Official Greeter

Ruthmore Houghton, recently elected president of the Mamaroneck Realty Board, will perform his first official act tomorrow afternoon as greeter for the 1938 annual meeting of the Westchester County Realty Board at the Oransea Beach Club.

The meeting will consist of a business session late in the afternoon, followed by a dinner. Mr. Houghton posed the question, "shall this be the last generation of the American Republic?"

The speaker indicated that the Communists hope for world domination through the use of force.

He told the Forum it was time for courageous voices against Red leadership of unions. He advised that the Communist movement, claiming to set up a proletarian dictatorship, is the banner of progress of labor, would mean the utmost enslavement of the working class.

He said that there are 15 to 20 million men being herded into camps in Russia. "We know," he said, "the location and approximate population of the 15 principal concentration camps there."

Mr. Biensius criticized the donation of $50 million Chinese to the Communists. He was critical of the opening of certain war materials for Russia.

He has been Communist policy to have aliens in charge of parties in various countries. Mr. Biensius said. He explained this policy is pursued so that the party leader would have no roots or ties in the country in which he was working. Party workers are supported by medical attention, Mr. Biensius said.

Because of libel laws it is difficult to expose fully the American saving in party branches. Mr. Biensius said. "Is it not true for Americans to ask those who are Communist front line what right they have to do this?" the speaker asked.

Mr. Biensius named many persons, some prominent, as signers of such lists. He also expressed his opinion.

Victim's Death Laid to Battle Outside Tavern

Blamed For Fatal Injuries

A fight outside a Larchmont tavern Sept. 1 today was blamed for a death due to a blood clot caused by a broken neck.

Thomas D. Foley, forty, of 83 Overlook Drive, Valhalla, died in White Plains hospital. He had been undergoing treatment there for an embolism since Sept. 1.

Dr. R. H. Spaul, medical Examiner, said D. M. Spaul ruled the death a homicide resulting from a fight at 12:30 a. m. Sept. 1 with Marie St. Harold E. Grant of 903 Old Post Road, Mamaroneck, slain at the New Rochelle Army.

The fight started in front of Gardner's Tavern, Larchmont, when Mrs. Foley entered. She was with her husband, the police reported.

She greeted the man behind the bar as "Daddy," the officers said.

St. Gram told police he started to drive away, but stopped when Mrs. Foley realized she was in the wrong car.

By that time Mr. Foley arrived and pointed out the car. The police were told, The M. A. C. of anti-unionists who broke his ankle against a curbstone. None of the persons involved in the fight were arrested.

Admitted that morning to White Plains Hospital, Mr. Foley underwent treatment until Sept. 19, when he died.

Larchmont Notable Replies To Budenz Charge In White Plains Talk

Continued American appeasement of Russia is a greater evil than the atom bomb, Louis F. Budenz, proponent of labor relations, said in a speech at the Larchmont Community Center last night.

He said the Communist policy to have aliens in charge of parties in various countries. Mr. Biensius said. He explained this policy is pursued so that the party leader would have no roots or ties in the country in which he was working.

Combing The Town

Quick Solution

When Town of Mamaroneck Police Detective Joseph Paonessa goes fishing the fish probably jump into the boat.

After two "theft" cases solved themselves last week when the complainants found the missing articles in their own houses, sleuth Paonessa turned up another "culprit" last evening almost without raising a hand.

At that, he only had the hand raised part way to knock on the door of Fred Kaufman, superintendent of Larchmont Oak Haven Apartments when Mr. Kaufman opened the door. "To see what all the talking was about."

The detective had been standing outside the door talking with Mr. Henry Linden of Apartment 5B who was complaining that someone had entered his apartment that evening, broke a window, left all the lights on, knocked over a bowl of fruit, broke a plant pot and left, leaving the door open.

To the detective's and Mr. Linden's surprise, the superintendent "confessed" that he had been the housebreaker. He told the detective he had come down from the roof via the fire escape to enter a fourth floor tenant who had broken his door. "I was 'undershot' and instead broke and entered the fifth floor window of Mr. Linden's apartment upsetting the bowls in the darkness.

Soldier of the Week

Private August Citrone of Mamaroneck, now stationed at Fort Eustis, Va., was named "Soldier of the Week" recently and received a four-day transportation-paid leave home last weekend.

In the Army for one year, Private Citrone was graduated from Pelham High School. He is the son of Marco Citrone of 1110 Franklin Avenue, Mamaroneck.

The citation, announcing the award, reads as follows: "I wish to inform you that you have been chosen soldier of the week and express my personal appreciation of your ability as a soldier."

Your initiative, cooperativeness, cheerfulness and willingness to work and do a good job reflect great credit upon yourself and leave in the minds of those who have observed your work a strong feeling of satisfaction and admiration."

The letter was signed by Capt. William F. Ludman.

To Be Honored

Mrs. Edward P. Helwig of 1 Seton Road, Larchmont, will be honored as guest on the CBS television show "Lucky Pup" tomorrow at 8:30 P. M. Mrs. Helwig is the national leadership member, given annually for outstanding conduct of Camp Fire Girl troops. Announcement of Mrs. Helwig's selection as one of ten Camp Fire volunteer leaders in the United States to be awarded the honor was made last week. The broadcast upon which Mrs. Helwig will be seen is geared to youthful listeners and features a puppet show and a five-minute interview with someone closely connected with youth work.

Mrs. Helwig, a former Camp Fire Girl has been in charge of the Minnieka Camp Fire group in Larchmont for several years. She is the only recipient of the title of Mrs. Helwig's national honor living in the New York metropolitan area.

Wins Commendation

Apprentice Seaman Albert Greer was publicly commended before his ship's company last week for "demonstrated ability and devotion to duty" in successfully repairing the evaporator of the ship, the USS Hanson, while working on free time, according to a letter received here by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Greer of 128 Elm Street, Mamaroneck.

The letter, signed by the ship's captain, J. C. Guillot, describes Seaman Greer's "arduous work" claiming that the Hanson would otherwise have been delayed in sailing on assigned duty.

A graduate of Mamaroneck High School, Greer enlisted in the Navy last September. He received his boat training at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill., and is now stationed in Plymouth, England.

Embryo Majorettes

There should be quite a crop of drum majorettes within the next few years of the marching band, according to reports from last night's Larchmont Fire Department parade served as an indication. Chief of attraction for about 20 girls, ranging in age from seven to about thirteen, was the post-bronze who twirled the batons for the Larchmont Post 341. American Legion band. They followed her troops along the sidewalks of the parade, waving their eyes riveted enviously on their idol.

Surprise!

A Larchmont resident (name unavail) is being retained today at 9 P. M. on the Ralph Edwards, "This Is Your Life" program. It was announced today by the National Broadcasting Company, over whose network the radio program is carried, that the broadcast will be a surprise to the Larchmont as well as to his radio audience.

Britain, France and Italy Agree On Removal to Aid All In Marshall Plan

ST. PAUL, Minn., (AP)—Paul C. Hoffman reported today that Great Britain, France and Italy have agreed to a sweeping removal of trade barriers between themselves and other Marshall Plan nations.

The Economic Cooperation Administration said the three countries have lifted import restrictions on as much as 35 per cent of their total purchases from 13 European countries participating in the European Recovery Program.

"This is a practical move toward creating within Western Europe the same sort of free intercourse that has proved so fruitful among the 48 states in our own country," the foreign aid official asserted.

Hoffman's statements were made in a speech prepared for Hoffman and other Marshall Plan nations.

RUDDOLPH LEPPERT SUCCEEDS AT 76

Local Resident Was Retired Cartoonist, Painter, Illustrator

Rudolph E. Leppert of 116 Warner Avenue, Mamaroneck, retired cartoonist, illustrator and poet, who was art director of The Literary Digest until his retirement in 1937, died yesterday at United Hospital, Port Chester, after an illness of three weeks. He was seventy-six years old and had lived in Mamaroneck since 1926.

Born in New York City, the son of the late Caroline Klipp and Rudolph E. Leppert, he was educated at the Real Estate League and the Academy of Design. He worked first as a member of the art staff of the New York Herald from 1917 to 1920 and then spent four years as art editor of the Amoskeag, Mont. Standard, returning East in 1924 to be employed with the Brooklyn Eagle.

After a few months, he joined the staff of The Literary Digest. An illustrator of many reference books, including the New Standard Dictionary, Mr. Leppert, who was also the author of "The Auto Guide," published in 1926, painted the portraits of several Presidents of the United States. He was a member of the Elks Club and St. Thomas Church, Mamaroneck.

Mr. Leppert was the widow of Adelaide T. Wilson whom he married in 1900 and the uncle of movie star, Alice Faye.

He was a brother of Mrs. Robert G. Seaside, a daughter, Mrs. Walter Korman of the home address, a brother, Philip of New York City and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 P. M. at the Sibley and Keen Funeral Home, 767 East Boston Post Road, with the Rev. Arnold A. Fenton officiating. Interment will follow at Ferncliff, Ardsley.

Mr. Leppert, in thanking his fellow members of the Real Estate Board at a dinner at the Larchmont Yacht Club in recognition of his recent election to the post of president of the New York State Association of Real Estate Boards.

Delivering speeches of congratulations to Mr. McGrath on his attainment of the highest honor available to a distributor of his profession in the State were Percy Bilas, president of the Larchmont Realty Board, who presided, Walter Burbank and Thomas P. Sutton.

Combing The Town

Accepts Partnership

Russell G. Pelton of 514 Linden Street, Mamaroneck recently accepted a partnership in the firm of Deby and Deby, attorneys and counsellors-at-law, specializing in patents, trademarks and copyrights with offices in the Chrysler Building, New York City.

A resident of Mamaroneck for four years, Mr. Pelton has been in 1945 after five years service with the legal division of the U. S. Signal Corps in Washington, D. C.

Troubles Galore

It would have been had enough for motorist Frederick H. Yocum of 4 Oak Avenue, who was in his car had simply collided with the open door of the car ahead on Murray Avenue last night. Yesterday, but it just couldn't be that simple. The accused driver was put out of the car by the Mamaroneck Police, out of his car was arrested as charged Sgt. Francis Waterbury.

Must Get Monotonous

"You can say that again," was Larchmont's reaction to the speaker Herbert L. Baum, executive campaign chairman of the Community Chest, who addressed volunteer workers gathered to receive final instructions for the coming drive.

Big Wind

Where the wind stops, nobody knows, although the recent Florida hurricane had some interesting local repercussions in this morning.

McLain at Meeting

Joseph C. McLain, principal of Mamaroneck Senior High School, left today for Washington, D. C., where he will attend a meeting of the executive committee of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Inspection Planned

The Mamaroneck Board of Education will take an inspection tour Saturday, of the territory of Union Free School District No. 1. The tour will start at 9 A. M. at the Senior High School.

Want Some Trees?

If you're in the market for a forest, a golden opportunity presented itself today when the Larchmont woman advertised in the Daily Times want ad section and offers to give away 16 trees.

Company Honors Pagler For Tire Sales Record

One of several tire salesmen honored at a dinner last night at the Park Sheridan Hotel, New York City, by the tire manufacturer company was Joseph Pagler, manager of the Sound Tire and Supply Company, Mamaroneck Avenue, Mamaroneck.

LOOKING FOR A CAR?

Then look where you'll get the greatest selection... in the West End section, a majority of local used car dealers list their best buys daily under "Used Cars and Trucks". Lots of private owners list the public know their cars are for sale by advertising them, so you can get "special" when you're looking for a good used car. Make sure you see the Used Car listings every day and every night before you buy.

Dodgers Win 2nd Game, 1-0, Even Series On Roe's Pitching

by JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Staff
YANKEE STADIUM — The 1949 World Series moves into Brooklyn tomorrow with the Dodgers and New York Yankees all even at one game apiece. The series second game was a repetition of yesterday's mound duel, but it was the Dodgers' buzzer who rained the one-run shut out victory today.

1st Inning Dodgers

Roe sent his ace, Roy Campanella, to Lindell in medium left field. Jorgensen grounded to Herndon who beat him to the bag for an unassisted putout. Snider hit no runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

2nd Inning Yankees

Rizzuto ruffed a solid single into left field. Herndon, who yesterday pitched for the Yankees, was treated a tremendous ovation as he stepped into the batter's box. He sent Hermanski racing to the right field corner to get his looping fly. Robinson threw. Snider's foul pop, DiMaggio flied deep to Snider in left-center field for a double with both Lin-

Combing The Town

A Free Night?

Is there anything Friday night?

It was an innocent enough question for Mamaroneck Trustee John Withers to ask, but it was followed by a long and heated discussion of the village board.

Since Sept. 1, the board has not only met on alternate Mondays for special meetings, but has had to hold five Friday nights as well. This was after a summer that saw the board in session at least twice a month when most other governmental units engaged with only one meeting a month.

Fortunately for Trustee Withers and the board, last night no thing had as yet come up which would warrant a Friday meeting. But the village officials will have a rough week anyway. Tonight they expect the Mamaroneck Fire Department and march in a parade tomorrow evening. They will parade in observance of Columbus Day. And Mayor B. J. Sartore, in addition to the commitments incumbent on the rest of the board, will have a speech at 2:30 P. M. tomorrow at the Harrison Avenue School where a plaque honoring Columbus Columbus will be unveiled.

REGISTRATION UP HERE FIRST DAY BY 226 OVER '47

652 Quality To Vote In Hotly Contested Election; Rye Neck Gains

A hotly contested race in the Town of Mamaroneck produced results yesterday in its 10 personal registration districts as 652 voters signed the books on the first day of registration.

The total was 226 above the first day figure in 1947, a comparable year, when 226 persons registered.

The ten personal registration places in the Town of Mamaroneck and the four in Rye Neck were open from 9 to 10:30 P. M. Personal registration will continue from today until Friday at the county courts and Saturday from 7 A. M. to 10:30 P. M.

