Signs On Agenda

The Larchmont Village Board will fix dates for public hearings on amendments to the Village Sign Ordinance, and on amendments to the Garbage and Refuse Ordinance at 8 P.M. today at Municipal Hall.

The trustees will also make a recommendation to the Town Board on the Emergency Resisting Rent Control Law affecting vacancies as of July 1.

Reports will be heard from the Mayor and the chairman of committees of the Board, and from the village engineer, treasurer and attorney.

Ducks Available

"Big Willie" and "Little Willie" are looking for a home. BW and LW are a couple of ducks owned by the John Novak of 3 Bluefield Road, Larchmont. They are Easter duck pets and they've got to go because they're eating Mr. Novak's tomatoes.

The Novaks took them this weekend to Larchmont's Larchmont Lake, but New England Thruway activity there has frightened the wild ducks. It is no home for two lame ones.

Anyone wishing two white ducks can obtain same by contacting Mrs. Novak at her home.

Helmets Help

The crash helmets introduced recently for use of Town of Larchmont motorcycle policemen saved P.I. John Leonard a nasty head injury Saturday afternoon.

In a skidding accident at Old White Plains Road and the drive way to the Savon Woods country grounds, P.I. Leonard was thrown on the ground, bumping his head against the pavement. He suffered no injuries because he was wearing a white and black crash helmet.

His cycle, however was damaged to the extent of one smashed front light and scratched crash bars. He reported the accident as due in turning at the intersection where calcium chloride laid down on the dirt picnic road had been brought out to the highway by auto tires, creating a slippery condition.

Woodward Presents

Bliss Woodard of 714 Stuart Avenue, Mamaroneck, commander of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary, Third District, Saturday at the 11th anniversary of the Coast Guard Auxiliary at the Coast Guard Academy, New London, awarded a $100 "Saver's Bond to Ernest J. Bader of Fontana, Cal., who attained the highest proficiency in boatmanship.

Mr. Woodard was representing National Auxiliary Commander John Fanner, who could not be present.

Fred Sembler, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, was the principal speaker. He was introduced by David Kendall, another Treasury Department Assistant. Also present were Adm. A. C. Richmond, commander of the U. S. Coast Guard, and Adm. William W. Kenner, head of personnel.

Aid For Vets

Vito M. Ciraco of 633 Lorraine Street, Mamaroneck, substitute chairman of Mamaroneck Post 90, American Legion, on Saturday was in charge of the booth sponsored by the Westchester County American Legion at the annual carnival for disabled veterans at Montrose Hospital. He was assisted by Mrs. Ciraco.

The various booths on the hospital grounds are stocked with prizes donated by various organizations throughout the county. About 1,000 veterans crowded the grounds.

A large number of books, about 500 of which were donated by the Town of Mamaroneck Chapter, United States of America, were taken to the carnival and distributed.

Firefighters working to contain a blaze in a home's kitchen.

BLAZE DAMAGES HOME'S KITCHEN

Paint Thinner Leaks On Floor, Causes Fire

A flash fire at 2:10 P. M. Saturday badly damaged the kitchen of the home of Edward D. Martin, 1221 Crown Court, Mamaroneck, and snuffed up the rest of the house before it was checked by Mamaroneck firemen under Deputy Chief Felix La Polla.

The blaze was caused by a paint thinner, which leaked from a gallon jar, covering the kitchen floor near the cellar door, Mrs. Martin said. As she and her husband were "mopping it up madly," she said, the refrigerator started and the volatile liquid flared up.

The family escaped without injury except for an abrasion of Mrs. Martin's ankle caused, she said, when she slipped on the rear steps while fleeing from the kitchen. Her stockings around her ankles were burned, but she told Edward Schachinsky, first aid member of the fire department, that she was not burned and needed no assistance.

Roger Martin, thirteen, was resting in his room when the fire broke out but escaped. He suffered an axe cut on his right foot earlier in the day at Allen Reservation, Harrison, where he was camping with a group of Boy Scouts, and had been treated at an Urgency Clinic in Port Chester.

The paint thinner leaked under the cellar door and burned the top step of the cellar stairs, causing some fire damage in the cellar.

A car driven by Arthur Anderson, fifty-one, of Elsworth, ran into the rear of Mr. Farina's car as it swerved his wheel to miss the boy. A car driven by Ralph Picciollo, twenty-six, of Boston, Mass., bounced into the other two cars, which stopped in front of him. A fourth car driven by Joseph Matranga, thirty-five, of New York City, skidded to avoid the wreckage and his car came to a stop over the boy. He said he did not strike the other cars on the boy.

The boy was admitted to United Hospital, Port Chester, with multiple cuts and bruises and possibly internal injuries. Mr. Picciollo and a passenger, Francis Moran, twenty-six, of Medford, Mass., were less seriously injured, requiring emergency treatment at the hospital.

Gene Rayburn, 717 Park West, Mamaroneck, will be the keynote speaker at the annual anti-Communist Sports Dinner sponsored by the Mamaroneck High School on Monday night at the Rialto.

The dinner was announced by Roland Flynn, chairman, scheduled at Roundy's Casino on the East Coast.

Port Four will be held to honor all Bellows athletes and the program will include awarding of trophies, letters and other prizes.

All members of Bellows athletic teams will give awards to all members of fathers and sons who are interested in sports are urged to attend.

Mr. Rayburn, a native of Christopher, Ill. and came to New York from Chicago with experience only in high school stage productions. He started as a tour guide and then became a tourist agent at Radio City.

After training as an announcer in 1930 he became a radio announcer, newsman and writer for Station WGNV and since that time has risen steadily in the radio and TV field.

