rosen was arrested by Detective Joseph A. Reilly of the 3rd Division in cafes at 520 Eighth Avenue, New York, where he reportedly took bets from three men. Reilly quotes Rosen as saying he has been "making money for about two weeks because I need money for the holidays."

All Westchester Paralyzed As 25-Hour Blizzard Tops Snowfall In Winter Of '88

NYC Girding To Meet Health Peril Of Storm

The Blizzard of '47 is over—except for the shoveling; the Weather Bureau says more snow is in sight for the Westchester area.

The storm really crippled the County, halting the trains for the first time since the blizzard of '88—except for the strike of '46. Buses were completely mired from late afternoon until 10 A. M. today.

Four deaths were due to the storm. In Elmsford, Pelham, Mamaroneck and Yonkers, the 26 to 30-inch snowfall exceeded all previous levels in recorded history and created great danger from fires. Fortunately there were only a few minor blazes which householders were able to put out themselves.

Park Commission crews worked through the night, and today had two lanes open on the Bronx River Parkway, but State Police warned its extension, the Taconic State Parkway is dangerous. The troopers made a dozen rescues last night, carrying motorists from their stalled cars. Only one lane was open on each of the Saw Mill and Hutchinson River Parkways at 10:30 A. M. and they were described as barely passable for cars wearing chains.

The expansion of the Hutchinson, the Merritt Parkway in Connecticut was re-opened to cars with chains, but the situation in Queens as "bad."

Acting Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri said as the meeting started that particular emphasis would be placed on "police, fire, food and shelter."

The storm, sweeping in with surprise fury a city yesterday, surpassed the 20-inch downpour left by the famous blizzard of 1988. It pelted the area with an average hourly fall of 1.8 inches and 45 minutes after 15 hours and 45 minutes.

At least 37 persons lost their lives in the storm belt which embraced parts of New England, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and southeastern New York and extended south to include Washington, D. C.

Between Island Railroad, transportation link between the City and Nassau and Suffolk counties, was hardest hit by the storm. Steam locomotives were operated but the electrically operated sections of the railroad were badly disrupted. Hundreds of passengers were stranded in trains during the freezing night.

Buses between New York and New Jersey were operating only on main highways. The Hudson Tubes were reported still out at 11:45 P. M. today.

A PICTURE POSTCARD scene made in front of this home at 112 Beechwood Avenue, Mount Vernon, Dennis Rochvo and George Pachiana recall the storm's snow a pain to the street.

Airport Expert Claims Storm A Double One

The blizzard of '47 really was a double snowstorm the city airport weather station at Harrison reports today.

The first one, which began at 8:30 A. M. yesterday dumped 11 or 12 inches of snow on Westchester. This was a moist storm from the south meeting cold winds from the north east.

The second storm hit at 1:30 P. M., when the winds shifted to north-west. This storm came from the north east, despite the surface winds, and dumped an additional 17 to 18 inches of snow on the county.

This second storm let up from 7:30 to 8 P. M. in Central Westchester, but continued then until 5 o'clock this morning.

The first storm began at 22 miles per hour with winds from the north east. Later the north-east wind died to 12 miles per hour.

The northwest wind roared in at 22 miles an hour and reached 29 miles an hour last night at 7 and 8 o'clock. At 8 A. M. today the north west wind continued at 22 M. P. H.

Firemen Ask Public Keep Christmas Tree Lights Out

HARTSDALE—B. R. Fichter, many communities slept in their firehouses last night and would be standing by while the emergency lights. Mutual aid, he added, could not be depended upon until the houses are cleared. Some apparatus in Mount Vernon, Yonkers and White Plains was still snowed in at 7 A. M. he pointed out.

No fire future reported in the Emergency Plan system during the storm.

"We got a lucky break," said Mr. Townsend.

The Weather

Highest temp. near 30, fresh to strong northwest winds, diminishing. Tonight mostly clear, lowest near 25. Tomorrow, partly cloudy, highest in low 30s. High tides today at 10 P. M.; tomorrow at 11:45 A. M.

