3,500 See Larchmont Memorial Dedicated

The great and the near great, the well known and the unknown, rich and poor alike, joined together at high noon yesterday to pay homage to the 51 men and women of the Larchmont Post 347 District who gave their lives in the service of their country through two world wars and to dedicate to their memory a simple but beautiful memorial in Larchmont Memorial Park.

The principal address was made by Julian Carrill, chairman of the Joint War Memorial Committee, in dedicating the memorial as an "imperishable token of our love and devotion."

"Not only is it a Memorial to those who made the supreme sacrifice in the last two wars," he said, "but it is a monument to the unity, the friendships and the cooperation of the peoples of our town and our Village."

Mr. Carrill briefly recalled the need for such a memorial and the planning and erecting that went into it. He also paid tribute to Otto Berger, architect of the memorial, and to the late Charles Peters, who supervised the first model of the bronze eagle which adorns the monument and died a few days after its completion. He pointed out how it was necessary for the Town and the Village to have a law enacted to enable them to use their funds for such a joint project.

"I hereby," he said, "Larchmont made history and created a rare precedent in cooperative effort. And need I remind you that unity in spirit and unity in effort for the common welfare were among the ideals for which our boys and girls fought and for which they died."

"Oh, my friends," Mr. Carrill continued, "never let this beauty spot become a place of mourning. Let it be a place for us to rally to let us make it a shrine where we may come to renew our faith to offer our thanks, most to pray that we, too, may have the inspiration, the determination and the courage to carry on the ideals for which they fought and for which they gave their lives in a more glorious fulfillment than it is our lot to share."

Truce Terms Must Fix Unity For Palestine, Arabs Declare

CAIRO (AP)—Arab nations informed the United Nations today that any truce which does not provide for a unified Palestine had no chance of success.

The detailed reply was as an acceptance of the four-week armistice asked by the U.N. but it left the time of the cease fire to be decided.

While the Arabs and Jews debated the scope of the cease fire, accepted yesterday, gunplay continued in the Holy Land. Whether Israel's statement of 'cessation' regarding the four-week armistice and the Arab nations' reply would bring an effective armistice could not be said.

The Trans-Jordan Arab Legion repulsed Jewish attacks on three gates of the old walled city of Jerusalem before 3 A. M. Palestine time, which Israel had set for a cease fire. (This was P. M. Tuesday, Eastern Standard Time.) Military headquarters at Tel Aviv asserted that Egyptian armoured forces broke that cease fire in actions before Tel Aviv.

The Egyptian Foreign Ministry issued the text of the reply of the seven Arab countries to the U.N.'s plea for a four weeks armistice. It left the time of the cease fire to be decided and said:

—Any solution which does not maintain Palestine's political unity will have no chance of success.

—Continued Jewish immigration into the Holy Land would constitute the gravest threat to Arab countries.

Arab States should be allowed to cooperate with the U. N. mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte, and the Truce Commission to supervise complete and final conditions of the cease fire.

The Arab reply did not make clear whether the Arab acceptance of the armistice is conditional on the Security Council agreeing with their explanations.

The Arab Legion, which captured old walled Jerusalem last week, said 600 Jews attacked the Zion, Jaffa and New Gates of the Old City between 1 and 3 A. M. Arab marksmen repulsed the attack. The Legion commander said a Jewish plane was heard but it stayed out of range of anti-aircraft guns.

Artillery, mortar and automatic weapons fire sounded through Jerusalem after sunset. The Arab Legion commander said he was considering going ahead with a previous plan to shell the Jewish Agency building in modern Jerusalem.

At Assa, a newspaper, supported the Egyptian Government, said Egyptian artillery was throwing 25-pound shells this morning at Rehovot, 19 miles south east of Tel Aviv. Jewish Army headquarters also reported the Egyptian attack.

Combing The Town

Ready for Graduation

The sum of $30 was voted by the Larchmont Lions Club at its meeting yesterday at the Pal-Mar Restaurant to send a boy or girl from Larchmont High School to the annual Westchester Music Festival in White Plains beginning June 28. The student will be chosen by the chairman of the music department at the high school.

The club also voted to contribute $10 to the Reader's Digest Fund for the Blind, which is used to print editions in Braille.

Leon Harold Elmer was selected to represent the club at a meeting with representatives of other civic organizations to discuss the advisability of establishing a community center building in Larchmont.

Encouraging Talent

The club also voted to contribute $10 to the Reader's Digest Fund for the Blind, which is used to print editions in Braille.

Ernest Willson III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Willson, Jr., of 888 Parkway, Larchmont, is one of 37 Westchester men who will receive certificates from the Sampson College, Sampson, N. Y., upon completion of two years' work there.

Willson, now eligible for transfer to another college, having completed his training at this emergency college, has been accepted as a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

A veteran who served in the E.T.O. with the Army Engineers, is a former Bellows Falls High and Syracuse University student.

Local shoppers at the A & P stores may have a step in the June issue of Women's Day, published by the company, without realizing that the picture which accompanied the advertisement is that of a Larchmont resident's home.

The story concerns a trip taken by an actress who called on the picture house. The picture was painted by V. C. Hall, well-known photographer and artist of 6 Glen Road, Larchmont, from a photograph he took of the white stucco bungalow owned by Mr. and Mrs. George Valentine of 43 Riverside Road, Larchmont. The house is trimmed in flowers and an attractive picket fence around it.

Both his regular and alternate members will be asked to attend a meeting of the committee on June 10.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Taft promised railroad union chiefs today that Senate legislation will consider a investigation of their wage dispute.

The union men asked an inquiry, particularly into the Administration's actions and moves.

Taft told reporters he intends to talk to railroad presidents before he lays the union leaders' request before the Senate Republican Policy Committee.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Railroad union leaders turned from the White House to Congress today in seeking a solution of their long standing labor dispute.

With white dispute settlement attempts broken off, the three union chiefs decided to ask a Congressional investigation into the Administration's handling of their wage and other demands.

The heads of the politically potent unions are Alvin Johnson of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, David L. Best of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, and Arthur J. Glover of the switchmen.

All three declined direct communication with the Administration, but they agreed to meet with the President's labor mediator, Arthur J. Glover, of the national rail system.

GARBAGE PROBLEM BECOMING SERIOUS MANDEVILLE SAYS

Demanded For Pickups Seen So Great That Cost May Reach $10,000

Supervisor Owen A. Mandeville told the Town Council last night that the demands upon the Garbage Department by some 10 per cent of the residents of the entire district to send a truck up every time they have, trash, or other debris to dispose of, is presenting "a very, very serious problem."

There was a time when there used to be two clean-up weeks a year in the Unincorporated Area of the Town, but now it has grown to one clean-up week every week, according to Supervisor Mandeville.

He estimated that if the demands upon the department continue, the cost for such service this year could amount to as much as $10,000 and, he added, "we haven't got any kind of money in the bank."

The seriousness of the problem, he added, "lies in the fact that the taxpayers can't afford to have it grow any larger than it is. If all the residents decided they were going to have us pick up leaves and rubbish, it would be a task that is just impossible."

The Supervisor said he appreciates the fact that it doesn't look like it will be done, but he is proud of their neat and attractive community. But the Town cannot afford to keep up this service, he declared.

"And in trying to provide a service which is not right to have everyone and which is not right to have everyone and which is not right to have everyone, we are going to have to put under the law."

Tired, Flooded Northwest Girds For New Deluge Soon

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The Columbia River system spawned a new flood in its headwaters today while the crest of the old one still threatens to punch out weakened dikes far downstream near the sea.

Warning of the new flood abounding came with residents of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia near exhaustion from their two week battle against what is already the river's most disastrous rampage.

All along the 1,000-mile course of the great river from the Canadian Rockies to the Pacific water-logged cities and farm communities braced themselves.

Regular Army troops, National Guardsmen and civilian volunteers worked on soggy dikes only inches higher than the churning waters from Clatskanie on the Oregon shore to the still-supported fishing center of Astoria at River's Mouth.

Again this morning—as yesterday—the danger of breakthrough was multiplied by a high tide coming up the river.

It was tough and so workers strained to build up the earthen walls protecting the fertile lowlands. Their fight was against property damage only. The people were evacuated days ago.

Upriver, too, the struggle against soft dikes went on around Portland even as the years of rehabilitation finally washed after the Memorial Day disaster of Vancouver.

Top Red Cross executives here said they believed "few, if any" of the war housing projects 18-700 residents were lost when a dike crumbled and Columbia waters washed away the city that had been Oregon's second largest.

Federal and state agencies have coordinated plans and their massive reconstructive weight has turned to the task of rehabilitation for some 60,000 persons and repairing damage running into untold millions.

U. S. Officers Prepared To Help Truce Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has 21 Army, Navy and Air Force officers on notice to be ready to fly to Palestine and help work out a truce in Jewish-Arab warfare.

At the request of the State Department, the armed forces instructed the officers to be prepared to leave at any time.

The State Department said that no formal request has been received from the United Nations for the services of the officers. But it was learned that American government has received informal word that "very probably will be called upon for help."

Former Naval Commander Relates Experiences In Pacific

Naval operations in the Pacific during World War II were outlined for members of the Kiwanis Club of Mamaroneck at a dinner meeting last night at the Elmer's clubhouse by Lieutenant Arthur Hatch, a former commander in the U. S. Navy.