The speaker was interested in 1941 by a stint in Bombardier School as a second lieutenant.

In 1940 Mr. Rayburn married Helen Tichon, a model, who has been a radio personality since her own right.

The awards to be presented Thursday night are:

Varsity team members in football, soccer, basketball, baseball and track; first season, cheerleader; second season, cheerleader; third season, stoneware sports trophy; and fourth season, block letter "B".

In addition the following special prizes will be given:

Eisenhower wants $4.5 Million More To Avert Mail Cuts

White House 'Outmoded' $32 Million Sought For Expansion Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $23,500,000 program calling for construction of "outmoded" office buildings and expansion of the White House grounds was recommended to President Eisenhower today.

The study commission presented the plan which contemplates raising the old State-War-Navy building located just west of the White House and erection on that site of a new office building for the President and some of his staff.

Under the plan the present west wing of the White House, where the President and some of his staff now have their offices, would be demolished for use as quarters for visiting dignitaries.

The program also envisions a new executive office building across Pennsylvania Ave., just northwest of the White House, already authorized by Congress.

The study commission was created by Congress in 1956. But changes that Congress will authorize in the program this session, if Mr. Eisenhower calls for such action, appear dim in the light of the economy mood now prevailing in Congress. On top of that, House Speaker Rayburn D., Tex., recently said he was against any plan for raising the old State-War-Navy building.

Discussing the present White House office situation, the commission said working space is "outmoded, overcrowded, inefficient and not consistent with the dignity and well coordinated management of the highest office of the executive branch of the government."

The charter provides that the committee be continued and recommended that it be given new instructions to report back at the 149th session of the Assembly in 1959.

The sponsors of the proposal are Sen. James Eastland of Mississippi, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York, Sen. Walter D. ### Thieves Loot Nil In Entry At Laundry

Marauders got nothing Saturday night when they entered Happiness Laundry, 613 Waverly St., Mamaroneck, pried open a metal box and the Pepsi Cola machine, then cut through a partition into the office of Leo Heithaus, proprietor. They overtook $250, Mamaroneck police report.

Police were called to the laundry at 7:25 A. M. yesterday by Nick Donato, described as the coin attendant at the plant.

It was determined by police that the burglars had entered the building through a skylight, leaving through a rear door and closing it.

Principal damage consisted of ransacking Mr. Heithaus' office and stealing papers around.

New Rochelle Records Lost In School Fire

Two firemen were injured, one of them hospitalized, in a two-alarm blaze which swept through the second rooms of the School administration building, 131 Huguenot Street Saturday night.

Fire Chief Raymond C. Rumery declared that a second alarm was made for all off-duty men because of a shortage of manpower. The cause of the blaze is as yet undetermined.

The alarm was turned in at 7:27 P. M. by John Johnson, Charles Davidson, a dancing instructor, and Daniel Bracey, who had come to the playground behind the building once the tugboat elementary school, to play baseball.

Help Rained For
They noticed flames in a room on the second floor of the building called the alarm. Firemen from Engines 1 and 2 and Hook and Ladder Company 1 responded immediately along with Battalion Chief Charles Roeding.

Using the new radio equipment Battalion Chief Roeding ordered Engine 3 and Hook and Ladder Company 1 to help. The fire was to be run from Cedar and Hudson Streets. The second and third floors were boxes full of papers.

When it was found the number of men on hand was not sufficient to contain the heavy metal beams and ceiling panels in the well-constructed old building, the department sent for the familiar seven taps and the whistle blew calling in all off-duty men.

It was not until 11:15 P. M. that the fire was under control. Inside the burning rooms, firemen tried to reach the flames. The building was built in 1888.

Overcome By Smoke
Fireman Robert Rothenberger, of the Firemen's Association, was overcome by smoke while trying to reach the flames. The building was built in 1888.

Fireman Joseph Frasca, fifty-six, was overcome with smoke poisoning while trying to reach the flames. The building was built in 1888.

Chief Rumery said the fire started in the microphotograph room on the second floor. The fire was contained by the Assistant Superintendent of Schools' secretary's office and the fire department.

Suicide Ruled In Death Of Bachelor, 57

Thomas McHugh, fifty-seven, possibly one of the last members of the Pelham, was found dead yesterday in his apartment at 17 Fifth Avenue, North Pelham.

Medical Examiner ruled his death as suicide.

A note, found near the body and injuries on his head indicated the cause of death was "explosion from a refrigerator. Police said he apparently had been drinking a couple of days.

Dr. Albert W. Kroll, assistant County Medical Examiner, listed the cause of death as "explosion due to strangulation while found by temporarily disturbed."

Mr. McHugh was found by the apartment house superintendent who had placed a letter in the dead man's letter box several days before, noticed it had not been touched and knowing Mr. McHugh lived alone, reported it.

Police were summoned at 11 P. M.

The deceased, who was unmarried, had lived with several brothers and sisters at 18 Linden Avenue before moving to the Fifty Avenue address not long ago.

Although almost all Pelham residents for many years have been born outside of Pelham because the town has no hospital, Mr. McHugh was born in North Pelham May 3, 1900, son of the late Thomas H. and Mary M. Small McHugh. His father also was a native of Pelham, one of the town's first farmers, and founder of the McHugh Tinmith Company on Wolf's Lane.

Employed By Roofers
His son carried on the business for some years. He was last employed by the Barber Roofing Company.

Mr. McHugh attended St. Catherine's Catholic elementary school in the town. He was a veteran of World War I, serving in the Navy and the Fire Department for its "prompt and efficient action" in controlling and extinguishing the fire. He also expressed appreciation of the Board of Education for its "prompt and efficient action" in controlling and extinguishing the fire.

