Mrs. Slough Takes Life With Gun

Patrolman's Wife Found Dead In Her Apartment From Bullet Wound

UPSET OVER HEALTH

Mrs. Ellen Catherine Slough, 29, died yesterday afternoon as the result of a bullet wound which she received while in her apartment at 30-11th Street, Manhattan, when she was shot by her husband's 30-caliber pocket revolver at her home, 141 Broadway, Manhattan.

The wife of Patrolman Thomas I. Slough, who was appointed to the village police force Sept. 8, after his discharge from the service, she had been under treatment for a heart ailment and returned Monday from the United Hospital where she had been a patient for four days.

Patrolman Slough's mother, Mrs. Frank Slough, was visiting at her home to help care for the young woman and their two children, Robert E. Slough, 10, and a younger son, Thomas, Jr., and had gone out to the Army-Navy store at the request of the younger Mrs. Slough to buy a birthday present for Patrolman Slough whose birthday is today.

She left the house about 3:35 P. M. when she was in the police car when she returned about 4:20 P. M., she heard screams as she entered her apartment and she climbed to the third floor to find her daughter-in-law lying on the floor between the living room and bedroom. She summoned a neighbor who helped her get the woman to the bed and then went to the apartment where she summoned Patrolman Robert E. Slough, who was across the street.

When Dr. Enell Verill arrived, he pronounced her dead and identified the wound as a bullet wound. Detective Samuel Bryant then located the revolver two or three feet under the bed.

Patrolman Slough told the police that he kept the revolver, a small pocket weapon which he carries in his pocket, in a closet and that he had just taken it out to see if it was still in the closet when he heard his wife had been shot.

New Record Attained In Polio Drive

Individual $500 Gift Sends Campaign Total Over $2,400 Mark

BOXES YET UNOPENED

Including a pledge of $500 received yesterday, the seven-day drive for an estate, the March of Dimes drive in Mamaroneck now totals over $2,400 with the collection boxes still to be counted. Headquarters, local chairman announced this morning. A total of $312.23 of this amount was contributed to the seven-day drive.

The largest gift of all, however, is the $500 pledge. It comes from an estate handled by George Garfunkel, a new resident of Mamaroneck who lives at 413 Westchester. In a letter to Mr. Saunders, he confirms a conversation with Mrs. Margaret L. Saunders, the committee and says:

"As a co-trustee of an estate of a former client, I have some say in the distribution of part of that estate to institutions which I administer to the needy and afflicted. I know that few projects could be more deserving than that of the heart of the deceased as this campaign against infantile paralysis. Mrs. Garfunkel, widow of the late Mr. Garfunkel, went on to explain that "certain procedural requirements" would make the payment of the money in our committee the next two months and added that this letter is a pledge for that amount and will be honored within that period."

Mrs. Paul Revere Reynolds To Give Her Eyes To Blind

WESTCHESTER TOWN—Mrs. Paul Revere Reynolds is giving a "gift like the gifts of God" to the blind. She is registering now to give her eyes, after death, to an eye bank, so that they can be used to restore sight to others.

Even though the optic nerve is anxious to stay a county-wide movement to obtain other prescriptive eyes, Mrs. Reynolds said, "It is such a small thing for me to do, yet it will mean so much to do."

Eisenhower Is With Bradley In VA Dispute

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The American Legion's demand for a sharp opposition today from other veterans organizations, and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower pledged his support "anywhere, anytime."

Members of Congress appeared chary about intervening in the controversy at this time. A few said they thought something was wrong with VAS functioning, but others contended that Bradley should be given a chance to show what he could do.

The American Legion meanwhile modified its demand for Bradley's removal in favor of a "seasoned businessman."

National Commander John H. Stille said in New York last night that he did not necessarily seek Bradley's ouster and that the General would have Legion support if he could do the job.

He added the problem was a "question of action, not of individuals." It was Stille who signed the letter to all Congressmen yesterday demanding an investigation of alleged VA failures.

The Legion's hat against Bradley was also in evidence when national representatives of Veterans of Foreign Wars, Military Order of the Purple Heart, Disabled American Veterans, American Veterans of World War I and the CIO Veterans Committee.

These organizations endorsed Bradley for the work he had done in the Veterans Administration since President Truman brought him back from active duty in Europe and put him in charge last August. They called for a full opportunity to be given to his plans into operation.

Group To Leave By Plane Tonight For London

NEW YORK (AP)—A United Nations sub-committee planned to announce at noon today "findings" of its inspection of proposed permanent sites for interim sites for headquarters of the United Nations.

Dr. Stoyan Gavrilovich, committee chairman, declared, however, that the committee's interim recommendations would not be disclosed until after it had been presented to the United Nations General Assembly in London.

The committee is scheduled to leave plane at midnight tonight for London after conferring with Mayor William O'Dwyer on the prospects, and desirability of making New York City the UN's temporary home until a permanent headquarters can be built.

Under plans offered by the city, should it be approved by interim headquarters—the assembly would meet in the city during the interim period in the Center Theater, 45th Street and the Avenue of the Americas.

The Security Council and year-round headquarters would make their headquarters in the Whitehall-Reid Mansion at Madison Avenue and 50th Street, an exceptionally large mansion moving to the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, a block away from Park Avenue.

Other offices of the secretariat would be held over in the present Administration and Service Buildings of the Lake Success, Long Beach and 50th Street, which the Sperry Gyroscope Company, a property owned by the Federal Government's Defense Research Administration.

