En Route to Japan

Mr. Joseph P. Bernard Jr., above, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Bernard of Chatsworth Gardens, Larchmont, recently left Camp Lejeune, N. C., on a flight that will take him half way around the world. He will participate in maneuvers with Army units in which the latest Marine Corps techniques in naval gunfire and close air support of infantry troops will be demonstrated to Army units of the Far East Command in Japan.

Mr. Bernard is a member of the Marine Corps Air Naval Gunboat Squadron (ANAGS) composed of communications specialists. Since joining the Second Marine Division he has participated in amphibious operations held in the Hawaiian Islands and in the Caribbean area.

A former student at Norwich University, Northfield, Vt., he enlisted in the Marine Corps in July, 1940, and received his basic training at Parris Island, S. C.

At San Diego
Edward J. Reiner, formerly of North Perry Avenue, Mamaroneck, is stationed at the San Diego, Calif. Naval Air Station with the rating of torpedoman's first class.

A graduate of Millhouse High School, New Haven, Conn., he enlisted in the Navy Dec. 10, 1942, and participated in World War II assignments aboard a destroyer in the Pacific. Later he was assigned to the carrier USS Saratoga.

His wife is the former Virginia Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar A. Brown of 52 Prospect Avenue, Mamaroneck. She is a graduate of Bellows High School and Coty College, Waterville, Me. They were married in Holy Trinity Church, Oct. 15.

Poachers Warned
Recently complaints against poachers raising a private wildlife feeding station on the Island Brought Captain Horst of the U. S. Wildlife Restoration Service to Mamaroneck. She is a postmaster of the main station, which has been maintained by Sylvia P. Stewart of 2 Shore Road, Mamaroneck, who reported that poachers have been taking the game and wildlife which are accustomed to feed there.

Lt. Herman Pauls of Mamaroneck police said that Captain Horst will place warning placards at both park police stations and other public places in the Mamaroneck and Rye areas. It will be made if the warnings are not heeded, Captain Horst indicated.

Crashes into Store
A coupe owned by Eugene Hayden of 1115 Park Avenue, Mamaroneck, rolled driverless downgrade on Mamaroneck Avenue yesterday at 7:20 A. M. and crashed into the doorway of Jubb's store at 133 Mamaroneck Avenue, smashing large plate glass windows and damaging the store front.

Mr. Hayden, co-drummer at Winged Foot Golf Club, had parked the car in front of 188 Mamaroneck Avenue and told police that the emergency brake must have become released in some manner. Insurance on the car is expected to cover the damage to the store.

Battery Taken
Two boys age youngsters helped themselves Saturday morning to the battery of a car owned by Joseph Kellenberger of 129 Hickory Grove Drive, Larchmont. Kellenberger, who had parked his car overnight in front of his home, reported the theft to town police at 11 A. M. Saturday.

By 1:30 P. M. Detective Chasney Smith had traced the two boys to a wooded area near Hickory Grove Drive where they had inserted the battery in the car. One of them had purchased. Police returned the battery to the owner after warning the boys about their offense. Kellenberger did not press charges.

Leash Your Dogs
If dog owners in the Town of Mamaroneck wish to avoid the possibility of being fined, they must keep their pets leashed outside their homes. Strict enforcement of the town ordinance which restricts the freedom of dogs from May 1 to Oct. 1 began today. Police Chief Paul Verick announced.

The ordinance reads: "No dog shall be allowed on any highway, sidewalk or public place in the Town of Mamaroneck from the first day of May to the first day of October, in any year, unless such dog be held on a leash."

Wide Area Plunged Into Darkness Here By 2 Power Breaks

A total of 6,440 customers of the Westchester Lighting Company in the Mamaroneck area were affected by two breaks in their power circuits Saturday evening. The more serious break at 8:34 P. M. was caused by the failure of an oil circuit breaker at the substation on Waverly Avenue, Mamaroneck, leaving various sections in darkness for periods which ranged from one minute to an hour and a half.

Mamaroneck Village and Town Police switchboards were flooded with calls from disturbed residents when both an overhead lighting failed in an area which included parts of Rye and Larchmont, as well as all of Mamaroneck village and a large section of the Town of Mamaroneck.

Radio No. 11 operated by Village Police Lt. Louis Giancola, was used as an emergency liaison at headquarters in the Municipal Building. It was parked with its headlights illuminating the interior of headquarters until complete service was restored at 10:17 P. M.

L. Giancola, who assisted Desk Officer Hugh Downey in handling the flood of phone calls, reported that the substation was flooded with smoke and that there were after the mishap. He said that workmen were hurriedly hooking up emergency crews and a number of emergency crews dispatched from Mount Vernon.

In the town, Officer John E. Rowan employed Patrol Car 3 as an emergency radio station, as the headquarters power failed. Larchmont police headquarters were unaffected because of emergency lights and flares.

Interim Rates Continued Until Oct. 31 Pending PSC Decision

The interim rates for New York-Westchester communication, which were granted the New Haven Railroad in June 1949 and which were due to expire yesterday, have been extended by the New York State Public Service Commission to and including Oct. 31, unless sooner terminated or changed by the commission.

Commissioner George A. Kirkpatrick called attention to the fact that "The New Haven has also applied to the Interstate Commerce Commission for a Section 19 order in regard to the higher rates sought in its World War II agreements about a destroyer in the Pacific. Later he was assigned to the carrier USS Saratoga."

The interim increases allowed last summer were the first granted since the 1949 rates. In 1947 the New Haven claims it sought to raise its communication rates from the 1929 rates to the level existing through the remainder of the territory served by the railroad. At that time the increase did not bring those rates up to that level.

The temporary extension, according to Herbert Akshof, chairman of the Westchester "Consumer Group," means simply a postponement of the final decision on what the rates should be.

"There was no other course open," he said.

24-Hour Rain Raises Water In Reservoirs

NEW YORK (AP)—New York City's rain makers entered no official claim—but rain fell on the city for nearly 24 hours after they started a cloud-making experiment at a coastal causeway yesterday.

The rain fell also in the Catskill Mountains, where the city's water program has been in partial runoff of nearly two billion gallons and expected more.

The experiment started at midnight Saturday with a generator streaming blue plumes of silver iodide smoke into the stormy mountain air to stimulate rain-drop formation.

Eight hours later, sleet began to fall in the area, followed by steady, drizzling rain that lasted until early this morning.

Dr. Wallace E. Howell, the city's $100-a-day rain expert, directed the experiment by remote control from his home in Boston.

As in other cases when rain or snow followed his efforts, he made no formal claim, contenting himself with only a "perhaps."

The city's reservoirs now are 92.6 per cent full.

'Reds' Seize Wisconsin Town, But 'Commies' Sneer At Coup

MONROE, Wis. (AP)—An alleged assault teams of known-loyalty Communist instructors took over this paper mill town shortly after dawn today.

Mayor Ralph E. Krosenwetter, Police Chief Cyril Coville and other city officials were hustled into Wisconsin, the men were ordered to leave the town.

The revolution was a mock-up of the Communist Party's tactics, which they planned it, the affair was a serious one staged recently in Europe.

The "Monday Weekly Times" was taken over by one group and "The Red Star," a special edition, was printed and distributed immediately, instructing citizens to do so and that they must act under the new regime.

Newsday at the Bowling Green was taken over by one group and "The Red Star," a special edition, was printed and distributed immediately, instructing citizens to do so and that they must act under the new regime.

Another contribution was made to the Communist Party's campaign today. The "Daily Worker," official newspaper of the Communist Party, carried two pamphlets at its doorstep.

Phone Companies Protest Plan To Tip Off Police On Bookies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Telephone companies objected today to a proposed anti-gambling bill on the grounds it would saddle them with the responsibility of policing the gambling underworld.

Clyde S. Bailey, executive vice president of the U. S. Independent Telephone Association, protested in a prepared statement that a "whole army" would be needed to weed out telephone calls by gamblers and bookmakers.

S. Whitely Landon, attorney for the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., said it would be "dangerous and unwise" for a telephone company "to assume the function of law enforcement itself."

The testimony was given to a Senate Commerce subcommittee which is studying a Justice Department bill designed to ban the movement of gambling information across state lines.

The committee under Chairman McFarland, D. Ariz., sought information on the volume of such traffic by wire.

Under the "broad terms" of the bill, Bailey said, a telephone company would be guilty of violating the law in permitting gamblers to make telephone calls.

He urged the companies would be forced to monitor all calls under such circumstances. "The bill would thus have the effect of converting telephone companies into police agencies," he added.

This monitoring could not be done, he said, because "it would involve the employment of a whole army of employees doing nothing else."

Senator Tobey, R., N. H., told a reporter he wants to look into legal points in connection with the bill.

Two Autos Damaged On Halstead Avenue

The right rear door of a 1949 sedan operated by Harold Triebel, Yorkers stationer, was damaged Saturday at 9:26 P. M. when it was struck by a coupe operated by Thomas A. Salli, eighteen, of Wagner Avenue, Mamaroneck.

Both cars were headed east on Halstead Avenue, Mamaroneck, when Salli, who was driving at the time he started to pass Salli when the latter began to turn right. He said he was unable to avoid the crash when Salli abruptly changed his mind and made a left turn. Salli said the car struck his when he made the left turn.

A passing motorist helped the driver of the car and took McNamee to the hospital where he was treated and released. The car was towed away.

Car Bounces Off Curb Into Passing Vehicle

A 1947 sedan operated by Charles S. Black, chauffeur, of Bredford and a 1941 car operated by Walter A. Brewer, dispatcher of Yorkers, were damaged in a collision at 5:40 P. M. yesterday on East Post Road, Mamaroneck.

Brewer told Mamaroneck police that another car forced him against the curb and his car rebounded into that of Black as both cars were traveling east on the Post Road. The right rear fender of Black's car was damaged and left fender of Brewer's car.

Berlin May Day Jobs Are as Am As in London

BERLIN (AP)—More than a million Berliners massed near the East-West borders in this nerve center of the cold war today in rival May Day demonstrations, but calm police action on both sides prevented major violence.

In this shattered city where East meets West across piles of rubble, Berliners estimated the number at least 500,000 on each side of the biggest May Day demonstration in Berlin's history.

Stones flew and there were some minor fights, but police dispersed the unruly elements in time to prevent rioting.

On the Communists side of the Brandenburg gate—on Unter Den Linden, where Hitler's legion once marched—Berliners once again heard the sound of marching feet in regular fashion. The Communists were staging a parade featuring the newly trained Soviet police army. It looked like a dress rehearsal for the forthcoming Whitehouse demonstration.

SENATE GOP SPLIT BY RED QUIZ MOVE

Some Seek To End Inquiry Into McCarty's Charges As 'Politics Packed'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republicans were reported split today by a move among some of their members to seek an early end to five inquiries into Senator McCarty's Communist involvement charges.

A "Red Quiz" Subcommittee headed by Senator Tyng, D. Me., continues its investigations of McCarty's alleged ties with the Communist Party in 1946.

McCarty has said Miss Ullmer, who he identified as a former Communist, had been in the White House in 1946 and had "definitely decided to throw in his lot with the totalitarian enemies of America."

McCarty's contention that a latimure was the principal architect of the Communist Party's strategy.

STUDENT FINED HERE FOLLOWING ACCIDENT

Julio Genarelli Jr., sixteen, of 39 South Third Avenue, Mount Vernon, a student, was fined $5 by Judge Henry T. Hornblower in Mamaroneck police court this morning for operating an automobile without a license following an accident Sunday at 1:25 P. M. in front of the Central School on West Post Road.

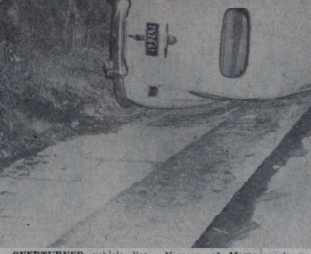

He was operating a 1935 pickup truck owned by his father when he halted in the second traffic lane to pick up some youthful hitchhikers. The truck was hit from the rear by a sedan operated by Mrs. Shirley W. Ferguson of 31 Bonfield Road, Bronxville, whose mother, Mrs. John R. Walker, of 119 Dubois Avenue, Larchmont, was a passenger.