Non-personal registration in the unincorporated area of the town from year to year as long as they vote in each general election will be held Oct. 15, 1949, at 10:30 A. M. The first day of non-personal registration was Saturday.

Registration in Rye Neck also ran ahead of 1947 with 242 first day registrations, a total of 1,012 or 126 less than 1947.

In both the Town of Rye and the Town of Mamaroneck, the council seats and the supervisor's post are contested. Five of seven county offices will be elected, and voters will decide the Senate race between John Foster Dulles and Herbert Lehman.

The registration by districts was as follows:

The Town of Mamaroneck: District 1, 25; District 2, 45; District 3, 45; District 4, 35; District 5, 35; District 6, 35; District 7, 35; District 8, 35; District 9, 35; District 10, 35.

The Town of Rye: District 1, 40; District 2, 40; District 3, 40; District 4, 40; District 5, 40; District 6, 40; District 7, 40; District 8, 40; District 9, 40; District 10, 40.

Secret Russian Missie Named Against B-36's

Plane Obsolete

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A Navy warplane expert told Congress today that Russia has guided missiles that could be used against B-36 bombers about 49,000 feet.

Capt. J. H. Sides said German rocket secret files in Russian hands after the war, and that it would now be "tolly" to enable U. S. bombers to attack the atom bomb and the big bombers alone.

"Had the war lasted a year longer," Sides said, "it is probable that we would no longer have been able to fly over Germany without prohibitive losses from German anti-aircraft rockets."

These new anti-aircraft developments designed to search out and destroy bombers traveling 40,000 to 50,000 feet, he said, are "a real threat to our B-36's."

Sides is Deputy Assistant Chief of Staff for Air Operations. He testified before the House Armed Services Committee hearing naval charges that defense on "obsolete" B-36 has a quality of "obsolescence."

Calls for Trust

Persons are appropriately incensed for persons who use them to relitigate blown fuses, Frank H. Potter, of the Adco Insurance Group told the Mamaroneck Lions Club yesterday in talking about fire prevention.

If you will look at the penny closets, he said, you will see that it says, "In God We Trust." And he added, if you see pennies in fuses, one of the surest ways to prepare for a healthy electrical fire, you certainly need to have faith in somebody.

Mr. Potter illustrated the seriousness of the "penny" problem by saying that firemen in his home town, Hartford, Conn., claim they can collect enough money for a good lunch by opening fuse boxes and changing pennies during a tour of apartment houses.

Front Page

Miniature replicas of important front pages will be distributed Friday evening at the opening of the Larchmont Forum for Public Opinion by the New York Times. Those diplomatic correspondents, James Reston, who have returned from abroad, will be one of the speakers.

T. James Ahern will be moderator for the program, entitled, "Report from Europe—Survival or Extinction?" Starting the program with Mr. Reston will be Sidney Knight of Larchmont. Mr. Knight shall find a consultant. The Forum starts at 8:30 P. M. at the Chateaufort Avenue School. Frank A. O'Connell, Jr., will preside as chairman.

Put on the Back

Mamaroneck police received a solid pat on the back yesterday from Walter P. Carroll, investigator-in-charge of the Alcohol Traffic Unit of the U. S. A. He addressed the membership of Mamaroneck Post 80, American Legion, on the current deactivation-of-licenses campaign being conducted locally by his unit.

Mr. Carroll, who worked with the Mamaroneck Police Department during a similar campaign in 1944, said he never had such "excellent" cooperation from the community on the East coast as he had had from the local force three years ago.

Meeting Postponed

The Rye Neck School Board last night voted to postpone its November meeting from the 15th to the 16th because of election day.

It was one way to insure a full board for the November meeting because one trustee will have a few other things on his mind election night. Trustee William C. Pitts, Jr., Democratic candidate for county executive, will probably spend election night waiting for election returns at county campaign headquarters.

Day at the Beach

Four Mamaroneck village officials toured Metropolitan beaches yesterday as they attended the final session of a three-day meeting of the American Recreation Builders Association convention at New York City.

They were Mayor B. J. Santoro, Village Manager William H. Johnson, and Trustees James Jackson and Ralph Mann.

Board Regrets

Garden City really planned an outing for visiting officials who toured the community yesterday. In a letter inviting members of the Mamaroneck Village Board, none of whom could attend, Garden City promised to divide the Garden City finances its municipal parking lot and exhibit its sewage treatment plant.

MILK INDEPENDENTS TO MEET PRICE CUT

Independent milk suppliers in Westchester will meet the price cuts announced Monday by the Sheffield Farms Company and the Borden Farms Products Division, but are protesting that the reductions are unwarranted. Fear is being expressed by some that the lower price will quickly put them out of business.

State Agriculture Commissioner C. Chester Diamond said at Albany he is to meet today with "a few" milk dealers who had requested a conference to discuss the price cuts.

Opinion among the dealers in Westchester is that the announced reductions are unwarranted. They contend that the new prices are lower than the actual cost of delivery. Most refused to make any comment on the situation, however.

$19,541 GOAL SET FOR MAMARONECK CHEST CAMPAIGN

Quota $2,816 Below 1948; Eight-Day Drive To Start Oct. 23

A $19,541 campaign goal, $2,816 below last year, was announced last night by George Garunke, president of the Mamaroneck Community Chest at a meeting of the Board of Directors in the Municipal Building. The 1948 budget was $22,357.

The 1949 campaign starting Oct. 23 and running through the 30th will replace the one-day drive of recent years, according to the plans outlined by Albert Volkmeyer, chairman of the drive, who said that heavy concentration will however, be placed on the first day's collection.

A 1949 slogan of "One Gift Gives Double Life" was adopted at the theme of the campaign, which will raise funds to help finance the work of nine beneficiary organizations.

The nine groups sharing in the campaign funds and the amounts allocated to them are: The United Jewish Appeal, $11,000; Boy Scouts, $2,500; Girl Scouts, $1,041; Camp Fire Girls, $400; Child Welfare League, $1,000; The Y, $1,000; The Salvation Army, $1,000; The Red Cross, $1,000; and The American Legion, $1,000.

Brokenshire, who has long handled the announcing for the "Theater Guild of the Air" series of radio broadcasts, also has today shows Monday through Friday from 11:30 to 1:30 P. M. and from 8:15 to 9:45 A. M. Personal shows featuring conversation and music that are entitled "Brokenshire Announces" and "Melody Time."

GRAND JURY REDUCES TAVERN ENTRY CHARGE

Henry T. Page, twenty-three, of 31, Hartwood, was charged with drawing himself a beer in a confined area of a tavern in Garden City. The charge was reduced to a petty larceny charge.

The Grand Jury in White Plains yesterday, after hearing evidence, reduced the original charge of burglary third degree, to the misdemeanor larceny charge, and dismissed one of the larceny charges of a blackback. Page was arrested in Anna's Rest on Boston Post Road by Patrolman Frank Nask at 2:45 A. M. Nask was making his rounds when he flashed his light into the tavern and saw Page behind the bar.

Square Dancing Educational? Trustee Brady Questions 'No'

Some impromptu philosophizing by Trustee Walter P. Brady highlighted last night's School Board meeting in the Mamaroneck High School, as the Board divided on the issue of whether or not square dancing should be included in the adult education program.

To Mrs. Edward P. Helwig's observation that the cost of instruction was too high, the State Mr. Brady retorted, "That's not."

If somebody's hard work has to produce the state dollars that finance the education of the children of somebody who is the taxpayer, Mr. Brady declared, "It's still somebody's hard work, and I don't see why the general taxpayers should have to foot the bill for a few adults who want to learn square dancing and ought to be paying for it themselves out of their own hard work."

Mr. Brady took a dim view, he said, of the present policy of the board that offers instruction in any subject, whether or not it is a minimum of 15 persons sign up. Referring to Superintendent J. J. Ahern, who is not under an education program, Mr. Brady wanted to know why there was not more emphasis on giving instruction to those isolated individuals who appeared for such subjects as Latin, Advanced Algebra, and Advanced English.

Here Mr. Brady was joined by Mrs. Helwig, who also questioned the policy of the board in offering instruction on the basis of class-size rather than subject matter.

He rather pay for five people to learn Latin than for 25 to complete a tour of company houses during the annual Fire

Superintendent, Principals Testify As To Club Affiliations

Taking the first step in its observation of the Rye Neck School Board yesterday in the patriotism of school personnel, the Rye Neck Board of Education last night asked the superintendent, three principals, the clerk and the attorney if they were members of the Communist Party, the overthrow of the United States Government or by any organization listed by the attorney general as subversive. They all replied that they did not.

The board approved a report of the Board of Pardon and Pardoners, recommending that the principals proceed with an examination of the teachers, nurses, librarians and clerical employees in their respective schools. The principals will report to the board in writing by Oct. 31 whether there is or is not a Communist Party member who has violated the statutory provisions referred to in the Rules of the Board of Pardon and Pardoners. Each teacher belongs to one of the organizations listed as subversive.

A letter to be sent to the principal will set forth the questions as to procedure. "By reason of your daily contact with the teachers in your school, or by those just appointed, you undoubtedly are able to correctly appraise their loyalty to our country."

Throng See Firemen March At Annual Night Inspection

More than 900 members of the Mamaroneck Fire Department swung along village streets last night in a parade that marked the annual inspection of their equipment and personnel by village officials.

The line of march, viewed by the firemen with their apparatus in tow covered on Mamaroneck Avenue between Palmer Avenue and Hartsdale Avenue shortly after 8 P. M. There they constituted and maneuvered into position the apparatus forming the rear of the parade.

At 8:15 P. M. the parade was completely formed and marched west along Mamaroneck Avenue. It then turned right into Van Rensselaer Street and proceeded to Jefferson Avenue extension, thence to Mamaroneck Road and to the Boston Post Road and St. Thomas's Parish House where parades disbanded for dinner.

Mamaroneck Group Observes Fire Prevention Week At Luncheon

The danger of fire from pennies back of fuses from flammable tubes of gasoline used in home cleaning, from clouds of dust and other man-made hazards in the home were graphically illustrated yesterday by Franklin Potter of the special risk department of the Adco Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., at the luncheon meeting of the Mamaroneck Lions Club in Greenburgh.

The conclusion of his demonstration, which ended with a "bang" when he set off a dust explosion in a confined area, Mr. Potter made a special plea for greater fire prevention in the home, office and factory, "not only during Fire Prevention Week but all 52 weeks of the year."

Chief of the department which began at 7 P. M. At the dinner following the parade, village managers Johnson and Mayor B. J. Santoro gave short addresses, and Mayor presented certificates to members of the department who have served the community for 20 years. Two vaudeville acts, a singer and a magician entertained at dinner.

With an elaborate piece of equipment he quickly vaporized two cubic centimeters of gasoline so that his audience could see the flames traveling down a chute-like structure to a small flame burning at the bottom. As soon as the fire was out, the apparatus was quickly reloaded and the demonstration was repeated.

Adm. Halsey Scoffs At Air Forces '36 As 'Siege Weapon'

Registration Figures Continue On Upswing

Registration figures for both the Mamaroneck and Rye Neck continued high yesterday in comparison with 1947 as the voters turned out to cast their ballots on the second day of registration.

In the Town of Mamaroneck registration for the two-year period totaled 1,170 compared with 819 during the corresponding period in 1947. Monday 553 went to the polls while yesterday 617 were processed.

Town of Rye figures, also above 1947 totals, rose to 1,765 after two days. In 1947 only 1,562 had been processed.

The ten personal registration places in the Town of Mamaroneck and the four in Rye Neck will be open today until Friday from 5 to 10:30 P. M. and Saturday from 7 A. M. to 10:30 P. M.

Non-personal registration in the unincorporated area of the Town of Mamaroneck where the names of voters are carried on the books from year to year as long as they continue to vote in each general election will be held Oct. 15 from 1 to 10 P. M. The first day of non-personal registration was Saturday.

Combing The Town

Too Many Suspects

The woman who had lost a mink had a problem. There were too many suspects.

Calling the Mamaroneck police to her home to make an investigation this week, she reported her mink valued at $1,000, had been stolen. She put it away in moth balls last winter and that was the last she saw of it.

In attempting to find suspects, the police realized that if any suspect might have picked it up, he would have answered the owner of the hat, but the doubt whether an investigation would get very far on that track.

Why?

It seems the servants had come and gone with the rapidity of comets striking fire. She couldn't remember the woman said, how many there were had since last winter, let alone their names and whereabouts. To illustrate this, she cited one woman who had had six different maids.

Chamber Warning

If a character who gives his name as Edward Joseph Smith knocks at your door, be suspicious about the importance of purchasing a subscription to the "Architectural Digest," call your Police Department.

This is the message the Mamaroneck Chamber of Commerce has placed in the community through its monthly newsletter, published this week.

Smith, who is reported to be working this area, has been selling bogus subscriptions since 1945, specializing in lapping up business firms and merchants. Police in a number of states are itching to get their hands on him.

Incidentally, the "Architectural Digest" doesn't exist.

Kiwanis Film

A film, "Starway to Heaven," is scheduled for a showing at the Mamaroneck Clubhouse Nov. 2 sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Mamaroneck to benefit its fund for boys' and girls' work.

Starting in the British-made film, which will be supplemented by a short, "The Olympics of 1948," is David News.

Among the youth activities sponsored by Kiwanis are an annual harbor baseball league, a water carnival at Harbor Island and a County swimming team. Last summer more than 300 boys and girls benefited from the three activities.

Unlucky Day

An unlucky one for Larchmont residents, according to the records in Larchmont Police Headquarters.

At 3:10 P. M. yesterday Mrs. Dorothy Altman of 1400 Hubbard road, Larchmont, reported the loss of a purse containing $17 and valuable papers.