He also expressed appreciation of the Board of Education for its "prompt and efficient action" in controlling and extinguishing the fire.

A large number of spectators turned out to watch the firefighters as they worked to contain the blaze. The fire was extinguished at 11:15 P. M.

Chief Rumery said he could not determine the cause of the blaze but said it must have been burning for at least an hour as the heat from the fire caused the clock in the office to stop at exactly 7:45 P. M.

Dispatcher Frank Nicoletti reported other city fire equipment to cover the downtown fire houses and Engine 3 at Eastchester Road and Huguenot Street. Most of the lines and equipment were on Hudson and Cedar Streets as the fire was confined to the rear of the building.

Damage In Thousands Harbor Coated By Sticky Oil

NEW ROCHELLE—Thick gummy coating of sticky oil on Echo Bay Harbor, caused damage to the harbor.

The oil is floating around the harbor in large pools, sticking to anything it touches. It has coated marine installations at the Municipal Boat Club, practically every boat moored at Ferris Creek and in Echo Bay harbor, has collected on beaches, bulkheads, piers, and docks.

The substance is analyzed as bunker oil, a heavy industrial oil. First reports indicated it might have come from a tank which was damaged by the tugboat.

Dr. Chester A. Hicks, Director of Public Health, this morning ordered part of Hudson Park Beach closed. The new beach is covered with the tar but the old beach will remain open unless tides carry the scum in that direction.

Waterfront and city officials were on the job last evening.

No Democrat Magic In No. 16, GOP Will Still Control Budget

BY JOSEPH W. SHANNON
WHITE PLAINS—Sixteen has been a magic number for Westchester Democrats but it is no longer so.

The significance to the Democrats, and to many Republicans, was based upon a widely held misconception that attainment of that number by the Board of Supervisors would enable the minority to have decisive voice in many important matters, particularly the adoption of the annual County Budget.

It has been widely believed that the two-thirds vote is necessary for approval of the budget, but this is not so. The only time such a vote is necessary is when a veto by the County Executive of a budget to which additions had been made without his approval.

There are several other items on which a two-thirds vote is needed—for sale of county lands or easements, on bond issues, and to waive the requirement that the department heads be county residents for at least five years before appointment.

Although there is no requirement for anything more than a majority vote, the Republican leadership has made certain that it would be for a hard school district vote. The Republican leadership would enable the minority to have decisive voice in many important matters, particularly the adoption of the annual County Budget.

Abrams Wins Citation For Achievement

Benjamin Abrams, sixty-four, of 1425 Flagler Drive, Mamaroneck, Tuesday was one of nine men and women who received an American Success Story award from Free Enterprise Awards Association Inc. in New York.

The citation stated that Mr. Abrams had "won an enduring place in the history of American industry by achieving success despite adversity, through industry, sacrifice and ethics, symbolizing the success possible under our free-enterprise system."

Commenting on the award, Mr. Abrams said:

"Credit our free enterprise system for America's prosperity. Its leadership among nations is due to its industrial might, rather than its military strength. You can see the results in our daily lives."

Mr. Abrams is president of Emerson Radio and Phonograph Corp., Jersey City, N. J. Following his father's death he came to this country from Romania when twelve years old.

After attending New York public schools for one year, he left to support his family. He became a pianist at 13 and started at 18.

Mr. Abrams pioneered many radio and television "dramas." He is a member of the board of the Radio-Electronics-Television Manufacturers Association.

Interested in education for a long time, Mr. Abrams in recent years has been active in support of educational television. In 1952 he established the Emerson $100 Educational Television Grant which provides $100 each to the first 10 non-commercial educational television stations to begin operation.

He is a trustee of Long Island University, a director of United Jewish Appeal and of the Wellesman Institute of Israel, and is former chairman of the New York Committee for Israel Bonds. He has had several important positions in many other civic and charitable organizations.

Six Years in Mamaroneck
Mr. and Mrs. Abrams have been in Mamaroneck resident for about six years, moving here from New York City. They have three children, Mrs. Richard Hyman of Rye, Mrs. Michael Kory of New York, and Cynthia, who attends Mamaroneck schools.

Brucker Hits Arms-Based 'Economy'

WEST POINT—Secretary of the Army Brucker said today American military power is "being threatened in the name of economy that is the servant of the broad interests of the United States, but the meagre variety which immeasurably increases the nation's peril."

His comment aimed at the congressional move to cut the defense budget was contained in a speech prepared for an annual luncheon of the Association of Graduates of the U. S. Military Academy.

'False Economy' Charged
Mr. Brucker said, "Prudent economy is laudable as long as we recognize that true economy consists in wise spending."

"We are observing reasonable efforts to achieve true economy caught up in a whirlwind of opinion and subjected into attempts to chop indiscriminately at our defense and foreign military assistance budgets in a manner which threatens the very foundation of our military strength," he said.

He spoke of past "lessons of false economy," including a reduction of defense before World War I and World War II. He said "we are not ready to fight in Korea when that war started. But despite what happened then, he said, "there are some who would let down our guard."

'Experiences Challenged'
He said that as a result of recent anti-American riots in Formosa "some people have clamored not only to reduce our military assistance to National China, but to give up our entire mutual security program."

"What a disastrous mistake it would be for us to heed such foolish, faint-hearted counsel of expediency in this momentous hour of our history," he said.

"Now of all times, it is doubly imperative that we stand firm with our guard up. These critics would have us believe that all is lost because something went wrong in Taipei."