Mrs. Walker suffered a sprained ankle but declined medical treatment, according to Patrolman Charles Hanna of Mamaroneck. The grill and right front fender had to be piled loose from the right front wheel before the car could be towed. The tailboard and body of the truck were also damaged. Genarelli had a learner's permit, according to police, but was not accompanied by a licensed driver.

Taxi Tangles With Car In Grand St. Accident

A taxi operated by Clifford Brower of 119 Dubois Avenue, Mamaroneck, crashed into the left side of a 1939 sedan operated by Joseph Greto, carpenter, of 63 Grand Street, Mamaroneck, at 1:40 P. M. yesterday.

Started from the curb in front of his home as Brower was passing. The right front door of the car of the taxi was damaged, as well as the left side of the sedan. The bumper of Greto's car. Both vehicles were insured.

Namara of Mamaroneck was treated at New Rochelle Hospital for face bruises. Three passengers in the car all escaped injury. McNamee told police he lost control of the car while attempting a sharp curve on Webster Avenue under the New Haven Railroad bridge at 9 P. M. Saturday. —Staff Photo

Combing the Town

School Budget Night

Taxpayers in the Town of Mamaroneck and Rye will vote on their respective school budgets at 8 o'clock tonight following the annual school district meetings. Mamaroneck town residents will meet in the Mamaroneck Central High School and Rye Neck residents at Bellows Avenue School. A formal hearing on the budgets and an other school program taxpayers wish to introduce will precede the ballot voting. One hundred taxpayers who registered April 21 and 22 will be permitted to vote.

The election of school trustees in each district will take place tomorrow. There is no contest in either district.

Voting hours tomorrow are from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. at Mamaroneck High School where Robert C. Duncan and Vice President are running unopposed for trustee; and from 1 to 9 P. M. at Bellows High School where Edward J. Arthur, Edgar B. Burchell Jr., Arthur E. Allen Jr., and George Garfunkel are running.

Member in Ireland

The Rev. Joseph Houlahan of Ireland, cousin of Larchmont Freeman Patrick, was elected recently made an honorary life member of the Larchmont Fire Department. Edward J. Arthur, chairman of the Larchmont Fire Department Association announced today.

The association last night officially presented Father Houlahan's acceptance through the reading of a letter mailed from Ireland 10 days ago.

Local firemen met the Irish missionary while he was visiting St. Augustine's Parish last fall.

Bike Safety Talks

L. Herman Paul, city coordinator for the Mamaroneck Police Department spoke on safety habits for bicycle riders yesterday at general assemblies in Mamaroneck and Central Schools.

He will give similar talks tomorrow at Barry Avenue School at 8 P. M. and at St. Basil's School at 1 P. M. and is scheduled to speak Thursday at 7:30 A. M. at Holy Trinity School. The bike safety talks are similar to that given by Lt. Paul at the 10 days ago at Mamaroneck Junior High School.

Passing Ammunition

While directing traffic near the Murray Avenue School yesterday, Officer McClintock of the Town police noticed an eleven-year-old student crossing the street trying to hide a minute object held in his hand.

McClintock looked closer and suddenly realized the youngster was attempting to slip the object off a 22 caliber round of ammunition.

The boy told the officer he had received the round from another student and McClintock immediately informed the parents of the boy of the incident.

Miss Day Elected

Miss Pearl Day, head librarian of the Larchmont Public Library, has been elected chairman of the membership committee of the New York State Library.

The association concluded a three-day session Saturday at the Hotel Roosevelt, where the 67th annual conference was held.

CIVIC UNIT MAPS THROUGH BATTLE

Larchmont Gardens Group Urges County Clubs To Fight Route

The Larchmont Gardens Civic Association through its executive committee will outline the aid of other Westchester civic organizations to protest the proposed location of the route of the New England Turnpike and to recommend that it be diverted to less densely populated areas, Frank B. Berich, president of the local association announced yesterday.

A detailed list of reasons for the association's opposition was made public today, three weeks after a spirited encounter between James Harding, county commissioner of Public Works, and 250 residents who packed the Weaver Street Fire House to protest the proposed route.

The statement issued by the Gardens Civic Association reads as follows:

"There is no reason for the county to donate county-owned properties to the State for construction of a turnpike. Property acquired in prior years by the county for the Palham-Portchester Parkway could be sold at a profit."

Budget Filed

There were no dissenting votes as the Larchmont board of trustees voted unanimously last night to accept Mayor Walter B. C. Washburn's proposed tax rate of $18.20 per thousand for the 1950 fiscal year, $1.30 lower than last year.

The rate was reduced largely because of the higher assessed valuation in the village and a slight decrease in estimated expenses in comparison with last year's budget.

Red Charges Denied As Lattimore Terms 'Bad Risk' McCarthy 'Bad Risk'

Far East Expert Calls Budenz 'Plain or Pathological Liar'

WASHINGTON, (AP)— Owen Lattimore declared under oath today that charges he was a Communist and Russia's top spy "are not supported by a shred of evidence, perjured or otherwise."

Lattimore said Senator McCarthy's charges are "plain or pathological lies."

As for ex-Communist Louis Budenz—who swore his Communist official records Lattimore termed him a liar—"either a plain old-fashioned liar or a pathological liar."

Of Freda Ullery, who said only she and Lattimore were Communist, he acts like one, the witness said: "An equally serious charge is made that Ullery herself for a time followed the Communists line long after she says that she ceased to be a Communist."

5 LAWYERS GIVEN NEW COURT STAY

Sacher and Other Communist Trial Figures to Make New Appeal

NEW YORK, (AP)—Five lawyers, referred to jail for contempt of court during the Communist conspiracy trial last year, have won a new delay in serving their terms.

They were to have begun serving their terms today. The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals granted the stay yesterday pending the decision on a motion made by the five lawyers and by defendant Eugene Dennis, who served as his own counsel.

The five lawyers involved are Harry Sacher of New Rochelle and Richard Gladstein, sentenced to 30 days; A. J. Eisenman and George W. Crockett Jr., four months each; and Louis F. McCauley, 30 days. Dennis drew six months.

The six men moved for a stay of their contempt sentences until 15 days after the U. S. Supreme Court has ruled on the constitutionality and prison sentences of 11 Communist leaders on conspiracy charges.

Dennis and 10 confederates were convicted in U. S. District Court last fall in charges of conspiracy to advocate violent overthrow of the government. They were fined $10,000 each in addition to prison sentences—five years for 10 of them and three years for one.

Paul L. Ross, counsel for six men sentenced for contempt, said he would ask the appeals court to rehear the case and to set aside the contempt sentences. He said the contempt sentences upholding the contempt sentence.

Taxi Problem To Be Probed As Larchmont Owner Charges Discrimination At R. R. Depot

After an informal discussion before the Larchmont Board of Trustees last night by representatives of the New Haven Railroad and two local taxi companies, Mayor Walter B. C. Washburn appointed a committee to consider the improvement of taxi service at the Larchmont Railroad Station. Also assigned to the committee were Village Engineer Arthur Richards and Police Chief William J. Keesey. They will consult Superintendent B. F. Barco of the New Haven.

The problem dates from last March when George Polera of the Radio Taxi Company asked the board to let him get permission from the railroad to park four of his cabs beside eight cabs of the Yellow Cab Company, west of the waiting room at the Larchmont station. After Trustee Kane had talked informally with Barco, the board invited Barco along with Thomas Germano of the Larchmont Yellow Cab Company and Polera to appear before the board to iron out the problem.

Contract between the two cab companies and the railroad call for an 80-foot rental at $100 a month to the Yellow Cab Company east of the waiting room and a 40-foot rental at $50 a month to the Radio Taxi Company east of the waiting room. Polera claimed that his assignment on the easterly side of the waiting room is discriminatory since he rarely gets "cream" of the passengers during rush hours.

Kenneth B. Morton of Mamaroneck, attorney for the railroad, told the board that as far as the railroad was concerned the present arrangement is satisfactory. Referring to a suggestion that the board of the Yellow Transportation Company be moved from the present space on the west side of the waiting room near the undertrack ramp to the east side so that Radio Taxi could also take advantage of the westerly space he said, "I suggest that that is not completely because the parking facility is designed for the convenience of the bus passengers."

MAN FOUND DEAD IN NEW ROCHELLE

Body With Bullet Hole In Temple Discovered in Strip of Woods

NEW ROCHELLE—The body of a young man, with bullet hole in his right temple, was found in a strip of woods in the southeast section of the town, John Schneider, nine, and his brother, William, eight, 2 Littleton Street, stumbled on the body at 5 P. M. yesterday. At New Rochelle Hospital it was said the man had been dead some 100 minutes.

The body was found 100 feet west of the New Haven Railroad tracks and 300 feet west of the road. The body was lying on its left side. A 22-caliber foreign-made automatic was found behind the body, and a bullet was in the man's right temple in front of his ear. Five cartridges were still in a clip in the "chamber."

There was a complete lack of clues toward the man's identification, but there were no laundry marks nor store labels. There were no identification cards or letters in his pockets.

The man was described as being approximately 25 years old, muscular in build, his hair is black. He was dressed in a tan reversible raincoat, gray trousers, brown moccasins and a brown checkered shirt.

Harbor Island Beach Chosen For Series Of Health Tests

The Harbor Island Beach in Mamaroneck is one of two in Westchester County selected by the United States Public Health Service and the Westchester County Health Department for a series of tests to be conducted between June 1 and Sept. 4 to determine the effect of salt water bathing and pollution on disease.

R. M. McLaughlin, director of the Division of Sanitation for the County Health Department, said today that there is no question about the safety of the Mamaroneck Beach, but that it was chosen "as the best example of a good beach" to be compared with New Rochelle which is known as a "bad one."

The Board of Supervisors in White Plains yesterday afternoon approved a report of its Budget Committee recommending participation in the survey, which will cost the county an estimated $4,000 of which half will be reimbursed by the State.

Budget Chairman William P. Moran of Eastchester accepted an amendment by Minority Leader John E. Tobin of Yonkers, that Health Commissioner William A. Holla be requested to ask that the survey also include the effect on the Hudson River of the outflow from the two county sewage disposal plants in Yonkers.

After the meeting, Dr. Holla told Mr. Tobin that the county is planning a separate study of the effect on the Hudson River of the outflow from the two county sewage disposal plants.

Two eleven-year-old boys, both Senior Boy Scouts, were stopped Saturday by Sgt. William V. Pappas as they started to ride in the wrong direction on Spruce Street, a one-way street, one of the boys is a pupil at Stephen's High School and the other attends Tons High School.

A late model sedan operated by Frederick Bayer of 416 Lafayette Avenue, Mamaroneck, was struck at 7:40 A. M. today on Mamaroneck Avenue at Hoyt Street by a car operated by Albert DeMarco of 203 East Lakeview Avenue, East White Plains, according to Bayer's report to Mamaroneck police. He stated that the front of his car was badly damaged.

Bayer, an airline representative, reported that he came to a full stop on Hoyt Street before making a left turn into Mamaroneck Avenue. He said he had reached the center of Mamaroneck Avenue when DeMarco, headed south, crashed into his car. DeMarco's report had not been received at 10 A. M.

Board Refuses 3-Month Signs

Sutton Leads Realty Board Protest Against Proposal

The Larchmont Board of Trustees last night turned thumbs down on a proposed change in the village zoning ordinance which would give property owners the right to erect for a period of three months temporary signs not to exceed 10 square feet in area. Realtor Thomas Sutton spoke vigorously against the amendment on behalf of the Larchmont Real Estate Board.

"Under the present ordinance we cannot even print our own signs without a permit," he said, "and we wish it to remain that way. We feel that if the ordinance is changed or temporary permits for signs exceeding about 10 to 15 inches are issued to anyone from out of town it is discriminatory against those of us who are here in Larchmont all year round. Those who want the signs are here for three months and then they're gone."

Mr. Sutton said he was used purely for advertising purposes. We agents had a working agreement among ourselves to keep large signs off buildings in order to beautify the village. Years ago other Westchester communities followed our lead.

"No one spoke in favor of the proposal and the board voted a unanimous 'No'."

Body With Bullet Hole In Temple Discovered in Strip of Woods

NEW ROCHELLE—The body of a young man, with bullet hole in his right temple, was found in a strip of woods in the southeast section of the town, John Schneider, nine, and his brother, William, eight, 2 Littleton Street, stumbled on the body at 5 P. M. yesterday. At New Rochelle Hospital it was said the man had been dead some 100 minutes.