Westchester Fuses

Westchester officials are conferring today with Huntington Gibraltar, American secretary to the State Board of Health, to register a protest against engineers' suggestions that the world's largest dam be built in an area totaling 140 square miles.

The dam, which would be 1,000 feet high, would be built in an area including portions of several towns, has an assessed value of $10,000,000.

Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Geeshaw made an unsuccessful attempt to meet with the committee, but he was unable to do so, yet it will mean so much to do.

Even though the optic nerve is anxious to stay a county-wide movement to obtain other prescriptive eyes, Mrs. Reynolds said, "It is such a small thing for me to do, yet it will mean so much to do."

Thawing Rain Averts Menace Of Icy Roads

Rising temperatures this morning saved Larchmont and Mamaroneck from another day of skidding accidents but the sand trucks were called into service before the thawing rain began to fall. Village of Mamaroneck trucks went out at 5:15 A. M. to sand the Post Road near Lawrence to avoid a repetition of the traffic tangle three weeks ago. Sand was also spread near school crossings and other dangerous hills including the tollbooth section. The Larchmont trucks were ready to go if the need arose but the snow returned to the hills when it was found there was no need for a "dusting" down. Streets and walks were coated with a slick, treacherous, icy coating during the night. The freezing rain did not prevent the forecast by the Weather Bureau yesterday morning. Cars, trucks and buses skidded on the tricky ice but no serious accidents were reported. Residents of Eye found the Post Road safe for traffic with a layer of snow. No other streets were covered. Cars, trucks and buses skidded on the Post Road for about an hour after 8:30. In Harrison one highway department sent sand trucks which returned without sanding because "it wasn't needed."

Evening Classes Scheduled To Help Veterans Complete War-Interrupted Education

As a result of a conference last night with 20 World War II veterans who want to complete their high school education, evening classes in English and American History will be held at the Mamaroneck Senior High School Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, from 7:30-9:30 P. M. beginning next week, Harold Watson, dean of boys, announced this morning. The meeting had been planned for the Board of Education but the large number of veterans made it necessary for the group to meet in a classroom to continue the discussion, Mr. Watson said. In addition to the discharged servicemen, the meeting was attended by Harry T. Leikert, deputy director of the Veterans Service Agency in Mamaroneck, and William Ferschold, director of educational activities for the Reemployment Committee of the National Service Board. The educational guidance committee for the school was represented by Mrs. E. Palmer Weber, principal of the high school, and Charles W. Barrow, principal of the evening school. Since there were eight men taking English and 11 taking American history, those were the classes selected for the evening session. The men will progress at their own rate of speed with as much individual attention as possible and may take final examinations whenever they are ready. The committee stressed the fact that the school wishes to do everything possible to help them complete their education in the shortest possible time. In addition to the English and American history courses, veterans are enrolled in classes at the high school as follows: plane mechanics 1; auto mechanics, 3; pre-algebra; 2; trigonometry, 2; intermediate algebra, 2; business arithmetic, 2; mechanical drawing, 2; typing, 4; speech, 1; cartography, 1; physics, 2; mechanical drawing, 2; shop drawing, 1; electricity, 1; and design, 1. A proposal that the Larchmont Community Chest be appealed to for $4,200 needed to pay a director of the Veterans' Service Agency was advanced last night by Trustee Edward F. Watson at the Mamaroneck Town Board meeting.

The subject was introduced by Supervisor Owen A. Mandeville who reported that he had attended three conferences with Larchmont Trustee Arthur W. Coombs and the committee studying the possibility of organizing such an agency and that the committee recommended hiring a director at that salary although the source of the money had not been determined.

"I told them we had no such allowance in our budget," the supervisor stated and added that the apportionment between the Town and Village would be the same as in the cost of the Honor Roll or about 64 per cent for the Town.

He said he thought it might be financed if it could be set up as an agency and used an organization already in existence but Councilman David A. Embury asked if that would not mean duplication of work.

Attorney Jack DeLus told the board he thought it was his duty to inform them that the attorney general had ruled that cities and villages could not pay the salary of an officer although they could pay for certain office expenses.

The director is a deputy under the county set-up, he explained, and would be paid by the county. "Although I'm well aware that the Village of Mamaroneck is paying the salary of its officers," he said.

It was then that Trustee Watson suggested the Community Chest be appealed to for the $4,200 and the councilmen agreed that it was a good idea since the National Veterans Fund is no longer a part of the Chest budget.

Supervisor Mandeville said he would look into the phase of it and report at the next meeting.

For the last two weeks, members of Larchmont Post 347 of the American Legion have been organizing a veterans' fund in the Red Cross headquarters on Larchmont Avenue but Supervisor Mandeville said office would have to be provided for the work.

Trustee Watson asked if the bulk of the service to veterans would not be over in two years and the supervisor said he thought it would just be reaching its peak in two years. "You're going to need this thing more two years from now than you need it right now," he added.

The committee has a veteran who would be in a military to organize the meeting, he told the board, if the municipalities can make the funds available.

Serving on the committee with Trustee Watson as chairman are Robert MacCallum, Milton Weintraub, William Forensich, Mrs. Howard Shireffs, chairman of the Larchmont Red Cross Home Service, and Mrs. Percy Everett, co-chairman of Home Service.

Outside Drives Of No Benefit To Local Vets

Commander Timothy Gibson of Larchmont Post 347 advised all residents of Larchmont this evening that he has received reports for contributions being made by the Post are on behalf of the Memorial Building, which is now under way in progress and that the post is in no way involved with any outside soliciting by veterans or other organizations.