Mr. Hatch, who served in the Pacific, spoke from personal experience and told of the general picture of the Pacific, its many islands and their histories. He also described the many resources to be found on the islands and the situation reflects the recent merger with the Fifth Avenue Bank of New York.

The seabees, he said, performed valuable work and a splendid record. He also praised the work by the Allied Military Government in bringing about necessary rationing on the islands.

Patrolman Louis M. Turco of the Town Police Department, brought up on charges of conduct unbecoming an officer, pleaded guilty at a hearing before the Board of Police Commissioners last night and was given five days of extra duty and fined 10 days' pay.

Patrolman Turco, who was not suspended pending the hearing, as stated in yesterday's Daily Times, appeared before the Board of Police Commissioners with his attorney, Joseph P. Gaughan, who pleaded his client guilty.

Turco was brought up on three charges of improper conduct by Chief Paul A. Verick after he abused Patrolman John Brennan May 20 for administering him for driving through a red light.

Committee Urges Cash Be Stretched Over 15 Months

WASHINGTON (AP)—A 25 per cent cut in funds for the Marshall Plan and other foreign aid programs was urged today by the House Appropriations Committee.

The committee set the House floor for probably hot debate tomorrow. The authorization was $1,500,719,228 global assistance measure.

This is a reduction of only $33,000,000 or 7.5 per cent, in the amount Congress itself authorized and President Truman asked.

But the effect is a one-quarter slash for this season; the authorization law provided that the money could be spent during 12 months. But the committee said the cash it is willing to put up must be stretched out over 15 months.

Slightly more than $5,000,000,000 of the total asked had been budgeted for the year ending during the 12 months ending next April 30, or at the rate of $414,000,000 per month.

The committee trimmed that total to $4,663,000,000 for 15 months, a spending rate of $311,000,000 with the money to be spent during a 12-month period as originally planned.

Cuts Explained

In explaining the cuts and spreading out the opening period, the committee said the program contemplated "will not permit the expenditure of more funds than has been provided on an intelligent basis" before July 1, 1949.

Harbor Island beach is going to look better than ever this year. Village Manager William H. Johnson yesterday had several dump trucks and bulldozers on New Hough leader on the beach distributing several hundred yards of sand along the waterfront. The bulldozers worked along the water's edge, showing the sand below the surface, while the loader, when operated something like a steam shovel but is much smaller and far more agile, pushed up the newly delivered sand and dropped it into the dump trucks. The trucks then rolled along the beach and dropped their loads at various locations for the bulldozers to work on.

Mr. Johnson said that the loader will also be used to shove up snow and dump it in trucks every winter.

Jr. H. S. Goes Over Quota With $200 Collection, Smith Reports

The Monamoneck Junior High School students have exceeded their quota in the United Nations Appeal for children drive, Hoyt D. Smith, principal and chairman of the Larchmont division of the drive, reported this morning.

Mr. Smith said that more than $200 was contributed by the students of the school and the efforts of the money-hoarding in the school, he said, will be divided between the Larchmont and Monamoneck funds, since the students come from both communities.

"The over-all drive is moving along slowly," Mr. Smith declared. He said he wishes that many other drives are now in progress, but he knows the people of Larchmont always do their share. "Hunger can't be postponed," he warned.

Rules Against Fare Boost

New Haven, Conn.

NEW YORK (AP)—An application of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad for an increase in commutation fares in New York State has been turned down by the Public Service Commission.

In ruling on the case yesterday, the commission said the company had failed to show its state commuter operations were not profitable.

Commissioner George A. Wright, saying the railroad had submitted figures showing systematic losses of $4,000,000, held that the losses were incurred in the company's operations outside the state. He said New York commuters should not have to pay for deficits incurred in operations that did not benefit them.

"Acknowledged said the railroad already charges the highest commutation fares in the state for trips of more than 17 miles. In its petition, the company sought approval of a 25 per cent boost in the cost of its 60-cent monthly commuter tickets and its 45-cent monthly student tickets.

The company claimed a net railway passenger service operating deficit of $9,000,000, the railroad said, but declined to disclose specific figures on the state commuter service on the grounds that compiling the data would be time-consuming and expensive.

"Although other railroads had supplied such data, and that there is no valid reason why there is no valid reason why

Children Also Share Credit For New Village Ambulance

Mamaroneck children are very largely responsible for the new modern ambulance now in service of the village—at least they can claim credit for having provided the interest and energy which started the fund that finally led to its purchase.

A remark about the new ambulance at a gathering just before the last meeting of the Mamaroneck Lions Club started a chain of reminiscences by Charles Gaa, clubhouse manager, of the Mamaroneck Light & Power Company—Staff Photo

At all started when the Rev. Dean Gifford, then rector of St. Thomas Church, the newly appointed salvage chairman, R. J. Difron, assistant chairman, and Mr. Gaa put their heads together and came up with an idea.

Five tickets to a mass were given to all Mamaroneck children who brought five pounds or more crumpled paper to the playhouse July 9, 1942. But even this enthusiastic group was not prepared for the avalanche of food rubber that overflowed the sidewalk.

There was scrap rubber of every conceivable sort: old tires, inner tubes, rubber boots, rubber boots that contained rubber found in the street and piled in front of the playhouse.

In time as all Dr. Gifford, Mr. Difron and Mr. Gaa found themselves marooned in a rapidly mounting scrap pile. When the movie started and the excess salvage chairman found a chance to breathe, it was discovered that 541 children had contributed more than six tons of sorely needed scrap rubber.

A busy call to Village Manager Johnson brought Village trucks and a dump truck to the scene. The children's pile was finally cleared.

Then came the surprise. A few days later a man appeared at the playhouse and presented Mr. Gaa with a check for $118. When he covered his breath, Mr. Gaa asked what it was all about. It was the money from the sale of the scrap rubber that had been piled in front of the playhouse a few days before had brought that amount from a scrap dealer.

Mr. Gaa immediately called Dr. Gifford, and the check was duly deposited in a village account. That was the beginning of the fund, which has since grown to such proportions that the balance remaining when the War Relocation Authority was set up to purchase the modern, fully equipped ambulance that now serves our Village in emergencies.

Herbert W. Nestor, 1843 Palmer Avenue, Larchmont, died early today a few minutes after he was struck by the 1945 A. M. eastbound New Haven train at Harrison station.

Parolman Joseph Pizzolito of the Harrison Police who witnessed the accident said that Taylor signified from the train as it was moving out of the station. Pizzolito added that the man appeared to walk blindly into a street sign on the platform, the force of the impact with the signer striking him back against the wheel box of one of the coaches, as he fell to the rails and was dragged about 10 feet. Death was caused by a broken neck, Dr. Ellis Merkel, Harrison coroner, said when he pronounced Taylor dead a few minutes after the accident.

It is believed Taylor may have been asleep on the train, awakened when he turned out of the station and then rushed to get off.

Official delegates from the post were Commander Jack Neeland, Nicholas Leon, Walter Neeland, Herman Knief, Vincent Giardulla, William Perry, Frank Anderson, and George Small.

The next meeting of District 2 will be held at Beacon in September.

Post 1156 will meet again Monday at the clubhouse on Boston Post Road.

In "Quest of Quest?" One a host? J. J. Chapel of 918 Southern Boulevard, New York 39, N. Y., sent a postcard to the Daily Times stating that he had found a small boat adrift Sunday afternoon.

The boat, he wrote, is marked "Quest," Larchmont, N. Y. The owner may claim it upon proper identification.

Ships Land Troops In Attempt To Rescue Encircled Forces

CAIRO (AP)—Egyptian forces tried to break out of a Jewish cordon in several areas of northern Palestine today. Jewish forces and Jews weighed their replies to the latest four-week truce proposal.

The truce was made in Tel Aviv from the southern front said at least one and perhaps several Egyptian soldiers have landed troops on the coast in an attempt to rescue forces encircled at 12-mile beach near Tel Aviv and three miles south of the 12-mile beach. Jewish forces last Friday turned back four Egyptian vessels, two of them landing troops in a harbor near Tel Aviv.

The Jews said they have surrounded 1,000 men of the Egyptian force of 8,000 on the coast and were attacking in the area Palestine today. Jewish forces reported capture of Miesamin (Nisanim), a Jewish settlement three miles east of Tel Aviv, in an attack which began with air and artillery support Sunday. The communique said 270 Jews were killed or wounded and 110 were taken prisoner.

Foreign and Hebrew correspondents who made arrangements to visit the front to visit the southern fighting front suddenly were ordered to stay in Tel Aviv. No explanation was given, but it seemed that the encircled Egyptian soldiers had resisted the initiative. The Jews admitted the attack on Miesamin and said 270 Jews were killed or wounded.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cash income tax of 8 per cent for the Atomic Energy Commission and 7 per cent for the Veterans Administration were suggested today by the House Appropriations Committee in the GI Bill of Rights.

The committee also asked officials should show reluctance to consider the "rationing" State "division" of the Government funds. In a $7,995,048-921 bill to finance six agencies during the year starting July 1, the committee recommended:

1. Veterans Administration: $51,850,000 in cash—a cut of $48,150,000 from what President Truman asked but $29,600,000 more than was appropriated this year—plus $400,000,000 in contract authority; the amount the President asked. The actual money to pay for contracts let under the additional authority will be voted next year for contracts.

