FEDERAL JUDGE DENIES APPEAL TO ROSENBERGS

Atom Spy Team Loses Try To Escape Death, Now Seeks Clemency

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal judge today denied an appeal to save the atom spy team of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg and his wife, Ethel, from death in the electric chair, at Sing Sing.

The denial was made by Federal Judge Irving H. Kaufman after hearing a clemency plea for the two. They are scheduled to die the week of Jan. 11.

Judge Kaufman said in denying clemency: "I feel that their crime was worse than murder."

The Rosenbergs' only appeal in this case, I have studied and restituted the record and have seen nothing but his and my responsibility for the case. I would visit Judge Kaufman today to try to arrange for a stay."

Judge Kaufman, who sentenced the couple to death, said in a statement: "I have meditated and reflected long and difficult hours over the sentence in this case. I have studied and restituted the record and have seen nothing but his and my responsibility for the case. I would visit Judge Kaufman today to try to arrange for a stay."

George Marlon Fanelli, fifty-seven, became County Judge of Westchester on Wednesday, Jan. 1, when he took the oath of office before Superior Court Justice Frank H. Gallagher in the County Court.

In advancing to the bench, Judge Fanelli ended a distinguished career as Westchester's District Attorney. Judge Fanelli, who was in his seventh year as county prosecutor, had held that post longer than six years since 1946.

Governor Thomas F. Dewey appointed Mr. Fanelli to the judgeship on Wednesday. He was elected a Supreme Court Justice in 1946.

An induction ceremony, conducted by the County Bar Association, will be held in County Court on Thursday. Presiding will be Superior Court Justice Frank H. Gallagher. (Turn to Page 2, please.)

Stork Snowbound Somewhere, No Local '53 Babies Reported

The stork apparently got lost in Westchester's snow storm, for he has yet to make a local delivery today.

With the year already 36 hours old, no Mr. or Mrs. 1953 had appeared in local papers, either by the usual baby derby, sponsored by the Daily Times and local merchants.

A shower of gifts awaits the late Mr. or Mrs. who can be contacted at 391 Mamaroneck Avenue, where the stork is expected to arrive this afternoon. Boiler Celebrates Probably the hottest boiler in Mamaroneck, on New Year's Eve came from the Vincent P. Conzone residence at 125 West 9th Avenue, and the Conzone family were having a party at the time.

Mr. Conzone, in fact, was working down in the cellar when the boiler exploded, knocking a nail off the furnace, demolishing the front-staircase and shattering the ceiling with red hot embers.

Mr. Conzone, apparently feeling that the celebration had already gone too far, applied for a permit from a fire stationmaster and ordered the embers. He later turned the fire department of the town.

Slippery Roads Cause Eight Holiday Crashes

Half-Hour Blaze Causes $2,000 Damage To O'Neill Residence

A back, second-story bedroom in the home of Mrs. Nora O'Neill, widow of former Mamaroneck Town See Chief James O'Neill, became a blazing inferno at 11:40 A.M. today as a fire of undetermined origin reduced the room to a scorch of ruin.

Mamaroneck Village firemen pulled the blaze for 30 minutes, skillfully confining the fire, a potent fire-raiser, to one room. Fire Chief Thomas Pallace, who personally directed firefighters of Mamaroneck's five companies at the scene, said the fire caused about $2,000 damage and was possibly started by six rays in a clock.

Mrs. O'Neill was in the downstairs section of the home when she saw four grandchildren when she saw the blaze. She fled to the left side, and upon it around out of control and into two parked cars facing east on Tompkins. The two parked cars, which sustained minor damage, belonged to Stefan D. Kander and Mrs. Adelpha M. Kander.

NEW YORK (AP) — Three small unions of longshoremen specialists struck today, and their picket lines closed down 52 Manhattan, Brooklyn and Staten Island piers within two hours.

The walkout threatened to develop into large scale port stoppage in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

A spokesman for one of the striking locals said that "nothing weighable is moving. Employers estimated that about 120 types of bulk cargo requiring weighing enter New York harbor. They include coffee, sugar, rice, corn, beans and tin.

The strike of 422 seafarers, waiters and samplers of Locals 65, 94 and 119, AFL International Longshoremen's Association, began at 9 A.M.

The police waterfront squad announced the number of piers still open after a survey of the docks. They include refuse, meat, fish, coal, and today's stoppage would involve 100 piers in Manhattan, 100 in Brooklyn and one in Staten Island, with the situation "changing from day to day."

Piers in Jersey City and Hoboken, N. J., were reported being worked normally. At one of these docks workers showed up at 7 A.M. 90 minutes ahead of the usual time.

Larchmont Campaign Seeks To Realize More Than $15,000

With an indefinite goal but with hopes to exceed last year's collection of more than $15,000, the Larchmont campaign for the March of Dimes, a drive to help the children of crippled children, was launched today with what Dr. J. W. Waterman, chairman described as a "quick start."

"While the campaign only opened today," said James Quinn, chairman of the special gifts committee, "our committee has been active in contacting some of the former contributors and the amount received in advance of the formal opening of the campaign is well ahead of any previous year."

"We have received dozens of new contributions from prominent citizens of Larchmont, some of whom said that the polio disease had hit their own families during the last year. All of these pointed out that they had received the benefit of the fund raised in Larchmont each year in the past year."

Cupid Slows Down But Bags Some Unusual Game In 1952

If Cupid's archery score dropped slightly in the Town of Mamaroneck this year, with 181 marriages licensed as against 190 last year, it was probably because he had had his best efforts for a half-century. He finally brought down a new record of 181 marriages—started for the first time. The partner was a widow, aged forty-seven. Although the number in this context are not for publication, "Two Birds and Cupid's Handyman Charles Gronberg reported that the elderly groom was in fine fettle and appeared to be a year younger than his seventy-five.

After that shot, Cupid had an easy mark in one couple barely able to fly out of the nest. The groom was sixtieth and his bride thirty-two.

Another bride was fifty-eight when she was whiskered by the groom's arrow three times before. Her new groom gave his first marriage seven. With his age at 192, Mr. Gronberg notes that marriage licenses can be taken out almost anywhere, and the local court doesn't necessarily have any relation to the popularity of love and courtship in Mamaroneck.

Mamaroneck Roll Boosted By $952,722; Larchmont By $186,435

Wanted: More of Some

The administrative operation of the Town of Mamaroneck for 1952 was reviewed Saturday morning by Supervisor Owen A. Mandeville in an annual conference with department heads in an effort to determine "how, when and where service can be improved if possible."

The Supervisor pointed out that the administrators are continually commended for the service rendered the Town. He urged them to "continue to try to improve the service all the time."

Those who attended the conference were Police Chief Paul Yurick, Fire Chief Leonard Briten, head of the Highway Department, John L. Dellus, town attorney, Leo Cronin, committee chairman, Henry R. Dillon, tax collector, Alexander Platon, chief accountant, and Thomas Allichamp, head of the Park Department.

Poetic—But Painful

The final touch to annual Christmas celebration is the burning of the trees when for one brief instant the yuletide evergreen achieves its ultimate purpose as it blazes to extinction.

This is all very well. But for local fire departments the whole thing can't just pass in the neck. At 7 P. M. yesterday the Highway Department, John L. Dellus, town attorney, Leo Cronin, committee chairman, Henry R. Dillon, tax collector, Alexander Platon, chief accountant, and Thomas Allichamp, head of the Park Department.

ZONING CHANGE ASKED FOR NEW SHOPPING CENTER

First National Prospective Buyer Of Property Near Weaver St.

The Town of Mamaroneck will have a new shopping center if a petition requesting the rezoning of a piece of property on the Boston Post Road near Weaver Street from residential to C is approved by the Town Council after a public hearing Jan. 21.

The petition for the change was presented at last night's Council meeting by Joseph F. Johnson on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Deitz, who own the property at 1288 Boston Post Road.

First National Stores have offered to buy the Deitz property, which is bounded by Julia Chevrolet, the Mamaroneck Town Yard, and the David P. Ryan, Jr. Post 116, Veterans of Foreign Wars, if the Town Council extends the business zone.

He said First National Stores plans to construct a building which will be 300 feet long and provide parking facilities for 350 cars. Because First National Stores intend to build the front of the store block 150 feet from the Post Road, he explained that the company will build a business zone extending at least 300 feet from the highway.

Parking facilities, he said, would be provided both in front of the new store and at the side or in back.

Freezing Rain Downs County Power Lines; Little Local Damage

Thousands of Westchester homes are without heat, light or power and hundreds without telephone service today in the wake of the silver freeze which downed utility lines and felled trees and large branches, making many roads virtually impassable.

