

Rye Neck Athletes Receive Letters And Awards

Kathy Aloia, Pete Tobey Top Panther Winners

The Rye Neck Dad's Club held their sports award dinner last night at the Rye Neck Gym to honor the outstanding athletes at the East End school.

Rye Neck has had a banner sports year. They have surged in every sport gaining titles in soccer, golf, tennis and wrestling.

Football, which was winless a year ago, came back and posted a 4-1 record giving coach Frank Sindal his 100th coaching win. Basketball also staged a dramatic comeback piling all the way to the semi-final round of the Section I tournament. In baseball the story was the same. The team made the Section I tournament only to be eliminated.

Girls' sports at Rye Neck had a banner year too. The field hockey team was undefeated. Shelly Dahmann won the girls' Section I gymnastic title. The Lacrosse team finished with a 5-2 season.

Of the many athletes honored at the dinner the following were singled out for special mention.

The girls' awards were given out by Miss Gail Stevenson and Miss Virginia Lemmerman. Kathy Aloia had an exceptional career gaining the outstanding athlete award, majorette, field hockey, volleyball, and lacrosse awards.

Others taking awards were, basketball, Donna Coffin; tennis, Donna Magwood; most improved athlete, Chie Jacobs; cheerleaders, Johanna Lord; girl athlete with the highest average, Pat Lynch; and Kim Chis gained the Junior High award.

Boys awards

Dave Fox was elected as the most valuable football player and Jim Reed was chosen as the most improved.

In basketball, Rich Baragelini was given the most valuable player award. The outstanding wrestler honor was shared by Pete Fasolino and Scott Chapin. While the most improved wrestler was given to Chris Fasolino.

Mark Carrol took the soccer award and Mike Paul received the cross-country award. Gary Gerretsen cupped the baseball award and Fred Krasne garnered the track prize.

The outstanding tennis player was Jeff Berman. Joe Collica was the outstanding golfer.

Jeff Pickard was selected as the scholar-athlete while Scott Fallon of the football team won the sportsmanship award.

Pete Tobey of the track team was selected as the Outstanding Athlete of the Year for his efforts on the under paths.

The dinner committee headed by Orlando Ciraco, who also acted as master of ceremonies, did a fine job of accommodating the 400 plus people in attendance. Others members of the committee were John Gerretsen and Al Particelli.

Dave Herman of the Jets was the guest speaker and he was well received by the athletes, their friends and coaches.

Mrs. Hory Triumphs In WW-F

EASTCHESTER—

Continuing her domination of the Women's Westchester Fairfield Golf Association, Mrs. Thomas Hory of Winged Field, the association champion, won the weekly one-day event, Thursday at Lerwood for the second successive week.

Carding 40-42.82, through scattered showers over the often hilly 5,558 yard par-36 77 layout, the Winged Fielder finished four strokes ahead of Mrs. Alan Becker of Westchester CC.

Mrs. Harry Day of Woodway (46-10), Mrs. John Rosewood of St. Andrew's (46-49) and Mrs. Henry Kirkland of Anawans (43-49) with 88, were the only others in the field of 12 to break 90 on a course which played heavy and long.

Mrs. Rosewood posted 89-15—74, two better than Mrs. Hory, who was not eligible for the first net prize. After a blind draw of the net 77 cards, Mrs. Sherwood Romney of Scarsdale won second prize. Mrs. Otto Schaeffer of Knochwood the third and Mrs. Robert Stewart of Wykagyl fourth.

Mrs. Donald Brooks of Pelham, who used 29 green strokes on route, took home the putting trophy because three players—Mrs. Hory, Mrs. Bonney and Mrs. Brockwell—each 37, were not eligible for additional awards.