Evans And Barbieri Elected By Schoolmen

Two Mamaroneck schoolmen Friday were elected to posts in the Association of Public School Officials of Southeastern New York at a meeting at Dick Hayes' Place in White Plains.

Dr. Sheldon J. Evans of 48 Concord Avenue, Larchmont, assistant superintendent for business management, was elected president and Joseph J. Barbieri, district clerk, was charge treasurer.

Others elected were Donald W. Kofford, assistant district principal of Mount Kisco, vice president, and Miss Jeanette Madrow, administrative assistant at Pearl River, secretary.

Two panel discussions followed the elections. Social Security legislation was reviewed by George Goresen, Hartford business manager; George Baldwin, business manager at Chappaqua, and Mr. Kofford.

The New York State accounting handbook was discussed by John Blank, senior accountant at Mount Vernon; John Leavy, Yonkers auditor; Mrs. Edwina Carver, New Rochelle bookkeeper, and Alvin Giltz, clerk and secretary of the board in New Rochelle.

Graham Sets 'Delicate' Sermon Topic

NEW YORK (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham says his subject tonight at Madison Square Garden is "somewhat delicate for a mixed audience," but he's going to discuss it anyway.

"The Seventh Commandment—The Moral Problem,"

The Seventh Commandment forbids adultery.

And the topic for next Sunday will be "The Great Judgment Day" or "The Last Judgment."

Last night he told an audience of 17,883,558 short of the Garden's seating capacity. "You can't run up to Jesus any time and say, 'Lord, here I am' and expect to be saved."

"No one will meet Christ who hasn't come by way of the cross. . . . You must receive Christ," he said.

His subject was "The Second Coming of Christ," the text Acts 1:3-11. . . . This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven."

"Even a casual reading of the Bible would seem to indicate in any body that Christ is coming again," the evangelist said.

Like Briggs Thompson On Soviet Union

WASHINGTON (AP)—Llewellyn C. Thompson, the new U. S. Ambassador to Russia, conferred with President Eisenhower today and got "his ideas on a lot of things" dealing with the Soviet Union.

Mr. Thompson left yesterday afternoon for the conference that he plans to leave Wednesday for Vienna where he has been serving as Ambassador. He estimated it will take him three to four weeks to settle remaining business in Austria before going on to Moscow.

Panthers' Finest Batting Attack Trims Rye, 6-5

Eberwein, Finelli Spark Bellows to 9th Triumph

F. E. Bellows turned on his most impressive attack of the season to edge an invading Rye High School team, 6-5, yesterday behind the pitching and batting of John Finelli.

Finelli had his ups and downs on the hill, but he was able to turn it in on the clutch, holding the Garnets to four hits and stranding the young run on third base with one out in the seventh by getting the last two batters on strike.

Rye looked to be on the way to repeat of its earlier win over BHS when it potted up three runs on only one hit in the first inning, but the Panthers' defense held them who went the route, like they owned him, threatening in every inning and eventually breaking through for a four-run rally that decided the issue in the fourth frame.

Eberwein Doubles
The hit blow of that round, and of the game, was a base-leaving double by Howie Eberwein, 7th and 7th, Powder third baseman, who had been hitting too well for Cy Lynch's men, came up with three on one and one out, and Eberwein, 4-2, he wanted the count to be two and one and then hammered a two-bagger down the right field line to out Bellows, 4-3. Scott followed with a double to left center to make it 6-4. Eberwein, bringing over what proved to be the winning run.

Rye made its last bid in the seventh when Les Hindner led off with a triple to deep center, Lou Marchant making a great try to get the ball only to have it pop out of his glove. Finelli then fanned Haviland, but walked Prata, Prata promptly stole second, and made third as Les Scott's throw by to John Smith.

The BHS men then settled down with the pressure on to strike out Belkoning and Hughes.

Eberwein Earns
It looked like one of those games for the Panthers in the first inning as a walk, a single, and a hit batsman filled the sacks with one out. Finelli struck out Haviland, but forced in a run by passing Prata, and was fouled for a score more when Belkoning's ground went through Eberwein.

The Panthers got two back in the home half on a pass to Lee E. Powell's safety and a long drive by John Laise that took off the centerfielder's head and would have been an easy triple if Laise had remembered to slide in that. As it was he over ran the bag and was nipped by a good relay.

A walk to Hindner, a balk, and Haviland's single and that of second put Finelli in trouble in the third. Prata batted second and Scott called a pitchout on an attempted squeeze, nailing Hindner at the plate, but another pass and Roy Hughes' single scored Haviland to give the Garnets a 4-2 advantage.

DPE Hurd
The Panthers, straining to avoid plays in the second and third innings, broke through in the fourth, singles by Finelli and Laise and a walk to Marcinette setting the stage for Eberwein's blow.

Prata fanned ten and went three-for-three at the plate. Laise went hit with authority, slugging two hits in three trips, and being retired only on what was probably the longest drive of the season, a tremendous smash to far left center that was high enough to give Bellows a chance to get under it close to 400 feet away.

BHS now 8-4 on the season, closes out its campaign at Pleasantville Friday.

$1,000 Fines, Trade Rumors Jolt Yankees

CLEVELAND (AP)—The New York Yankees have lost nine of their last 15 games, they've been fined for playing a scandalous, a plush saloon—and the panic button has been pushed. Trouble is, it wasn't the world champions who did the pushing.

Word leaked out yesterday that the club had fined Hank Bauer, starter, $1,000, and Yogi Berra, $1,000 each, and Johnny Kuck, $500, for that fracas in a New York night club early in the morning of May 16.

