Foreign Policy Replaces Fair Deal As Issue In Vote Windup

Re-JACK BELL Associated Press Political Reporter WASHINGTON—The 1950 Congressional campaign winds up today on a foreign policy note which made President Truman's more hotly debated Fair Deal program virtually a forgotten issue.

In fully appraising the voters, both major parties stressed international questions despite strong indications that many voters and house races—as well as some governorships—are likely to be settled on strictly local issues.

The consensus of political observers seemed to be that the results of tomorrow's balloting will be determined by the relative control of the two houses of Congress.

However, the experts left room for a last minute crystallization of sentiment, last night, by reflecting in a surprising trend. The possibility that the recent advent of the Korean War would affect the voters' decision was discussed by other party.

The drive started at 10 A. M. and closed at 6 P. M. Workers were served hot lunch at the clubhouse by a committee headed by Pat Malachuk and Michael McCry.

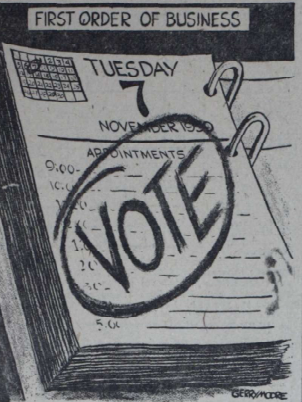

Mr. Keery thanked residents for their cooperation in tying the bundles securely for the pick up, adding that the procedure facilitates the loading and unloading of trucks.

LAKE SUCCESS (AP)—The United States today called for a special Security Council meeting Wednesday to consider the intervention of Red China in the Korean war.

The meeting was requested shortly after Gen. Douglas MacArthur formally reported to the council that Chinese Communist troops had crossed into Korea and were fighting it. U. S. delegate Ernest A. He said the United States already had been carrying on private talks with some delegates.

Gen. MacArthur's charges were made in a special report transmitted to the council by Chief U. S. delegate Warren R. Austin.

The report was discussed at a closed meeting of the seven-nation interim Council on Korea, shortly after it was made public. Mr. Gross took part in the discussions. Col. Alfred Karun, special representative of U. S. Secretary-General Trygve Lie also was present.

Still Time to Vote
Have you voted yet?
If not, you still have time before the polls close at 7 P. M. Too Realistic
The mock trial at the Mamaroneck Municipal Building today looked like the real thing to at least one observer, according to Acting Police Chief Louis Giacola.

The chief invited Sal Spinelli, assistant village engineer, to watch the "murder" arrangement. The only thing he forgot was to tell Spinelli that it was a mock trial for the purpose of giving Mamaroneck a new government some court room experience.

The attorneys, two FBI men, succeeded to make the witnesses uncomfortable and the six cops were having a difficult time maintaining their stories under the expert questioning. Eventually Judge Hornidge was sitting quietly, permitting the witnesses to be all but broken down.

Finally Spinelli couldn't stand it any longer. He turned to Chief Giacola and said, "That's the matter with the judge? Why does he let those lawyers get away with that? Personally, I would have had them hanged."

Dewey Sees Victory; 'I'm in' Says Lynch

Dewey Lynch
NEW YORK (AP) — Expressive confidence in victory for himself and his running mate, Governor Thomas E. Dewey, cast his ballot at 10:10 A. M. today after one of the most exhausting campaigns in his political life.

Mr. Dewey and his wife were accompanied by Public Service Commissioner Paul L. Hoodwood and James Haertry, the Governor's secretary.

After casting his vote Mr. Dewey said: "If all the people will vote I'll feel mighty fine because good government will win by a overwhelming majority."

He said that meant the entire GOP ticket.

The Governor said he would spend the rest of the day with his wife and his son, Thomas, Jr., at the Roosevelt Hotel. He said he would be in the city until 10:30 P. M. today.

Mr. Dewey said he felt well despite an unprecedented 18-hour television-radio "talkathon" yesterday.

"I loved it," he said. "I love talking government."

He was on and off the air for a total of 6 A. M. to midnight, with a 15-minute break for breakfast and a 15-minute break for a broadcast of the program "Dewey Leads the State and Dewey Leads the Nation."

Mr. Dewey ran his own show like an easy-talking political disc jockey, wearing professional tan television makeup, and soliciting questions with no holds barred.

There was no music, but lots of action and more talk.

Part of the time Mr. Dewey talked with his wife, Mrs. Dewey.

Republicans See Last-Hour Swing on Korean Issue

Close Races Indicated in Many States; Congress Control at Stake
Associated Press Political Reporter
With the nation trending uneasy around somewhere between war and peace, 40 million or more voters decide today whether Democrats or Republicans will control Congress in the two critical years ahead.

Some States poised to close races in many of the states choosing 30 Senators, 42 House members and 32 Governors.

Many elected a Republican Governor and three House members in September. Heavy party majorities in Southern and border states assured the Democrats a net gain of more than 100 House seats in practically uncontested elections.

With fall weather in sight for most of the nation, Republican leaders joined President Truman and other Democrats in urging a heavy turnout at the polls.

Republicans urged on last-night voter reaction to the confused Korean War situation to help provide the impetus for the gains they seek.

To gain a net of seven seats in the Senate and 49 in the House for control of Congress.

Senator Knowland, R. Calif., voted on GOP viewpoint with a demand on Secretary of State Acheson yesterday for acceptance of Chinese Nationalist aid.

He said in July of 30,000 rounds to fight the Communists in Korea.