Hurricane hit were the central and northern sections of the county, while the southern area escaped relatively unscathed. Emergency crews of the Consolidated Edison Co. assaulted by the storm brought in from New York City, labored through the night and continued today in a battle to restore service to the estimated 16,750 customers cut off from power.

Storm damage locally was confined for the most part to inland sections of the Town of Mamaroneck, where the temperature was a few degrees lower than it was along the Sound shore.

Falling branches downed electric lines on Old White Plains Road, Penmore Road, and Griffen Avenue and left homes in the area without light for several hours last night.

GOP Schedules $10 Billion Cut For '54 Budget

House Sub-Committees Hope To Commence Work Quickly

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Republicans hope to get started next week on the job of trying to slash $10 billion from President Truman's proposed new budget without waiting for President-elect Eisenhower to sign out any cuts.

The Republican Committee on Appropriations, which initiates budget legislation, said subcommittees are expected to be in action by the end of next week, on many items that comprise the budget.

The Republican Committee on Appropriations is due to make its recommendations next Tuesday for new GOP assignments to the Appropriations Committee, which will hold 30 of the 50 seats.

Republicans in Congress generally credit "open-ended" yesterday when Mr. Truman sent up his proposed budget for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The $78.6 billion blueprint for fiscal 1954 expenditures is nearly $1 billion less than the one Mr. Truman submitted a year ago. It completely boosted foreign aid and defense spending and, the President estimated, will spell a Federal deficit of nearly $1 billion.

House Speaker Martin, R. Mass., called the "phantom budget" and told reporters: "As the proper time, the new administration will submit its own budget." (Turn to Page 2, please)

KOREA SHIP SINKS CLAIMS 249 LIVES

Wind, Sea Batters Passenger Liner; Only 7 Rescued, No Americans Aboard

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—A crowded Korean passenger ship foundered in mountainous seas and violent winds last night and sank with the loss of 249 lives just outside this big southeast Korean port.

The Korean Ministry of Transportation said it had only seven of the 256 aboard the 140-ton Chang Yung Ho were saved when the coastal vessel went down. The captain, Ho Yang Mo, was among the seven.

Transportation Minister Kim Suk Kwang expressed belief that no Americans were aboard the ship, which plied daily between Pusan and 50 miles to the west on Korea's south coast.

Seven Sketched Account
The captain was able to provide only a sketchy account of the disaster. He told the Ministry his ship was hit by a violent storm with a tremendous gust of wind, that things went black and the next he knew was when he regained consciousness in the storm-tossed seas. That was about 10 o'clock last night.

South Korean Navy and police boats picked up the captain, four passengers and two crewmen. They were brought to Pusan for first aid treatment.

Congress To Press For Peace In Korea

WASHINGTON (AP)—Key members of the House Armed Services Committee today predicted they would press for early action to break the Korean stalemate if President-elect Eisenhower does not do so.

A survey of six Republican and four Democratic committee members showed the majority indicated they would press for early action to break the Korean stalemate if President-elect Eisenhower does not do so.

They made their statements after Gen. Omar Bradley and Secretary of Defense Lovett were quoted as telling the committee in closed sessions they do not know how to win for more optimistic.

Representative Short, R. Mo., chairman-designate, told a reporter he expects Congress to await Mr. Eisenhower's solution. But if nothing is done, he said, pressure for a solution "undoubtedly" will build up.

Representative Cole, R., N. Y., said the committee was determined that some solution be found, rather than trading water into the indefinite future.

The House member indicated Mr. Eisenhower would get considerable support in an effort to solve the war, but expressed doubt that Congress would approve a longer draft period or considerably increased conscription.

Representative Shaver, R., Mich., said "I'm for more optimistic and hearing Bradley that I was before." He declined to elaborate for security reasons.

Devey's Plan For Judges Finds Little Favor With County Bloc

ALBANY—Back on "the Hill" in the makeup of official statements during the past year.

15-Year Agreement On Airport Proves A 'Bargain' For County

By OSCAR J. FOVALL
WHITE PLAINS—The 15-year concession agreement for operation of Westchester County Airport at Rye Lake has proved a "bargain" for the County, Public Works Commissioner James C. Harting reported today.

The County has realized more than $200,000 in fiscal revenues in the eight years since the agreement with the County Airport Corporation went into effect on Dec. 31, 1944, and is receiving 7 1/2 per cent of gross income, said Mr. Harting, and increased revenues are assured.

Mr. Harting pointed out that the agreement provides for the purchase, grading, and construction of access roads, utilities and parking areas, while the concessionaire the Airport Corp. will have invested $4 million at the end of this year while its losses exceed another million.

"I do not believe that the County could provide the same services at this reduced cost," he said.

Combing The Town

Victim of Vandal

Some young vandals who evidently couldn't get interested in the snow, didn't appreciate the coat of snow, and had no concern for the feelings of other patrons, fired an egg bomb yesterday at the Mamaronock Playhouse.

The egg, a fresh one, was thrown from the rear of the balcony and scored a direct hit on Mrs. William Heffner of 616 Halstead Avenue, Mamaronock, who was sitting with her family toward the front of the balcony.

Police questioned a group of teenagers sitting at the rear of the balcony failed to turn up the culprit.

Big World

For a few minutes Saturday Chief Louis Giancola of the Mamaronock Village police thought he had discovered a lot of relatives he never knew he had.

The chief received a letter from Lt. Daniel G. Giancola USAF of the Bureau of Naval Operations in Washington, D. C., stating that on a Christmas visit to his home in Martin's Ferry, Ohio, he had seen the story of the Cuban mission pilot in Mamaronock. The report appeared in The Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph and mentioned the chief's name.

Lt. Giancola gave his family history and said that his father had a brother, Victor, of whom the family had lost track. Victor's name was Victor in the Giancola family, however.

"But," said the chief, "I had mentioned a John Giancola, I might have discovered the brother I was looking for, but I never knew his name."

Tire Felled

The high winds which chased away the storm clouds this morning, brought disaster to a malefic tire on the road on the Mamaronock Methodist Church, East Boston Road.

The tire cracked and tumbled about 10:30 A. M. but failed to do any damage in its fall. It narrowly missed the church building, failed to fall toward the playground and also failed to block the church driveway. It was one of the closest and largest tires ever used in the church property.

The storm which ended this morning did little other damage in Mamaronock and Larchmont, the only complaints received by police concerned four sinking excavations on Penimore Road where building is in progress, and on North Bay Avenue near Halstead Avenue, Mamaronock.

Tree conditions as temperatures dropped early today, however, forced vandals to get out to work fast. Cars were having trouble on most local hills at 8 A. M. but, the conditions were rapidly corrected.

Foiled by Weather

The weather man didn't cooperate yesterday with the efforts of Mamaronock Post 90, American Legion, to conduct a fund drive and the campaign was postponed until next Sunday, it was announced today.

John Paul, co-chairman for the effort, several members of the American Legion and stated that they had prepared a skeleton crew of volunteers made up of isolated pickups but the paper was not weighed and is being held at Legion Hall until next Sunday when the legions are to have better luck with the weather.

Pigeon Show Winners

Carol Livingston, twelve, of 129 Wagner Avenue, Mamaronock, and Vio La Russo of 129 Wagner Avenue, Mamaronock, were winners yesterday in a junior pigeon show at the home of Mrs. Sam Houston, 209 Halstead Avenue, Larchmont.

Carol won first prize among the fancier pigeons while a bird entered by Vio La Russo took top honors in the homing pigeon class.

Thomas Stella of 73 Old White Plains Road was second in La Russo's homing class with Ambrose Frank of Harrison Road, and Richard Dennis of 742 River Street, Mamaronock, fourth.

Second place among the fancy birds was taken by William Livingston, Carol's younger brother, while Albert Moore of Stamford took third with Steven Purdy and Michael Poppale, both of Harrison winning fourth and fifth, respectively.

Judges were Earl Stengel of New York and Peter La Grasse of Harrison.

Scout Week Plans

The annual Father and Son dinner and Court of the Boy Scouts of America will take place Feb. 11 at the Mamaronock Junior High School. It was decided last night at a Scout Week committee meeting at the home of G. Gordon Bigler, general chairman, 3 Vine Road, Larchmont.

Robert Moore will be chairman of the dinner and court which will be a feature of the Scout Week observance.

Scouts working on the project for Scout week include Robert H. Hest, chairman, John Stengel, Peter Garlock and Larry Denton, 116 1/2 E. River Street, church attendance; Hoke Sumner, window decorator, a S. Warren Smith, publicity.

Red Dogs in Parks

An article in last Thursday's Daily Times, implied that dogs are run-at-large in Town of Mamaronock park areas. However, a special Town ordinance prohibits unleashed dogs in public parks and further stipulates that dogs on leashes may be walked only on the paved walk areas.