Resident Featured

Among those featured in the January issue of The American Magazine is Andre D'Alain of 6 Dimitri Place, Larchmont, a prominent dress designer.

Mr. D'Alain, who designs and manufactures dresses, is shown sketching a new creation while his wife and business partner look on. He has offices in New York and Cleveland. His products demand will rise again to a height of about 15 inches. Although he likes the New Look, Mr. D'Alain feels the extreme lengthening of women's dresses came too suddenly.

Long Memory

Retiring Town Councilman Munroe Stiner reminiscing at the meeting Monday night, recalling the Blizzard of '88 and he was about 10 years old at the time and as far as he can remember the "Blizzard" of '47 was much worse. He pointed out that the '88 storm came in March, while the one came just at the start of winter and "could be with us a long while."

City Gov.'s Meeting

All local organizations and interested individuals are invited to attend a meeting sponsored by the Mamaroneck Realty Board Monday at 8 P.M. in the Barry Avenue School to discuss the possibility of making Mamaroneck a city.

The proposal to incorporate the village as a city has been given intensive study by the fact-finding committee during the past six months. A nine-page report submitted recently by the committee will be thoroughly discussed.

Joins Funeral Firm

Dudley Goulden, Jr., 515 Jefferson Avenue, Mamaroneck, was graduated from the American Academy of Embalming and Mortuary Research in New York City on Dec. 20 and will be associated as an apprentice with the George T. Davis Funeral Home in New Rochelle starting Jan. 1.

He was graduated from Bellows High School in 1938 and served two years with the Army Air Forces during the war. He is married to the former Sarah Vest of Covington, Va. and they have two children, Dudley III and Sandra Jean.

Free Beer

The bumpy Boston Post Road is taking its toll.

Unknown to the driver of a Schaefer beer truck moving eastward this morning, several bottles of the brew dropped off as the vehicle was bouncing up and down. An enterprising bus driver on the Larchmont-Post Road line stopped his bus at each bottle dropped off, dismounted, picked up the bottle and brought it back to the bus.

"I don't like beer myself, but I know a lot of the boys back at the garage who do," he told the amused passengers.

Ends Tax Training

Fredrick John W. Viole and his wife, the former Patricia C. Smith of Larchmont, are spending his 30-day leave from New London, Conn. at the home of his father, Walter Viole, 48 Rockland Avenue, Larchmont.

Ensign Viole was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy with the Class of 1946, and from the Naval Submarine School for officers at New London last Dec. 19. Upon completion of his leave, he will report for duty aboard the U. S. S. Cuba.

He is a graduate of the Admiral Farragut Academy.

Ring In The New

In observance of New Year's Day, The Daily Times will not be published tomorrow.

All village and town offices will be closed as will all banks, the post offices, and virtually all stores.

Pact Stabilizing Building Trade Wages Okayed

NEW YORK (AP)—An agreement stabilizing wages in much of the metropolitan building industry until at least April, 1949, and which is punctuated by a stipulate a $2,500,000,000 construction program here, was announced today by the Building Trades Employers Association and the Building Trades Union.

The AFL Building and Construction Trades Council and the Building Trades Employers Association announced jointly that representatives of 27 of 28 building trades involved had approved the agreement and that the other 11 were expected to "fall in line."

Howard McSpedon, president of the council, said the agreement potentially would affect 250,000 members of 23 local unions embracing the 38 trades in New York City and parts of Nassau, Suffolk, Westchester, Putnam and Rockland counties.

McSpedon and Driscoll said the reason 11 trades were not included was because they have agreements with employers extending beyond Jan. 1, 1948, effective date of the blanket agreement. The latter runs until June 30, 1950.

Driscoll said the pact would be signed after both sides had completed a technical study of it.