U. S. Expected to Urge Move To Prevent Spread of Chinese War

LAKE SUCCESS, (AP)—The United States is expected to call on the U. N. Security Council today to move "as rapidly as it can" to prevent Chinese Communist intervention in Korea from spreading the conflict.

With the backing of Britain and France, the American delegation will ask the council to go ahead with the proposal for the Korean cease without waiting for the arrival of Chinese Communist representatives.

China already has served notice she will fight all consideration of the question until the Chinese Reds have been brought before the council and given a chance to answer the charges made against them by Gen. MacArthur, U. N. commander in Korea, and the American delegation.

This afternoon's council meeting originally was called to consider the Chinese proposal for the Korean question which is expected to set the stage for a lengthy argument over the agenda, which a wrangle could prevent the council from meeting on the Korean issue this afternoon.

Informants said France, Britain and Ecuador had joined the United States in sponsorship of a Korean resolution to be put before the council. The proposal was understood to include these main points:

A demand for withdrawal of all forces—Chinese Communist and Chinese—beside the North Korean Reds.

A call on all nations to refrain from aiding the North Koreans.

PHONE STRIKERS CHANGE TACTICS

Some Pickets Strategy; Surprise Strategy; Service Slowed

NEW YORK, (AP)—Striking telephone equipment workers abruptly withdrew picket lines from some exchanges across the country today in an apparent launching of a new "rush hit-ton" strike tactic.

Idea of the strategy, as described by the Western Electric Co. to employ surprise picketing, concentrating lines in some places, not in others and picking on some days and not on other days.

The strike, called yesterday by the CIO Communications Workers of America to enforce demands for a "substantial boost" in wages from the Western Electric Co., slowed long distance service because operators refused to cross picket lines.

Local dial service was not affected, but in cases of manually operated telephones only emergency calls were conducted.

Wage Boost Rejected

The union, which represents 17,000 Western Electric employees rejected a company offer which included 10 cents an hour additional in wages, present wages now average $1.55 to $1.62 an hour. The union rejected the offer because it was less than the 20 percent wage increase sought by the union.

First strike action was at a meeting of the officers and board of directors at Bellows High School, which was held on Christmas Eve, Dec. 12, in the Junior High School auditorium.

The Friendly Village Makes A Friend As Stuart Church, Waring Singer, Moves Here

MAMARONECK has attracted a good many celebrities since John Ribicell made his deal with the Indians — but seldom has a big shot from the world of entertainment been so willing to settle down with a friendly feeling in the Friendly Village as Stuart Church, the lyric writer and wild arranger who has sparred with the big boys of the industry for the last two decades.

A lease-neighbour put in a tree on the Parkway near the ranch house where Church lives with his attractive wife and 13-year-old daughter. "He'll be around here for a long time," she smiled, "and there he is smoking his leaves just like anybody."

Why radio and television fans didn't find a celebrity, he doesn't seem to understand. When you try to explain it, he "I just stay and shaker his head. "I'm just another actor," he tells you. Church's success story is a tale of many ups and downs. He's been around here for the last two decades.

He pulled out his pipe before he answered. "Well, Fred heard me sing one day in a restaurant and he said, 'I'd like to come with his orchestra.'"

It happened in Ann Arbor when Stuart was a student at the University of Michigan in the late 1920's. He and a friend sang and

Phone Strike

Will Continue Over Weekend

NEW YORK, (AP) — It appears more probable that the national coast-to-coast telephone strike will persist in its third day.

The first federal speaker talks failed yesterday after only one of several pay and contract issues was discussed. No new joint session was planned before tomorrow afternoon.

At the same time, the striking Co Communications Workers of America started a new system of "hit-and-run" picketing aimed at causing the greatest possible confusion in the base Bell system.

The national effect of the strike was spotty.

American Family 'Growing Up'

2 Speakers at Forum Maintain

The belief that the father is taking a greater share in the home and that there is greater cooperation in the modern family, than there was in past generations was advanced last night at the season's second session of the Larchmont Forum For Public Opinion.

More than 500 persons crowded the chaworth Avenue School to hear Dr. Margaret Reed, international known social scientist and Dr. Luther E. Woodward, New York State mental health services coordinator, discuss "What Is Happening to the American Family?"

Dr. Woodward maintained that the American family is "growing up," and young men and women are having their union on other conditions than merely the economic one.

"The pattern seems to be running toward the father having more responsibility in the home, people enjoying children, and more participation and cooperation between young and old people than we've had in a very long time," declared Dr. Reed.

Author of many books in the family life of primitive people, Dr. Reed referred to some of her experiences in the South Seas and the primitive life among the tribes as evidence supporting her views.

SUIT BY ROBESON

GETS COURT OK.

Federal Judge Rules Sinner And Others Can Proceed

In $2 Million Action

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal judge ruled yesterday that singer Paul Robeson and 27 others had the right to proceed with a $2,000,000 damage suit arising out of last year's riots near Veterans' Park.

The suit to restrain two veterans organizations and 14 individuals and Westchester officials, accused of violating the civil rights of Robeson and his supporters and of preventing two concerts.

The defendants had filed a motion that the federal court lacked jurisdiction, and that the suit failed to detail specific violations.

Federal Judge Sylvester J. Ryan turned down the motion.

He said "material issues of fact were raised in the suit, although no finding have been made that they have been violated."

The judge, however, dismissed a separate complaint by Robeson that as a Negro, had been denied his constitutional privileges.

The judge said the complaint "is devoid of a precise allegation that Negroes have been particularly treated with discrimination."

