Community Calendar

The next Community Calendar is in the works, and Mrs. Robert W. Crozier of 1035 Nautilus La., Mamaroneck, as chairman for the project has issued a call to all organizations for information.

The calendar is compiled by the Parent-Teacher Council and maintained from Sept. 1 to Aug. 31 by The Daily Times. Mrs. Crozier is gathering meeting-date information —name of organization, time and place of meetings—for the year beginning next Sept. 1, when the book will be delivered to The Daily Times office for daily publication, consultation, and amplification.

All local organizations are urged to send to Mrs. Crozier as soon as possible all pertinent information on schedules starting next fall.

Additions, deletions and revisions to the current book—expiring next Aug. 31—may be phoned to The Daily Times from 1 to 5 p. m., or made in person 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. Information for the new book should be mailed to Mrs. Crozier.

Ordination Plans

Top Methodist leaders will participate in the New York East Conference May 20-24 at which Dr. Irving A. Marsland, formerly of Mamaroneck, will be ordained to the full ministry.

The conference will be held at the First Methodist Church, New Haven, and leaders taking part will be the Rev. Loyd F. Worley of Hartford, Conn., official preacher; the Rev. Roland H. Bainton of the Yale University Divinity School, who will deliver four lectures, and the Rev Ralph W. Sockman, pastor of Christ Church, New York City, who will speak May 23 in Battell Chapel of Yale University.

Dr. Marsland, a Mamaroneck dentist for 40 years, for the last 10 years has been lay pastor of the Methodist Church in Georgetown, Conn. Upon his full ordination he will become pastor of the church.

Bridge For Blind

The annual bridge of the Larchmont Lions Club will be held at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at St. Augustine's auditorium.

Proceeds of the bridge go into a special fund for blind and welfare work. Raymond Falola is chairman and Kenneth W. Robinson is in charge of ticket sales. Tickets will be available at the door.

Coffee and cake will be served during the evening.

July 4 In Flint Park

Mrs. F. Warren Green was named chairman of the Larchmont Fourth of July Committee at a meeting last night in Larchmont Village Hall.

The event will be held at Flint Park.

Other committee members are Robert MacCallum, Harry Bogart and Col. Charles Graham.

The program will include games and races for the youngsters, together with soft drinks, cookies and other light refreshments.

It is also anticipated that rides for the children will be provided.

Harry Alpiar will run the event, according to Mrs. Green, under the supervision of the committee.

Assist By Air

Police in Mamaroneck Village used ingenuity yesterday about noon when telephone service went out for about half an hour.

They contacted Town Police by radio and the town officers immediately called the phone company and had all Mamaroneck Village police calls transferred to the town.

Town police then reported the calls by radio to the village.

The combination worked beautifully thanks to the cooperation between the two departments.

The cause of the trouble, according to a Telephone Co. spokesman, was "electrical failure, producing a slow dial tone."

Phones were out from 11:25 a. m. to shortly after noon.

Return Engagement

The Rye Neck Board of Education did a double take last night.

Take No. 1 was at 8 p.m. when the board met, approved the appointment of Dr. Norman J. M Murray as new superintendent of schools, and promptly adjourned

Take No. 2 came at 8:10 p.m. when, after adjournment, a group of citizens walked in and asked that the board reconvene so that they might learn the qualifications of the new superintendent.

The board went back into session with the 20-odd persons and spent an hour and a half talking not only about the new superintendent but also about various extraneous matters.

The meeting finally broke up up about 3:45 o'clock.

THE WEATHER

OUTLOOK: WARM

Warm and humid with variable cloudiness this afternoon and tonight with chances of scattered thunder-showers; high temperature this afternoon around 80, low tonight in 60s. Partly cloudy and warm tomorrow with chance of scattered thundershowers; high near 80.

Rye Neck Gets New School Head

Long Islander Named To Succeed Dr. Hicks

DR. N. J. M. MURRAY

Dr. Norman J. M. Murray, district principal of the Town of Shelter Island, L. I., schools, was appointed last night by the Rye Neck Board of Education as superintendent of Rye Neck Schools beginning July 1.

He will succeed Dr. Alvin W. Hicks, present superintendent, who will begin a year's sabatical leave on June 30.

George Garfunkel, board president, announced that Dr. Murray has signed a three-year contract with a starting salary of $13,250 which will be increased to $13,500 the second year and to $14,000 the third year.