Rates, recently arrived at by the council and the association for the 27 trades ranged from $1.50 per hour for excavating labor to $8 per hour for hoisting engineers, plasterers, structural iron workers and stone setters.

The two stipulations said the unions had agreed to "abandon" any increase in living cost up to the amount of rise above that 15 per cent. The unions agreed to absorb a rise up to 15 per cent.

DELIVERY MAN BITTEN

Frank Schrader, owner of a fruit and vegetable store at 28 Chateaufort Avenue, Larchmont, reported a Larchmont police yesterday that Fred Muller of 9 Hall Avenue, Mamaroneck, an employee, was bitten by a dog at 12:15 P. M. yesterday while delivering a package to the residence of Mrs. Aba Solomon. The dog is owned by the Solomon. Muller was treated by Dr. William P. Reed of the Colony Apartments.

Distribution Of Veterans' State Bonus Applications Gets Under Way This Week

The distribution of applications for the New York State Veterans' Bonus will begin this week in all three communities.

Herby T. Eckert, director of the Mamaroneck Veterans Service Agency announced that he will establish an office in the Post 90, American Legion clubhouse on Prospect Avenue and will be open from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. on Friday and Saturday.

Churches Here Plan Services For New Year

Community churches will celebrate the coming of the new year with special services scheduled for tonight and tomorrow.

In Mamaroneck, the Methodist Church will hold a New Year's Eve Holy Hour in the Church Parlor and Auditorium from 9 P. M. to midnight. A program of folk games, music, motion pictures and refreshments will be held in the parlors from 9 to 11:15 P. M., at which time a worship service will begin and continue until midnight.

Six More Meets Violent Deaths In Holy Land

JERUSALEM (AP)—Six persons met violent death in the Holy Land today as Jews and Arabs continued to exchange reprisals and counter-reprisals in the United Nations' partition plan.

The killings raised to 457 the total of fatalities in Palestine since the historic decision was announced on Nov. 29.

In Tel Aviv a young Jew was found shot to death in a park. Three Jews—a young newsboy delivering copies of an English language Zionist paper—and an Arab were killed in isolated outbreaks of violence in Jerusalem.

The death of a British constable as he was being bombed in Jerusalem several days ago, factually for the day's sixth fatality.

Two Jews were wounded when a bus was sprayed with gunfire and then bombed near the Arab office in Jerusalem. An Arab bus also was the target of small arms, but there were no casualties.

Liquor stores are well supplied, despite curtailed deliveries due to the snow, but no liquor or beer trucks came in yesterday.

ALBANY (AP)—State Commerce Commissioner Harold Keller said today business activity reached a peak in his New Year forecast, but he can look forward with considerable confidence to continued prosperity in 1948.

Keller said, however, that "conditions of a definitely undisturbed nature" also had developed for factors contributing to the high level of business.

He warned:

"Labor's" "agitated stay-on-the-job" record and the "diversity" of the state's business units, large and small, also are factors, Keller said.

"During the past year," Keller said in a statement, "business activity in New York has been at a higher level than any other state has ever known."

Keller said there were 540,000

Rising Tide Of Prices And Record Blizzard Top Year's News

HIGHLIGHTS REVIEWED

By MASON GOULD

Two news highlights which affected every resident of Mamaroneck and Larchmont stand out as 1947 passes into history of mid-night.

Locally, people were relieved from the inconveniences they suffered in 1946 from recovering from the Man-days loss of strikes dropped from 116,000,000 in 1946 to the 12 to 25,000,000 in 1947.

Early in the year, the teachers' pay issue reached a climax after Gov. Dewey signed legislation authorizing a $32,000,000 pay raise with the Mamaroneck School Board voting a $525 rise on Jan. 28 and the Rye Neck School Board on Feb. 4. On April 1, the Mamaroneck board added $100 to teachers' base pay and the Rye Neck board added $200. These grants culminated several months of discussion by the boards, teachers' associations, parent-teacher groups.