The general suit, which may now go before a federal jury, involves two scheduled concerts by Robeson a year ago.

Both affairs broke up in riot, with hundreds of cars, automobiles wrecked and several persons arrested.

The plaintiffs charge that the veterans organizations and their officials failed to interfere with this action. At the second concert Sept. 4, the suit charges, the defendants conspired to deprive the plaintiffs of their civil rights.

Parking At Station For Residents, Off-Plaza Meters, 1-Hour Limit, Suggested In Larchmont Survey

A proposal for the solution of Larchmont's chronic parking headache is presented in the Village Board Monday when the Traffic and Parking Committee will recommend that parking at the station plaza be restricted to Larchmont residents, that a motor ordinance be passed to regulate on-street parking on streets adjoining the plaza, and that the board consider placing meters in the business sections if strict enforcement of the present one-hour limit proves unworkable.

The committee will also propose an amendment to the zoning ordinance which would require off-street parking facilities for new buildings.

According to the recommendation, Larchmont residents would be charged five cents per automobile to park in the station plaza and the space would be reserved for Larchmont residents only.

Parking places immediately surrounding the plaza would be designated for off-street parking to be installed along both sides of Depot Street.

Designated as one-hour parking areas for a trial period are streets in both shopping districts of the village.

They include the Boston Post Road from Chatsworth Street to Depot Lane, Chatsworth Avenue and Larchmont Avenue from the Post Road to Addison Street and from Concord and Eden Avenues to the railroad.

In the other shopping district, they include the streets from the Post Road to the Town Line to beyond the Playhouse, Vandewater Avenue, Brookhill Turnpike, Larchmont Avenue, the Parkway and East and West Avenues.

ARMY TO REOPEN Red Troops Smash South Koreans Along Two Fronts

Fort Stouck Will Be Reactivated To Begin Soon, Ready April 15

One of the oldest military outposts along the Atlantic Coast—Fort Stouck—will be reactivated by the Army as a chaplain school and an Army Information staff school.

Reactivation of the island base in New Rochelle is expected to begin soon and will be completed by April 15. There had been rumors that the base might be used by the Army engineers as a rehabilitation center for a coast school. But Army Information section headquarters in New York City today confirmed the latest plan.

By April 15, there will be 80 chaplains taking chaplain instruction from 14 officers. By then 250 men and 250 officers will be receiving instruction from 76 of them on the base.

According to news received in New York from Washington, Fort Stouck was selected for an Army Public Relations Information School because of its accessibility to the nation's major newspapers, radio and television networks. There will be more than 100 men on the base.

Fort Stouck was abandoned except for a skeleton guard on Oct. 1, 1949, when 1st Air Force headquarters moved to Mitchel Field.

Captain Arthur Sherman, present commanding officer of the post, said he had received orders today informing him of the reactivation of the post, and freeing him of his present duties. Colonel Andrew Lull, executive officer of the Armed Forces Institute, was also present.

200 More Spotters Wanted For County

Gen. Clement H. Wright, chief of New York State aircraft warning service, last night called for an additional 200 aircraft spotters from Westchester to help defend New York City.

Gen. Wright, speaking at a meeting of Post & American League, warned that the most perfect radar screen would not prevent enemy planes from attaining objectives along the North American seaboard.

He pointed out that German documents captured after World War II revealed German aircraft had flown over New York and Boston, undetected by radar.

An additional 5,000 men and women are needed throughout the state to man plane spotter posts, he said, and the White Plains filter center requires an additional 200 to bring its strength up to 500.

White Plains communication center is not in the "direct line of attack," Gen. Wright said, they will be called on to "fill in" in the event of an attack on New York City.

Plans suggested by alert spotters and a well knit system of communication, will do much to reduce casualties in the event of an enemy attack," he asserted.

ALONG FRONT IN NORTH KOREA

Yanks Push Through Hills Within 20 Miles of Red Manchuria

SEOUL, (AP)—Allied forces forged ahead today all along the 150-mile North Korean front toward the Manchurian border. Resistance was spotty. Part-time infantrymen of the U. S. 17th Regiment knifed through the forest-covered Pungang hills in the northeast to within 20 miles of the Red Manchurian border. The 17th smashed five miles to the 41st Parallel against Red tanks, artillery and infantry. It was the day's biggest gain in sharp contrast, the entire front along the 38th Parallel, the 41st Parallel in the northwest, virtually unopposed. Temperatures were in the 40s. Snow melted the going rough. Gales ranged up to four miles. American naval gins helped South Koreans turn the tables on the Chinese Reds on the opposite coast in the extreme northeast. U. S. Marines clashed with the Chinese in the mountainous center of the peninsula. They advanced as much as three miles along the west side of the ice-cold Changan reservoir.

Troops of the MOK II Corps stabilized the sagging border of the line against strong Red opposition. U. S. Marines of the 7th Regiment, probing west of the Changan Reservoir, bumped into a Communist force of undetermined size. Two Marine companies skirmished with the Red force, forcing it to retreat from a 100 mm. artillery job loss.

White Plains Barbers

Vote No Price Boost

WHITE PLAINS—There will be no increase in the price of haircuts and shampoos in White Plains this year. Most barbers, meeting last night for the second time to discuss a suggested increase, voted to retain present prices. It was announced by Thomas Johnson, president of the association, that the meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. J. Conroy of Larchmont.

It was reported that one factor influencing the decision was that the existing wage agreement with union barbers does not expire until May 1, 1951.