2 CARS HIT In Ice Skid, Pair Injured

Two men were slightly injured and three cars damaged yesterday when an auto owned by Richard Forlano, 150 A. M. in a crash on Halstead Avenue near Ward Avenue, Mamaronock.

George M. D'Andrea of 2 Argyle Road, Harrison, driving a 1952 Ford, struck the rear of a 1951 Ford owned by Joseph P. of Greenwich, Conn., which bumped into an auto owned by Richard Forlano of 150 A. M. in a crash on Halstead Avenue near Ward Avenue, Mamaronock.

The crash resulted, according to D'Andrea, when his windshield became befogged and he failed to see the parked cars.

The entire front end of the D'Andrea auto was demolished and the rear sustained severe rear-end damage and pressure damage to the motor since the car was in gear and the Forlano vehicle had its rear bumper and axles damaged.

Informal Group Began In Ohio In 1934; Now Busy All Over U. S.

Editor's Note: This is the first of five articles on Alcoholics Anonymous, written by a Westchester member who has maintained sobriety for six and one-half years since Dec. 19, 1941.

Alcoholics Anonymous, an informal society of recovered problem drinkers, has in less than a decade has compiled a record of success that has been termed little short of miraculous by scientists, judges, editors, and clergymen of practically all denominations.

The growth of this movement prompted Westchester County Public Health Commissioner to inquire into the extent to which Alcoholics Anonymous

The group had its headquarters in Heidelberg, Germany. Special assignments took Major Prager to Paris, London, Vienna and Berlin. His family was in Europe with him but at the present time the Pragers are visiting in Westport, Pa. They will return to Larchmont in February.

Vanishing Magic

The boy of magicians, "Now you see it, now you don't," worked in reverse last night at the Boy Scout program given by the Larchmont Scout Council at the Larchmont Avenue school.

The show was ready to go on at 8:15 as scheduled when Nelson Demers, popular amateur magician, who was first on the program, had covered several pieces of his equipment missing. An appeal was made to the Scouts to produce the vanished cards and apparatus but to no avail.

Mr. Demers said the show could not go on unless the missing articles were produced. He then searched the backstage area but located the articles hidden under a radiator and behind a screen.

The show finally got under way a half hour late and there was good sportsmanship. Mr. Demers not only performed the mystifying trick but also showed how it was done because as he said the responsible citizens must also have learned the secret.

DEWEY ASKS PSC FAC-FINDING QUIZ

ACTS ON SENATE RESOLUTION TO FREE 8 MILLION FROM 'DEMAGOGUE MIKE QUILL'

ALBANY (AP) — Governor Dewey today ordered the Public Service Commission to make a speedy fact-finding probe of the 1949-50 strike against nine private bus companies in New York City.

Dewey told a news conference he acted in line with a resolution adopted last night by the State Senate after Majority Leader Arthur H. Wick's had said he wanted to "help the eight million people of New York City away from the demagogue, Mike Quill."

Michael J. Quill is president of the CIO Transport Workers Union, which ordered the strike of 8,200 drivers, maintenance men and clerks New Year's Day.

Charges Countercharges

The Governor's news conference "the whole issue is being clouded by charges and countercharges."

Mr. Dewey said "in this case, the PSC is the only body equipped to make a scientific, fact-based, political inquiry and report."

"Something must be done to break the stalemate," Mr. Dewey added.

The Governor said PSC chairman Benjamin F. Feldman had agreed to "put his entire staff of 100 men to work on this."

Manager Johnson also suggested that two lots owned by the county on Ward Avenue be added to the list. The parcels were originally acquired by the county for a park plan which has been abandoned.

Trustee Epstein suggested a deed showing the title transfer be prepared and sent to the Board of Supervisors. Manager Johnson, however, advised that negotiations continue through George S. Haight, general superintendent.

Soviet Accuses Nine Doctors Of Slaying Leaders

Plots Against Others Laid to U. S. and Zionist Groups

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet press and radio announced today the arrest of nine doctors—most of them Jews—on charges of killing two top Russian leaders and plotting the deaths of others on instructions of Zionism and American intelligence services and Zionist organizations.

The announcement said the doctors arrested were Andrei A. Zhdanov, one of the leading members of the powerful Politburo until his death in 1948, and Alexander S. Scherbakov, head of the chief political administration of the Red Army who died in 1945.

The announcement by Tass, the Soviet news agency, said others marked for death included War Minister Marshal Alexander M. Vasilevsky, commander in chief of the Red Army, Gen. S. S. Shtemko, Marshal Leonid A. Govorov, who commanded Red Army armies in Finland during World War II, and Adm. G. I. Levchenko, Deputy Chief of the Navy.

Leading military figures were also arrested. Last week the arrest thwarted their villainous plot and the criminals failed to escape their fate.

Appellate Division Throws Out Conviction Of Tuckahoe Mayor

NEW YORK (AP) — The conviction and indictment on gambling charges of Mayor Milton A. Gibbons of Tuckahoe has been thrown out by the Appellate Division Court.

The five-year-old Gibbons, a retired police sergeant, and Mrs. May B. Hayes, forty-one, owner of a Tuckahoe stationery store, were convicted March 5 of conspiracy to set up a dice table in a Tuckahoe warehouse. Each was later given a three-month jail sentence.

The court took no action on a similar appeal by Mrs. Hayes. Her case will be argued before the court in March.

The conviction was set aside by the Appellate Division on appeal requested by her attorney, James Demers. Last week the court permitted her to base her appeal on the same record as did Mayor Gibbons.

The court took no action on a similar appeal by Mrs. Hayes. Her case will be argued before the court in March.

RAID PULVERIZES 440-Plane Strike Hammers At Facilities In N. W. Korea

SEOUL (AP) — The U. S. 8th Air Force buried a crushing Communist raid probably destroyed some 440 planes deep in northwest Korea today. It was the seventh hammering blow on the Red line since the war.

U. S. Saboteurs, flying protective cover, downed two Communist fighters and destroyed one plane and damaged another.

The fighter-bombers screamed north on morning and afternoon raids on air bases which only a few hours after 250 fighters plastered the area with 100 tons of bombs.

The warplanes plied rubble atop rubble in their pulverizing attack on a bridge complex north of Seoul. The bridges span the Chongchun in the supply line which hauls Red war equipment from Manchuria to the front.

Clouds of smoke billowed high over the target and prevented full observation. But the Air Force said the raiding planes scored numerous direct hits.

Today's raid was the heaviest ever to hit the Stralis area, it fell far short of a 1,400-plane, dawn-dusk plastering of Pyongyang, last Aug. 29.

ARMED JETS BAG EIGHT RED PLANES IN FIERCE BATTLE

Superfights Smash Home 2 More Blows Against Transport Center

REPOUT. (AP) — U. S. jets destroyed at least eight Russian MIG 15s today in the biggest air battle in North Korean skies since September.

The U. S. 5th Air Force said Allied pilots bagged eight of the Red warplanes, probably destroyed one and damaged three. Additional claims of one probable and six damaged are pending confirmation.

The air battles came after U. S. superforts and fighter-bombers culminated a series of two-day hammer blows against the key Communist transport center at Sinangju. The one-day assault marked the sixth straight day of a relentless offensive to land on a red supply route from Manchuria to the frozen front.

The sustained air blows apparently disrupted the Red supply action after six days of relative quiet in "MIG Alley," deep in communist North Korea.

The day's toll of MIGs is the highest reported since Sept. 4 when 13 were destroyed and four damaged.

Night-flying superforts blasted the Sinangju area with 110 tons of bombs early this morning. Allied 150 Air Force and Marine fighter-bombers made another pulverizing attack.

Truman Sees Record Prosperity If 'Great Depression Fails'

Munitions Found Here Trucked To New York

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman told the country today it can achieve productivity of a half-century in "the annual within a decade—it is a potentially serious threat of depression after this year."

In his last major message to Congress, the annual economic report, Mr. Truman predicted today's "unparalleled prosperity," high employment, and stable prices as being good throughout 1953. But he said that thereafter:

"We may face in the future, particularly when defense spending can safely be reduced, more serious tests of our ability to avoid depression than those which have occurred since World War II."

With "timely and intelligent" action, he said, the difficulties can be met and 10 years from now America could be producing goods and services at the rate of $175 billion a year, up from a year ago 100 per cent above the present level of $45 billion.

Advisers Split on Outlook
The president named a 2 to 1 split within his Council of Economic Advisers which, it develops, is split on the possibility of a start on private and government measures to prevent possible postwar unemployment and stock market from spinning into a "more serious deflationary spiral."

