By ANN BELLINE
To catch up on the back news, Mary Jean Golden hasn't gotten tired of telling about it. She is Nancy Dudson and Ed Pulton double didn't get the job. He attended the big city. Main headquarters for the evening was the 7th. Nice that it got a weekend off.

Clare Silver is going to New Haven this weekend to visit her sister. You couldn't pick a better place for a vacation, Clare.

Elizabeth Beuchling should be congratulated on the amount of scholarship she won to Elmira. To celebrate she'll be visiting her mother at Cornell this weekend. Looks like a nice vacation for everyone.

Dev Robertson is leaving for Massachusetts after school is out on Friday, and the Institute that he would spend her 10 days working and studying. Sounds like a really wonderful. Her name is miss age aimed at the faculty.

Clint Boone will be home this weekend and will have a party at the 26th, which just coincides with his vacation. How convenient a while, and let's hope that he'll bring us some interesting news. There will be quite a few M.I.D. students out working during vacation. The students have been planned and the various committees working. The business start will start work in the near future, following up.

The music department is working time and is half the school, but no one says bad except in fact. The Chess Club, Main Ensemble and the Florida double section are all busy with extra rehearsals. The concert is scheduled for April 16, and you hope you'll start saving your pennies now. You won't be sorry.

The Junior play is being cast this week, under the direction of Mrs. Loh. The cast is small, only about 12 all told, but is expected to break all records in the box office. I'll keep you posted on news of the "Milton Theater."

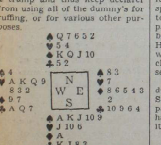

That's all for this week. Have a swell vacation, and don't write too hard.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By SHEPARD BARCLAY
KUFF YOUR OWN WENNER. THERE IS one standard kind of situation in which you should perpetrate the most-banned idea about trumping your partner's ace. That is when you consider it worth a trick or more for you to gain the lead, especially when you use for the purpose a dinky trump which could not be of any earthly use to your side in any other way. Gaining the lead in this manner may be important to lead back a trump and thus keep declarer from using all of the dummy's low trumps, or for various other purposes.

What you do as declarer depends on a "silly play" which is putting into the lead use permitted by you then can come through his hand instead of leading into it. Is there such a thing as rendering that kind of defensive play "impossible"? If so, how is it done?

The Counselor

Legal Residence
 If a person works in New York State but is a resident of Connecticut, must he pay New York State income tax?

R. I.
 State income tax must be paid in the state where the person has the legal residence or carries his money. A person having legal residence in Connecticut is subject to the New York State tax, if he makes his living in New York. If he lives here and works elsewhere, he must still pay tax here.

Grounds for Divorce
 Please print the grounds for divorce in Connecticut. Also, what must one do to procure a divorce in that state, such as establishing residence, etc.

R. F.
 Connecticut grounds for divorce are adultery, fraudulent contract, desertion for three years, incontinency, habitual intemperance, absence for seven years, life insurance, incurable insanity, state prison for seven years, and cruel and inhuman treatment. An individual must be a resident of Connecticut for three years before filing petition for divorce.

Ask The Churches
 Won't you please say something about the fact that churches neglect to put on their own members? The members are in debt, many are in debt, and many are in debt. Why not put on their own members? The members are in debt, many are in debt, and many are in debt.

A. S.
 Isn't this a question for each church to decide? This column is not a place for such questions. In the first place, many communications have been published, and have had lengthy arguments about the matter. In the second place, nobody would suggest that the churches omit the members. In the third place, the omission may be an oversight; it may not be because some churches are not yet sure that they have the members. In the fourth place, the members are in debt, many are in debt, and many are in debt.

Words of Wisdom
 The first duty of a wise advocate is to convince his opponent that he understands their arguments, and sympathizes with their just feelings.—Cicero.

Make an Etiquette
 If you are a man and a husband, do you notice and comment favorably when your wife wears a new or becoming hat or dress?

Today's Horoscope
 If you are a today's birthday child, you work and play hard, do things with a whole-heartedness typical of your strong personality. Because of your kind and generous nature you should have many loyal friends. A person whose temperament should not plunge into matrimony except after careful consideration. Do not be misled if you are awakened by a startling dream on the morning of your birthday. Think of the nice people you know, and how you can prove to them that you appreciate their friendship. One good turn deserves another, or even several. Pay back with double interest the kindness and favors of a friend. Discuss your aspirations with a person whose experience can help you to develop your talents. You may feel jittery about a money problem, but worrying won't help. Go to sleep quietly with the hope that a solution will occur to you during the night.

 Dear Sir—I am writing you on behalf of the Garden Club of Larchmont suggesting that the Village authorities exercise every effort to prevent dogs from running at large, particularly during these coming months when many new Victory Gardens will be planted. Undoubtedly the majority of residents of the Village will have Victory Gardens this year, many in vacant lots where it is not feasible for all to provide fencing. These dogs, as you know, are a nuisance and therefore we feel that it is imperative that the efforts of our fellow citizens should not be hampered by dogs running at large.

ONE THIRD ARE WOMEN

Let it not be said of the women of this city that they are content merely with wearing attractive uniforms and handling nice, clean jobs. The report from the state department of labor reveals that in the factories of this state at present there is one woman worker for every two men on the payrolls. In New York City alone the proportion of women to total employment increased from 35 per cent in January of 1942 to 39 per cent in last January. And for the entire state in that period the increase was from 25 to 31 per cent.

There are, naturally enough, certain types of work for which not even the bravest of women are satisfactory. But in general they have rallied most eagerly to tasks which no more than a dozen years ago were considered fit only for men. In the main, the women who have taken over their men's jobs are of the type who are in the community honor rolls. Why not in the Honor Roll of the churches to which they belong?