Fifty applications from many parts of the country were considered; of which 12 were personally interviewed by the Board, Mr. Garfunkel said.

Science Teacher

Dr. Murray began his educational career as a high school teacher of physics, chemistry and biology. He was graduated in 1937 from William and Mary College with a B. S. degree in chemistry and has taken graduate studies at new York state teachers college, Harvard University and Teachers College, Columbia.

He received his doctor's degree in 1951 from Teachers College and served as consultant there in curriculum planning.

Dr. Murray has also served as district principal and superintendent in New Jersey and New York.

He was cocaptain of the William and Mary football team and was chosen Southern Conference tackle in 1937. Dr. Murray also received his college varsity letter in track for three years.

He is a ham radio enthusiast and holds a valid license as a private airplane pilot. Dr. Murray was on active duty for five years in World War II, including two years overseas. He is a lieutenant commander in the Coast Guard inactive reserve.

Wife Seeks Master's

His wife, Christine Murray, attended Southeast Missouri State College where she majored in physical education. She is attending classes at Adelphi College seeking a master's degree in psychology.

Mrs. Murray is Parent-Teacher Association chairman for the Eastern Long Island District.

Dr. Garfunkel said Dr. Murray is an expert in curriculum studies and has made an excellent record as an administrator.

"In soliciting applications," he emphasized, "we covered the South, Midwest and even west as far as California."

The board, Mr. Garfunkel said, has spent many Saturdays during the last few months interviewing all the candidates for the superintendent's job.

"We feel convinced," he added "that we have made an excellent choice."

Unanimous Choice

Trustee William Fitts said the six members of the board all asked detailed questions of each of the candidates and there was no difference of opinion on Dr. Murray's selection.

He said he felt that any man undertaking the superintendent's position needs at least three years to do a good job.

Mrs. Ann Caucci of 1404 Stoneybrook Ave., Mamaroneck, who requested Mr. Garfunkel to elaborate on the qualifications of the new superintendent after the board had adjourned, asked what the duties of the superintendent are.

Mr. Barfunkel said the main part of the superintendent's job is to carry the message of the school board to the teaching staff and the community.

The superintendent also should make recommendations to the board, according to Mr. Garfunkel, who emphasized, however, that the final responsibility is up to the board.

All for Grouping

Asked whether Dr. Murray is in favor of grouping, Mr. Fitts said all the candidates were in favor of some form of grouping depending on the individual.

Kenneth Simon of 212 N. Barry Ave., asked Mr. Garfunkel if he could think there were too many executive meetings.

Mr. Garfunkel said he did not feel it was wise to hold a public meeting while discussing personalities.

Laundry Union Acts

5 STRUCK HOSPITALS FACE LINEN PROBLEM

NEW YORK (AP)—Five of the six nonprofit hospitals struck by non-professional workers have temporarily postponed plans to seek court injunctions against the strike, Mayor Robert F. Wagner announced today.

The sixth hospital, which had obtained an injunction, is not expected to press a contempt action immediately against the striking workers, according to the mayor.

The Amalgamated Laundry Workers Union ordered a halt to outside linen deliveries to the hospitals. Some laundering is done inside some of the hospitals, but hospital laundry workers are included in the housekeeping workers who walked out.

Workers involved in the strike by Local 1199 of the Retail Drug Employes Union also include nurses aides, kitchen help, elevator operators and orderlies.

The union called the strike in its demand for recognition as bargaining agent.

Volunteers are carrying on their work at the six hospitals, which have about 2,700 patients. About 3,500 workers are involved in the strike. The hospitals say less than half are actually striking. The union claims 95 per cent of them are out.

Belgian King: Free World Looks To U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—King Baudouin of Belgium told Congress today the free world looks to the United States for leadership in averting war.

"Where better can the free peoples of the free world look for the averting of war and death, than to your nation, so vibrant with the love of life?" he asked.

"It is unthinkable that those who spend so much to save life would ever think to destroy it!"

New Imperialism

In an 800-word address to a joint session of the Senate and House, he said he had come to this country "to register the solidarity" between the people of Belgium and the United States.

Without mentioning communism by name, Baudouin in his prepared address warned against this new kind of imperialism.

"The older imperialism sought the conquest of lands; the new seeks the mastery of intellects," he said.

Congo's Future

The King said his country is determined to permit the people of the Congo, Belgium's rich African colony, to choose their future destiny.