IN STRIKE THREAT

Radio, TV Performers In Negotiation, Easing of Situation Seen

NEW YORK, (AP)—Strike threats by radio and television performers appeared eased as a negotiator for the performers' union today reported an optimistic note.

Last night, the AFL-American Federation of Radio Artists said strike action would be withheld pending a negotiation session today.

At 1 o'clock this morning, negotiations between the AFL Television Authority and the major networks adjourned to an afternoon session. A union spokesman said the situation appeared somewhat better than yesterday.

The unions claim the threatened walkouts would cripple both radio and TV broadcasts. Some 25,000 radio actors and 30,000 AFRA members are involved.

The Television Authority is an overall group for TV performers who also are members of other unions.

In the radio dispute, no details were announced of the union's demands. The union says the issue, including pay scales, are too complex for comprehensive explanation.

The Television Authority is reported demanding minimums of $70 for performers for 15-minute programs, $85 for half-hour programs, and $115 for hour-long programs, with $6 an hour for rehearsal.

SHUTDOWN SERIES

PLANNED BY FORD

Quits Manufacturing Work At Big Plant at Rouge Until Monday

DETROIT, (AP)—The Ford Motor Co. was entered today upon a series of staggered shutdowns affecting 50,000 employees. Plant closings over a period of three weeks began last night when Ford quit all manufacturing operations at its big Rouge factory until Monday.

Management blamed a "continuing labor slowdown" in the steel rolling mill at Rouge and parts and material shortages.

The CIO United Auto Workers took exception to the slowdown charge, asserting the company was at fault for a steel shortage. Management and union have been at odds since a wildcat strike at the rolling mill early in October.

After Tuesday, Rouge's 50,000 men will be idle the rest of the week. There will be another shutdown Nov. 29 and Dec. 1.

Approximately 25,000 foot assembly workers outside Michigan were idle yesterday. Some returned today. All will be back tomorrow.

$14,000 Salary Sought For 6 County Heads

WHITE PLAINS—Executive Herbert C. Gerlach announced today that he will recommend to the supervisors that the base salaries of the six major County department heads be raised to $14,000 each for 1951.

The increases, explained Mr. Gerlach, will be along the lines of the formula for County salaries outlined by him in his budget increases last month. The overall total of the increases for the six which is already included in the budget in a lump sum to cover general increases, is put at $5,300.

The six department heads in question are James C. Harding, Public Works Commissioner; Harry Herman, County Attorney; William A. Holla, Health Commissioner; Edward J. Gander, County Commissioner; Ruth Taylor, Welfare Commissioner, and County Clerk Robert W. Foster, Budget Commissioner. The two last named are resigning their positions, but the 1951 salaries will presumably apply to their successors.

The salaries of the six at present range from $11,500 for the Welfare Commissioner, to $12,300 for the Public Works Commissioner. Mr. Gerlach also recommended that the annual bonus, which has been $720 for 1950, be raised to $1,170 for 1951. Under the new arrangement, each will receive $1,170, while the bonus on the cost of the bonus has been frozen into $1,170. This is under the recommendation by Mr. Gerlach that the bonus be frozen into $1,170.

Mr. Gerlach said it had also been desired that three elective county officials be given the same pay raises as this time, but County Attorney Herman has ruled that under State law the salaries of such constitutional officers cannot be increased or decreased during their elected terms. The law does not affect appointed department heads.

These three are District Attorney George M. Patten, who is receiving $12,300, and County Clerk Robert W. Foster, who is receiving $12,300. The two last named are resigning their positions, but the 1951 salaries will presumably apply to their successors.

The USS Quonset Point, a seaplane carrier, was on a 41-foot long trip from the Post Road through Mamaroneck and Larchmont. After a short stop at the Naval Air Station at Quonset Point, R. I., to Philadelphia where it will take part in the Christmas Tolland Parade on Thanksgiving Day.

A scale model of the Navy's basic class carrier now on its way off Korea, the Quonset Point, was built in the lobby space of the Naval Base in Rhode Island. It is a model of the ship which will revolve and puff smoke while actual battle sounds are reproduced via a public address system. Scale model Oceanarium President J. H. Rogers is posed on its deck.

The craft is manned by a crew of three and the trip to Philadelphia will be its first public appearance outside Rhode Island.

Driver Traced
An auto which damaged two cars parked on Mount Pleasant Avenue near the Post Road Thursday night was traced yesterday through its license number to James Joseph Helman of 106 South Twelfth Avenue, Mount Vernon, according to Mamaroneck Village police.

Helman's vehicle which is traveling South on Mount Pleasant Avenue, suffered a rear-end fender while a car owned by George L. Newcomb Jr. of 128 Murray Avenue, Mount Vernon, sustained a ripped left front fender and dented wheel. The second parked auto, owned by George Phillips of 154 West Post Road, Mamaroneck, was damaged by rear fender impact and the gas tank damaged. No charges were made.

Town of Mamaroneck firemen were called out twice within 24 hours last night to douse minor blazes.

At 5:08 P. M. a short circuit set wires alight under the hood of a car owned by R. T. Albert of 16 Monroe Avenue, Larchmont. The mishap took place near 154 Hudson Drive.

Victor Mancini of 39 Myrtle Boulevard, Larchmont, reported at 5:45 A. M. today that he smelled smoke in his house and Chief George Burton and Fireman Nicholas Soriano discovered a burning rag on the basement stairway. The blaze was extinguished by spontaneous combustion of linseed oil in the rag.

Two Mamaroneck town police sergeants this morning took an examination for police lieutenant's post last vacant position in 1949, when Lt. Paul Buller retired after more than 23 years of service.