Vice chairman John D. Clark discussed last night and today, he said, the conditions which are "threatening enough to require new counterbalancing action by the government."

Clark urged the president to help long chapters of the advisers' report to help the nation.

Eisenhower Maps Global Strategy With New Chiefs

Conference Called After Move To Send Dulles To Europe

NEW YORK (AP)—President-elect Eisenhower called in the new administration's national defense and foreign policy chiefs today for a global strategy conference on security against the threat of communism.

Asked to attend the session were Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of Defense, and John Foster Dulles, who will be Secretary of State. Also present were Robert A. Lovett, Secretary of the Mutual Security Agency, and Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, who will be Undersecretary of State and who now is chief of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The conference was arranged after Mr. Eisenhower's decision, announced last night, to send Dulles to Europe at the end of this month—within two weeks after Mr. Eisenhower's inauguration.

Asked to attend the session were Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of Defense, and John Foster Dulles, who will be Secretary of State. Also present were Robert A. Lovett, Secretary of the Mutual Security Agency, and Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, who will be Undersecretary of State and who now is chief of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The table was read by Deputy Secretary of State, William L. Clayton, an attorney and Republican state legislator, and Joseph P. Kamp, former Democratic leader in Eastchester, who subsequently resigned. The Mayor and Mrs. Hayes were convicted and given three months in jail, but were released after one week, pending appeal. WHITE PLAINS
Reversal of the gambling conspiracy conviction of Tuckahoe Mayor Milton A. Gibbons and dismissal of the charge against him "brings to an end one of the cruelest travesties of justice ever perpetrated in Westchester," Arthur L. Ruster, the Mayor's attorney, said today.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in Brooklyn reversed the March 5 County Court conviction. The appeals court ruled that the prosecution failed to support its case with the " requisite corroboration," giving only the testimony of an accomplice, and that no other evidence was sufficient to prove Gibbons conspired to give protection and immunity to gamblers.

Mr. Ruster said the Mayor "has not only been exonerated and vindicated, but from the opinion of the (Brooklyn) court it is clear that even if the Mayor had done all the things charged, his acts have been in all respects proper and lawful."

The president named a 2 to 1 split within his Council of Economic Advisers which, it develops, is split on the possibility of a start on private and government measures to prevent possible postwar unemployment and stock market from spinning into a "more serious deflationary spiral."

Vice chairman John D. Clark discussed last night and today, he said, the conditions which are "threatening enough to require new counterbalancing action by the government."

Clark urged the president to help long chapters of the advisers' report to help the nation.

Truman Sees Record Prosperity If 'Great Depression Fails'

Munitions Found Here Trucked To New York

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman told the country today it can achieve productivity of a half-century in "the annual within a decade—it is a potentially serious threat of depression after this year."

In his last major message to Congress, the annual economic report, Mr. Truman predicted today's "unparalleled prosperity," high employment, and stable prices as being good throughout 1953. But he said that thereafter:

"We may face in the future, particularly when defense spending can safely be reduced, more serious tests of our ability to avoid depression than those which have occurred since World War II."

With "timely and intelligent" action, he said, the difficulties can be met and 10 years from now America could be producing goods and services at the rate of $175 billion a year, up from a year ago 100 per cent above the present level of $45 billion.

Back in USA
Mr. Joseph D. German, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph German, of 64 Center Avenue, Mamaroneck, was among 2,339 soldiers, most of them combat veterans, who landed in San Francisco yesterday aboard the Transport Marine Scout.

Pvt. German is twenty-three years old and was born in Mamaroneck. He was graduated from Mamaroneck High School and before his induction two years ago was employed as an apprentice bricklayer.

He received basic training at Fort Lewis, Wash., and has been in Korea since March, 1951, in transport work driving supplies to the front lines.

Fireman Named
Augusta Clark of 239 Mamaroneck Avenue, Mamaroneck, was elected a paid fireman in the Larchmont Fire Department by the Village Board last night.

The appointment, effective today, was provisional. It was the result of a civil service examination to be held this Spring. It fills a vacancy in the department created by the resignation of Capt. James G. Dwyer, Jr.

Mr. Clark, who is thirty-four years old, attended Mamaroneck Junior and Senior High Schools. A member of the U. S. Coast Guard for six months, he joined the regular Army in 1942, re-enlisting in 1946. During the war he served in the European Theater and was honorably discharged from the service in 1945. From 1945 until the present time he has been employed by the Life-Saver Company in Fort Chester, Pa.

He is married and has two children.

Apprentice Accountant
William C. LaRosa, son of Mrs. William H. LaRosa of 1320 Haledale Hill Avenue, Mamaroneck, is one of 13 senior accountants admitted to the College of Business Administration at Iona College serving a three-month apprenticeship with major public accounting firms in Manhattan. During the intership, which ends March 15, Mr. LaRosa works full-time under the supervision of a senior accountant. Students serving satisfactory apprenticeships are offered permanent employment upon graduation.

Mr. LaRosa was graduated from Bellows High School in 1939 and was employed by The Mount Vernon Daily Express for several years before entering the army. He served as a sergeant in frontline combat in Germany and Austria. After the war he worked at the Life Saver plant in Fort Chester and entered Toms in 1949.

In 1947 he married the former Eunice Smith of Harrison, and now resides in Harrison.

Feed the Birds
The Mamaroneck Rangers Conservation Club, a group of boys headed by Charles M. Fitch of 129 Cove Road, Mamaroneck, today urged all residents to aid in a Winter "wildbird feed" program.

The club, dedicated to the preservation of natural resources, including wildlife, is sponsoring a program of setting food out for waterfowl and other birds which have difficulty maintaining themselves through the cold weather months.

Residents who would like any information on bird feeding are asked to request a booklet on the subject from young Mr. Fitch at the by mail or by telephone, MA 9-3131. J. Phone calls should be made after 3:30 P. M. when the club president is home from school.

New Executive in Talk

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower took office as President today and dedicated his administration to winning "an earth of peace" without ever placating an aggressor by trading America's honor for security.

In his prepared inaugural address, the first Republican Chief Executive in 70 years set forth nine "rules of conduct" for achievement of lasting world peace, and declared:

"By their observance, an earth of peace may become not a vision but a fact.

"This hope—the supreme aspiration—must give the way we live."

The new President's address from the inaugural platform on the steps of the Capitol, right after he took the oath of office, was devoted almost entirely to the international situation—and to a call for the free nations of the world to unite against the forces of aggression.

Mr. Eisenhower asked, too, for advice from the people on the new administration.

Mr. Eisenhower, trained in the ways of war, died on peace as the goal of all Americans and freedom-loving people everywhere. But he called for a strong America and declared "we shall never try to placate an aggressor by the false and wicked bargain of trading honor for security."

The inaugural document dealt only briefly with domestic affairs. The emphasis on foreign policy—specifically, on the idea of worldwide collective security—pointed the new administration's course in more of an internationalist direction than heretofore has had the backing of some GOP Congressional leaders.

Mr. Eisenhower left no doubt he feels the U. S. must continue to play a role of world leadership.

Paths in the future which bind America belong as well to the free of all the world, Mr. Eisenhower declared.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER
Thirty-fourth President of the United States

Full Text Of Address

WASHINGTON (AP)—The prepared text of the inaugural address of President Dwight D. Eisenhower:

My fellow citizens: The world we live in has passed the midway point of a century of continuing challenge. We sense with all our faculties that forces of good and evil are massed and aimed and opposed as rarely before in history.

This fact defines the meaning of this day. We are summoned, by this nation and historic ceremony, to witness more than the act of one citizen swearing his oath of service, in the presence of his God. We are called as a people, to give testimony, in the sight of the world, of our faith that the future shall belong to the free.

Since this century's beginning, a time of tempest has seemed to come upon the continent of the north. Masses of Asia have wakened to strike off shackles under the direction of James V. Doolittle and John G. Bunker. The motto of club house decorations will be in observance of Washington's Birthday.

Music for the dance will be supplied by Adrian Marshall and his band which has played at the Larchmont Store Club, the Davy Sport Club and in many New York clubs.

Reservations for the ball may be made any evening at Legion Hall.

TV Star Tells Experiences To Men's Club Group At Jewish Center

More than 300 youngsters thronged last night's meeting of the Men's Club of the Westchester Jewish Center on Haledale Avenue, Mamaroneck, to hear at Buster Crabbe, actor, screen and television star, who recently moved to Mamaroneck.

Mr. Crabbe recounted experiences of his early days in Honolulu, Hawaii, where he rode horseback to school and where he first learned to swim. Since that time, he said, he has won 16 world championships as a swimmer, 23 national championships and 200 national medals.