Several Larchmont residents who reported that they have been receiving requests for donations, either through the mail or by telephone, from various veterans organizations. These are largely in the name of the American Legion, according to Mr. Gibson.

Larchmont residents are always advised fully when interviewed about the Memorial Building. They should be brought to their attention.

Cost Of Living Memorial High, Embury Says

The prospect of a living memorial for Larchmont in the form of a community house was bolstered last night when a resolution drawn to a concrete picture by Councilman David A. Embury who read the Town Board's three-page letter he had written in answer to a communication from the Larchmont Mamaroneck Teacher Council expressing the council's approval of the plan.

Mr. Embury's letter states that he has heard frequently of the proposal but so far has not been informed that any group is at work on definite plans or that the Village of Larchmont proposes to erect such a structure.

He tells the council that a community center, in order to serve a well rounded function, should have facilities for accommodating all groups in the community such as the Women's Club, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the Men's Club and others, including the teen-age groups and would call for a capital outlay of between $100,000 and $200,000. Even more important than that, he continues, would be the cost of maintenance and the custodial upkeep as well as the item of liability insurance. The building would have to be centrally located with ample parking facilities.

Declaring that most of the organizations it would accommodate are now contributing, through rent, to the Memorial Building at Larchmont, he further states that paritarians would have to make up the balance of the cost of the building, but not something like this.

His letter also informs the council that athletic facilities would be provided which would be of benefit to the schools and that the reason the schools cannot put their equipment and grounds at the disposal of youth groups is prohibitive cost of adequate supervision and insurance.

When Clerk Charles J. Grovner finished reading the letter, Trustee Owen A. Mandeville had anything further to tell the board and he replied that he had merely wanted the councilmen to hear his reply to the council.

Councilman George E. Mills, Jr. said he had seen reports for such a building which the supervisor should make available to the board. (Continued on Page Three)

Dooley Not To Run For Third Term Mamaroneck Trustee Plans To Retire From Board In Spring SERVED SINCE 1943

Because of "increased business responsibilities" which will take him away from town from time to time, Trustee Edwin B. Dooley has announced his retirement from the Mamaroneck Village Board at the expiration of his present term this Spring.

To announce his retirement this month, Mayor Frank S. Washington invited Dooley to the board Monday night that he will not run again for mayor and President James Maloney of the Rye Neck school board announced Dooley's resignation at his present term will be his last.

First appointed to the board in April, 1943, to fill the vacancy caused by the election of former Trustee B. Santoro to the post of mayor, Mr. Dooley was elected for a two-year term as trustee last year.

Last month, Mr. Dooley left a position as director of public and stockholder relations with General Foods to take an executive position with the Institute of Public Relations.

During the war he travelled throughout the world in the service of the Navy to study food administration problems in the Pacific and Naval bases in the Pacific and the other for Secretary of War Robert Truett as consultant to a committee studying food requirements with respect to their impact on civilian needs.

In his official announcement of his resignation, Mr. Dooley makes the following statement:

"I have enjoyed the opportunity to be of service to the Village as a real privilege and will always stand ready to help the Village in any possible way.

"My experience as a member of the board has convinced me that I have voted to improve the welfare of the village. Even when I did not agree with the majority, I never hesitated to express my views honestly and integrity. All of us were working toward the same goal and I am proud to have been a part of it.

"I have tried to do all I possibly could to improve the welfare of the Village as an entity, without regard for political factions or geographic divisions."

FRANCE CALLS FOR DELAY ON COUNTY SITE

LONDON, (AP)—Russia and China expressed their disapproval today of the Stamford-Greenwich and New York City areas of Connecticut and New York City, which are quarters of the United Nations, but France asked a long delay in creating a new kind of displaced persons in the United States.

The United States delegation met today and generally favored the idea of allowing the Government of a permanent site to side for the displaced persons to help solve the present difficulty.

American delegates said New York was the best site for temporary headquarters as matters were in the temporary quarters there to five years it was suggested. But Herbert B. Northrup and Clayton F. Mugridge, who were present, said they would not support the plan.

TRUMAN MAY RETURN RAINING TO EUROPE STARVING

President Plans To Ratify Meat If Necessary

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Truman (said) that he would call for a return to meat rationing if it becomes necessary to prevent 10 to 15 million people from starving to death.

The president told his news conference people he thought it would not be necessary to ration meat, but he thought it would be necessary to ration meat if it becomes necessary to prevent 10 to 15 million people from starving to death.

He explained that he was vitally concerned with the prospect of widespread starvation in war-torn countries, accounted for by losses of wheat crops in some countries and other grains elsewhere.

He hopes, he said, that his wheat conservation order yesterday may make it possible to ship 6,000,000 tons of wheat abroad during the first six months of this year.

Friends and allies during the war, he said, are not to blame for their desperate situation. It would be un-American, he added, to prevent people in enemy countries to starve.

Town Firemen Finally Win Appeal To Council For $850 For Purchase Of New Pump

The Town of Mamaroneck firemen finally scored a run last night when the councilmen voted to authorize the purchase of a new pump for $850 for the department's Mack truck, a piece of equipment the department has been pushing for some time.

The councilmen marked the first "yes" vote the firemen have had since the board in some time, having lost out on their request to purchase the fire apparatus on Memorial Day in 1944 and 1945 and having failed to acquire a new fire truck, although Tom Tomlinson, who wanted to buy it, had it in them or from the taxpayers.