The sergeants who took the New York State Civil Service examination at Madisonville High School, White Plains, are Francis Waterbury and Eugene Wilson. Waterbury has been a member of the department since 1928 and was appointed sergeant in 1938. Wilson became a patrolman in 1936 and a sergeant two years ago. Results of his examination will be made known in about two months.

Hearing Deferred
The hearing on charges of leaving the scene of an accident brought against James Wilson of 151 Elm Street, Mamaroneck, was postponed until Nov. 24 yesterday in Mamaroneck Village police court.

4 Blazes Doused

Four brush fires kept Mamaroneck Village firemen hopping over the weekend as the Fire Department and Hose Co. answered three alarms and Columbia Hose Company was called out once.

The first alarm sounded at 11:18 A. M. Saturday and called Mamaroneck to the West Post Road and Old Post Road where a fire in the woods back of the Cusack King stand was extinguished.

Mamaroneck responded to two alarms yesterday, the first at 12:26 P. M. when Tony Walker of 1847 Old Post Road called and reported a fire on his property. The blaze was out at 12:43 P. M. A call from a telephone supervisor at 4:02 P. M. reported that another blaze was burning on the same property. That one was out at 4:30 P. M.

The Columbia Company answered a call at 2:18 P. M. Saturday when Mrs. Samuel Massey of 930 Southview Drive reported a fire at the end of the Drive. The blaze lasted an hour before it was extinguished at 4:34 P. M.

Returns from Indo-China

Dr. Gerald P. Winfield of Walnut Street, Mamaroneck, returned yesterday by plane from Saigon, Indo-China, where he has been in charge of a mission for the ECA since last spring. He left Saigon Thursday night and spent a night in Paris en route, landing at Idlewild yesterday morning.

Dr. Winfield is secretary and co-ordinator of operations for the ECA in the fields of health, agriculture, industry, transportation and public works, handicraft, literacy and public education in Indo-China.

He is in Washington this week and reports to the State Department with his wife and four children within the next few weeks.

Pigeon Racer Featured

Harold Saunders, chief flier of the Union Savings Bank, Mamaroneck, whose skillful guidance is facing pigeon racing in the All-America title in 1948, was featured Saturday by The New York World-Telegram and Sun under the heading: "Pigeon Racing—America's Greatest Unknown Sport."

His greatest thrill came one night last Spring when two of his young birds dropped into their traps in the $200 lot behind his home at 312 Jefferson Avenue. The article recalls flying the last hour through blinding darkness and "murderous" weather to get over New York City, they were the only two birds that finished out of 4,000 starters that day.

Their remarkable feat was undoubtedly evidence of the excellent training Mr. Saunders had given them—for birds fly at a mile and rarely fly after dark, when they cannot see. He was too excited to remove the rubber leg bands from the homing pigeons—a trend had to be left to him!

Board to Weigh Annual Car Fee

Station Restriction, Meters on Larchmont Agenda Tonight

Proposals of the traffic and parking committee seeking to solve Larchmont's parking problem, will be considered at a meeting of the Larchmont Village Police Department, which is held for one-and-a-half years.

Among the suggestions is a proposal to reserve the parking spaces for residents only at an annual parking license fee of $1 per year for residents only. This was erroneously reported in The Daily Times that the fee would be $1 per month.

Other proposals are to pass a local motor ordinance to regulate commuter parking on the streets adjoining the parking lots, to provide for one-hour parking for a trial period. If the ordinance proves unsatisfactory, the committee recommends the installation of meters.

When we left about half past one in the morning, Abraham said today "they still had at least three bodies to get out but there was nothing anybody could do. Both Stewart and I saw some pretty terrible things overseas during the war, but this was a pretty close to matching them."

Busy Police Day

A "Peeping Tom" escaping from a room and boys playing in an apartment elevator kept Mamaroneck Town police on the move yesterday.

At 10:35 A. M. three teenage boys were reprimanded for holding the elevator on the top floor of the Chatsworth Gardens Apartments and thereby preventing anyone else from using it. Police returned at 9:30 to disperse a group of four other teenagers, playing among the cars in a nearby parking lot.

Police found that the thermostat and aquatist were not functioning with the result that the water in the hot water tank rose to 215 degrees and a pipe eventually burst on the side of the house just beneath the roof and poured out live steam and hot water. Police turned off the heating system.

Police are also investigating the case of a peeping tom reported by Mrs. E. A. Hubbard of 43 Weaver Street. While trying last night about 8:15 P. # STORM HIGHLIGHTS

Santa a Casualty

Santa Claus won't be coming to town today, it was reluctantly announced this morning by Arthur Dunn Jr., executive secretary of the Mamaroneck Chamber of Commerce under whose auspices the kindly saint was to land this afternoon at Mamaroneck Avenue School Field.

Santa is a casualty of Saturday storm, according to Mr. Dunn, who pointed out that he was to turn the Christmas tree lights on in the village, a job which he can't perform because the lights can't be cut in until full power is restored to the village.

Judging of Christmas store displays will, however, go on as scheduled, Mr. Dunn said, and a secret committee will tour the business district tonight to determine the winners in the display contest.

When Santa will be coming to make his appearance is still undetermined but his coming will be announced as soon as proper preparations for his welcome can be restrained.

Volunteers on Duty

All Civil Defense units in Mamaroneck were alerted Saturday and provided valuable assistance to Mamaroneck police and firemen. Acting Police Chief Louis Giancola said this morning.