After becoming a celebrity in the sports world, he went into entertainment media and has made Westerns, the Tarzan series, and has appeared on radio and television programs. He now has his own radio show called "Larchmont with Buster Crabbe" Saturdays.

In addition to his numerous speaking engagements and public appearances, Mr. Crabbe operates the Buster Crabbe Swim Club in New York City.

Who Gets Whose Car Settled By Larchmont Village Board

The Larchmont Village Board last night voted to settle a dispute over a new car for the Public Works Department. Frank Menahan, who would make his present car available to the water works.

The Board voted to simplify the transfer by one degree. It is the grounds that the Public Works Department needs a new car more than the police department.

Mr. Richards cited the need for the appointment of a fire inspector to comply with a new state multiple-residence law which goes into effect April 1. The transfer took effect immediately.

13 COMMUNIST LEADERS GUILTY OF CONSPIRACY

Federal Jury Brings In Verdict After 48-Hour Deliberation

NEW YORK (AP) — A Federal Court jury today found all 13 Communist leaders guilty of conspiracy to teach and advocate the overthrow of the U. S. government.

The jury of six men and six women rendered a verdict after receiving the case last Thursday. The trial lasted eight and one-half months.

Members of the Communist Party were charged with conspiring to teach and advocate the overthrow of the U. S. government.

The jury foreman, Miss Lucille Collette, a music teacher, announced the verdict after 48 hours of deliberations in a clear, firm voice.

"We find the defendants guilty as charged," she said.

They could receive a maximum sentence of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The defendants, all from the New York City area, included:

— Alexander Bittell, thirty-one, of Croton, George Blake Charny, thirty-six, of New York City, Harry Gold, thirty-four, of New York City, Louis F. Lyons, thirty-four, of New York City, William Wolf Weinstein, fifty-three, of New York City, and Albert Francis Sacco, forty-three.

Court Clerk George Tammann polled the jury immediately after the foreman announced the decision. All jurors agreed on the guilty verdict.

Verdict "Amplified Justified"

Judge Edward Weirbeck told the jurors the verdict was "amplified and justified by the evidence and you gave careful study and thought to the case."

The government claimed the 13 stepped into the shoes of 11 top party leaders who were convicted and sentenced to prison on the same charges more than three years ago.

The defense argued throughout the long, costly trial that the 13 sought to achieve Communist Party aims only through peaceful means.

Forty families at the Larchmont Gables Apartments, Larchmont, were without heat today as the result of a strike called by the Building Service Employees Union, Local 52E, A. F. of L.

Three pickets appeared in front of the Gables at 6 A. M. and began their patrol on the sidewalk adjacent to the Boston Post Road shortly after Fred Silverstein, the superintendent and the only strike-er, walked off the job.

Simultaneously, the Union moved against the Beechmont Towers Apartments, 30 Eastchester Road, New Rochelle, where 40 families live. There, the strike is in behalf of Al Cambria, the Beechmont Towers superintendent. Both the Beechmont Towers and the Larchmont Gables are managed by the firm of Pomeroy and Pomeroy, 3 West Prospect Avenue, Mount Vernon.

The men are now engaged in a contract and better working conditions for the two superintendents, Harold Brown, a business representative of the union, said today.

Mr. Pomeroy said the superintendent at the Larchmont Gables, he predicted that the strike would not last long. He thought the Union would win, he said.

The strike came "as a complete surprise" to the management, Pomeroy told The Daily Times today.

"If negotiations with the Union and we are trying to restore facilities as soon as possible," Mr. Pomeroy said the superintendent had "pulled the switches" controlling the furnaces before they walked off the job.

Picketing at the two buildings will be on a 24-hour basis until the strike is settled, Mr. Brown said.

Mamaroneck residents of the two buildings were using blankets, overcoats, and electric heaters to keep warm while outside the temperature ranged between 33 and 40 degrees.

Town of Mamaroneck Police said at noon that the Westchester County Board of Health is investigating complaints of Gables residents about the heating problem. Police said the heat would be turned on today.

Change of Venue?

Proponents of the Larchmont Gables, who are currently the victims of a strike, may find it difficult to understand why the Building Service Employees Union must come all the way to Larchmont to have an argument with the management.

The Union and the management, Pomeroy and Pomeroy, are next door neighbors in Mount Vernon. The Union has an office at 11 West Prospect Avenue, Mount Vernon, and the address of Pomeroy and Pomeroy is 3 West Prospect Avenue, Mount Vernon.

Good Omen

Members of the Republican Club of Mamaroneck and Larchmont felt it was a good omen last night that the city's annual election and installation came the same day as the inauguration of President Eisenhower.

They implied as much in a telegram sent the President at the inauguration ball.

The telegram read: "This is an historic day for our elected leaders and for the American people. May God give you guidance in the arduous days ahead. By coincidence our inauguration day is celebrated at the same time as yours."

March in Parade

Peter Perella of 235 Centre Avenue, Mamaroneck, will return to the city from Washington, D. C. where he attended the inauguration ceremonies and marched in the inaugural parade with the Charlotte, N. C. band, the words "W. O. II" on it.

He served as a sergeant with the U. S. Army for five years, from 1940 to 1945, at Fort Monmouth, N. J. He is married to Mrs. Mary Perella, who lives at 235 Centre Avenue, Mamaroneck. He has two sons, John and George. Fred Perella of 128 Elliot Avenue, accompanied him to Washington.

Seeing History Made

Pupils in both the Mamaroneck and Ryer School systems saw history made yesterday when they watched President Eisenhower's inauguration on television sets in the schools.

All schools in the Mamaroneck school system had announced the program in advance with the permission of the Mamaroneck Avenue School. A set was lent to the school, however, through the efforts of John Muehle, a parent of a scholar, and the school saw the inauguration and parade.

In the Ryer School system a set was supplied by Ryer High School by a dealer through the efforts of Robert Zimmerman and Mrs. Wilma Jaber of the social studies department and in Daniel Warren School the set came from a merchant after solicitation by former Mamaroneck Patrolman Otto Verschoor.

Letter on Migrants

The problem of migratory agricultural workers, those who make their home "where the crops are ripe," was discussed this morning in a letter to the New York Times by the Rev. Austin H. Armstrong of Center Moriches, N. Y., former assistant pastor at the Mamaroneck Methodist Church.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong, whose present assignment on Long Island is in an area where migratory workers appear when the potato or cabbage crops are ready for harvesting, states that the problem is one "that involves every citizen of this country."

He points out that New York and New Jersey have made progress toward solving the problem and urges that recommendations of the 1951 Presidential Commission on Migratory Labor be implemented in the legislative program of the new Congress.

Athen to Moderate

T. James Abern, superintendent of schools in the Mamaroneck District, will be the moderator at a $200 a meeting of the Larchmont Forum for Public Opinion at the Chateaufort Avenue School, via radio, journalist and historian, and Morris Ernst, author and lecturer, will discuss the subject, "American Communism: Who Are They and What Can We Do About Them?"

Club Holds Party

John F. O'Connor was named for his second term as president of the Republican Club of Mamaroneck and Larchmont last night at a meeting in Legion Hall, Mamaroneck.

The meeting was attended by more than 100 members and friends of the club proceeded with "Victory Party" celebrating the inauguration of President Eisenhower.

Re-elected with Mr. O'Connor were Mrs. O. Crawford Radtke, vice president, and Edward Kester, treasurer. Also chosen trustees were Mrs. Alice Kridgeway and Lee White. The nominating committee consisted of William A. McWilliams and Ralph Cheney.

The nominating committee was headed by Morgan Bahr, chairman of the nominating committee.

The brief business session also included a discussion of the School for Politics which was sponsored by the club last year and which is again tentatively planned this year. The school consisted of a series of four forums on the mechanics of local, county, state and national governments and on the methods of voting. More than 75 persons attended each session.

Mr. Henry R. Dillon was named chairman of a nominating committee to report at the annual meeting in January 1954. Her committee consists of Barney Rowlett, Carl Weideman, Robert S. MacCallum and Burton C. McElhain Jr.

Fred Margini was temporary chairman of the meeting of the department which in these circumstances seek higher rates from the ICC or lose its regular appropriation.

The rates were last raised an average of 25 per cent on Oct. 1, 1951. This increased parcel post revenues by about $10 million a year. However, the department said that subsequent wage increases in the service and a grant of higher railway mail pay by the ICC would cut the revenue. The postal laws provide that parcel post rates may be adjusted either up or down by the Commission.

Parcel Rates Increase To Average 35 P. C.

Asked By Donaldson To Up Dept. Receipts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today disclosed a petition from the Post Office Department for a new increase in parcel post rates averaging close to 35 per cent.