At 9:22 P. M. Lester S. Greenwald reported the loss of a green wallet containing $75 and valuable papers, and at 11:30 P. M. Robert C. Larchmont reported the loss of a wallet containing keys, change, and valuable papers.

Moral Boost

A six-year-old Larchmont youngster gave the Larchmont Community Chest a large moral boost this week.

When a solicitor called at his house, he said his parents were not at home and then added, "Wait a minute."

The solicitor waited while he went upstairs to return promptly with his piggy bank. He extracted a 25-cent piece and proudly offered it. The solicitor just as proudly accepted it.

AFL Cash Aid Asked For SW

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—United Mine Workers President John L. Lewis today asked AFL President William Green to throw in $25,000 toward a new $100,000 fund to assist CIO President Philip Murray in his fight with the miners' union.

Lewis, in an amazing bid for labor union cooperation in the two major strikes now on, called upon Green to create a fund in which 10 AFL unions each would put up a quarter million dollars every week to help the steel workers win beyond peradventure.

Lewis said he would match the $25,000 every week from the treasury of the United Mine Workers.

Stop-Gap Financing Continued to Tuesday

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The House today agreed to continue stop-gap financing of the Armed Services until next Tuesday.

The bill, which would extend the stop-gap financing to run into Tuesday, Oct. 20, was passed by a vote of 307 to 109.

By a standing vote of 109 to 4, members slipped down the Senate's plan to stop the stop-gap financing on Oct. 15, 1950, and Fred S. Roth of 17 North Chatsworth Avenue, Larchmont,

For the fourth consecutive day the personal registration of voters in the Town of Mamaroneck continued to rise far above the registration in 1947, a comparable year, as 797 signed the books to make the four-day total in the 10 personal registration election districts 2,538 as against 2,072 two years ago. In Rio Neck, the four personal registration places have experienced a four-day total of 885 as compared with 781 for the corresponding period in 1947.

Workers prepared for a hectic day tomorrow when the heavy turnout expected to continue during the registration hours of 7 A. M. to 8:30 P. M. as voters must themselves eligible cast ballots in the November elections on the last day of the six-day registration period.

Non-personal registration will be open until 8:30 P. M. at the incorporated area of the Town of Mamaroneck where the names of voters are placed in the books from year to year provided they are in each general election. The books for non-personal registration will be open from 7 A. M. to 10:30 P. M. on Tuesday, Oct. 18, and on Wednesday, Oct. 19, for voters who are not registered for yesterday.

The Town of Mamaroneck is divided into 10 personal registration districts: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10. District 1, 11; District 2, 12; District 3, 13; District 4, 14; District 5, 15; District 6, 16; District 7, 17; District 8, 18; District 9, 19; District 10, 20.

11 Top Communists Convicted; Lawyers Guilty of Contempt

Five Defense Attorneys Jailed Following 9-Month Trial

By Joe Murphy and Ed Creach Associated Press Staff

NEW YORK—A Federal jury convicted 11 top-ranking American Communist leaders today of conspiring to teach government of the United States overthrow by force.

Immediately afterward, Federal Judge Harold R. Medina found five of their lawyers guilty of criminal contempt during the 11-month trial and sent them to jail for terms varying from 30 days to six months.

Edward Dennis, a defendant who acted as his own lawyer also drew a six-month contempt sentence.

The 11 defendants, all members of the Communist Party, were sentenced yesterday afternoon, a stiffer sentence than that meted out in similar cases in the past.

It was hinted during the trial that conviction of the leaders, who are certain to appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court, might draw the Communist Party underground into the open.

Civil Referees Urged In Defense Plan Row

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Two key Congressmen proposed today that President Truman name a civilian board to referee the fight over the defense plan row.

The House Armed Services Committee, which is studying the plan, urged that the fighting power of the fleet be weakened, while the Air Force sets funds and favors and builds ships to carry out the kind of warfare that the admirals said would win.

Their suggestion closely paralleled one already offered Mr. Truman by the Army-Navy staff.

Temple Will Discuss Building Ban Tonight

Hundreds of Larchmont Jewish worshippers will meet tonight after services at St. John's Episcopal Church to discuss the building ban for services because its walls are not of fireproof construction.

The meeting was called by Larchmont Temple President Arthur Richard and will be held at 7:30 P. M. at St. John's Episcopal Church, 75 Larchmont Avenue. Village Engineer Arthur Richards has ruled that plans submitted Aug. 21 for the building's rehabilitation do not conform to the village building code.

USCG Will List Private Craft For Conversion To Security Use

Acting on orders from Coast Guard Headquarters, the Mamaroneck Flotilla of the U. S. Coast Guard will list private boats, motor launches, and pleasure craft to be used for conversion to security use.

Mr. Kaufman urged all craft owners to attend a meeting following the services.

"We are anxious," Mr. Kaufman wrote to the congregation, "to have your boats listed in the obviously unwarranted edition of the Village Board."

Riot Simmers Down To Two Court Cases

Last Friday night's post-football game riot in the Larchmont Spas involved 300 students and brought out the entire Larchmont Police and Fire Departments.

Police and Fire Departments seemed to have stemmed down to a couple of traffic violations last night, a "hot rod" driver, Thomas A. Smith of 105 Chatsworth Avenue, Larchmont, paid fines of $15 and $10, respectively, for operating his car on a "hot rod" and for improper muffler and exhaust.

Summer Recreation Wading Pools Urged

Noon Alarm

It finally happened! Residents who have wondered for years what would happen if a fire should occur at the noon whistle blows on Saturday were provided with the answer last week.

At noon Saturday, the regular weekly signal sounded. One minute later, while the whistle was still blowing, a telephone call reporting a fire at the home of N. McFarland, 731 Old White Plains road, Mamaroneck, reached police headquarters. The fire whistle continued to blow, signaling the fire this time, and men with apparatus, despite the apparently confusing situation, arrived at the scene a few minutes later to do a blaring pot of grease.

What might have been confusing to the average citizen didn't face the firemen who know that the siren which warns of a fire is not set off for the Saturday signal.

No damage resulted from the fire.

Glad to Pay

The driver didn't have much choice.

Chased to the Rye line by Patrolman Anthony Gianola at 11 o'clock last night, Victor Biberstine of Bluffton, Ind., happily forked over $6.88, the cost of damages to a village lamp pole. The pole had been hit by a heavy-duty slaken loose at Jensen Avenue by the motion of the truck as it roared east along the Rye line.

Gianola, who witnessed the accident, picked up the tire and set it off in a patrol car toward Rye. He stopped the truck and tactfully presented a proposition—damages for the tire. The driver quickly paid damages, a pittance compared to the cost of the heavy-duty truck tire he didn't even know he had lost.

All for 30 Cents

The thief went to a lot of trouble to get into the home of Fred Davis of 1514 Pine Knoll Lane, Mamaroneck, away for the weekend with his family, but failed to satisfy himself with 30 cents pilfered from a piggy bank.

Mr. Davis informed Mamaroneck police of the break when he arrived home at 7:30 P. M. last night. Upon investigation it was found that entry had been made through the upper half of an unlocked kitchen window. Nothing but the money in the piggy bank had been taken, Mr. Davis reported.

New Chest Captain

Family ties proved handfast last week to Mrs. Adeline Snopcey of 123 Waverly Avenue, Mamaroneck, who faced in an emergency with the captaincy of two Mamaroneck Chest districts, including her brother, Alfred Moraco, to handle one.

Mr. Snopcey will captain district Two while Mr. Moraco will be the captain for district one during the drive Oct. 23 to 29. A vacancy in the district arose upon the resignation of Frank Hieno.

Round-Up

Mamaroneck police headquarters looked like the alcoholic ward at Bellevue Saturday night as a procession of drunks were rounded up during the round-up the evening, jailed for a time and timely, except one, released on bail.

The arrest of the five inebriated resulted from an intensified campaign to clean Central Park until Saturday a local whisky lover's haven.

Town Tops 1947 Figure By Nearly 2,000; Rye Neck Up

One of the heaviest off-year lulls in Town of Mamaroneck history resulted from the six-day registration period which ended Saturday as a total of 2,645 registered voters, the all time record for the town since 1925.

Two persons were injured and two cars badly smashed in an accident on the Post Road between Dillon Road and Dean Place in Larchmont at 3:55 A. M. yesterday.

William Koop of 5 Anderson Street, New Rochelle, a passenger in a south-bound car, driven by Melinda P. Conover of 1385 Boston Post Road, Rye, suffered several lacerations of the face and abrasions of the left knee when a car driven by Russell Mechaley of 61 Grosvenor street, approached from the opposite direction on the wrong side of the Post Road and collided with the Conover car.

Mr. Mechaley, who told police he fell asleep at the wheel, suffered a slight cut on the scalp and left temple in the collision, which totally demolished the front sections of both vehicles, smashed the right front wheel, left rear door, and left rear fender of the Mechaley car, and shattered the right front windshield of the Conover car.

A passing motorist, John G. Magee of 178 Webster Road, Scarborough, drove Mechaley and Koop to New Rochelle Hospital under the escort of Town Police Sgt. Eugene De Vito, who arrived on the scene shortly after the accident. Magee's car, both men were treated and released.

Emergency Luncheon

The courtroom in the Larchmont Municipal Building became a restaurant for the members of the Larchmont Temple, awaiting the result of deliberations by the village board which found that the board underestimated the length of the meeting.

While the Board met in an adjacent room behind closed doors, the 20 members of the congregation assembled in the court room grew hungrier and hungrier. Finally gave up at midnight and sent a delegation out for coffee, cakes and doughnuts. The Board, which went into executive session to discuss the issue at 9:30 P.M., didn't draft a reply until 12:30 A.M.

Quick Action

Think that by John Mackey of 64 Chestnut Avenue, Larchmont, yesterday kept him from going to work when a blaze broke out among some oily rags heaped in his cellar at 4:15 P.M.

While his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mabel L. Horton, phoned for the Larchmont Fire department, Mackey smothered the heap of burning rags with a blanket which effectively checked the flames until the fire trucks arrived.

Firemen this morning estimated that about $150 worth of fire damage had been done before the blaze was totally extinguished at 5 P.M. by water from a fire hydrant.

Just a Crack

"We are not meeting behind closed doors," said Larchmont Village Attorney William Keery, last night as he closed the doors of the Board room in the faces of some 60 excited citizens who thronged the adjacent courtroom after the public hearing on the Larchmont Temple had been concluded.

The attorney explained that unless the doors were closed to shut out the noise of the crowd there could be any more of a session. However, in view of the delicacy of the subject of "closed doors" at such a time, the attorney finally compromised by leaving the door open "just a crack."

Keery Transferred

Pvt. William Keery, son of Mrs. Mary Keery of 225 Mamaroneck Avenue, Mamaroneck, was transferred recently to a Marine base in France.

Pvt. Keery enlisted in the Marines last May after nine months of civilian life following his original two-year hitch ended in September, 1943.

He left Mamaroneck High School to join the Marines in September, 1940, when he was sixteen years old.

Pvt. Keery was transferred to the French base following a five-month hitch at Camp Leitch, N. C.

Assessor Named

Frank Barbes, Larchmont assessor, has been named to a special committee on construction costs by the National Association of Assessing Officers, the Larchmont Village Board was informed last night by Thomas Archer, president of the association.

Mayor Walter R. C. Wagner, speaking for the board, congratulated Mr. Barbes on the appointment. The committee has been set up for study purposes.

Open for Inspection

If Town of Mamaroneck residents want to know how the village is doing, they can check at Town Police headquarters on Weaver Street where registration books will be open for inspection until election day.

The books were taken to the station by Town Clerk Charles Orsinger, Republican incumbent and endorser of the Democrats and Independents.

SYNINGTON BLAST HITS NAVY TALES AS AILING ENEMY

Air Secretary Says New Anonymous Document Is Being Spread

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Air Secretary Symington, hitting back at Navy critics of the Air Force, accused them today of peddling old, "false" tales and of letting possible enemies know "how this country would be defended."

Symington hinted, too, that the Navy's circulating a second anonymous document. He said it is in circulation that attempted to "rid the Air Force of its name" and is "far more dangerous than the first."

Symington was before the House Armed Services Committee last night by the Larchmont Village Board at a meeting in the Municipal Building. He replaces Robert Goffe Jr., who has served two years.

Lawrence sonora was appointed chairman of the Larchmont Zoning board of Appeals last night by the Larchmont Village Board at a meeting in the Municipal Building. He replaces Robert Goffe Jr., who has served two years.

Substantial reduction in taxes and bonded indebtedness was stressed as the record on which the Republican party will base its town campaign as more than 200 party workers, leaders and candidates last night attended a "get-together" dinner in the Winged Foot Golf Club.

Supervisor Owen A. Maideville, who heads the Republican town ticket, pointed to the harmonious manner in which municipal business has been conducted during the last four years by the present Council. During this time, he said, there were 74 meetings, 17 resolutions passed and only eight not unanimously adopted.

"I cannot think of a single meeting," he declared, "where an unpleasant word was spoken. There was no shouting, no ranting or bickering. I promised when I took office that I would always go to Board meetings with an open mind and I have advised every member of the Council to do likewise. Never has there been seen a telephone call to any member of the Board suggesting the course of action on any measure. I can also tell you there has never been a citizen regardless of race, color or religion, who has not been given every courteous consideration by the Council."

The authorites said Miss Hunter, who said he was speaking only because of his desire to see the town of Mamaroneck continue the same high caliber administration it has enjoyed since 1943, declared that "today one dollar proposition and for no other reason we owe it to ourselves to try."

Succeeds Robert Goffe Jr. On Appointment by Larchmonters

Lawrence sonora was appointed chairman of the Larchmont Zoning board of Appeals last night by the Larchmont Village Board at a meeting in the Municipal Building. He replaces Robert Goffe Jr., who has served two years.