Auxiliary Police under Oscar Birch, the Red Cross Disaster Unit led by Everett Henson and Charles Sileck, the Rescue Squad captained by Jack Holland and Harry Primrose and the Scout Leaders' Emergency Squad under Francis Ruffner were all in action guarding fallen wires and helping evacuate residents from Edgewater Point.

Chief Giancola today expressed his appreciation for the work of the volunteers all of whom were on duty until the worst of the emergency had passed.

'Neither Rain Nor Snow'

All Saturday mail deliveries were made on time, the Larchmont and Mamaroneck Post Offices report, as mail carriers generally battled their way through wind and rain.

The Post Office remained open as usual until 12:15 P. M. even though lightning had begun.

Still Without Lights

More than 2,000 homes in the New Rochelle and Port Chester Districts of the Westchester Lighting Company were still without electric power at 8 A. M. this morning, according to a company official. The district serves Mamaroneck and Larchmont villages and the Town.

In the New Rochelle area 1,600 were without power with 18 light poles down and 70 trees and wires. There were still 367 locations where wires were down. The Port Chester district reported 100 homes without power, 13 felled poles still to be repaired and 15 trees across wires. Wires were still broken in 44 locations.

The Lighting Company experienced its peak trouble in these districts at 8 P. M. Saturday, just as the storm began to abate. At that time 7,600 homes in the New Rochelle area were without light and power had failed in about 3,000 residences in the Port Chester area.

Close Call

Acting Police Chief Louis Giancola had a close call Saturday during the evacuation of residents from Edgewater Point.

Working in water almost to his hips, Chief Giancola accidentally slipped into a narrow crevice and was hampered by his uniform, started to go down.

He was quickly grabbed by Second Deputy Chief Thomas S. Fallon of the Mamaroneck Fire Department and by two firemen who, despite the treacherous footing, managed to pull him back to comparatively safe ground.

The chief was wet before the experience so a little more dizziness didn't hurt him and he was on with his rescue operations directed by the direction of Mayor B. J. Sarnoro who was also working at the scene.

Sightseers on Tour

Sightseers caused Mamaroneck Village police plenty of difficulty during the storm as bars piled up on the Post Road trying to get into Orienta Point or just parked along the road to watch the storm.

Police had to close off Orienta Point to all but residents and emergency crews during the storm and were forced to tow parked cars on the Post Road to move on.

Arch, yesterday's traffic at Orienta.

SHOREFRONT RIPPED BY STORM

WRECKAGE of boats and buildings was strewn haphazardly Saturday as Rushmore and Seneca Avenues by the wild wind and wider tide of the gale. The boat pictured above was driven onto Rushmore Avenue near McMichael's Boat Yard.

A LONE FRIBMAN stands at the foot of Orienta Avenue, Mamaroneck, near the turn into Edgewater Point as wind-driven waves surmount the seawall. Evacuees were removed from Edgewater Point over this street Saturday afternoon.

GALE MAKES TOLL OF TREES, WIRES; CLUBS INUNDATED

Boats and Docks Wrecked As High Tide Gushes Over Seawall

A vicious easterly gale whipped the angry waters of Long Island Sound up to the shore areas of Mamaroneck and Larchmont Saturday making a shambles of many portions of the waterfront, causing the evacuation of all residents of Edgewater Point, knocking out lights on telephones and causing extensive damage from fallen trees and wires.

Boat yards were wrecked, Harbor Island and parts of Orienta Point in Mamaroneck were inundated; boats, docks and wharves were wrenched or sunk at the mercy of the wind and waves. Streets were closed off because of fallen trees and poles; and hundreds of homes were left without heat or light as the storm pounded the shore.

In Larchmont, Hommocks Road and the golf club were flooded and both Larchmont Yacht Club and Larchmont Shore Club suffered extensive damage.

Water Over Seawalls At the height of the storm, waters covered Harbor Island, pounded high over the walls of the East and West Basins of Mamaroneck, and knocked down from their cradles in boat yards and sent all kinds of craft helter-skelter.

Although no area in the vicinity was in the line of the storm, it was the second time this month that the battle-hardened Americans were forced to live up without a fight the rail and highway city 31 miles south of the Manchurian border.

CHINESE ADVANCE ALL ALONG FRONT

UN End - War Offensive Threatened By Fresh Red Drives

TOKYO, (AP)—Complete collapse of the United States defense-war offensive was threatened today by heavy new Chinese attacks on the frozen northwest Korean front.

The U. S. 24th Division, its right flank imperiled by infiltrating Red forces, pulled back from Chongjin near the west coast.

It was the second time this month that the battle-hardened Americans were forced to live up without a fight the rail and highway city 31 miles south of the Manchurian border. All along the northwest front, Chinese forces shoved back by elements of two Chinese Red armies—more than 100,000 men. Swarms of Chinese attacked in pre-dawn darkness to the blaze of battle.

A spokesman described the situation as "quite confused." Field dispatches said the eastern anchor of the line, Tokchon, had fallen to the Reds.

In the northwest, a Chinese tank-led Red attack forced back South Korean advance guard of Chongjin, some 35 miles south of the Soviet Siberian border.

U. S. Marines halted stiffening Red resistance as reported elsewhere in the northwest. U. S. Marines, pushing westward in a drive from Chongjin Reserve, were halted by dug-in Chinese four miles west of Yudan.

On the northwest front, the 24th U. S. Division was forced to retreat.

22,500 Still Without Power, Phone Service

Utility companies were struggling mightily today with outside help to restore service in partially blacked-out Westchester.