Isn't this a question for each church to decide? This column is not a place for such questions. In the first place, many communications have been published, and have had lengthy arguments about the matter. In the second place, nobody would suggest that the churches omit the members. In the third place, the omission may be an oversight; it may not be because some churches are not yet sure that they have the members. In the fourth place, the members are in debt, many are in debt, and many are in debt.

BEST BUY IN THE WORLD

Volunteer representatives who, through the War Finance Committee, will be helping the United States treasury sell up to $13 billion worth of government securities in April have been given an ideal assignment. As one of them remarked the other day, when a logical prospect list and a perfect product meet through the medium of an interested salesman, the results are bound to spell success.

The prospect list includes all citizens who want their country to win the war and who have a few hundred or a few thousand dollars. Each and every one of them is a logical lender of dollars for victory.

Moreover, the product being sold measures up to the investment standards. The securities being offered are obligations of the United States government, backed by 130 million of the most resourceful people in the world. The citizen is asked to lend his money to the government for the purpose of financing the war against the Nazis and the Japs. The government will repay, with interest.

It's a product made to order!
 The drive will start April 12.

FALLACY EXPLODED

It has been a common practice when more taxes were needed by the Federal government, to show that British government income taxes are higher than our Federal income taxes.

Congressman Celler of New York, now shows that it is but a half truth. He says: "The British government collected 90 percent of the total tax collections of that country in the fiscal year 1941-42; whereas in the United States, the Federal government in 1941-42 collected only 61 percent of the total taxes."

"In other respects—notably in the absence of heavy local taxation, in the exemption of capital gains, and in the treatment of corporate dividends, life insurance premiums and pension contributions—the British tax system is less severe than ours."

"In a preliminary report prepared by the Legislative Reference Service of the Library of Congress, taxes reduced to a per capita basis were given as $101—Federal alone in the United States—and $187 in Britain. . . . If state, local and other taxes were added to the $191 estimate—Federal—the total per capita burden in this country would be approximately $260. This estimate does not include increased taxes under the 1942 measure."

"Before we can pass fair and just tax laws, like for example a pay-as-you-go plan, we must first dispel the idea that Englishmen, comparatively, already pay more than we."

"Let us do away with the constantly recurring fallacy that the Englishmen bear a heavier tax burden than we."

SPLENDID CONTRIBUTION RECOGNIZED

The Office of Price Administration has issued a public statement thanking the thousands of newspapers in the United States for the millions of dollars worth of space they donated to the government in repeated publication of the voluminous data regarding War Ration Book No. 2. This was an incalculable saving to the government in money and man hours, and a great convenience to the public.

Col. Joe Bush Says...

WHAT WINSTON CHURCHILL really said was that we'd better war we're going to win. We think this is a question for each church to decide. This column is not a place for such questions. In the first place, many communications have been published, and have had lengthy arguments about the matter. In the second place, nobody would suggest that the churches omit the members. In the third place, the omission may be an oversight; it may not be because some churches are not yet sure that they have the members. In the fourth place, the members are in debt, many are in debt, and many are in debt.

IF JEFFERSON had the three 'R's' that was important, but not the 'G's' that he got to be the three 'R's' that really count, you'll be either a fighter, a farmer, or a father.

ANYHOW, this war is a lot hotter than the last one. Now they just say you're a slammer, back in the last war it was a slacker.

LOTS OF THESE NEW Deal doggers down in Washington are always saying: 'What are we fighting for?' Brother, we're fighting to save our lives, to keep Hitler and the Japs from putting chains around our necks and tramping in our noses, to keep from working the rest of our lives in concentration camps. Ain't that enough a fight?

Here's Newsy Letter To Men In Uniform

EDITOR'S NOTE—Were you planning to write a letter to your boy in the service today? If you were, you would know the results of things which happened here last week, things he'll be interested in hearing about. If you're not writing him today, just clip this column, sign it, and mail it home. This column will be a regular Monday wartime feature of The Daily Times. Send it to him today.

Police here had a very mild victory—held a subliminal spotlight here last week. The Republicans elected "Butsy" Santoro as Mamaroneck's new mayor and retained Ed Kahn as trustee for another two years. Only 250 votes because the Democrats for the second year had no ticket in the field. Not like old pre-war days? And in Larchmont the Democrats and Republicans got together again and re-elected Harold Bossel and Frank Washburn. Only 55 votes were cast.

Two more local war heroes made their debut. Dave Embury was elected by the Town Council to fill one of two vacancies created when Owen Mandville became superior succeeded by McCulloch who was a lieutenant commander training the WAVES down at Hunter College.

Police news was a little more exciting. Sheriff's deputies and Town Police descended on 72 Myrtle Boulevard and arrested a woman and two men they accused of being members of a county number lottery doing a business estimated at $4,000 a week. All three pleaded insanity and were committed to the State Hospital. The woman was fined $100 for a new record. Not bad.

Two more local war heroes made their debut. Ted Krieger, aviation machinist's mate second class was at his home, 45 Dillon Road, after taking part in seven naval engagements among them Midway, the Coral Sea and Guadalcanal. He's also a survivor of the aircraft carrier Hornet. Ted told the Larchmont Legionnaires about his experiences Tuesday night.

What Alexander Stewart also showed up at his home in the Orienta Point Apartments after being aboard the Casper, a destroyer which fought six engagements in a 12-hour ocean battle with submarines last month. He was the only one of the pack who was hit and sank the sixth sub.

Joe Fallace, who's now a chief carpenter's mate at the Coast Guard base at Toledo, is feeling pretty proud because his son, Salvatore, had followed in his footsteps by enlisting in the Navy.

Twenty-four more Larchmont men passed their physical exams and were inducted and another contingent of Mamaroneck men are being given a send-off this week for the pack down at Hunter College.

As the two local post offices were growing under the sun of income tax payments, Supervisor "Meady" McCulloch, who had succeeded in trimming his tax rate from 10 to 6 cents in the three preceding years.