The new member is Herbert Davidson of 27 Hall Avenue, Larchmont. Other members of the Board responsible for three-year terms are James G. Atfield, Jr., Richard Carr, Charles S. Sheldon.

The Board received a request from the Engine Company No. 1 of the Larchmont Fire Department that the village authorize the purchase of a mechanically operated engine and truck.

WALLGREN NAMED TO SUCCEED OS

Will Get Federal Power Commission Job; Mead Also Nominated

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Senate Commerce Committee today approved unanimously President Truman's nomination of Henry C. Wallgren of Larchmont to the Federal Power Commission and James Mead for the Trade Commission.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Truman today named Wallgren as Governor Men C. Wallgren of Wisconsin to the Federal Power Commission.

The President, at the same time, nominated James M. Mead, former Democratic Senator from New York, to be a member of the Federal Trade Commission.

Wallgren was appointed to succeed Leland S. Olds whose nomination for a third term in the power commission was rejected by the Senate in 1947. Olds' re-nomination to the President. The term expires June 29, 1954.

Wallgren's nomination was approved by the House of Representatives on Oct. 11. He is the son of the postmaster of the National security Resources Board, which was established last March by the Senate Armed Services Committee in another act back for Mr. Truman.

The President two months later withdrew that nomination. However, Senators who opposed him for the Honorable Board said they would have no objection to his appointment to another post.

With the Senate action forwarded, there is some question whether it will not on either the Wallgren or Mead nominations before voting.

Senator Morris D. Pease, said and Democratic leader, said the Senate Commerce Committee could meet in the day to consider the nomination.

Senate Tables Noonan, Other Judges 'Til 1950

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Senate today put on the shelf until next year President Truman's nominations of 29 men and one woman as federal judges. Instead of the Federal District Court for the Southern District of New York, the Southern District of New York.

Although Senators said many of these are likely to get Senate approval in the next few days, in the next session of Congress, some may be laid up in lengthy controversies and others may be withdrawn.

There have been hints that the President may give up his nomination of Carroll O. Switzer to the Federal District Court for the Southern District of New York. Switzer, a lawyer from Chicago, Ill., has called the choice of Switzer an obstacle to his membership enrollment com-

LEADERS STRESS G.O.P. REDUCTION IN TAX AND DEBT

Mandeville Wins Acclaim For Efficient Regime At 'Get-Together'

Supervisor Owen A. Maideville, who heads the Republican town ticket, pointed to the harmonious manner in which municipal business has been conducted during the last four years by the present Council. During this time, he said, there were 74 meetings, 17 resolutions passed and only eight not unanimously adopted.

"I cannot think of a single meeting," he declared, "where an unpleasant word was spoken. There was no shouting, no ranting or bickering. I promised when I took office that I would always go to Board meetings with an open mind and I have advised every member of the Council to do likewise. Never has there been seen a telephone call to any member of the Board suggesting the course of action on any measure. I can also tell you there has never been a citizen regardless of race, color or religion, who has not been given every courteous consideration by the Council."

The authorites said Miss Hunter, who said he was speaking only because of his desire to see the town of Mamaroneck continue the same high caliber administration it has enjoyed since 1943, declared that "today one dollar proposition and for no other reason we owe it to ourselves to try."

PARIS, (AP)—A girl identified by French police as Miss Patricia Hunter, twenty-seven, from Port Chester, N. Y., planned to her death today from the second platform of the Eiffel Tower.

The police said the girl had destroyed all her papers before hurrying the 300 feet to the ground, but that identification was made from torn checks.

The authorites said Miss Hunter, a native of Port Chester, was staying in Paris with her sister. They said she had visited the Paris branch of the Quary Trust Co. of New York with a letter of introduction from Howard Parker, President of the Rye National Bank.

Police said an investigation is continuing.

Miss Hunter is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph F. Hunter of Grandview Avenue, Rye, whose husband died about 10 years ago.

Miss Hunter was a member of the class of 1944 at Sarah Lawrence College in Yonkers. She graduated from the Rye Country Day School in 1937.

Records at the college show that she was once married to Kip Solovkyed, address unknown.

The college said her last known address was Edgartown, Mass.

NEW STRIKE PEACE DIVIDES ARE SET

Ching Plans Final Effort In Both Coal, Steel Ties — Truman to Act

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Government labor officials decided today on a big, final fling at trying for voluntary settlements in the steel and coal strikes.

Cyrus S. Ching, Federal Mediation Service Chief, fails to his various moves he has planned for this week. He will turn the big strike problem over to President Truman as hopeless.

Ching is to be up Mr. Truman to decide if and when he wants to employ the emergency powers of the War Relocation Authority, including a strike-stopping court injunction, or military seizure under the selective service law.

In one step in his planned all-out drive to get strike settlements without more drastic government intervention, Ching is to meet in New York tomorrow with officials of the U. S. Steel Corp. Ching said he wants "to get a better idea" from U. S. Steel "of what the position of the company is with respect to the strike."

Military Cash Bills Get O.K.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Final Senate agreement to give the Air Force enough money for 38 combat groups took a $15,585,000 appropriation for the army, navy and other bills, the lawmakers authorized their deep drive to commit Russia by planning to spend over $17,000,000 for military defenses at home and across the seas.

Senate and House committees reached agreement late yesterday to pour these bills into the greatest peacetime military spending program this nation ever has undertaken in a single year.

Included in the total is $124,100,000 for nations loyal to the United States in the cold war against Russia, and $100,000,000 for Western Europe.

Also $157,611,700 is earmarked for military construction in Alaska and on the Pacific island of Okinawa.

Larchmont Trustees Vied To Plea For Use of Temple, Grant Temporary Permit

Board Asks Revision In Plans After Lengthy Meeting

The Larchmont Village Board today called the Larchmont Temple temporary use of its building at 75 Larchmont Avenue. Village Board Chairman Arthur Richards, who last week denied it on the grounds that plans for the building's rehabilitation did not include walls of fire-proof construction.

The Board's decision came after a public meeting and a three-and-a-half hour closed executive session. It occurred in every particular in requests made by Temple President Jerome Kaufman, who has more than 50 residents who packed the Board room and overflowed into the court chambers, outside during the open meeting.

Speaking to the board, in a letter presented to Mr. Kaufman at 12:50 A.M. today, proposed a meeting between Mr. Richardson, Henry Churchhill, consulting architect whose opinion of the matter the board sought last month. Harry Prince, Temple architect, and a member of the Larchmont Planning Commission to discuss "what further alterations might be necessary in the building at 75 Larchmont Avenue in order to bring it into conformity with the requirements of the Building Code of the Village of Larchmont."

Detail of the Temple's application, submitted originally by Mr. Kaufman and recommended by the board, came unexpectedly last Tuesday. Mr. Kaufman claimed last night that the Village Engineer, the Village Attorney and members of the Board had led the Temple's construction to believe the application would be approved.

More than 20 members of the Temple congregation, who yesterday waited on the long executive session to hear the result of the Board's deliberations behind closed doors. It was not until 12:50 A.M. that the Board opened the session and then only to Mr. Kaufman who entered the chambers.

Republican leaders and workers in last night heard party notables stress tax and debt reduction as issues in the town campaign at a "get-together" dinner in the Winged Foot Golf Club. LOMBINO TO HEAD CHAMBER DIVISION

Village Merchant Succeeds Strauch As Chairman Of Retail Unit

Albert Lombino, proprietor of the Department and Shoe Stores, was elected chairman of the Retail Division of the Mamaroneck Chamber of Commerce last night at a meeting of merchants at the Mamaroneck Playhouse. Mr. Lombino succeeded Carl Strauch who was elected vice president of the Chamber last month.

Mr. Lombino, who is also chairman of the 1949 Christmas Light Campaign, outlined in brief the plan for this year's decorations. He stated that it is proposed to erect street displays on both sides of Mamaroneck Avenue between Prospect and Palmer Avenues, within the next week to ten days.

The plan calls for alternating with decorations used last year with Christmas trees to achieve both a daytime and night-time display.

A request from the Mamaroneck Community Chest that merchants permit the Chest to stencil the word "FOR" on their store windows during the Chest Drive next week, was approved. The slogan "FOR 9" is an abbreviation of this year's great slogan — "I Give 9 a Lift." The Secretary was instructed to write all the members of the Retail Division asking them to cooperate with the Chest.

Looking forward to next year's position and Manufacturers Extension Council, Mr. Lombino encouraged and asking that "a complete and satisfactory list be given to the community and the members of the Larchmont Temple."

Mrs. Deane, in addition, offered the use of St. Augustine's Church for as long as was required to accommodate the Temple's Sunday School Rev. Mr. Coffin last week made the parish hall at St. John's available for Friday night services and a conversation meeting.

Temple Head Thanks Three Local Pastors

Jerome Kaufman, Larchmont Temple president, today publicly thanked Larchmont churches and their ministers for the support created when the Larchmont Village Board barred their use of recently acquired property in Larchmont.

Mr. Kaufman issued the statement as he received word in the Municipal Building last night that the Board had agreed to re-consideration of the application and granted the Temple a temporary permit to use its building.

The three Larchmont clergymen, the Rev. Francis J. H. Coffin of St. John's Episcopal Church, Monsignor Thomas J. Deegan of St. Augustine's Roman Catholic Church, and the Rev. Floyd E. McGuire of the Larchmont Evangelical Church all offered support and encouragement and asking that "a complete and satisfactory list be given to the community and the members of the Larchmont Temple."

Mrs. Deane, in addition, offered the use of St. Augustine's Church for as long as was required to accommodate the Temple's Sunday School Rev. Mr. Coffin last week made the parish hall at St. John's available for Friday night services and a conversation meeting.

Girl Brings Suit Against Physician

The suit of a Mamaroneck girl against a Longmeadow, N. J., physician over allegedly improper treatment of a fractured leg suffered in a fall from a horse, opened yesterday before Judge J. J. Conroy in the Municipal Court of the Village of Larchmont.

In the suit, Miss Jean Valentine, 18, of 100 Prospect Avenue, Mamaroneck, is seeking $25,000, and her father, Charles W. Valentine, $10,000, for expenses. They are represented by Daniel Dunger. The defendant, Dr. John Ashford, is represented by John A. Trexler.

The complaint charges that Miss Valentine was treated by Dr. Ashford after she fell from a horse on Aug. 29, 1947. It is alleged that as a result of the claimed improper treatment, she was permanently injured.

Meeting Place Shifted

The Directors of the Larchmont Branch of the Red Cross had changed the location of their Wednesday night meeting to the Larchmont Avenue Church. It was announced this morning.

The meeting had previously been scheduled for 8:15 P.M. in the Red Cross headquarters at 121 Larchmont Avenue.

BRITISH CARRIER SINKS COAL BOAT

21 of Vessel's Crew Lost In Crash In Gale In North Sea

REWERK, England, (AP)—The British aircraft carrier Albatross, carrying a real football team, collided in a gale in the North Sea today. The freighter sank swiftly and eight hours later only 21 of the 24 crewmen aboard were known to have survived.

Lifelines found the floating waves hunting survivors near the northeast coast of England.

The newly built 18,300-ton Albatross was manned by a civilian crew and was on its way to drydock for completion. The collision ramed a hole in the carrier and she was being taken water.

The Albatross had aboard three survivors from the freighter, the 2,025-ton Maystone, carrying coal to London. A spokesman for the owners of the Maystone, said the crew last week at sea had some hopes of picking up other survivors.

SEAMEN RESCUED AFTER ABANDONING BOAT

SEATTLE, (AP)—A Government vessel carried out the dramatic rescue of 17 seamen in the Pacific today after they abandoned their flaming ship in one step in its planned all-out drive to get strike settlements without more drastic government intervention.

Included in the total is $124,100,000 for nations loyal to the United States in the cold war against Russia, and $100,000,000 for Western Europe.

Combing The Town

Who Opens the Tires?

Just who was outdoing whom was the question raised Thursday by the disappearance of five tires from a truck parked in front of the Emerson Furniture Store on the Post Road in Larchmont. In one sense, the tires belonged to the sheriff, since the company is in receivership under the administration of the sheriff's office. In another sense, the tires belonged to the receiver, Kenneth Lewis of Wall Street, New York City. To a third sense, they could be claimed by a Mr. Caswell, operator of the temporarily bankrupt store, and last but not least, they could be claimed by the New Rochelle Tire Service Company, since they hadn't been paid for by the Town of Mamaroneck. Police found this morning that the tires "had been picked up" by Joseph Carbone of the tire service and replaced with the old ones on the advice of Counsel Morris Gohlb of New Rochelle.

New Shop On Way

In case shoppers along the south end of Chatterbox Avenue in Larchmont are wondering what all the fuss is about, the answer is about on the lot next to the Post Office, a new type "food-stand" self-service store is being operated by the Grand Union Company which will be opening on the same time in Pleasantville. Herman Knief, manager of the present Grand Union store at 130 Chatterbox Avenue, said this morning that the new store, featuring package goods on shelves freed from behind partitions, will replace a second Grand Union chain store currently being located on Larchmont Avenue.

En Route To Japan

Pfc. Dominic J. Ciraco of Mamaroneck had a busy day Monday when he left the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Salvatore Ciraco of 530 Payette Avenue, Mamaroneck, for the West Coast to embark for Japan, where he will do Air Force photography work.

Pfc. Ciraco left this week after a 30-day furlough following his graduation from the photography school at Fort Air Base, Colorado.

A graduate of Mamaroneck High School, where he was a member of the golf team, Pfc. Ciraco enlisted for three years' service last November.

Two-Way Delay

Mamaroneck and Larchmont residents who boarded the 4:27 P.M. yesterday from Mamaroneck to Grand Central were an hour and twenty minutes getting as far as 124th Street, where the passengers got out of 124th and took taxis to avoid further delay.