"As soon as they mature, as soon as they have received the loving care in education that we can give them, we shall launch them forth on their own enterprise and independent existence," Baudouin declared.

The monarch began his address thus:

"I, who am a young man, come from a country old enough to have been spoken of proudly by Julius Caesar.

"I come to a country which for centuries God kept hidden behind a veil until its appointed hour when it took into its young arms the people of the old world."

U. S. Aid Recalled

The King recalled U. S. assistance to Belgium in both world wars. "Time has not dimmed the gratitude of my people," he said.

Belgium, he said in conclusion, is confident the United States will succeed in maintaining peace.

"What is written on your coins, I have read in the hearts of the American people: 'In God We Trust,'" he said.

Soviet Move To Expand Delegates Plunges Big 4 Parley Into New Delay

SECRETARY OF STATE Christian Herter is flanked by Livingston Merchant, left, assistant secretary of state, and Llewellyn E. Thompson, U.S. ambassador to the Soviet Union, as he sits in on the formal meeting opening the conference of Big Four foreign ministers in Geneva yesterday. The conference is being held in the Palace of Nations—AP Radiophoto from Geneva.

GENEVA—The Soviet Union today demanded that two Communist satellites, Poland and Czechoslovakia, be invited to join the Big Four foreign ministers conference.

The demand had been expected and the Western foreign ministers were ready for another wrangle with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville were reported firmly agreed to reject the demand.

A Soviet spokesman said Gromyko had suggested informally to the Western ministers that the Communist side be enlarged but they "did not display a positive attitude."

The spokesman said Gromyko therefore would submit his demand formally.

Gromyko at the conference chairman for the day. The session originally had been scheduled to hear opening statements of policy from the four ministers. But it appeared that once more the conference would be delayed by controversy over procedure.

Red's Bid Beaten

By united resistance yesterday the Western three beat down Gromyko's bid to give Communist East Germany full membership in the parley instead of a limited advisory role. However, the Soviet diplomat won the right for the East and West German delegations to address the conference directly.

In demanding seats for Poland and Czechoslovakia, Gromyko wants to establish the principle of numerical parity between the West and the Communists in international power line for the West has always rejected this.

The western ministers were ready to talk this timesaver, but they were prepared to tell Gromyko that at a later stage of discussions on the German question, Poland and Czechoslovakia could be brought in along with other nations.

The West's argument is that the Soviet Union, the United States, Britain and France are primarily responsible for settling the problems of Germany, but other countries may be included when the talks get to issues of direct interest to them.

In exchange for brining in Poland and Czechsolovakia, the Western three would insist on adding Italy and perhaps one or two others.

Western delegation members said that on the basis of the showing so far, the present meeting is not likely to solve any outstanding problems. The most the Westerners hope for is Soviet agreement to refrain from sharpening the Berlin crisis and from making a separate peace treaty with East Germany in the near future.

Talks Bog Down

130 Rioting Felons Spurn Prison Offer

FORT PILLOW, Tenn. (AP) — Faced by uneasy stalemate, convicts who hold two prison farm guards as hostages, busily strengthened the barricades at their beseiged dormitory today at the Fort Pillow prison farm.

The guards were seized last night when 130 men unexpectedly rioted. They threatened to kill the guards if officers rushed the building. They demanded a conference with state officials on prison farm conditions.

Keith Hampton, state commissioner of institutions, flew in from Nashville to confer with revolt leaders. After several talks he said negotiations had bogged down.

Hampton said the convicts withdrew behind their barricade at the front door. One of them shouted, "Come in and get us."

The commissioner said the convicts were not going to dictate conditions.

'Long Hours' Derided

"If we can't control those boys, we will have to close up and quit," he said. "They're going to come out, one way or another. We can't let prisoners run the prison."

To complaints that prisoners had to work long hours in the fields, Hampton snorted: "We're not running a country club here."

Hampton was ordered to the scene by Gov. Buford Ellington a few hours after the prisoners — some of them armed with knives — seized the dormitory.

Guards J. S. Yoss, forty-nine, and Hubert Neyman, fifty-seven, were inside when the uprising flared.

The spokesman for the convicts, Leonard Thompson, twenty-six, of Minneapolis, Minn., presented the list of complaints, which ranged from bad food to alleged brutality.

Revolt Long Discussed

Thompson, serving time for burglary, said the revolt was not a sudden decision.