Bauer, Martin May Go
The report no longer was confirmed by the players than by owners.

A report that Bauer and Martin are on the trading block.

A report that manager Casey Stengel and general manager George Weiss are on the market.

Bauer and Martin are on the market, it's great to be a Yankee, with Martin adding, "I hope it doesn't happen. I'm afraid to think how it would feel to play against the Yankees."

Bauer has been mentioned as a hot commodity since Spring training. So has Martin, particularly since the nightclub incident broke up his twenty-ninth birthday party.

Billy the Kid and Mantle are also on the market. The closest report is that Mantle may be traded to the Red Sox.

Yankees' Hank Bauer, starter, was fined $1,000 for playing a scandalous, a plush saloon—and the panic button has been pushed. Trouble is, it wasn't the world champions who did the pushing.

McClendon Suspended By Gaeis

Gaels are running behind schedule in their effort to play 100 games this season. Last night, for example, their return match with Fort Slocum never got off the ground as the Soldiers got their signals crossed, half the team getting lost in transit. Result: no game.

The contest will be reset for later in the season.

That wasn't the only setback for development for the Gaels. Rubie, of Roosevelt, who fired a 7-7-120 over the heavily-wooded Schenectady course. Rubie was part of the sixteen-section One and Two courses in the 1956 Open, and four Mamaroneck players, including the Section crown winner by Section Two, including the Albany area, Union Endicott players showing the way.

Pacing the MHS quartet was Roy Humphries, who shot a 38-39 in his morning round, and 42-38-30 in the afternoon round for a 137 total. Next in line was Kirby Bunnell, who had 29-42 in his first eighteen, and reversed those figures in the second to finish with a 152. John Bunnell put together rounds of 41 and 37 for a 78, and Pete Noble was two strokes back.

Mamaroneck Takes Second In State Golf Tournament

Mamaroneck High School's four-man representation made a terrific impression in its first trip to the New York State Public High School Golf finals at Schenectady yesterday, taking second place with a 632 net 18 strokes behind the champion Union - Endicott team.

The roster of Schenectady was third with a 657 total, Glen Cove, Long Island, was fourth at 668, and Eastwood, of Syracuse, was fifth at 674.

The individual title went to Paul Rubie, of Roosevelt, who fired a 77-7-120 over the heavily-wooded Schenectady course. Rubie was part of the sixteen-section One and Two courses in the 1956 Open, and four Mamaroneck players, including the Section crown winner by Section Two, including the Albany area, Union Endicott players showing the way.

Snead, Mayer Top Qualifiers For U.S. Open

Sammy Snead, fresh from his victory in the Palm Beach Open, and Dick Mayer of St. Petersburg, Fla., led the field of 18 who qualified for the U. S. Open yesterday.

Snead hit 35, 34 — 69 in the morning at Knollwood C. C., and then turned Mamaroneck C. C. in 38, 34 — 72. Mayer scored 35, 36 — 69 at Metropolis and then 36, 35 — 71 at Knollwood.

One stroke back at 142 were Jimmy Demaret of Klamath Lake, 137, 35 at Knollwood, and 68, 38 — 74 at Metropolis, and Dr. Ted Lowrey of Newton, Conn. Dr. Lowrey is the only amateur among the qualifiers although Elliott Simpson of Erie, Pa. might have made it with a 148. Simpson however graciously withdrew due to business reasons and also because he felt that "these fellows make a living out of golf, so I don't have the opportunity."

Snead's withdrawal made the task easier for everyone as the left all with 148 or better in the Open with no playoff required.

Doug Ford of Yonkers, was exempt.

Leading Westchester qualifiers were Jim Purcell, though not attached, of Elmford, 143; Mike Fatched, of Mahopac, 143; Harry Gardner of Westchester Country Club, 148; Joe Moore Jr. of Century, 148; Ross Carlo Jr. of Metropolis, 148; Fred Amos of Eyewood, 148.

Other qualifiers were fifty-year-old Gene Sarazen of Germantown, 146; Tommy Bolt of Knollwood, Calif., 146; Mike Sauchak of Crossingers, 146; Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Texas, 146; Bob Goulay of Wee Barn, 146; Gene Litter of Sanger, Calif., 148; and Fred Lee of Delrose, 148.

Podres Stops Brooks' Skid

Johnny Podres, Brooklyn's skid by snubbing, emerged as the Dodgers' No. 1 "stopper" today, just when manager Walter Alton had decided to crack down on his slumping National League champion.

The Brooks, who had lost seven of their last 12 games to fall in fourth place for the second time this season, read a "no more cracks" order from the manager yesterday after dropping four in a row. Alton figured his champs were cheap for the losses and weren't paying enough attention to baseball.

Then along came Podres, snuffing Brooks' losing skid with a neat three-hitter that quieted the ambitious Philadelphia Phillies 4-0. It was Johnny's fifth victory, his fourth shut-out, and his second time he has called a ball to a Dodger slump.

The last time the Brooks lost four in a row this season, it was the twenty-four-year-old lady who balled them out, pitching a six-hit, 3-0 decision over the New York Giants, May 1.

With the victory over the Phillies, the Dodgers climbed into third place to tie with the Milwaukee Braves, three games behind the first-place and Cincinnati Redlegs. The Phils, who have lost only two of their last eight games, were scheduled to remain in second place, 2 1/2 games short.

The Pittsburgh Pirates made three in a row over New York by beating the Giants 6-5 last night in the only other game scheduled in the majors.

Podres, who pitched a three-hit, 10 shutout against Pittsburgh in his last start, struck out nine and walked four while dropping his earned run average to 2.00 last night, and salvaging the finale of a five-game set in Philadelphia.