The Westchester Lighting Co. and the Yonkers Electric Light & Power Co. hoped to get power to all but a few customers by tonight, New York Telephone Co. officials said all other work would be dropped to try to connect most subscribers by tomorrow night.

The lighting company said the damage Saturday was the greatest it ever experienced and estimated the cost at $250,000; the telephone company damage was estimated to run eventually to $200,000.

Service in more than 61,000 electricity consumers in the county—nearly one-third of the 200,000 customers—was interrupted for varying lengths of time and about 16,000 telephone lines were put out of order.

At the peak of trouble Saturday, about 13,000 homes and businesses were without service. Repairs started Friday night and by this morning about 10,000 customers still were out of the high of telephone out simultaneously.

In 11,500 yesterday, some business office failures were not reported until today. This morning about 11,500 phones still were about.

The New Rochelle office of the New York Telephone Company said this morning there were about 1,200 phones still out of commission from Pelham to Mamaroneck. John M. Little Jr., manager, said it might take a "couple of more days" before service is fully restored.

About 650 phones were involved in 40 cable failures and the other 600 were out due to individual trouble. Harvest Hill, Westchester, in this area were North Pelham and Pelham Heights. Westchester Drive, Pelham Road, River Street and Lincoln Street.

Private contractors were hired on Mamaroneck school property, P. M.

2 Killed; County Loss Exceeds $3,500,000

Westchester's worst storm, coming without warning Saturday morning and increasing in intensity until early evening, contributed to the death of two persons, injured 25, did more than $3,500,000 damage, and blacked out 77,000 power and telephone users.

The dead: Mrs. Sarah Wofsy, eighty-three, fell down stairs in darkened house at 123 Church Street, New Rochelle, at 9 A. M.

The injured included 15 in New Rochelle, four in Yonkers and one each in Mount Vernon, White Plains, Ossining, Rye Town, Harrison and Larchmont. Most of them were cut by flying glass as store windows were blown in.

A survey by towns showed at least 1,700 trees blown down in the county and 225 streets and highways blocked as a result.

About 25,000 still without service. Today 25,000 of the utilities customers still were without one service or the other, or both. Augmented crews were working to restore lines and reconnect consumers, but some will not have normal functioning until Wednesday.

Damage on the Long Island Sound shore was severe, marked by collapse of half the Playland amusement pier, and along the Hudson River where boat clubs were wrecked.

The wind Saturday afternoon reached gusts of 90 mph at the Westchester Lighting Co. building in Mount Vernon and 105 mph at Bear Mountain.

Many aircraft were wrecked at the Rye Lake and other airports. Modern Canals Television aerials were casualties of a storm for the first time in large numbers. Another modern note was the loss to deep frosts of hundreds who were without current for 36 or 48 hours. Probably the heaviest damage in Westchester was along the shore of Long Island Sound from

WIND CHEWS ROOF AT LOCAL SCHOOL

Repairs at Central to Cost $3,000; Murray Avenue School Closed

Damage estimated at almost $3,000 was done to the Central School roof Saturday by the buffeting hurricane, and sessions at the Murray Avenue School in Larchmont were suspended today because electric power was still off.

At Central School the wind ripped shingles off the roof in three large sections and sent them flying to the ground. Superintendent of Schools J. J. Ateri based his estimate of the replacement cost on the statement of a roofer who was called in this morning.

In Rye Neck two sections of the building around the tower of Daniel Warren School were blown off but otherwise buildings were unharmed although two large trees fell back of Bellows High School smashing a fence at the rear of the school grounds, and a tree blew over back of the Barry Ave. High School, also.

Storm Refuge

Charles Wach's year-round residence of Men Island, needs a new home.

The hut in which he has lived for more than 30 years was all but completely destroyed by the storm last Saturday and eighty-seven year old Wach lost all his belongings. However, he stuck it out on the island until yesterday when he rowed across the harbor and appeared at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koch of 437 East Boston Post Road. The Kochs are friends of long standing.

The storm had not affected the health of the octogenarian and it was lack of proper shelter and clothes which finally forced him to come to town dressed in boots, an old suit, and a ladies' overcoat. All the clothing he had left.

Today the Kochs and other friends are looking for a new home for him on the mainland, where Wach can spend the cold days of the approaching winter.

China Reports Fresh Attack In Northeast Korea

Lull Falls On Northwest Front; Marines Fight To Escape Trap

SEOUL, (AP) — Eighty thousand Chinese troops on a new offensive were reported attacking United Nations forces in Northeast Korea today. A curious lull fell on the frozen bloody battlefront in the northwest.

Marine Gen. Edward M. Almond told war reporters six to 10 Chinese divisions suddenly confronted his 14th Corps forces in the northeast.

Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker's 8th Army pulled back early through the Almond area. They were battling fiercely but the marine supply route was cut. Intelligence officers were unable to find the divisions mentioned by Gen. Almond were in the forward attack.

Some Red tanks were in use there.

The two alleged burglars who were captured by police at gunpoint Tuesday night on a Larchmont house, both of whom police have long criminal records, will tonight be examined and are being held for Grand Jury action.

Holiday Care

A plea to all residents of Mamaroneck to participate in a nationwide Christmas safety campaign was issued today by Mayor F. J. Santoro. The campaign is being waged by the National Safety Council and 181 cooperating national organizations and its goal is to reduce the toll of accidents which brings suffering and sorrow to so many homes during the holiday season.