"We tried letters of protest to Hampton but he never got them," he said. "We talked about it for a long time. This thing goes back two or three months."

The Highway Patrol ordered about 80 men to the scene.

Raceway $$ Hearing Set By Monaghan

NEW YORK (AP)—State Harness Racing Commissioner George P. Monaghan has called a public hearing for Friday on the challenged permission granted to Yonkers Raceway to charge off $400,000 worth of restaurant equipment to a state fund.

Monaghan originally approved the outlay made for a restaurant run by the catering firm of Harold M. Stevens Inc.

The commissioner apparently reversed himself yesterday after revelation that the catering firm had loaned two million dollars to Yonkers Raceway.

The restaurant equipment was installed by the track for the Stevens firm at the new clubhouse at Yonkers.

The loan was one of a number of revelations concerning Yonkers and Roosevelt Raceways which have come after it was revealed that Monaghan was accused of violation of the code of ethics pre-

MILESTONE dating back to Colonial times was discovered yesterday during demolition of a former home for orphans on the Boston Post Rd. in Rye. Anthony Sudol, demolition contractor, left, made the discovery and reported it to The Port Chester Daily Item. Injured Girl Sues Schools For $18,000

WHITE PLAINS—

Jury trial of an $18,000 suit against the Board of Education of Union Free School District 1, Town of Mamaroneck, a principal and the owner of a horseback riding stable continued today in Supreme Court. The trial opened yesterday.

Brenda Bertole, seventeen, and her father, George Bertole, of Larchmont Acres, Larchmont, are suing the Board of Education, Charles L. Warren, principal of the Mamaroneck Ave. School, and John C. Napolitano, owner of the Remuda Stables.

According to the complaint, Brenda was injured in a fall from a horse on Aug. 5, 1954, when she attended a recreation program sponsored by the Board of Education. Warren was in charge of the recreation program, which has since been suspended.

The defendants assert that no negligence has been shown and that children who joined the horseback riding class did so at their own risk and the risk of their parents.

Donald S. Wilson of the law firm of King, Edward and O'Connor is lawyer for the paintiff.

Warren Wells is lawyer for Napolitano and Robert Quinn for Warren and the Board of Education.

Justice Elbert T. Gallagher is presiding over the jury trial.

Truck Wedges Under Bridge On Fenimore

A large trailer truck was badly damaged this morning when it got jammed under the railroad bridge over Fenimore Road, Mamaroneck.

The trailer struck the top of the bridge and was caved in and police had a job to maintain traffic before the vehicle was extricated.

The truck was freed by the Mamaroneck Garage and Service Station, whose employes deflated the rear tires until the vehicle rested on its dollies and then pulled both tractor and trailer from under the undamaged bridge.

The driver was George Miller of Milford, Conn., who told police that he did not see the railroad bridge over the road.

Miller was driving south on Fenimore looking for Waverly Avenue, he said.

The truck is owned by the Reliable Steel Drum Co. of Bridgeport.

Men At United Parcel Start Moving Goods

NEW YORK (AP) — Employes of the United Parcel Service have started back to work after settlement of a three-week strike.

The strike had choked off about 125,000 parcel deliveries from metropolitan area department and specialty stores to purchasers within a 50-mile radius.

The back-to-work movement of the drivers began last night a few hours after a large group of the strikers voted approval of a new contract.

A union spokesman predicted deliveries would be "completely normal" by tomorrow morning.

Pole Topples, Trains Late

NEW YORK (AP)—Railroad service in the vicinity of 145st St. and Park Ave., the Bronx, was halted about 8 a. m. today when a pole containing a power line for the New York Central system fell across the tracks.

Police said that when the pole fell at 7:57 a. m. it dragged down several other poles, as far south as 139th St.

The four tracks, which serve both the Harlem Division of New York Central and New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroads, were without power until 8:25 a. m.

At 8:25 a. m. trains bound for Grand Central Terminal were able to proceed, but outgoing trains still were halted.

VETERAN UMP SLATED AS EMCEE OF EVENT

Veteran Major League umpire William T. Grieve will master of ceremonies at the Sports Awards Dinner, sponsored by the Rye Neck Dad's Club, May 28, according to dinner chairman Moe Kay.

The event will honor 110 Rye Neck varsity, junior varsity and freshman athletes and will be held at Tommy Chen's Casino.