Nor was that all. Conductors got it coming and going when the 9:25 evening train back toward Grand Central didn't leave Grand Central till 10:10, and then didn't get to Mamaroneck till 11:25.

Harrassed conductors explained to passengers that the delays ranged from quiet resignation to near hysteria, that the delays were caused by a power outage in the central generators.

Completes Course
Corp. Paul M. Adler, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. George Adler of 56 Hillcrest Avenue, Larchmont, has completed the instructor's course in aerial - tower procedure at Scott Field, Ill. He was transferred to Bilco Field, Mass., where he will be an instructor in tower work.

Corp. Adler attended Mamaroneck High School and has been on active duty with the Air Force since his enlistment Nov. 9.

Unexpected Workout
Larchmont Police Officers Steven Heininger and James Greer got an unexpected workout at 1:30 A. M. today when several motorists came to headquarters and complained of a deep ditch across Chatterbox Avenue near the Post Office, that was without fasteners and constituted a serious hazard for drivers.

The two police officers got out shovels and filled the ditch, whose previous loose fill had settled during the night.

Barone Transferred
Pfc. Bruno R. Barone of 31 Mt. Pleasant Avenue, New Rochelle, was transferred to Mitchell Field from the Grenier Air Base, N. Y.

A former student at Mamaroneck High School, Pfc. Barone entered the service in January, 1947 and received 17 weeks of basic training at San Antonio, Texas.

Army Of Chest Workers Ready To Open Drive

Eight-Day Campaign To Raise $19,541 Starts Tomorrow

Several hundred champions will begin their annual village canvass tomorrow as a week-long drive to raise $19,541 gets underway.

The start of the campaign, which will last until Oct. 30, ends weeks of preparation for the community-wide solicitation. With the slogan, "Gift Ours a Chest for the Community," the Chest is enlisting the cooperation of Boy Scouts and other groups, has sought in the final pre-drive days to inform the public of the purposes of the campaign through such efforts as an extensive distribution of posters and the indoctrination of the solicitors.

This year's seven-day drive is marked departure from the procedure followed in the past when was the practice.

The intensive one-day campaign, Chest Director Albert Volenka, said, is being held in order to get the public's attention. "We are to fulfill our slogan," said Mr. Knief, describing the new store, which he says will sit down costs and price on the playing mass - production technique.

Community Chest Week Proclaimed

Mamaroneck Mayor B.J. Santoro today proclaimed the week beginning tomorrow and ending Oct. 30 as Community Chest Week and urged residents to support the local campaign.

Citing the Chest's slogan "Gift Ours a Chest for the Community," Mayor Santoro reminded the community of the Chest's purpose, which is to provide financial support for local youth organizations, the United Hospital, and charities.

"In asking that residents cooperate with the Chest workers, who are giving their time and efforts in this campaign and put the drive over the top," Mayor Santoro declared.

THIEVES RANSACK TWO HOMES HERE

Mann and Currie Residences Riffled In Shore Acres Area

This is the latest in a Saturday series of short intrusions on the Chest drive which starts tomorrow are painted on a store window by James Hurley of Troop 1 as Francis Hunter of

Two Mamaroneck homes were entered last yesterday afternoon, but thieves made off with only 54 cents and three Canadian quarters. A pocketbook was lifted from the home of Ralph Mann, 21 South Barry Avenue, at 5:05 P.M. and the home of L. M. Currie at 648 Shore Acres Drive, a few hundred feet away, was ransacked sometime between 4:30 and 5:30 P.M.

The pocketbook was taken as Mrs. Mann, who had left the front door ajar, went out into her backyard for 15 minutes. The pocketbook, containing four cents and personal papers, was missing when she returned.

Police questioned a boy said to have been near the house at the time, but he denied any knowledge of the pocketbook. A personal search revealed nothing.

Entry into the Currie residence where burglars were rife and bedding slashed was made by breaking a screen and a window at the rear of the house.

The Curries first reported nothing missing, but after a further search telephoned police to a half dollar and three Canadian quarters had been taken.

Eight New Haven Trains Are Delayed By Mishap

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—A New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad spokesman said "about eight" trains experienced delays up to an hour and a half last evening because of mishaps at the New York City and Mount Vernon.

A train bound for Grand Central Terminal was stalled near 138th Street in New York by motor trouble, and wire trouble was seen along the Post Road and New York City and Mount Vernon stations.

15-Year-Old Molested

A fifteen-year-old girl was molested on Taylor's Lane, Mamaroneck, at 4:30 P. M. yesterday by a "well-dressed" youth who leaped from his parked motorcar and seized her dress, leaving it at the station. The girl told police that she saw the motorcyclist speed away as she fled toward her home. Police could not locate the attacker, whose several photographs of the area said they had seen Taylor's Lane yesterday afternoon.

Dewey In County Ceremonies; Wants New Parkway Extension

Governor Thomas E. Dewey made it "Dedication Day in Westchester" yesterday as he swept through the county, laying cornerstones for $11 million State-subsidized rental housing projects in Mount Vernon and White Plains and cutting the traditional ribbon to open a new five-mile $12 million extension of the Saw Mill River Parkway from Chappaqua to Mount Kisco.

In between the ceremonies, the Governor found time to lunch with a party of 50 county officials and members of the Westchester Republican County Committee.

New Vice President

Election of Harmon K. Spoke of the Larchmont Acres Apartments as executive vice president of the Manufacturers Association of the City of Bridgeton, Conn. Inc. at the organization's executive Board meeting was announced yesterday by Walter P. Herold, association president.

Mr. Spoke has been serving as manager of the Manufacturers Association since his appointment last March.

Coming to the Bridgeport Association from the position of campaign manager of the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association in Washington, he has been inaugurated that association's national promotion and advertising campaign last winter. Mr. Spoke is remaining out 25 years in local and national business organization executive work, Mr. Herold said.

Mr. Spoke moved to Larchmont in 1945 with his wife and one daughter, Carmen, who is graduated from Mamaroneck High School in 1947 and is now in her junior year at Bryn Mawr College, while at Mamaroneck High. Miss Spoke was a member of the Spanish and Latin Clubs, and Theta Psi.

Short Order Cooks

The PTA of the Chatsworth Avenue School didn't have to worry when it ran out of hot dog rolls during the school's circus banter Saturday afternoon. The short order cooks who were at St. Thomas Boyle and Patrolman Sgt. Adams of the Larchmont Police Department who had innocently walked into the cafeteria for a cup of coffee were told that the decorated bicycle clock. They suddenly found themselves dispensing coffee, hot dogs and hot dogs by the hundred.

When the roll shortage developed the policemen looking for a police car and bought up every roll in the village, with the result, in the words of PTA Publicity Chairman Mrs. W. W. Brown, that not only the policemen but all the customers of the luncheon ended up hot dog happy.

Hunted?

Patrolman Raymond Borbo of the Town of Mamaroneck Police was told yesterday he was not so sure as he used to be about haunted houses being the bunk.

Yesterday at 4:15 P. M. he checked a closed house and was shocked by intruders when he saw a light shining in the living room. A search revealed that all windows and doors were locked and that therefore no one could be in the house.

At 9:10 P. M. Officer Borbo drove by again and noticed the light was off. He then checked all the neighbors to see if any of them had the key and he entered into the locked house to put out the light. None had.

But at 11:35 P. M. there was the light on again.

This time the officer called Sgt. Philip Milhiser and both went over the house together. They found nothing.

Not being occultists, the officers concluded there had been a short circuit somewhere, and let it go at that.

4 Accidents Mar Weekend Record

Two Hit and Run Vehicles Figure in Village Mishaps

Four accidents, involving eight vehicles, marred Mamaroneck's weekend record as the highest number of accidents for any weekend of the summer and Fall was registered.

None of the collisions resulted in injuries and damage was slight in all cases. Hit and run drivers figured in two of them.

The first, taken by William Russ, official convention photographer, was shown at 9:25 P. M. following the opening of the meeting and a short business session scheduled for 9:30 P. M.

Another film, "Air Power in Peace Power," is also on the program. It foreshadows the future of aviation with a review of flight from the Wright brothers to rocket.

Appearing in the film are Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker and a cast of Hollywood stars.

For more than 42 years, Mr. Moran has been counsel in New York City, serving for the duration of his administration.

Mr. Moran was a member of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York and a member of its Committee on Professional Ethics for several years. He was also a member of the New York County Bar Association and a former president of the Society of the Gesenese, and president of the Xavier Alumni Society and a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

For many years a member of the Larchmont Yacht Club, Mr. Moran served as its secretary for some time. He was a Larchmont resident for nearly half a century and was active in civic affairs.

Surviving are his widow, Abnet M. Moran and daughter, Mrs. Rudolph Jay Schaefer, of Larchmont.

Legionnaires to See Film of Convention

Illusion Wanted For Fire Parade

In addition to torch-light turns by a special contingent of Explorer Scouts marching in tonight's eighth annual parade of the Town of Mamaroneck Fire Department, it is hoped that torch and state lights will be turned on for the occasion by residents along the line of march.

George Dutton said this morning. The parade will start at 8 o'clock at the Weaver Street Fire House at 8 o'clock to the strains of the "Marseilles" and will proceed to the Weaver Street Fire House, Drive, through Maple Hill Drive to Emerson Road, thence into Murray Avenue and down to Station Plaza, where the marching will pass before the reviewing stand.

After the inspection and review, the parade will return by the Myrtle Boulevard to the Weaver Street Fire House, where the first visiting chiefs and their wives will be entertained at a dinner at the Weaver Street Fire House.

Musical and a talk by Mrs. Meredith Martin, head of the Sunday Association Bureau of the New York City, will highlight the affair.

First Day Chest Campaign Nets 3 P. C. Of Goal

$6,600 Collected As Drive Opens in Mamaroneck

Mamaroneck Chest workers who launched their eight-day drive yesterday to raise $199,544 turned in a total of $6,600 by nightfall or about 30 percent of the goal.

Albert Volleweider said today about 95 percent of the residents have been called on.

The officers are gratified with the first day's results. Mr. Volleweider pointed out, but added that the number of $1 gifts has them "a bit worried."

"I feel," he said this morning, "that if more one-dollar gifts realized than their number must be divided among nine beneficiaries. They would appreciate the possibility of giving more."

Of each dollar given, 50 cents goes to the United Hospital, 33 cents to youth services such as the Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts, and 17 cents to the Chest, and three cents to administrative costs.

If the total of one-dollar gifts continues, the chairman stated, "it may mean that we will be difficultly making our goal."

Plans are in progress for a Directors' meeting on Wednesday night at the Greenhewn Inn when the captains will be entertained prior to the half-way report period.

The collections in the business and industrial areas as well as the special gifts campaign are also being made this week in conjunction with the house-to-house solicitation.

ATTLEE SLASHES DEFENSE COSTS TO EASE CRISIS

Prime Minister Also Cuts Free Medical Service In Economy Move

LONDON, (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee slashed dollar spending and defense costs and cut down on free medical services today to ease Britain's economic crisis.

The British pound note, the House of Commons a program which will mean that some 200 million pounds (784 million dollars) will be saved over the next 12 months. The British pound note is worth $2.80. It was devalued from $4.00 on Sept. 18.

Attlee said 20 million pounds of the savings will be in armament forces expenses of the nation, which holds a key position in the West's Atlantic Pact defense plans.

The leader of the Labor Government announced he had slashed a fee on the hold and expensive public health service instituted by his party in July, 1948. From now on patients must pay a shilling (14 cents) for prescriptions. He told no prescriptions have been free. Britons now pay a small weekly social security tax, of which eight pence (about 2 cents) goes to the medical service. Other taxes pay for the remainder of the program.

The Prime Minister also lopped millions from government administration expenses and capital expenses for new buildings, hospitals, schools and public works.

This economy program is the first since the war.

FRATERNITY FLOGGINGS Stir Indignation Here

In the wake of public reprimands from a flogging given to a fraternal initiation in a Larchmont home last week, a notified statement by the physician who examined one of the youths and the decision of the Larchmont Rotary Club to investigate the fraternity system was made public this weekend.

NEW YORK, (AP)—President Truman challenged all nations today to agree on a workable way to outlaw the atomic bomb as the alternative to man's destruction of himself by the use of the weapon.

Truman said that the United States and other powers have endorsed Mr. Truman said: "To assure that atomic energy will be devoted to man's welfare and not to his destruction is a continuing challenge to all nations and all peoples."

Miller said his first foreign policy declaration since his Sept. 23 inauguration that an atomic explosion would be a "catastrophe" for the world.

The President today declared: "Ever since the first atomic weapons were developed, a major objective of United States policy has been a system of international control of atomic energy that would assure effective prohibition of atomic weapons, and at the same time would promote the peaceful use of atomic energy by all nations."

Mr. Truman spoke at the laying of the cornerstone of the new building of permanent United Nations Headquarters on the anniversary of the United States has offered to surrender its bombs under the Russian proposal, but General Assembly-approved "Baruch Plan" providing rigid U. N. inspections and control of atomic energy.

The President did not mention Russia by name but indirectly challenged the Soviet Government to offer a "better and more effective plan."

He said the United States is now "and will remain, ready to meet any such challenge."

CONCERT SERIES OPENS HERE TONIGHT

23-Piece Orchestra Directed By Szymon Goldberg To Be Heard

The noted Polish violinist Szymon Goldberg, 23-piece orchestra, and the 23-piece orchestra, which he conducts, will present a program of concert music Wednesday at 8:30 at Mamaroneck Junior High School in the first of a series sponsored by the Community Concert Association of Larchmont and Mamaroneck.