The body was found 100 feet west of the New Haven Railroad tracks and 300 feet west of the road. The body was lying on its left side. A 22-caliber foreign-made automatic was found behind the body, and a bullet was in the man's right temple in front of his ear. Five cartridges were still in a clip in the "chamber."

There was a complete lack of clues toward the man's identification, but there were no laundry marks nor store labels. There were no identification cards or letters in his pockets.

The man was described as being approximately 25 years old, muscular in build, his hair is black. He was dressed in a tan reversible raincoat, gray trousers, brown moccasins and a brown checkered shirt.

Kayser, who reported the accident yesterday to Mamaroneck police, stated that Blair notified him after the crash. The rear of Kayser's car was considerably damaged.

Nurse Asks End To Spending 'Every Time Stalin Scares Us'

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Edwina R. Nurse, former top economist to the White House, spoke out today against plumping up new military outlays "every time Joe Stalin throws a scare into us."

Nurse predicted a $7 billion deficit this year, she said in a speech to the United States Chamber of Commerce that the "Budget Balance" is "greater in its scope and reach than any budget known through the history of World War II."

The United States, like Gen. Antonio G. McMillin, said Nurse, "must learn to say 'no.'"

Nurse said "as an industrialist, I am not a devotee of the military to bluff us as to our respectability as a wage industrialist-warfare."

The economist, who resigned as first chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors in November, said national security is a matter of economic might as well as military power.

Combing The Town

Bright Spot

A bright spot in the current Mamaroneck cancer fund drive was reported at the Westchester Building this morning as a result of yesterday's call for solicitors.

Mayor E. J. Santoro received a call from a volunteer who said she would be glad to assist with the collection and Mrs. the Mayor said it involved door-to-door solicitation, the one she would be willing to do that.

The third question, however, related to the fact that in Larchmont and the Mayor replied that he fails to do a neighborhood visit, he would have to advise her to communicate with the chairman of the Larchmont drive.

The volunteer, who gave her name as Mrs. Edward S. Meehan of 10 Thompson Hill street but said she would still be on call to help Mamaroneck if her services were needed.

Fall Harbor

With moorings allocated to 350 small boats in Mamaroneck Harbor by May 1, the odds are 1-2 with no takers that Harbor Master Robert Harriott will wish he had a helicopter to cover the waterfront here before the 1950 season hits its peak.

Disclosing that mooring space is already at a premium throughout the year and that he has Village Manager William H. Johnson's comments that 140 dinghies will be tied up at the municipal float and more than 200 other small craft at several boatyards and private moorings.

The boats will cut the harbor all the way from the mouth of the Sheldrake River to open water beyond the shelter of Shepaug Point.

Bike Tests Monday

Petitioned upon receiving vehicle tests and checkups, a bicycle testing program will be conducted at Mamaroneck Avenue School Monday from 9 A. M. until noon. L. Herman Pauls of the Mamaroneck police, who will be the principal bikes with William F. Celestino, health and physical education teacher, conduct these tests as an example for other schools during the current bicycle safety drive.

The three-hour schedule is expected to permit the testing of all of the pupils' bikes. The innovation was arranged with the cooperation of Principals and the Warren of Mamaroneck Avenue School and Dr. Edward W. Burton, Mamaroneck physical education supervisor.

Experiment Ends

The trustees of the Mamaroneck Free Library voted yesterday 10 to 5 to discontinue the Thursday evening hours at the library since the County Trust and reported yesterday that circulation last month totaled 5,830, an increase of 750 volumes over April, 1949. The library registered 54 new borrowers and renewed 24 association membership cards.

Committee Member

A. E. Tuttle of 705 Munro Avenue, Mamaroneck, has been named as the superintendent of schools in the Mamaroneck school district, has been named as a member of the nominating committee and the general committee of the New York State School Boards Officials' Association.

Mr. Tuttle was on the organizing committee when the association was formed in the Spring of 1948.

The annual convention of the association will take place May 23, 24 and 25 in Syracuse, N. Y.

Prompt Tax Payers

When the penalty-free month of April ended, 93 per cent of the Town of Mamaroneck's $1,213,287.20 tax levy had been received, Tax Collector Henry R. Dillon reported today.

The collection marks the best record in the history of town records. Mr. Dillon states, noting that he can remember when 65 per cent during the first month was considered good. Last year's April collection totaled slightly under 81 per cent.

On Cruise to Cuba

Palino Tuzo, 41-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tuzo of 27-12 Murray Avenue, Larchmont, left Saturday for a two-week cruise to Cuba with the United States Navy.

A member of the Naval Reserve, Tuzo is a senior at Mamaroneck High School.

Votes Down State Aid

GREENWICH—By an overwhelming vote of 149 to 10, the Greenwich representative town meeting 1,845 night turned thumbs down on the acceptance of an estimated $15 million in state subsidies towards school building construction.

Not one word was raised from the floor in approval of the motion.

Participants argued they would be built over the schools without sharing in the state subsidy program. They plan to build two new schools in the next 10 years.

FIREMEN LAUNCH APPEAL FOR FUND Annual Solicitation Begins For Town Welfare Fund

The annual welfare fund appeal of the Weaver Street Volunteer Fire Department is being launched this week with a request for support from all residents of the Town of Mamaroneck. Fred Zulich, chairman of the solicitation and finance committee, announced today.

The volunteers are being asked to donate to the fund to help maintain the welfare fund which aids members who suffer losses or injuries in the line of duty.

"The volunteers do not add one penny to town taxes for their work which, if paid for, would cost $10,000 to the town," said Zulich. "The fund is a request for help from the community to help those who are injured or killed in the line of duty."

To acquire every resident with the protection given by the Weaver Street volunteers, the department is issuing a pamphlet which shows how local property assessed at $100.00 can contribute $1.00 to the fund.

122 VOTERS CAST SCHOOL BALLOTS

Duncan and Luceno; Burchell, Allen, Garfunkel Named To Boards

A quiet school board election drew 122 voters to the polls in the Mamaroneck and Eye Neck Districts as 122 voters cast their ballots for the proposed school trustee candidates.

In the Town of Mamaroneck, 60 voters went to the polls to elect Robert C. Duncan, and 62 for Robert C. Luceno and 60 for Robert C. Burchell. The new trustees will succeed Luther Nelson and Raymond P. O'Connor.

Fifty-three persons voted in Eye Neck: 48 for Edgar B. Burchell Jr. and 5 for Arthur E. Allen Jr. and 49 for George Garfunkel. The registry totaled 194 in that district.

Mr. Burchell was elected to his third term and Mr. Allen was elected for the first time, having served by appointment since last July when John P. Fox resigned. Mr. Garfunkel will be serving for the first time succeeding Trustee Raymond P. O'Connor.

The new trustees take office at their first meeting in July.

GOL. BROWN KILLS SELF IN MARYLAND

Rye Man Uses World War Gun to Take Life In Pantry of Southern Home

CHESTERTOWN, Md. (AP)—The sixty-seven-year-old treasurer, who started out as an office boy on the New York Herald, was found in the pantry at Goddard Manor, his Maryland retirement home, on his Maryland eastern shore.

He had been under treatment for a nervous condition and his personal physician was staying at his home.

The physician, Dr. A. C. Dick, said he discovered Brown's automatic. Dr. Frank W. Emish, medical examiner for Kent County, issued a verdict of suicide. Brown had been shot through the left chest, the bullet going completely through his body.

Cancer Help Obtained In 4 Districts

Organization for the final effort in the Mamaroneck cancer campaign is nearing completion, according to an announcement made today by Mayor E. J. Santoro, chairman of the drive who today named captains in four of the districts still to be solicited.

Co-captains appointed in District 4 are Leo H. Heitbaum and James A. Gunn. Anthony Santoro, village attorney, has assumed the role of district captain in District 6. The Sherrin Area district will be solicited by Mayor Mamaroneck William H. Johnson while Alessandro Manzoni, local attorney, has offered to manage the drive in District 1. District 1 is being handled by Jack Vallarelli, Renato Divilio, Paolo Ferrerino, John Lombardo and Louis Prandi.

Mayor Santoro pointed out that the campaign is the most intensive he has ever had and that it is essential that every citizen be familiar with cancer and its effect. In a general way but few realize that in House cancer last year the disease claimed the lives of 20 persons. He again urged generous support of the drive and said that Mr. Heitbaum, Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Santoro had taken on the extra work of capturing the districts despite the fact that they are already on other special committees and have barely received the campaign for some time.

Whiskey, Beer Tax Cut Voted Down in House

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee today voted against any cut in federal taxes on whiskey and beer. Working away on a proposed tax-cutting bill, the committee turned thumbs down on motions to reduce the 16 to 18 gallon liquor tax to $7.50 a gallon. This would have trimmed revenue by $200 million. The whiskey tax was raised $3 a gallon during the war.

Cut the 18 to 20 barrel beer tax to $5 a barrel. If approved, this would have raised $40 million a year in taxes.

No proposal was made today to reduce wine excise imposts.

Chrysler And PUC Agree on Terms To End 99-Day Strike

Workers Due to Return Monday; Walkout Second Longest

DETROIT, (AP)—The 99-day Chrysler strike, second longest and costliest in the history of the automotive industry, was settled today.

The strike won $1,427,320,800 in lost wages and a 10-cent hourly raise short of the record $1,457,000,000 General Motors strike of 1946-48. Settlement 113 days.

Chrysler and the CIO United Auto Workers announced agreement with new contract at 9:23 A. M.

The 99,000 strikers in 25 Chrysler plants across the country will return to work by Monday. Pity that the strike in supplier plants will stream back behind them. The company hopes to reach capacity production within two weeks.

Union Claims Victory

The union claims it got the "10-cent-an-hour package" in pension and hospital and medical benefits for which it called the strike Jan. 28.

The contract carried a $100 monthly pension, including federal social security benefits, for workers who have worked 20 years. Hospital and medical benefits also were hiked.

The new contract, which would run for three years, must have the formal approval of local unions. National Labor Law will end the strike.

Aviator Plunges To His Death at County Airport

National Guard Officer Killed in First Fatal Crash There

RYE LAKE—Death flew with Lt. Robert K. Pellicane, twenty-six-year-old National Guard pilot from Hollis, as he veered to the right on a landing at the Westchester County Airport yesterday afternoon and crashed 2,000 feet from the field's apron.

National Guard officials said that Lt. Pellicane had been on a routine flight when his P-47 Thunderbolt careened out of control and crashed to the ground. Pellicane had been attached to the 41st Squadron, 12th Air Force, 52d Fighter Wing which maintains headquarters at the National Guard Armory in White Plains.

A preliminary investigation indicated no plane failure was involved in the crash. It was said at 52d Fighter Wing headquarters that the pilot made "100 tight a turn."

Engines and propellers of P-47s in the county with the exception of a result of a directive from the National Guard Bureau in Washington ordered in White Plains Tuesday.

Some observers said that the accident was the result of a close call because the plane reportedly had several engines aboard. Photographers from the Post-Chester Daily News had been restrained from entering the area.

But Maj. William Lawrence, operations officer, who is conducting the investigation of the accident, strongly denied this and contended that the cause of the crash was government property. A routine investigation, he said, would exclude entrance of unauthorized persons.

The airport property is owned by the county with the exception of the National Guard hangar and the control tower, which is operated in Turkey. The Soviet Civil Aeronautics Commission.

This is the first air fatality here graded next month from entering the area.

Check Your Car, Police Urge As Safety Drive Is Launched

Another step in Mamaroneck's campaign to promote safety on the highways is being taken by local police this month as all car owners are being urged to have their cars checked for mechanical defects.

Mayor E. J. Santoro points out in a proclamation today that in view of the program being sponsored by the State Division of Safety in the hope of eliminating the causes of automobile accidents, Police Chief Arthur W. Martensen has requested police officers to become thoroughly acquainted with automotive equipment provisions in the Motor Vehicle Law so that they may encourage vehicle owners to participate in the "Check Your Car" program.

Most of the service stations and garages in Mamaroneck have agreed to participate in the campaign, the Mayor states. His proclamation concludes that it respectfully urges the citizens of our village during the month of May to have their cars checked for safety thereby doing their part to make the "Motor Vehicle Maintenance" program of the New York State Division of Safety a success in every way.