The petition was filed by Jesse M. Donaldson, who went out of office as Postmaster General at noon yesterday. Dated Jan. 15, the plea for higher rates was one of his last official acts.

Postal officials estimated that the proposed hike would raise income from parcel post service by about $10 million a year.

These sources said Mr. Donaldson had no choice except to file the petition since the package service was operating in the red.

Under a Congressional mandate, the department must in these circumstances seek higher rates from the ICC or lose its regular appropriation.

It was a little bit of everything that's America—a husbandly pick on the check for Mamie Eisenhower, a cowboy's lasso flipped around her soldier-President, a assay display of bar-bimbed high school voices, a droll chorus of "Auld Lang Syne" for a man going home to Missouri.

All this and much more—that was Washington on "I Day."

Lawn Terrace Unit Starts Proceedings To Force Rezoning

The Village of Mamaroneck is taking a suit brought by the Harbor Lawn Estates Association Inc. to force rezoning of the former Westchester Bath Club property in order to prevent the erection of an apartment.

The suit is the result of the Village Board's refusal Dec. 21 to rezone the property from C zoning. The board's action came after a lengthy public hearing. Since that time work has been begun on the apartments by the Start Close Corporation.

Under the suit, according to Cecil H. Cleworth, of 112 Lawn Terrace, president of the Harbor Lawn group, is that the property was "spot-zoned" in 1948 and that the rezoning is a violation of the zoning laws as they were established in 1925.

Former G. M. President Goes Before Armed Services Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charles E. Wilson said today that as Secretary of Defense he will sell his General Motors holdings and consult with President Eisenhower on any matter that might be the subject of misunderstanding because of his former connection with the auto firm.

Early approval of Mr. Wilson's nomination for the defense post was forecast by some Senators as a result of Mr. Wilson's reversal of his previous refusal to dispose of more than $2.5 million worth of General Motors stock.

General Motors, formerly headed by Mr. Wilson, is the largest defense contractor and Mr. Wilson previously was quoted by Senators as saying that he would not disqualify himself in government because of his former connection with the auto firm.

Wilson said his agreement to dispose of his stock was a result of Mr. Wilson's reversal of his previous refusal to dispose of more than $2.5 million worth of General Motors stock.

NEW OFFICERS OF THE MAMARONECK O. I. ASSOCIATION

Installed last night by former Mayor B. J. Santoro following a dinner at the Seven Pines Restaurant. Seated left to right are Joseph D'Alton, outgoing president, and Acting Judge Francis A. Aiuletta Jr., new president; standing are Fred Degen, secretary; Anthony Pergola, vice president; and Richard Acvel, treasurer.

Other officers installed by B. J. Santoro were Anthony Pergola, vice president; Fred Degen, secretary; and Richard Acvel, treasurer.

Club Auleta pointed out that the judge five years old and has served only in members but in influence in the community. He paid tribute to Village Manager William H. Johnson who, he said, "helped us when we really needed help."

"But recognized what we have left," he said to grow," he said, "that our principles are not just words. We had to put them into action. I am making no promises for the coming year but I have one slogan: 'Actions Speak Louder Than Words.'"

In his installing talk, Mr. Santoro declared that "with the honor also goes responsibility" and said he knew the officers would do their best in a way as to further the interests not only of the G. I. Club Association but also of the Friendly Village of Mamaroneck which we all love so well.

When he installed Judge Aiuletta, Mr. Sagoro said, "You know from my own experience that you have to deal with people with kindness and justice. G. I. CLUB GROWTH CITED AT DINNER

Judge Aiuletta Heads Slate Installed By Santoro At Annual Fete

The five-year growth of the Mamaroneck G. I. Club Association was traced last night by Acting Judge Francis A. Aiuletta Jr. at the Seven Pines Restaurant following the installation as president of the organization by former Mayor B. J. Santoro. He succeeds Joseph D'Alton.

Other officers installed by B. J. Santoro were Anthony Pergola, vice president; Fred Degen, secretary; and Richard Acvel, treasurer.

Club Auleta pointed out that the judge five years old and has served only in members but in influence in the community. He paid tribute to Village Manager William H. Johnson who, he said, "helped us when we really needed help."

"But recognized what we have left," he said to grow," he said, "that our principles are not just words. We had to put them into action. I am making no promises for the coming year but I have one slogan: 'Actions Speak Louder Than Words.'"

Larchmont Children Benefit Benefactress On TV Show

Thirty Larchmont youngsters, who have been recipients of kindnesses from Miss Natalie Shelton of 32 Oak Avenue, Larchmont, found their benefactress yesterday by telecasting.

Two of them, John Goodhue, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Webster Goodhue of 35 Kate Avenue, and Jacqueline Beth Johnson, five daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Johnson of 102 Willow Avenue, won prizes for their part in the telecast.

The "Wheel of Fortune" program over WCBS-TV, Miss Shelton, who appeared with the children, chose a refrigerator, two lamps, an electric sewing machine, an electric iron, and a chest of silver, among other prizes, as she drew.

The appearance of Miss Shelton and the children came about after Mrs. Johnson wrote the program, telling how Miss Shelton has helped neighborhood children by allowing them to use a playroom on her property and by forming a "Happy Club" to keep them entertained after school and on holidays.

Under Miss Shelton's aegis, the youngsters in the Happy Club annually stage a circus and have tried to help others less fortunate than themselves by contributing the proceeds to the Fresh Air Fund, which sends city children to the country.

Person's Nominations Weighed By Senate Session Today

Designate Approved By Committee, Expect Vote Monday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican leaders today spurred the Senate into an unusual Saturday session to debate the controversial nomination of Charles E. Wilson as Secretary of Defense.

The committee gave its unusual approval to the nomination yesterday after Mr. Wilson refused to answer questions during his $2.5 million worth of stock in General Motors Corp., the country's largest corporation.

Federal law bars a man from holding a public office if he holds even an indirect financial interest in a business.

ADJACENT OWNERS GET FIRST CHANCE AT IN REM. PLOTS

Mamaroneck Board Seeks To Dispose Of 75-100 Properties

The Village of Mamaroneck last night declared a 30-day moratorium on the sale of "in rem" properties while the administration ascertains whether adjacent property owners are interested in purchasing them.

By a vote of 4 to 1, with Mayor Edwin B. Dooley opposed, the village board last night passed a resolution which would give adjacent property owners a first right to purchase any "in rem" property before it is sold to the highest bidder.

The measure gives adjacent property owners only an opportunity to bid on properties they are interested in. It does not guarantee that they will be given preference in bidding. "The 'in rem' parcels will still go to the highest bidder," Mayor Dooley said.

The motion to send out the moratorium was introduced by Councilman Joseph Spatola who said the move might help to "get in rem" parcels on the village rolls. He also said it was "the obligation of the village" to inform adjoining property owners who village-held parcels are for sale. "If we let them," he said, "we are not doing it for us, we are doing it for them."

ADJACENT OWNERS GET FIRST CHANCE AT IN REM. PLOTS

Mamaroneck Board Seeks To Dispose Of 75-100 Properties

The Village of Mamaroneck last night declared a 30-day moratorium on the sale of "in rem" properties while the administration ascertains whether adjacent property owners are interested in purchasing them.

By a vote of 4 to 1, with Mayor Edwin B. Dooley opposed, the village board last night passed a resolution which would give adjacent property owners a first right to purchase any "in rem" property before it is sold to the highest bidder.

The measure gives adjacent property owners only an opportunity to bid on properties they are interested in. It does not guarantee that they will be given preference in bidding. "The 'in rem' parcels will still go to the highest bidder," Mayor Dooley said.

The motion to send out the moratorium was introduced by Councilman Joseph Spatola who said the move might help to "get in rem" parcels on the village rolls. He also said it was "the obligation of the village" to inform adjoining property owners who village-held parcels are for sale. "If we let them," he said, "we are not doing it for us, we are doing it for them."

Close Range Contact With Flying Saucer Reported Over Japan

U. S. AIR BASE. Northern Japan (AP)—The U. S. Air Force tonight reported a small, metallic, disc-shaped object made a controlled, sweeping pass at an American jet fighter-bomber and was observed at very close range by another pilot.

The report, from Air Force intelligence files, said the sighting was made over northern Japan at 11:20 A. M. last March 29 by David C. Brigham of Rockford, Ill.

It was a bright, cloudless day. Brigham said he got a very good look at the object from 10 to 30 feet for about 10 seconds.

The pilot described it as "about two inches in diameter, very thin, round, and as shiny as polished chromium; had no apparent projections and left no exhaust trails or vapor trails."

He said it caught up with an F84 Thunderjet, hovered a while and then shot off to the east. It did not see it.