A defective burner in the house of F. A. Mannan at 16 Pryer Lane brought out all companies of the Larchmont Fire Department at 11:15 last night. Upon arrival the fire was under control. The firemen were stretched, but no water was used.

Chief John T. Breunlich, in charge of the firemen, gave an estimate of damage which appeared to be confined to the burner with smoke damage to the furnishings and house.

About two hours earlier Chief Breunlich ordered a surprise drill for the Fire Department. The company call was sounded twice, followed by one round of the box number. With this drill all companies of the department except the Hook and Ladder Company, Chief Breunlich said, have been called out unexpectedly more surprise drills for the Hook and Ladder and the Engine Company and may have an additional surprise for the Hook and Ladder Company shortly after he calls them out for their first of such drills.

The entire Department, Chief Breunlich said, "would appreciate it if the people of Larchmont would not follow the apparatus to fire or drills in such a manner as to impede the prompt and speedy arrival of the volunteers. We understand that the sounding of the fire horn is a call to excitement. But when this desire for excitement interferes with prompt arrival of the apparatus and volunteers, it may someday mean a large property loss that might have been avoided."

Please give the men and equipment a good night's rest and get to work before starting for the fire."

Coal Supply Here Called Adequate

No Shortage Expected By Local Dealers In Spite Of Tug Strike

ALL ORDERS FILLED

Despite the New York tugboat strike, Mamaroneck and Larchmont coal owners will not be cut off from their coal supplies, it was learned today after a survey of dealers in this vicinity.

J. N. Lynch of the Chatsworth Coal and Supply Company, Larchmont, declared, "Since we are in the railroad route with supplies coming through, and by April we State, we won't be affected. Water yards, such as those in Mount Vernon and New York, which ship their coal from New Jersey by tug boat, will be the most affected."

Mervyn Connor, of the E. J. Connor Company, stated that their coal supplies also come by rail through Poughkeepsie. All yards, although not amply supplied, can fill orders for their customers provided they are willing to accept the substitute coal and soft coal. Mr. Connor stated, "People won't be able to fuel if they are unwilling to accept their share of substitutes."

R. C. Brewer & Company has been able to fill their orders, and according to W. E. Hare, "We can keep customers supplied and expect it."

Although production and supply of coal has been reduced to 60 per cent of the regular output, it is expected that the winter through, Mr. Lynch declared, "Although we are coming through, and by April we expect the situation to improve even more. Goddard Brothers have been able to supply the water coal coming in from the mines on land, but there is enough on hand, they reported."

Fuel oil supplies come to Westchester County via the water route and will be affected by the tug strike, however.

Alvin G. Mitchell Oil Corporation of Mamaroneck said, "If there is no panic ordering of fuel by the general public, we will be able to see the strike through. Supplies are not yet affected, but it is possible that in 'that case,' said Mr. Grest, "we will have to see what we can do as they do in New York now."

PROPOSAL TO DELAY CHOICE OF UN SITE GAINING MOMENTUM

FRANCE MUSTERS Support To Defer Selection

REBLINGTON, Vt., (AP)—The United Nations has been invited to establish its headquarters in Vermont in a view of controversies and difficulties attending the selection of a site.

In a renewed bid for consideration, Governor Mortimer R. Proctor said last night in a cable to UN President Henri Dagan.

"We are still anxious to work with you and your representatives regarding the solution of your headquarters problem.

"While Vermont is not an area of political estates or of wealthy industrialists, it is a state of sincere, democratic people who are anxious to cooperate with the aims of the United Nations."

LONDON, (AP)—A French proposal that the United Nations delay until next September the selection of permanent headquarters in the United States appeared today to have become a reality in the fight which the headquarters should be placed in or near New York at the United Nations.

Senator Arthur Vandenberg, U. S. delegate, declared last night that he considered favorable the idea that the United Nations delay until next September the selection of permanent headquarters in the United States. He said that the United States proposed the site of the proposed permanent headquarters in the New York City area.

Led by France, anti-New York forces took the Vandenberg proposal to the United Nations. When the General Assembly's meeting opened in New York until 2:30 P. M. tomorrow voters were lining up already on both sides.

Some members of the American delegation, which sought in vain to persuade the United Nations to select a site, said the outcome at the moment was highly uncertain.

A reliable source said U. S. experts in the United Nations proposed to defer the final choice of a site until the September meeting of the General Assembly. It stood a chance to win out if Britain and Russia could reach an agreement to restrict the eventual selection to the northeastern part of the United States.

Stevan Gavrilovic of Yugoslavia, who headed the inspection committee, told the General Assembly that the United States' delay would "give rise to intense agitation" in the United States with groups from various cities campaigning for the choice of their own cities.

Victor Bouzera, French representative, proposed permanent site "writhe more and more." He said he had been objecting to the City of New York in principle, but it was "perhaps the right place to have the headquarters of the United Nations" because of political and nationalistic groups in the population.

Poland and Uruguay last night also expressed support for France's proposal that the UN delay the decision on the choice of a temporary site and wait until September to select a permanent location.

Australia's backing also was gained when W. H. Hodgson, who drew his own proposal that the committee report the entire report of the Site Inspection Committee and urged approval of the French suggestion.

Nations still favored approval of the Inspection Committee's recommendations included Russia, Britain, China, Venezuela, and Brazil.