Lt. Herman Pauls, safety coordinator for the village police department who is in charge of the campaign, listed the following equipment which should be checked on all cars: brakes, tires, windshield wipers, steering mechanism, horn, muffler, gas, head and tail lights, reflectors and rear view mirror.

HOUSE UNIT VOTES DRAFT EXTENSION

Committee, 31 to 0, Approves Bill to Add Two Years To Service Act

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The House Armed Services Committee today voted 31 to 0 to extend the military draft another two years. Congress would decide, however, when they would be actual inductions.

Chairman Vinson, D. Cal., said the draft extension will be put up to the House immediately for passage. The present Selective Service Act is due to expire June 30.

The committee acted after hearing top officials police and defense men describe mounting world unrest.

The legislation before the House group would:

1. Amend the present law which expires June 30 to prevent any induction until Congress has given the signal by declaring a national emergency.
2. Curb the President's power to take over war-essential industries until Congress declares the emergency.

If the law is extended, every male between the ages of eighteen and twenty-six who lives in the United States would have to register—unless he has already done so—and take a physical examination to determine his fitness for military duty.

Truman Sees Defense Cut

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Truman said today he is not alarmed over the cold war situation and that he expects a lower defense budget next year.

Mr. Truman said the situation is much better now than it was in 1946; that he is optimistic over hopes for peace. In speaking of a lower defense budget next year, Mr. Truman had in mind the present fiscal year beginning July 1, 1951. The present year, he said, will be the most expensive months beginning next July 1.

Mr. Truman's news conference remarks were touched off by questions about a speech Senator Tydings, D. Md., made to the Rotary Club here yesterday. Tydings, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said he feared a war might start "accidentally" at 8 P. M.

A reporter told Mr. Truman that Tydings said this country is close to a shooting war with Russia.

The President said he thought Tydings was unduly alarmed if he said that.

ST. GEORGE MEMBERS SET BREAKFAST HERE

The St. George Association of Westchester County police employees Chapter 29, will hold its third annual communion service and breakfast at St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Mamaroneck Sunday at 8 A. M.

Supreme Court Judge Frederick G. Schmidt will be the guest speaker at the breakfast.

Other guests will include the Rev. Dr. J. Santoro, sports editor and advisor to the St. George Chapter; Rep. Ralph A. Gamble; Mayor E. J. Santoro, Chief of Police Arthur W. Martensen; Mamaroneck Justice of the Peace, Frank Meyer, president of the Protestant Men's League of Yonkers; and William Godwin, president of the St. George Association, Westchester Police and Firemen.

Smoke Fits Basement When Motor Smolders

Town of Mamaroneck firemen were called to Oak Haven Apartments, 172 Myrtle Boulevard, Larchmont, at 12:23 A. M. today when overheat insulation in the basement of the building, owned by the building, attempted unsuccessfully to put out the fire with an extinguisher. Fireman Edward Miller extinguished it with water from a fire engine booster tank.

Another step in Mamaroneck's campaign to promote safety on the highways is being taken by local police this month as all car owners are being urged to have their cars checked for mechanical defects.

Combing The Town

Named Editor

George R. Symons, above, of 86 Edgewood Avenue, Larchmont, has been appointed editor of the magazine "Water and Sewage Works," the Gillette Publishing Company of New York announced today.

An associate editor of the magazine for the last seven years, Dr. Symons has had experience as a teacher, research chemist, engineer, operator, author, lecturer, after-dinner speaker, columnist and editor.

He holds three degrees including a Ph.D. from the University of Illinois, and is the author of more than 60 technical articles on engineering. A licensed professional engineer in New York, Dr. Symons is a past president of the New York Sewage and Industrial Waste Association and the winner of the Kenneth Allen Research Award.

Formerly chief chemist of the Buffalo Sewer Authority and assistant to the authority for several years, he is co-author of the "Buffalo Pumphouse" for the industries for wastes discharged into municipal sewer works, and of "The Lake Erie Pollution Project for abating water pollution of the Niagara River."

In addition to his editorial work, Dr. Symons is also a consultant to several engineering, architects and engineers in the field of sanitary engineering.

Fire Fighting Lesson

Those flames Larchmonters saw last night leaping into the air near First Park were manufactured for the occasion by Chief James J. Tarter of Tarrytown. He was giving the members of the Larchmont Fire Department their third lesson in a course of fireman's.

For nearly two hours the firemen used apparatus for hoses and mechanical tools in the pits to extinguish fires in the pits.

Prior to the actual fire fighting, Chief Tarter gave a talk on the operation of pumps and the possibility of over-seeing water mains when pumping at a fire.

Ex-Chief William Linn of the Mamaroneck Fire Department, Deputy Chief Harold Thompson of Mamaroneck, Chief Hugh J. Collins, Deputy William E. Collins, and Wilbur E. Miller and Fire Commissioner Charles N. Gibbs were among the spectators.

Deputy Chief Joseph B. Ford, in charge of training for the department, assisted Chief Tarter. The fourth session will be held Thursday at 8 P. M.

Vanadium Reported

Vanadium broke into the home of Ebor B. Kerr Jr., Forest Place, Larchmont, sometime yesterday, breaking several panes of glass in the garage. Town of Mamaroneck police discovered last night.

John J. Hickey Jr., of 720 Forest Avenue, Larchmont, reported last night that he had observed a broken window in the attached garage of Mr. Kerr's home.

Upon investigation, Officer John Leonard found the door leading from the garage to the cellar smashed, but could find no signs of entry into the rest of the house, since the kitchen door was still locked. The owner is away, and police could not determine if anything had been taken.

McCarthy Schedules Protest On Truman Loyalty File Rule

WASHINGTON, (AP) — President Truman's decision to hand over some government records to files to Senate committee investigators put Senator McCarthy to work today on a "hot" message.

In another development, the Justice Department said it never received any evidence from the Office of Strategic Services that the approval does not apply to support charges that American magazine officials are helping Communist employees were shipments atomic secrets to Russia in 1950.

Higher Commutation Fares On New Haven Win Support Of ICC

WASHINGTON, (AP) — An ICC examiner today recommended requiring New York State authorities to give the New Haven Railroad a 10 percent increase in interstate commutation fares inside of that state.

Examiner Burton Fuller made his recommendation to the Interstate Commerce Commission. He said that commutation charges for intrastate travel on the New York, New Haven & Hartford should be permitted to rise about 8 percent in order to bring them into line with interstate commutation fares on the same railroad.

There is discrimination against interstate commerce. Fuller asserted that, in line with standing practice, the New York State Public Service Commission should be given "a reasonable time" to grant the increase, and said that if it fails to do so, a formal federal order requiring the change should be issued.

The report noted that the ICC in September, 1947, gave the New Haven an interstate commutation fare of $1.00. The fare is now $1.00. (Turn to Page 17, Please)

County Gas Users Set Big Protest

Countdown protests against continuance of interim gas rate increases expiring June 30 and scheduled for July 1 by the Public Service Commission for an extension beyond that date, will begin at an executive session at the May 18 at Rye High School where residents of that area are to be notified of the possible extension of the interim rate.

Joint sponsors of the mass protest are the New Rochelle Citizens Committee, the reduction of Gas Rates and the Citizens Committee of Westchester Oppose New Gas Rates Inc. A second meeting will be held at the Rye High School on May 18 at 8 P. M. The meeting will be held in the auditorium of Albert Leonard High School, New Rochelle.

'Father John' Celebrates

John W. "Father John" Martin, a charter member of the Engine and Hose Company, and the oldest active member of the Mamaroneck Fire Department, celebrated his eighty-third birthday anniversary yesterday at the home of one of his granddaughters, Mrs. Andrew Scausa of 433 Beach Avenue, Mamaroneck.

Besides the members of the family who were present for the cutting of his birthday cake, several friends called or telephoned to offer their congratulations.

"Father John" has been bowling twice weekly at St. Thomas' Church since in addition to his activity as a fireman. During World War II he kept pace with younger men employed at the Electric Boat Company's submarine yards at New London, Conn.

For years he has been a staunch supporter of the Brooklyn Dodgers baseball team. When there was no telecast of its favorite yesterday, he watched the New York Yankees, who are favorite of other members of the family. His principal complaint was well-known as "Tim Lincecum; just see how healthy I am!"

Agents at Convention

Six members of the Westchester County Association of Insurance Agents left yesterday to attend the 68th annual convention of the New York State Association of Insurance Agents Inc. at the Hotel Syracuse, Syracuse.

Attending from Mamaroneck are Earl Quick, state director, and H. Edward Block, delegate at large; also Julius Levin of Larchmont, Westchester County director, William Klein, Brookville, Westchester County director; Robert Colwell, state secretary of the Westchester Association and Roger King of Mount Vernon, president of the County group. The convention opened yesterday and will conclude tomorrow night with a banquet.

Plan Cornell Dinner

Frank Patterson of 124 North Chatsworth Avenue and Walter Dockert of 14 Judson Street are Larchmont members of a committee making arrangements for the annual dinner of the Cornell Club of Westchester, which is to be held at the Seaside Golf Club Tuesday, May 16, at 7 P. M.

Dr. Cornelius W. de Kiewit

acting president of Cornell University, will report on Cornell's plans for the future.

Entertainment will be provided by Alfred F. Sulla, supervisor of Harrison, and Carl Schraubstatter, former chief of tunes of the twenties. Judge William F. Raskley, former county executive, will preside.

At Bankers' Dinner

The Union Savings Bank of Mamaroneck was represented by eight trustees, officers and staff members at the dinner Friday which marked the 13th annual conference of the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks in New York City.

They were Gabriel Wendel, president; James Paetz, secretary-treasurer; John McDonnell, Richard I. Larchmont, Charles M. Baxter Jr. and Joseph Rignano, trustees; Harold Saunders, head teller; and Paul Lane, staff assembler.

Cornerstone Laying

Clarence B. Litchfield of 835 Grove Street, Mamaroneck, is putting in the axiomatic firm of Alfred Hopkins and Associates yesterday attended a ceremony marking the laying of the cornerstone of the Community Church of Great Neck, L. I., a $250,000 structure which will be designed by the firm. The structure will be of colonial design to harmonize with the existing church house.

Accompanying Mr. Litchfield

were Mrs. Litchfield, John Clarence, Jr. and Richard, their sons, and Lester S. Le Prieux of Glen Cove, L. I., his partner in the firm.

A Little Previous

Fourth of July in May? Town of Mamaroneck police reminded their twenty-seven-year-old boys last week for hurling fire-works at the side of a Larchmont residence and catching the "sautes" found in the boy's possession.

About 11:30 that night a neighbor in another section of town reported that boys were throwing fireworks in the vicinity of her home but police could find no one in the area.

Car Damaged in Crash

With Truck on Post Rd.

A coupe driven by Mrs. Millie Nettles of 10 Thompson Place, Larchmont, collided last night at 11:35 with a tractor truck operated by Joseph A. Parmentieri at Boston Ave. Post Road and Bronson Avenue in Larchmont.

Mrs. Nettles told Larchmont Patrolman Peter Gillespie that she was heading east on the Post Road and made a left turn into Bronson Avenue when the truck hit her car. Parmentieri told Mrs. Nettles was to the left of him and suddenly cut in front of him, striking him on the hood.

The right rear fender and the trunk door of the auto were damaged.

SENATE PROBES HEAR MCCARTHY'S CHARGE ON EVIDENCE

Wisconsin GOP, Without Naming Man, Says U. S. Minister is Foreign Agent

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Senator McCarthy's new charge of "foreign agent" against a United States deputy-controlled Senate Communist investigators today.

McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, today announced the new charge in a speech at Janesville in his home state yesterday.

He did not identify the individual publicly, but described him in a speech as a "United States Minister to a foreign country."

He also attacked the new charges of Communist infiltration given to the Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee investigating charges of Communist infiltration in the State Department.

That committee booked a meeting behind closed doors today to arrange for starting a study of the charges. The study will be available to the inquiry group by President Truman. The files cover 41 years and include the names of other Communists, fellow travelers or otherwise Communist Party risks.

The committee also was to consider action on recommendations by its chief counsel, Edward Brooke, the "Red" Revue and Frederick Vanderbilt Field, cited for contempt of Congress.

Browder, former head of the Communist Party, and other Communist Party members, who refused to answer several questions when they were before the committee, Senator William M. C. C. of the Senate, called them "a disgrace to the dignity of the Senate."