Two county-wide blockades had been scheduled for last week but the Army for some unexplained reason called them both off at the last minute.

Seems like everybody's trying to get a plot for a Victory Garden, and local stores are doing a roaring trade in seeds. Mamaroneck Rotarians took a pledge to buy more War Bonds to help bring you back home sooner.

Archie Difore was elected chief of the Mamaroneck Ski Club. The Mamaroneck Village Club called off its annual $250 scholarship to a local graduate because no one in the town was in the service.

The ban on pleasure driving was lifted but we're only going to get one and a half gallons of gas per week from now on. Dr. Gifford, the village chairman, called on us to contribute 200 tons of metal, rubber and rags before June 30 and we'll do it.

Another gold star was added to our honor roll when the Army reported that Lt. Raymond Scherff, comrade of the pack, had been killed in an airplane accident in India.

John Brody Jr. of Riverwood Road leaves today for one week's training at the Army school in New York for Army recognition.

James Barry, chief of Mamaroneck's Central Warning Service, is leaving for Quantico, Mass., to visit his son who is in the pack.

Among those on furlough were: Pvt. Frank Scherff from the U. S. Marine Base at New River, N. C.; Pvt. Lewis Baggett from Otis Field, Palmyra, Maine; Second Lieut. Robert E. Barry from the U. S. Army Candidate School at Camp Davis, N. C.; Pvt. James Conboy from Camp Breckinridge, Ky.; Lieut. Robert J. Smith and his brother, Pvt. I. C. Richard Furler from Post Meade, Md.

The Larchmont former loan camped and arrived overseas with the Field Service of the American Red Cross. John Brody has entered the Army Air Force Technical School at Yale. Frank Lofredo has been assigned as corporal in the Medical Corps at Camp Campbell, Ky. . . . Pvt. George Chapman, Jr. and Pvt. Vincent Kelly were graduated from the new overseas training center, Aviation Institute of Technology, Long Island City, N. Y. . . . Cadet James Mitchell began training with the Army Air Force at Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Ala.

Mr. Morris Gumpel graduated from Lowry Field Armory School, Col. . . . Fredrick Bowen entered the Army Air Force Flight School at Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Ala. . . . Pfc. Ernest Smith was promoted to sergeant at Post Wood, Texas. . . . Pfc. Robert Savage and Pvt. E. William Kreuzberg, Jr. began the study of aviation mechanics at the Amarillo Army Air Corps school. . . . The Merritt is now training with the ski troops at Camp Hale, Colo. . . . Capt. Charles C. Brantley is training at the Advanced Air School, Post Grant, N. J. . . . Pvt. Bill Johnson is also with the troops at Camp Hale, Colo. . . . Richard Pegg was inducted into the Army at Post Dix. . . . Ed Reiter became a second lieutenant following his graduation from Anti-Aircraft School at Camp Davis, N. C. . . . Thomas Parker and Richard Perera reported to the 488th Central Postal Directory at Great Lakes, Ill. . . . John Brady arrived at Carroll College, Waukegan, Ill. for Army and Navy instruction.

The members of the 1942-43 Officers' Club who will have as his topic, "My Life in a Harem." He has spoken several times in the past before the club. He is a former teacher of history and an authority on the problems of the Near East, having spent some time there during the last war.

ON THE SPORTS FRONT: Baseball practice got under way at Bellows. MHS won the WIAA swimming title at the New Rochelle 'Y. Dick Moxley shattered the county record for freestyle record by 10 seconds. . . . Thirty-five Tiger track athletes reported for training at MHS. . . . Storey was named track coach.

That's all for this week. Let's hear from you soon and if you want your friends to know what you're doing drop a line to the Service Editor, The Daily Times, Mamaroneck, N. Y.

YOUR STATE INCOME TAX

the total expense for "medical care".

It will be held that if the father during the period of the daughter's illness actually furnished her chief support including the medical expenses, he will be entitled to a dependency credit for the period of illness on a proportionate share of the annual $600.00 exemption. Therefore, inasmuch as the father was dependent for a credit may be claimed, the expenditure constitutes a medical expense.

Q. Assume that the daughter referred to in Question 3 was a taxpayer, and that her personal services compensation report was filed by her father and after the period of illness, is the father entitled to include the expenditure in the total medical expense?

A. No.

Q. Assuming that the daughter referred to in Question 3 was in receipt of some income during the period of illness, but that her care of her medical expense during the period of illness was not allowed deduction for the expenditure on a per capita basis?

A. Yes, but only in case she was a dependent.

A. Expenses for the medical care of a dependent of the taxpayer for whom a dependency credit is allowed may be included in the total medical expense.

Q. If a taxpayer incurs medical expenses for a serious illness of a daughter who is over eighteen years of age and who during the period of illness has no income, may such expenses be deducted?

Greenbaum Explains Duties Of Welfare Board To League

Lawrence Greenbaum, of Mamaroneck, chairman of the New York State Social Welfare Board, spoke yesterday at the March meeting of the Larchmont League of Women Voters at the Chatsworth Avenue School.

Explaining the duties and responsibilities of the Board, Mr. Greenbaum outlined information little known to the public, but important in the machinery of state government in relation to the Board which completed 75 years of operation in 1942.

Originally known as the State Board of Charities, Mr. Greenbaum said the Welfare Board was more recently consolidated under the title of social welfare. It has 15 members, he said, drawn one from each of the nine judicial districts and six members at large. There are five women on the Board at present, he noted.

It is the responsibility of the Board, the speaker told his audience to check acts and habits of local welfare departments and to maintain uniform standards for the State.

The Board, Mr. Greenbaum continued, has legal, advisory and supervising powers over the institutions of the state. Originally, however, had the state control of the Board member at the institution. However, at his appointment, the speaker said he found no institution in the state which the Board could not visit.