Mr. Goldberg, making his first American tour this season, will direct the orchestra in a program of music for solo violin and strings. The violinist and small symphony orchestra will come to Mamaroneck following a concert in Carnegie Hall on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Goldberg returned to the United States last year after an absence of ten years during which he was captured by Japanese troops in Java. On his return he appeared as soloist with the New York Philharmonic with whom he is scheduled to play again this year during his extensive tour of the country.

Born 40 years ago in Poland, Mr. Goldberg has taken out his first citizenship papers and plans to live permanently in this country.

Doors will open at 7:45 P. M.

Scouts Participate In Observation

Ten Boy Scouts from Troop 8, Larchmont, represented Siwanoy Council at the United Nations program at the County Center in White Plains last night. With Boy Scouts from Hendrick Hudson and Pennington Cooper Councils, they carried the national colors of 65 members of this organization.

Before the introduction of the guest speaker, Dr. Ralph Bunche, the Scouts marched down the aisle with the colors and placed them in standards on the stage behind the speaker.

Scouts from Larchmont were William Dixon, Alan Wolby, David Neville, Maurice Hart, Tom Moorhead, Tom and William Shuck, Paul Dursi and Carl Quinger.

William Dixon and Scoutmaster Richard Pond transported the Scouts to and from White Plains.

65 CHATSWORTH BOYS LEARN FOOTBALL EARLY

It will be football baseball and wrestling this afternoon for more than 65 boys of Chatsworth Avenue Junior High School who are graduates who have signed up for the new junior athletics program under the supervision of Physical Education Instructor Paul Anderson and Coach Nurse Dora Lennard.

The program, sponsored by the Parents Teachers Association of the school, is the first of its kind in the district. It will be known as "Chatsworth School System." Under its provisions, instruction in football, baseball, wrestling, and other formal athletics will be given the boys of the first year during their extensive tour of the country.

Mr. Anderson and Coach Nurse Dora Lennard will be assisted by the boys' fathers, all of whom are to feel pretty sure that the new program is going to bring tendencies.

NEW YORK, (AP)—President Truman challenged all nations today to agree on a workable way to outlaw the atomic bomb as the alternative to man's destruction of himself by the use of the weapon.

Truman said that the United States and other powers have endorsed Mr. Truman said: "To assure that atomic energy will be devoted to man's welfare and not to his destruction is a continuing challenge to all nations and all peoples."

Miller said his first foreign policy declaration since his Sept. 23 inauguration that an atomic explosion would be a "catastrophe" for the world.

The President today declared: "Ever since the first atomic weapons were developed, a major objective of United States policy has been a system of international control of atomic energy that would assure effective prohibition of atomic weapons, and at the same time would promote the peaceful use of atomic energy by all nations."

Mr. Truman spoke at the laying of the cornerstone of the new building of permanent United Nations Headquarters on the anniversary of the United States has offered to surrender its bombs under the Russian proposal, but General Assembly-approved "Baruch Plan" providing rigid U. N. inspections and control of atomic energy.

The President did not mention Russia by name but indirectly challenged the Soviet Government to offer a "better and more effective plan."

He said the United States is now "and will remain, ready to meet any such challenge."

WILLIAM J. MORAN TAKEN BY DEATH

Half-Century Larchmont Man Was Prominent Insurance Counsel

William J. Moran of Chatsworth Apartments, Larchmont, died today in a private sanitarium at Stamford, Conn. after a long illness.

Born in Rochester in 1868, Mr. Moran came to New York City where he was graduated from Columbia Law School in 1890. A few years later he became secretary to Seth Low, mayor of New York City, serving for the duration of his administration.

Mr. Moran was a member of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York and a member of its Committee on Professional Ethics for several years. He was also a member of the New York County Bar Association and a former president of the Society of the Gesenese, and president of the Xavier Alumni Society and a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

For many years a member of the Larchmont Yacht Club, Mr. Moran served as its secretary for some time. He was a Larchmont resident for nearly half a century and was active in civic affairs.

Surviving are his widow, Abnet M. Moran and daughter, Mrs. Rudolph Jay Schaefer, of Larchmont.

CONCERT SERIES OPENS HERE TONIGHT

23-Piece Orchestra Directed By Szymon Goldberg To Be Heard

The noted Polish violinist Szymon Goldberg, 23-piece orchestra, and the 23-piece orchestra, which he conducts, will present a program of concert music Wednesday at 8:30 at Mamaroneck Junior High School in the first of a series sponsored by the Community Concert Association of Larchmont and Mamaroneck.

Mr. Goldberg, making his first American tour this season, will direct the orchestra in a program of music for solo violin and strings. The violinist and small symphony orchestra will come to Mamaroneck following a concert in Carnegie Hall on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Goldberg returned to the United States last year after an absence of ten years during which he was captured by Japanese troops in Java. On his return he appeared as soloist with the New York Philharmonic with whom he is scheduled to play again this year during his extensive tour of the country.

Born 40 years ago in Poland, Mr. Goldberg has taken out his first citizenship papers and plans to live permanently in this country.

Doors will open at 7:45 P. M.

New Vice President

Election of Harmon E. Snoke of the Larchmont Area Apartments as executive vice president of the Manufacturers Association of the City of Bridgeport, Conn. Inc. at the organization's executive Board meeting was announced yesterday by Walter P. Herold, association president.

Mr. Snoke has been serving as manager of the Manufacturers Association since his appointment last March.

Coming to the Bridgeport Association from the position of campaign manager of the National Hunt and Lacquer Association in Washington where he inaugurated that association's national promotion and advertising campaign last winter, Mr. Snoke is rounding out 25 years of national business organization executive work, Mr. Herold said.

Mr. Snoke moved to Larchmont in 1945 with his wife and one daughter, Carmen, who was graduated from Mamaroneck High School in 1947 and is now in her junior year at Syracuse University, while at Mamaroneck High. Miss Snoke was a member of the Spanish and Latin Clubs, and Theatians.

Short Order Cooks

The PTA of the Chatsworth Avenue School didn't have to worry when it ran out of short orders during the school's circus banquet Saturday afternoon.

The short-order cooks were Sgt. Thomas Boyle and Patrolman Jack Adams of the Larchmont Police Department who had innocently walked into the cafeteria for a cup of coffee after taking the decorated bicycle contest. They suddenly found themselves dispensing coffee by the bucket and hot dogs by the hundred.

When the roll shortage developed the policemen took off in a police car and bought up every roll in the village, with the exception of the PTA Publicity Chairman Mrs. W. W. Brown, that not even the school could call the customers of the Larchmont, heated up hot dog happy.

Haunted?

Patrolman Raymond Borbo of the Town of Mamaroneck Police may tell you this morning he's not so sure as he used to be about haunted houses being the bunk.

Yesterday at 4:15 P. M. he checked a closed house of intruders when he saw a light shining in the living room. A search revealed that all windows and doors were locked and that therefore no one could be in the house.

At 9:10 P. M. Officer Borbo drove by again and the light was off. He then checked all the neighbors to see if any of them had the key and went into the locked house to put out the light. None had.

But at 11:35 P. M. there was the light on again. This time the officer called Sgt. Philip Miller and both went over the house together. They still found nothing.

Not being satisfied, the officers concluded there had been a short circuit somewhere, and let it go at that.

Included in the display are Indian head dresses, soft uniforms and Community Chest posters.

Quick Service

New Rochelle police received a quick response to a telephone alarm filed at 12:25 A. M. yesterday about a stolen car.

Less than an hour later, Patrolman Norman Van Tassel, cruising along Mamaroneck Avenue, on patrol, spotted the car abandoned at the curb in front of 637 Mamaroneck Avenue. The auto was returned to its owner, Miss Mary Carolan of New Rochelle.

At 3:30 A. M. after police had waited in vain to see if the thieves would return to the car.

False Alarm

For a few minutes this morning, pupils at the Chatsworth Avenue grade school in Larchmont thought they were in for a short day.

At 9 o'clock, half an hour after classes started, the students filed out of the building to the tune of a fire alarm.

As the youngsters waited eagerly for smoke and flame, the Fire Department arrived and found that a pointer had struck the alarm box.

The students sighed and returned to complete their usual long day of study.

First Day Chest Campaign Nets 30% Of Goal

$6,600 Collected As Drive Opens in Mamaroneck

Mamaroneck Community Chest workers who launched their chest drive yesterday to raise $19,541 turned in a total of $6,600 by nightfall or about 30 percent of their quota. Executive Director Albert Vollenweider said today that about 45 percent of the residents have been called on.

The officers are gratified with this first day's results, Mr. Vollenweider pointed out, and added that the number of gifts has shown a "big victory."

"I feel," he said this morning, "that if more one-dollar gifts are realized that their donation may be divided among nine beneficiaries who would appreciate the necessity of giving more."

Of each dollar given, 50 cents goes to the United Hospital, 30 cents to youth services such as the Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts, and 20 cents to other services and three cents to administrative expenses.

If the trend of one-dollar gifts continues, the chairman stated, it may mean that we will have difficulty making our quota.

Plans are in progress for a District dinner Wednesday night at the Greenhaven Inn when the captains will be entertained prior to the half-way report period.

The collections in the business and industrial areas as well as the special gifts campaign are also being made this week in conjunction with the house-to-house solicitation.

4 ACCIDENTS MARRIED WEEKEND RECORD

Two Hit and Run Vehicular Figure in Village Mishaps

Four accidents, involving eight vehicles, marred Mamaroneck's traffic record this weekend as the busiest number of accidents for any weekend of the Summer and Fall was registered.

None of the collisions resulted in injuries and damage was slight in all cases. Hit and run drivers figured in two of them.

A collision at 8:30 P. M. Saturday at Palmer Avenue and Mamaroneck Avenue, involving cars driven by Thomas E. Parker of 205 Royal Place, Mamaroneck, and Carmen Clain of Harrison, was the first mishap.

Mr. Parker's auto was parked at the Chester Floor Covering and Bedding Company, Mamaroneck Avenue, at the time it was struck by the Clain car as it traveled east on Palmer Avenue. Mr. Clain told police he misjudged distance while negotiating a turn.

Car driven by Jack Gedney of 210 Union Avenue, Mamaroneck, was struck by a hit and run car on Boston Post Road at 10:25 P. M. Saturday. The hit and run car sidestepped it, dashing the left fender, as the Gedney auto was making a left turn.

Illumination Wanted For Fire Parade

In addition to torch-light furnished by a special contingent of Explorers Scouts marching in tonight's eighth annual parade of the Town of Mamaroneck Fire Department, it is hoped that torch and gas lights will be turned on along the line of march.

George Burton said this morning that the parade will start at the Weaver Street Fire House at 7 o'clock, and will proceed to the Larchmont American Legion.

The marchers will proceed up Weaver Street to Maple Hill Drive, through Maple Hill Drive, through the Larchmont American Legion and down to the Murray Plaza, where the marchers will pass before the reviewing stand.

After the inspection and review, the parade will return by way of Myrtle Boulevard to the Weaver Street Fire House, where the firemen, visiting chiefs and guests will be disbanded, to reassemble later at a dinner.

Music and a talk by Fire Marshal Martin Scott, head of the Arson Investigation Bureau of New York City, will highlight the affair.

ATTLEE SLASHES DEFENSE COSTS TO EASE CRISIS

Prime Minister Also Cuts Free Medical Service In Economy Move

LONDON, (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee slashed dollar spending and defense costs and cut down on free medical services today to ease Britain's economic crisis.

The Prime Minister said before the House of Commons that the Government announced he had slashed a fee on the hold and expensive public health service instituted by his party in July, 1948.

From now on, patients must pay a shilling (4 cents) for prescriptions. Hilbert prescriptions have been free. Britons now pay a small weekly social security tax.

Other taxes pay for the remainder of the program. The Prime Minister also lopped millions from government administration expenses and capital expenses for new buildings, hospitals, schools and public works.

LEGIONNAIRES TO SEE FILM OF CONVENTION

Mamaroneck Legionnaires will have the opportunity to see themselves in the movies tomorrow evening when shows of the county convention held here in July will be shown at a meeting of the Legion.

The film, taken by William Russ official convention photographer, will be shown at 9:25 P. M. following the opening of the meeting and a short business session scheduled for 8:30 P. M.

Another film, "Air Power is Peace Power," is also on the program. Produced by Eastern Air Lines, it tells the story of a Hallow's aviation with a review of flight from the Wright brothers to rockets.

Appearing in the film are Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker and a host of Hollywood stars. Final plans for a Halloween barn dance Saturday at the Legion Club House will be made.

Surviving are his widow, Mabel M. Moran and daughter, Mrs. Rudolph Jay Schaefer, of Larchmont.

WILLIAM J. MORAN TAKEN BY DEATH

Half-Century Larchmont Man Was Prominent Insurance Counsel

William J. Moran of Chatsworth Gardens Apartments, Larchmont, died today in a private sanitarium at Stamford, Conn. after a long illness.

Born in Rochester in 1883, Mr. Moran came to New York City where he was graduated from Columbia Law School in 1910. A few years later he became secretary to Seth Low, mayor of New York City, serving for the duration of his administration.

For more than 42 years, Mr. Moran had been counsel in New York City for the Travelers Insurance Companies, Hartford, Conn.

Mr. Moran was a member of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York and a member of its Committee on Professional Standards of the New York State Bar Association and a former president of the Society of the Genesee, and president of the Xavier Alumni Sodality and a member of the Delta Gamma Epsilon Fraternity.

For many years a member of the Larchmont Yacht Club, Mr. Moran served as its secretary for some time. He was a Larchmont resident for nearly half a century and was active in civic affairs.

Fraternity Floggings Stir Indignation Here

In the wake of public reprobations from a flogging given in pledges at a fraternity initiation in a Larchmont home last week, a statement yesterday by the physician who examined nine of the youths and the decision of the Larchmont Rotary Club to investigate the fraternity system was made public this weekend.