Big Braves by Gil Gino
The Dodgers, who had been out hit only once during the four-game set, smacked nine hits—including Gil Hodges' sixth home run and Cino Cimoli's snub, two-to-beat Roy Cavell, one of the Phillies' bright rookies. Cardwell gave several hits, struck out seven, and walked but two before giving way to a pinch hitter in the seventh.

The Braves, owing to a lead off five pitchers, ran up a 3-0 lead in the second against starter Roger Lorenz. How come back with two in the third against loser Joe Lavee. The Braves' lead was held in the top of the frame.

Beavers Rout Tigers, 17-7
Beavers took advantage of innumerable bases on balls and errors to wallop Tigers 17, in a Lamont Little League game at Cuyler Park last night.

Kick Bassett went all the way for the winners, and would have had a fine performance to his credit if it hadn't been for 77-year outfielder Matt McCollum.

Bassett gave up only six hits, but McCollum homered on the heels of a walk in the first inning, and after two more passes had put men on first and scored in the fourth, slammed a tremendous drive to center field to give to give him five RBI for the day.

Left Columbus, Billy Palagonia, and Bassett each had two hits for Beavers, who only had eight, all but made the most of the wildness of starter and loser Billy Van Hensen and his successor, Bob Ronger, and nine Tiger errors.

Serves in Japan

Pfc. George A. Rifino Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rifino of 1 Dillon Road, Larchmont, is stationed with a radio and radar operator with the Thirteenth Field Artillery at Yokohama, Japan.

Before entering the service, Pfc. Rifino was employed by the Murray Products Co. in New Rochelle. A 1955 graduate of Mamaroneck Senior High School, he received the Army Award in April, 1956, and took basic training at Fort Carson, Colo.

Power Failure

The interruption to electrical service to 418 customers of Consolidated Edison Co. last night was caused by a faulty contractor who drilled through an underground duct on Mamaroneck Avenue, a spokesman for the utility company reported today.

At 2:14 P.M. service was restored to 331 customers, and the 63 others had service restored at 2:44 P.M.

Gardens Installation

Peter Sullivan of 23 H. H. Row Drive, Larchmont, last night was installed as president of the Larchmont Gardens Civic Association at a dinner-dance attended by about 60 members and guests at the Larchmont Yacht Club.

He succeeds Lee H. Blume. Others installed are Herbert E. Leutenant, vice president; Robert Chapin, secretary, and Dr. Daniel S. Lukas, treasurer.

The affair marked the beginning of the Association's 45th year of activities on behalf of the residents of the Gardens area. Music for dancing was supplied by Ted Saporito and his orchestra.

Model Village

An article in the May-June issue of Exchange, a publication of the Metropolitan School Study Council, describes a curriculum development project group at Mamaroneck Junior High School.

The project was set up for the eighth grade by Herbert Krueger, teacher. The students built scale models of their own homes or of homes in which they would like to live. Some of the models were displayed in a local real estate office.

A section of the Village with school, churches, gas station and store was displayed in a model room. The project is the culmination of a community study of Mamaroneck and Larchmont.

Memorial Mass

The annual Memorial Mass in memory of departed members of Volunteer Engine and Hose Co. No. 1 will be held at 8 P.M. at St. Vib's Church, Mamaroneck. Members of the company, in full uniform, will assemble at headquarters at 7:30 to march in a body to the church for the memorial breakfast, at which town and village officials will be guests, will follow the Mass at the company headquarters.

Firecracker Crackdown

Alfred S. Kruehner of 18 Linden Avenue at 10:35 P.M. yesterday told Larchmont police that boys were shooting off fireworks in the Linden Avenue and Fountain Square areas.

Police searched the neighborhood but could not find the culprits.

Today Chief William Kersey of the Larchmont Police Department, Chief Paul Yerick of the Town of Mamaroneck, and Chief Jerome Givary of Mamaroneck Village served a strongly worded warning on those who shoot off fireworks. They are through fooling. 50 more warnings will be handed on in there will be arrests.

The three police chiefs agreed that the situation is dangerous, particularly in cases where the recalled "Japan" rockets are thrown from cars or automobiles. They stated that serious accidents could easily follow if these rockets when these bombs are thrown at passing cars.

Each municipality has ordinances against the use or sale of fireworks and these ordinances will be rigidly enforced, the chiefs stated.

BANQUET YIELDED OFFICER $60,000, UNION MAN SAYS

Dusted Agent of Local Tells Senate Probe of Ticket Sale Pressure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate racketeers today heard testimony that a national vice president of the Rubens Union, Max Kratstein, received some $60,000 proceeds from a June 1956 Waldorf-Astoria banquet held in his honor.

Joseph Tenczar, ousted business agent of a Brooklyn local, told the committee a story of "pressuring" of employers to buy tickets for advertising in connection with the banquet.

He said the employers so tapped were men with whom Kratstein regularly bargained for business in industry labor contracts.

$51 Tickets Pushed
Tenczar told about hitting some 60 employers for $51 banquet tickets for $50 contributions for getting advertising in the program.

Robert Kennedy, committee chairman, said he had "pressure" to get the contribution.

"I most certainly did," the witness replied.

Tenczar said when employers refused to take money, "I went to see to press them for contributions." He said he assumed they were reminded, bargaining demands might be tougher if they didn't contribute.

"I know if I were an employer I would have paid," he added.

The committee went into the story of Kratstein's banquet as a preliminary to taking testimony from James G. Gross, international president of the Rubens, about reports of gifts and other favors he had received from the union.