ICC PROTEST SET BY CONSUMERS

Examiner's Approval of Fare Rise No Surprise, Askwitz Says

Protests against the recommendation by the Interstate Commerce Commission's examiner, Fred Askwitz, of Larchmont, that Hartford Railroad be granted commuter fare increases will be held in New Haven in the afternoon of May 18, according to a statement issued today by Herbert Askwitz of Larchmont, chairman of the protest committee.

The news from Washington that the ICC examiner is in favor of higher commuter fares for New Haven is no surprise to Askwitz, Mr. Askwitz says.

Brakes Fail to Work, Car Hits Pole, Store

To avoid the tram-nit-ed Boston Post Road when the brakes of his car failed to work, Bogdan D. Van Eys of 303 Larchmont Avenue, Larchmont, yesterday afternoon headed his late model car toward the Chatsworth Avenue curb.

The car glanced off a telephone pole and crashed into a building housing the Marion Fields Antique Shop at 14 Chatsworth Avenue, Larchmont.

A corner of the window was shattered by the impact of the car and the driver of the car was smashed.

County In Battle Cross-Fire in Hudson River Bridge Row

Westchester, more or less an innocent bystander, found itself today squarely in the cross fire between the Port of New York Authority and the New York State Thruway Authority.

The issue is just where a bridge—or bridges—shall cross the Hudson River.

The Port of New York Authority, which has the right to build a bridge over the Hudson River, is planning a bridge between Tarrytown and Spoken Bridge. The Thruway Authority, which has the right to build a bridge over the Hudson River, is planning a bridge between Tarrytown and Spoken Bridge.

GUAM BATTERED DOWN AFTER TYPHOON ALERT

GUAM, (AP)—This military outpost battered down today for a typhoon packed with 60 mile winds. The storm is expected to move to the west coast of the island tomorrow (A. P. M. EDT).

Planes roared off airstrips for fields outside the typhoon's path. Ships charged out of Apra Harbor for the relative safety of Guam ordered personnel to don military personal checked by military cable fastenings on Guam. The air force checked shipping bills with supplies. Anderson Field headquarters on Northwest Guam ordered personnel to don military personal checked by military cable fastenings on Guam. The air force checked shipping bills with supplies.

Shortly after noon the typhoon was reported 360 miles southeast of Guam, moving toward the island at eight miles an hour.

POSTMEN URGED TO RESIST CUTS

Judge Schmidt Addresses Annual Communion Breakfast Here

Supreme Court Judge Frederick G. Schmidt of Port Chester, speaking yesterday at the third annual breakfast of the St. George Association of Westchester County Postal Employees Chapter 29 at St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, Mamaroneck, counseled the 60 members and guests to resist any further curtailment of the postal service.

Judge Schmidt remarked that he advised the many people of the town when he visited the town in his court "to live up to American traditions and to the principles of the United States Constitution." He commented that it would be well for all of us to do likewise, as well as to cherish Americanism and resist the "mass" attack continually being made into our country by the "Reds."

The breakfast followed services conducted by the Rev. ARNOLD A. PENLON, rector of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, Mamaroneck.

Arrangements for the breakfast were made by a committee headed by the Rev. ARNOLD A. PENLON, rector of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, Mamaroneck.

Box of Bread Strikes Man As Vehicles Careen On Post Road

Charles Arnold, forty-nine, of 58 Anderson Street, New Rochelle, suffered contusions and abrasions of the neck at 8:51 A. M. today when the General Baking Company delivery truck in which he was riding was involved in a three-car crash on the West Post Road near Delancey Avenue, Mamaroneck.

The crash resulted when a 1937 sedan operated at by Gerard L. Di Roberto of 118 Park Avenue, Mamaroneck, overtook left across the six-lane highway and hit a 19-ton tractor-trailer truck traveling west. The sedan careened back across the highway and struck the bakery truck, headed east, which was propelled across the curb and a grass plot, leaving up a rock of turf and rebounding back into the road after striking a truck.

The car was on the roadway at a box of bread toppled over and struck Arnold at the back of the neck with such force that his head plunked against the windshield breaking the glass. He was treated by Dr. Francis Hunter.

Spring Squalls Ship Sound And N.E.; To Rises

NEW YORK, (AP)—Tracherous Spring squalls caught thousands of New York and New England boaters without warning over the sunny weekend and left 20 of them dead or missing in lakes, rivers and salt water.

The high winds, tall end of a Mid-West storm, reached 65 miles an hour at some points.

Upper New York State had the worst drowning toll, with 10 dead in the waters with four computers. The Long Island sound casualties came in four separate accidents involving rowboats. Three were known dead and four were missing.

In the Long Island Sound drowned, Jerry Cohen, seventeen, who was in the water for three hours after another set of squalls engulfed him last July.

Edward Storr, nineteen, was lost in a similar accident in near-Baychester Bay. Two others with him were saved.

FRENCH ASK AID FOR INDO-CHINA

U. S. Secretary in Paris To Request Independence For Colony Diplomats Say

PARIS, (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Acheson began a round of cold war talks today on French pleas for speedy American assistance against communism in Indo-China. In return, diplomatic sources said, the United States wants a guarantee of genuine independence for the Indo-Chinese.

Acheson flew into Paris yesterday for Western diplomatic conferences which will shift Thursday to London. The meetings will deal with ways to contain Communist expansion all over the world.

But Acheson's meeting with French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman today was reported to deal primarily with Indo-China. The French minister has been fighting a strenuous battle in the Senate since 1946 against the guerrilla forces of Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh.

The U. S. Secretary of State met Schuman armed with the apparently firm U. S. Government conviction that Bao Dai, the French-sponsored ruler of the Indo-Chinese state of Viet Nam, must be made a more vital symbol of opposition to communism.

Bao Dai's regime is opposed by the genuine government which is recognized by Moscow, Communist China and most of the Southeast Asian nations. Many nationalistic Indo-Chinese have been reluctant to throw in their lot with Bao Dai because the French so far have granted only limited autonomy to the French-backed regime.

Lucas Motion For Debate Of FEPC on Issue; Long Talk Looms

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The long-promised battle over the President Truman's civil rights program sets under way today.

At the outset it looked like a pretty mild affair compared with the furious gay-and-night senate sessions of the past when filibustering Senators stood off resistance to the measure.

But the Senate's new Fair Employment Practices Committee (FEPC) legislation to create a fair employment practice commission empowered to investigate discrimination because of color, race or religion has aroused such a storm that it may not pass.

Senators have announced that they plan no "round-the-clock" sessions and will allow debate to run along all this week without attempting to clamp on the Senate's filibustering rule.

Senator Russell D. Ga. floor member for the group of Southern members who bitterly challenge FEPC and other civil rights measures, told a reporter, "we lead."

Russell prepared a detailed argument against what he calls a "race law."

Passengers Shaken Up When Bus Stops Short

Three passengers on a County Transportation Bus were shaken up about 10 P. M. Saturday when the driver was forced to stop short on the beach of the Bronx Post Road near Beach Avenue, Larchmont.

The bus, which was carrying about 10 passengers, was stopped by the driver when he saw a car in the line was also forced to stop short and the passengers were thrown from their seats, Thomas McCarter of Port Chester, the driver, told Larchmont Police.

Mrs. Mary Kavanaugh of Park Plaza Apartments, Larchmont, and Mrs. A. DeMott of New Rochelle required medical attention, while Telle Spohn of New York City was treated for a bruised chest by Dr. Alan Van Sciver at police headquarters.

U. S. Army Deserter

John Gillespie, twenty-two, of 7 Greenwood Park, Dorchester, Mass., was found to be an Army deserter from Camp Kitchner, N. J., Friday after he was picked up on the beach of the Bronx Post Road near Beach Avenue, Larchmont.

A telephone alarm from Mamaroneck police resulted in information from Army headquarters at Larchmont that Gillespie had been AWOL from Camp Kitchner since June 16, 1947.

While he was at large the alleged deserter served time in a Massachusetts jail for "intoxication and assault near Dorchester" according to another reply to the Mamaroneck police.

Gillespie contended that he had been honorably discharged from the Army in 1945 and was on his way to discharge papers to prove his discharge when he was picked up yesterday at St. Luis Gonzales in the 124th Military Police Unit, New York City, for desertion from the 124th Military Police Unit.

Patrolman Verschoor took Gillespie into custody for questioning Friday at 9 A. M. when he became sober. Louis W. Viner, Sidewalk Patrolman, was also present on the scene.

He is a member of the National Association of Accountants, the Kiwanis Club of New York, and the Columbia Beach Club in Mamaroneck. He is married to the former Harriet A. Clapp of Camden and they have two children, Dan and Charley, both graduates of Mamaroneck High School.

Program Recorded

The concert given today at Stamford High School by 95 members of the Mamaroneck High School A Cappella Choir, was broadcast tonight at 11:15 over Station WPTC. F. Colwell Conklin is director.

Selections offered today by the two school choirs are "Wee You There", "Holidays" and "Emile's Spirit".

Firemen Jump

Like net practice with members of the Larchmont Fire Department jumping into the nets from the Municipal Building during the first session of the new State Department of Public Safety course last night under the direction of Chief William J. Turvey. Before the jumpers took place Arthur J. Conklin, chief equipment company instructor, and members of the department on their use and the second part of the session involved practice in relay pumps. Two pumps were used as water was pumped from the foot of Larchmont Avenue to a second pumper on Ocean Avenue and then pumped into the second.

Deputy Chief Joseph P. Anderson announced that a session will be held next week for members of the department who have been unable to attend all the sessions in the course. A departmental drill will take place Monday.

On Career Clinic

Herbert Adler of 11 Albee Lane, Larchmont, will take part in the radio program, "Career Clinic in Shoe Merchandising," over Station WINS, New York, May 30 at 10:45 A. M.

President of Adler Shoes told Mrs. M. Adler with the shoe store experts will give advice about the shoe industry to Seymour Rogovad, a New York City merchant interested in shoe merchandising as a career. The program will cover working conditions in the field today, personal qualifications and needed training as well as suggestions for getting a job in the field.

A resident of Larchmont since last July, Mr. Adler is married and has two children, his son, Robert, is a student at New York University and his daughter, Barbara, attends Mamaroneck Junior High School. He belongs to the Hampshire Club.

Moving Day

A unique "moving day" operation began this morning at McClellan's Eastport on Rushmore Avenue, Mamaroneck, when a mammoth 39 by 20-foot float, built by the Sheridan Marine Corporation for the Beach Point Club, was being maneuvered ponderously toward the water.

One of the Marine Company trucks with a large derrick turned the float over and then took it for a ride across 200 feet of turf to the beach. The float eventually heaved into the water. From there on it's a towing job.

No Smoke, No Fire

"Where there's smoke there must be fire" is an old saw, but it didn't turn out that way recently when Mrs. M. Riedinger, Fireman turned off the water connection until the boiler tried out.

Only One Thing Stops Them—A Hot Dog Sign!

EDITOR'S NOTE—The following letter to The Daily Times by Julius Ellorben of Greenhaven is from a page one prominence because we believe it is a classic presentation of the issue facing us as a result of Monday's tragic accident which took the lives of a Larchmont mother and a child and sent eight others to the hospital—six of them children.

Editor, The Daily Times: The driver of a 20-ton Semi trailer truck headed for New York picked up on my way on the Boston Post Road at Greenhaven. I was waiting for a bus to take me to the station. The truck driver's conversation was so interesting I remained his passenger all the way to New York. Being a motorist who has more than once taken his life in his hands on the Post Road, it was a novel experience to sit in his cab and watch other motorists swerve out of my way as we passed them all. We were kings of the road!

We tore through Mamaroneck in the driver's car, but always looked at me as he talked and he was quite talkative. "Yeah," he said, "dem kids that drive little buses is real jakes—sitting right out in front of the front wheels where a truck can smack 'em right in the puss—real jerks! Me, I'll take a big Benz like this—no, I'll hit anything I don't trust."

Our hot bus on wheels went tearing down the road toward New Rochelle. My killer at the wheel told me and his friends had a wholesome respect for certain Connecticut communities and he was quite talkative.

New Exhibits At Exposition To Include Diamond Cutter

Many new exhibits will feature the second annual Merchants and Manufacturers Exposition to be sponsored by the Mamaroneck Chamber of Commerce next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 7 to 11 P. M. in St. Thomas's Community House, Leonard P. Chase, president of the Chamber, also announced today. There will be 55 booths, four more than last year.