"The Christmas holidays bring extra hazards," Mayor Santoro said. "Traffic accidents were their peak during this period because of winter weather, earlier darkness and holiday festivities. Home accidents also increase. If we as all assume personal responsibility for a safe celebration for ourselves and others, further deaths and injuries in traffic, and when we're home, we can all have a safe and happy holiday.

"Everyone of us should resolve that no accident, not even a minor one, shall mar the happiness of anyone in Mamaroneck this Christmas."

Gas Rate Extension Granted To Feb. 28

NEW YORK — The higher "inflation" gas rates of the Westchester Electric Co. which have been in effect for more than two years have been again extended by the Public Service Commission this time until Feb. 28.

The PSC said out some hope to complaining consumers that use of natural gas, which is expected to be available to the Commission's rate system next month, may result in some adjustment downward of the rates and agreed to advance a hearing at which the Westchester consumers may present "pertinent" data on the subject.

The commission approved a report by Commissioner Francis X. Kelly in which he held that with the current extension of the rates scheduled to expire today there would be no time in which the PSC could hear the evidence of the consumers and make a decision before the deadline.

The commission points out that the PSC has not as yet been informed by the utility whether its Westchester consumers are entitled to be supplied "natural" gas, but at the start the new fuel will be used exclusively for manufactured gas, and adds that no data is yet available as to the actual effect the natural gas will have on costs.

Such information will be the basis of actual operation, the commission holds, but it predicts that such data will soon be available.

The PSC stated that if the facts indicate that lower rates are justified it has the power to put them into effect.

The report states that continuing to be added to the division.

The project will benefit everyone, according to Mr. Pergola, who points out that it will permit residents to dispose of salvagable material difficult to move, assist the war effort with needed metal and assist the G. I. welfare fund which primarily assists children.

There will be no charge for the village, however, Mr. Pergola stated. Residents who do not have a piece of metal, rubber or rags are merely asked to call the clubhouse members who will be asked to go all the way, according to Mr. Pergola, who has been the salvage committee. FINNS' ASSETS RELEASED

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Attorney General McGrath today announced a complete unblocking of Finnish assets frozen in this country during World War II. The blocking action was taken against Finland in 1941 because of a score of friendly foreign countries in 1941 to prevent their possible use by our government.

General conditions in England indicate a general slump in religion although the country's physical condition has improved tremendously since the end of World War II. The Rev. Floyd E. McGuire of the Larchmont Avenue Church last night told more than 100 members and guests of the Larchmont Rotary Club at a dinner held in his honor at the Larchmont Yacht Club and the Mamaroneck Rotary Club (closed) the Larchmont Rotarians in the luncheon.

Dr. McGuire spoke of his recent trip to England and showed 20 slides of pictures he took in the four countries.

The rubble in England has been almost completely removed and new buildings are being erected all over the country, he said. He said that England is in far better condition physically than either Holland, Germany or France. Although the English still retain food and clothes rationing, the food is nutritious and the general health of the people is very good.

The situation in Germany is much worse with the war rubble remaining undisturbed and improvements practically non-existent. "They are certainly not going to believe any new construction will be knocked down again in another war very soon," Dr. McGuire stated.

He said that in some of the ports, conditions in Holland are very good because the people are industrious and hard working and not on their own feet as some of the people here.

While in Germany he visited the famous Dachau Concentration Camp and the displaced persons camp. He said that the displaced persons are not for the European Recovery program, Europe would have been lost to the Russians.

The dinner was originally sponsored by the Larchmont Shore Club, but was transferred to the Yacht Club when it was discovered the Shore Club's kitchen was too badly damaged from Saturday's storm to be used.

U.S. Marines In N-E Korea Not Budging

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The Army reported today the U. S. Marines around the Changjin Reservoir in Northeast Korea are holding their line and are not in a hopeless position.

An Army spokesman told reporters at a Pentagon briefing that Chinese Communists, however, have established a number of road blocks behind the marines in that sector.

He said the marines are being pushed by parachute drops from the air, planes and have not yielded their positions.

"They're holding their own and apparently are not suffering too heavily," the spokesman concluded. "They are certainly inflicting heavy casualties."

Field dispatches had reported that the U. S. soldiers and marines in the reservoir area had been cut off and isolated by huge forces of Reds. These reports said the marines on the northwest side and on the south side were cut off from each other by the Communists.

UN Approval Not Needed, President States; Three-Step Plan Outlined

WASHINGTON, (AP) — President Truman said today use of the atomic bomb in Korea has always been under consideration—and whether it is used is up to American military leaders in the field. He personally hopes, he added, that it will not have to be employed.

Mr. Truman told an overflow news conference that the bomb could be used without United Nations approval. He said it is one of America's many military weapons and that the country is free to use its weapons.

However, he said the atomic

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The White House said today President Truman's news conference remarks about the atom bomb did not mean that Gen. Douglas MacArthur himself can order the use of an atomic bomb.

The White House said that under the law the atomic bomb is in custody of the Atomic Energy Commission, and only President Truman himself can order the use of an atomic bomb.

Even Greater Arms Program Looms; Talk Points Up Soviet Threat

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson's declaration that Communism is a "preparation for the world's" administration drive to speed an even greater arms program than the U. S. and Western Europe.

Officials said today that will be the government's initial response to the new global crisis created by Communist intervention in the Korean conflict.

The gravity of that crisis was pointed out by Acheson's warning to the nation and the world last night that no one can guarantee that war will not come. Secretary of State Acheson declared that Communism is a "preparation for the world's" administration drive to speed an even greater arms program than the U. S. and Western Europe.