Dr. Frank L. Morton of New Rochelle wrote that an inspection of the boys' wounds revealed "contusions, abrasions and ecchymoses of both thighs and buttocks. In my opinion it is quite possible for such injuries to result in hematomas (blood clots) which do not resolve or which become infected."

The incident fomenting the current fuss occurred last Tuesday when the first of five pledged floggings was inflicted upon the pledges. The parents of nine of the youths met Wednesday to discuss the situation and have their own "examined" by the physician.

As a result of the discussion parents of six pledges ordered their sons to resign.

The Rotary Club action came Friday with the decision by the Board of Directors to appoint the Rev. Floyd E. McGuire and Dr. Edgar C. Ernst to study fraternity. The resolution went into effect to study the situation of two reports at a future meeting.

65 CHATSWORTH BOYS LEARN FOOTBALL EARLY

It will be football, baseball and wrestling this afternoon for more than 65 boys of Chatsworth School's first and second grades. The boys will be coached by the new junior athletics program under the supervision of Physical Education Instructor Paul Anderson and School Nurse.

The program, sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association of the school, is the first of its kind to be introduced in the Mamaroneck-Larchmont School system. Under its provisions instruction in football, baseball, wrestling and other formal athletics will be given the boys of the first and second grades whose parents will pay 50 cents a day, three days a week for the courses.

Mrs. W. W. Brown, publicity director for the PTA, said this morning that the program has been enthusiastically received by the youngsters, with more than 65 enrolled already, and that particular interest has been evinced by the boys' fathers, all of whom "seem to feel pretty sure that the new program is going to bring successes."

FANELI SPEEDS GAMBLING PROBE

Quiz Into Harrison Raid to Start After Funeral of Police Captain

The investigation by District Attorney George M. Faneli into the operation of a "big time" crap game in the exclusive Purdie section of Harrison is getting underway today.

This morning, Mr. Faneli attended the funeral of Police Lt. Charles Agostinelli of the Harrison force, who collapsed and died of a heart attack during the raid, which was staged as a result of information the officer had received.

On his return to his office this morning, Mr. Faneli will confer with members of his staff and make assignments for the various phases of his inquiry.

One of the phases to be probed involves reports that prominent political figures had visited the "club" in a converted barn on the property of Bertram P. Parks.

"Protection" Efforts Reported
Another is the reported efforts made to insure "protection" for the game from raids or other interference. These efforts, it is said, were unsuccessful and led to the discovery of the operation.

"I am curious about some of the things that have already come to light," Mr. Faneli said in announcing the inquiry, "and I am sure that the cooperation of all 108 men, most living outside of Westchester were arrested and paid fines totaling $5,500."

TRUMAN URGES WORLD ACCORD ON ATOM BOMB

President Challenges All Nations to Unite In Outlawing Weapon

NEW YORK, (AP)—President Truman challenged all nations to unite to outlaw the atom bomb as the alternative to man's destruction. Speaking against the background of Russia's refusal to come into an agreement that the United States and other powers have endorsed, Mr. Truman said: "To assure that atomic energy will be devoted to man's welfare and not to his destruction is a continuing challenge to all nations and all peoples."

It was his first foreign policy declaration since his Sept. 23 announcement that an atomic explosion had occurred in the USSR.

"Ever since the first atomic weapon was developed, a major objective of United States policy has been a system of international control of atomic energy that would assure effective prohibition of atomic weapons, and at the same time would promote the peaceful use of atomic energy by all nations."

DEFENDERS ROUT N. Y. RAID ATTACK

Mainard and U. S. Chiefs 'Hail' Operation Metropolis' As Air Maneuver

Radar units at White Plains spotted "enemy" planes approaching New York and Air National Guard planes based at Westchester County Airport as they helped intercept the attackers in a Canadian-American joint raid test Saturday.

The operation Metropolis was witnessed by high ranking officers from both countries. Canadian airmen formed part of both the attacking and the defending units, flying from Mitchell Field in Brooklyn, Floyd Bennett Field in Brooklyn, and Newark.

Major Armand A. Girosola of Mamaroneck is commanding officer of the 60th Aircraft Control Squadron which receives the radar messages and relays the information to the intercept planes with the aid of the control board in White Plains.

The test was held at a complete success by Lt. Gen. Ennis C. Whitehead, head of the Continental Air Command of the U. S. Air Force, and Air Marshal W. A. Curtis of the Royal Canadian Air Force. Harold C. Stuart, Assistant Secretary of the Air Force, also was an interested spectator at the Army in White Plains.

It was assumed that "enemy" fighters and bombers had penetrated the inner ring of defense and were coming into New York. The attackers took off from Mitchell Field.

James C. Miller Dies After Virginia Crash 4 Others Hurt

James Cummings Miller, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell V. Miller, 13 Avon Road, Larchmont, died this morning in the Mary Washington Hospital, Frederick, Md., as a result of injuries sustained Saturday night when the car in which he was riding failed to make a curve and turned over several times about 145 miles from Frederick, Md.

Other four, none of whom were students, including two from Westchester County were injured in the accident.

Miss Patricia Miller, another daughter apparently was traveling too fast to stay on the road when it turned into a sharp curve on Route 30 about 100 yards from an intersection with Route 3 in Orange County.

The car went over the bank beside the road, overturned several times and landed in another bank. State Police said there were no other cars involved in the accident, officers reported.

Miller was taken to Mary Washington Hospital, suffering shock and other undetermined injuries.

Another of the students, Mrs. Mary Miller, sister of New Rochelle, was transferred yesterday from Mary Washington Hospital, Washington, D. C., for further tests regarding injuries. Hospital physicians said he rested comfortably last night.

Others hurt, none of whom were in serious condition at Mary Washington, are Timothy Sheehan, 27-year-old, Deal, N. J.; Wil-

Posters on Display

Cancer prevention posters by Bellevue High students Betty Brummehead, Salvatore Palladino, Jack Sheehan Jr., Edward Kayser, Eugene R. Giancola, and Carol Garfinkel will be on display at the Eastchester Fair Trade Exposition tomorrow, Thursday and Friday among prize-winners and other posters of merit received by the Westchester Cancer Committee during its poster contest last April.

The booth for the exhibit was made available through the courtesy of the Drive Chassis Shop at the suggestion of Mr. H. J. Scheffer of Larchmont, chairman of the Lay Volunteer Services of the Westchester Cancer Committee.

New Position

Capt. George C. Currier, USNR (ret.), of 42 Harmon Drive, Larchmont, has accepted a position with the American Extension Division of the United Wesley, it was revealed this morning. He flew to San Francisco Sunday to assume his new duties.

Capt. Currier, who retired from the Naval Reserve recently, was liaison officer and naval advisor on the staff of Governor Baldwin of Connecticut in 1954.

He was deputy director of Naval Reserve for the Third Naval District and during the past year for a year in charge of advanced base duties in the U. S. Mediterranean and European Theaters of Operations.

Not So Friendly

A prisoner arrested by Larchmont police on the Parkway at 1:50 A. M. today for a traffic offense still exhibited prima facie evidence of the validity of the charge six hours later.

Charged with using "abusive language," he had carried on a tirade of invective which was still going on after the 12 to 8 shift had gone home to bed. The prisoner was mad at the police, individually and collectively, mad at some people he had met at a tavern last night, and mad at the Village of Larchmont.

He gave his name as George Russ Jr., of New York City.

Forgot to Lock Up

Fortunately for Benjamin Leon, proprietor of the Jewelry shop at 1281 Palmer Avenue, Larchmont, the first person to try the lock on his shop door after he "closed" up at 9 o'clock last night was Patrolman Patrick DePro of the Larchmont Police Department.

The checking officer learned the knob at 10:23 P. M. when the door swung open, having been left unlocked. The departing jeweler more than an hour before.

The officer contacted Mr. Leon, who came down in a hurry to lock up.

Halloween-Masked Men Fire on Pa. Coal Trucks

BELLEFONTE, Pa. (AP) — State Police said today three coal truck drivers reported they were fired upon while returning from the Clearfield area where non-union coal mines have been operating.

The drivers said the attack was made by a group of men wearing grotesque Halloween-type faces. The men disappeared after the shooting.

The drivers, John and Dave Krush, brothers of Snow Shoe, Pa., and George Handke of Clearfield, Pa., said the amount of money they were carrying was $100. They were returning from a coal mine about 25 miles from Bellefonte. None of them was hurt.

Democratic Rival Calls On Dewey to Supercede District Attorney

As District Attorney George M. Fanelli started today to question witnesses in his investigation of the "big time" craps game discovered in the exclusive Purchase section of Harrison, Henry Hoffheimer Jr., his Democratic opponent, announced he has a plan to supercede Mr. Fanelli in the inquiry.

Mr. Fanelli declined to reveal the identity of the persons he has called to his office. However, it was reported that Chief William W. Starnes, Sheriff Henry Hoffheimer, and several other persons had been called to the office to confer with the prosecutor.

When Harrison police learned of the same, which is said to have been operated by New York City men, they notified Mr. Fanelli and Sheriff Fred W. Russo. The barn was raided Thursday night.

Frank Ward of Mamaroneck, until recently assistant manager of the craps game, pleaded guilty to a charge that he had arranged for use of the barn and was fined $250, besides a year in prison.

Business and pleasure will combine in Larchmont for three days and nights starting tomorrow as the second annual Larchmont Fair Trade Exposition sets up its booths in the auditorium of St. Augustine's School for a festa that will feature exhibits by local merchants and civic organizations, highlighted with musical entertainers, fashion shows and performances by a ballet group.

J. Fred Coats, famous Broadway song writer and a 20-year resident of Larchmont, will head the list of entertainers under the auspices of Embassy Club.

Mr. Coats, who composed the Christmas favorite, "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town," will head a selected group of celebrities of the town to line the auditorium.

Fashion shows will be staged each evening by various local models. There will be a dance recital by Lina London's School of Ballet.

Approximately 50 booths are expected to line the auditorium. All competing in originally planned beauty for the prizes being offered by the association for outstanding displays.

Featured exhibits are planned by the Larchmont Fair Trade Association, which will include the largest cut-top shop in the United States, William Goodrich, whose display will feature fine silver service, and the Larchmont Lions, who will operate a booth.

MILLS ASSAILS AS UNTRUE GOP TAX CUT CLAIMS

Democratic Nominee Says Town Levy Has Shown Steady Increase

George E. Mills, Jr., Democratic-independent candidate for supervisor, attacked campaign claims of the Republican administration, headed by Supervisor Owen A. Mandeville, last night in a speech delivered at meetings in Mamaroneck. Larchmont and the unincorporated section, attended by a total of 167 residents.

Even speaking at the meetings were Theodore E. Tuck and Francis K. O'Donnell, Jr., Democratic-independent candidates for Council, and Mrs. Louis Chisholm, Democratic candidate for school director.

Referring to an advertisement printed in yesterday's Daily Times, Mills stated that the Republican administration, Mr. Mills estimated that the town tax rate for 1946 is $14.71 in 1949 declining rather than "the taxes of this community have been steadily increased."

The town tax, Mr. Mills stated, "which the present administration has been increasing for the following year, in other words this surplus has been created in the past by you, Mr. Taxpayer."

He claimed that the town tax of 1949 is $1.07 per $100 assessed valuation and that because of the actuality of the tax this year was $15.77 instead of $14.71.

Other features of the contest were a "question box" forum presided over by Dr. Charles A. Brind, council for the State Education Department and a talk on relations between school boards and the public by Howard Chase, public relations director of General Foods.

Lt. Watson Honored

Cadet 2nd Lt. Edward P. Watson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Watson of 15 Round View Drive, Larchmont, has been designated as a distinguished military student by the Department of the Army. It was announced this morning at the graduation of the Army's Civilian Cadet Corps at West Point.

The designation "is an award presented to those ROTC students who exhibit outstanding leadership ability and who distinguish themselves in the university either academically or by participation in campus activities."

A 1944 graduate of Mamaroneck High School who he was a member of the Student Council, National Honor Society, and the Acheson, Engineering and Tumbling Clubs, Cadet Watson is credited by the military as having applied for direct commission in the Regular Army upon graduation from the university.

Combing the Town

Mechanized Goblins

It looked like a clear-cut case of unannounced no-man's-land day afternoon in Larchmont when the body of an eight-ton dump truck suddenly flew up into the air in front of the Murray Avenue School.

Not only did the body fly up without the knowledge of truck driver Cary Jenkins of Mount Vernon, he told the police later, but it flew open just as the truck passed under a state of phone wires and an overhead power line.

The raised section of the truck tore down the wire and tipped off one large branch which came pulled down onto the windshield of a sedan driven by William E. Jeffrey of 59 Glenn Road, Larchmont, shattering the glass.

It took the Town of Mamaroneck police, the Town Highway Department, the phone company and the insurance company of truck-owner Charles Giacomo to settle the damage and clean up Murray Avenue.

Art Collectors

Larchmont residents who have availed themselves of the privilege of inspecting the company rooms of the Larchmont Fire Department during the Fair Trade Exposition this week have been surprised to find that art-collectors have been behind the scenes in pursuit of one of the companies.

In the dark-paneled chubbroom of Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 there is a set of three Carrier and Trevis prints valued, according to Fire Captain William J. Conroy, at $1,000.

Another original oil-painting on display in the Fire Department booth at the Exposition across the street, is the first painting in the series of the famous Texaco Fire series, and is valued at $750, the captain said. The oil painting is also hook and ladder property.

Good Natured Feud

It's a hectic life for the small yellow tom-cat that resides in Puller's one-arm lunch-counter on the Post Road in Larchmont.

To casual visitors who are startled to see the kitten being started to see the kitten between the jaws of a large black-and-white mongrel, it may look as though all nine lives were coming to an end at once.