Several booths have been taken by exhibitors who were not represented last year. Mr. Chase pointed out, was attended by approximately 500 persons and this year an even larger crowd is expected. Picnics and luncheon will be served in the display in the buses of the Fordham Transit Company which operates between Fordham and Rye.

Instead of a combined display by local ladies and men, shops each evening, as at the 1949 exposition, the men will not participate this year, and the women's show will divide the show. The Annette Shop will present the style show Wednesday evening, the Jane Allen Shop Thursday evening, and Diman's Friday evening, with the Annette Shop and Mrs. Allen also participating.

Mrs. Donald P. Rabbit, style show commentator, announced that she has completed arrangements with Thomas Power, 104 East 125th Street, New York City, for an unusual backdrop and special lighting. Mr. Power will donate the scenery and the backdrop will be made. Among the unusual exhibits will be a diamond cutter at work in the booth of Berner's Jewelers. The Mamaroneck Federal Savings and Loan Association will feature a display of the various types of orchid plants from the seed to the bloom, and will present an exhibit on the growing of orchids. The Westchester County Fair, which is made up headquarters at 120th Street in Mamaroneck is sponsored this year by the Mamaroneck Chamber of Commerce. Representatives will show methods used in the treatment of cervical cancer victims. The exhibit of the Sheret Auto and Marine Service will have a display of glass fishing rods, which are made locally.

Unless glass rods were present in "united front" in opposition to "united front" rates, in certain instances ranging from 60 to 100 per cent will be frozen, the executive members of the Citizens' Committee of Westchester County Opposing New Gas Rates Inc. told a gathering of about 50 persons last night at the Rye High School.

Present at the meeting, called by E. L. Thomas, sub-chairman for the Rye area, were gas heat users from Larchmont, Mamaroneck, Harrison, Rye and Port Chester.

Frederick W. Nehring of Bronxville, chairman of the committee organized in September, 1948, and now numbering more than 4,000 members, said professional rate experts have been engaged to carry the fight to the Public Service Commission in September.

The interim rates were granted by the PSC in August, 1948, and have been extended twice since that time, he said. The rates are discriminatory because gas heat users are paying over $2,000,000 a year in higher gas rates than Westchester County. Nehring said.

This increase, he said, is paid by 18,000 gas heat users in the county.

Twenty-five years ago when gas heat was first being sold, home owners were told the rates would decrease as more persons signed up for it. Mr. Nehring continued, charging that the PSC "didn't scrutinize the rate makeup carefully when they granted the increase."

He added that the aircraft industry is in no position at present to replace heavy combat losses.

Two years to be held in a special prepared for a luncheon honoring Almed Foran Day, which the whole county celebrates tomorrow, Vanderberg added.

"It is a matter of simple arithmetic," he said.

The Air Force Chief of Staff, H. H. Arnold, said with the loss of the first-line U. S. combat planes used in the Korean conflict, the aircraft industry is in no position at present to replace heavy combat losses.

LARSEN TO SPEAK TO P. T. CONGRESS

Education Leader's Talk To Feature Meeting In White Plains

By WINIFRED W. BROWN

The Metropolitan District New York State Congress of Parents and Teachers is having its spring conference Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at the County Center, White Plains. The morning session opens at 9:15 and continues at 12:30. The afternoon is given over to workshops beginning at 1:30 and lasting two hours.

Headline news of the conference is Roy K. Larsen who speaks at 11:30. His theme is "Public Education—Our Concern." But it wouldn't hurt to ask what he speaks on or about, just so he speaks. Mr. Larsen is the answer to a program chairman's prayer. He has what it takes to make any subject interesting and even fascinating. And when he gets going on his favorite topic, education, you will feel no time. His affinity for education probably goes back to the time he was in love with his teacher in first grade. (Since then all teachers have been in love with him.) And throughout his very busy career on time which has taken him from circulation manager to his present job as its president, he has been a dynamic force in the field of education.

Mr. Larsen's most recent activity is the National Citizens Committee for public schools. He is the idea man of the enterprise and in serving as its chairman, Mr. Larsen's words: "Our problem is to show citizen groups all over the country that they can do it."

Also due to come before the Senate were plans for the Federal Power and Federal Trade commissions.

Senator Edwin C. Johnson, D. Colo., who twice this week has led successful attacks on Truman reorganization plans, said he has introduced a bill, and PFC resolutions of disapproval.

Johnson reacted sharply to criticism of Truman's reorganization plan. He said he would lead the fight on his reorganization plans. Mr. Truman had been talking at his news conference about getting rid of "obstructions" in Congress. Then he let it fly at his reorganization plan. He said you hear a lot of talk about efficiency and economy from some members of Congress, but it doesn't have any effect where local situations are involved.

WESTERN ALLIES SEE NO HOPE FOR AUSTRIAN TREATY

Big Three Plan to Lift Occupation Controls In West Zone

LONDON (AP)—The Big Three announced today there is no hope in the immediate future for Russian agreement to an Austrian independence treaty. They set in motion plans to lift most of the military and police occupation controls in the Western zone of Austria.

At the same time U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson declared that the North Atlantic Treaty has been a "positive influence" and beyond the North Atlantic area. Acheson issued a statement before boarding the liner Britannic at Liverpool for the return trip from the historic North Atlantic Treaty Point Ministers' meeting here.

HANLEY TOPS RACE IF DEWEY RETIRES

Lieutenant Governor Is Called Leading Contender For Governorship

ALBANY (AP)—Lieutenant Governor Joe R. Hanley stands out in front today as the probable Republican gubernatorial nominee if Governor Dewey really retires.

But apparently neither the seventy-three-year-old Hanley nor the other possible candidates are sure of that.

The impression among informed political sources was that Dewey could be persuaded to run.

Dewey's secretary, James C. Haegy, revealed yesterday that the Governor had told GOP state leaders he was not going to run.

However, the way was left open for a change of heart by Dewey. Hanley said the Governor would talk with party chiefs again on June 9, when he returns from a three-week vacation ordered by the Governor.

Dewey urged to reconsider

The leaders, State Chairman William L. Pfeiffer and National Committee Chairman J. Russell Sprague, strongly urged Dewey to change his mind.

There were indications that Dewey would be subject to much pressure to run.

Political independence, other prominently mentioned gubernatorial possibilities are:

U. S. Senator Irving M. Fein, State Comptroller Frank T. Sweeney, Majority Leader Arthur H. Wicks of the State Senate, Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck.

Other names mentioned include:

Cars Slightly Damaged In Driveway Collision

Two 1947 sedans were slightly damaged in a minor accident at 8:30 A. M. yesterday in the Mamaroneck Junior High School driveway. Mrs. Virginia W. Hill of 12 Kenmore Road, Larchmont, had driven her child to school and had stopped in the driveway to let the youngster out of the car.

When the child opened the left rear door, it was struck by the car of Miss Gladys Henton, secretary of 411 Rushmore Avenue, Mamaroneck, traveling east on the driveway. Miss Henton's car sustained a damaged door, fender and a broken glass in the front window.

The other car, owned by Robert W. Hill, emerged with only a damaged door.

Combing The Town

Wins Scholarship

Chapman Ralph Crockett, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crockett of 418 Fifth Street, Mamaroneck, is the winner of the 1950 scholarship awarded by the Westchester County Alumni of Renessee Polytechnic Institute, Williamsport, Pa.

Chapman plans to enter RPI in the fall and will study physics later specializing in nuclear physics or nuclear engineering.

He was president last year of the Junior class and is now treasurer of the senior class. He has been active in band and orchestra as well as track, having been awarded a track letter for the last three years. He is president of the Photography Club, vice president of the band and a member of the Belongs Chapter of the National Honor Society.

Vandals at Work

Reports of broken windows and street bulbs and ringing door bells were among the complaints received and investigated by the Town of Mamaroneck Police during the weekend.

In possession of a BB gun, a group of 10-year-old boys broke several windows in the town incinerator on Maxwell Street and some street light bulbs on Fifth Avenue. Police took the air rifle to headquarters.

A tool issue near a new house on Elm Road was reported broken into by youths but nothing was taken.

A resident complained of boys ringing the door bell and entering the house late in the evening.

Four letters on a neon sign at Cook's Restaurant on the Boston Post Road were reported broken, apparently by children throwing stones, as were windows in the Eastern Furniture Store, also on the Boston Post Road.

Gain Points

Eighty-five Larchmont firemen have qualified for state certificates which will entitle them to extra points in any civil service examination as a result of their training completed last week under the direction of James J. Taster of Tarrytown.

The instruction took place over a period of five weeks at Larchmont fire headquarters and emphasized such subjects as fire netting, pump and hose operation.

Mr. Taylor is a member of the Riverside Hose Company and an instructor in the New York State Division of Safety, Bureau of Fire.

Cancer Report

Larchmont's Cancer Fund collection has reached 115 percent of its quota with a total of $11,470.80 according to a report dated May 17 made public today by George W. Smith, county chairman.

Mamaroneck has turned in $3,018.00 or 60 percent of its quota. Awards are being prepared for the community chairman and committees where the goal has been reached. All proceeds will go toward the clinic fund.

Conference Official

The Rev. Aubrey G. E. Stromberg, pastor of the Mamaroneck Methodist Church, was the main attraction of the seventh annual conference which closed yesterday at the Masonic Place Methodist Church in Brooklyn.

Business Here Tops $30 Million For Year, Census Figures Show

Mamaroneck and Larchmont are doing a retail and wholesale business in excess of $30,000,000 a year, according to the preliminary figures from the 1948 Census of Business released today by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce.

Retail sales for the two communities during 1948 aggregated $27,749,000 and wholesale sales volume reached $7,673,000 for a total of $35,422,000. Selected retailers doing a total business of $1,103,000 with 75 proprietors and a total of 162 employees.

Retail sales for the county during 1948 aggregated $640.3 million. (Turn to Page 13, Please)

TRUCK SHATTERS POST ROAD LIGHT

A large truck with too high a load on its trailer struck a traffic light at 7:30 P. M. last night on the Boston Post Road at the intersection of Reed's Avenue. Larchmont, and continued on its way. The light was knocked to the ground and for a few minutes sparks flew from the severed wires.

Booths Ready For Opening Of Exposition

Booths are being erected in St. Thomas's Community House, today in preparation for the opening Wednesday at 7 P. M. of the second annual Merchants and Manufacturers Exposition. Exhibitors have been supervising the location of their booths and making final plans for the placing of their displays.

By noon tomorrow, Arthur H. C. executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, announced, all booths will be completed and ready for installation of exhibits. The building will be open tonight and tomorrow night for exhibitors who find it inconvenient to work during the day.

Mrs. Donald F. Rabbot, style show commentator, said today that she would be the "million speaker" will be set up tomorrow night at the school of Danville of Danville. Control Would Stop Traffic For Vehicles Turning Left

"Split phase" timing of the traffic control lights at the Mamaroneck Avenue and Boston Post Road intersection where two Larchmont residents were killed and eight injured 12 days ago appears likely to be recommended by state experts who will survey the scene for a "clearance period" during traffic light direction changes.

The eastbound traffic would have an opportunity to turn left into Mamaroneck Avenue during the clearance period. The survey is expected to determine the feasibility of the plan.

Village Manager William H. Johnson's first request to the state May 17 for a traffic light at the intersection of Mamaroneck Avenue and Boston Post Road was also discussed at the conference. Another traffic light would probably be made there after the opening of a new super-market and other stores in a tax-sever building near completion at the Richfield-Post Road intersection.

The results of each survey, with the recommendations of the State Traffic Engineer, will be given to Motor Vehicle Commissioner Clifford J. Fletcher, who will give to Mamaroneck officials as they are available.

Besides Chief William H. Johnson, the conference was attended by Village Manager William H. Johnson, Mayor Joseph J. M. Johnson, Police Chief Arthur W. Matzenga, and Village Engineer George F. Cox, civil engineer in charge of traffic lights in this district.

Jury In Draper-Adler Suit Called Back Into Session, 3 Verdicts Weighed

HARTFORD Conn. (AP)—The climax nearest today to the $200,000 libel suit brought by Draper-Adler against the Larchmont Daily Mail is expected to be reached today when a Federal Jury, tasked in debate for almost seven years in the case of the Orienta Four children, today found them guilty of the crime.