2. Veterans Administration: $5,125,309,000 in cash—a cut of $254,600,000, plus $43,000,000 in contract authority as requested. The total is $49,650,000 less than the $54,750,000 requested this year.

3. Maritime Commission: $102,373,831 in cash—a cut of $39,472,139, plus $76,000,000 in contract authorization, $18,400,000 more than was asked.

4. Office of Housing Expediter: $11,172,000—a cut of $3,227,000.

5. Office of Defense Transportation: $340,000—a cut of $109,000. The ODT goes out of existence next Feb. 28 unless Congress continues it.

REGION POST 90 EFFECTS KURITZKY AS COMMANDER

Col. Wilson Defeated In Only Contest; Other Officers Named

William Kuritzky last night was elected commander of Mamaroneck American Legion Post 90 at a meeting in the new Legion Hall on Prospect Avenue.

Kuritzky defeated Col. Fred T. Wilson, a past commander and the only other nominee, 134-54.

Kuritzky, who will be installed within 30 days, is a resident of 90 Park Avenue, Harrison, and is associated with his father, Albert, as a glazer on Prospect Avenue.

He served in World War II during World War II, entering Dec. 23, 1941, and being discharged March 30, 1945, for a disability. He has two brothers and a sister who also served in World War II.

Kuritzky was vice commander of Post 90 in 1941 and 1942, alternate officer in 1943 and a member of the executive committee of the County and 8, and of the Mamaroneck Fire Company.

Following is the remainder of the slate elected last night:

Vice Commander: George Langefield, vice commander; Paul Doucet, adjutant; George Newton, financial officer; Eldred Linehan, John Dahlgren, Joseph Weiss, Marvin Connor, Joseph Weiss, Thomas and James Celastino, executive committee; LeRoy Frank, president; Robert Hutchinson, delegates; Hugh Sanford, Frank Wright and John F. Pavia, alternate officers; Ralph Mann, historian; Joseph P. Pavia, secretary; and James Rabe, chaplain.

Tops All Brokers

Competing with more than 100 sharp-shooting real estate brokers, Frank Pollicritti of the Boy Scouts real estate office of Mamaroneck came through with a long drive to cop the Mottet Trophy of the annual Westchester County Hills Board golf tournament yesterday at the Westchester Hills Country Club in White Plains.

It was the first time Mr. Pollicritti had ever played the 18-hole course and also the first time he had entered the trophy. He was also awarded a radio and a watch.

Winning the tournament was quite a thrill, Mr. Pollicritti said, that his highest finish in the past won my last tournament, the annual saddy tournament at the Green Meadow Country Club in 1939.

One Out of Two

About 50 per cent of the Bellows High School senior class failed to enter college, Superintendent of Schools Alvin W. Hicks informed the Rye Neck School Board last night.

Another 10 per cent, he said, planned to enter the service for higher education, such as nursing and business schools.

There are 51 members of the senior class.

Vote-Conscious

A letter of thanks from the Mamaroneck High School General Association was received by the Board of Education last night for providing the voting machines used in the G. A. elections.

Superintendent T. James Abern explained that the use of the three new voting machines cost only $30 for transporting them to and from the school.

"If we can teach our young people to vote correctly for $30, it's worthwhile," he said.

Children to March

The school children of Mamaroneck will be urged to participate in the Play Day parade Monday as a joint observance of the patriotic holiday and the drive being conducted locally to raise $6,000 for the United Nations Appeal for Children.

The parade will be led by Madeline Sophie and George Vlachos, Wei, Chinese musicians who reside in Mamaroneck, and school children will follow with a 100-foot banner urging support of the campaign.

Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts will pass collection baskets among the spectators as the sidewalks.

The first meeting of the UN drive committee will take place at 8:15 o'clock tonight at the office of Eubank Hickey, 211 Mamaroneck Avenue.

Disease Data

Figure this one out: According to Dr. William A. Barrett's monthly health report on the Rye Neck district, children, 34 measles cases were reported to May at Day's four-year school, but only three at Barry Avenue School.

On the other hand, Barry Avenue school had 11 cases of mumps, while Daniel Warren School had none.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., principal speaker at the Westchester Democratic Committee dinner last night at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City, pledged his support of the "candidates, program and objectives of the Democratic Convention."

Mr. Roosevelt, who with his brother, Elliott, earlier this year said they favored General Truman as Eisenhower for President, told about 300 dinner guests that:

"I am, however and shall remain a Democrat. I have no sympathy with the narrow nationalism which was hot and cold in their party loyalty with every turn in the newspaper headlines."

EXTRA TRAINING PUZZLES BOARD

Rye Neck School Trustees Discuss Approval For Master's Degree

The Rye Neck School Board consumed more than an hour last night discussing the matter of extra compensation for teachers who complete work for post graduate degrees, but came to no final conclusion on what the policy should be in recognizing the extra training.

Discussed at length was the question of whether work leading up to a master's degree should be recognized for approval with the State Education Department, of left to the teacher to carry out independently.

There has been no restriction in the past on teachers who wish to work for a degree, but there now seems to be a question of interest in the education law which the word "approval" in the law says that such courses must be "approved," but fails to mention by what agency.

Many districts have interpreted it as meaning that the district themselves, and not the State Education Department, should approve the course.

The Rye Neck Board explored the issue of approval should be in the event it decided to do so.

There, again, a question, the board felt, as to whether a teacher should be advanced to the next step in the salary schedule for completing a course which would be in the same field in which he is teaching. The board will discuss the matter further before acting at a definite place.

The Summer playground program was approved by the board, with the tentative inclusive dates set at July 5 - Aug. 27. Coach Jack Hasley will direct the program, assisted by Herbert Lidstone, working with Miss Helen O. Horn, arts and crafts; and Mrs. Pauline Konstantin, kindergarten, drama and music.

Trustee Edward Burchell of the maintenance committee reported that a two-inch copper water line has been installed at Bellows High School. He also reported that a claim of $1,011.25 for fire damage in a second grade classroom at Bellows High School, was filed with the insurance company. A water-damaged room, similar to last year's, will be undertaken at Bellows High School, Mr. Burchell said.

A request from Coach Hasley for overtime compensation in connection with after-school athletic work was deferred for further consideration.

Permission was granted to the Mamaroneck Lions Club to use the gymnasium.

NEW AMENDMENT ON SEGREGATION

Lengthened Sessions Seek Passage By Tonight — House Delay Seen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern Democrats were beaten today in their efforts to amend the draft bill to allow the president to serve in separate white or Negro units at their own request.

The Senate rejected by voice vote an amendment sponsored by Senators Russell, D. C., and Maybank, D. S. C.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Twenty Senators embroiled in a new hour earlier tonight today faced their third straight night session in a drive to speed the measure to an uncertain House fate.

Called together one more an hour earlier than usual, they arranged to vote 30 minutes later on an amendment sponsored by Senators Russell, D. C., and Maybank, D. S. C., which would let enlisted men serve in separate units upon request.

In its second overtime session last night, the Senate adopted an amendment to limit the Selective Service Law to two years instead of five as originally proposed.

The House approved a provision to permit 25,000 aliens to serve in American armed forces here and abroad. At the end of five years the foreigners would qualify for U. S. citizenship.

BERLIN RAIL BLOCK ORDERED BY REDS IN SURPRISE MOVE

British Sources Report Agreement is Reached to Resume Freight Traffic

BERLIN (AP)—The Russians blocked all food and coal shipments by rail to the 10 million Germans and 25,000 Americans, Britons and French in the Western sector of Berlin, West Germany, U. S. and British officials said. It was too early to say whether the order, in effect since last night, was aimed at giving the western powers out of the city, or was just another manifestation of Soviet red tape aimed at making travel more difficult.

Many in the western sectors viewed the move as the newest phase of the battle in Berlin. If the stoppage is permanent, it will be more serious than the Soviet restrictive measures in Berlin which raised an East-West crisis in April. The Allies circumscribed their traffic by flying in passengers and supplies, but it would be impossible to supply the needs of the 2 million Germans in Berlin in the dependent Western powers for food and heat.

"I present our garbage is being picked up twice a week; that is, once on Monday and once on Wednesday, and other refuse, the garbage men who collect garbage will not take any other refuse, except garbage. Although collection of garbage twice a week is not adequate, it is better than the present one-time collection, or a total of three per week.

"Coming to the problem of other refuse, debris, brush trimmings, etc., this is a very serious matter. In your own judgment for improvement in the town, it is suggested that the Town, as an additional collection, or a total of three per week.

Congress Speeds Up Work To Clear Way For Action On Draft

House Seeks to Act On Tax, Farm Prices, Social Security

The House set aside an unusual Saturday session to debate, and pass if possible, bills dealing with taxation, farm prices and social security. The Senate was expected to spend all day debating a House-passed bill to extend the Reciprocity Information Act until June 30. The administration has asked a three-year extension of the Tariff Law that expires at midnight tonight.

Another measure featuring a revenue raised the bill to the floor is the House would continue the present farm price support program, in modified form, until June 30, 1950. Most of the major agricultural products would be backed by the government up to 90 per cent of parity.

The House Agriculture Committee pushed the bill to the floor in an apparent effort to block a second round fight over a long range farm program. A tax revenue measure, involving an estimated $400 million, in changes in the general tax laws, is also being considered. The bill is expected to pass in the House.