A native and lifetime resident of Yonkers, Grieve spent 18 years behind the Major League plates, from 1938 until the close of the 1955 season. During that stint, he worked in five world series and two all-star games. In 1926, he coached the first American Legion World's Junior Baseball Champions in Yonkers.

Besides his baseball umpiring career which began with officiating served 30 years as referee for high school, college and professional basketball, including ten years refereeing college basketball at Madison Square Garden.

In announcing Grieve's acceptance of the invitation to emcee the Sports Awards Dinner, Kay said, "This is a man who knows the sports world from the toughest possible position."

Football star Jimmy Brown will be one of two main speakers with the others to be announced in a few days.

Now an established event to honor local athletes, the dinner will be the occasion for presentation of awards in all the major sports of Rye Neck High School.

Tickets for the occasion can be obtained through sons of Dads' Club members or from Coach "Jack" Hasley.

Brown, Lapchick, Grieve, Pace Dads' Clubs' Best Fete

Knopf, Hoeber Are Voted Rye Neck's Top Athletes

As might have been expected, the third annual Rye Neck Dad's Club dinner was what they refer to on the more theatrical pages as a stunning success. Close to 400 Rye Neck athletes and their "Dads" had a real shot at the non-tested, non-distaff side of "togetherness" at Tommy Chen's last night, and it worked out just fine—despite the weather.

The chief reason it did so was the outstanding job done by the club, by the school, and by the various well-wishers of both, who combined to rope in one of the most impressive arrays of guest stars seen in these parts since the local galaxy began to disperse.

Leading off and acting as toastmaster throughout the affair, was one of the American League's all-time great umpires, Billy Grieve, and following him was the best football player extant, Jimmy Brown, of the Cleveland National Football League team of the same name. The clean-up man was another All-Time champ, Joe Lapchick, generally regarded as the best, and certainly most experienced, coach in the basketball trade.

With all this talent, however, the evening still belonged to the Rye Neck athletes and to their coaches.

It especially belonged to Richie Knopf and Paul Hoeber, who ran away with enough awards to start a modest museum, although they still had anything but a monopoly on the trophies.

Neither of them shared in the first presentation of the night, Jimmy Warren and Bud Patterson sharing the Humphreys Award as the most valuable football players of the season.

Another tie resulted in the most-improved football player category, Hoeber and Knopf sharing the Knopf Trophy.

Coach Jack Hasley then honored the Panther's best soccer player, Tom Morton, and coach Hasley and Oliver Clowe presented the Oliver J. Clowe Jr., trophy for the most improved basketball player to Hoeber, who was an All-County honorable mention player, though he was forced to the sidelines early in the season, and participated in only six games.

Les McArdle and Roy O'Neill handed out the Harobr Island Trophy to Knopf for being the most-improved baseball player, and the Charles D. Silleck award for the most-improved member of the track team went to John Smirga, who had the second-best toss in county competition this year.

The Peter Doern trophy, given to the varsity letter amn with the highest scholastic average, went to Charlie Greene and the Varsity Club Awards, for the two members who served the Club, and through it, the school, best during the past year went to Mark Crown and Bud Patterson.

The Dads' Club also inaugurated a new award, the brainchild of Harry Simon, presenting sweaters to all athletes who had won three or more letters. Earning the first awards were Bob Bysshe, Knopf, Patterson, Goodman, Bill Pelton, Bill Landseidel, Warren, Lou Marciante, Hank Davenport, John Smith, Jim McMahon, and John Sutphen.

After the various awards committees had had their say, the Rye Neck gladiators came back to top them. Bud Patterson presiding over a string of gifts to coaches Hasley, Sniadack, (even the trackmen came through) Roy O'Neill, and John Daugherty, Charles Newand just about everybody else who helped them along in both their good and bad campaigns.

Most memorable of the ceremonies — in the more-or-less slipshod way that somehow smacks of sincerity — was the presentation of the football Rye Neck used to beat Bronxville, 28-6, in its big game last season. Footballs, actually, Knopf and Landseidel somehow getting hold of the offensive ball, inscribing it, and handing it to coach Sniadack, and going that one better by swiping the ball the Broncos used and presenting it to coach O'Neill, who tried to make sure the Panthers wouldn't get too far with it. (They lost 18 yards, total offense.)

Now all this is enough to make you cry, and that sort of thing, and you could warm up another tear if you had a mind to on an equally sincere note by the baseball team, which promised to give coach O'Neill the best present of all by winning its remaining games to cop the CWL crown.