No charges were pressed by the town, who told St. George and Central School Principal George Brown that he only wanted the children to stay off the property.

The two patrolmen looked at each other with one thought: "Suppose I had been chasing a Post Road hotrod when the light blew."

Brand new tires had been mounted all around the car by the afternoon, replacing the old, cracked tires which were cracked in the current investigation to curb speeding and reckless driving.

The quick action of Milton Keck, proprietor of the Store Line Service Station at Keokuk Avenue and East Post Road, Mamaroneck, saved a sedan owned by Harvey E. Barron of 528 Whitland Avenue, Post Office from destruction by fire late yesterday afternoon.

Keck was wedging the right rear fender of the Barron car when the oxy-acetylene torch by which the car was being converted into a car-washing was used. A fire sprang up and the flames, considerable damage was done to the upholstery and wood on body frame.

AN OFFICIAL VISIT

Westchester Volunteer 537 of the Party and Eight was made last night at Bonnie Blair Country Club Larchmont, by Clarence E. Smith, of Raleigh, N. C., second of Larchmont, chairman of the dinner, John Milbury of Mount Vernon, county chief de gare, and James H. Merritt of Syracuse, grand chef.

The abolition of Farm Price Support Inc. George E. Bailey of 45 Ridge Road, Larchmont, Woods is convinced that the present policy of the government in guaranteeing high prices to farmers by buying up abundant foods and letting them rot in government warehouses is a criminal waste.

The ultimate goal of the organization is to lower prices for foods by doing away with government control.

"There is no such thing as a surplus of food in the United States," Mr. Bailey declared. "It's a surplus of food at present prices."

Referring to the findings of a recent study made at Michigan State College by economists, he pointed out that a two per cent increase in the price of food would produce the livestock to sell to the people.

After dinner, the speaker was taken to the University of North Carolina, which is opposed by William Smith, a leading cooperation lawyer, and former Senator Robert R. Reynolds. The term expires in 1954.

Most observers agreed the real battle was between Graham and Smith, with the possibility neither will receive a majority and runoff will be necessary June 24. Nominations is equal to election in this state.

HIT-ROD OPERATOR HUNTED BY POLICE

Crash Victim Gives Chase But Driver Disappears; Car Held

Town of Mamaroneck police today are still looking for Willie Doe of New Rochelle, who allegedly left the scene of an accident on Weaver Street and Harmon Drive at 11:30 last night.

The car allegedly driven by Doe and owned by Samuel B. Whitfield of New Rochelle, was a sweeping rig taken from Harmon Drive into Weaver Street and struck the left rear fender of a car driven by Frankie B. Van Houten of Scarsdale, traveling south on Weaver Street at a speed of 20 miles per hour.

After Doe turned around, Van Houten followed him to an address in Mamaroneck where he accented Doe who gave a fictitious name. Van Houten said Doe disappeared before police arrived.

Lindberg Wade, a passenger in the car, and Whitfield, the owner, who was visiting at the Mamaroneck address, were taken into custody. Whitfield's car was held for questioning.

All of the other six striking motorists were held for questioning. The cooperation of New Rochelle police in holding Whitfield's car until Doe is produced for questioning.

No Violence Develops In Early Hours With Allies On Alert

BERLIN (AP)—American troops were placed in a "state of readiness" today as 400,000 young Germans massed here for a Communist youth rally.

Though no violence had developed so far and Red leaders urged the youth assembly to follow their previously-expressed fear that an attack on West Berlin tonight by the Americans, British and French took no chances.

East Berlin's Communist leaders meanwhile turned their sector into a giant ammunition park. The position of the Red was "freer from violence than at any time in recent months. Two alleged Communist agents (Turn to Page 3, Please)

POST RD. TO ADD 100 FEET AT RYE

Bottleneck To Be Eliminated At Village Line; State To Share Cost

Work on widening of the Post Road at the Mamaroneck-Rye line will begin in the near future, it was announced Thursday by Raymond Murphy, Rye City engineer. The widening of the road to be widened now constitutes a bottleneck as it narrows from 34 feet to 36 feet at the entrance to Rye.

The plans for the project call for an addition of 11 feet so that the road will be no less than 47 feet in width at any point.

According to Mr. Murphy the work "should cost no more than $100,000. The Rye and Mamaroneck portions." The state, said Mr. Murphy has agreed to contribute 50 per cent of the Mamaroneck share and for one-half the cost of the city of Rye.

No details will be necessary during the course of the work and advertisements for contracts will appear in the near future. The contracts will be let as soon as possible and work is expected to start within a month.

WANSHAN EVACUATED BY CHINESE TROOPS

Earns High Honor

Donald J. Green, twenty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clement J. Green, of the Larchmont Acres Apartments, Larchmont, has been given the American Institute of Chemical Engineers award for the highest scholarship standing of any of the 48 students of the Albany State Normal Chapter during his Freshman and Sophomore years. He won a scholarship to Yale University upon his graduation from Mamaroneck High School in 1947.

Green was elected two months ago to membership in the Tau Beta Pi engineering society, an honor usually reserved for seniors, and is the only Yale student to be offered a summer job at the United States Army Signal Corps Center. He is a member of the Yale Dramatic Society.

His brother, William Miles Green, twenty-four, is slated to receive his B. A. Degree from Columbia University in June. He served two and a half years in the Civil Transport Corps in the war. He will be a certified public accountant following a post graduate course.

The Green family moved to Larchmont in 1945 from Palo Alto, Calif., having formerly resided in Shanghai, China, where Donald was born.

The Circus is Coming

The Hunt Bros.-Eddy Bros. combined circus is on its way to Mamaroneck for its annual performance Wednesday afternoon and evening. The show will spread and erect its acres of canvas at Palmer and Rockland Avenues early Wednesday and children and grown-ups alike are invited to witness this clock-like precision which shows the tent city erected.

Hunt Bros. this year has teamed up with Eddy Bros. as management, resulting in a double magnitude and performance. Among the animal displays will be trained elephants, 15 to 20, including High School horses and ponies, Levine's chimpanzees, educated dogs and performing sea lions. The stunts stars include the famous O'Donnell family, Mildred and Eddie, Miss President, the Kay Colozzo troupe, Marvin and Hazel, Lucy Lee, wire artist, the Lee Sisters, the Austin Duo, and funny clowns.

The first show is scheduled to start at 7 P. M. with the second performance at 8 P. M. The doors open one hour earlier.

Hundreds Of Drunken Motorists Escape Penalty In Auto Deaths

By KENNETH DANIELSEN
Hundreds of motorists have escaped criminal prosecution in alcoholic driving fatalities cases over the last 10 years in Westchester because of an almost-complete collapse of controls on a county-wide level.

Considerably more than half of the 400 automobile deaths in the last decade are definitely traceable to alcoholic driving, according to officials, but there has not been a single conviction in County Court as a result of these crimes.

These startling facts were apparent today after a study of the death rate is still continuing to rise at an alarming rate, after last year's post-war record fell some light has been thrown on the weaknesses in the structure of law enforcement which is supposed to protect Westchester's residents from madmen with motors.

For instance, most doctors who are called to examine patients in drunken driving cases. Many doctors have no training in alcoholism. As a result, most of the small communities in Westchester have no one to examine patients in drunken driving cases. Many doctors, lawyers, judges and witnesses, to hide the evidence, have been known to "fix" these sources, however, can not be proved for obvious reasons.

Another surprising fact is that many police officers and other officials involved in alcoholic driving cases have been commiserated with by judges, lawyers, judges and witnesses, to hide the evidence, have been known to "fix" these sources, however, can not be proved for obvious reasons.

Auto Suffers Damage On Hitting Parked Car

Miss Elsie Whitmore, of Jamaica Plain, Mass., while driving her car in northerly direction on Myrtle Boulevard near Weaver Street, at 9:43 A. M. yesterday struck a parked car owned by Edward Zucker of Port Chester. Miss Whitmore suffered a slight abrasion of the upper lip and was taken by town patrolman James Mancini to friends at the Stoney Creek Apartments, Larchmont.

Damage to the parked car was limited to a broken lounge bracket while the right front fender, grill and hood of Miss Whitmore's car were damaged. Her car was towed to a nearby garage.

Fulton Car in Hit By Auto in Scarsdale

When Bernard Peterson of 621 Orient Avenue, Mamaroneck, entered his garage yesterday morning to find a 1948 Buick sedan damaged and a fender still inside, he was surprised to find it had been damaged by a car from Scarsdale.

He had been visiting friends in Scarsdale yesterday when he had chucked up all the winners, all of which Corwin L. Peterson, Scarsdale, had been announced.

BENEFIT ASSISTS PALSEY CAMPAIGN

14 Variety Acts Presented by Local Artists at Junior High

More than 125 persons attended the variety show Saturday night sponsored by the Mamaroneck Lions Club for the benefit of the Westchester County Cerebral Palsy Campaign at the Junior High School.

Fourteen variety acts, including singing, dancing, a magic act, trumpet twirling and novelty numbers, were presented by professional and amateur artists from Mamaroneck, Larchmont, Harrison and Putnamville.

Les Bamberger of Harrison was master of ceremonies presiding a unanimous act and introducing one local youngster who had not been previously announced, Johnny Quadrini, who played the accordion.

Mayor B. J. Santoro addressed the audience during the intermission appealing for support of the cerebral palsy drive. He recounted an experience several years ago when he first met one of the afflicted, adding that the public is gradually realizing the nature of the illness and that funds can gradually be helped for the fight.

President Hunter Melishan of the Lions Club also greeted the audience. Chairman ARTHUR GILFORD thanked the artists who gave their services and paid tribute to Edward Bouton and a crew of back stage assistants who managed the scenery, curtains and lights.

Herbert Monaghan, one of the pianists on the program, told the audience that many contributions have been received from junior high school classes for the fund.

Nation's Toll 250 Dead—and 2 Days To Go

The national accidental death toll for the four-day Memorial Day weekend mounted to 250 today.

The toll included 164 lives lost in traffic mishaps, with highway traffic increased by fair and mild weather over much of the country. Drawings accounted for 47 lives and 49 persons died from miscellaneous causes.

The National Safety Council has predicted that at least 250 persons will have been killed in traffic accidents none during the holiday period. It expected 30 million automobiles to be on the highways.

The drowning toll included four Post Woods, Texas, residents who lost their lives when their fishing boat capsized on a lake.

Comdr. John T. Casey, USNR, Mamaroneck resident who will deliver the main address tomorrow at the village Memorial Day ceremonies has had wide experience in the newspaper and radio fields and is also known as an author and lecturer. He served in the Navy for five years during the war.

'Miss Tommy' Churns Wake Of Bad Luck

Bad luck hounded Warren P. Brooks of 1 Leasat Terrace, Larchmont, and a friend, Miss Thomas Capriotti, to the Boston Post Road, Larchmont, as they traveled to Albany last week for a Brooklyn competition in yesterday's Albany - New York outboard race.

Saturday the racer was working on his sleek "Miss Tommy" and Miss Capriotti was watching when she suffered a fainting spell and tumbled into the water.

She fell between two boats catching her feet in some moorings in such a manner that her head was held under water. Rescuers quickly extricated her and she was taken to Memorial Hospital in Albany where she was treated for submersion and discharged.

Brooks' luck was no better in the race itself as he made his second attempt for marooned honor. "Miss Tommy" ran well according to Brooks and was well up in the race when he shipped some water near Beacon and had to stop to bail her out.

After ten minutes he was unseated and the boat was being towed out of the race when the gear of "Miss Tommy" stripped and the boat almost upset. Brooks managed to keep her right side up and reached shore safely.

Yaul Bolero Seen Victor Of 5th Storm Trysail Race

PORT JEFFERSON — Bolero, the yawl of John Nicholas Brown, former Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and on which Corwin L. Peterson of Larchmont was skipper, was seen to win the 5th Storm Trysail Race today.

Last evening when 30 boats had finished they seemed to have chucked up all the winners, all of which Corwin L. Peterson, Scarsdale, had been announced.

Bohler was the first to bow to the inevitable when he learned that his car had been damaged by a car from Scarsdale.

When Bernard Peterson of 621 Orient Avenue, Mamaroneck, entered his garage yesterday morning to find a 1948 Buick sedan damaged and a fender still inside, he was surprised to find it had been damaged by a car from Scarsdale.