Port Order Blocks Injunction-Wide Treatment of Tie Up Shipping

Court Gives Sullivan Year In Jail, $1,000 Fine In Yonkers Case

WHITE PLAINS—Former Vice-Mayor James A. Sullivan of Yonkers was sentenced this morning to a year in the Westchester County Penitentiary and a $1,000 fine. The sentence was pronounced by County Judge Robert T. Gallagher two months after Sullivan went to trial on three felony counts.

Sullivan was convicted of forming a gang to a business certificate for the "Maritime Corporation" in connection with alleged gambling activities in Yonkers' Labor Temple.

As soon as sentence had been imposed by Judge Gallagher, defense counsel started preparation of an application for a certificate of reasonable doubt which, if granted, would permit appeal of the defendant on bail pending appeal. Notice of appeal must be filed within 30 days.

Because Mr. Sullivan has already served almost two months in County Jail, having been remanded at the start of his trial on May 18, he could complete the sentence in a little more than six additional months, with allowance for good behavior.

In sentencing Mr. Sullivan, Judge Gallagher stated the probation report shows the defendant has never before been in trouble and that he has a wife and five children. Adding that "conviction of a crime in and of itself is a heavy burden on a public official or former official," Judge Gallagher held Mr. Sullivan on those considerations and other factors were weighed by the court in determining the extent of the punishment to be meted out to you.

Judge Gallagher imposed a one year sentence on each of the three counts, two of forgery and one of filing a forged document in the County Clerk's office, directing they be served concurrently. The $1,000 fine, with provision for one day in jail for each dollar not paid, was imposed on the first count.

"Naturally, we are very sorry to see Mr. Watson," said Mr. Ahern, "but we are pleased to see him advance. He has done a very fine piece of work here."

He is editor of the "News Bulletin," published by the New York State Contractors' Association; vice president of the Westchester Guidance and Personnel Association; director of the Larchmont Community Chest; director of the New Rochelle Guidance Center; secretary of the Mamaroneck-Larchmont Student Aid Fund and a member of the Larchmont Rotary Club.

Injunction Restrains 100,000 Workers From Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A U. S. District Judge today granted the government a temporary injunction restraining a threatened nationwide strike of more than 100,000 Maritime workers.

The injunction, asked by the Department of Justice acting under orders from President Truman, was granted by Federal Judge John W. Ciano.

The injunction specifically named the National Maritime Union, the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association, and the American Radio Association. CIO affiliates, as well as 54 shipping companies.

Injunctions affecting the other unions have been expected to be filed in other cities today.

Judge Ciano's order also restrained the ship operators from locking out union workers.

Before the petition was filed, Joseph Curran, president of the 100 National Maritime Union—largest of the seven—had said his union would not "deny" the right of the government to order the unions and the ship operators to resume collective bargaining in such suits.

50 Volunteer Fire Company Members Honor Their Dead

Tolerance and the will to do "spiritually" whatever possibly can be done were the themes of yesterday's Memorial Mass and Communion breakfast held by the Volunteer Engine & Hose Company, No. 2 of the Mamaroneck Fire Department in honor of their departed comrades.

More than 50 members of the company in full uniform and Town and Village officials attended the 8 o'clock Memorial Mass at St. Vitus Church and heard the pastor, the Rev. Blaise DeNegro, urge them "to do spiritually whatever you possibly can for your departed comrades."

Another guest speaker, William R. Milroy, Westchester director of the Catholic Youth Organization, said that "our only hope in this decaying and weakening civilization is with God. Civilization is at the mercy of God and man without God must fail."

Because Mr. Sullivan has already served almost two months in County Jail, having been remanded at the start of his trial on May 18, he could complete the sentence in a little more than six additional months, with allowance for good behavior.

"Wonderful Teacher" Wins Pupils' Thanks

The lot of a math teacher last night, grants and laurels, after all.

Not if he happens to be Arnold Manchester, whose class of 21 students, granting next week from Mamaroneck High School, after studying with him since eighth grade, presented him this morning a handsome watch, complete with gold and leather bands.

Of more importance to Mr. Manchester than the fine gift, however, was the nice account paying it which read "to express their appreciation to a wonderful teacher whose patients understanding and cooperation have endeared him to us all."

Warner Opens Battle To Denate's Bill To Aid Most Foreign Aid

Draft Foes Rally Over Plan To 'Ice' Issue Until January

By HOWARD DOBSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—House draft foes rallied hopefully today around a plan to keep the issue off the floor until January.

The idea was drafted out late yesterday by Rep. Shaffer, R. Mich., in a move to gain support from several members opposing a peace-time return to selective service and a legislative endorsement from REP. SHORT, R. Mo., who is leading the floor fight against the bill.

House leaders said a final vote on the draft may not come until tomorrow, although they still hoped to finish it today. Chairman Andrews, D. N. Y., of the House Armed Services Committee predicted passage by a wide margin—and without the delay-tactician Shaffer proposal.

The bill before the House would hold off registration, as well as inductions until next Jan. 31. The law would go into operation then only if the President proclaimed and Congress enacted a national mobilization, that voluntary enlistments had not produced enough men for the armed forces.

In the meantime, the services would have to conduct an intensive recruiting campaign. There would be major inducements: "Incentives for all enlisted men 25 per cent.

2. Lowering the passing grade for the Army's aptitude test from 80 to 70 points.

3. Accepting two-year enlistments with the same privileges as enlistments for longer terms.

The services would have to report monthly to a Joint Congressional Committee.

If before the House would hold up inductions for 75 days and then permit them only if the President formally ordered.

It would require men from 18 through 29 to register. Those from 19 through 29 could be drafted for 180 days.

Most veterans, and members of the National Student Reliance Council, are opposed to the bill.

FRANCE BATTLES NEW STRIKE WAVE

Tire Plant Work Stoppage Spreads; 150 Injured As Police Act

CLEMONT-FERRAND, France (AP)—A spreading strike wave, reminiscent of last winter's cold civil war, crept over south central France today, spreading to Clermont-Ferrand by a general work stoppage in this French tire capital.

Police moved in on the rubber plant last night. They used tear gas. The strikers responded with a barrage of tear-gas capsules of their own which forced the officers to retreat. Reinforcements were called, rushing here by trucks from neighboring towns. The police renewed the assault this morning and forced the strikers out.

At least 150 police were hurt in the fighting, 46 of them seriously wounded to require hospital treatment. About 80 strikers were injured, many seriously.

MEMBER OF ADVERTISING REPRINTS INSTITUTION

Legislator Asks House to Block Restoration Of ERP Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Taber, R. N. Y., Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, today asked the House to block a bill to restore cuts in the $1.125,710,228 Foreign Aid Bill.

He said the previously passed House bill, providing millions in aid for global aid, was "sufficient" and demanded a halt to "arbitrary action" to boost the funds.

Taber issued his statement a few hours after the Senate approved the $1,125,710,228 figure by a 60 to 5 vote at a session lasting into the early hours of this morning.

It was Taber who sparked the original House move to slash the aid funds. His statement today criticized a nervous breakdown of the House would reject the Senate version. That would leave it up to a joint conference to work out some acceptable compromise before Saturday's scheduled adjournment.

Rene Neuwander, Taber also took a couple of cracks at some newspapers and "unbiased" columnists who had criticized the House cuts. He termed it a "hysterical exhibition" by these newspapers.

"Take for instance," he said, "the sorry spectacle of the New York Herald Tribune. That paper overreacted to a nervous breakdown over the House action. For several days last week it became nothing more than a hand-to-hand well-forged New York newspaper."

As for some of the columnists, Taber said, "they had taken it for granted that the House would abdicate its functions in order to appease the world-wide rightist lobby."

The Senate Action added well over $145 million to the House-approved bill. It did this chiefly by restoring the worldwide assistance program to a 12-month spending basis instead of the 18 months demanded by the Senate. In actual cash, the Senate bill upped the House amount by $145 million and will still $408 million short of the amount President Truman asked.

Both Senator Vandenberg, R. Mich., and Secretary of State Marshall urged the Senate to restore all of the House cuts. His teaching has been in the House had used a "meal-a-technique" which "cuts the enter-

HOUSE DRAFT BILL BATTLE RE-NEWED

Opponents See 'Outside' Chance to Defeat Disputed Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) - The House Draft Bill, already drastically revised, has more trouble today.

Opponents said they have an "outside chance" of beating the bill before the day is over. In two tentative decisions yesterday the House voted out the term of draft service from two years to one and to limit plans for a special registration and draft of medical men. Both actions may be subject to later roll-call vote.

The tallest remaining hurdle appeared to be a proposal by House Democrats to pass the bill but put off an actual drafting at least until after Jan. 31, pending a stepped up recruiting drive.

The plan has the support of Rules Chairman Leo E. Allen, R. Ill., and Rep. Harney R. Jones, D. Ind., who oppose the draft and have been critical of Army recruiting activities.

The yesterday button-holing House members and told reporters his plan "has a very good chance of being adopted, probably will come to a vote late in the day."

Opponents of the two-year draft measure were jubilant after the House voted 156 to 88 to cut the period of service from 24 months to 12. The amendment was sponsored by Rep. Couderc, R. N. Y., and drew enthusiastic support from Republicans and Democrats.

Rep. Wm. R. Roemer, Mo., who has been leading opposition to the bill, now says he has an "outside chance to beat it."