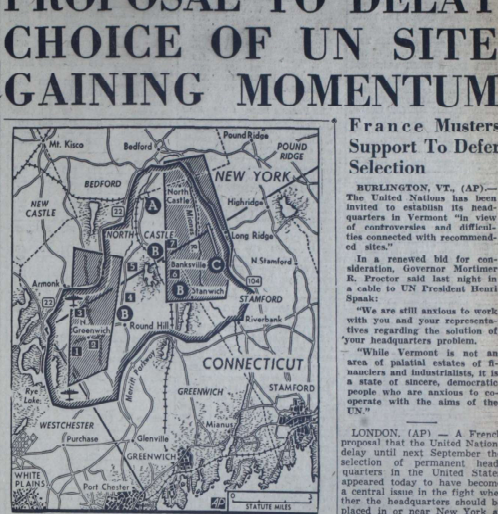

Huntington Gilchrist, member of the U. S. Delegation, insisted that the position of the United States in the dispute "always has been and will continue to be one of neutrality."

Hodgson said that when the site issue was left to London to visit prospective sites it had no jurisdiction over the site of Stamford area. He added that the group had discovered the site of Stamford area and had not reported it on the instructions of the United Nations.

Senator Vandenberg, told a committee last night that the recommendation to purchase more than 100,000 acres of "highly priced land" was "absolutely extravagant."

Declaring he did not mean to judge the geographical selection of the site, he said that the area made by the committee, the House and the Senate, should be carefully studied so as not to pay their share.

He spoke shortly before the administrative committee members approved the 1946 United Nations headquarters site. The committee was reduced from a proposed $25,000,000 to $21,000,000.

LONDON, (AP)—Adjournment of the United Nations General Assembly, informally scheduled for this weekend, was adjourned today by a number of unsettled problems, reported by the United Nations Secretariat.

Westchester Oil Trades Association Will Meet Tuesday

The Westchester Oil Trades Association will meet Tuesday night at the Knoll, Mount Vernon, to discuss the increasingly grave threat of fuel oil shortages due to the tugboat strike. A gasoline famine also is a threat, officials here said.

Text of the telegram dropped at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Joseph Evaristo, 75 Victoria Street, Greenwich, reads: "The Citizens Committee of Greenwich, representing many of the people who believe in the ideals of the UN, petition your government to continue to support the Stamford-Greenwich area as the permanent site of the future peace capital of the world."

County Taxes Are Increased Over Million

TWENTY PLAINS—A $2,214,500 tax levy for 1946 upon the 18 Towns and six cities of Westchester, more than a million dollars higher than the 1945 levy of $11,137,662. The increase is without dissent by the Supervisors late Monday afternoon.

The new levy includes that every one of the 24 municipalities of the County will pay more in 1946 than last year with the sole exception of Somers, smallest town of Westchester. And the Somers share this year is smaller only because it enjoyed a $6,300 tax refund in 1945.

Reply Made To Johnson On Housing

Manager's Statement Brings Answer From N. A. A. C. P. Branch

HEALTH PERIL CITED

"Small pox or yellow fever in any home in the community threatens the health of the whole community. It is only a part that it endangers the whole."

That was the reply yesterday of the Mamaroneck Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to Village Manager William H. Johnson's statement that "for the most part our village contains fine buildings and fine homes owned by the best and the village should be judged as a whole."

That statement, following another in which Manager Johnson said he felt public works were given the NAACP slum report, "does our village no good whatsoever" was answered in a report from the local NAACP headed by the Rev. Charles F. A. Kirton, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Zion Church, and states that the branch is "not asking that the slum be demolished, but that the slum be improved, neither by forcing landlords, neither by forcing tenants to accept a rent for unhealthily living rooms is a favoring done to tenants which it exposes their health and endangers their lives."

"For the lack of fair modern improvements," the statement continues, "many of the tenants who are occupying those apartments are not satisfied and have voiced their disapproval saying, 'The landlord will not do anything, but we can go.'"

Referring to Mayor Santoro's comment on the report on unclean sanitary facilities to the effect that "there is no shortage of soap and cold water in a cold building is no asset to a child's health and cleanliness."

The reply stresses the effect of unwholesome living conditions on children and adds, "We are not concerned with those tenants who have no money, but with the children who are looking to the community in which they live to plan for the future."

Mr. Johnson's report was submitted to the board Monday night on the result of a survey made by him with the five chief, building inspectors, village engineer and the county health inspectors following a report two weeks ago from Benjamin Morossey, president of the local NAACP, disclosing leaks, "overcrowding" and insufficient sanitary facilities.

Age-Price Plan Called Strike Cure

Truman Announcement Followed By Prediction Steel Pact Likely Today

BOWLES IN CONTROL

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Official Washington confidently expects a steel strike settlement today as a price follow-up to President Truman's high wage price line and his choice of Chester Bowles as labor mediator.

Providing price increases for industry to cover government-appropriated steel, the new conversion formula, a White House spokesman said, supplies the basis for ending the walkout of 750,000 CIO-United Steelworkers' strike against the American hierarchy. Other officials said approval of a steel pact broken down by a ton would be a factor in the settlement.

It was said that when Mr. Truman turned loose the long-awaited price change late last night, he also had followed up with a simultaneous announcement that the OPA would be abolished. However, he was disappointed by U. S. Steel and CIO negotiators who were in charge of the strike in a late session but still short of bridging the final gap.

The president's ceiling on the new price was designed to cope with a recovery situation in which "inflation" and collective bargaining "lagging" and collective bargaining "broken down" in many key industries.

It calls for these broad changes in the nation's approach to the wage question:

1. Wage increases must be approved by the National Wage Stabilization Board, which board must see that they do not exceed the pattern of wage gains in an industry or area since V-J.