He had been visiting friends in Scarsdale yesterday when he had chucked up all the winners, all of which Corwin L. Peterson, Scarsdale, had been announced.

Explorers Make Debut

The Mamaroneck Memorial Day parade introduced a new contingent to the village yesterday, the Sea Explorers of Ship 10 who were celebrating their first public appearance. A senior unit of the Boy Scouts of America, the group was composed of 11 explorers wearing white Summer sailor uniforms.

A picnic lunch and inter-school football game with the local Sea Mariners of the Ships White Heron and Flying Cloud followed at Harbor Island. Swimming tests for apprentices advanced yesterday by the sea explorer members.

Ship 10 is led by Arthur A. Rosenthal as skipper and Joseph C. Reyes, mate. Meetings are held at 8 P. M. Mondays at the Barry Avenue School and all boys fourteen years or older are invited to attend. The ship is sponsored by the Mamaroneck Lions Club.

The Wrong Way
A well-known mamaroneck attorney was observed driving the wrong way on Elm Street and entering West Boston Post Road against the heavy traffic last week and following his example five other drivers did likewise within a few minutes.

Mamaroneck police, who were informally notified of the incidents by a witness, commented that the Elm Street traffic problem is being studied. Lt. Herman Swack, police captain, stated that the situation is difficult to correct since only a part of the street is one-way.

Some Mamaroneck motorists believe that extension of the driveway, which now stops in front of police headquarters, through to Mount Pleasant Avenue, would solve the problem if Elm Street is made entirely a one-way street.

Elected to Lodge Post

Samuel Markle of 44 Munroe Avenue, Larchmont, was elected Monday to the post of third vice president of the Metropolitan Council of Bnai B'rith at its annual convention in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City.

Principal speaker was Frank Goldman, president of Bnai B'rith, who defended the policy of the organization in recently refusing to allow Benjamin J. Butterweiser, Assistant United States High Commissioner of Germany, to speak at one of its meetings.

Goldman objected to Butterweiser's recent alleged statement that the time had come for leniency toward Germany.

Mr. Markle has resided in Larchmont for 15 years. He is a member of Larchmont Post 347, American Legion.

On Shoe Panel

Herbert Adler of 11 Althea Lane Larchmont, last night took part in a panel discussion with two other shoe experts on Station WJMS' "Career Clinic in Shoe Merchandising" sponsored by the School of Retailing of the City College of New York.

President of Adler Shoes for Men, Mr. Adler advised young college students who want to get into the shoe merchandising field not to go into business for themselves until they have had a great deal of experience since competition is keen in the field today.

Besides, he added, a great deal of capital is needed to get a business started.

The panel agreed with Mr. Adler's conclusions.

Wins $100

William L. Parker, 1051 Bushmore Avenue, Mamaroneck, is the winner of a prize of $100 in the Smart Pup contest sponsored recently by the Park Department of Swift and Company.

Mr. Parker described one of the tricks his dog had learned under coaching and the judges decided that the trick was worthy of a $100 award because of the unusual intelligence displayed by his dog and because of the simple, clear manner in which Mr. Parker described the trick.

First Beach Crowd

Nearly 2,000 citizens thronged mamaroneck's Harbor Island Park between early morning and nightfall yesterday to take advantage of the Spring's finest holiday. Park Manager Stephen Johnston estimated today.

Of the total number who were attracted by beach privileges, tennis, ball games and other recreational facilities, Johnston estimated that nearly 800 "swarmed" the beach. He said that "possibly 1,100" boys and girls enjoyed swimming for the first time this season.

HEAD-ON CRASH INJURES 3 MEN AT RED SIGNAL

One Passenger in Hospital After Accident On Post Road

Three persons were taken to United Hospital, Post Chester, early this morning following a head-on crash at East Boston Post Road and Barry Avenue, Mamaroneck. Police secured a signed statement from Philip Graham of Caribou, Me., a witness, that the accident occurred when John L. Perber of 303 Davis Avenue, Greenwich, drove through a red traffic light.

Christopher Winkler, twenty-three, of 28 Ardenia Road, Old Greenwich, was pronounced in Perber's car hospitalized with a left leg fracture.

Paul T. Fischer, twenty-five, a student of 4141 Goucher Avenue, Bronx, operator of the car which was halted for the red light facing west when it was struck, was treated for a nose abrasion and possible fractured finger. He was discharged.

William Kohl, twenty-five, of 4366 Marlin Avenue, Bronx, a passenger in Fischer's car, had eight stitches taken to close a laceration on the right side of his mouth and was treated for three lacerations on the back of the right knee. He also was discharged.

The crash victims were treated by Drs. Francis R. Hunter and William A. Barrett of Mamaroneck before their removal to the hospital in the police ambulance. The fronts of both cars were demolished and they were removed by a wrecker. Fischer told police he was pulled up over a tractor-trailer truck when Perber drove past the red light toward him and crashed into his car head-on.

Patrolmen Extend Battle Against Post Road Violators

Six drivers were fined a total of $145 by Judge Henry T. Hornidge in Mamaroneck police court today as local police pressed the campaign to clean up Post Road speeders and reckless driving. The fine schedule included bonds of $15 each on speeding charges.

Anthony Forestieri of the Bronx was fined $5 for passing a red light and $10 for speeding. Fred Taffra of New York City and Myron Eubank of Rye both were fined $25 for speeding. Bernard Caspazza of New York and Richard Wade of Brooklyn were assessed $10 for speeding and Quentin Jones of 1421 Mamaroneck Avenue, Mamaroneck, was fined $10 for reckless driving.

Robert Ruppel of Elizabeth, N. J., Joseph Etip and Dana Simmons, both of Akron, Ohio, all forfeited $15 bonds on speeding charges.

County Parks Open; Crowds Not Too Big

Westchester's County park system officially opened yesterday according to annual custom, with moderate patronage.

According to beaches and swimming pools will not open until June 10, and because of the erroneous forecast of showers, smaller crowds were present than usual.

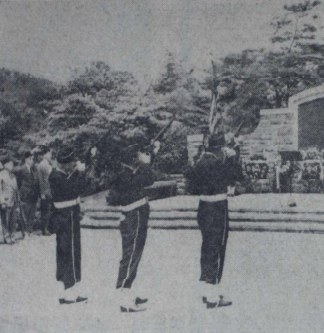

Playland reported 20,000 and elsewhere in the park system 16,000 visitors, mainly picnic-baskets family parties. There were 4,000 at Tibbetts Brook Park in Yorkers, 2,500 at Glen Island in New Rochelle, 600 at Blue Mountain 700 at Croton, 2,225 at Ward-croft, 1,815 at Kingsland through today. Kingsland closed at Macy Park in Ardsley, 1,850 at Mohanic in Yorktown and 900 at Saxon Woods in Scarsdale.

Westchester was heavy but did not break records yesterday, however, Park Superintendent George C. Robinson reported that the check at toll stations from last Friday through today were probably break all records for a six-day period.

On the four County-owned pool courses the players totaled 1,931 yesterday, with 441 at Mohanic, 300 at Mohanic, 420 at Saxon Woods and 460 at Spring Lake, Arden, Mamaroneck.

PAIR HERE FACE ARGENCY CHARGE

Police Find Missing Car In Larchmont; Grand Jury Gets Case

Cassy Robinson, twenty, of 516 Westpost Avenue, Mamaroneck, and a teenage Mamaroneck companion were near for grand jury action on grand larceny charges this morning by Judge Henry T. Hornidge in Mamaroneck police court.

Picked up at 1:51 A. M. yesterday on Myrtle Boulevard, Larchmont, by Sgt. Eugene DeVan of the Mamaroneck Town police, they were booked there for larceny, charged with stealing the car they were using. An additional charge of operating without a license was placed against Robinson.

Because the car had been reported missing the day before in Mamaroneck, the two youths were turned over to Detective Sgt. Jeremiah Gray of the Mamaroneck Village police yesterday at 1:07 P. M. He presented the pair in court today.

The stolen car was owned by Sidney J. Hamilton Jr. of White Plains, who had lent it to Arthur J. Sandberg of 511 Chestnut Avenue, Mamaroneck.

3 Ingredients Seen Necessary To End Drunk-Driving Menace

By KENNETH DANIELSEN

The study of Westchester's "untouchables," the motorists who killed 300 people in a decade in alcoholic driving accidents, was many-sided, but three basic ingredients to be found, the study shows, in any truly permanent solution.

The first of these is stronger. These drivers who take their alcohol and bring mourning upon the families of innocent victims have been protected 500 long. Not one has been convicted in County Court of felonious negligence or drunkenness in these deaths in 10 years. One little lady pleaded guilty in 1941. But the failure to obtain convictions is the failure of the county juries.

Westchester's daily newspapers, however, will publicize the names of every driver arrested in auto fatality or alcoholic driving cases on a county-wide basis, in addition to local publications, a machine measuring the influence of alcohol through analysis of the breath.

The second ingredient is simpler. There is a very simple machine that can be used in these cases. It is just now being introduced to this area and to New York State. It is the breathalyzer, a machine measuring the influence of alcohol through analysis of the breath.

The machine has been approved by the American Medical Association and is simple to operate. Provision for it is already in the Municipal Building. Staff Photo by Warren Inglese

Acheson Urges West to Merge Military Might

Balanced Collective Force' Held Only Way To Meet Russia

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson told Congress today that the growing power of Russia can only be met by organizing the military might of the West into "balanced collective forces."

He appealed to Congress to support such a course, saying President Truman, Secretary of Defense Johnson and he agree it must be made to meet Russian aggression.

Reporting on his recent cold war strategy talk in London, Acheson said the Western nations have reached "another time of decision in which they must either strengthen their North Atlantic treaty and Western European partnership with the United States or 'total failure.'"

Concerned Over Red Threat
The 12 Atlantic treaty nations, including himself, Acheson disclosed, did not say anything about the Western nations were to meet Russian threat which "will exist unless we act now to prepare for our defense against aggression."

Acheson spoke in the Library of Congress at a meeting to which all House and Senate members were invited. Three radio networks (ABC, NBC and CBS) carried the speech to the nation. It was the first time he had made such a public report on a Foreign Ministry matter since North Atlantic treaty session.

The creation of "balanced collective forces" would mean that each of the 12 Atlantic pact powers would build up troops and modernize their armaments. It was the first time he had made such a public report on a Foreign Ministry matter since North Atlantic treaty session.

He must so conduct our personal lives and affairs from day to day as to set a shining example for others. We must prove to the rest of the world that the American way of life is here to stay. We must continue to demonstrate that a moral, political and economic system that is based on freedom and freedom of the individual can be so abundantly and lastingly productive of material progress.

3 ACCIDENTS MAR HOLIDAY WEEKEND

Driverless Poultry Truck Plows Through Hedge On Post Road

Three minor auto accidents were reported by Mamaroneck police over the Memorial Day holiday weekend. A tractor-trailer owned by the Eastern Livestock Company of Williamsport, Pa., operated by Harold L. Cochran of Williamsport, rolled down a 15-foot embankment on Post Road at 7:58 A. M. today.

Minor damage resulted when Mrs. Patricia A. Ives of 743 Prospect Avenue back her car from a Mamaroneck Avenue parking space east of Prospect Avenue Monday at 11:10 P. M. when a locked front wheel of Mrs. Ives' car sent it against the Post Road car at the intersection of Madison Street and Old White Plains Road.

GOVERNOR LAUDS TEMPLE DEALS

Lehman Also Joins Local Officials In Tribute On Dedication Eve

Dedication of the Larchmont Temple Saturday will be "a sign of the deep religious devotion that prevails throughout our country and represents the answer of the American people to the Godlessness and materialism which afflict so much of the rest of the world," Gov. Thomas E. Dewey has written in a letter of greeting.

Senator Herbert H. Lehman declares in a letter to Temple officials that there is a deep need in these times for us to cling close to a faith that will inspire us with hope and courage against the inhumanity and insecurity in the world. The dedication of the Temple at Larchmont is proof indeed that the people of Westchester are steadfast in their faith.

Attorney General Nathaniel I. Goldstein writes: "It is always a pleasure to participate in the dedication of a new church building. The Temple at Larchmont is a fine example of the faith and courage of the people of Westchester. It is a fitting tribute to the community and a source of inspiration for all who live in it."