But if you were of that turn of mind, and attended the Dinner, you wouldn't get too far. The old ump lined out a series of fine sopries about Yogi, Casey, Letty Gomez, Joe Page, and passers by; Jim Brown, a vastly entertaining speaker and the kind of man that youngsters could really take as a model sportsmen; and Lapchick, gave the boys a rare insight into professional sports.

Unfortunately, its impossible to list all the members of the Dads Club, all they have done, and all that they hope to do. Henry Toy, the president, Milt Decker, Charlie Lanza, well that's just a few, Rocco Bartlett, Rudy Peifer, Doc Parker. That makes it more than a few, but not nearly as many as deserve credit for building up what was rapidly become one of Westchester County's sports showpieces.

Jim Ferguson of Oklahoma City won the 1959 National AAU 174-pound wrestling title. He attends Michigan State.

John (Red) Marion, 43, manager of Chattanooga in the Southern Assn., made his pro basketball debut in 1933 with Chattanooga as an outfielder.

Grapplers Utter Last Moans Til Autumn On Center Mat

WHITE PLAINS—

Don't look now, pro grappling devotees, but bargain day is a-comin'.

In his final Symphony of Suet of this season mat impressario Ed Ceccolini ,oftentimes affectionately dubbed as the "Tex Richard of the Tarrytowns," has come up with a six-ply program one week from tomorrow night that threatens to be a real doozie.

Two tag-team vendettas will head the frolic featured by a grudge war (what else?) between the Grahame freres and Johnny Valentine and the Masked Marauder. (The "Masked Marauder" will actually be the veteran Killer Kowalski, incognito, so to speak, returning to settle an elderly score with Dr. Jerry Grahame. This is not supposed to be generally known, however, so please don't noise it around).

Other longtime favorites on the final menu of mayhem—before the rainy season, or something, sets in —will include Haystack Calhoun, Bull Torres, The Mighty Jumbo, Tokio Guiseppe, Don Leo Jr., Jolting Jay Terry, Hombre Montana, Chief Moulting Eagle, Mount Vernon's one and only Lou (The Prince of Pepperoni) Albano and last but not least, the 1 o'clock curfew.

Seasonable or not the pastboards, at this writing, are moving like hot cakes . . . or is it applejan dowdie?

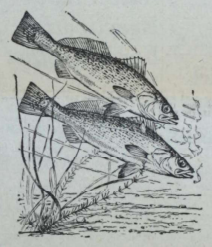
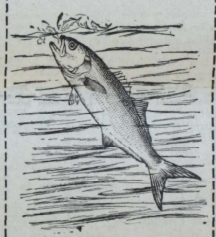
HUNTER'S

Guide to Eastern Salt Water Fish



WEAKFISH

Gets his name from his weak mouth . . . so be careful or the hook'll pull out. Most try troll or still fishing, but surf or bait casting works. The record catch is 17 lbs., 8 oz.

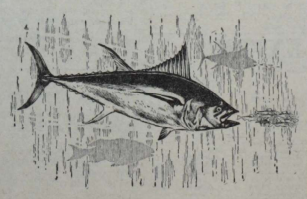


BLUEFISH

About the most voracious fish in salt water; when he takes the hook, you know it! Off New Jersey-Long Island is where. When a big school strikes, you get action. Blues taste delicious. (So does Hunter!)

BROADBILL SWORDFISH

Montauk-Block Island is the place to be. Average is 250-350 lbs. . . . known to run bigger than 860. That sword can pierce heavy oak, by the way! Talk about good eating! Swordfish steak is magnificent.



BLUEFIN TUNA

This one takes plenty of muscle to land! Can you imagine reeling in a 977-pounder—that's the world's record! If you troll for him, use feathered jigs or natural bait. And if you hook one, you've got a battle on your hands.

STRIPED BASS

If you like tangling with him, plan to head up to Vineyard Sound, Mass. for their Sept.-Oct. Striped Bass Derby. (The world's record, 73 lbs., was caught there!) Identified by his stripes, separated dorsals. Try eel for bait.

Sportsman's Guide to Fine Whiskey

4.79 4/5 qt.
3.00 FIFTH

If you want a whiskey with a light and lively taste, you want Hunter. Very easy to land in this region . . . and noted for its delicious taste. Body about 11 inches long, slender mouth. Golden color. Look for Hunter's distinctive label in your store or tavern.