Higher price ceilings will be granted manufacturers immediately—instead of after six months as now—upon application after an approved wage increase is directed.

OPA Administrator Bowles becomes director of the re-created Office of Economic Stabilization and will be in charge of the specific rules for the new policy.

Hit-Hiking To Job—Harry Wolf, 23, discharged Army veteran, with his wife, Susan, and 13-month-old daughter, Susan Alice, started from Camden, N. J., on an 80-mile hitch-hiking trip to Philadelphia and the couple started hiking, pushing the baby carriage.

Committee For Selection Of School Board Nominees Issues List Of 'Principles'

Dewey Grants Mount Vernon Housing Funds

ALBANY, (AP)—GOVERNOR Dewey gave the "Go" sign today to temporary housing projects in seven communities to provide more than 1,800 dwelling units, averaging two rooms each, for Mount Vernon veterans and their families at an estimated cost of $412,000.

The projects, approved by the Governor upon the recommendation of the State Joint Emergency Housing Board, and to be financed from a $35,000,000 fund recently appropriated by the Legislature.

Mount Vernon—Alteration of two abandoned schools, 75 units, $225,000.

Others are at Rochester, Syracuse, Seneca, Niagara Falls, Auburn and Rockaway Point. All of the temporary housing projects are to be raised after Feb. 15.

The Governor said the steel strike was holding up completion of the conversion of the Coast Guard's Manhattan Beach and Army's Fox Hills, Staten Island, installations into apartments.

He reported that the strike had resulted in a shortage of electric refrigerators and stoves. It will be at least three weeks after the steel workers return to work before these items become available, he added.

Available stock of wholesalers and retailers in New York and other states have been purchased, Dewey said, in an effort to start work at Fox Hills and Manhattan Beach. He estimated the total cost of these two projects at $300,000.

The Governor reiterated that the state expects to get back the bulk of its investment in the temporary housing projects. The Westchester Hillside Housing Developments will be located in New York City, which will have been managed by a private contract.

Next Session Set For New York In September

LONDON, (AP)—The General Assembly of the United Nations adjourned last night on a note of optimism, with delegates expressing confidence in the temporary home of the UN. The Assembly, which approved, with one dissenting vote, the Westchester-Field area of New York and Connecticut as the permanent seat.

It will stand in adjournment until September, when it convenes in New York City, which was approved by the final session of the assembly on the temporary home of the UN. The Nation Now Faces Inflation Crisis, Bowles Reassures

CONGRESS URGED TO EXTEND PRICE CONTROL ACTS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Chesley Bowles told Congress today the nation faces an inflationary explosion with pressure "up to the bursting point."

But he declared that President Truman's new wage-price policy is "a program that will work" and "by design, no effect on food, rent or clothing prices if the bulge in the stabilization line is not permitted to become a break-through."

"I think it is a good program and I mean to put everything I've got into making it succeed," the "W" designer told a stabilization boss said in testimony prepared for the House Banking Committee.

Bowles appeared to urge extending the authority of the stabilization act now set to expire June 30. He called for action by Congress to "stop the inflationary process" if the administration's new home-front program is to succeed. And he said the food subsidy program would be extended.

It would be difficult, he told the committee, "to exaggerate the gravity of the inflationary crisis we face. * * * everywhere men are betting on inflation."

"A speculative fever has taken over the country. The pressure is being put on food, rent and clothing. The lobbyists and the profiteers are licking their chops. It is going to take a lot of decisive action * * * if we are to hold the country together."

Bowles said food prices represent 40 per cent of the cost of living, rents 19 per cent, and clothing 12 per cent. "There will, of course," Bowles went on, "be loud cries from the 'warring' and 'militant' boys. And there will be sober and understandable requests from many farmers for the removal of food subsidies."

Washington, (AP)—Thomas C. Hart, senator and former admiral, denied to Pearl Harbor investigators today that he once definitely told Capt. I. F. Safford of having seen a "Winds code" message in Naval files.

Safford has said that such a secret message from Tokyo came in three days before the Pearl Harbor attack, and provided Washington with an advance warning of the attack, but that papers relating to it had disappeared.

Hart is now a Republican senator from Connecticut. He told the Senate-Hearings Inquiry Committee today that he had told Safford he had "signed nothing" in the files about the "Winds message," but it developed he had not been looking in the actual files.

Spring Stages A Preview

There are still 30 odd shopping bags left until Spring—but by the looks of things yesterday at the beach and around the boulevards, the new season is already wending its woeeful way.

As the thermometer crept up to the middle 90's, the afternoon strollers began to appear in Harbor Island Park and Larchmont Manor Park, but as far as we know, no one ventured into the water—except to feel in from the side of the dock.

There is still ice along the inner Mamaroneck Harbor, but it didn't catch the atmosphere for the 40 or 50 persons who appeared at Harbor Island.

NEW YORK'S FIREMEN ALERTER IN TREAT OF TRANSIT STRIKE

Specialists Also Called For Use In Emergency

NEW YORK, (AP)—New York City's Fire Department was alerted today for possible duty in the event of a city-wide transit strike which would disrupt transportation for millions of persons.

The strike would require municipal officials called in for interviews, 1,000 specialists with engineering, mechanical and electrical aptitudes.

The men now employed in other city departments, who were screened and listed for emergency use in operating the vast transit system.

Leaders of the Transport Workers Union (TWU) have threatened a walkout unless wage boosts and so-called "bargaining rights" are granted.

Fire Commissioner Frank J. Quayle told his men to report for duty promptly if the strike is called. The Fire Department was alerted over the weekend.