Outlining institutions under the Board, the chairman said that there are five categories for boys and girls in the State. The Board's program, he said, is to rehabilitate delinquents by providing comfortable surroundings with an opportunity for work and training. This policy he stated, works with about 1000 children. Much thought and experimentation was now going into a plan for reaching the remaining five per cent.

In the case of homes for old people, said the speaker, serious problems have arisen. In many homes have contracted with the state for the support in return for payment of a lump sum. When these moneys are exhausted many homes find themselves unable to fulfill the contract.

In order to prevent such difficulties, Mr. Greenbaum said, the Board has stipulated that such contracts with old people cannot be made unless the home is in a position to set aside the money received as a trust fund during the life of the contract, only to be used by the institution after his death.

The Board of Social Welfare has always appointed the commissioner of social welfare up to the present, Mr. Greenbaum said, adding that continuance of this policy will insure that this position will always be free from politics and not

J. H. BEALE ADVISES CROPS IN SUCCESSION

Boyer Thompson Expert Says Second Can Be Grown Late End Of July

Presenting his talk on successive crop growing in informal style yesterday afternoon, J. H. Beale, superintendent of the Boyce Thompson Institute, Yonkers, gave the word in the series of Victory Garden lectures now being sponsored by the Larchmont County Information Center at the auditorium of the Chatsworth Avenue School.

Growing crops in succession, Mr. Beale said, is to have one follow another on the same piece of ground. There is a limited growing season, he continued, amounting to about two months, from April to September.

One of the greatest influences in the amount of crops that can be grown, is the quality of the soil, said Mr. Beale, and he added that growth in sandy soil is much more rapid than in heavy clay soil. Then, he added, the direction, in the garden, in which the soil is influenced by the growth of vegetation, depending on the amount of sun each day.

Mr. Beale then used his audience that it is good to continue to sow and plant as late into the summer as possible. He said that any piece of ground that becomes vacant before the end of July can grow another crop.

The speaker listed those vegetables which can be started as second crops and named varieties best suited for the soil and weather in this area.

He suggested Fall crops of spinach, lettuce, carrots and beets. After the first crops are through, he said, there ought to be some needed before sowing the second crop. He said that much fertilizer is required to carry the second crop, but he said that it is not necessary to add more than one inch.

Mr. Beale explained that summer cultivation serves two purposes: destruction of weeds and conservation of soil moisture. It is necessary to hoe, he said, as soon as weeds appear in the Spring. Cultivation should not be deeper than one inch.

In speaking of watering, Mr. Beale said that it is good to continue to water in soil so that it will be moist and plant as late into the summer as possible. He said that any piece of ground that becomes vacant before the end of July can grow another crop.

The speaker listed those vegetables which can be started as second crops and named varieties best suited for the soil and weather in this area.

You could hardly ask a better set-up than this for a leading bid such as South made at Table 2.

First, he had a passing partner, on that game seemed a very remote chance for his side. Second, he was very short in the major, making it likely the opponents had a game fit in one or the other. Third, they were vulnerable and his side was not.

Such a bid might prove to be a loser, but when all the elements for it exist, there is a heavy probability that it will save you some points, possibly even preventing a slam. After it neither East nor West was willing to make a game, that 5-odd could be made by them.

ON THIS, OUR 75TH BIRTHDAY

Today, our country is at war—engaged in a desperate struggle to determine whether the freedom we have created and cherished shall survive or perish.

Beside the all-embracing immensity of that issue, the Diamond Anniversary which Metropolitan celebrates this month is of small importance.

Yet today, on our 75th birthday, it is perhaps proper that this company, representing nearly three million policyholders, should here voice its faith in the future, and its determination to help make that future brighter than any period in the past.

We have just reason for that faith. Our country is a business that has been built on faith—in its continued and growing greatness of our country, faith in the integrity of our people.

In the 75 years since Metropolitan was founded, on March 24, 1868, we have seen America face more after wars—war, panic, depressions, disasters of many kinds, and from each such crisis we have seen this country emerge stronger than ever. We confidently believe that America will do just that again—that the best years of our history lie before us.

We have every reason, too, for our determination to help make that future brighter. No business, perhaps, touches more people more closely than ours. It is our plain duty to help those people fulfill their dreams of an education for their children, of security for their families, of financial independence in their own old age.

In the past, we have tried to perform that duty through the wise investment of more than six billion dollars which we hold for the benefit of our policyholders. We have tried to do it through conscientious, economical management, so that insurance costs would be held to a minimum. We have tried to do it through the prompt payment of all benefits—which, in the 75 years of our existence, have totalled over nine and a half billion dollars. And through our organized health activities, established in 1929, we have tried to make every possible contribution to healthier, longer lives for our policyholders—lives which, taken from birth, now average, over twenty years longer than they did in 1868.

In doing these things, we have also tried to be a good citizen. For we are part of America. Her future is ours. And today, in this critical hour of her history, we are again—with faith in her future, faith has never been stronger.

THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 1943

ONE PLANK FOR HIS PLATFORM

The senate vote to rescind the executive order of President Roosevelt limiting all salaries to $25,000 after taxes may, as mentioned yesterday, constitute the most decisive defeat the president has suffered at the hands of congress, in view of the vote of 74 to three against his proposal. Nevertheless, Mr. Roosevelt, one of the most astute politicians this nation has ever produced, has a knack of twisting defects to his own ends and it may very well be proven within the next year and a half that this apparent setback has given him exactly what he is now seeking—an issue for re-election in 1944.

Remember that only a minute percentage of the great American voting public earns the $67,000 annually which is necessary to net a $25,000 income; remember, also, that human nature is particularly prone to violate that command which prohibits envy and covetousness; and remember, most of all, that elections are still won by demagogic appeals to the baser instincts of nature.