The Couderc amendment came to the test of its arrival by the chairman Andrews, R. N. Y., of the House Armed Services Committee on the long-range T-E-W Housing Bill which passed the Senate under the drive of Senators Tom Ellender and Walter.

A flurry of parliamentary maneuvers executed last night made it virtually impossible for the House vote on the long-range T-E-W Housing Bill which passed the Senate under the drive of Senators Tom Ellender and Walter.

First read, proponents face a choice between no housing legislation or the new bill introduced hurriedly yesterday by Rep. Wolcott, while the Rules Committee was tabling the T-E-W measure.

The new bill does not contain the controversial public housing sections that doomed T-E-W in the Rules Committee. It calls for: 1. Renewal of government mortgage insurance on new houses up to 90 per cent of value.

2. Priorities for veterans in buying war - built government housing.

3. A speeded-up system of figuring depreciation allowances on new apartment multiple dwelling construction. In effect, this means tax reductions for investors in rental housing.

4. A feature of the program will be the presentation of material on the early Quakers in Mamaroneck by a booklet produced by the committee in the Senior High School. Ludwig has had the privilege of studying Quaker records covering Mamaroneck in New York City.

Another highlight of the program will be a short history of the Quaker abolition work he played in the Spanish American War. Mr. Kirtland's reminiscences as an officer on the Yosemite during the war of 1898. The Quaker cartoon which was played during the afternoon.

DEWEY CAMP SEES VANDENBERG AS MAN TO BEAT AT CONVENTION BY HENRY LEADER ALBANY (AP)—Governor Dewey regards Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg as the man to beat at Philadelphia, sources close to him said today. Although the Michigan Senator says he is not a candidate, the Dewey forces report they fear him more than they do two of New York's declared rivals for the Republican Presidential nomination—Senator Thomas A. Taft and Harold E. Stassen. Dewey people are not disappointed in the strength of Taft, Stassen, but they feel Dewey will win the nomination without a prolonged struggle if the Vandenberg groundswell does not erupt in to a new scale drive for the Senator in the early balloting. The Dewey strategists have no tangible evidence of any open organized campaign for Vandenberg. As far as they are aware there is not a single GOP state chairman or national committee member except in Michigan, who has publicly declared for Vandenberg. The feeling persists among them that if anything happens to thwart the Governor's fight for Presidential nomination, that thing will be a convention swing to Vandenberg. Dewey returned late yesterday from New Castle, N. H. where he attended the National Governors' Conference and button-holed fellow Republican Governors for private talks. The five divisions and their board presentation follow: Retail Division, 6 directors; manufacturing Division, 4 directors; Harbor Division, one director; Professional Division, one director; and a new Civic Division, associate members, one director. It is proposed that the affairs of the Chamber be run by the board of directors, with full membership meetings each year. The various divisions will be expected to set up their own organizations and elect chairmen and such other officers as they may require. They will be expected to meet monthly to discuss subjects of interest to them. The proposals have been developed after prolonged study of sets of by-laws suggested by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce in Westchester County. The Chamber in the state and from discussions among the officers as to the value of modifications and additions directly applicable to Mamaroneck. We hope that a large number of members will attend this meeting. The main provisions will be outlined and the members asked to study them seriously during the month. All members will receive copies of the by-laws by mail at least 10 days before the "mail meeting."

M. H. S. Students Visit Court, Learn Legal Procedures

Students in senior American history at Mamaroneck High School know more about court procedure and detective methods today as a result of their last field trip of the year. The boys and girls called on Judge Henry T. Hornidge in his court room at the Municipal building yesterday. They are members of a class taught by William Pulcher, dealing with problems in American life. The topic which prompted the trip was "Crime and Punishment." Judge Hornidge explained the jurisdiction of the court and the difference between a felony and a misdemeanor. A punishment of less than a year is considered a misdemeanor, he said, over a year is a felony. Judge Hornidge said that the Court has exclusive jurisdiction in the village, he said. The Court also has the right to commit a defendant on felony charges, to amend the charge and hold the case for the Grand Jury. Offenses against ordinances and certain types of state laws also come within the jurisdiction of this Court. "I am more and more impressed with the fact that the law gives such a great deal of protection to the individual against the law," Judge Hornidge said. He then traced the course of a defendant from the time he is arrested to the time of sentencing. Mr. Pulcher thanked the judge for making the police from law on legal procedures, and then introduced the students to Police Chief Detective Bryant showed the boys and girls fingerprinting, taking prints from different objects, methods of photographing suspects, files of past offenders, and other items of interest. "You don't catch me trifling with the police from now on," remarked one of the students after the trip. "I didn't dream they had such a head start on a guy."

High School Football Games At Night Win Public Favor

Harry Alpar, 132 Chatterbox Avenue, Larchmont: "I think it's a wonderful idea. It's something new and would undoubtedly prove very successful here. There are lots of people interested in sports who are not free to go to afternoon games, and who would be enthusiastic about seeing a good game at night—and Mamaroneck High School can really produce some good games."

Charles Schmidt, proprietor of Larchmont Sports Shop, Boston Road, Larchmont: "I would certainly like to see night football games here, and think they would go over just as successfully as night baseball has. Many people who cannot leave their businesses on Saturday afternoons would be able to patronize the games, and it would give local merchants a chance to cheer for their home-town team."

Harold Saunders, 319 Jefferson Avenue, Mamaroneck: "Yes, I do. I think it gives the parents a chance to see their youngsters in action who might otherwise be occupied on Saturday when the games are usually played."

Charles L. Dayman, 143 Prospect Avenue, Mamaroneck: "Yes, I think it will be a very good thing. They have them all over the South and Mid-West and they draw tremendous crowds. I think the night games will be a wonderful drawing card for the High School."

Thomas J. Greenberg, 116 Elm Street, Mamaroneck: "Yes, I will give everyone who wants an opportunity to see the game. It also gives more people the opportunity to buy out and support their local team."

YORKTOWN HEIGHTS — Demonstrating the need for an Underhill Road overpass across the Bionic Parkway, Yorktown Heights residents spent a pleasant half-hour yesterday interrupting heavy northbound traffic.

While auto drivers toward Lower Westchester at an estimated 2,000 an hour snarled traffic, drivers of 40 cars shuttled back and forth across the parkway, overpassing the overpass.

The 5:20 P. M. bus to Tarrytown was on the job, and while parkway cars stopped on signals every few minutes, the bus proceeded on its regular route.

MILITARY CHIEFS PREPARE TO BUILD 2 MILLION FORGE

No Inductions Stated Until 90 Days After Truman Signs Draft Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The military chiefs were ready to enter speedily into action building a 2 million man draft force when President Truman signed the draft bill on the 20th.

Not until 90 days after the Truman sign the Selective Service law will the induction of men begin. The law provides that 25- to 31-year olds will be inducted into the armed forces.

But the defense chiefs were rushing plans to set up the training camps for the thousands of peacetime draftees. Congress gave them over $1 billion to do the job of six months in the Army, Navy and Air Forces.

Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Army Chief of Staff, said the draft bill is a long step toward preventing foreign conflict. He told a news conference in Los Angeles yesterday it will "back draft" in the world and will strengthen our foreign policy.

Presidential Race Widens As Republican Convention Gets Off To Hectic Start

Dewey and Taft Churn Ahead of Field at Killing Pace

CONVENTION HALL (AP) — The first session of the 24th Republican National Convention recessed today at 11:59 P. M. with 9 P. M.

By JACK BELL. CONVENTION HALL, Philadelphia (AP) — Banners waving, Republicans streamed into Convention Hall today, cocky confident they are picking the next President but still as uncertain as ever over the first man in line.

All the preliminary sparring before the first gavel's fall left the race for the coveted nomination apparently still wide open.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Gen. Robert A. Taft acknowledged they were out in front, but looking the votes at this time to assure the nomination. Each said he depended on all these powerful delegations finally line up.

So did Harold E. Stassen. Stassen said he would be a "strong third" in the first ballot and the winner on the ninth.

Senator Arthur Vandenberg's friends were not calling their shots in that manner. But they claimed Vandenberg was in a good position to step out toward the end and run off with the big prize. Backers of half dozen others talked similarly.

The actual balloting will not start before Wednesday or maybe Thursday. Meantime, the GOP's biggest assumption will be to labor the Democrats and the party will adopt its platform.

Today's first session was just sort of a warm up for Thursday. The convention talks plus whamming of the Democrats by GOP National Chairman Charles McNamara.

In the nomination race every delegate has a vote. In the Pennsylvania and Illinois delegations. The final winner may depend on all these powerful delegations finally line up.

They talked things over last night. (Turn to Page 3, Please)

BLUDGEON VICTIM GROWING WEAKER

Lover Who Confessed Beating In Greenburgh Held In County Jail

WHITE PLAINS — Mrs. Helen Kassaban, 51-year-old widow, who was brutally beaten Thursday night by a man with whom she had carried on a love affair for 27 years, continues today in a critical condition in White Plains Hospital.

Hospital authorities told police that Mrs. Kassaban, a "somewhat weaker" meanwhile, Michael Akbarian, 40-year-old, Tuesday, July 6, and continue until Thursday, Aug. 31, it was announced yesterday by the Rev. Thomas B. Kelly, pastor of Holy Trinity Church, Mamaroneck.