He stated in a question on whether the City intended to operate subways in case of a strike, Mayor James J. Molloy, in charge of the Police Planning Board, said:

"Obviously, we will try to run the subways and other transit facilities."

Introduced by Frederic G. Barnard, of the Larchmont Red Cross, she told of the various variety shows, Sunday poetry recitals, musical evenings, picnics, and "Jep" run deliveries of Coca-Cola and doughnuts served to the men at an ammunition dump in New Guinea where she was stationed.

"Boredom," she said, is the most terrific job to cope with, especially now when there is no one to go on. We have to keep the men busy so they won't "drop."

"At a typical base there is a big club in the center of the base and club-mates to serve the outlying outfits and ships. The hospitals are equipped with well trained Red Cross staff doing welfare work, recreation, arts, and crafts," she explained.

The announcement of the Red Cross drive was made by Rev. Floyd E. McGuire of the Larchmont Avenue Church, Rev. Constant W. Southworth at St. John's Episcopal Church, and at the six masses in St. Augustine's Church.

O'Dwyer added, however, that "we will not participate in any organization as sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all employees of the City of New York." He said he had been advised by the City's Corporation Counsel that such participation would be a violation of State laws.

Who is in Washington had been expected to come here today, presumably to discuss the matter with Mayor O'Dwyer. The general counsel for the CIO, said that the Union Chief nor any of his deputies planned to do so.

The TWU, headed by City Council member Michael J. Quill, seeks a $2 daily wage increase for all employees. Quill offers to "step out" of negotiations personally if it would help achieve a settlement of issues at stake.

Some Democratic Congressmen, as well as Republican critics, have criticized Pauley's selection.

Interrupting Pauley's testimony, Saltonstall asked Pauley to "consider" as a patriotic American "asking withdrawal of his name if the committee should find there is no basis for charges against his character."

Both Saltonstall and Chairman Walsh, D. Mass., told Pauley he need not answer if he did not wish to do so.

"I would advise" Pauley replied. "I might say that suggestion is not unique. I have read it in almost every newspaper that I have seen, but I am still here."

As he left the stand, the speaker asked Pauley how long he would need to consider his proposal. He only shrugged his shoulders.

Pauley had just demanded a public apology from Sen. Robert H. Taft, R. N. H., chief opponent of his nomination, for what Pauley termed an "unpleasantness" regarding press articles of his company's oil in Japan.

Hearing Is Held On Rent Control

The bill would freeze commercial rents in the county at not more than 15 per cent above the level as of March 1, 1943. The hearing was conducted by Supervisors James F. Farnsch, White Plains, chairman of the Legislation Committee. Mr. Farnsch said the committee would analyze statements made at last night's hearing and would make a further study before it determines its attitude toward the bill.

U. S. Must Cut Use Of Food, Truman Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—A billion dollar Agriculture Department appropriation bill to help finance an industrial production program and for farm conservation was introduced today.

First Mg pesticides farm insurance, carries funds for the fiscal year starting next October for the Department's many activities, including rural rehabilitation and rural electrification loans and for farm conservation payments.

Along with the bill, scheduled to be debated early next week, the Appropriations Committee made public testimony of Secretary of Agriculture Charles P. Anderson predicting steadily increasing farm production.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman said today American food consumption must be reduced to meet acute needs abroad and called former president Herbert Hoover and others to confer on the problem Friday.

The conference, Mr. Truman said, will be asked to work out an aggressive voluntary program on the part of private citizens to reduce the food consumption in this country.

He expressed his views in the telegram to those invited to the Friday meeting at 3 P. M. The telegram said:

"I am sure you are familiar with the acute need for foodstuffs in the war-torn countries of Europe and Asia. Our national self-interest and our duties as human beings demand that we do all possible to stop the spread of famine."

"I have directed the agencies of Government to do everything possible to this end. But government alone is not enough."

"We cannot meet this situation without an aggressive voluntary program on the part of private citizens to reduce food consumption in this country."

"I am asking you and a very few other public-spirited citizens to meet in the East Wing of the White House at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, March 1, to work out means for supporting such a voluntary program. Do not disappoint me and will be there. I count on your support."

Dr. Nolan Baird, who has recently returned from overseas service to reopen his office at 430 East Boston Post Road, Mamaroneck, turned the spotlight today on the service the Red Cross workers performed in the hospitals abroad.

"Both in the U. S. and overseas," he said, "those of us who were working in hospitals saw first hand the untiring efforts of the cheerful smile and the medical officers and nurses, tremendously in returning the men to health."

"Each general hospital had a separate Red Cross building containing recreational facilities, such as music, table tennis, checkers, playing cards, all types of arts and crafts, and pleasant reading rooms. The Red Cross provided evening entertainment of movies, concerts and shows in their recreational buildings for ambulatory patients and similar entertainment was provided for bed-ridden cases."

"Red Cross workers always had time to listen to the soldier's family troubles and often gave encouragement and sound advice, thus relieving the tremendous load of work on the chaplain, commanding officer and medical officers."

"Many families and soldiers were relieved of worry over each other through the Red Cross, in denying reports and authenticating the necessity for emergency furloughs."

"Having performed these and many other duties, the Red Cross filled its obligations 100 per cent of the people of this community and the entire U. S. should wholeheartedly support the Red Cross in its present campaign for funds."

Mamaroneck's one-day drive is scheduled for Sunday.