The proprietor, I. A. Falkowicz, laughs and remarks, "That dog couldn't fly without that cat."

The kitten, as if to say "live-wire" prominently wriggles away, and dives in for another round with her heavyweight opponent. A friendly running battle that lasts most of the day.

Singing Scouts

A Larchmont Boy Scout quartet last night entertained a dinner attending a banquet for several guests of scout councils of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut at the Hotel Astor, New York City.

Members of the quartet, which last Spring sang at the Stuyvesant Council dinner, were: Robert C. Gordon and David E. Troop 8 and Gordon and David E. Troop 6.

The quartet sang four songs: "Climbing up the Mountain," "I Had a Dream, Dear," "You Can't Easy Tell," and "Little Liza."

Extra Holiday

No, the schools didn't let the kids out on account of Halloween. It may have looked like that as the students roamed the streets today, a date upon which no considerable holiday takes place. It is a fact that all the teachers in the New York City attending the annual teachers' convention.

Combing The Town

Therces La Femme

Love proved the undoing of one Larchmont resident yesterday, a dalmatian dog whose romantic escapade wound up in the hands of the Larchmont Police Headquarters with a summons to appear in court Nov. 10 at 4 P. M.

The dalmatian was caught and trapped in the cellar at the home of Patrick T. Reilly, 17 Rock Ridge Road, Larchmont, after Mr. Reilly became exasperated with the droop of animals paying court to his female dog. The dalmatian was the one he caught in a street alley into the whole startled pack.

Mr. Reilly called the police to come and remove the trapped dalmatian. And the police called John Moll of 43 Weaver Street to come and bail his dog out after they'd taken it to headquarters.

Mr. Moll got his dog and a summons to appear in court on a charge of permitting him to run at large.

Brother Guest

Larchmont Rotarians who invited five local engineers to talk at their "Brotherhood" luncheon yesterday were doing even better than they thought. It turned out later when they looked at the guest list.

In addition to the list of speakers, which included two priests, a rabbi, and Presbyterian and Episcopal ministers, the guest list showed that a Lutheran minister, the Rev. William R. Fairman, had also attended the luncheon. Pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church in Mamaroneck, he is a member of the Byram, Conn. Rotary Club.

Giant Tomatoes

An eleven-year-old gardener marched into The Daily Times office yesterday morning with a shoe box containing three giant tomatoes as big as potatoes, and proudly announced he had grown them himself.

The boy, Paul Chagnon, of 1102 Keeler Avenue, is a student in the sixth grade at Daniel Warten School. The tomatoes are his special province in his parents' garden.

Picked two weeks ago to escape a possible frost, they were left to ripen on a windowsill.

Thumb Crushed

The right thumb of Angelo Linares, minister of St. Francis Avenue, Mamaroneck, was crushed yesterday at 3 P. M. as he was putting a chain around the trunk on Taylor's Lane, Mamaroneck.

Linares had climbed the trunk with the chain, which was attached to a bulldozer, when the bulldozer started to roll down an incline, tightening the chain around his thumb. Fellow workers helped free him and he was taken to United Hospital, Port Chester.

'Cold Weather' Duty

Joseph Galvao, deputy U. S. Marshal, Mamaroneck, serving aboard the heavy cruiser USS Rochester, is taking part in the Navy and Marine Corps cold weather exercises off the coast of Labrador in the vicinity of Hamilton Island.

A graduate of Mamaroneck High School, Galvao enlisted in the Navy in 1945 and was aboard the Rochester for three years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Galvao of 100 Rockland Avenue, Mamaroneck.

In Case of Rain

Should rain interfere with plans for the C. I. Club Association's Halloween Party at Columbus Park tomorrow at 1 P. M., the affair, which is given annually for children of the community, will be held indoors at the gymnasium of the Mamaroneck Avenue School.

Games, entertainment and refreshments are planned for the more than 1,500 youngsters who are expected to attend.

Aboard Carrier

Clyde L. De Lap, chief commissaryman, USN, of 613 Rockland Avenue, Mamaroneck, is serving aboard the aircraft carrier, USS Leyte, now on a Mediterranean cruise.

Mr. De Lap, who has been in the Navy for 18 years, recently visited the French Riviera on ten-day leave when the Leyte put in at Golfe Juan, France.

3 NEW ROCHELLE FANS

SLIGHTLY HURT HERE

Three New Rochelle residents received minor injuries at 2:30 P. M. yesterday when the front end of their car, which was driving north with a truck at East Boston Post and Greenbush Road, Mamaroneck.

Edmond Woffels of 117 Perth Street, suffered a foot injury; his wife, Irene, injured her left arm; and Judith Greenberg, seven of the same address, bumped her head. They did not require medical attention of a physician. The girl was the daughter of the operator, Mrs. Rosalie Greenberg, also of New Rochelle.

The accident occurred when the car collided with the front end of the truck which was making a left turn into Greenbush Road from the Boston Post Road. The operator was Edward Ossison of New York City.

The right fender, grill, headlight and right side mirror of the truck were damaged. The truck driver was credited for driving without a license.

STEEL PRODUCERS BLAMED BY MORSE

Senator Calls On Big Firms To Give In On 10c Hour Welfare Plan

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Senator Wayne Morse, R. Ore., today blamed the big steel companies for failure to settle the industry-strangling steel strike.

With negotiations deadlocked, the steel walkout and the equally important coal strike — and the nation's industry standing the effects—Morse called on steel producers to grant the 10-cent welfare package proposed by President Truman's fact-finding board.

The major steel companies have expressed willingness to put a pension-insurance plan into effect, but only if the workers contribute to it.

Federal mediation chief Cyrus Vance, calling three more steel firms into peace talks starting in Washington tomorrow or Monday, reported no "tangible evidence" of progress toward ending the strike.

Similar reports came from coal talks as negotiators put off further discussions until Tuesday.

Meanwhile, government reports showed output shrinking and layoffs rising in the industries which feed on coal and steel.

In New York conferences dropped in between the coal and the steel to the 29-day steel tie-up. He talked to U. S. Steel leaders for six hours yesterday. Then he got U. S. Steel President Philip Murray on the telephone twice, and finally invited three more firms to take part in the talks.

Ching said he "felt it was necessary" to bring Republic Steel, Jones and Laughlin, and Youngstown Sheet and Tube companies into the talks for two days here, but can't say why yet so.

Brotherhood And Good Will Stressed By Five Larchmont Clerics Before Rotary Club

Brotherhood, cooperation and good will were the orders of the day at yesterday's luncheon meeting of the Larchmont Rotary Club at the Larchmont Shore Club as five of the community's clergymen reviewed the history of their churches.

The original headmasters of the church, Mr. Coffin said, was an old community house where the Horrocks Harbor clubhouse is now. Between Sundays, he said, the building was used as a yacht club by the parishioners who had agreed to keep their parties quiet and to clean up the debris before the opening of Sunday School on Sunday morning.

At St. John's Church, started in 1891, shortly before moving out of the old community house on the north side of Fountain Square into the present structure, whose Parish House for the club accommodated all large public meetings in the community.

Then, with a wink at his colleague, Mr. Coffin said, St. Augustine's Rev. Mr. Coffin gave a whimsical account of the origins of St. Augustine's Catholic Parish, which he said started when the first Episcopal priest tried to talk his way to the Roman Catholic servants up to Mamaroneck every Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Coffin was succeeded by Mr. Deagr, who observed, a propos of the peace and harmony motif, that he and the Episcopal rector were disagreeing already.

"But," he added, "we will continue to disagree without being disagreeable."

Then getting a more serious note, the Moderator discussed the importance of morality in any attempt to foster a life of brotherhood among men, and he scoffed at the idea of a morality that is not based on religion.

CHEST CAMPAIGN TOPS $10,000 AS DEADLINE NEARS

Solicitation Eighty Percent Completed With Only Two Days Left

Mamaroneck Community Chest collections have now passed the 50 per cent mark with only two days of the seven-day campaign remaining. Stephen Dietz, publicity chairman, reported this morning.

More than $10,000 of the $19,541 goal has been collected and organizers believe they have two days of soliciting. The annual drive, which benefits nine welfare organizations, began last Sunday and ends tomorrow.

Although the $10,000 figure represents 49 per cent coverage of the residential area, Mr. Dietz said that "only spotty reports" have been received from apartment houses and the business districts. No report to date has been received from the Special Gifts committee.

The amount which beneficiary organizations will receive if the drive goes over the top are as follows:

United Hospital, $11,000; Boy Scouts, $2,500; Civil Service, $1,841; Camp Fire, $1,500; Child Guidance, $1,000; Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, $1,400; the Salvation Army, $1,400; Community Service to the Homeless, $1,400; and the Community Service Committee of Grasslands Hospital, $100.

POLICEMAN HURT BY TIPSY DRIVER

Mt. Kisco Patrolman Aron Run Down — Woman Arrested As Hit-Runner

ROUNDED KISCO — Patrolman William J. Moran, thirty-two, of 13 Suttons Road, was seriously injured last night when he was struck by a car. Later a woman motorist was arrested on charges of leaving the scene of an accident, driving while intoxicated, and auto assault (third degree).

Chief John Crester identified the motorist as Mrs. Lillian Gibbs of 10 Willie Road who was driving a 1946 sedan. She was released in the custody of her attorney, Daniel Fickner, by Police Justice John P. Reed, Jr.

Police said that Patrolman Moran received several fractured ribs, head lacerations, bruises and abrasions, and a possible serious spinal injury which paralyzed him from the hip down. He was tossed about 12 feet along the pavement by the impact.

The accident occurred at 7:35 P. M. on West Main Street near the intersection of Park Avenue. Moran, who had parked his car and alighted to go to a nearby store. Suddenly a 1946 sedan sidestepped the patrolman's car and sped from the scene.

Lehman Flays Tories On Foreign Affairs In Tour Of County

Democrat Also Assails Socialized Medicine And Labor Law

In a series of campaign addresses in four Westchester communities yesterday afternoon and last night, former Governor Herbert H. Lehman, Democrat, and Liberal candidate for U. S. Senator, criticized the stature of his Republican opponent, Gov. John Foster Dulles, as a foreign affairs expert, and expressed his opposition to the Taft-Hartley Law, socialized medicine and Communism.

Mr. Lehman opened his tour of lower Westchester with an address before the estimated 1,000 persons at an open-air meeting in front of Mount Vernon City Hall. He was then escorted to White Plains for a buffet supper at the Hotel Roger Smith.

Approximately 300 persons in the auditorium of Albert Leonard High School in New Rochelle heard Mr. Lehman in an address which was broadcast over WFAS. He took the floor after a brief stop at another rally in Mount Vernon, he spoke before 700 in the Saunders Trade School at Yorkers. This address was also broadcast over WFAS.

Mr. Lehman arrived in New Rochelle more than a half-hour before his scheduled speech, and (Turn to Page 3, Please)

IDENTIFY PLANE DEAD IN AZORES

French Mission Seeks Cause Of Crash In Which 48 Were Killed

PONTA DELGADA, The Azores — A French mission today began identifying the burned and broken bodies of 48 victims killed in the crash of an Air France Constellation.

The Paris-New York plane plunged into a mountainside yesterday.

A French technical mission also was at work today to determine the cause of the crash. Board of Marshal Captain Jean-Claude Neveu and painter Bernard Bouteleau de Marval were among those killed. There were no survivors.

The body of twenty-eight-year-old Miss Yvonne, one of France's greatest woman missionaries, was identified as she was being lowered from the remote spot of the disaster. Her body was the highest rocky peak, near the village of Aljezur. But first reports said the plane crashed into Rio Piedrado at 3 o'clock (Turn to Page 3, Please)

Dr. Brinton To Speak To Quakers Wednesday

Dr. Howard H. Brinton, director of the Quaker Graduate School, Wallingford, Pa., will be the speaker Wednesday at 8 P. M. at Quaker Meeting House, Purchase, N. Y.

His talk, the third of a series of religious lectures sponsored by the Purchase Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, is entitled "Inner Tensions in Today's World Conflicts."

A graduate of Haverford College, Harvard and the University of California, Dr. Brinton has been associated with the Friends' Yearly Meeting since 1932.

The author of books and pamphlets, Dr. Brinton has been lecturer in philosophy at Haverford since 1932.

UNIVERSITY CLUB GETS ANNIVERSARY

Larchmont Group Will Honor Ex-Presidents At Dinner Wednesday

"Ex-Presidents' Night" will be celebrated Wednesday evening by the Larchmont University Club in connection with the organization's observance of its Silver Anniversary.

The meeting will be held at the Larchmont Yacht Club with cocktails scheduled at 7 o'clock and dinner.

Jeremiah C. Waterman, president, states that of 21 living ex-presidents, 18 are expected to attend. Ex-President Loren Dodson is hospitalized and the Rev. Robert Russell now resides in Arizona where he is operating a school for boys.

The club was organized in 1924. A program of entertainment has been planned for the dinner.

NEW ROCHELLE HOSPITAL

Right Scent: Wrong Street

A rule a detective should always follow is to be unobtrusive while watching houses. He also helps to watch the right house, but this week on Beach Avenue, Mamaroneck, a private eye turned up who violated the rule for five days straight.

On Monday a man sat in a car parked the curb facing the house. He successfully escaped the notice of housewives for almost four hours. No one thought much about it until he appeared for eight hours Tuesday and again Wednesday. His presence then began to seem downright peculiar.

Thursday one woman, who thought she had reason to complain about a suspicious person, reported the incident to police.

"Oh! He's a private detective," the desk officer explained. "Stop what street did you say you lived on?"

"Beach," the woman answered. "Beach" the officer exclaimed, "seems a detective's address. I have been watching a house on another street."

The search took up his regular schedule yesterday on Beach Avenue. The man apparently put him right during the day for that morning his spot at the curb was vacant.