It was flying at an altitude of 6,000 feet when an F84 Thunderjet was flying at 10,000 feet.

Then, he said, he saw the disc to the right of and just behind the Thunderjet. He said it appeared to be traveling 30 to 40 miles an hour faster than the F84, which was going 515 mph.

"It closed rapidly and just before it would have flown into my fuselage it decelerated to its airspeed almost instantaneously," Lt. Brigham said in his report to the intelligence officers. "In doing so, it tipped up its nose at approximately a 90-degree bank. Then it fluttered within 20 feet of his fuselage for perhaps two or three seconds, pulled away and around his nose (right) wing, appearing to fly close to the silhouette of the aircraft's engine nacelle. Then it passed him, crossed in front of him and pulled up abruptly, appearing to accelerate, and shot out of sight in a steep, almost vertical climb.

An unusual flight characteristic was a shuddering motion. It rocked back and forth at approximately 40-degree banks at approximately one-second intervals throughout its course."

"When it pulled away," it did so more sharply than a plane could have done.

The maneuvering throughout was always clear and precise."

Last Wednesday the Air Force disclosed that "rotating controls" of red, white and green lights had been over North Korea, Japan by American airmen.

BOARD ASKS NYS TO KEEP SCHOOL

Objects To Dewey Plan For Financing Institute For County Funds

ALBANY (AP)—Governor Dewey yesterday asked the State Legislature to keep the State Institute for County Funds from being abolished.

The actual amount that went to localities in the current budget is $72,118,363. This compares with $59,708,078 proposed by Mr. Dewey for the new fiscal year, which begins April 1.

The proposed State assistance appropriation of $60,419,780 actually is $7,647,417 less than the $211,967,197 appropriated for the 1952-53 fiscal year. But some towns receive deficiency appropriations from the Legislature, which may be included in the succeeding budget to satisfy a bookkeeping requirement.

The $7 million drop in appropriations stirred speculation that Mr. Dewey's overall budget total for the coming fiscal year might drop.

BOARD MAY LIMIT POST RD. PARKING

Hearing Scheduled Feb. 16 On Commercial Area In Certain Bars

The Mamaroneck Village Board last night scheduled a public hearing on a proposed ordinance which would prohibit the parking of commercial vehicles on sections of the Post Road.

The board was informed by the Village Supervisor that the ordinance affecting U. S. Highway 287 must be cleared, that the ordinance on Post Road parking would be cleared.

The proposed ordinance would affect the parking of commercial vehicles in front of the Mamaroneck Junior High School and Central Schools, from Ontario Avenue to the Village Square on the south side of the Post Road, from Barry Avenue to the Parkway on both sides.

Another discussion affecting the ordinance was precipitated by the presentation of a rough sketch of a proposed second ramp at the truck level parking space at the Mamaroneck station. The ramp, which would be on the north side of the station, would be built at the eastern end of the parking space and would provide for one-way traffic on the ramp. The board asked Mr. Lattimer to continue his study and suggested that the Village Supervisor, Mr. Johnson meet with representatives of the New York State Highway and Hartford Road to see if the company would undertake the construction of the ramp.

UN Command Accuses 2 China Generals of Fomenting Disorders

TOKYO (AP)—The United Nations Command today charged the two top Communist armistice negotiators with "direct responsibility" for bloody prisoner of war riots on Korea and China islands.

The UN-captured Communist documents and Allied intelligence reports directly blamed North Korea Gen. Nam Il, senior Red delegate to the suspended talks, and his deputy, Gen. Lee Sang Cho.

The Allies said the operations, which cost the lives of more than 300 Red prisoners, were part of the "Communist campaign on the second front of the Korean War."

In a lengthy statement, the UN Command said the two generals had dual functions:

"To represent the Reds at the truce parties, and to claim false control of the Communist prisoners of war, to mastermind the incidents which were the result of the UN Command's operations."

"These two generals and their fanatical followers have exploited a new area of total war," the UN charged.

The statement spelled out in detail steps it said the Reds took to organize the riots, including:

"Many prisoners captured by the UN forces have admitted they were deliberately misled to penetrate the prison camps at Kiju, where they were to establish 'cell organization committees' in each camp," the statement said.

It declared there was direct chain of command from the accused negotiators right down to the camp level.

"The UN Command is determined to mastermind the incidents which were the result of the UN Command's operations."

Kingsbury Says Foundation Will Proceed With Caution

Two vaccines have been developed which prevent polio in laboratory animals and confer immunity. Cyril M. Kingsbury, executive secretary of the Westchester Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, told the Mamaroneck Lions Club yesterday at Green Haven Inn, but he warned that the vaccines have not yet been used on humans.

He pointed out that 4 million children are stricken in the race against polio. "However," he added, "looks as though 1953 and 1954 should make children's life almost polio-free."

He distributed the experiment carried on his various parts of the country last year, which became known as "Operation Lollipop." It was known prior to last year that even from blood, prevent polio (temporarily) in monkeys when the polio virus is injected into the brain. During the polo season, he said.

Resident Stricken With Polio

Writes Story of Uphill Battle

BY FRISCELLA BERNINGER

In this month of the March of Dimes and the Mothers' March on Polio I should like to add a few personal notes as a Larchmont veteran. For I am a veteran, 50% of fund-raising campaigns, but of the fight waged by doctors and nurses with the aid of modern science against the dread disease of infantile paralysis or poliomyelitis.

And my body was the battleground. In October, 1951, I was a typical busy suburban housewife, keeping house for my husband, father and four-year-old son at our home, 4 Glen Eagles Drive, My son was going to the junior kindergarten at the Rye Country Day School, and I was helping to teach there. Late one week I felt soreness in my back and around my ribs but dismissing it as the result of too much lifting, my Sunday morning I had to force myself to go to school and a splitting headache. I went to bed, and from that bed I was never to rise to walk again.

On Monday night, Oct. 8, an ambulance took me to the New Rochelle Hospital, where my sickness was diagnosed as polio, and then to Grandlands Hospital in Valhalla, Paoli, Pa., where I was treated, starting with my legs. When my breathing began to fail, I was placed in a respirator or "iron lung." After about a week I was able to fight free of the respirator but I was not able to give up the oxygen. Then one morning early in December an aide walked into my room to find me unconscious, in deep amnesia. With a power wheelchair with nasal oxygen, I was carried to the operating room where stand-by power allowed an emergency tracheotomy.

Through the incision in my throat the doctors were able to gain access to my lungs and remove the obstructions, and not a minute too soon. And so it was, back into the respirator, with a long uphill fight for my room to find me unconscious, in deep amnesia. With a power wheelchair with nasal oxygen, I was carried to the operating room where stand-by power allowed an emergency tracheotomy.

Highlights of March
A heart-warming contribution to Mamaroneck's Mothers' March on Polo came last night from Mrs. Kirschner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Kirschner of 228 Union Avenue, Mamaroneck.

Young Joey, a victim of cerebral palsy, sent in a slotted Christmas card with each of the 10 slots filled with a dime.

The area showing the largest return in the drive was Shore Acres where a team of 22 members under Mrs. Edgar B. Ingraham collected $500.

The first returns were made at 8 P. M. when Mrs. A. E. Thomas reported with $80 from her district and the evening's last return was $106.62 brought in by Mrs. Reginald Lamb.

Olav to Raise Roof
A stranger dropping into the Town of Mamaroneck police station last night might have thought there was a trial going on, if he heard the deliberations in the courtroom involving "raising the roof" at the John H. Banks residence, 616 Fifth Avenue, Mamaroneck.

What was actually in progress, however, was a regular meeting of the Town Zoning Board of Appeals, under Acting Chairman C. Benjamin Bush Jr., considering an application by Mr. Danko for a zoning variance.

Mr. Danko, represented by Gustave Kilkau, asked to be allowed to increase the living space in his house, currently occupied by his three children, by raising the roof.

After a brief discussion the variance was unanimously granted.

THRUWAY SAVS 60-Mile Speed Limit Slated For $500-Million Super- Highway

ALBANY (AP) — The State Thruway Authority predicted today it would have the entire New York — to Buffalo superhighway completed or under construction next spring.

In its third annual report to Governor Dewey and the Legislature, the authority also revealed that the entire 477-mile route would be opened to the public late in 1954, "barring further serious deterioration of the international situation."

The 78-page report from the three-member authority also announced:

1. A proposed speed limit of 60 miles per hour will be maintained on the 100-mile superhighway. In previous statements, the authority had stressed that the road was "designed for a 70-mph speed. But a spokesman said today no final decision had been reached.