What more popular issue can Mr. Roosevelt wish than this one, which will permit him to argue with his appealing radio arm that in time of war $25,000 net is entirely sufficient for any individual? To add to this the president's own "American Beverage" social security program, even although he knows it impossible of achievement during wartime, mix well and sprinkle liberally about the countryside—and you have a wonderful New Deal miracle tonic.

What if the senate did defeat it? What if the house does concur? What if the amount in question—the aggregate of salaries over $67,000—is only a drop in the bucket of our national income? It's psychological appeal which is important politically. Watch for it in the Roosevelt platform next year!

SAVE THAT GREASE, MADAM!

Maybe you don't know it, Mrs. Westchester, but here is a vital role for you to play in your kitchen:

Tremendous requirements of our armed forces and our allies for glycerine, combined with the cutting-off of our peacetime imports of fats and oils—the raw materials from which glycerine is produced—have brought about a very serious situation from a military viewpoint. It is now absolutely imperative that we develop to the utmost every possible source of "other-than-usual" fats. And—mark this—the salvaging of kitchen grease is the largest single potential source of surplus in the United States for such fats.

It may seem only a small thing when you pour the hot grease from a pan or skillet into an empty can; you may think it trivial when, after the can is filled, you take it to your butcher, who in turn passes it to the wholesaler for delivery to the government. Yet this act on your part, multiplied by the millions of American housewives, means the difference between sufficiency and insufficiency of nitroglycerin and other explosives which are to keep our fathers and brothers and sons and sweethearts armed on the battlefronts.

What is a spoonful of grease here and another spoonful there?

Mrs. Westchester, it means an extra bomb here and an extra bomb there, along with all the other types of armament in which explosives are used. And that, in turn, means an American boy protected from death at the hands of the enemy.

Save that kitchen grease then, madame. It may mean saving the life of some dear to you.

AS THE OTHER HALF SEES IT

It was Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, returning from his three-week vigil with death, who urged that union workers take a trip to the battlefront to see what it was like, how much their production was needed, and how vital it was to all we stand up in our war efforts.

Now a step in that direction has been taken. More than 200 union war workers from the Detroit area and other industrial centers of the middle west have arranged to live in training camp for three days. They will not be mere guests; it will not be an inspection trip. Instead, these union workers will themselves undergo training for actual combat duty, and while three days is hardly enough to give them more than a scant sample, it should at least open their eyes to what the other half of the fighting front is doing to get ready.

That is, repeat, a fine step, but it isn't a long enough step. Union leaders should be flown to actual battlefronts in Tunisia and in the Pacific. There they should be permitted to live with the soldiers and sailors and marines, to share their glories and their dangers, to learn at first-hand what it is like to be in battle without sufficient airplane protection or enough tanks or the necessary volume of troops.

Then let those union leaders return and report directly, in their own manner, to the workers whom they lead; let them tell of their first-hand experiences and of the trials which American fighting men are facing daily because we are on the home front are not turning out enough armament for their full safety.

That, we believe, would turn the trick more quickly than all the talk and planning and conferences we can offer in a whole year.

What is the plural of "hen"? I say it is "hen"; my friends say it is "hens". For example, "a noise for 100 hens" or "A house for 100 hens."

It's
"It's" is just one lady chicken, two or more would be "hens". And a house of 100 of them would certainly be a house for 100 hens.

I just found out I was born in the Eighteenth Street Hospital, New York City. I can't find any such hospital. Do you tell me or the please phone Mrs. Mitchell at Mamaroneck Public Welfare, Mamaroneck, N. Y.

We do not know
We do not know of any hospital with that name. Possibly you refer to the Lying-in-Hospital which used to be between 11th and 12th Streets and is now affiliated with the New York Hospital at 525 East 68th Street. If you have reason to be sure of the location, then from hospital where you were born, send the name of the institution there, known as the Lying-in-Hospital, those records are now at the New York Hospital at 525 East 68th Street, New York City.

Saving Fat
Can you use vegetable cans to preserve fat? I have a few pounds of fat and have no other cans.

Mrs. P.
Fat should be saved in a "wide-mouthed container," but the container can be glass and it certainly can be cardboard or wood. Do not use tin cans. Probably these cans are salvaged from the tin can industry. If you have them, do not throw them away, but use them for what they were made for.

Human Hair
Kindly inform me what department of the United States Government I should contact to dispose of a considerable amount of human hair. I understand it is used in the manufacture of something in the war effort.

First, let us tell you
First, let us tell you the hair, to be considered, must be straight and must never have been curled with an iron or subjected to a permanent wave. It must never have been bleached or dyed. It is hair from a woman who has never had any hair treatment. It is hair from a woman who has never had any hair treatment. It is hair from a woman who has never had any hair treatment.

550,000 Farm Workers Now Deferred, Roosevelt Says In Outlining Proposal

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Roosevelt said today that his new food administrator, Chester C. Davis, operating virtually an autonomous agency, would take up immediately the question of forming a land army to farm out the nation's food supply.

At the same time, the chief executive told pressmen today that 550,000 farm workers already had been deferred from military service and that selective service director Lewis B. Hershey estimated that 3,000,000 additional people on the farms would be desired this year.

In lengthy discussion of farm problems, Mr. Roosevelt also said that the War Production Board has taken steps to insure a greater supply of farm machinery to those who will be needed.

Not only will some of the larger manufacturers be allowed to make such equipment, he said, but an effort will be made to obtain more of the smaller plants. Previously, only the larger manufacturers had been converted to farm machinery.

The President released today the executive order setting up the new Office of Food Production and Distribution, of which Davis will take charge on Monday. Davis will cooperate with Agriculture Secretary Wickard, Mr. Roosevelt said, but final decisions, Davis would make.

This new agency, he said, will be authorized to make such decisions as to the production of farm machinery. The President also said that the new office will be authorized to make such decisions as to the production of farm machinery.