The camp, founded three years ago by Father Kelly for boys 6 to 14, will be conducted Monday through Friday from 9 A. M. to 4:30 P. M. "rain or shine."

The camp is staffed by counselors who are seminarians from St. Joseph's Seminary, Yonkers. The boys are placed in proper age groups and are under competent and experienced supervision all times.

Activities will include baseball, football, volleyball, basketball, tennis, boxing, swimming, and arts and crafts. Adequate rest periods are included in the daily program to prevent over-exercising.

"It is the aim of the camp," said Father Kelly, "to build healthy and healthy young Americans boys and it is toward this end that every activity is directed. If there is anyone interested in registering a boy in our camp, they may call at the Holy Trinity Rectory or phone Mamaroneck 9-3410."

After his confession, when he was taken to the scene to react to the assault, Akbarian pleaded with police that they protect him from publicity. Told that his name could not be withheld, Akbarian begged that the police misspell it.

Akbarian was captured because of the quick wit of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Ferguson of West Hartsdale Avenue, Greenburgh.

They were returning home from the movies when they saw a car drive away from in front of their house. Seeing Mrs. Kassaban lying near the driveway, they pursued the car to a traffic light where they were able to see the driver and note the license number.

The car is owned by Mrs. Kassaban. Through the license number, police were able to identify her and then locate Akbarian, who is said to have taken $200 from Mrs. Kassaban's purse after she had been beaten to the ground, and to have stolen $1,200 more from her apartment.

Women's Committee For Dewey Works Hard Amid Bustle Of GOP Convention Delegates

By MABLEEN McKEERMAN. STAG Correspondent. PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A bright idea blossomed last month in the mind of Mrs. Manuel Lee Robbins of 26 Eastwood Lane, Scarborough, when she first met Mrs. Carl T. Hogan of New York.

Mrs. Hogan, secretary of the Women's Committee for Dewey for President, Mrs. Robbins' idea was that the Dewey campaign headquarters at the Philadelphia convention should be planned to please women, since women cast the most votes.

When she offered her idea to Lane Todd of Tarrytown, state vice chairman, Mrs. Weiss and Mrs. Hogan saw it to be Governor Dewey, they liked the idea so well that the full responsibility for the headquarters was dropped squarely in the laps of the New York Republican women.

The result is that the most harassed women in Philadelphia today are New York's National Committeewoman, Mrs. Charles W. Weiss Jr. of Rochester, and Mrs. Carl T. Hogan of New York.

It's Summer! A Good Start. Summer officially arrived in Mamaroneck on a brilliant sun at 8:11 A. M. today, but clearly else this afternoon gave warning signs of approaching thunderstorms for tomorrow.

The advent of Summer this morning was on the cool side for a June 21 and the temperature was in the 60s. The day, however, set some sort of a record because it was the second sunny day in a row in long weeks of steady rains. At noon, despite the clouds, the sun drove the mercury up to the 80 mark.

The Weather Bureau says, however, that Summer Solstice or no, it will be cloudy tonight and rain tomorrow. The mercury is expected to give into the low 50s tonight.

The motif is explained in the foreword, which states: "We invite you to ride with us aboard our special train on the M. H. S. R. (Much Happiness and Success Railroad). The crew is expert, the equipment good and the passenger list interesting. The journey is not long—just a year of life at Mamaroneck High School. So, All Aboard! This string of 'Variety' leaves on time!"

TEL AVIV, Israel, (AP) — An Arab demand for Israel to hand over the landing of an Iranian arms ship threatened today to plunge the new Jewish State into civil war.

$70,000 Improvement Plan Deferred To Hold Line On Tax Rate

In an effort to hold the line on the tax rate, the Larchmont Board of Trustees last night passed down a $70,000 equipment improvement program and authorized only the purchase of equipment amounting to approximately $12,000, the money for which is in the present budget.

Mayor Walter B. C. Washburn said he was in favor of authorizing any amount of money this year, if possible, and felt that the village should only buy those items which are most needed and for which it has the money.

Trustee Arthur Richards had prepared a report showing what equipment is needed for the village to function satisfactorily, necessitating bond issues totaling almost $50,000. A balance of $12,000 remains from a previous bond equipment issue.

The purchases authorized include two three-ton Buckway trucks, one two-ton Dodge truck, and a chlorination machine. The cost of the trucks was estimated at $184,400 and the machine at approximately $1,156 from the surplus.

This balance in addition to other money to be made up from the present budget, was authorized to be spent for a chlorination machine at the sewage disposal plant, at an estimated cost of $2,000.

CHAMBER REVIEWS BY-LAW CHANGES

A new set of by-laws for the Mamaroneck Chamber of Commerce will probably be approved before the end of the summer, but it is almost certain that there will be a number of changes in those offered for study at last night's meeting of the Chamber at Mamaroneck Hall.

The proposed by-laws were submitted by Ernest Wacker, president of the Chamber, and the principal changes were explained by Arthur Dunn, Jr., executive secretary.

At the end of the discussion, upon the suggestion of Fred Rubin, it was decided to hold a special meeting within the next three or four weeks at which only the by-laws will be discussed.

Shades of 1816

Do you think the weather has been bad?

Read the 1948 Farmer's Almanac by Robert B. Thomas and you'll find that in 1816, there was no summer at all.

"Birds froze to death in June" says the almanac. "In getting the entire season the sun arose each morning as though in a cloud of smoke, lightning, hail and rain, and setting at night behind a thick cloud of snow, leaving hardly a trace of having passed over the face of the earth."

But take heart. This particular almanac says for July: "Unless you take care the sun will pop down. Put a hat on that fool-head head of yours when you go out into the heat."

Safety Of Larchmont Beaches 'Questionable' Following Storm

Editor's Note: Because of recent temporary closing of some Westchester bathing beaches caused by pollution, an official statement of the situation has been obtained from County Health Commissioner William A. Holla, M.D.

The start of the summer season has raised again the question of safety of bathing at one or more of the many recreational areas available in Westchester County. No one can deny that pollution, as used in a broad sense, exists in all waters adjacent to and used by urban populations. Water supply sewage disposal and other pollutants which are harmful substances found in natural bodies of water. Not all of these substances are of public health significance, yet they may make bathing, which is a healthful and enjoyable activity, a disgusting sight but does not harm the amount of bacterial contamination. Inadequately treated or raw sewage is significant when it is discharged within proximity to the bathing area.

Water supplies are generally made safe by excluding the general public from the vicinity of open reservoirs. This is inherently impossible at bathing beaches. However, drinking water quality will never be obtainable at beaches nor such quality necessary.

The effect of prolonged rainy periods such as have occurred this Spring is to wash all manner of debris, including fertilizers and manure and occasionally overflowing sewers and cesspools into the natural rivers which drain our population areas. With the result that the record of bacterial sampling of the tidal waters indicates a polluted condition. Here again the natural purification taking place in the ocean greatly reduces the bacterial count.

To secure better information than previously obtained, additional sampling points have been established along the shore of Mamaroneck Bay.

Taft, Stassen Tell Allies

As Taft and Stassen outlined the situation in separate news conferences, their aims are this:

First to convince Dewey and the convention that the new York delegation is not to be nominated.

Second, to let the convention believe that Taft and Stassen will have a candidate to oppose the efforts to line up the delegation for Dewey.

Stassen told reporters there is "great agreement" among the delegates over the attempt to "swing the Pennsylvania delegation to Dewey. Senator Edward Martin called this the "Dewey Grumpy Deal." The reference was to Joe Stassen's long-time Republican ally, the "Dewey Grumpy Deal." Stassen also said the aim of the stop-frogs is to get an "open-

'Big Snow' Forecaster Sees Sizzling Heat For August

If you think you have seen lots of rain you haven't seen anything yet.

Frank Spock, Valhalla weather expert, told The Daily Times today that the month of August will be "very wet" with plenty of storms, high winds and high temperatures. The rain will really pour down in buckets. It may hit 101 degrees, he said.

The cause of the wet spring on record he attributes to cycle motions and planetary influences on the earth's atmosphere. From the records, he said it all adds up to a wet year comparable to 1916 as a whole.

His immediate forecast is for more rain and heat due to "a deep storm which is brewing in the southwest and moving northward." July he believes will be "a normal July month" but when August comes "look out."

Mr. Spock, who rapidly rose to fame last winter by predicting the blizzard of '47, has been predicting the weather for the last 21 years.

SULLIVAN DEFENSE ARGUES FOR RELEASE

JAMES A. SULLIVAN remained in County Jail today after being refused an immediate release while his lawyer battled to upset a forger conviction that carried a one-year term and a $1,000 fine.

District Attorney George A. Panelli vigorously opposed the granting of the certificate by Judge Schmidt after Bleakley pointed out that Sullivan was entitled to his liberty because of a variety of developments that occurred during the trial.

The argument lasted over two hours and during the proceedings Panelli and Bleakley presented oral briefs and memoranda from both sides before making a decision.

RUSSIA, SATELLITES DRAFT REICH PLAN

WARSAW (AP)—The Foreign Ministers of Russia and seven satellite countries were reliably reported today to be putting the plan to set up a separate government in Germany.

One government observer said that would be their most likely answer to the Western Allies' proposal for a separate government in Germany. This source added, however, that Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and his colleagues probably would go one step further than the Western Powers.