2. The locations of 37 traffic interchange on the New York Thruway section where tolls will be collected, and the sites of 14 toll stations, including the toll stations will be located between Williamsville in Erie County and Cayuga Valley in Yates County. The authority said it planned to lease various service facilities, such as gasoline stations, garages and restaurants, to private operators along the route, so that the "Principle of free competition will be maintained and the best possible service and quality of product insured to the motorists."

Question of the Week

Korean War, Taxes, Strong UN Seen Main Issues Facing Ike

This is the 27th in a Saturday series of short interviews with residents on issues of the day—local and national. This week's question: WHAT ARE THE MOST IMPORTANT ISSUES FACING OUR NEW PRESIDENT?

Mr. John Stoen, 1524 Henry Avenue, Mamaroneck: "I think the most important issues facing the new president are: Korea, strengthening the United Nations, revitalization of NATO, and the general atmosphere of suspicion and fear which is tending to undermine the confidence of the American people. This last problem is particularly important, because what is threatened is nothing less than the moral fiber of our nation."

Mrs. Alan Reich, 824 Woodlawn Avenue, Mamaroneck: "On the domestic side, I'd say the most important issues are defense of civil liberties from McCarthyism and promotion of a fair-employment practices commission. Abroad, the issues are: need for a sound program of "laid off" workers, and assistance in whatever form is needed to the underprivileged areas of the world in their quest for freedom and self-government."

Mrs. N. M. Barsh, 25 Huerfano Drive, Larchmont: "Right now I think that getting his cabinet all set is his main task. Getting Wilson in shows that the people are working with him for the good of the country. Next there have been some promises made about taxes everybody would like to see kept. His third big job will be to try to clear up the situation in the Far East."

Council Action Is Unanimous; Oath Administered By Judge Schmidt

Reuben Sirlin, 501 Wagner Avenue, Mamaroneck, was sworn in as justice of the peace for the town of Rye yesterday immediately after his unanimous appointment by the Town Council at a special meeting in the town rooms.

The oath of office was administered by Judge Frederick W. Schmidt of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court.

The general understanding of the unexpired term of the late Judge Henry D. Holden which runs to the end of this year. The office will be filled for a four-year term by the town council in November.

The appointment of Mr. Sirlin, who maintains law offices at 211 Mamaroneck Avenue, Mamaroneck, was made after unanimous endorsement of the Rye Town Republican Committee at a meeting Wednesday. It was moved in the Town Council by Councilman Dewey Perreche.

After taking the oath Mr. Sirlin thanked the Council for the confidence expressed in him by the appointment and said, "I will give the post my best efforts and I hope to maintain the same high standards as those exhibited by Judge Holden during his long term as justice."

Judge Holden, Mr. Sirlin's predecessor in the post, served for 11 years prior to his death in 1948.

Mr. Sirlin is a life-long resident of Mamaroneck and has served both the Village of Mamaroneck and the Town of Rye as special counsel.

President May Ask Nationalist Forays On China Airlaid Planes, Big Mo Guns

Pour Fire On Wonsan

SEUL (AP) — Planes from three carrier groups and big mo guns of the battleship Missouri—the "Mighty Mo"—today dumped destruction on the northeast Korean port of Wonsan, already ruined by the longest siege in American naval history.

The Navy said Vice Adm. James Clark, U. S. Fleet commander, planned and was watching the big attack from the Missouri.

Two destroyers joined the massive bombardment against the once-great coast metropolis. Swarms of planes were roaring off the decks of the big carriers Keansage, Oriskany and Phillips sea and the Navy termed a "vicious aerial bombardment" and "an all-out aerial bombardment." By late afternoon no details had been released.

The weather was clear. On the ground, 8th Army head quarters reportedly scattered paratroopers over the coast. The western front was the second day below zero.

The Air Force reported five U. S. warplanes, including #339 Superfortresses, were sent today over North Korea as against six MiGs. A Superfort normally carries a crew of 11 men.

Four authoritative officials (in this reporter that—barring a last minute change in plans—President will announce in a presidential address Monday that he is releasing the 7th Fleet from its duty at Formosa.

This would wipe out a June 7, 1950, order by former President Truman under which the fleet had been sent to Formosa. It has stood by ready to defend Nationalist-held Formosa from attack and to provide air and sea support for Chiang Kai-shek's forces for carrying out air and sea operations against the mainland.

Rails on Mainland Seen: One effect of the expected move would be to release Chiang's Nationalists for communist-type raid and possible air strikes against the mainland.

The move would drive China's Communist forces south toward Korea and is regarded as Mr. D. Eisenhower's announced goal making it unprofitable for the Reds to continue the struggle there.

Mr. Eisenhower's reported decision to go ahead with the plan apparently represents a new and bold step toward warding off possible Chinese Reds than any the Truman administration was willing to try.

The general understanding of Congress was that Mr. Eisenhower would make it clear that Chiang would be strictly on his own with any hit-and-run raids he might make against the mainland.

It was not known what plan the administration might have to ward off possible Communist attacks against Formosa.

The Nationalist leader has force of about 1,000 trained soldiers in Formosa, but they outnumber the planes of all types he has available. And his air force, equipped with 100 fighters, is trained for the defense of the island of Formosa on fighters instead of bombers.

$800,000 VOTED SENATE PROBERS McCarty To Air State Dept. Files Case; Jenner Runs Red Hunt

WASHINGTON (AP) — Investigating Senators were financially equipped today to look for graft and communism in government and crime on the waterfront, and to continue probing the State Department.

The Senate voted about $800,000 to be used for "Eisenhower and his official family."

Within an hour after the vote, Senator McCarty, R. Wis., announced his special investigations subcommittee was on the trail of "maladministration" in the Department of the State, and will give the case a public airing. His subcommittee was given $200,000 for the inquiry.

Mr. McCarty made public a letter to Secretary of State Acheson, urging him that the public be kept in the know of any investigation of communism or other subversive activities.

The Senate voted $120,000 to the Internal Security subcommittee headed by Senator Jenner, R. Ind., who announced he expected to run the Senate's main Red hunt. Mr. Jenner said he already is at work on 10 lines of inquiry, and that "communists in the Army" will be one of them. He did not elaborate on this.

Mr. Jenner also is expected to lead an investigation of alleged Communist infiltration of U. S. members of the United Nations staff.

THIEVES GET $30 FROM PIGGY BANK

Entry Into Guion Drive Home Discovered By Times Carrier

A burglar forced entry into the Robert Felder residence at 230 Guion Drive yesterday and stole about $30 in cash that had been kept in a piggy bank in an upstairs dresser drawer.

Mr. Felder, 111 East Boston Road, Larchmont, said he discovered at 4:20 P. M. by Daily Times carrier Bert Decker of 604 Oakland Road, Mamaroneck, who immediately reported the matter to Mrs. John Akerman who lives next door.

Mr. Akerman notified S. A. Phillips, 210 E. 12th St., a police house near the Peiden residence, and Mr. Phillips and young Decker went through the Peiden house, entering by the front door.

They found a pane of glass smashed over the lock in the kitchen door and then called the police. The police made a further check of the premises and found that bureau drawers and drawers of a night-table in one bedroom had been left open but apparently were not ransacked. Some jewelry and a watch were still lying in one drawer.

Police later contacted Mr. Felder, who had been out of town. Mr. Felder returned and discovered the loss of the piggy bank.

Appointments Hint Action On Korea And Economic Control Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's appointments today with Fleet Adm. William D. Leahy and two Congressional banking experts spurred speculation he plans major moves to Korea and economic control.

The big question was: Is the administration planning a big step designed to bring the Korean War to a close?

Another, led by Mr. Eisenhower's appointment with Senator Capehart, R. Ind., and Representative Wolcott, R. Mich., was: Will the administration continue to be controlled by executive order or be permitted to die a natural death on April 30?

Adm. Leahy Summoned
The President called Adm. Leahy, World War II chief of staff to President Roosevelt and Truman, for a morning conference. While House aides would not disclose the purpose of the meeting, Adm. Leahy has the same status as the late Gen. Douglas MacArthur has in the Army. He is an active duty without assignment.

He is seeing the President one day before Adm. Leahy is scheduled to depart, commander-in-chief of the Pacific Fleet, returns to Washington for his announced assignment as chief of the Navy and will remain for a week.

Highly placed sources yesterday said Gen. Eisenhower may "decontrol" the island of Formosa by recalling the U. S. 7th Fleet from patrol duty in the straits of Formosa. This would free Chinese Nationalist forces on the island for use by the Communists, as well as withdrawing the fleet's protection against any Red Chinese thrust at Formosa.

The sources said Gen. Eisenhower may make the announcement in his state-of-the-Union message, to be delivered in person Monday to Congress. Members of Congress, Democrats as well as Republicans, said generally they would go along with the reported plan to withdraw the 7th Fleet.