Allies Also Capture Key Hilltop Near El Hamma

AMERICANS HOLD

By ROGER GREENE (Associated Press War Editor)

British Eighth Army assault troops, rallying from their initial setback, were reported lunging deeper into the Marettine Line in Southern Tunisia today, while other British forces were credited by the Algiers radio with seizing a key hilltop "near El Hamma," 20 miles west of Gabes.

An Algiers broadcast said the British had completed occupation of a height "overlooking the whole of the Gabes Plain" after beating off a German attack and were commencing the Djebel Berda Heights at the southwest end of the Marettine Line, 20 miles south of Gabes.

One report said Field Marshal Erwin Rommel had stacked his communications in the Marettine zone, after losing 40-100 tanks thrown into the struggle on Tuesday, but other accounts declared the battle was still in progress.

A Morocco radio broadcast said Gen. Bernard Montgomery's main British Eighth Army was seeking an opportunity to "cut the hand-to-hand fighting" at several points along the Marettine Line.

Gen. Patton's U. S. armored forces were reported having reached a point in the Marettine line, with success as Gen. Montgomery had been attacking the Marettine line.

Lifting Of Pleasure Ban Boosts Parkway Traffic To Highest Peak of Year

Car Travel Certain To Pass 4,000 Mark Next Week, Haight Says

Car Travel Certain To Pass 4,000 Mark Next Week, Haight Says

Traffic on Westchester parkways has with the lifting of the ban on pleasure driving, found a place where it was before that ban is now higher than at any time in 1943, according to traffic counts for the first one in 1943, recorded at the Pleasantville-Cross-County Parkway Bridge, regarded as a reliable barometer.

The daily average of tolls for the last week prior to the pleasure driving ban enforced on Jan. 7 was 3,512, the bridge records show. In the midst of the ban enforcement the daily average dropped to an average of 1,221. But for last week the average was back to 3,924 and for this week a staggering amount of 500. For next week, said George S. Haight, general park superintendent, it is almost certain to pass the 4,000 mark.

Although the traffic has increased with the lifting of the pleasure driving ban, Haight says it is still far below normal. For this season two years back before there were restrictions on pleasure driving, the daily average was as high as 11,000 on the bridge.

Various reasons are given for the increase in traffic. In addition to the lifting of the pleasure driving ban, one is the seasonal advance in the number of cars on the road. Another is the fact that many motorists are now registering their cars in the State.

Stream Of Tanks And Armored Cars Roll From Hauge Modification Center

Displayed today by Army Ordnance officers were several thousand of these combat monsters—30 types from 18 manufacturers, massed in the storage yard of 31 acres, and undergoing various changes to fit them for operation on specific fronts.

Among them were weapons so new that no description of them can be given, as well as hundreds of the M4 Sherman Tanks and the M3 tank destroyer, which are being modified heavily to the smashing defeat that the British 8th Army brought about in Tunisia.

DEADLINE NEARS FOR RATIONING OF MEATS AND FATS

Million Pounds of Beef Being Rushed to New York To Meet Shortage

Red Stamps from Ration Book No. 2 To Be Required Starting Monday

WASHINGTON, (AP)—For most Americans, today marks the deadline for the purchase of meat and cheese—except with ration coupons.
And, beginning next week, red stamps from Ration Book No. 2 also will be required for the purchase of canned fish, butter and other fats and oils. Some of which are presently frozen.
Aimed to equalize distribution throughout the country, the government's ambitious new rationing program for these products is scheduled to start Monday.
In the metropolitan New York City, Mayor F. H. La Guardia and the Federal Office of Price Administration jointly announced that an emergency shipment of 1,600,000 pounds of beef for home consumption was being rushed to the city.
A portion is expected to arrive by Monday, the mayor said.
Throughout the country, hundreds of thousands of tons of beef, pork, lamb and mutton, as well as cheese, canned fish, butter, margarine and lard, when sales of these goods is resumed Monday, each person will be allowed to spend 16 cents weekly. Most steaks, butter and cheese call for eight points a pound.
Price Administration President M. Brown, declining to be interviewed, said the coupons would be honored when the program is started, asked the cooperation of packers and retailers in speeding the flow of the rationed supplies to stores.
Brown said OPA was disturbed over reports of heavy pre-rationing purchases.
Slaughter quotas for the April-June period showed, meanwhile, that supplies will be adequate for meat, except pork, at present levels.
Secretary of Agriculture Wickard issued an order limiting meat deliveries to civilians to three per cent of their deliveries in the corresponding quarter of 1941.
70 percent for beef and veal, 75 percent for lamb and mutton, 70 percent for pork, and 75 percent for lamb and mutton.
President Roosevelt, however, remained extremely optimistic over the food outlook—he said he thought no one would starve—and told a press conference yesterday that farm machinery output was being expanded and that he hoped needed labor could be supplied to farms.
He said one of the first questions asked by Charles Davis, the new food administrator who will take over the duties Monday, would be whether or to form a land army of boys and girls and women to help produce food.
The President also said 3,500,000 acres of land would be planted with surplus of farmers, would be withdrawn from the Army.

Fires Unabated

There was no decrease in the number of brush fires in the Larchmont and Mamaroneck areas yesterday in spite of the appeal made by municipal officials and local fire chiefs.
There were eight in the Village of Mamaroneck, seven in the unincorporated section, and one in the Village of Larchmont. While the origin of most of them is unknown, it is reported that several were due to carelessness in attempting to burn off property and then being unable to control the blaze.
The shortage of manpower to fight these fires and the consequent wear and tear on fire departments' equipment will soon present a major problem, local officials point out yesterday. They laid the cause of these fires to "carelessness and negligence."