If a separate government is set up, he said, it will be in the opinion of Russia and her neighbors, would be a government aimed at German unity. Leipzig has been mentioned as a government center.

IRGUNISTS WILL FIGHT ISRAELI GOVERNMENT

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Irgun Zvai Leumi surveyed heavy losses of manpower today in an ill-fated attempt at gun-running and vowed to rise against the Israeli Government.

The crisis over the Irgun arms shipment led to the resignation of two cabinet Ministers yesterday even while government forces made a series of arrests.

Peter H. Bergson of New York, head of the Hebrew Committee of National Liberation, and twenty-five-year-old Monroe Pelt of Chicago, captain of the arms ship, were reported by Jewish sources to have been arrested. The government declined comment.

Israeli shock troops were reported to have captured 50 Jews, believed to be among Irgunists, in a series of raids on Revisionist Party headquarters and the shipping plant of the Irgun.

Jewish sources said Bergson was taken in custody near Kiryat Vitkin. Kiryat Vitkin is five miles north of the port of Netanya, where the arms ship first tried to land last week.

It is not known how many Irgunists were held or released.

Truman announced that Abraham Lavsky, a New York travel bureau agent, had helped arrange the shipping of the arms ship, which was held in the fighting.

One of those wounded was Samuel Merin, secretary of the American League for a Free Palestine.

ARGUMENTS FOR RELEASE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Draft Bill has finally reached President Truman's desk. He has until midnight of July 5 to sign it.

Approval is regarded as certain since Mr. Truman himself asked Congress to revive selective service. The actual signing date, however, has special meaning for two reasons:

1. Until a final act is taken, the National Guard or other military Reserve groups offering resistance to training.

2. The bill provides that no one will be actually inducted for 90 days after it becomes law.

Israeli Told To 'Take Suitable Action' To Send Food

CAIRO, (AP)—The Israeli Government given the United Nations green light to push a convoy through Egyptian resistance says it has told its general staff to take "suitable" action.

Its announcement was made in Tel Aviv last night after a U. N. spokesman and Jewish leaders said the Egyptian army early yesterday stopped a Jewish convoy bound for Neheb Desert settlements in Southern Palestine and shot at a white U. N. truce-mission plane piloted by an American.

"The communists aid the Israeli Government will take action in a manner and at a time and place chosen by its General Staff will deem suitable," Jewish authorities were told by the U. N. truce mission yesterday they were "free to act as they thought fit" in the matter.

The Israeli Prime Minister Mahmoud Faluh Nakhrya Pasha told a news conference in Cairo last night his government will reply today to protests on both incidents submitted by United States Ambassador U. N. mediator.

Nakhrya Pasha said an Egyptian pilot fired on the U. N. aircraft because "he suspected it was an enemy plane."

Our Democracy Falls Short

In Many Ways, Residents Say

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the 33rd in a Saturday series of interviews with citizens. Suggested topics from readers are invited. Today's question is: "How is our democracy not a true democracy, and what can be done about it?"

Henry B. Zieger, 6 Hawthorne Road, Larchmont, chairman of the Town of Mamaroneck Democratic Committee: "We are not a true democracy in my opinion, because we do not yet give young people equal educational and economic opportunities according to their abilities, and independent of their economic and racial origin. When we correct that fault, we will have made a long step toward strengthening our democracy."

Mrs. Clayton Rawson, 219 Barclay Avenue, Mamaroneck: "Our democracy is not a democracy when we practice discrimination against any fellow citizen. What is the use of the word 'democracy' if it means 'I will do as I please'?"

Harry Richmond, 77 Hammon Drive, Larchmont, membership chairman, League of Women Voters: "Any evidence of discrimination I believe is contrary to the principles of democracy. There is no nation can consider itself a democracy unless it is practicing or condoning the existence of such an unfair restriction on the freedom of its citizens."

Frank O'Donnell, 748 Forest Avenue, Larchmont, a national committee member of the State Youth Democratic and forerunner of the National Youth Democratic: "In theory, our democracy is a dual concept. It is a government of the people, by the people, and for the people."

DISPLAYING her collection of dolls of the 58 United Nations, which she designed and hopes to market, is Mrs. Hing Chu of the Mott House, Larchmont Acres. Mrs. Chu is also an outstanding artist, author of children's books, and a former sculptress.

HERE ARE some of the painted kites designed by Hing Chu, above, of Larchmont Acres, which she hopes to market all over the United States. Her Atomic Man kite, shown at his feet, is his latest creation.

By MARION GOULD
The family with a million ideas may soon be a family with a million dollars.

That's the Hing Chu family of the Mott House, Larchmont Acres, whose artistic talent has won them fame at exhibitions in the United States and Europe.

Mr. Chu, a native of Honolulu who was written up in the Hilo Hawaii Tribune in February, 1928, as "a young artist with great promise" and who has since borne out that statement, is also a designer of kites of no mean ability.

His wife, the former Helga Jensen, born in Copenhagen, Denmark, but now in U. S. citizenship, is also an outstanding painter, and a designer in her own right.

Mr. and Mrs. Chu are the proud owners of five patents, have 10 or 15 others pending, and have been awarded 15 copyrights on various items, including two books, "The Story of Marco Polo" for children, and "Chinese New Year Festival," a book which they hope to publish soon which takes the reader through many of their early experiences together and is properly illustrated in color.

The venture which Mrs. Chu hopes will make a million dollars for them is the manufacture of mass production of an exclusive design of kites and of the U. N. dolls. "We have the U. S. patent already, we are already incorporated as Viking Creations, Inc., Viking Toy Company and Viking Kite Company, and as soon as we obtain a little more financial backing we hope to go ahead and produce," says Mrs. Chu.

The name "Viking Kite" came about by accident, Mrs. Chu relates. When she approached the Five Larchmont teen-agers were arrested last night by Larchmont police on charges of disorderly conduct for creating a disturbance at Larchmont and Palmer Avenues in front of the Larchmont Spa.

Last Fall, six Mamaroneck and Larchmont youths were arrested for making unnecessary noise at the same location and for a drawing-out trial the charges were dismissed with sharp warnings against any further disturbances.

Police Chief William J. Kersey said several complaints had been received throughout the year over the disturbances which are "a regular Friday night affair."

The chief said he had "gone along with the boys until now, but since they failed to heed warnings he had no other choice than to bring the disturbances to an end with drastic action."

The seriousness of the arrests is indicated in the charge of disorderly conduct preferred against the youths, which is a violation of the penal law. If found guilty, each boy is liable to a maximum jail sentence of six months in jail or a $500 fine or both. The maximum sentence for violation of a village ordinance as charged last Fall is a 10 day fine.

The 11 New Rochelle beaches, including those on Glen Island and Hudson Park, and privately owned beaches along Davenport Neck, will remain closed at least over the weekend because of the flow of raw sewage into the Sound as the result of the recent heavy rain, according to an announcement by Dr. Chester A. The raw sewage is flowing into New Rochelle Creek at the old Residence Park outlet at the foot of Drake Avenue and is overflowing the Whitewood Avenue pumping station. The outlet and station have been so jammed that the sewage has been bypassing both and flowing over the ground into the creek.

Plea for Clothes

A plea for clothing contained in a letter to Mayor B.J. Santoro from a resident of Bremer-Sundwig in the British Zone of Germany was read by the mayor last night at the Village Board meeting.

The mayor urged anyone who has spare clothes to send them to the following address: Walter Tschersich, 21b Bremer-Sundwig, Trerichstrasse 15, Provinz Westfalen, British Zone, Deutschland-Germany.

Following is the letter: "We have heard the Americans are miligating need in Europe. Is it possible to help us? We live in a hard time. We have lost our home in Munster. It is destroyed totally by the bombs. Now we live in little garrets. I have lost all my clothes and shoes by the bombs and the plundering of the Russians. During this I was a prisoner of war. Now I wear the clothes of my brother. He is prisoner of war in Russia. I have asked a ticket for Russia two years, but few shoes will be distributed.

"If you have worn clothes and shoes for myself, I am very glad. I am large. The size of the shoes is 47."

"Please don't consider my request as immediate. It can be of need. It is hard for me to ask for clothes. I did this never in my life. But need is sharp. Your help is immeasurable for us. May God reward you for it."

Real Expansion

Within the last five years, 1,223 students have received their diplomas from Mamaroneck High School. Principal Joseph C. McLean told the audience at the annual commencement exercises last night, indicating the growth of the school since 1928.

That figure, he said, is nearly half of the 2,699 students who graduated between 1928 and 1942, a period of 15 years.

Scholarships and prizes awarded between 1943 and 1947 amounted to approximately $51,290, he said, while last year's amount was approximately $14,800 bringing the total to more than $66,000.

In a parting word the young men who will be directly concerned with the school, McLean said, "You can't guess Uncle Sam," advising them to follow their plans as though they were no part. This advice, he said, is based on experience made over the last six years.

Herbert T. Scott of 9 Crescent Road, Larchmont, and the Rev. Canon of 37 Weaver Street, Larchmont, have been presented the National Quality Award for 1948, sponsored by the National Association of Life Underwriters and the Life Insurance Sales Research Bureau. The award was given on the basis of persistence and quality of life insurance sold and maintained in force during the year.

Mr. Scott is associated with the Cabotus Bechtel Agency of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, while Mr. Canell is associated with the New York office of the Prudential Insurance Company of America.