He also testified that he has seen about alleged misuse of funds of the local in Los Angeles.

Girard Denies Jap Stories Of Shooting

CAMP WHITTINGTON, Japan (AP)—William Girard denied today Japanese charges that he had been shot by a Japanese soldier in the Korean peninsula.

The young G. I. added, however, that he expects a fair trial in Japan.

Girard's Japanese lawyer and his U. S. Army legal adviser went to Seoul today to defend the twenty-year-old soldier in the nearby Marubashi District Court.

He said the Japanese trial is "a fair trial" and that he expects a fair trial in Japan.

At the moment of attorney's request by Girard's family, a federal judge in Washington ordered the Army not to yield the soldier to foreign custody before a hearing on an application for his release as a habeas corpus.

The United States contended Girard shot a trespasser on a U. S. military base while he was on duty, and that the U. S. Japanese lawyer said the United States provides only for the Japanese "trial" services accused of offenses committed while on their bases and off duty.

Larchmont Court Of Honor Scout De Pasquale Joins Eagles' Ranks

Neil De Pasquale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. De Pasquale of West Street, Harrison, last night was elevated to the rank of Eagle Scout during a Larchmont Scout Court at Larchmont High School.

He is the junior assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 4, Larchmont. He is also a member of the Larchmont Scout Council.

He arrived his pin from Alfred S. Kruehner, District commissioner, and in turn presented to Kruehner the Scoutmaster's pin. He also received six merit badges.

Commissioner Introduced
Theodore Fink, district chairman, was chairman of the Court of Honor. He introduced Mr. Kruehner, the national Scoutmaster, and the members of his staff.

They are Elmer Hupper, Jr. of 151 Beach Avenue, assistant district commissioner; and Neighborhood Commissioner James J. Grady of 20 Pinehurst Drive and Dr. Arthur T. Jacobs of 9 Stafford Place. His staff, he said, is in the process of expansion and every pack and troop will receive adequate commission services.

Troop 4 conducted the opening ceremony at 7:30 P.M. The closing ceremony was held at 9:30 P.M. Other advancements conferred: Troop 1, Anthony Anderson, Jeff Jackson, Robert (in parentheses); Troop 2, Charles Frew, Franklin Herrington; Troop 3, Richard O'Connell, Jacobo, Michael Reeve.

Dewey Defends Budget

NEW YORK (AP)—Former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, defending President Eisenhower's $77 billion budget, says adequate defense funds and continued foreign aid are essential to guard against the communist menace.

Warning against budget cuts by congress, he said:

"The armed communist masses number us five to one. Who is the bold soul who will stand before us and say that our allies and the great nations of the world are not vital to our freedom and our security?"

President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon telegraphed their greetings to the Republicans at the annual dinner.

Mr. Eisenhower's wife said: "This was my special achievement. I reached the board of the (carrier) Saratoga. The local response of the Republicans in New York is most heartening to me."

"With such support, gathering strength from year to year, the party reaffirms its determination to advance its program in the service of the people of the Empire State and of the nation."

Republican State Chairman L. Judson Mohrhouse called on party members to "aim for Republican victories in the municipal campaigns this year."

Mr. Mohrhouse said that despite complaints around the nation that contributions to the Republican Party have fallen since the election for last night's dinner were above last year's. He said: "I definitely believe that the New York State contributors are solidly behind the president and they are very active."

Burglars Hit Marine Corp.

Another in a series of burglaries in Mamaroneck occurred Wednesday night, Mamaroneck police learned yesterday when E. D. Chase, owner of Oceanic Marine Corp., 20 Fishermen Avenue, reported that the stockroom at his boat yard had been entered.

The break occurred between 11 P.M. and 1 A.M. Police said the intruder crawled over a display counter and the following items were missing: Two knives, one with marlinpike and pliers, $12, and one with marlinpike, $10, small compass, $1.00, and a small repair kit, $3. Total value $38.50.

End Of Atomic Tests Opposed By AEC Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—A cutoff of atomic tests would be a disappointment to whole new families of weapons "urgently needed for our defense," Atomic Energy Commission member William F. Libby told Congress yesterday.

Implicit in his statement—though not specifically mentioned—was the idea that more tests will be required to get a wartime ready for the inter-continental ballistic missile, as well as smaller weapons.

The re-entry of the high-flying ICBM into the earth's atmosphere apparently was one of the reasons Mr. Libby had in mind when he said: "With the gain in military and technical possibility of surprise attack against us has increased."

"We require new weapons of smaller size, capable of withstanding extreme conditions instantly, ready and tailored to give the defense," he added.

The AEC member's views were set out in a letter to Representative Clark Hoffman, D., Calif., which was delivered 24 hours after Mr. Hoffman's testimony before the Senate-Foreign Atomic Energy subcommittee, had asked Mr. Libby for a written statement backing up Mr. Libby's oral testimony before the committee.

The subcommittee is holding hearings on the whole subject of radioactive fallout from bomb tests, and the threat which is presented to this generation and those yet unborn.

A number of scientist witnesses have testified that the threat is a grave one—perhaps much more grave than previously published information shows.

The Eisenhower administration does not have to put into effect lower payments, since he has the final say, but there are indications he will make use of the new authority.

The Eisenhower Administration asked for authority to drop the down payments, although the floors it proposed were not quite as low as either the Senate or House voted.

The homebuilding industry has been asking for lower down payments in an effort to pull out of a slump. New housing starts have fallen below the 1 million level on an annual basis.

Present F.I.A. down payment minimums are 3 per cent on the first $10,000, 20 per cent on the next $6,000, and 30 per cent above that up to a total mortgage of $20,000.