SIB FOR MATCH FUND

Harry French, co-chairman of the Mamaroneck Hebrew Institute Match Fund, and Irreducesible co-worker, have reported the receipt of more than $100 in donations for matches for the poor and destitute people of Europe.

Residents who wish to make contributions are asked to communicate with Mr. French at 337 Mamaroneck Avenue. The collection will end March 30.

These are the areas which Mr. Gerlach earlier had requested Gutavita T. Kirby, head of the County Planning Commission, to prepare maps upon, holding them in readiness when the UN Permanent Site Committee arrives in this country.

"If they take something in the middle, say 10 or 20 square miles, they will bother us very little," said the County Executive today.

In his letter to Mr. Simpson, the County Executive wrote: "As County Executive, I shall be very glad to meet with your authorized representatives when they are prepared to discuss the County Planning Commission's proposed plan for permanent headquarters. Our planning Commission has collected and there is available much important data on the area under consideration, which I am sure will be valuable to your committee."

Conroy suggested that the party members discuss the advisability of building a strong organization in time for next year's elections. Mr. Haggerty suggested that a candidate to run unless the party is prepared to support him and to run for reelection.

Mr. Kurrock replied that he thought it was important to put the party in the front at every election and that if a year were given to the party would be in much the same situation another year as far as organization.

Peter C. Doern, Jr., also stated that he thought a slate should go forward and that the party should be organized and for the good of the village.

The village of Mr. Murray was made by Mr. Kurrock and Mr. Doern, and Mr. Doern suggested that the party members to be on the job of the village.

Addison St. Extension Proposed

Larchmont Board To Discuss Plan With 40 Residents Monday

SIX BENEFITS CITED

After nine months' consideration by the Larchmont Planning Commission of the advisability of extending Addison Street from Chatsworth Avenue to Bonnett Avenue, the Village Board will discuss the matter Monday night in the presence of about 40 residents of Chatsworth, Forest Park and Bonnett Avenues who would be affected by the extension.

The notification sent to the residents points out six advantages of the extension as follows: It would cut one of Larchmont's longest blocks, from the Post Road to Forest Park Avenue, in half "for general public convenience"; it would act as a buffer between business encroachments on the residential area "especially on Forest Park Avenue"; it would relieve traffic congestion already existing in the area; it would provide for better parking facilities in the area; it would provide for a Post Office, it would relieve traffic on Forest Park Avenue; it would provide for a Post Office, it would relieve traffic on Forest Park Avenue; it would provide for a Post Office, it would relieve traffic on Forest Park Avenue.

Wounded Pigeon Now Rests Safely On Soft Pillow After Rescue From Vicious Hawk

The unknown pigeon bearing the registered pigeon mark "NYC 840, L. F. 88" can rest at ease. His pigeon is safe on a soft pillow in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Stelle of Larchmont, who rescued the unhappy bird from a vicious hawk yesterday afternoon in front of her home at 53 Harmon Drive.

Blood stains and feathers testify to what Mrs. Stelle describes as the "blood-curdling" attack of the hawk upon the pigeon. The hawk, which was seen by Mrs. Stelle, was seen to attack the pigeon, badly injuring one leg and stabbing two holes in the breast, before swooping off and dropping the bleeding bird from his claws.

After carrying the wounded bird into the house, Mrs. Stelle dabbed the wound with a solution of iodine for disinfection, and was told she had been very daring to rescue the pigeon while the hawk perched in a tree and watched, since hawks are very likely to attack humans." The humane society was making plans today to call for the bird, pending its claim by the owner.

Local Firemen Help Organize County Group

Six firemen from the Larchmont and Town of Mamaroneck Fire Department were among the 12 members of the county-wide Firemen's Association of Westchester County who met yesterday at Mount Vernon to form a Westchester County Firemen's Association.

Those who attended were Michael Gallagher, Louis Williams and H. H. Husey of the Larchmont Fire Department; and Jack White, Patrick Fitzgibbon and John Dymian from Larchmont. Motion to move toward formation of the Association was made by Joseph Hoar of Yonkers.

A full discussion of a bill proposed to the State Legislature to grant policemen the right to retire after 25 years of service.

Mayor William H. Husey told the firemen they must enlist the aid of their Superiors and volunteers of the county to gain equality with police on retirement.

Mount Vernon Assemblyman Raymond Signorino on Tuesday introduced a bill in the Lower House providing right to retire after 25 years of fireman.

Mr. Signorino said that the bill will present a simple operating experiment to illustrate simple but great truths upon which the light, power, telephone and radio industries are based, according to the Men's Club statement which follows:

"In many of the special devices of communication for war, the telephone, the radio, the atomic, atoms of quartz crystals, tiny (Continued on Page Three)

Senators Back Firmer Stand Toward Russia

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate filed today behind the stand of Senator Vandenberg, R-Mich., that the United States is a firm friend in dealing with Soviet Russia on controversial global problems.

The backing was unofficial, since no legislation was involved, but Vandenberg evidently had won his colleagues' support in the formal report he made on his observations of the Michigan State delegate to the recent United Nations session in London.

From Democrats and Republicans alike came unbroken endorsement of the way Vandenberg expressed U.-S.-Soviet relations in his speech yesterday to an applauding Senate.

Senator Mark O. Hatfield, a Foreign Relations Committee member who is a close personal friend of President Truman, said Vandenberg "expressed my sentiments about Russia exactly."

Similarly, Senator Fulbright, D. Ark., who has criticized what he said was the Administration's failure to assume consistent leadership in world affairs, said that the Michigan State delegate "absolutely correct in the essence of his statements."