LIGHTBODY SUFFERS SET; THUNDERBOLTS, LIONS LOSE

Larchmont Rec Wins Shutout As Lightbody Drops To Fourth Place

Standings near the top of the Inter City League were jumbled considerably as a result of the matches played last night. The Athletics, with a comfortable lead, defeated the Larchmont Blues, managed by staying at the top of the heap but the Lightbody team, the league's high average aggregation, suffered a three to nothing shutout at the hands of Larchmont. The Pirates who were in the fourth slot jumped way up to tie for second as they obliterated the Larchmont Reds by a shut out score. In other matches St. Thomas' defeated the Yankees by a score of 2-1 although that tie is now with the Pirates, instead of with the Lightbody aggregation, and the Clippers secured a minor upset by winning over the Thunderbolts to the tune of 2 to 1.

The beating handed to Lightbody by the Larchmont Blues was largely the work of Annon as he belted the night's high single and triple in the league. Scoring 241 he led the first game for high single Annon, who led off at straddles of 214 and 180 to finish with a fine 200 average. Yesterday's best league score, Cereza, of the Lightbody team, sporting a 205 average, could do no better than the minimum of 333 triple. He was high for his team.

The Pirates in drawing up to second place handed the Larchmont Reds a merciless thrashing. Only the second game was any good as the Reds were out bowled with a blind, racked up scores 885, 902, 906 to total 2785 for their evening's work. The Larchmonts pulled high single counts of 232 while the Pirates, who led off with a three game mark of 336. St. Thomas' Reds in maintaining their place near the top of the heap came closer to the top of the heap when they took the Athletics in a game of the match and held the margin of merely a pin. Bill Rickert of the winning Reds had high single for the night, scoring 221 while the high three score runner was shown by Annon of the Reds and Len Gross of the losing Lions who both hit identical scores of 671.

The night's final match pitted the leading Athletics, against the Larchmont Blues. Blotting victory by both teams yielded the Athletics a 2 to 1 triumph. High scores for the contest were by Annon of the Athletics who totalled 333, while Mastro of the same team rolled a single of 221.

COUNTY AMATEUR TITLES DECIDED

Center Basketball Battles Won By Close Scores, Forfeit

Westchester Amateur Basketball Championship titles were decided last night in four hotly contested games at the County Center Court. White Plains, winning combination, won over the Mount Vernon team, 24 to 23. St. Bernard's of White Plains, winners by default in the junior class, and the Indians of Ossining, high juniors.

In the open contest, St. Peter and Paul trilled the Yankees score, 44 to 38, in 45 seconds remaining to play. At the time the score was 44 to 43 in favor of the Scarelets, but the Mount Vernon team, by a score of 44 to 38, won the game by a score of 40 to 26.

The Balling Five of Ossining, who were defeated last night, were over the Central of White Plains in a close game, in which neither team had a lead of more than five points. St. Bernard's was playing its best basketball in the North Tarrytown game against the North Tarrytown Pre-Falcons, who were defeated by a score of 25 to 24. The game, however, was awarded to the Blue City team when it was verified that several of the Pre-Falcons were over the age limit for the division.

The Ossining Indians won out on an early start to beat out the North Tarrytown Falcons, 20 to 13.

Fleetfoot Cards To Run Wild Again

CAIRO, Ill. (AP)—The fielded and St. Louis Cardinals, who last year ran the baseballs like a track team to win the National League pennant and World Series, are all set for another season of wild play.

Southey, who made speed his trademark, declared today that the Cardinals would continue their colorful, slam-bang game, trying for even extra bases and setting their speed to upset the opposition.

"We will have abundance of speed," he said, "despite the fact of Eno's Slaughter and Terry..."

"We have among our infield regulars Buster Adams and Harry Walker, who run like deer. If Jimmy Brown goes into the lineup, he will be my No. 1 replacement at second base and he can sprint 100 yards in 10 seconds."

NICHOLSON SIGNED FRENCH LAD—Now that outfielder Bill Nicholson has signed his contract, Manager Jimmy Wilson of the Chicago Cubs has quit worrying about Len Norenberg. But Wilson would like to see catchers "Bugs" McCallion and shortstop Eddie Muesel report soon. Both are top candidates for their positions and both are good hitters.

WILMINGTON, DEL.—The Philadelphia Athletics, in camp for only a week, open their Spring exhibition schedule today with a contest against the University of Delaware. Nine Oriole athletes who won eight of nine for Williamsport last year have changed his mind about signing both as good hitters and a first baseman, all of whom have been in the lineup.

ARMSTRONG, JACK IN GARDEN FIGHT

Combek Trail Climaxed By Bout With Lightweight Champion

About a year ago a California lad named Henry Armstrong, having had some of the best professional boxing experience, decided to enter a ring career. He sealed over 100 pounds and was figured a few months in the gymnasium would bring his weight down to at least 200 pounds and enable him to hold his own with the best in his division.

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Athletic Club announced today that it had secured the services of Henry Armstrong, world champion, to fight in the club's gymnasium.

AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIPS WILL BE DECIDED AT WINGED FOOT COLLEGE

With the National Collegiate A meet decided, the top-ranking swimmers of the country now point to the climax event of the indoor aquatic season—the fifty-first annual National A. A. U. Championships, to be held at the current record-holders to the New York Athletic Club on Friday and Saturday. Five finals will be decided on Friday, five on Saturday, with trials each afternoon.

The latest batch of entries received by Paul Pilgrim, Winged Foot athletic director, include four from Mererobee Academy, four from Princeton, one from Purdue University, and one from Princeton, Pa. High School.

Pauline Stapp, Princeton coach, named his Tiger medley relay consisting of Tony Bernabei, five-year-old Tom Stoddard, back stroke, and Norman Zuehlman, breast stroke, and also entered Stoddard, who is collegiate champion in the 100-yard breast stroke, and Andrew J. C. Doran, Eastern champion in the 100-yard breast stroke, in the medley relay consisting of Stoddard, Bernabei, Zuehlman, and Gilbert, all from Princeton.