We Require New Weapons' End Of Atomic Tests Opposed By AEC Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—A cutoff of atomic tests would be a disappointment to whole new families of weapons "urgently needed for our defense," Atomic Energy Commission member William F. Libby told Congress yesterday.

Implicit in his statement—though not specifically mentioned—was the idea that more tests will be required to get a wartime ready for the inter-continental ballistic missile, as well as smaller weapons.

The re-entry of the high-flying ICBM into the earth's atmosphere apparently was one of the reasons Mr. Libby had in mind when he said: "With the gain in military and technical possibility of surprise attack against us has increased."

"We require new weapons of smaller size, capable of withstanding extreme conditions instantly, ready and tailored to give the defense," he added.

The AEC member's views were set out in a letter to Representative Clark Hoffman, D., Calif., which was delivered 24 hours after Mr. Hoffman's testimony before the Senate-Foreign Atomic Energy subcommittee, had asked Mr. Libby for a written statement backing up Mr. Libby's oral testimony before the committee.

The subcommittee is holding hearings on the whole subject of radioactive fallout from bomb tests, and the threat which is presented to this generation and those yet unborn.

A number of scientist witnesses have testified that the threat is a grave one—perhaps much more grave than previously published information shows.

The Eisenhower administration does not have to put into effect lower payments, since he has the final say, but there are indications he will make use of the new authority.

The Eisenhower Administration asked for authority to drop the down payments, although the floors it proposed were not quite as low as either the Senate or House voted.

The homebuilding industry has been asking for lower down payments in an effort to pull out of a slump. New housing starts have fallen below the 1 million level on an annual basis.

Present F.I.A. down payment minimums are 3 per cent on the first $10,000, 20 per cent on the next $6,000, and 30 per cent above that up to a total mortgage of $20,000.

Henric, Layburn, Palmer park leads' Club dinner

Large Crowd Honors BHS Sports Squads

If the First Annual Bellows Falls Club Dinner could be used as any kind of measuring stick, BHS athletes, and even members are here to stay. Over 200 fathers, sons and well-wishers packed Tommy Chen's Casino last night to honor the finest crop of BHS athletes in many years.

Gene Rayburn, of television fame, was toastmaster for the program, which featured one of baseball's finest outfielders, Tommy Henric, and one of the nation's top speakers, Bud Palmer. Henric, a frail speaker, lined out a couple of admirable baseball anecdotes, leaning heavily on Vogt Berry, who is undoubtedly as crafty as a "character" can be without losing his franchise. Palmer, however, stole the show, perhaps inspired by his imminent fatherhood, he delivered a sincere and impassioned address to the young athletes, and it was his convincing plea to young athletes. He urged them to remember that their present glories are short-lived, and a good education will count for a lot more than do touchdowns in a few years.

Key Presides
Henry Vogt, vice president of the club, presided at the dinner. Ceremonies in place of president Bill Decker, whose father died last week.

The main part of the program was devoted to the presentation of awards to top BHS athletes in all sports. Captain Lex Scott kicked off the proceedings by presenting an autographed baseball to pitcher John Finelli, voted the most valuable player on the BHS nine last year. Coach Cy Lynch announced the Humphreys Brothers award to the most valuable Panther football player, Larry Simon, and John Knopf presented the Knopf Trophy to the most improved player, Arthur Warren, after an introduction by coach George Maier. The Bellows Soccer Award went to Dick Bursell, who scored ten goals, the presentation being made by coach Arthur Rose, on behalf of the absent Jack Hasley. Rose also announced the pre-

Westchester Women Triumph In Team Golf; Mrs. Brady Wins

Fairfield Drops WW-F Match

MAMARONECK—Westchester linkswomen retained their title as champions of the weekly one-day tourney of the Women's Westchester - Fairfield Golf Association yesterday at Winged Foot.

The host county's squad of 15 led the trophy by winning, 29 1/2 to 16 1/2, even though Westchester's No. 1 and No. 2 players lost all four of their individual matches.

Individual laurels went to Mrs. George J. Brady of Scarsdale, the Westchester Cup (Patricia Westchester Open) titleholder, who scored 82, 40-82 for the East layout Mrs. Brady, as No. 3 for Westchester,

Phils Not Fooling, Flock Still In Fog

By ED WILKS Associated Press Sports Staff

Maybe those Philadelphia Phillies aren't kidding. When they take five of seven from Cincinnati and Boston, the Red Sox gets gives up just one home run in 20 innings, it's no joke to the Phillies that just last night, with Robin—the Gopher ball—holding the rosin bag, they managed to eight hits while his mates came through with three home runs to beat the National League leader, tomorrow's Kwanias Sandlot schedule.

The Hornet slate has been curtailed due to the unhappy demise of the Yellowjackets, who have dropped out of the loop, and will forfeit their scheduled contest to Silver Streaks.

The Kwanias are getting ready to start another circuit, a Junior League for players who had not reached their 16th birthday by June 1st of this year.

Rockets Rout Dukes In MISL Tilt, 10-5

more Rocket runs in the fifth, Belkovich, DiBartolomeo and Petre followed up the boot with singles, and the Rockets scored three runs in the lower half of the inning, but the Dukes really tore into Belkovich in the sixth, a half dozen hits and two errors accounting for four runs to settle the issue.

Brady and Rosenthal paired the losers with two safeties apiece. Wedge Top and Gack tangled at Harbor Island tonight, with first baseman Tom and Gack taking at the Spellers for first by winning, and the Wedge Tops won by scoring to record if they come out on top.