Disappearing

Village Manager William H. Johnson reported to the Village Board last night that work started yesterday on the removal of the old trolley tracks on Palmer Avenue.

The removal is being done by the Westchester County Public Works Department.

Mr. Johnson praised the efficient manner in which the tracks are being removed and was especially pleased with the warm service, which informs motorists of the excavation as far west as Weaver Street and as far east as the Mamaroneck Postoffice.

Good Record

Payments on the 1948 village tax by residents reached $287,832 yesterday morning. Treasurer Fred H. Bull reported to the Village Board last night, and the village expects to have more than enough money to pay off its tax obligations and of $200,000 by the July 12 deadline.

Mr. Bull warned that the penalty-free period for payment of taxes will end July 1, after which a five per cent penalty will be imposed for the first month.

Gala Celebrations

Members and guests of two Mamaroneck beach clubs will be entertained with fireworks displays over the waters of the Village Beach Club on Saturday from 9 to 11 P. M., and at the Ocean Beach Club Monday from 10 to 11 P. M.

Grand Jury Indicts In Budgetary Slaying

WHITE PLAINS — Michael Abarbanel, 47, a rag cleaner, was indicted by the Grand Jury this afternoon for murder and robbery, both in the slaying of Mrs. Helen Kassaban, a fifty-year-old widow, in Greenburgh.

Man Fined $100 For Bus Assault

A Bronx resident told Judge John R. Cahill in Larchmont Police Court last night that he went to work after a truck had struck his bus to which he was riding with his pregnant wife and two children yesterday afternoon, causing him to assault the truck driver, who had to be treated at the New Rochelle Hospital. No one was injured in the accident.

The assailant, Herman John Delaney, 21 of the Bronx, pleaded guilty and was fined $100, given a suspended sentence of 30 days in the county jail, and placed on probation for one year.

According to Larchmont police, Delaney assaulted William R. Graham of Bridgeport, Conn., driver of a truck owned by the Simpson Motor Express Company of Bridgeport, knocking him to the ground and kicking him.

Graham, who is 45, was taken to the New Rochelle Hospital where he received eight eye lacerations and lacerations of the right ear, contusions and abrasions of the left side of the face. He was later released.

Police said the assault took place following the accident which occurred at 2:42 P. M. at Boston Post Road and Kane Avenue. The assailant was arrested by Police Officer James J. Plescia.

Village Manager William H. Johnson reported to the Village Board last night that he has written a letter to the State Traffic Commission, the Public Safety Council and the State Highway Department, asking for a survey of conditions on Boston Post Road in front of Holy Trinity Church.

A bid of $600 was filed by the Sound Construction Company, Inc. for Section 4, Block 21, Lot 14 on Ealdred Avenue where a carpenter shop and building material storage building will be erected.

Sophie Zack bid $33.35 for Section 9, Block 47, Lots 1123 and 1223 between Forest and Seney Avenues.

State drink licenses were approved for Domenico Anni of 624 Mamaroneck Avenue, Philip Trifiletti of 158 Mamaroneck Avenue, and Henry Bergendoff of 876 Mamaroneck Avenue.

Permission was granted to the General Outdoor Advertising Company to erect three new poster panels at Frank and Keeler Avenues and Boston Post Road to replace one blown down.

A petition contained in a letter from Howard U. Duckertell and signed by seven residents of the Rockland Avenue-Harmon Drive-Hill Street area, asking for higher water pressure, was referred to the village engineer, who will calculate estimates from the Westchester Joint Waterworks.

Mayor B. J. Santoro suggested that the village suggest to the General Outdoor Advertising Company that it paint a sign on its billboard at the end of Mamaroneck Avenue near the Westchester Joint Waterworks as part of the national highway safety campaign. The sign was most recently used to announce the Golden Jubilee Celebration of the village.

Problems in Changing World Stressed at Commencement

The unseen educational values with which high school graduates must face five problems in an ever-changing world were stressed last night at Bellows High School, as 53 members of the Class of 1948 received their diplomas from Raymond O'Connell, principal, of the school board.

Superintendent Alvin W. Hicks told the graduates that their ability to think their strength of character and their constructive attitudes "gives us confidence that they can face the problems and bear the responsibilities of citizenship in a worthy manner."

The "bulwark of Democracy," he declared, "is not high walls around our country nor an iron curtain but an informed and thinking populace where bad ideas wither and die because they are not supported by intelligent minds. Our graduates realize the importance of the unseen values which emerge from their classrooms, student activities and community service. These three series of direction should lead them on to higher attainments and a fuller life."

Before presenting the class to Mr. O'Connell for their diplomas, Dr. Hicks presented the R. G. Brewer prize of $10 for the highest average and the $50 award for the highest average and the $50 award for the highest average and the $50 award for the highest average.

The Class of 1948 English prize of $5 for the highest four-year average went to Suzanne Goyne and the Class of 1942 Science prize to William Kintz with the highest marks in physics and chemistry recent.

He introduced Richard Lawrence, winner of the Mamaroneck University Club scholarship of $100 for a two-year scholarship of $100 per year at Keuka College, and Mary McEvoy, winner of the $100 per year scholarship of $200 per year at St. Joseph's University.

D. Roland Gensler, Jr., president of the class addressed the audience on the subject, "The Right to Know," tracing the mantle of democracy.

A stirring portrayal of democracy at work was enacted last night at the annual commencement exercises of the Mamaroneck High School in the auditorium of the Junior High School.

Among the 271 diplomas awarded were seven presented to young men who had served in the armed forces of the United States during World War II, while another veteran, who served in the Italian army which in the nature of the war was our enemy, also received his diploma.

In presenting the latter for his diploma, Principal Joseph C. McLean said, "He has been a good citizen in our democracy. We proudly present him—Joseph Lopreato."

He explained how Lopreato, "entirely on his own volition, has decided to make America his home," having been turned out from his family in Italy for making such a choice.

Applause filled the auditorium as young Lopreato stepped up on the stage to receive his diploma, while his seven veteran classmates took to attention in his honor.

"We have sensed tonight," Mr. McLean said, "the workings of democracy."

Peace — An Easter Road "Progress." A packed auditorium witnessed the presentation of 271 diplomas to the seniors and the awarding of more than 30 scholarships and prizes.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The State Department cautioned suggested today that the United States might be able to take an active role in the German crisis should the situation in Berlin further deteriorate. The department indicated it is itself efforts at a settlement right now should be concentrated in talks going on among German occupation powers and that the time for U. WASHINGTON, (AP)—United States officials were reported today to crack Russia's land blockade of Berlin. Although White House and State Department officials maintained a tight-lipped silence, indications mounted that a diplomatic stroke aimed directly at the Kremlin might be unleashed tomorrow or Thursday.

The nature of any such plan was cloaked in strictest secrecy, but signs pointed to a stern note demanding that Russia lift the eight-day old blockade and quit other unity-hampering tactics.

The Air Force meanwhile stood ready to rush more cargo planes to the beleaguered German capital if it needed to help ferry food and other urgently needed supplies to 2,500,000 residents cut off in the western zones.

An Air Force spokesman said no further requests for planes had been received from U. S. Occupation authorities. But he told a reporter scores more of the transport craft were available.

Air Force officials and military officials held a fast-track series of conferences here and abroad which pointed to an early break in the Berlin impasse.

UNIVERSITY CLUB HONORS GO TO 3

Hillsley and Vier Awarded Scholarships; Drexler Gold Medal

From yesterday's graduating class of the Mamaroneck High School, two boys have been awarded scholarship honors and a third a gold medal by the University Club of Larchmont.

Richard Hillsley will receive the club's regular scholarship grant of $200 a year for two years. Gerald Vier will receive a special grant of $300 for one year, while David Drexler was awarded the gold medal.

In announcing the awards, Chairman Clarence E. Goss of the University Club's scholarship committee stressed the point that no precedent is being established by the extra award to Vier. It was made because the club has a little extra money in its scholarship fund and the committee felt that it could not be used to better advantage. Vier, he said, ran a close second to Hillsley. This and other special considerations induced the second award.

The committee based its choices upon information gained from conferences with Joseph C. McLean, principal of the High School; from interviews with a final list of eight students and from an analysis of their records.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The State Department cautioned suggested today that the United States might be able to take an active role in the German crisis should the situation in Berlin further deteriorate. The department indicated it is itself efforts at a settlement right now should be concentrated in talks going on among German occupation powers and that the time for U. S. action had not yet arrived.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—United States officials were reported today to crack Russia's land blockade of Berlin. Although White House and State Department officials maintained a tight-lipped silence, indications mounted that a diplomatic stroke aimed directly at the Kremlin might be unleashed tomorrow or Thursday.

The nature of any such plan was cloaked in strictest secrecy, but signs pointed to a stern note demanding that Russia lift the eight-day old blockade and quit other unity-hampering tactics.

The Air Force meanwhile stood ready to rush more cargo planes to the beleaguered German capital if it needed to help ferry food and other urgently needed supplies to 2,500,000 residents cut off in the western zones.

Already some 39 C-54s were winning their way to Germany from as far away as Alaska and the Caribbean.

An Air Force spokesman said no further requests for planes had been received from U. S. Occupation authorities. But he told a reporter scores more of the transport craft were available.

Air Force officials and military officials held a fast-track series of conferences here and abroad which pointed to an early break in the Berlin impasse.