Housing, just as in every community in the nation, continued to be a pressing problem, although building has on the upward in '47. Families are still living in overcrowded conditions, low-cost and low-rent housing projects are still in the talking stage, and veterans and their wives are still seeking ways and means of establishing homes for themselves.

New York Trains Back All Traffic Not Essential

Plows, working through the night to 6 A. M. today, cleared most of the snow and ice down to the pavement on Boston Post Road between Mamaroneck Avenue and the New Rochelle line.

Up to last night traffic crawled along the main artery at a snail's pace due to the hazardous ruts. Lanes have now been cleared on either side of the Post Road.

Starting at 9:30 P. M., all east-bound traffic on the Post Road was detoured at New Rochelle along Stephenson Boulevard to Palmer Avenue, up Palmer Avenue to Mamaroneck Avenue and back to the Post Road while two plows and two bulldozers cleared the snow and ice. One of the plows broke down in front of the Post Lodge and delayed clearing operations for about a half hour. The equipment finished clearing the eastbound lane arriving at the New Rochelle line about midnight.

Word was then sent through to Mamaroneck police to re-route westbound traffic along Palmer Avenue while the bulldozers and plows cleared the westbound lane arriving at about 2:30 P. M.

In most places snow was removed clear down to the pavement, eliminating rough spots and existing traffic to move along without any tie ups. However, some spots were still covered with snow, such as at a stretch on the Post Road between Orienta and the Mamaroneck Avenue where the equipment was unable to remove.

Police Chiefs Paul A. Yerrick of Post Town, Arthur W. Martenssen of Mamaroneck, and William J. Kores of Larchmont worked with their men throughout the whole operation in re-routing the traffic.

Supervisor Owen A. Mandeville reported that all roads in the Mamaroneck area are open to two lanes of traffic and crews are now working on clearing out catch basins and clearing main parking areas. Garbage collections, he said, are nearly normal.

Mamaroneck Village Manager William H. Johnson stated that crews have cleared all of one side of Mamaroneck Avenue down to the pavement and are working on the other side today, while others are working on widening lanes on the side market. Garbage collections are approaching normal although it is expected they will continue tomorrow in order to catch up.

In Larchmont, practically every road is opened, Village Engineer Arthur Richards reported. He said crews are now working on the widening out of existing conditions.

Chateaufort Avenue between the Post Road and Palmer Avenue is being cleared today and crews will be working on clearing Larchmont Avenue tomorrow.

Garbage collections started on Monday, he has been slow, he said, but he expects to have non-working through tomorrow to catch up. The snow is being worked on the other side today, while others are working on widening lanes on the side market. Garbage collections are approaching normal although it is expected they will continue tomorrow in order to catch up.

Nearly all fire hydrants in the three communities have been covered and residents are asked to use fire stops as best clear of snow.

New York police at the city line were turning back all cars not on essential business and none but local trucks were being permitted in the area.

The snow is creating huge drifts which will mean no public transit tomorrow and children off the holiday.

Incident with the G-E cut, which similar actions which will collectively mark a definite halting of the upward spiral of inflationary pressures.

GE Cuts Prices 3 To 10 PC On Appliances

NEW YORK (AP)—The General Electric Company, expressing the belief that business must show the way in reversing the inflationary spiral, will cut prices from 3 to 10 per cent on many home appliances beginning tomorrow.

The move—first break in the upward price march by a major manufacturer—was hailed immediately by Government spokesmen as an important anti-inflationary step.

They urged other industries to follow suit.

The price cuts, announced yesterday by G.E. President Charles E. Wilson, will affect about 40 per cent of the firm's total business, including its output of refrigerators, ranges and home radio and television receivers.

Wilson said the reductions represent a savings of some $20,000,000 annually at the consumer level.

In Washington, Secretary of the Treasury Snyder praised the G.E. decision as a "constructive step" and added:

"I hope other industries and consumers will promptly take similar actions which will collectively mark a definite halting of the upward spiral of inflationary pressures."