Mererobee, home of prep school swimming champions, named its relay consisting of William Schmidt in the 220-yard breast stroke, Jerry Kowert in the 220 and 440 yard free stroke, and Mererobee's own Gilbert, in the 220-yard breast stroke.

Of the new entries Korschner and Schmidt from Mererobee have scored in national championships. Schmidt, representing York, Pa., YMCA runner-up Jimmy Conshiman in the indoor national a year ago at Yale, while Korschner placed third in the 440 and fourth in the 220 in the outdoor nationals at New Haven, where Billy Smith, Yale, was the champion.

The medley relay now shapes up as a highlight of the two-day meet with each of the four swimmers a champion. Michigan, Ohio State, and Michigan were the winners in the 1939 meet, with Yale, with 2:51.5, and Michigan with a record of 2:51.9, held by Yale. There is no world record in this event.

In response to many inquiries, the New York A. A. U. announces that the Winged Foot pool will be open to the public for the championships.

They are the ones who encourage their husbands to go fishing. They are the ones who make the fishing trips a family affair.

LIONS CLUB TEAM FINISHES ON TOP

Westchester - Fairfield Lions League Title Clinched; New Rochelle Second

Hugh Kafka of Palham, secretary of the Westchester-Fairfield Lions Club Bowling League, yesterday informed Len Gross, captain of the local Lions Club's representatives in the league, that the Mamaroneck squad had clinched the season title. This will be the first of several practice games which are designed to give the ball players experience in the actual playing of the game and also to test the ability of this year's squad.

IS IT PROPER TO KNIT DURING AN ADDRESS?

By EMILY POST

The question of when to knit and when not to knit is one of those questions which come up again today in this letter. Even in these days when one should not waste a minute, does it seem unbecomingly to knit during an address, listening to a speaker, to continue the knitting? The question is not a new one, and I think the answer should be the same as it was in the past.

Even though the knitting is for Red Cross or other war work, I agree with certain definite stipulations: First, I would suggest that you knit only when the speaker is not speaking.

Second, if you are knitting, do not knit so fast that you are making a racket. Third, if you are knitting, do not knit so fast that you are making a racket.

WORKSHOP INSTITUTES FIXIT CLASS

The scarcity of household equipment on the store shelves and the shortage of labor to repair broken down equipment has led the Westchester Workshop to introduce a class in Home Repairs under the direction of Sidney S. Hay of the Tuckahoe High School.

To Mr. Hay's expert hands, students will be fixed to work, carrying items that burn, vacuum cleaners that eat rugs, electrical connections that slide "magic mitters" that have lost their magic—in short every gadget that has fallen down on the job. Mr. Hay will also show how to use a soldering iron and how to repair all types of electrical appliances.

Classes will start from 7:30 to 10 P. M. on Wednesday, April 1, at the Tuckahoe High School. Mr. Hay will be equally attentive.

JOAN PERRY DESCRIBES RAYON FABRICS

Miss Joan Perry, representative of an artificial fiber corporation, spoke yesterday afternoon before an interested group at the Larchmont Consumer Information Center.

Miss Perry's was a colorful talk which described the many uses of rayon fabrics. She traced the history of man-made fibers from their discovery to the current date, explaining the processes for making rayon fabrics and how they have attained their place in the world.

There are two kinds of rayon made, she said, and they differ radically from each other. She also said that those manufactured from cellulose acetate, known as "dope," had their beginning in the first World War.

The presentation of Miss Perry was in line with the program of the Larchmont Consumer Unit to provide information to aid in the saving of materials.

A kind of quiz program in which members of the audience answered questions on the talk closed the meeting. The winner, she said, was the most correct answer.

There are two kinds of rayon made, she said, and they differ radically from each other. She also said that those manufactured from cellulose acetate, known as "dope," had their beginning in the first World War.

Woman's Club To Introduce Andre Maurois To Larchmont

Andre Maurois, French author, biographer and dramatist, will address the Larchmont Women's Club on April 9 at 2:15 P. M. at the Larchmont Avenue Church House.

Mr. Maurois is the author of many popular volumes, the most recent of which is "The Story of France." This outlines what has happened in his native country from the Revolution of 1789 to the present day.

The speaker is one of the few eminent writers who has served two eras, the French and the English. He has been able to see at close quarters the Government from a direction of the contact and to report authoritatively to the English people.

As a press liaison officer, attached from the opening of the First World War to the British Headquarters, and as a special envoy to the United States, Mr. Maurois has had a special vantage point.

His claims to literary fame are numerous. His first best seller was "The Silence of Colonel Bramble," written from notes he gathered in his service in Italy. In 1923 his greatest success, "The Story of France," carried him to the top of the biographical world.

Mr. Maurois, who was born in 1881 in Normandy and who came to the United States in 1914, is a member of the Larchmont Women's Club. He is a member of the Larchmont Women's Club.

BARCLAY ON BRIDGE

By SHEPARD BARCLAY

BETTER THAN A PRESENT MORE WELCOME than a cash of money that enables you to see a puzzle coming together in a puzzling contrast. Most players feel they are playing a puzzle.

But this fellow saw a way to make it. He played low from dummy on the diamond Q which he ruffed in his own hand. Then he scored the heart A, and the spade K Q carefully saving the A to make his hand play look as fancy as possible. Next he led to the heart K. Now he played the diamond A and on discarded the spade A. That unblocked the suit, so that the spade J and 10 could him to discard both of his low clubs. With only his heart Q still outstanding as a winner for the defense, he made his contract.

"Pretty lucky to have had work," commented an opponent. Not so lucky, at that. All that he had to do was lead three hearts in the hand the defender who also held either three or four spades—something like as impossible as what the declarer sought at the other table.
